Numbers 14:7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, “The land which we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land.

Numbers 14:8 “If the LORD is pleased with us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us— a land which flows with milk and honey.

Numbers 14:9 “Only do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they will be our prey. Their protection has been removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them.”

Numbers 14:10 But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of the LORD appeared in the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel.

Numbers 14:11 The LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people spurn Me? And how long will they not believe in Me, despite all the signs which I have performed in their midst?

Numbers 14:12 “I will smite them with pestilence and dispossess them, and I will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they.”

Numbers 14:13 But Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your strength You brought up this people from their midst, Numbers 14:14 and they will tell [it] to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, O LORD, are in the midst of this people, for You, O LORD, are seen eye to eye, while Your cloud stands over them; and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

Numbers 14:15 “Now if You slay this people as one man, then the nations who have heard of Your fame will say,

Numbers 14:16 ‘Because the LORD could not bring this people into the land which He promised them by oath, therefore He slaughtered them in the wilderness.’

Numbers 14:17 “But now, I pray, let the power of the Lord be great, just as You have declared,

Numbers 14:18 ‘The LORD is slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He will by no means clear [the guilty], visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth [generations].’

Numbers 14:19 “Pardon, I pray, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness, just as You also have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.”

Numbers 14:20 So the LORD said, “I have pardoned [them] according to your word;

Numbers 14:21 but indeed, as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD.

Numbers 14:22 “Surely all the men who have seen My glory and My signs which I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have put Me to the test these ten times and have not listened to My voice, Numbers 14:23 shall by no means see the land which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who spurned Me see it.

Numbers 14:24 “But My servant Caleb, because he has had a different spirit and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land which he entered, and his descendants shall take possession of it.

Numbers 14:25 “Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the valleys; turn tomorrow and set out to the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.”

Numbers 14:26 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Numbers 14:27 “How long [shall I bear] with this evil congregation who are grumbling against Me? I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel, which they are making against Me.

Numbers 14:28 “Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the LORD, ‘just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will surely do to you;

Numbers 14:29 your corpses will fall in this wilderness, even all your numbered men, according to your complete number from twenty years old and upward, who have grumbled against Me.

Numbers 14:30 ‘Surely you shall not come into the land in which I swore to settle you, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 14:31 ‘Your children, however, whom you said would become a prey— I will bring them in, and they will know the land which you have rejected.

Numbers 14:32 ‘But as for you, your corpses will fall in this wilderness.

Numbers 14:33 ‘Your sons shall be shepherds for forty years in the wilderness, and they will suffer [for] your unfaithfulness, until your corpses lie in the wilderness.

Numbers 14:34 ‘According to the number of days which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day you shall bear your guilt a year, [even] forty years, and you will know My opposition.

Numbers 14:35 ‘I, the LORD, have spoken, surely this I will do to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be destroyed, and there they will die.’“

Numbers 14:36 As for the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land and who returned and made all the congregation grumble against him by bringing out a bad report concerning the land,

Numbers 14:37 even those men who brought out the very bad report of the land died by a plague before the LORD.

Numbers 14:38 But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive out of those men who went to spy out the land.

Numbers 14:39 When Moses spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people mourned greatly.

Numbers 14:40 In the morning, however, they rose up early and went up to the ridge of the hill country, saying, “Here we are; we have indeed sinned, but we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised.”

Numbers 14:41 But Moses said, “Why then are you transgressing the commandment of the LORD, when it will not succeed?

Numbers 14:42 “Do not go up, or you will be struck down before your enemies, for the LORD is not among you.

Numbers 14:43 “For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will be there in front of you, and you will fall by the sword, inasmuch as you have turned back from following the LORD. And the LORD will not be with you.”

Numbers 14:44 But they went up heedlessly to the ridge of the hill country; neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses left the camp.

Numbers 14:45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down, and struck them and beat them down as far as Hormah.

Numbers 15:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 15:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land where you are to live, which I am giving you,

Numbers 15:3 then make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfill a special vow, or as a freewill offering or in your appointed times, to make a soothing aroma to the LORD, from the herd or from the flock.

Numbers 15:4 ‘The one who presents his offering shall present to the LORD a grain offering of one-tenth [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of oil,

Numbers 15:5 and you shall prepare wine for the drink offering, one-fourth of a hin, with the burnt offering or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

Numbers 15:6 ‘Or for a ram you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil;

Numbers 15:7 and for the drink offering you shall offer one-third of a hin of wine as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:8 ‘When you prepare a bull as a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a special vow, or for peace offerings to the LORD,

Numbers 15:9 then you shall offer with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with one-half a hin of oil;

Numbers 15:10 and you shall offer as the drink offering one-half a hin of wine as an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:11 ‘Thus it shall be done for each ox, or for each ram, or for each of the male lambs, or of the goats.

Numbers 15:12 ‘According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do for everyone according to their number.

Numbers 15:13 ‘All who are native shall do these things in this manner, in presenting an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:14 'If an alien sojourns with you, or one who may be among you throughout your generations, and he [wishes to] make an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD, just as you do so he shall do.

Numbers 15:15 '[As for] the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the alien who sojourns [with you], a perpetual statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the alien be before the LORD.

Numbers 15:16 'There is to be one law and one ordinance for you and for the alien who sojourns with you.'"

Numbers 15:17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 15:18 "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you enter the land where I bring you,

Numbers 15:19 then it shall be, that when you eat of the food of the land, you shall lift up an offering to the LORD.

Numbers 15:20 'Of the first of your dough you shall lift up a cake as an offering; as the offering of the threshing floor, so you shall lift it up.

Numbers 15:21 'From the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD an offering throughout your generations.

Numbers 15:22 'But when you unwittingly fail and do not observe all these commandments, which the LORD has spoken to Moses,

Numbers 15:23 [even] all that the LORD has commanded you through Moses, from the day when the LORD gave commandment and onward throughout your generations,

Numbers 15:24 then it shall be, if it is done unintentionally, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one bull for a burnt offering, as a soothing aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering.

Numbers 15:25 'Then the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and they will be forgiven; for it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error.

Numbers 15:26 'So all the congregation of the sons of Israel will be forgiven, with the alien who sojourns among them, for [it happened] to all the people through error.

Numbers 15:27 'Also if one person sins unintentionally, then he shall offer a one year old female goat for a sin offering.

Numbers 15:28 'The priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the person who goes astray when he sins unintentionally, making atonement for him that he may be forgiven.

Numbers 15:29 'You shall have one law for him who does [anything] unintentionally, for him who is native among the sons of Israel and for the alien who sojourns among them.

Numbers 15:30 'But the person who does [anything] defiantly, whether he is native or an alien, that one is blaspheming the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from among his people.

Numbers 15:31 'Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his guilt [will be] on him.'"

Numbers 15:32 Now while the sons of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering wood on the sabbath day.

Numbers 15:33 Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation;

Numbers 15:34 and they put him in custody because it had not been declared what should be done to him.

Numbers 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp."

Numbers 15:36 So all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death with stones, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 15:37 The LORD also spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 15:38 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them that they shall make for themselves tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and that they shall put on the tassel of each corner a cord of blue.

Numbers 15:39 "It shall be a tassel for you to look at and remember all the commandments of the LORD, so as to do them and not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you played the harlot, Numbers 15:40 so that you may remember to do all My commandments and be holy to your God.

Numbers 15:41 "I am the LORD your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt to be your God; I am the LORD your God."

Numbers 16:1 Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took [action],

Numbers 16:2 and they rose up before Moses, together with some of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, chosen in the assembly, men of renown.

Numbers 16:3 They assembled together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "You have gone far enough, for all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is in their midst; so why do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?”

Numbers 16:4 When Moses heard [this], he fell on his face;

Numbers 16:5 and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, “Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who is His, and who is holy, and will bring [him] near to Himself; even the one whom He will choose, He will bring near to Himself.

Numbers 16:6 “Do this: take censers for yourselves, Korah and all your company, Numbers 16:7 and put fire in them, and lay incense upon them in the presence of the LORD tomorrow; and the man whom the LORD chooses [shall be] the one who is holy. You have gone far enough, you sons of Levi!”

Numbers 16:8 Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi,

Numbers 16:9 is it not enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the [rest of] the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them;

Numbers 16:10 and that He has brought you near, [Korah], and all your brothers, sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking for the priesthood also?

Numbers 16:11 “Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD; but as for Aaron, who is he that you grumble against him?”

Numbers 16:12 Then Moses sent a summons to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; but they said, “We will not come up.

Numbers 16:13 “Is it not enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to have us die in the wilderness, but you would also lord it over us?

Numbers 16:14 “Indeed, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor have you given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Would you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!”

Numbers 16:15 Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, “Do not regard their offering! I have not taken a single donkey from them, nor have I done harm to any of them.”

Numbers 16:16 Moses said to Korah, “You and all your company be present before the LORD tomorrow, both you and they along with Aaron.

Numbers 16:17 “Each of you take his firepan and put incense on it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty firepans; also you and Aaron [shall] each [bring] his firepan.”

Numbers 16:18 So they each took his [own] censer and put fire on it, and laid incense on it; and they stood at the doorway of the tent of meeting, with Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 16:19 Thus Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the doorway of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

Numbers 16:20 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Numbers 16:21 “Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them instantly.”

Numbers 16:22 But they fell on their faces and said, “O God, God of the spirits of all flesh, when one man sins, will You be angry with the entire congregation?”

Numbers 16:23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 16:24 “Speak to the congregation, saying, ‘Get back from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.’“

Numbers 16:25 Then Moses arose and went to Dathan and Abiram, with the elders of Israel following him,

Numbers 16:26 and he spoke to the congregation, saying, “Depart now from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing that belongs to them, or you will be swept away in all their sin.”

Numbers 16:27 So they got back from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out [and] stood at the doorway of their tents, along with their wives and their sons and their little ones.

Numbers 16:28 Moses said, “By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these deeds; for this is not my doing.

Numbers 16:29 “If these men die the death of all men or if they suffer the fate of all men, [then] the LORD has not sent me.

Numbers 16:30 “But if the LORD brings about an entirely new thing and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that is theirs, and they descend alive into Sheol, then you will understand that these men have spurned the LORD.”

Numbers 16:31 As he finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them split open;

Numbers 16:32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the men who belonged to Korah with [their] possessions.

Numbers 16:33 So they and all that belonged to them went down alive to Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.

Numbers 16:34 All Israel who [were] around them fled at their outcry, for they said, “The earth may swallow us up!”

Numbers 16:35 Fire also came forth from the LORD and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering the incense.

Numbers 16:36 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 16:37 "Say to Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, that he shall take up the censers out of the midst of the blaze, for they are holy; and you scatter the burning coals abroad.

Numbers 16:38 "As for the censers of these men who have sinned at the cost of their lives, let them be made into hammered sheets for a plating of the altar, since they did present them before the LORD and they are holy; and they shall be for a sign to the sons of Israel."

Numbers 16:39 So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers which the men who were burned had offered, and they hammered them out as a plating for the altar,

Numbers 16:40 as a reminder to the sons of Israel that no layman who is not of the descendants of Aaron should come near to burn incense before the LORD; so that he will not become like Korah and his company— just as the LORD had spoken to him through Moses.

Numbers 16:41 But on the next day all the congregation of the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You are the ones who have caused the death of the LORD'S people."

Numbers 16:42 It came about, however, when the congregation had assembled against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tent of meeting, and behold, the cloud covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Numbers 16:43 Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 16:44 and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 16:45 "Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them instantly." Then they fell on their faces.

Numbers 16:46 Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer and put in it fire from the altar, and lay incense [on it]; then bring it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone forth from the LORD, the plague has begun!"

Numbers 16:47 Then Aaron took [it] as Moses had spoken, and ran into the midst of the assembly, for behold, the plague had begun among the people. So he put [on] the incense and made atonement for the people.

Numbers 16:48 He took his stand between the dead and the living, so that the plague was checked.

Numbers 16:49 But those who died by the plague were 14,700, besides those who died on account of Korah.

Numbers 16:50 Then Aaron returned to Moses at the doorway of the tent of meeting, for the plague had been checked.

Numbers 17:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 17:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, and get from them a rod for each father’s household: twelve rods, from all their leaders according to their fathers’ households. You shall write each name on his rod,

Numbers 17:3 and write Aaron’s name on the rod of Levi; for there is one rod for the head [of each] of their fathers’ households.

Numbers 17:4 “You shall then deposit them in the tent of meeting in front of the testimony, where I meet with you.

Numbers 17:5 “It will come about that the rod of the man whom I choose will sprout. Thus I will lessen from upon Myself the grumblings of the sons of Israel, who are grumbling against you.”

Numbers 17:6 Moses therefore spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers’ households, twelve rods, with the rod of Aaron among their rods.

Numbers 17:7 So Moses deposited the rods before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.

Numbers 17:8 Now on the next day Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted and put forth buds and produced blossoms, and it bore ripe almonds.

Numbers 17:9 Moses then brought out all the rods from the presence of the LORD to all the sons of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

Numbers 17:10 But the LORD said to Moses, “Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony to be kept as a sign against the rebels, that you may put an end to their grumblings against Me, so that they will not die.”

Numbers 17:11 Thus Moses did; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

Numbers 17:12 Then the sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Behold, we perish, we are dying, we are all dying!

Numbers 17:13 “Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of the LORD, must die. Are we to perish completely?”

Numbers 18:1 So the LORD said to Aaron, “You and your sons and your father’s household with you shall bear the guilt in connection with the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the guilt in connection with your priesthood.

Numbers 18:2 “But bring with you also your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be joined with you and serve you, while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony.

Numbers 18:3 “And they shall thus attend to your obligation and the obligation of all the tent, but they shall not come near to the furnishings of the sanctuary and the altar, or both they and you will die.

Numbers 18:4 “They shall be joined with you and attend to the obligations of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; but an outsider may not come near you.

Numbers 18:5 “So you shall attend to the obligations of the sanctuary and the obligations of the altar, so that there will no longer be wrath on the sons of Israel.

Numbers 18:6 “Behold, I Myself have taken your fellow Levites from among the sons of Israel; they are a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD, to perform the service for the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:7 “But you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything concerning the altar and inside the veil, and you are to perform service. I am giving you the priesthood as a bestowed service, but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death.”

Numbers 18:8 Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, “Now behold, I Myself have given you charge of My offerings, even all the holy gifts of the sons of Israel I have given them to you as a portion and to your sons as a perpetual allotment.

Numbers 18:9 “This shall be yours from the most holy [gifts reserved] from the fire; every offering of theirs, even every grain offering and every sin offering and every guilt offering, which they shall render to Me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons.

Numbers 18:10 “As the most holy [gifts] you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.

Numbers 18:11 “This also is yours, the offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel; I have given them to you and to your sons and daughters with you as a perpetual allotment. Everyone of your household who is clean may eat it.

Numbers 18:12 “All the best of the fresh oil and all the best of the fresh wine and of the grain, the first fruits of those which they give to the LORD, I give them to you.

Numbers 18:13 “The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone of your household who is clean may eat it.

Numbers 18:15 “Every first issue of the womb of all flesh, whether man or animal, which they offer to the LORD, shall be yours; nevertheless the firstborn of man you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.

Numbers 18:16 “As to their redemption price, from a month old you shall redeem them, by your valuation, five shekels in silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

Numbers 18:17 “But the firstborn of an ox or the firstborn of a sheep or the firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar and shall offer up their fat in smoke [as] an offering by fire, for a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 18:19 “All the offerings of the holy [gifts], which the sons of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and your daughters with you, as a perpetual allotment. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before the LORD to you and your descendants with you.”

Numbers 18:20 Then the LORD said to Aaron, “You shall have no inheritance in their land nor own any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the sons of Israel.

Numbers 18:21 “To the sons of Levi, behold, I have given all the tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they perform, the service of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:22 “The sons of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting again, or they will bear sin and die.

Numbers 18:23 “Only the Levites shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, and among the sons of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

Numbers 18:24 “For the tithe of the sons of Israel, which they offer as an offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance; therefore I have said concerning them, ‘They shall have no inheritance among the sons of Israel.’“

Numbers 18:25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 18:26 “Moreover, you shall speak to the Levites and say to them, ‘When you take from the sons of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall present an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe.

Numbers 18:27 ‘Your offering shall be reckoned to you as the grain from the threshing floor or the full produce from the wine vat.

Numbers 18:28 ‘So you shall also present an offering to the LORD from your tithes, which you receive from the sons of Israel; and from it you shall give the LORD’S offering to Aaron the priest.

Numbers 18:29 ‘Out of all your gifts you shall present every offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, the sacred part from them.’

Numbers 18:30 “You shall say to them, ‘When you have offered from it the best of it, then [the rest] shall be reckoned to the Levites as the product of the threshing floor, and as the product of the wine vat.

Numbers 18:31 ‘You may eat it anywhere, you and your households, for it is your compensation in return for your service in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:32 ‘You will bear no sin by reason of it when you have offered the best of it. But you shall not profane the sacred gifts of the sons of Israel, or you will die.’“

Numbers 19:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Numbers 19:2 “This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying, ‘Speak to the sons of Israel that they bring you an unblemished red heifer in which is no defect [and] on which a yoke has never been placed.

Numbers 19:3 ‘You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and it shall be brought outside the camp and be slaughtered in his presence.

Numbers 19:4 ‘Next Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle some of its blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.

Numbers 19:5 ‘Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight; its hide and its flesh and its blood, with its refuse, shall be burned.

Numbers 19:6 ‘The priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet [material] and cast it into the midst of the burning heifer.

Numbers 19:7 ‘The priest shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward come into the camp, but the priest shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:8 ‘The one who burns it shall also wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:9 ‘Now a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place, and the congregation of the sons of Israel shall keep it as water to remove impurity; it is purification from sin.

Numbers 19:10 ‘The one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening; and it shall be a perpetual statute to the sons of Israel and to the alien who sojourns among them.

Numbers 19:11 ‘The one who touches the corpse of any person shall be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:12 ‘That one shall purify himself from uncleanness with the water on the third day and on the seventh day, [and then] he will be clean; but if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean.

Numbers 19:13 ‘Anyone who touches a corpse, the body of a man who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from Israel. Because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him.

Numbers 19:14 ‘This is the law when a man dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent and everyone who is in the tent shall be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:15 ‘Every open vessel, which has no covering tied down on it, shall be unclean.

Numbers 19:16 ‘Also, anyone who in the open field touches one who has been slain with a sword or who has died [naturally], or a human bone or a grave, shall be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:17 ‘Then for the unclean [person] they shall take some of the ashes of the burnt purification from sin and flowing water shall be added to them in a vessel.

Numbers 19:18 ‘A clean person shall take hyssop and dip [it] in the water, and sprinkle [it] on the tent and on all the furnishings and on the persons who were there, and on the one who touched the bone or the one slain or the one dying [naturally] or the grave.

Numbers 19:19 ‘Then the clean [person] shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify him from uncleanness, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe [himself] in water and shall be clean by evening.

Numbers 19:20 ‘But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself from uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD; the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him, he is unclean.

Numbers 19:21 ‘So it shall be a perpetual statute for them. And he who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:22 ‘Furthermore, anything that the unclean [person] touches shall be unclean; and the person who touches [it] shall be unclean until evening.’“

Numbers 20:1 Then the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, came to the wilderness of Zin in the first month; and the people stayed at Kadesh. Now Miriam died there and was buried there.

Numbers 20:2 There was no water for the congregation, and they assembled themselves against Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 20:3 The people thus contended with Moses and spoke, saying, “If only we had perished when our brothers perished before the LORD!

Numbers 20:4 “Why then have you brought the LORD’S assembly into this wilderness, for us and our beasts to die here?

Numbers 20:5 “Why have you made us come up from Egypt, to bring us in to this wretched place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, nor is there water to drink.”

Numbers 20:6 Then Moses and Aaron came in from the presence of the assembly to the doorway of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to them;

Numbers 20:7 and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 20:8 “Take the rod; and you and your brother Aaron assemble the congregation and speak to the rock before their eyes, that it may yield its water. You shall thus bring forth water for them out of the rock and let the congregation and their beasts drink.”

Numbers 20:9 So Moses took the rod from before the LORD, just as He had commanded him;

Numbers 20:10 and Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly before the rock. And he said to them, “Listen now, you rebels; shall we bring forth water for you out of this rock?”

Numbers 20:11 Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation and their beasts drank.

Numbers 20:12 But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you have not believed Me, to treat Me as holy in the sight of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

Numbers 20:13 Those [were] the waters of Meribah, because the sons of Israel contended with the LORD, and He proved Himself holy among them.

Numbers 20:14 From Kadesh Moses then sent messengers to the king of Edom: “Thus your brother Israel has said, ‘You know all the hardship that has befallen us;

Numbers 20:15 that our fathers went down to Egypt, and we stayed in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians treated us and our fathers badly.

Numbers 20:16 ‘But when we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out from Egypt; now behold, we are at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.

Numbers 20:17 ‘Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or through vineyard; we will not even drink water from a well. We will go along the king’s highway, not turning to the right or left, until we pass through your territory.’“

Numbers 20:18 Edom, however, said to him, “You shall not pass through us, or I will come out with the sword against you.”

Numbers 20:19 Again, the sons of Israel said to him, “We will go up by the highway, and if I and my livestock do drink any of your water, then I will pay its price. Let me only pass through on my feet, nothing [else].”

Numbers 20:20 But he said, “You shall not pass through.” And Edom came out against him with a heavy force and with a strong hand.

Numbers 20:21 Thus Edom refused to allow Israel to pass through his territory; so Israel turned away from him.

Numbers 20:22 Now when they set out from Kadesh, the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor by the border of the land of Edom, saying, Numbers 20:24 “Aaron will be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the sons of Israel, because you rebelled against My command at the waters of Meribah.

Numbers 20:25 “Take Aaron and his son Eleazar and bring them up to Mount Hor; Numbers 20:26 and strip Aaron of his garments and put them on his son Eleazar. So Aaron will be gathered [to his people], and will die there.”

Numbers 20:27 So Moses did just as the LORD had commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

Numbers 20:28 After Moses had stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on his son Eleazar, Aaron died there on the mountain top. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

Numbers 20:29 When all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

Numbers 21:1 When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, then he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.

Numbers 21:2 So Israel made a vow to the LORD and said, “If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.”

Numbers 21:3 The LORD heard the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites; then they utterly destroyed them and their cities. Thus the name of the place was called Hormah.

Numbers 21:4 Then they set out from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and the people became impatient because of the journey.

Numbers 21:5 The people spoke against God and Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this miserable food.”

Numbers 21:6 The LORD sent fiery serpents among the people and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.

Numbers 21:7 So the people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD and you; intercede with the LORD, that He may remove the serpents from us.” And Moses interceded for the people.

Numbers 21:8 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Make a fiery [serpent], and set it on a standard; and it shall come about, that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, he will live.”

Numbers 21:9 And Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on the standard; and it came about, that if a serpent bit any man, when he looked to the bronze serpent, he lived.

Numbers 21:10 Now the sons of Israel moved out and camped in Oboth.

Numbers 21:11 They journeyed from Oboth and camped at Iyeabarim, in the wilderness which is opposite Moab, to the east.

Numbers 21:12 From there they set out and camped in Wadi Zered.

Numbers 21:13 From there they journeyed and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorites, for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

Numbers 21:14 Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, “Waheb in Suphah, And the wadis of the Arnon, Numbers 21:15 And the slope of the wadis That extends to the site of Ar, And leans to the border of Moab.”

Numbers 21:16 From there [they continued] to Beer, that is the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Assemble the people, that I may give them water.”

Numbers 21:17 Then Israel sang this song: “Spring up, O well! Sing to it!

Numbers 21:18 “The well, which the leaders sank, Which the nobles of the people dug, With the scepter [and] with their staffs.” And from the wilderness [they continued] to Mattanah,

Numbers 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the land of Moab, at the top of Pisgah which overlooks the wasteland.

Numbers 21:21 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying,

Numbers 21:22 “Let me pass through your land. We will not turn off into field or vineyard; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the king’s highway until we have passed through your border.”

Numbers 21:23 But Sihon would not permit Israel to pass through his border. So Sihon gathered all his people and went out against Israel in the wilderness, and came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.

Numbers 21:24 Then Israel struck him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the sons of Ammon; for the border of the sons of Ammon [was] Jazer.

Numbers 21:25 Israel took all these cities and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all her villages.

Numbers 21:26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.

Numbers 21:27 Therefore those who use proverbs say, “Come to Heshbon! Let it be built! So let the city of Sihon be established.

Numbers 21:28 “For a fire went forth from Heshbon, A flame from the town of Sihon; It devoured Ar of Moab, The dominant heights of the Arnon.

Numbers 21:29 “Woe to you, O Moab! You are ruined, O people of Chemosh! He has given his sons as fugitives, And his daughters into captivity, To an Amorite king, Sihon.

Numbers 21:30 “But we have cast them down, Heshbon is ruined as far as Dibon, Then we have laid waste even to Nophah, Which [reaches] to Medeba.”

Numbers 21:32 Moses sent to spy out Jazer, and they captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who [were] there.

Numbers 21:33 Then they turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og the king of Bashan went out with all his people, for battle at Edrei.

Numbers 21:34 But the LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand, and all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.”

Numbers 21:35 So they killed him and his sons and all his people, until there was no remnant left him; and they possessed his land.

Numbers 22:1 Then the sons of Israel journeyed, and camped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan [opposite] Jericho.

Numbers 22:2 Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

Numbers 22:3 So Moab was in great fear because of the people, for they were numerous; and Moab was in dread of the sons of Israel.

Numbers 22:4 Moab said to the elders of Midian, “Now this horde will lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field.” And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.

Numbers 22:5 So he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, at Pethor, which is near the River, [in] the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying, “Behold, a people came out of Egypt; behold, they cover the surface of the land, and they are living opposite me.

Numbers 22:6 “Now, therefore, please come, curse this people for me since they are too mighty for me; perhaps I may be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land. For I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.”

Numbers 22:7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the [fees for] divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam and repeated Balak’s words to him.

Numbers 22:8 He said to them, “Spend the night here, and I will bring word back to you as the LORD may speak to me.” And the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam.

Numbers 22:9 Then God came to Balaam and said, “Who are these men with you?”

Numbers 22:10 Balaam said to God, “Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent [word] to me,

Numbers 22:11 ‘Behold, there is a people who came out of Egypt and they cover the surface of the land; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I may be able to fight against them and drive them out.’“

Numbers 22:12 God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.”

Numbers 22:13 So Balaam arose in the morning and said to Balak’s leaders, “Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”

Numbers 22:14 The leaders of Moab arose and went to Balak and said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”

Numbers 22:15 Then Balak again sent leaders, more numerous and more distinguished than the former.

Numbers 22:16 They came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, ‘Let nothing, I beg you, hinder you from coming to me;

Numbers 22:17 for I will indeed honor you richly, and I will do whatever you say to me. Please come then, curse this people for me.’“

Numbers 22:18 Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, “Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything, either small or great, contrary to the command of the LORD my God.

Numbers 22:19 “Now please, you also stay here tonight, and I will find out what else the LORD will speak to me.”

Numbers 22:20 God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “If the men have come to call you, rise up [and] go with them; but only the word which I speak to you shall you do.”

Numbers 22:21 So Balaam arose in the morning, and saddled his donkey and went with the leaders of Moab.

Numbers 22:22 But God was angry because he was going, and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey and his two servants were with him.

Numbers 22:23 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand, the donkey turned off from the way and went into the field; but Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back into the way.

Numbers 22:24 Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path of the vineyards, [with] a wall on this side and a wall on that side.

Numbers 22:25 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed herself to the wall and pressed Balaam’s foot against the wall, so he struck her again.

Numbers 22:26 The angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn to the right hand or the left.

Numbers 22:27 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam was angry and struck the donkey with his stick.

Numbers 22:28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?”

Numbers 22:29 Then Balaam said to the donkey, “Because you have made a mockery of me! If there had been a sword in my hand, I would have killed you by now.”

Numbers 22:30 The donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I ever been accustomed to do so to you?” And he said, “No.”

Numbers 22:31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed all the way to the ground.

Numbers 22:32 The angel of the LORD said to him, “Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out as an adversary, because your way was contrary to me.

Numbers 22:33 “But the donkey saw me and turned aside from me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, I would surely have killed you just now, and let her live.”

Numbers 22:34 Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, “I have sinned, for I did not know that you were standing in the way against me. Now then, if it is displeasing to you, I will turn back.”

Numbers 22:35 But the angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but you shall speak only the word which I tell you.” So Balaam went along with the leaders of Balak.

Numbers 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, which is on the Arnon border, at the extreme end of the border.

Numbers 22:37 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not urgently send to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I really unable to honor you?”

Numbers 22:38 So Balaam said to Balak, “Behold, I have come now to you! Am I able to speak anything at all? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I shall speak.”

Numbers 22:39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth.

Numbers 22:40 Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent [some] to Balaam and the leaders who were with him.

Numbers 22:41 Then it came about in the morning that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high places of Baal, and he saw from there a portion of the people.

Numbers 23:1 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here.”

Numbers 23:2 Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand beside your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you.” So he went to a bare hill.

Numbers 23:4 Now God met Balaam, and he said to Him, “I have set up the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.”

Numbers 23:5 Then the LORD put a word in Balaam’s mouth and said, “Return to Balak, and you shall speak thus.”

Numbers 23:6 So he returned to him, and behold, he was standing beside his burnt offering, he and all the leaders of Moab.

Numbers 23:7 He took up his discourse and said, “From Aram Balak has brought me, Moab’s king from the mountains of the East, ‘Come curse Jacob for me, And come, denounce Israel!’

Numbers 23:8 “How shall I curse whom God has not cursed? And how can I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?

Numbers 23:9 “As I see him from the top of the rocks, And I look at him from the hills; Behold, a people [who] dwells apart, And will not be reckoned among the nations.

Numbers 23:10 “Who can count the dust of Jacob, Or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the upright, And let my end be like his!”

Numbers 23:11 Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have actually blessed them!”

Numbers 23:12 He replied, “Must I not be careful to speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?”

Numbers 23:13 Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place from where you may see them, although you will only see the extreme end of them and will not see all of them; and curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:14 So he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on [each] altar.

Numbers 23:15 And he said to Balak, “Stand here beside your burnt offering while I myself meet [the LORD] over there.”

Numbers 23:16 Then the LORD met Balaam and put a word in his mouth and said, “Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak.”

Numbers 23:17 He came to him, and behold, he was standing beside his burnt offering, and the leaders of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, “What has the LORD spoken?”

Numbers 23:18 Then he took up his discourse and said, “Arise, O Balak, and hear; Give ear to me, O son of Zippor!

Numbers 23:19 “God is not a man, that He should lie, Nor a son of man, that He should repent; Has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?

Numbers 23:20 “Behold, I have received [a command] to bless; When He has blessed, then I cannot revoke it.

Numbers 23:21 “He has not observed misfortune in Jacob; Nor has He seen trouble in Israel; The LORD his God is with him, And the shout of a king is among them.

Numbers 23:22 “God brings them out of Egypt, He is for them like the horns of the wild ox.

Numbers 23:23 “For there is no omen against Jacob, Nor is there any divination against Israel; At the proper time it shall be said to Jacob And to Israel, what God has done!

Numbers 23:24 “Behold, a people rises like a lioness, And as a lion it lifts itself; It will not lie down until it devours the prey, And drinks the blood of the slain.”

Numbers 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Do not curse them at all nor bless them at all!”

Numbers 23:26 But Balaam replied to Balak, “Did I not tell you, ‘Whatever the LORD speaks, that I must do ‘?”

Numbers 23:27 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will be agreeable with God that you curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:29 Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars for me here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here.”

Numbers 23:30 Balak did just as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull and a ram on [each] altar.

Numbers 24:1 When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as at other times to seek omens but he set his face toward the wilderness.

Numbers 24:2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes and saw Israel camping tribe by tribe; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

Numbers 24:3 He took up his discourse and said, “The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor, And the oracle of the man whose eye is opened;

Numbers 24:4 The oracle of him who hears the words of God, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, yet having his eyes uncovered,

Numbers 24:7 “Water will flow from his buckets, And his seed [will be] by many waters, And his king shall be higher than Agag, And his kingdom shall be exalted.

Numbers 24:8 “God brings him out of Egypt, He is for him like the horns of the wild ox. He will devour the nations [who are] his adversaries, And will crush their bones in pieces, And shatter [them] with his arrows.

Numbers 24:9 “He couches, he lies down as a lion, And as a lion, who dares rouse him? Blessed is everyone who blesses you, And cursed is everyone who curses you.”

Numbers 24:10 Then Balak’s anger burned against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have persisted in blessing them these three times!

Numbers 24:11 “Therefore, flee to your place now. I said I would honor you greatly, but behold, the LORD has held you back from honor.”

Numbers 24:12 Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not tell your messengers whom you had sent to me, saying,

Numbers 24:13 ‘Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything contrary to the command of the LORD, either good or bad, of my own accord. What the LORD speaks, that I will speak ‘?

Numbers 24:14 “And now, behold, I am going to my people; come, [and] I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the days to come.”

Numbers 24:15 He took up his discourse and said, “The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor, And the oracle of the man whose eye is opened,

Numbers 24:16 The oracle of him who hears the words of God, And knows the knowledge of the Most High, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, yet having his eyes uncovered.

Numbers 24:17 “I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near; A star shall come forth from Jacob, A scepter shall rise from Israel, And shall crush through the forehead of Moab, And tear down all the sons of Sheth.

Numbers 24:18 “Edom shall be a possession, Seir, its enemies, also will be a possession, While Israel performs valiantly.

Numbers 24:20 And he looked at Amalek and took up his discourse and said, “Amalek was the first of the nations, But his end [shall be] destruction.”

Numbers 24:21 And he looked at the Kenite, and took up his discourse and said, “Your dwelling place is enduring, And your nest is set in the cliff.

Numbers 24:22 “Nevertheless Kain will be consumed; How long will Asshur keep you captive?”

Numbers 24:23 Then he took up his discourse and said, “Alas, who can live except God has ordained it?

Numbers 24:24 “But ships [shall come] from the coast of Kittim, And they shall afflict Asshur and will afflict Eber; So they also [will come] to destruction.”

Numbers 24:25 Then Balaam arose and departed and returned to his place, and Balak also went his way.

Numbers 25:1 While Israel remained at Shittim, the people began to play the harlot with the daughters of Moab.

Numbers 25:2 For they invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

Numbers 25:3 So Israel joined themselves to Baal of Peor, and the LORD was angry against Israel.

Numbers 25:4 The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of the people and execute them in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel."

Numbers 25:5 So Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Each of you slay his men who have joined themselves to Baal of Peor."

Numbers 25:6 Then behold, one of the sons of Israel came and brought to his relatives a Midianite woman, in the sight of Moses and in the sight of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, while they were weeping at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 25:7 When Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he arose from the midst of the congregation and took a spear in his hand,

Numbers 25:8 and he went after the man of Israel into the tent and pierced both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman, through the body. So the plague on the sons of Israel was checked.

Numbers 25:9 Those who died by the plague were 24,000.

Numbers 25:10 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 25:11 "Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned away My wrath from the sons of Israel in that he was jealous with My jealousy among them, so that I did not destroy the sons of Israel in My jealousy.

Numbers 25:12 "Therefore say, 'Behold, I give him My covenant of peace; Numbers 25:13 and it shall be for him and his descendants after him, a covenant of a perpetual priesthood, because he was jealous for his God and made atonement for the sons of Israel.'"

Numbers 25:14 Now the name of the slain man of Israel who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father's household among the Simeonites.

Numbers 25:15 The name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was head of the people of a father's household in Midian.

Numbers 25:16 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 25:17 "Be hostile to the Midianites and strike them;

Numbers 25:18 for they have been hostile to you with their tricks, with which they have deceived you in the affair of Peor and in the affair of Cozbi, the daughter of the leader of Midian, their sister who was slain on the day of the plague because of Peor."

Numbers 26:1 Then it came about after the plague, that the LORD spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying,

Numbers 26:2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' households, whoever is able to go out to war in Israel."

Numbers 26:3 So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

Numbers 26:4 "[Take a census of the people] from twenty years old and upward, as the LORD has commanded Moses." Now the sons of Israel who came out of the land of Egypt [were]:

Numbers 26:5 Reuben, Israel's firstborn, the sons of Reuben: [of] Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites;

Numbers 26:6 of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

Numbers 26:7 These are the families of the Reubenites, and those who were numbered of them were 43,730.

Numbers 26:8 The son of Pallu: Eliab.

Numbers 26:9 The sons of Eliab: Nemuel and Dathan and Abiram. These are the Dathan and Abiram who were called by the congregation, who contended against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the LORD,

Numbers 26:10 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up along with Korah, when that company died, when the fire devoured 250 men, so that they became a warning.

Numbers 26:11 The sons of Korah, however, did not die.

Numbers 26:12 The sons of Simeon according to their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites;

Numbers 26:13 of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites.

Numbers 26:14 These are the families of the Simeonites, 22,200.

Numbers 26:15 The sons of Gad according to their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites;

Numbers 26:16 of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites;

Numbers 26:17 of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Arelites.

Numbers 26:18 These are the families of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered of them, 40,500.

Numbers 26:19 The sons of Judah [were] Er and Onan, but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 26:20 The sons of Judah according to their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Perezites; of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.

Numbers 26:21 The sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.

Numbers 26:22 These are the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them, 76,500.

Numbers 26:23 The sons of Issachar according to their families: [of] Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the family of the Punites;

Numbers 26:25 These are the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them, 64,300.

Numbers 26:26 The sons of Zebulun according to their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.

Numbers 26:27 These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them, 60,500.

Numbers 26:28 The sons of Joseph according to their families: Manasseh and Ephraim.

Numbers 26:29 The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir became the father of Gilead: of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.

Numbers 26:30 These are the sons of Gilead: [of] Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;

Numbers 26:31 and [of] Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and [of] Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;

Numbers 26:32 and [of] Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and [of] Hepher, the family of the Hepherites.

Numbers 26:33 Now Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but only daughters; and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

Numbers 26:34 These are the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were 52,700.

Numbers 26:35 These are the sons of Ephraim according to their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

Numbers 26:37 These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them, 32,500. These are the sons of Joseph according to their families.

Numbers 26:38 The sons of Benjamin according to their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites;

Numbers 26:39 of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.

Numbers 26:40 The sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: [of Ard], the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.

Numbers 26:41 These are the sons of Benjamin according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were 45,600.

Numbers 26:42 These are the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan according to their families.

Numbers 26:43 All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were 64,400.

Numbers 26:44 The sons of Asher according to their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.

Numbers 26:45 Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.

Numbers 26:47 These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered of them, 53,400.

Numbers 26:48 The sons of Naphtali according to their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites;

Numbers 26:50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were 45,400.

Numbers 26:51 These are those who were numbered of the sons of Israel, 601,730.

Numbers 26:52 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 26:53 “Among these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

Numbers 26:54 “To the larger [group] you shall increase their inheritance, and to the smaller [group] you shall diminish their inheritance; each shall be given their inheritance according to those who were numbered of them.

Numbers 26:55 “But the land shall be divided by lot. They shall receive their inheritance according to the names of the tribes of their fathers.

Numbers 26:56 “According to the selection by lot, their inheritance shall be divided between the larger and the smaller [groups].”

Numbers 26:57 These are those who were numbered of the Levites according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

Numbers 26:58 These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. Kohath became the father of Amram.

Numbers 26:59 The name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram: Aaron and Moses and their sister Miriam.

Numbers 26:60 To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Numbers 26:61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

Numbers 26:62 Those who were numbered of them were 23,000, every male from a month old and upward, for they were not numbered among the sons of Israel since no inheritance was given to them among the sons of Israel.

Numbers 26:63 These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Numbers 26:64 But among these there was not a man of those who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

Numbers 26:65 For the LORD had said of them, “They shall surely die in the wilderness.” And not a man was left of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 27:1 Then the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph, came near; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah and Hoglah and Milcah and Tirzah.

Numbers 27:2 They stood before Moses and before Eleazar the priest and before the leaders and all the congregation, at the doorway of the tent of meeting, saying,

Numbers 27:3 “Our father died in the wilderness, yet he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah; but he died in his own sin, and he had no sons.

Numbers 27:4 “Why should the name of our father be withdrawn from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father’s brothers.”

Numbers 27:5 So Moses brought their case before the LORD.

Numbers 27:6 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 27:7 “The daughters of Zelophehad are right in [their] statements. You shall surely give them a hereditary possession among their father’s brothers, and you shall transfer the inheritance of their father to them.

Numbers 27:8 “Further, you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If a man dies and has no son, then you shall transfer his inheritance to his daughter.

Numbers 27:9 ‘If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

Numbers 27:10 ‘If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

Numbers 27:11 ‘If his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his nearest relative in his own family, and he shall possess it; and it shall be a statutory ordinance to the sons of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.’“ Numbers 27:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go up to this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel.

Numbers 27:13 “When you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was;

Numbers 27:14 for in the wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, you rebelled against My command to treat Me as holy before their eyes at the water.” (These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

Numbers 27:15 Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying,

Numbers 27:16 “May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, Numbers 27:17 who will go out and come in before them, and who will lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD will not be like sheep which have no shepherd.”

Numbers 27:18 So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him;

Numbers 27:20 “You shall put some of your authority on him, in order that all the congregation of the sons of Israel may obey [him].

Numbers 27:21 “Moreover, he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD. At his command they shall go out and at his command they shall come in, [both] he and the sons of Israel with him, even all the congregation.”

Numbers 27:22 Moses did just as the LORD commanded him; and he took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation.

Numbers 27:23 Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Numbers 28:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 28:2 “Command the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘You shall be careful to present My offering, My food for My offerings by fire, of a soothing aroma to Me, at their appointed time.’

Numbers 28:3 “You shall say to them, ‘This is the offering by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs one year old without defect [as] a continual burnt offering every day.

Numbers 28:4 ‘You shall offer the one lamb in the morning and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight;

Numbers 28:5 also a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil.

Numbers 28:6 ‘It is a continual burnt offering which was ordained in Mount Sinai as a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:7 ‘Then the drink offering with it [shall be] a fourth of a hin for each lamb, in the holy place you shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD.

Numbers 28:8 ‘The other lamb you shall offer at twilight; as the grain offering of the morning and as its drink offering, you shall offer it, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 28:9 ‘Then on the sabbath day two male lambs one year old without defect, and two-tenths [of an] [ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and its drink offering:

Numbers 28:10 ‘[This is] the burnt offering of every sabbath in addition to the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:11 ‘Then at the beginning of each of your months you shall present a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls and one ram, seven male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 28:12 and three-tenths [of an] [ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, for each bull; and two-tenths of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, for the one ram;

Numbers 28:13 and a tenth [of an] [ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering for each lamb, for a burnt offering of a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:14 'Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull and a third of a hin for the ram and a fourth of a hin for a lamb; this is the burnt offering of each month throughout the months of the year.

Numbers 28:15 'And one male goat for a sin offering to the LORD; it shall be offered with its drink offering in addition to the continual burnt offering.

Numbers 28:16 'Then on the fourteenth day of the first month shall be the LORD'S Passover.

Numbers 28:17 'On the fifteenth day of this month [shall be] a feast, unleavened bread [shall be] eaten for seven days.

Numbers 28:18 'On the first day [shall be] a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

Numbers 28:19 'You shall present an offering by fire, a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls and one ram and seven male lambs one year old, having them without defect.

Numbers 28:20 'For their grain offering, you shall offer fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an] [ephah] for a bull and two-tenths for the ram.

Numbers 28:21 'A tenth [of an] [ephah] you shall offer for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 28:22 and one male goat for a sin offering to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:23 'You shall present these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

Numbers 28:24 'After this manner you shall present daily, for seven days, the food of the offering by fire, of a soothing aroma to the LORD; it shall be presented with its drink offering in addition to the continual burnt offering.

Numbers 28:25 'On the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

Numbers 28:26 'Also on the day of the first fruits, when you present a new grain offering to the LORD in your [Feast of] Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

Numbers 28:27 'You shall offer a burnt offering for a soothing aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs one year old;

Numbers 28:28 and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an] [ephah] for each bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

Numbers 28:29 a tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 28:30 [also] one male goat to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:31 ‘Besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, you shall present [them] with their drink offerings. They shall be without defect.

Numbers 29:1 ‘Now in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall also have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work. It will be to you a day for blowing trumpets.

Numbers 29:2 ‘You shall offer a burnt offering as a soothing aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, [and] seven male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:3 also their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an] [ephah] for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,

Numbers 29:4 and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs.

Numbers 29:5 ‘[Offer] one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you,

Numbers 29:6 besides the burnt offering of the new moon and its grain offering, and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 29:7 ‘Then on the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall humble yourselves; you shall not do any work.

Numbers 29:8 ‘You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD [as] a soothing aroma: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs one year old, having them without defect;

Numbers 29:9 and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an] [ephah] for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

Numbers 29:10 a tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 29:11 one male goat for a sin offering, besides the sin offering of atonement and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:12 ‘Then on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work, and you shall observe a feast to the LORD for seven days.

Numbers 29:13 ‘You shall present a burnt offering, an offering by fire as a soothing aroma to the LORD: thirteen bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old, which are without defect;

Numbers 29:14 and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths [of an] [ephah] for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,

Numbers 29:15 and a tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;

Numbers 29:16 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:17 'Then on the second day: twelve bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:18 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:19 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:20 'Then on the third day: eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:21 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:22 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:23 'Then on the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:24 their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:25 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:26 'Then on the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:27 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:28 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:29 'Then on the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:30 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:31 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offerings.

Numbers 29:32 'Then on the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:33 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:34 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:35 ‘On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly; you shall do no laborious work.

Numbers 29:36 ‘But you shall present a burnt offering, an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs one year old without defect;

Numbers 29:37 their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

Numbers 29:38 and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:39 ‘You shall present these to the LORD at your appointed times, besides your votive offerings and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings and for your grain offerings and for your drink offerings and for your peace offerings.’“

Numbers 29:40 Moses spoke to the sons of Israel in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 30:1 Then Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, “This is the word which the LORD has commanded.

Numbers 30:2 “If a man makes a vow to the LORD, or takes an oath to bind himself with a binding obligation, he shall not violate his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

Numbers 30:3 “Also if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by an obligation in her father’s house in her youth,

Numbers 30:4 and her father hears her vow and her obligation by which she has bound herself, and her father says nothing to her, then all her vows shall stand and every obligation by which she has bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:5 “But if her father should forbid her on the day he hears [of it], none of her vows or her obligations by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will forgive her because her father had forbidden her.

Numbers 30:6 “However, if she should marry while under her vows or the rash statement of her lips by which she has bound herself,

Numbers 30:7 and her husband hears of it and says nothing to her on the day he hears [it], then her vows shall stand and her obligations by which she has bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:8 “But if on the day her husband hears [of it], he forbids her, then he shall annul her vow which she is under and the rash statement of her lips by which she has bound herself; and the LORD will forgive her.

Numbers 30:9 “But the vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, everything by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

Numbers 30:10 “However, if she vowed in her husband’s house, or bound herself by an obligation with an oath,

Numbers 30:11 and her husband heard [it], but said nothing to her [and] did not forbid her, then all her vows shall stand and every obligation by which she bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:12 “But if her husband indeed annuls them on the day he hears [them], then whatever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows or concerning the obligation of herself shall not stand; her husband has annulled them, and the LORD will forgive her.

Numbers 30:13 “Every vow and every binding oath to humble herself, her husband may confirm it or her husband may annul it.

Numbers 30:14 “But if her husband indeed says nothing to her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all her obligations which are on her; he has confirmed them, because he said nothing to her on the day he heard them.

Numbers 30:15 “But if he indeed annuls them after he has heard them, then he shall bear her guilt.”

Numbers 30:16 These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, [as] between a man and his wife, [and as] between a father and his daughter, [while she is] in her youth in her father’s house.

Numbers 31:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 31:2 “Take full vengeance for the sons of Israel on the Midianites; afterward you will be gathered to your people.”

Numbers 31:3 Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian to execute the LORD’S vengeance on Midian.

Numbers 31:4 “A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war.”

Numbers 31:5 So there were furnished from the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

Numbers 31:6 Moses sent them, a thousand from each tribe, to the war, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war with them, and the holy vessels and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand.

Numbers 31:7 So they made war against Midian, just as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they killed every male.

Numbers 31:8 They killed the kings of Midian along with the [rest of] their slain: Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the five kings of Midian; they also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword.

Numbers 31:9 The sons of Israel captured the women of Midian and their little ones; and all their cattle and all their flocks and all their goods they plundered.

Numbers 31:10 Then they burned all their cities where they lived and all their camps with fire.

Numbers 31:11 They took all the spoil and all the prey, both of man and of beast.

Numbers 31:12 They brought the captives and the prey and the spoil to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest and to the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan [opposite] Jericho.

Numbers 31:13 Moses and Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp.

Numbers 31:14 Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who had come from service in the war.

Numbers 31:15 And Moses said to them, “Have you spared all the women?

Numbers 31:16 “Behold, these caused the sons of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, so the plague was among the congregation of the LORD.

Numbers 31:17 “Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man intimately.

Numbers 31:18 “But all the girls who have not known man intimately, spare for yourselves.

Numbers 31:19 “And you, camp outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves, you and your captives, on the third day and on the seventh day.

Numbers 31:20 “You shall purify for yourselves every garment and every article of leather and all the work of goats’ [hair], and all articles of wood.”

Numbers 31:21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle, “This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses:

Numbers 31:22 only the gold and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin and the lead,

Numbers 31:23 everything that can stand the fire, you shall pass through the fire, and it shall be clean, but it shall be purified with water for impurity. But whatever cannot stand the fire you shall pass through the water.

Numbers 31:24 “And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may enter the camp.”

Numbers 31:25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 31:26 “You and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the fathers’ [households] of the congregation take a count of the booty that was captured, both of man and of animal;

Numbers 31:27 and divide the booty between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation.

Numbers 31:28 “Levy a tax for the LORD from the men of war who went out to battle, one in five hundred of the persons and of the cattle and of the donkeys and of the sheep;

Numbers 31:29 take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest, as an offering to the LORD.

Numbers 31:30 “From the sons of Israel’s half, you shall take one drawn out of every fifty of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys and of the sheep, from all the animals, and give them to the Levites who keep charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.”

Numbers 31:31 Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:32 Now the booty that remained from the spoil which the men of war had plundered was 675,000 sheep,

Numbers 31:33 and 72,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:34 and 61,000 donkeys,

Numbers 31:35 and of human beings, of the women who had not known man intimately, all the persons were 32,000.

Numbers 31:36 The half, the portion of those who went out to war, was [as follows]: the number of sheep was 337,500,

Numbers 31:37 and the LORD’S levy of the sheep was 675;

Numbers 31:38 and the cattle were 36,000, from which the LORD’S levy was 72;

Numbers 31:39 and the donkeys were 30,500, from which the LORD’S levy was 61;

Numbers 31:40 and the human beings were 16,000, from whom the LORD’S levy was 32 persons.

Numbers 31:41 Moses gave the levy [which was] the LORD’S offering to Eleazar the priest, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:42 As for the sons of Israel’s half, which Moses separated from the men who had gone to war—

Numbers 31:44 and 36,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:45 and 30,500 donkeys,

Numbers 31:46 and the human beings were 16,000—

Numbers 31:47 and from the sons of Israel’s half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both of man and of animals, and gave them to the Levites, who kept charge of the tabernacle of the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:48 Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, approached Moses, Numbers 31:49 and they said to Moses, “Your servants have taken a census of men of war who are in our charge, and no man of us is missing.

Numbers 31:50 “So we have brought as an offering to the LORD what each man found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.”

Numbers 31:51 Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all kinds of wrought articles.

Numbers 31:52 All the gold of the offering which they offered up to the LORD, from the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, was 16,750 shekels.

Numbers 31:54 So Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it to the tent of meeting as a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD.

Numbers 32:1 Now the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had an exceedingly large number of livestock. So when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that it was indeed a place suitable for livestock,

Numbers 32:2 the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,

Numbers 32:4 the land which the LORD conquered before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock.”

Numbers 32:5 They said, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession; do not take us across the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:6 But Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, “Shall your brothers go to war while you yourselves sit here?

Numbers 32:7 “Now why are you discouraging the sons of Israel from crossing over into the land which the LORD has given them?

Numbers 32:8 “This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

Numbers 32:9 “For when they went up to the valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the sons of Israel so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

Numbers 32:10 “So the LORD’S anger burned in that day, and He swore, saying,

Numbers 32:11 ‘None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob; for they did not follow Me fully,

Numbers 32:12 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have followed the LORD fully.’

Numbers 32:13 “So the LORD’S anger burned against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until the entire generation of those who had done evil in the sight of the LORD was destroyed.

Numbers 32:14 “Now behold, you have risen up in your fathers’ place, a brood of sinful men, to add still more to the burning anger of the LORD against Israel.

Numbers 32:15 “For if you turn away from following Him, He will once more abandon them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people.”

Numbers 32:16 Then they came near to him and said, “We will build here sheepfolds for our livestock and cities for our little ones;

Numbers 32:17 but we ourselves will be armed ready [to go] before the sons of Israel, until we have brought them to their place, while our little ones live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

Numbers 32:18 “We will not return to our homes until every one of the sons of Israel has possessed his inheritance.

Numbers 32:19 “For we will not have an inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of the Jordan toward the east.”

Numbers 32:20 So Moses said to them, “If you will do this, if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for the war,

Numbers 32:21 and all of you armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven His enemies out from before Him,

Numbers 32:22 and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you shall return and be free of obligation toward the LORD and toward Israel, and this land shall be yours for a possession before the LORD.

Numbers 32:23 “But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out.

Numbers 32:24 “Build yourselves cities for your little ones, and sheepfolds for your sheep, and do what you have promised.”

Numbers 32:25 The sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, “Your servants will do just as my lord commands.

Numbers 32:26 “Our little ones, our wives, our livestock and all our cattle shall remain there in the cities of Gilead; Numbers 32:27 while your servants, everyone who is armed for war, will cross over in the presence of the LORD to battle, just as my lord says.”

Numbers 32:28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers’ [households] of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

Numbers 32:29 Moses said to them, “If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, everyone who is armed for battle, will cross with you over the Jordan in the presence of the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession; Numbers 32:30 but if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.”

Numbers 32:31 The sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, saying, “As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.

Numbers 32:32 “We ourselves will cross over armed in the presence of the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance [shall remain] with us across the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:33 So Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Joseph’s son Manasseh, the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, the land with its cities with [their] territories, the cities of the surrounding land.

Numbers 32:35 and Atroth-shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah,

Numbers 32:36 and Beth-nimrah and Beth-haran as fortified cities, and sheepfolds for sheep.

Numbers 32:37 The sons of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kiriathaim, Numbers 32:38 and Nebo and Baal-meon— [their] names being changed— and Sibmah, and they gave [other] names to the cities which they built.

Numbers 32:39 The sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

Numbers 32:40 So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it.

Numbers 32:41 Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its towns, and called them Havvoth-jair.

Numbers 32:42 Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and called it Nobah after his own name.

Numbers 33:1 These are the journeys of the sons of Israel, by which they came out from the land of Egypt by their armies, under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 33:2 Moses recorded their starting places according to their journeys by the command of the LORD, and these are their journeys according to their starting places.

Numbers 33:3 They journeyed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the next day after the Passover the sons of Israel started out boldly in the sight of all the Egyptians, Numbers 33:4 while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn whom the LORD had struck down among them. The LORD had also executed judgments on their gods.

Numbers 33:5 Then the sons of Israel journeyed from Rameses and camped in Succoth.

Numbers 33:7 They journeyed from Etham and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, which faces Baal-zephon, and they camped before Migdol.

Numbers 33:8 They journeyed from before Hahiroth and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness; and they went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah.

Numbers 33:9 They journeyed from Marah and came to Elim; and in Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

Numbers 33:14 They journeyed from Alush and camped at Rephidim; now it was there that the people had no water to drink.

Numbers 33:24 They journeyed from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.

Numbers 33:38 Then Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there in the fortieth year after the sons of Israel had come from the land of Egypt, on the first [day] in the fifth month.

Numbers 33:39 Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Numbers 33:40 Now the Canaanite, the king of Arad who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the sons of Israel.

Numbers 33:44 They journeyed from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim, at the border of Moab.

Numbers 33:49 They camped by the Jordan, from Beth-jeshimoth as far as Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.

Numbers 33:50 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan [opposite] Jericho, saying,

Numbers 33:51 "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Numbers 33:52 then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their figured stones, and destroy all their molten images and demolish all their high places;

Numbers 33:53 and you shall take possession of the land and live in it, for I have given the land to you to possess it.

Numbers 33:54 'You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the larger you shall give more inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give less inheritance. Wherever the lot falls to anyone, that shall be his. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

Numbers 33:55 'But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall come about that those whom you let remain of them [will become] as pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will trouble you in the land in which you live.

Numbers 33:56 'And as I plan to do to them, so I will do to you.'"

Numbers 34:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 34:2 “Command the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you as an inheritance, [even the] land of Canaan according to its borders.

Numbers 34:3 ‘Your southern sector shall extend from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom, and your southern border shall extend from the end of the Salt Sea eastward.

Numbers 34:4 ‘Then your border shall turn [direction] from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim and continue to Zin, and its termination shall be to the south of Kadesh-barnea; and it shall reach Hazaraddar and continue to Azmon.

Numbers 34:5 ‘The border shall turn [direction] from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and its termination shall be at the sea.

Numbers 34:6 ‘As for the western border, you shall have the Great Sea, that is, [its] coastline; this shall be your west border.

Numbers 34:8 ‘You shall draw a line from Mount Hor to the Lebo-hamath, and the termination of the border shall be at Zedad;

Numbers 34:9 and the border shall proceed to Ziphron, and its termination shall be at Hazar-enan. This shall be your north border.

Numbers 34:10 ‘For your eastern border you shall also draw a line from Hazar-enan to Shepham,

Numbers 34:11 and the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down and reach to the slope on the east side of the Sea of Chinnereth.

Numbers 34:12 ‘And the border shall go down to the Jordan and its termination shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders all around.’“ Numbers 34:13 So Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying, “This is the land that you are to apportion by lot among you as a possession, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes.

Numbers 34:14 “For the tribe of the sons of Reuben have received [theirs] according to their fathers’ households, and the tribe of the sons of Gad according to their fathers’ households, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their possession.

Numbers 34:16 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 34:17 “These are the names of the men who shall apportion the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 34:18 “You shall take one leader of every tribe to apportion the land for inheritance.

Numbers 34:19 “These are the names of the men: of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

Numbers 34:20 “Of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Samuel the son of Ammihud.

Numbers 34:23 “Of the sons of Joseph: of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh a leader, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

Numbers 34:29 These are those whom the LORD commanded to apportion the inheritance to the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan [opposite] Jericho, saying, Numbers 35:2 “Command the sons of Israel that they give to the Levites from the inheritance of their possession cities to live in; and you shall give to the Levites pasture lands around the cities.

Numbers 35:3 “The cities shall be theirs to live in; and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle and for their herds and for all their beasts.

Numbers 35:4 “The pasture lands of the cities which you shall give to the Levites [shall extend] from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits around.

Numbers 35:5 “You shall also measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits, with the city in the center. This shall become theirs as pasture lands for the cities.

Numbers 35:6 “The cities which you shall give to the Levites [shall be] the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to; and in addition to them you shall give forty-two cities.

Numbers 35:7 “All the cities which you shall give to the Levites [shall be] forty-eight cities, together with their pasture lands.

Numbers 35:8 “As for the cities which you shall give from the possession of the sons of Israel, you shall take more from the larger and you shall take less from the smaller; each shall give some of his cities to the Levites in proportion to his possession which he inherits.”

Numbers 35:9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 35:10 “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Numbers 35:11 then you shall select for yourselves cities to be your cities of refuge, that the manslayer who has killed any person unintentionally may flee there.

Numbers 35:12 ‘The cities shall be to you as a refuge from the avenger, so that the manslayer will not die until he stands before the congregation for trial.

Numbers 35:13 ‘The cities which you are to give shall be your six cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:14 ‘You shall give three cities across the Jordan and three cities in the land of Canaan; they are to be cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:15 ‘These six cities shall be for refuge for the sons of Israel, and for the alien and for the sojourner among them; that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there.

Numbers 35:16 ‘But if he struck him down with an iron object, so that he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:17 ‘If he struck him down with a stone in the hand, by which he will die, and [as a result] he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:18 ‘Or if he struck him with a wooden object in the hand, by which he might die, and [as a result] he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:19 ‘The blood avenger himself shall put the murderer to death; he shall put him to death when he meets him.

Numbers 35:20 ‘If he pushed him of hatred, or threw something at him lying in wait and [as a result] he died, Numbers 35:21 or if he struck him down with his hand in enmity, and [as a result] he died, the one who struck him shall surely be put to death, he is a murderer; the blood avenger shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

Numbers 35:22 ‘But if he pushed him suddenly without enmity, or threw something at him without lying in wait,

Numbers 35:23 or with any deadly object of stone, and without seeing it dropped on him so that he died, while he was not his enemy nor seeking his injury,

Numbers 35:24 then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the blood avenger according to these ordinances.

Numbers 35:25 ‘The congregation shall deliver the manslayer from the hand of the blood avenger, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge to which he fled; and he shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

Numbers 35:26 ‘But if the manslayer at any time goes beyond the border of his city of refuge to which he may flee,

Numbers 35:27 and the blood avenger finds him outside the border of his city of refuge, and the blood avenger kills the manslayer, he will not be guilty of blood

Numbers 35:28 because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer shall return to the land of his possession.

Numbers 35:29 ‘These things shall be for a statutory ordinance to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Numbers 35:30 ‘If anyone kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death at the evidence of witnesses, but no person shall be put to death on the testimony of one witness.

Numbers 35:31 ‘Moreover, you shall not take ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:32 ‘You shall not take ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to live in the land before the death of the priest.

Numbers 35:33 ‘So you shall not pollute the land in which you are; for blood pollutes the land and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it.

Numbers 35:34 ‘You shall not defile the land in which you live, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD am dwelling in the midst of the sons of Israel.’“

Numbers 36:1 And the heads of the fathers’ [households] of the family of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers’ [households] of the sons of Israel, Numbers 36:2 and they said, “The LORD commanded my lord to give the land by lot to the sons of Israel as an inheritance, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.

Numbers 36:3 “But if they marry one of the sons of the [other] tribes of the sons of Israel, their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; thus it will be withdrawn from our allotted inheritance.

Numbers 36:4 “When the jubilee of the sons of Israel comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

Numbers 36:5 Then Moses commanded the sons of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, “The tribe of the sons of Joseph are right in [their] statements.

Numbers 36:6 “This is what the LORD has commanded concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, ‘Let them marry whom they wish; only they must marry within the family of the tribe of their father.’

Numbers 36:7 “Thus no inheritance of the sons of Israel shall be transferred from tribe to tribe, for the sons of Israel shall each hold to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

Numbers 36:8 “Every daughter who comes into possession of an inheritance of any tribe of the sons of Israel shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that the sons of Israel each may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

Numbers 36:9 “Thus no inheritance shall be transferred from one tribe to another tribe, for the tribes of the sons of Israel shall each hold to his own inheritance.”

Numbers 36:10 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the daughters of Zelophehad did:

Numbers 36:12 They married [those] from the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained with the tribe of the family of their father.

Numbers 36:13 These are the commandments and the ordinances which the LORD commanded to the sons of Israel through Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan [opposite] Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1:1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel across the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel and Laban and Hazeroth and Dizahab.

Deuteronomy 1:2 It is eleven days’ [journey] from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:3 In the fortieth year, on the first [day] of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD had commanded him [to give] to them,

Deuteronomy 1:4 after he had defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

Deuteronomy 1:5 Across the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to expound this law, saying, Deuteronomy 1:6 “The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, ‘You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

Deuteronomy 1:7 ‘Turn and set your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country and in the lowland and in the Negev and by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

Deuteronomy 1:8 ‘See, I have placed the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to them and their descendants after them.’

Deuteronomy 1:9 “I spoke to you at that time, saying, ‘I am not able to bear [the burden] of you alone.

Deuteronomy 1:10 ‘The LORD your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are this day like the stars of heaven in number.

Deuteronomy 1:11 ‘May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand-fold more than you are and bless you, just as He has promised you!

Deuteronomy 1:12 ‘How can I alone bear the load and burden of you and your strife?

Deuteronomy 1:13 ‘Choose wise and discerning and experienced men from your tribes, and I will appoint them as your heads.’

Deuteronomy 1:14 “You answered me and said, ‘The thing which you have said to do is good.’

Deuteronomy 1:15 “So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and appointed them heads over you, leaders of thousands and of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, and officers for your tribes.

Deuteronomy 1:16 “Then I charged your judges at that time, saying, ‘Hear [the cases] between your fellow countrymen, and judge righteously between a man and his fellow countryman, or the alien who is with him.

Deuteronomy 1:17 'You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike. You shall not fear man, for the judgment is God's. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it.'

Deuteronomy 1:18 "I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do.

Deuteronomy 1:19 "Then we set out from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, just as the LORD our God had commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:20 "I said to you, 'You have come to the hill country of the Amorites which the LORD our God is about to give us.

Deuteronomy 1:21 'See, the LORD your God has placed the land before you; go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you. Do not fear or be dismayed.'

Deuteronomy 1:22 "Then all of you approached me and said, 'Let us send men before us, that they may search out the land for us, and bring back to us word of the way by which we should go up and the cities which we shall enter.'

Deuteronomy 1:23 "The thing pleased me and I took twelve of your men, one man for each tribe.

Deuteronomy 1:24 "They turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the valley of Eshcol and spied it out.

Deuteronomy 1:25 "Then they took [some] of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they brought us back a report and said, 'It is a good land which the LORD our God is about to give us.'

Deuteronomy 1:26 "Yet you were not willing to go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God;

Deuteronomy 1:27 and you grumbled in your tents and said, 'Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us.

Deuteronomy 1:28 'Where can we go up? Our brethren have made our hearts melt, saying, "The people are bigger and taller than we; the cities are large and fortified to heaven. And besides, we saw the sons of the Anakim there."'

Deuteronomy 1:29 "Then I said to you, 'Do not be shocked, nor fear them.

Deuteronomy 1:30 'The LORD your God who goes before you will Himself fight on your behalf, just as He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, Deuteronomy 1:31 and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, just as a man carries his son, in all the way which you have walked until you came to this place.’

Deuteronomy 1:32 “But for all this, you did not trust the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 1:33 who goes before you on [your] way, to seek out a place for you to encamp, in fire by night and cloud by day, to show you the way in which you should go.

Deuteronomy 1:34 “Then the LORD heard the sound of your words, and He was angry and took an oath, saying,

Deuteronomy 1:35 ‘Not one of these men, this evil generation, shall see the good land which I swore to give your fathers,

Deuteronomy 1:36 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and to his sons I will give the land on which he has set foot, because he has followed the LORD fully.’

Deuteronomy 1:37 “The LORD was angry with me also on your account, saying, ‘Not even you shall enter there.

Deuteronomy 1:38 ‘Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall enter there; encourage him, for he will cause Israel to inherit it.

Deuteronomy 1:39 ‘Moreover, your little ones who you said would become a prey, and your sons, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, shall enter there, and I will give it to them and they shall possess it.

Deuteronomy 1:40 ‘But as for you, turn around and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea.’

Deuteronomy 1:41 “Then you said to me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD; we will indeed go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.’ And every man of you girded on his weapons of war, and regarded it as easy to go up into the hill country.

Deuteronomy 1:42 “And the LORD said to me, ‘Say to them, “Do not go up nor fight, for I am not among you; otherwise you will be defeated before your enemies.”‘

Deuteronomy 1:43 “So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. Instead you rebelled against the command of the LORD, and acted presumptuously and went up into the hill country.

Deuteronomy 1:44 “The Amorites who lived in that hill country came out against you and chased you as bees do, and crushed you from Seir to Hormah.

Deuteronomy 1:45 “Then you returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD did not listen to your voice nor give ear to you.

Deuteronomy 1:46 “So you remained in Kadesh many days, the days that you spent [there].

Deuteronomy 2:1 “Then we turned and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and circled Mount Seir for many days.

Deuteronomy 2:2 “And the LORD spoke to me, saying,

Deuteronomy 2:3 ‘You have circled this mountain long enough. [Now] turn north,

Deuteronomy 2:4 and command the people, saying, “You will pass through the territory of your brothers the sons of Esau who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. So be very careful;

Deuteronomy 2:5 do not provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land, even [as little as] a footstep because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

Deuteronomy 2:6 “You shall buy food from them with money so that you may eat, and you shall also purchase water from them with money so that you may drink.

Deuteronomy 2:7 “For the LORD your God has blessed you in all that you have done; He has known your wanderings through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have not lacked a thing.”‘

Deuteronomy 2:8 “So we passed beyond our brothers the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road, away from Elath and from Ezion-geber. And we turned and passed through by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

Deuteronomy 2:9 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Do not harass Moab, nor provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the sons of Lot as a possession.

Deuteronomy 2:10 (The Emim lived there formerly, a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakim.

Deuteronomy 2:11 Like the Anakim, they are also regarded as Rephaim, but the Moabites call them Emim.

Deuteronomy 2:12 The Horites formerly lived in Seir, but the sons of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did to the land of their possession which the LORD gave to them.)

Deuteronomy 2:13 ‘Now arise and cross over the brook Zered yourselves.’ So we crossed over the brook Zered.

Deuteronomy 2:14 “Now the time that it took for us to come from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed over the brook Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war perished from within the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them.

Deuteronomy 2:15 “Moreover the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from within the camp until they all perished.

Deuteronomy 2:16 “So it came about when all the men of war had finally perished from among the people,

Deuteronomy 2:17 that the LORD spoke to me, saying,

Deuteronomy 2:19 ‘When you come opposite the sons of Ammon, do not harass them nor provoke them, for I will not give you any of the land of the sons of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the sons of Lot as a possession.’

Deuteronomy 2:20 (It is also regarded as the land of the Rephaim, [for] Rephaim formerly lived in it, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummin,

Deuteronomy 2:21 a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakim, but the LORD destroyed them before them. And they dispossessed them and settled in their place,

Deuteronomy 2:22 just as He did for the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them; they dispossessed them and settled in their place even to this day.

Deuteronomy 2:23 And the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and lived in their place.)

Deuteronomy 2:24 ‘Arise, set out, and pass through the valley of Arnon. Look! I have given Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land into your hand; begin to take possession and contend with him in battle.

Deuteronomy 2:25 ‘This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples everywhere under the heavens, who, when they hear the report of you, will tremble and be in anguish because of you.’

Deuteronomy 2:26 “So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,

Deuteronomy 2:27 ‘Let me pass through your land, I will travel only on the highway; I will not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Deuteronomy 2:28 ‘You will sell me food for money so that I may eat, and give me water for money so that I may drink, only let me pass through on foot,

Deuteronomy 2:29 just as the sons of Esau who live in Seir and the Moabites who live in Ar did for me, until I cross over the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God is giving to us.’

Deuteronomy 2:30 “But Sihon king of Heshbon was not willing for us to pass through his land; for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, in order to deliver him into your hand, as [he is] today.

Deuteronomy 2:31 “The LORD said to me, ‘See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his land over to you. Begin to occupy, that you may possess his land.’

Deuteronomy 2:32 “Then Sihon with all his people came out to meet us in battle at Jahaz.

Deuteronomy 2:33 “The LORD our God delivered him over to us, and we defeated him with his sons and all his people.

Deuteronomy 2:34 “So we captured all his cities at that time and utterly destroyed the men, women and children of every city. We left no survivor.

Deuteronomy 2:35 “We took only the animals as our booty and the spoil of the cities which we had captured.

Deuteronomy 2:36 “From Aroer which is on the edge of the valley of Arnon and [from] the city which is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was no city that was too high for us; the LORD our God delivered all over to us.

Deuteronomy 2:37 “Only you did not go near to the land of the sons of Ammon, all along the river Jabbok and the cities of the hill country, and wherever the LORD our God had commanded us.

Deuteronomy 3:1 “Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and Og, king of Bashan, with all his people came out to meet us in battle at Edrei.

Deuteronomy 3:2 “But the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.’

Deuteronomy 3:3 “So the LORD our God delivered Og also, king of Bashan, with all his people into our hand, and we smote them until no survivor was left.

Deuteronomy 3:4 “We captured all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:5 “All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates and bars, besides a great many unwalled towns.

Deuteronomy 3:6 “We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women and children of every city.

Deuteronomy 3:7 “But all the animals and the spoil of the cities we took as our booty.

Deuteronomy 3:8 “Thus we took the land at that time from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of Arnon to Mount Hermon

Deuteronomy 3:9 (Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir):

Deuteronomy 3:10 all the cities of the plateau and all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:11 (For only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaim. Behold, his bedstead was an iron bedstead; it is in Rabbah of the sons of Ammon. Its length was nine cubits and its width four cubits by ordinary cubit.)

Deuteronomy 3:12 “So we took possession of this land at that time. From Aroer, which is by the valley of Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead and its cities I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

Deuteronomy 3:13 “The rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh, all the region of Argob (concerning all Bashan, it is called the land of Rephaim.

Deuteronomy 3:14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called it, [that is], Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth-jair, [as it is] to this day.)

Deuteronomy 3:15 “To Machir I gave Gilead.

Deuteronomy 3:16 “To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even as far as the valley of Arnon, the middle of the valley as a border and as far as the river Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon;

Deuteronomy 3:17 the Arabah also, with the Jordan as [a] border, from Chinnereth even as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

Deuteronomy 3:18 “Then I commanded you at that time, saying, ‘The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it; all you valiant men shall cross over armed before your brothers, the sons of Israel.

Deuteronomy 3:19 ‘But your wives and your little ones and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall remain in your cities which I have given you,

Deuteronomy 3:20 until the LORD gives rest to your fellow countrymen as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God will give them beyond the Jordan. Then you may return every man to his possession which I have given you.’

Deuteronomy 3:21 “I commandedJoshua at that time, saying, ‘Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so the LORD shall do to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross.

Deuteronomy 3:22 ‘Do not fear them, for the LORD your God is the one fighting for you.’

Deuteronomy 3:23 “I also pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying,

Deuteronomy 3:24 ‘O Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your strong hand; for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do such works and mighty acts as Yours?

Deuteronomy 3:25 ‘Let me, I pray, cross over and see the fair land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country and Lebanon.’

Deuteronomy 3:26 “But the LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me; and the LORD said to me, ‘Enough! Speak to Me no more of this matter.

Deuteronomy 3:27 ‘Go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes to the west and north and south and east, and see [it] with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.

Deuteronomy 3:28 ‘But charge Joshua and encourage him and strengthen him, for he shall go across at the head of this people, and he will give them as an inheritance the land which you will see.’

Deuteronomy 3:29 “So we remained in the valley opposite Beth-peor.

Deuteronomy 4:1 “Now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I am teaching you to perform, so that you may live and go in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

Deuteronomy 4:2 “You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor take away from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

Deuteronomy 4:3 “Your eyes have seen what the LORD has done in the case of Baal-peor, for all the men who followed Baal-peor, the LORD your God has destroyed them from among you.

Deuteronomy 4:4 “But you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive today, every one of you.

Deuteronomy 4:5 “See, I have taught you statutes and judgments just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do thus in the land where you are entering to possess it.

Deuteronomy 4:6 “So keep and do [them], for that is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes and say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’

Deuteronomy 4:7 “For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as is the LORD our God whenever we call on Him?

Deuteronomy 4:8 “Or what great nation is there that has statutes and judgments as righteous as this whole law which I am setting before you today?

Deuteronomy 4:9 “Only give heed to yourself and keep your soul diligently, so that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen and they do not depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your sons and your grandsons.

Deuteronomy 4:10 “[Remember] the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, ‘Assemble the people to Me, that I may let them hear My words so they may learn to fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.’

Deuteronomy 4:11 “You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the [very] heart of the heavens: darkness, cloud and thick gloom.

Deuteronomy 4:12 “Then the LORD spoke to you from the midst of the fire; you heard the sound of words, but you saw no form— only a voice.

Deuteronomy 4:13 “So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, [that is], the Ten Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone.

Deuteronomy 4:14 “The LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might perform them in the land where you are going over to possess it.

Deuteronomy 4:15 “So watch yourselves carefully, since you did not see any form on the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire,

Deuteronomy 4:16 so that you do not act corruptly and make a graven image for yourselves in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

Deuteronomy 4:17 the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky,

Deuteronomy 4:18 the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water below the earth.

Deuteronomy 4:19 “And [beware] not to lift up your eyes to heaven and see the sun and the moon and the stars, all the host of heaven, and be drawn away and worship them and serve them, those which the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole heaven.

Deuteronomy 4:20 “But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, from Egypt, to be a people for His own possession, as today.

Deuteronomy 4:21 “Now the LORD was angry with me on your account, and swore that I would not cross the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 4:22 “For I will die in this land, I shall not cross the Jordan, but you shall cross and take possession of this good land.

Deuteronomy 4:23 “So watch yourselves, that you do not forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, and make for yourselves a graven image in the form of anything [against] which the LORD your God has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 4:24 “For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

Deuteronomy 4:25 “When you become the father of children and children’s children and have remained long in the land, and act corruptly, and make an idol in the form of anything, and do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD your God [so as] to provoke Him to anger,

Deuteronomy 4:26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that you will surely perish quickly from the land where you are going over the Jordan to possess it. You shall not live long on it, but will be utterly destroyed.

Deuteronomy 4:27 “The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD drives you.

Deuteronomy 4:28 “There you will serve gods, the work of man’s hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell.

Deuteronomy 4:29 “But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find [Him] if you search for Him with all your heart and all your soul.

Deuteronomy 4:30 “When you are in distress and all these things have come upon you, in the latter days you will return to the LORD your God and listen to His voice.

Deuteronomy 4:31 “For the LORD your God is a compassionate God; He will not fail you nor destroy you nor forget the covenant with your fathers which He swore to them.

Deuteronomy 4:32 “Indeed, ask now concerning the former days which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and [inquire] from one end of the heavens to the other. Has [anything] been done like this great thing, or has [anything] been heard like it?

Deuteronomy 4:33 “Has [any] people heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as you have heard [it], and survived?

Deuteronomy 4:34 “Or has a god tried to go to take for himself a nation from within [another] nation by trials, by signs and wonders and by war and by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm and by great terrors, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

Deuteronomy 4:35 “To you it was shown that you might know that the LORD, He is God; there is no other besides Him.

Deuteronomy 4:36 “Out of the heavens He let you hear His voice to discipline you; and on earth He let you see His great fire, and you heard His words from the midst of the fire.

Deuteronomy 4:37 “Because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their descendants after them. And He personally brought you from Egypt by His great power, Deuteronomy 4:38 driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in [and] to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is today.

Deuteronomy 4:39 “Know therefore today, and take it to your heart, that the LORD, He is God in heaven above and on the earth below; there is no other.

Deuteronomy 4:40 “So you shall keep His statutes and His commandments which I am giving you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may live long on the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

Deuteronomy 4:41 Then Moses set apart three cities across the Jordan to the east,

Deuteronomy 4:42 that a manslayer might flee there, who unintentionally slew his neighbor without having enmity toward him in time past; and by fleeing to one of these cities he might live:

Deuteronomy 4:43 Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

Deuteronomy 4:44 Now this is the law which Moses set before the sons of Israel;

Deuteronomy 4:45 these are the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances which Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, when they came out from Egypt,

Deuteronomy 4:46 across the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the sons of Israel defeated when they came out from Egypt.

Deuteronomy 4:47 They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, [who were] across the Jordan to the east,

Deuteronomy 4:48 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of Arnon, even as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon), Deuteronomy 4:49 with all the Arabah across the Jordan to the east, even as far as the sea of the Arabah, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5:1 Then Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: “Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I am speaking today in your hearing, that you may learn them and observe them carefully.

Deuteronomy 5:2 “The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

Deuteronomy 5:3 “The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, [with] all those of us alive here today.

Deuteronomy 5:4 “The LORD spoke to you face to face at the mountain from the midst of the fire,

Deuteronomy 5:5 [while] I was standing between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain. He said,

Deuteronomy 5:6 ‘I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 5:7 ‘You shall have no other gods before Me.

Deuteronomy 5:8 ‘You shall not make for yourself an idol, [or] any likeness [of] what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth.

Deuteronomy 5:9 ‘You shall not worship them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the third and the fourth [generations] of those who hate Me,

Deuteronomy 5:10 but showing lovingkindness to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Deuteronomy 5:11 ‘You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not leave him unpunished who takes His name in vain.

Deuteronomy 5:12 ‘Observe the sabbath day to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.

Deuteronomy 5:13 ‘Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

Deuteronomy 5:14 but the seventh day is a sabbath of the LORD your God; [in it] you shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter or your male servant or your female servant or your ox or your donkey or any of your cattle or your sojourner who stays with you, so that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you.

Deuteronomy 5:15 ‘You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out of there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to observe the sabbath day.

Deuteronomy 5:16 ‘Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, that your days may be prolonged and that it may go well with you on the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Deuteronomy 5:17 ‘You shall not murder.

Deuteronomy 5:18 ‘You shall not commit adultery.

Deuteronomy 5:19 ‘You shall not steal.

Deuteronomy 5:21 'You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, and you shall not desire your neighbor's house, his field or his male servant or his female servant, his ox or his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.'

Deuteronomy 5:22 "These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly at the mountain from the midst of the fire, [of] the cloud and [of] the thick gloom, with a great voice, and He added no more. He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 5:23 "And when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders.

Deuteronomy 5:24 "You said, 'Behold, the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire; we have seen today that God speaks with man, yet he lives.

Deuteronomy 5:25 'Now then why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer, then we will die.

Deuteronomy 5:26 'For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we [have], and lived?

Deuteronomy 5:27 'Go near and hear all that the LORD our God says; then speak to us all that the LORD our God speaks to you, and we will hear and do [it].'

Deuteronomy 5:28 "The LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me, 'I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken.

Deuteronomy 5:29 'Oh that they had such a heart in them, that they would fear Me and keep all My commandments always, that it may be well with them and with their sons forever!

Deuteronomy 5:31 'But as for you, stand here by Me, that I may speak to you all the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may observe [them] in the land which I give them to possess.'

Deuteronomy 5:32 "So you shall observe to do just as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Deuteronomy 5:33 "You shall walk in all the way which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong [your] days in the land which you will possess.

Deuteronomy 6:1 “Now this is the commandment, the statutes and the judgments which the LORD your God has commanded [me] to teach you, that you might do [them] in the land where you are going over to possess it,

Deuteronomy 6:2 so that you and your son and your grandson might fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged.

Deuteronomy 6:3 “O Israel, you should listen and be careful to do [it], that it may be well with you and that you may multiply greatly, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you, [in] a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 6:4 “Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD is one!

Deuteronomy 6:5 “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

Deuteronomy 6:6 “These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be on your heart.

Deuteronomy 6:7 You shall teach them diligently to your sons and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.

Deuteronomy 6:8 “You shall bind them as a sign on your hand and they shall be as frontals on your forehead.

Deuteronomy 6:9 “You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:10 “Then it shall come about when the LORD your God brings you into the land which He swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to give you, great and splendid cities which you did not build,

Deuteronomy 6:11 and houses full of all good things which you did not fill, and hewn cisterns which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you eat and are satisfied,

Deuteronomy 6:12 then watch yourself, that you do not forget the LORD who brought you from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 6:13 “You shall fear [only] the LORD your God; and you shall worship Him and swear by His name.

Deuteronomy 6:14 “You shall not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who surround you, Deuteronomy 6:15 for the LORD your God in the midst of you is a jealous God; otherwise the anger of the LORD your God will be kindled against you, and He will wipe you off the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 6:16 “You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested [Him] at Massah.

Deuteronomy 6:17 “You should diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and His testimonies and His statutes which He has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 6:18 “You shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may be well with you and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to [give] your fathers, Deuteronomy 6:19 by driving out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.

Deuteronomy 6:20 “When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What [do] the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments [mean] which the LORD our God commanded you?’

Deuteronomy 6:21 then you shall say to your son, ‘We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us from Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deuteronomy 6:22 ‘Moreover, the LORD showed great and distressing signs and wonders before our eyes against Egypt, Pharaoh and all his household;

Deuteronomy 6:23 He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land which He had sworn to our fathers.’

Deuteronomy 6:24 “So the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God for our good always and for our survival, as [it is] today.

Deuteronomy 6:25 “It will be righteousness for us if we are careful to observe all this commandment before the LORD our God, just as He commanded us.

Deuteronomy 7:1 “When the LORD your God brings you into the land where you are entering to possess it, and clears away many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than you,

Deuteronomy 7:2 and when the LORD your God delivers them before you and you defeat them, then you shall utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them and show no favor to them.

Deuteronomy 7:3 “Furthermore, you shall not intermarry with them; you shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor shall you take their daughters for your sons.

Deuteronomy 7:4 “For they will turn your sons away from following Me to serve other gods; then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you and He will quickly destroy you.

Deuteronomy 7:5 “But thus you shall do to them: you shall tear down their altars, and smash their [sacred] pillars, and hew down their Asherim, and burn their graven images with fire.

Deuteronomy 7:6 “For you are a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for His own possession out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 7:7 “The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any of the peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples,

Deuteronomy 7:8 but because the LORD loved you and kept the oath which He swore to your forefathers, the LORD brought you out by a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:9 “Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments;

Deuteronomy 7:10 but repays those who hate Him to their faces, to destroy them; He will not delay with him who hates Him, He will repay him to his face.

Deuteronomy 7:11 “Therefore, you shall keep the commandment and the statutes and the judgments which I am commanding you today, to do them.

Deuteronomy 7:12 “Then it shall come about, because you listen to these judgments and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you His covenant and His lovingkindness which He swore to your forefathers.

Deuteronomy 7:13 “He will love you and bless you and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your herd and the young of your flock, in the land which He swore to your forefathers to give you.

Deuteronomy 7:14 “You shall be blessed above all peoples; there will be no male or female barren among you or among your cattle.

Deuteronomy 7:15 “The LORD will remove from you all sickness; and He will not put on you any of the harmful diseases of Egypt which you have known, but He will lay them on all who hate you.

Deuteronomy 7:16 “You shall consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God will deliver to you; your eye shall not pity them, nor shall you serve their gods, for that [would be] a snare to you.

Deuteronomy 7:17 “If you should say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?’

Deuteronomy 7:18 you shall not be afraid of them; you shall well remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt:

Deuteronomy 7:19 the great trials which your eyes saw and the signs and the wonders and the mighty hand and the outstretched arm by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.

Deuteronomy 7:21 “You shall not dread them, for the LORD your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God.

Deuteronomy 7:22 “The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you will not be able to put an end to them quickly, for the wild beasts would grow too numerous for you.

Deuteronomy 7:23 “But the LORD your God will deliver them before you, and will throw them into great confusion until they are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:24 “He will deliver their kings into your hand so that you will make their name perish from under heaven; no man will be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 7:25 “The graven images of their gods you are to burn with fire; you shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, or you will be snared by it, for it is an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 7:26 “You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and like it come under the ban; you shall utterly detest it and you shall utterly abhor it, for it is something banned.

Deuteronomy 8:1 “All the commandments that I am commanding you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore [to give] to your forefathers.

Deuteronomy 8:2 “You shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you in the wilderness these forty years, that He might humble you, testing you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

Deuteronomy 8:3 “He humbled you and let you be hungry, and fed you with manna which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you understand that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 8:4 “Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.

Deuteronomy 8:5 “Thus you are to know in your heart that the LORD your God was disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son.

Deuteronomy 8:6 “Therefore, you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.

Deuteronomy 8:7 “For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing forth in valleys and hills;

Deuteronomy 8:8 a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey;

Deuteronomy 8:9 a land where you will eat food without scarcity, in which you will not lack anything; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper.

Deuteronomy 8:10 “When you have eaten and are satisfied, you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

Deuteronomy 8:11 “Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God by not keeping His commandments and His ordinances and His statutes which I am commanding you today;

Deuteronomy 8:12 otherwise, when you have eaten and are satisfied, and have built good houses and lived [in them],

Deuteronomy 8:13 and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and gold multiply, and all that you have multiplies,

Deuteronomy 8:14 then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 8:15 “He led you through the great and terrible wilderness, [with its] fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water; He brought water for you out of the rock of flint.

Deuteronomy 8:16 “In the wilderness He fed you manna which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might test you, to do good for you in the end.

Deuteronomy 8:17 “Otherwise, you may say in your heart, ‘My power and the strength of my hand made me this wealth.’

Deuteronomy 8:18 “But you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is He who is giving you power to make wealth, that He may confirm His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as [it is] this day.

Deuteronomy 8:19 “It shall come about if you ever forget the LORD your God and go after other gods and serve them and worship them, I testify against you today that you will surely perish.

Deuteronomy 8:20 “Like the nations that the LORD makes to perish before you, so you shall perish; because you would not listen to the voice of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9:1 “Hear, O Israel! You are crossing over the Jordan today to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than you, great cities fortified to heaven,

Deuteronomy 9:2 a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know and of whom you have heard [it said], ‘Who can stand before the sons of Anak?’

Deuteronomy 9:3 “Know therefore today that it is the LORD your God who is crossing over before you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and He will subdue them before you, so that you may drive them out and destroy them quickly, just as the LORD has spoken to you.

Deuteronomy 9:4 “Do not say in your heart when the LORD your God has driven them out before you, ‘Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land,’ but [it is] because of the wickedness of these nations [that] the LORD is dispossessing them before you.

Deuteronomy 9:5 “It is not for your righteousness or for the uprightness of your heart that you are going to possess their land, but [it is] because of the wickedness of these nations [that] the LORD your God is driving them out before you, in order to confirm the oath which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 9:6 “Know, then, [it is] not because of your righteousness [that] the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stubborn people.

Deuteronomy 9:7 “Remember, do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; from the day that you left the land of Egypt until you arrived at this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

Deuteronomy 9:8 “Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that He would have destroyed you.

Deuteronomy 9:9 “When I went up to the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD had made with you, then I remained on the mountain forty days and nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water.

Deuteronomy 9:10 “The LORD gave me the two tablets of stone written by the finger of God; and on them [were] all the words which the LORD had spoken with you at the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.

Deuteronomy 9:11 “It came about at the end of forty days and nights that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

Deuteronomy 9:12 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go down from here quickly, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly. They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made a molten image for themselves.’

Deuteronomy 9:13 “The LORD spoke further to me, saying, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed, it is a stubborn people.

Deuteronomy 9:14 ‘Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.’

Deuteronomy 9:15 “So I turned and came down from the mountain while the mountain was burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

Deuteronomy 9:16 “And I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God. You had made for yourselves a molten calf; you had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.

Deuteronomy 9:17 “I took hold of the two tablets and threw them from my hands and smashed them before your eyes.

Deuteronomy 9:18 “I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you had committed in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him to anger.

Deuteronomy 9:19 “For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was wrathful against you in order to destroy you, but the LORD listened to me that time also.

Deuteronomy 9:20 “The LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him; so I also prayed for Aaron at the same time.

Deuteronomy 9:21 “I took your sinful [thing], the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it very small until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that came down from the mountain.

Deuteronomy 9:22 “Again at Taberah and at Massah and at Kibroth-hattaavah you provoked the LORD to wrath.

Deuteronomy 9:23 “When the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, ‘Go up and possess the land which I have given you,’ then you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God; you neither believed Him nor listened to His voice.

Deuteronomy 9:24 “You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day I knew you.

Deuteronomy 9:25 “So I fell down before the LORD the forty days and nights, which I did because the LORD had said He would destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:26 “I prayed to the LORD and said, ‘O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people, even Your inheritance, whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deuteronomy 9:27 ‘Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look at the stubbornness of this people or at their wickedness or their sin.

Deuteronomy 9:28 ‘Otherwise the land from which You brought us may say, “Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He had promised them and because He hated them He has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.”

Deuteronomy 9:29 ‘Yet they are Your people, even Your inheritance, whom You have brought out by Your great power and Your outstretched arm.’

Deuteronomy 10:1 “At that time the LORD said to me, ‘Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the former ones, and come up to Me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood for yourself.

Deuteronomy 10:2 ‘I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets which you shattered, and you shall put them in the ark.’

Deuteronomy 10:3 “So I made an ark of acacia wood and cut out two tablets of stone like the former ones, and went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

Deuteronomy 10:4 “He wrote on the tablets, like the former writing, the Ten Commandments which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 10:5 “Then I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, as the LORD commanded me.”

Deuteronomy 10:6 (Now the sons of Israel set out from Beeroth Bene-jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died and there he was buried and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his place.

Deuteronomy 10:7 From there they set out to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water.

Deuteronomy 10:8 At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to serve Him and to bless in His name until this day.

Deuteronomy 10:9 Therefore, Levi does not have a portion or inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God spoke to him.)

Deuteronomy 10:10 “I, moreover, stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights like the first time, and the LORD listened to me that time also; the LORD was not willing to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 10:11 “Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, proceed on your journey ahead of the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.’

Deuteronomy 10:12 “Now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require from you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, Deuteronomy 10:13 [and] to keep the LORD’S commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today for your good?

Deuteronomy 10:14 “Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the highest heavens, the earth and all that is in it.

Deuteronomy 10:15 “Yet on your fathers did the LORD set His affection to love them, and He chose their descendants after them, [even] you above all peoples, as [it is] this day.

Deuteronomy 10:16 “So circumcise your heart, and stiffen your neck no longer.

Deuteronomy 10:17 “For the LORD your God is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God who does not show partiality nor take a bribe.

Deuteronomy 10:18 “He executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and shows His love for the alien by giving him food and clothing.

Deuteronomy 10:19 “So show your love for the alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 10:20 “You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him and cling to Him, and you shall swear by His name.

Deuteronomy 10:21 “He is your praise and He is your God, who has done these great and awesome things for you which your eyes have seen.

Deuteronomy 10:22 “Your fathers went down to Egypt seventy persons [in all], and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars of heaven.

Deuteronomy 11:1 “You shall therefore love the LORD your God, and always keep His charge, His statutes, His ordinances, and His commandments.

Deuteronomy 11:2 “Know this day that I [am] not [speaking] with your sons who have not known and who have not seen the discipline of the LORD your God— His greatness, His mighty hand and His outstretched arm,

Deuteronomy 11:3 and His signs and His works which He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to all his land;

Deuteronomy 11:4 and what He did to Egypt’s army, to its horses and its chariots, when He made the water of the Red Sea to engulf them while they were pursuing you, and the LORD completely destroyed them;

Deuteronomy 11:5 and what He did to you in the wilderness until you came to this place;

Deuteronomy 11:6 and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, among all Israel—

Deuteronomy 11:7 but your own eyes have seen all the great work of the LORD which He did.

Deuteronomy 11:8 "You shall therefore keep every commandment which I am commanding you today, so that you may be strong and go in and possess the land into which you are about to cross to possess it;

Deuteronomy 11:9 so that you may prolong [your] days on the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 11:10 "For the land, into which you are entering to possess it, is not like the land of Egypt from which you came, where you used to sow your seed and water it with your foot like a vegetable garden.

Deuteronomy 11:11 "But the land into which you are about to cross to possess it, a land of hills and valleys, drinks water from the rain of heaven,

Deuteronomy 11:12 a land for which the LORD your God cares; the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning even to the end of the year.

Deuteronomy 11:13 "It shall come about, if you listen obediently to my commandments which I am commanding you today, to love the LORD your God and to serve Him with all your heart and all your soul,

Deuteronomy 11:14 that He will give the rain for your land in its season, the early and late rain, that you may gather in your grain and your new wine and your oil.

Deuteronomy 11:15 "He will give grass in your fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.

Deuteronomy 11:16 "Beware that your hearts are not deceived, and that you do not turn away and serve other gods and worship them.

Deuteronomy 11:17 "Or the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and He will shut up the heavens so that there will be no rain and the ground will not yield its fruit; and you will perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is giving you.

Deuteronomy 11:18 "You shall therefore impress these words of mine on your heart and on your soul; and you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontals on your forehead.

Deuteronomy 11:19 "You shall teach them to your sons, talking of them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road and when you lie down and when you rise up.

Deuteronomy 11:20 "You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, Deuteronomy 11:21 so that your days and the days of your sons may be multiplied on the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as long as the heavens [remain] above the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:22 “For if you are careful to keep all this commandment which I am commanding you to do, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and hold fast to Him,

Deuteronomy 11:23 then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess nations greater and mightier than you.

Deuteronomy 11:24 “Every place on which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours; your border will be from the wilderness to Lebanon, [and] from the river, the river Euphrates, as far as the western sea.

Deuteronomy 11:25 “No man will be able to stand before you; the LORD your God will lay the dread of you and the fear of you on all the land on which you set foot, as He has spoken to you.

Deuteronomy 11:26 “See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse:

Deuteronomy 11:27 the blessing, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today;

Deuteronomy 11:28 and the curse, if you do not listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I am commanding you today, by following other gods which you have not known.

Deuteronomy 11:29 “It shall come about, when the LORD your God brings you into the land where you are entering to possess it, that you shall place the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

Deuteronomy 11:30 “Are they not across the Jordan, west of the way toward the sunset, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?

Deuteronomy 11:31 “For you are about to cross the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall possess it and live in it, Deuteronomy 11:32 and you shall be careful to do all the statutes and the judgments which I am setting before you today.

Deuteronomy 12:1 “These are the statutes and the judgments which you shall carefully observe in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess as long as you live on the earth.

Deuteronomy 12:2 “You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations whom you shall dispossess serve their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.

Deuteronomy 12:3 “You shall tear down their altars and smash their [sacred] pillars and burn their Asherim with fire, and you shall cut down the engraved images of their gods and obliterate their name from that place.

Deuteronomy 12:4 “You shall not act like this toward the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 12:5 “But you shall seek [the LORD] at the place which the LORD your God will choose from all your tribes, to establish His name there for His dwelling, and there you shall come.

Deuteronomy 12:6 “There you shall bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the contribution of your hand, your votive offerings, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock.

Deuteronomy 12:7 “There also you and your households shall eat before the LORD your God, and rejoice in all your undertakings in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 12:8 “You shall not do at all what we are doing here today, every man [doing] whatever is right in his own eyes;

Deuteronomy 12:9 for you have not as yet come to the resting place and the inheritance which the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 12:10 “When you cross the Jordan and live in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies around [you] so that you live in security,

Deuteronomy 12:11 then it shall come about that the place in which the LORD your God will choose for His name to dwell, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the contribution of your hand, and all your choice votive offerings which you will vow to the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:12 “And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, since he has no portion or inheritance with you.

Deuteronomy 12:13 “Be careful that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every [cultic] place you see,

Deuteronomy 12:14 but in the place which the LORD chooses in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.

Deuteronomy 12:15 “However, you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your gates, whatever you desire, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle and the deer.

Deuteronomy 12:16 “Only you shall not eat the blood; you are to pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:17 “You are not allowed to eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or new wine or oil, or the firstborn of your herd or flock, or any of your votive offerings which you vow, or your freewill offerings, or the contribution of your hand.

Deuteronomy 12:18 “But you shall eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God will choose, you and your son and daughter, and your male and female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all your undertakings.

Deuteronomy 12:19 “Be careful that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

Deuteronomy 12:20 “When the LORD your God extends your border as He has promised you, and you say, ‘I will eat meat,’ because you desire to eat meat, [then] you may eat meat, whatever you desire.

Deuteronomy 12:21 “If the place which the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, then you may slaughter of your herd and flock which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates whatever you desire.

Deuteronomy 12:22 “Just as a gazelle or a deer is eaten, so you will eat it; the unclean and the clean alike may eat of it.

Deuteronomy 12:23 “Only be sure not to eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the flesh.

Deuteronomy 12:24 “You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:25 “You shall not eat it, so that it may be well with you and your sons after you, for you will be doing what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:26 “Only your holy things which you may have and your votive offerings, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD chooses.

Deuteronomy 12:27 “And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the flesh.

Deuteronomy 12:28 “Be careful to listen to all these words which I command you, so that it may be well with you and your sons after you forever, for you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 12:29 “When the LORD your God cuts off before you the nations which you are going in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land,

Deuteronomy 12:30 beware that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, ‘How do these nations serve their gods, that I also may do likewise?’

Deuteronomy 12:31 “You shall not behave thus toward the LORD your God, for every abominable act which the LORD hates they have done for their gods; for they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.

Deuteronomy 12:32 “Whatever I command you, you shall be careful to do; you shall not add to nor take away from it.

Deuteronomy 13:1 “If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder,

Deuteronomy 13:2 and the sign or the wonder comes true, concerning which he spoke to you, saying, ‘Let us go after other gods (whom you have not known) and let us serve them,’

Deuteronomy 13:3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams; for the LORD your God is testing you to find out if you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 13:4 “You shall follow the LORD your God and fear Him; and you shall keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him, and cling to Him.

Deuteronomy 13:5 “But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has counseled rebellion against the LORD your God who brought you from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, to seduce you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 13:6 “If your brother, your mother’s son, or your son or daughter, or the wife you cherish, or your friend who is as your own soul, entice you secretly, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods ‘ (whom neither you nor your fathers have known, Deuteronomy 13:7 of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near you or far from you, from one end of the earth to the other end),

Deuteronomy 13:8 you shall not yield to him or listen to him; and your eye shall not pity him, nor shall you spare or conceal him.

Deuteronomy 13:9 “But you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

Deuteronomy 13:10 “So you shall stone him to death because he has sought to seduce you from the LORD your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 13:11 “Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and will never again do such a wicked thing among you.

Deuteronomy 13:12 “If you hear in one of your cities, which the LORD your God is giving you to live in, [anyone] saying [that]

Deuteronomy 13:13 some worthless men have gone out from among you and have seduced the inhabitants of their city, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods ‘ (whom you have not known),

Deuteronomy 13:14 then you shall investigate and search out and inquire thoroughly. If it is true [and] the matter established that this abomination has been done among you,

Deuteronomy 13:15 you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it and all that is in it and its cattle with the edge of the sword.

Deuteronomy 13:16 “Then you shall gather all its booty into the middle of its open square and burn the city and all its booty with fire as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God; and it shall be a ruin forever. It shall never be rebuilt.

Deuteronomy 13:17 “Nothing from that which is put under the ban shall cling to your hand, in order that the LORD may turn from His burning anger and show mercy to you, and have compassion on you and make you increase, just as He has sworn to your fathers,

Deuteronomy 13:18 if you will listen to the voice of the LORD your God, keeping all His commandments which I am commanding you today, and doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 14:1 “You are the sons of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor shave your forehead for the sake of the dead.

Deuteronomy 14:2 “For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for His own possession out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 14:3 “You shall not eat any detestable thing.

Deuteronomy 14:4 “These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

Deuteronomy 14:5 the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope and the mountain sheep.

Deuteronomy 14:6 “Any animal that divides the hoof and has the hoof split in two [and] chews the cud, among the animals, that you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:7 “Nevertheless, you are not to eat of these among those which chew the cud, or among those that divide the hoof in two: the camel and the rabbit and the shaphan, for though they chew the cud, they do not divide the hoof; they are unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:8 “The pig, because it divides the hoof but [does] not [chew] the cud, it is unclean for you. You shall not eat any of their flesh nor touch their carcasses.

Deuteronomy 14:9 “These you may eat of all that are in water: anything that has fins and scales you may eat, Deuteronomy 14:10 but anything that does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:11 “You may eat any clean bird.

Deuteronomy 14:12 “But these are the ones which you shall not eat: the eagle and the vulture and the buzzard,

Deuteronomy 14:13 and the red kite, the falcon, and the kite in their kinds,

Deuteronomy 14:14 and every raven in its kind,

Deuteronomy 14:15 and the ostrich, the owl, the sea gull, and the hawk in their kinds,

Deuteronomy 14:17 the pelican, the carrion vulture, the cormorant,

Deuteronomy 14:18 the stork, and the heron in their kinds, and the hoopoe and the bat.

Deuteronomy 14:19 “And all the teeming life with wings are unclean to you; they shall not be eaten.

Deuteronomy 14:20 “You may eat any clean bird.

Deuteronomy 14:21 “You shall not eat anything which dies [of itself]. You may give it to the alien who is in your town, so that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner, for you are a holy people to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Deuteronomy 14:22 “You shall surely tithe all the produce from what you sow, which comes out of the field every year.

Deuteronomy 14:23 “You shall eat in the presence of the LORD your God, at the place where He chooses to establish His name, the tithe of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and your flock, so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.

Deuteronomy 14:24 “If the distance is so great for you that you are not able to bring [the tithe], since the place where the LORD your God chooses to set His name is too far away from you when the LORD your God blesses you,

Deuteronomy 14:25 then you shall exchange [it] for money, and bind the money in your hand and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

Deuteronomy 14:26 “You may spend the money for whatever your heart desires: for oxen, or sheep, or wine, or strong drink, or whatever your heart desires; and there you shall eat in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice, you and your household.

Deuteronomy 14:27 “Also you shall not neglect the Levite who is in your town, for he has no portion or inheritance among you.

Deuteronomy 14:28 “At the end of every third year you shall bring out all the tithe of your produce in that year, and shall deposit [it] in your town.

Deuteronomy 14:29 “The Levite, because he has no portion or inheritance among you, and the alien, the orphan and the widow who are in your town, shall come and eat and be satisfied, in order that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

Deuteronomy 15:1 “At the end of [every] seven years you shall grant a remission [of debts].

Deuteronomy 15:2 “This is the manner of remission: every creditor shall release what he has loaned to his neighbor; he shall not exact it of his neighbor and his brother, because the LORD’S remission has been proclaimed.

Deuteronomy 15:3 “From a foreigner you may exact [it], but your hand shall release whatever of yours is with your brother.

Deuteronomy 15:4 “However, there will be no poor among you, since the LORD will surely bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess,

Deuteronomy 15:5 if only you listen obediently to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all this commandment which I am commanding you today.

Deuteronomy 15:6 “For the LORD your God will bless you as He has promised you, and you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; and you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

Deuteronomy 15:7 “If there is a poor man with you, one of your brothers, in any of your towns in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart, nor close your hand from your poor brother;

Deuteronomy 15:8 but you shall freely open your hand to him, and shall generously lend him sufficient for his need [in] whatever he lacks.

Deuteronomy 15:9 “Beware that there is no base thought in your heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of remission, is near,’ and your eye is hostile toward your poor brother, and you give him nothing; then he may cry to the LORD against you, and it will be a sin in you.

Deuteronomy 15:10 “You shall generously give to him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all your undertakings.

Deuteronomy 15:11 “For the poor will never cease [to be] in the land; therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall freely open your hand to your brother, to your needy and poor in your land.’

Deuteronomy 15:12 “If your kinsman, a Hebrew man or woman, is sold to you, then he shall serve you six years, but in the seventh year you shall set him free.

Deuteronomy 15:13 “When you set him free, you shall not send him away empty-handed.

Deuteronomy 15:14 “You shall furnish him liberally from your flock and from your threshing floor and from your wine vat; you shall give to him as the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 15:15 “You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this today.

Deuteronomy 15:16 “It shall come about if he says to you, ‘I will not go out from you,’ because he loves you and your household, since he fares well with you;

Deuteronomy 15:17 then you shall take an awl and pierce it through his ear into the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also you shall do likewise to your maidservant.

Deuteronomy 15:18 “It shall not seem hard to you when you set him free, for he has given you six years [with] double the service of a hired man; so the LORD your God will bless you in whatever you do.

Deuteronomy 15:19 “You shall consecrate to the LORD your God all the firstborn males that are born of your herd and of your flock; you shall not work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock.

Deuteronomy 15:20 “You and your household shall eat it every year before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses.

Deuteronomy 15:21 “But if it has any defect, [such as] lameness or blindness, [or] any serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 15:22 “You shall eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean alike [may eat it], as a gazelle or a deer.

Deuteronomy 15:23 “Only you shall not eat its blood; you are to pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16:1 “Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.

Deuteronomy 16:2 “You shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God from the flock and the herd, in the place where the LORD chooses to establish His name.

Deuteronomy 16:3 “You shall not eat leavened bread with it; seven days you shall eat with it unleavened bread, the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), so that you may remember all the days of your life the day when you came out of the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:4 “For seven days no leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory, and none of the flesh which you sacrifice on the evening of the first day shall remain overnight until morning.

Deuteronomy 16:5 “You are not allowed to sacrifice the Passover in any of your towns which the LORD your God is giving you;

Deuteronomy 16:6 but at the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His name, you shall sacrifice the Passover in the evening at sunset, at the time that you came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:7 “You shall cook and eat [it] in the place which the LORD your God chooses. In the morning you are to return to your tents.

Deuteronomy 16:8 “Six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God; you shall do no work [on it].

Deuteronomy 16:9 “You shall count seven weeks for yourself; you shall begin to count seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain.

Deuteronomy 16:10 “Then you shall celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with a tribute of a freewill offering of your hand, which you shall give just as the LORD your God blesses you;

Deuteronomy 16:11 and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter and your male and female servants and the Levite who is in your town, and the stranger and the orphan and the widow who are in your midst, in the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His name.

Deuteronomy 16:12 “You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall be careful to observe these statutes.

Deuteronomy 16:13 “You shall celebrate the Feast of Booths seven days after you have gathered in from your threshing floor and your wine vat;

Deuteronomy 16:14 and you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter and your male and female servants and the Levite and the stranger and the orphan and the widow who are in your towns.

Deuteronomy 16:15 “Seven days you shall celebrate a feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful.

Deuteronomy 16:16 “Three times in a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses, at the Feast of Unleavened Bread and at the Feast of Weeks and at the Feast of Booths, and they shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed.

Deuteronomy 16:17 “Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

Deuteronomy 16:18 “You shall appoint for yourself judges and officers in all your towns which the LORD your God is giving you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.

Deuteronomy 16:19 “You shall not distort justice; you shall not be partial, and you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous.

Deuteronomy 16:20 “Justice, [and only] justice, you shall pursue, that you may live and possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:21 “You shall not plant for yourself an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of the LORD your God, which you shall make for yourself.

Deuteronomy 16:22 “You shall not set up for yourself a [sacred] pillar which the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17:1 “You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep which has a blemish [or] any defect, for that is a detestable thing to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 17:2 “If there is found in your midst, in any of your towns, which the LORD your God is giving you, a man or a woman who does what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, by transgressing His covenant,

Deuteronomy 17:3 and has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, or the sun or the moon or any of the heavenly host, which I have not commanded,

Deuteronomy 17:4 and if it is told you and you have heard of it, then you shall inquire thoroughly. Behold, if it is true and the thing certain that this detestable thing has been done in Israel,

Deuteronomy 17:5 then you shall bring out that man or that woman who has done this evil deed to your gates, [that is], the man or the woman, and you shall stone them to death.

Deuteronomy 17:6 “On the evidence of two witnesses or three witnesses, he who is to die shall be put to death; he shall not be put to death on the evidence of one witness.

Deuteronomy 17:7 “The hand of the witnesses shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 17:8 “If any case is too difficult for you to decide, between one kind of homicide or another, between one kind of lawsuit or another, and between one kind of assault or another, being cases of dispute in your courts, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

Deuteronomy 17:9 “So you shall come to the Levitical priest or the judge who is [in office] in those days, and you shall inquire [of them] and they will declare to you the verdict in the case.

Deuteronomy 17:10 “You shall do according to the terms of the verdict which they declare to you from that place which the LORD chooses; and you shall be careful to observe according to all that they teach you.

Deuteronomy 17:11 “According to the terms of the law which they teach you, and according to the verdict which they tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the word which they declare to you, to the right or the left.

Deuteronomy 17:12 “The man who acts presumptuously by not listening to the priest who stands there to serve the LORD your God, nor to the judge, that man shall die; thus you shall purge the evil from Israel.

Deuteronomy 17:13 “Then all the people will hear and be afraid, and will not act presumptuously again.

Deuteronomy 17:14 “When you enter the land which the LORD your God gives you, and you possess it and live in it, and you say, ‘I will set a king over me like all the nations who are around me,’

Deuteronomy 17:15 you shall surely set a king over you whom the LORD your God chooses, [one] from among your countrymen you shall set as king over yourselves; you may not put a foreigner over yourselves who is not your countryman.

Deuteronomy 17:16 “Moreover, he shall not multiply horses for himself, nor shall he cause the people to return to Egypt to multiply horses, since the LORD has said to you, ‘You shall never again return that way.’

Deuteronomy 17:17 “He shall not multiply wives for himself, or else his heart will turn away; nor shall he greatly increase silver and gold for himself.

Deuteronomy 17:18 “Now it shall come about when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself a copy of this law on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests.

Deuteronomy 17:19 “It shall be with him and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, by carefully observing all the words of this law and these statutes,

Deuteronomy 17:20 that his heart may not be lifted up above his countrymen and that he may not turn aside from the commandment, to the right or the left, so that he and his sons may continue long in his kingdom in the midst of Israel.

Deuteronomy 18:1 “The Levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the LORD’S offerings by fire and His portion.

Deuteronomy 18:2 “They shall have no inheritance among their countrymen; the LORD is their inheritance, as He promised them.

Deuteronomy 18:3 “Now this shall be the priests’ due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, either an ox or a sheep, of which they shall give to the priest the shoulder and the two cheeks and the stomach.

Deuteronomy 18:4 “You shall give him the first fruits of your grain, your new wine, and your oil, and the first shearing of your sheep.

Deuteronomy 18:5 “For the LORD your God has chosen him and his sons from all your tribes, to stand and serve in the name of the LORD forever.

Deuteronomy 18:6 “Now if a Levite comes from any of your towns throughout Israel where he resides, and comes whenever he desires to the place which the LORD chooses, Deuteronomy 18:7 then he shall serve in the name of the LORD his God, like all his fellow Levites who stand there before the LORD.

Deuteronomy 18:9 “When you enter the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn to imitate the detestable things of those nations.

Deuteronomy 18:10 “There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices witchcraft, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer,

Deuteronomy 18:11 or one who casts a spell, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead.

Deuteronomy 18:12 “For whoever does these things is detestable to the LORD; and because of these detestable things the LORD your God will drive them out before you.

Deuteronomy 18:13 “You shall be blameless before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 18:14 “For those nations, which you shall dispossess, listen to those who practice witchcraft and to diviners, but as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you [to do] so.

Deuteronomy 18:15 “The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your countrymen, you shall listen to him.

Deuteronomy 18:16 “This is according to all that you asked of the LORD your God in Horeb on the day of the assembly, saying, ‘Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, let me not see this great fire anymore, or I will die.’

Deuteronomy 18:17 “The LORD said to me, ‘They have spoken well.

Deuteronomy 18:18 ‘I will raise up a prophet from among their countrymen like you, and I will put My words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him.

Deuteronomy 18:19 ‘It shall come about that whoever will not listen to My words which he shall speak in My name, I Myself will require [it] of him.

Deuteronomy 18:20 ‘But the prophet who speaks a word presumptuously in My name which I have not commanded him to speak, or which he speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.’

Deuteronomy 18:21 “You may say in your heart, ‘How will we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?’

Deuteronomy 18:22 “When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not come about or come true, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

Deuteronomy 19:1 “When the LORD your God cuts off the nations, whose land the LORD your God gives you, and you dispossess them and settle in their cities and in their houses,

Deuteronomy 19:2 you shall set aside three cities for yourself in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:3 “You shall prepare the roads for yourself, and divide into three parts the territory of your land which the LORD your God will give you as a possession, so that any manslayer may flee there.

Deuteronomy 19:4 “Now this is the case of the manslayer who may flee there and live: when he kills his friend unintentionally, not hating him previously—

Deuteronomy 19:5 as when [a man] goes into the forest with his friend to cut wood, and his hand swings the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron [head] slips off the handle and strikes his friend so that he dies— he may flee to one of these cities and live;

Deuteronomy 19:6 otherwise the avenger of blood might pursue the manslayer in the heat of his anger, and overtake him, because the way is long, and take his life, though he was not deserving of death, since he had not hated him previously.

Deuteronomy 19:7 “Therefore, I command you, saying, ‘You shall set aside three cities for yourself.’

Deuteronomy 19:8 “If the LORD your God enlarges your territory, just as He has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which He promised to give your fathers—

Deuteronomy 19:9 if you carefully observe all this commandment which I command you today, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in

His ways always— then you shall add three more cities for yourself, besides these three.

Deuteronomy 19:10 “So innocent blood will not be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, and bloodguiltiness be on you.

Deuteronomy 19:11 “But if there is a man who hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him and rises up against him and strikes him so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities,

Deuteronomy 19:12 then the elders of his city shall send and take him from there and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

Deuteronomy 19:13 “You shall not pity him, but you shall purge the blood of the innocent from Israel, that it may go well with you.

Deuteronomy 19:14 “You shall not move your neighbor’s boundary mark, which the ancestors have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:15 “A single witness shall not rise up against a man on account of any iniquity or any sin which he has committed; on the evidence of two or three witnesses a matter shall be confirmed.

Deuteronomy 19:16 “If a malicious witness rises up against a man to accuse him of wrongdoing,

Deuteronomy 19:17 then both the men who have the dispute shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who will be [in office] in those days.

Deuteronomy 19:18 “The judges shall investigate thoroughly, and if the witness is a false witness [and] he has accused his brother falsely,

Deuteronomy 19:19 then you shall do to him just as he had intended to do to his brother. Thus you shall purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 19:20 “The rest will hear and be afraid, and will never again do such an evil thing among you.

Deuteronomy 19:21 “Thus you shall not show pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20:1 “When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horses and chariots [and] people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you.

Deuteronomy 20:2 “When you are approaching the battle, the priest shall come near and speak to the people.

Deuteronomy 20:3 “He shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel, you are approaching the battle against your enemies today. Do not be fainthearted. Do not be afraid, or panic, or tremble before them, Deuteronomy 20:4 for the LORD your God is the one who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’

Deuteronomy 20:5 “The officers also shall speak to the people, saying, ‘Who is the man that has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him depart and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would dedicate it.

Deuteronomy 20:6 ‘Who is the man that has planted a vineyard and has not begun to use its fruit? Let him depart and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would begin to use its fruit.

Deuteronomy 20:7 ‘And who is the man that is engaged to a woman and has not married her? Let him depart and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would marry her.’

Deuteronomy 20:8 “Then the officers shall speak further to the people and say, ‘Who is the man that is afraid and fainthearted? Let him depart and return to his house, so that he might not make his brothers’ hearts melt like his heart.’

Deuteronomy 20:9 “When the officers have finished speaking to the people, they shall appoint commanders of armies at the head of the people.

Deuteronomy 20:10 “When you approach a city to fight against it, you shall offer it terms of peace.

Deuteronomy 20:11 “If it agrees to make peace with you and opens to you, then all the people who are found in it shall become your forced labor and shall serve you.

Deuteronomy 20:12 “However, if it does not make peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it.

Deuteronomy 20:13 “When the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall strike all the men in it with the edge of the sword.

Deuteronomy 20:14 “Only the women and the children and the animals and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall take as booty for yourself; and you shall use the spoil of your enemies which the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 20:15 “Thus you shall do to all the cities that are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations nearby.

Deuteronomy 20:16 “Only in the cities of these peoples that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, you shall not leave alive anything that breathes.

Deuteronomy 20:17 “But you shall utterly destroy them, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite and the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, as the LORD your God has commanded you, Deuteronomy 20:18 so that they may not teach you to do according to all their detestable things which they have done for their gods, so that you would sin against the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 20:19 “When you besiege a city a long time, to make war against it in order to capture it, you shall not destroy its trees by swinging an axe against them; for you may eat from them, and you shall not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man, that it should be besieged by you?

Deuteronomy 20:20 “Only the trees which you know are not fruit trees you shall destroy and cut down, that you may construct siegeworks against the city that is making war with you until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21:1 “If a slain person is found lying in the open country in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess, [and] it is not known who has struck him,

Deuteronomy 21:2 then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure [the distance] to the cities which are around the slain one.

Deuteronomy 21:3 “It shall be that the city which is nearest to the slain man, that is, the elders of that city, shall take a heifer of the herd, which has not been worked and which has not pulled in a yoke;

Deuteronomy 21:4 and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which has not been plowed or sown, and shall break the heifer’s neck there in the valley.

Deuteronomy 21:5 “Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for the LORD your God has chosen them to serve Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; and every dispute and every assault shall be settled by them.

Deuteronomy 21:6 “All the elders of that city which is nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley;

Deuteronomy 21:7 and they shall answer and say, ‘Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see [it].

Deuteronomy 21:8 ‘Forgive Your people Israel whom You have redeemed, O LORD, and do not place the guilt of innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel.’ And the bloodguiltiness shall be forgiven them.

Deuteronomy 21:9 “So you shall remove the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 21:10 “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands and you take them away captive,

Deuteronomy 21:11 and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire for her and would take her as a wife for yourself, Deuteronomy 21:12 then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails.

Deuteronomy 21:13 “She shall also remove the clothes of her captivity and shall remain in your house, and mourn her father and mother a full month; and after that you may go in to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife.

Deuteronomy 21:14 “It shall be, if you are not pleased with her, then you shall let her go wherever she wishes; but you shall certainly not sell her for money, you shall not mistreat her, because you have humbled her.

Deuteronomy 21:15 “If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other unloved, and [both] the loved and the unloved have borne him sons, if the firstborn son belongs to the unloved,

Deuteronomy 21:16 then it shall be in the day he wills what he has to his sons, he cannot make the son of the loved the firstborn before the son of the unloved, who is the firstborn.

Deuteronomy 21:17 “But he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the unloved, by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength; to him belongs the right of the firstborn.

Deuteronomy 21:18 “If any man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father or his mother, and when they chastise him, he will not even listen to them,

Deuteronomy 21:19 then his father and mother shall seize him, and bring him out to the elders of his city at the gateway of his hometown.

Deuteronomy 21:20 “They shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey us, he is a glutton and a drunkard.’

Deuteronomy 21:21 “Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death; so you shall remove the evil from your midst, and all Israel will hear [of it] and fear.

Deuteronomy 21:22 “If a man has committed a sin worthy of death and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree,

Deuteronomy 21:23 his corpse shall not hang all night on the tree, but you shall surely bury him on the same day (for he who is hanged is accursed of God), so that you do not defile your land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 22:1 “You shall not see your countryman’s ox or his sheep straying away, and pay no attention to them; you shall certainly bring them back to your countryman.

Deuteronomy 22:2 “If your countryman is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall remain with you until your countryman looks for it; then you shall restore it to him.

Deuteronomy 22:3 “Thus you shall do with his donkey, and you shall do the same with his garment, and you shall do likewise with anything lost by your countryman, which he has lost and you have found. You are not allowed to neglect [them].

Deuteronomy 22:4 “You shall not see your countryman’s donkey or his ox fallen down on the way, and pay no attention to them; you shall certainly help him to raise [them] up.

Deuteronomy 22:5 “A woman shall not wear man’s clothing, nor shall a man put on a woman’s clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 22:6 “If you happen to come upon a bird’s nest along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young;

Deuteronomy 22:7 you shall certainly let the mother go, but the young you may take for yourself, in order that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.

Deuteronomy 22:8 “When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof, so that you will not bring bloodguilt on your house if anyone falls from it.

Deuteronomy 22:9 “You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, or all the produce of the seed which you have sown and the increase of the vineyard will become defiled.

Deuteronomy 22:10 “You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

Deuteronomy 22:11 “You shall not wear a material mixed of wool and linen together.

Deuteronomy 22:12 “You shall make yourself tassels on the four corners of your garment with which you cover yourself.

Deuteronomy 22:13 “If any man takes a wife and goes in to her and [then] turns against her,

Deuteronomy 22:14 and charges her with shameful deeds and publicly defames her, and says, ‘I took this woman, [but] when I came near her, I did not find her a virgin,’

Deuteronomy 22:15 then the girl’s father and her mother shall take and bring out the [evidence] of the girl’s virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

Deuteronomy 22:16 “The girl’s father shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man for a wife, but he turned against her;

Deuteronomy 22:17 and behold, he has charged her with shameful deeds, saying, “I did not find your daughter a virgin.” But this is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity.’ And they shall spread the garment before the elders of the city.

Deuteronomy 22:18 “So the elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him,

Deuteronomy 22:19 and they shall fine him a hundred [shekels] of silver and give it to the girl’s father, because he publicly defamed a virgin of Israel. And she shall remain his wife; he cannot divorce her all his days.

Deuteronomy 22:20 “But if this charge is true, that the girl was not found a virgin,

Deuteronomy 22:21 then they shall bring out the girl to the doorway of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death because she has committed an act of folly in Israel by playing the harlot in her father’s house; thus you shall purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 22:22 “If a man is found lying with a married woman, then both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman; thus you shall purge the evil from Israel.

Deuteronomy 22:23 “If there is a girl who is a virgin engaged to a man, and [another] man finds her in the city and lies with her,

Deuteronomy 22:24 then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city and you shall stone them to death; the girl, because she did not cry out in the city, and the man, because he has violated his neighbor’s wife. Thus you shall purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 22:25 “But if in the field the man finds the girl who is engaged, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man who lies with her shall die.

Deuteronomy 22:26 “But you shall do nothing to the girl; there is no sin in the girl worthy of death, for just as a man rises against his neighbor and murders him, so is this case.

Deuteronomy 22:27 “When he found her in the field, the engaged girl cried out, but there was no one to save her.

Deuteronomy 22:28 “If a man finds a girl who is a virgin, who is not engaged, and seizes her and lies with her and they are discovered,

Deuteronomy 22:29 then the man who lay with her shall give to the girl’s father fifty [shekels] of silver, and she shall become his wife because he has violated her; he cannot divorce her all his days.

Deuteronomy 22:30 “A man shall not take his father’s wife so that he will not uncover his father’s skirt.

Deuteronomy 23:1 “No one who is emasculated or has his male organ cut off shall enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:2 “No one of illegitimate birth shall enter the assembly of the LORD; none of his [descendants], even to the tenth generation, shall enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:3 “No Ammonite or Moabite shall enter the assembly of the LORD; none of their [descendants], even to the tenth generation, shall ever enter the assembly of the LORD,

Deuteronomy 23:4 because they did not meet you with food and water on the way when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.

Deuteronomy 23:5 “Nevertheless, the LORD your God was not willing to listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you because the LORD your God loves you.

Deuteronomy 23:6 “You shall never seek their peace or their prosperity all your days.

Deuteronomy 23:7 “You shall not detest an Edomite, for he is your brother; you shall not detest an Egyptian, because you were an alien in his land.

Deuteronomy 23:8 “The sons of the third generation who are born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:9 “When you go out as an army against your enemies, you shall keep yourself from every evil thing.

Deuteronomy 23:10 “If there is among you any man who is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, then he must go outside the camp; he may not reenter the camp.

Deuteronomy 23:11 “But it shall be when evening approaches, he shall bathe himself with water, and at sundown he may reenter the camp.

Deuteronomy 23:12 “You shall also have a place outside the camp and go out there,

Deuteronomy 23:13 and you shall have a spade among your tools, and it shall be when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and shall turn to cover up your excrement.

Deuteronomy 23:14 “Since the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp to deliver you and to defeat your enemies before you, therefore your camp must be holy; and He must not see anything indecent among you or He will turn away from you.

Deuteronomy 23:15 “You shall not hand over to his master a slave who has escaped from his master to you.

Deuteronomy 23:16 “He shall live with you in your midst, in the place which he shall choose in one of your towns where it pleases him; you shall not mistreat him.

Deuteronomy 23:17 “None of the daughters of Israel shall be a cult prostitute, nor shall any of the sons of Israel be a cult prostitute.

Deuteronomy 23:18 “You shall not bring the hire of a harlot or the wages of a dog into the house of the LORD your God for any votive offering, for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 23:19 “You shall not charge interest to your countrymen: interest on money, food, [or] anything that may be loaned at interest.

Deuteronomy 23:20 “You may charge interest to a foreigner, but to your countrymen you shall not charge interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you undertake in the land which you are about to enter to possess.

Deuteronomy 23:21 “When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay to pay it, for it would be sin in you, and the LORD your God will surely require it of you.

Deuteronomy 23:22 “However, if you refrain from vowing, it would not be sin in you.

Deuteronomy 23:23 “You shall be careful to perform what goes out from your lips, just as you have voluntarily vowed to the LORD your God, what you have promised.

Deuteronomy 23:24 “When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, then you may eat grapes until you are fully satisfied, but you shall not put any in your basket.

Deuteronomy 23:25 “When you enter your neighbor’s standing grain, then you may pluck the heads with your hand, but you shall not wield a sickle in your neighbor’s standing grain.

Deuteronomy 24:1 “When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce and puts [it] in her hand and sends her out from his house,

Deuteronomy 24:3 and if the latter husband turns against her and writes her a certificate of divorce and puts [it] in her hand and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her to be his wife,

Deuteronomy 24:4 [then] her former husband who sent her away is not allowed to take her again to be his wife, since she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 24:5 “When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out with the army nor be charged with any duty; he shall be free at home one year and shall give happiness to his wife whom he has taken.

Deuteronomy 24:6 “No one shall take a handmill or an upper millstone in pledge, for he would be taking a life in pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:7 “If a man is caught kidnapping any of his countrymen of the sons of Israel, and he deals with him violently or sells him, then that thief shall die; so you shall purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 24:8 “Be careful against an infection of leprosy, that you diligently observe and do according to all that the Levitical priests teach you; as I have commanded them, so you shall be careful to do.

Deuteronomy 24:9 “Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the way as you came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 24:10 “When you make your neighbor a loan of any sort, you shall not enter his house to take his pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:11 “You shall remain outside, and the man to whom you make the loan shall bring the pledge out to you.

Deuteronomy 24:13 “When the sun goes down you shall surely return the pledge to him, that he may sleep in his cloak and bless you; and it will be righteousness for you before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 24:14 “You shall not oppress a hired servant [who is] poor and needy, whether [he is] one of your countrymen or one of your aliens who is in your land in your towns.

Deuteronomy 24:15 “You shall give him his wages on his day before the sun sets, for he is poor and sets his heart on it; so that he will not cry against you to the LORD and it become sin in you.

Deuteronomy 24:16 “Fathers shall not be put to death for [their] sons, nor shall sons be put to death for [their] fathers; everyone shall be put to death for his own sin.

Deuteronomy 24:17 “You shall not pervert the justice due an alien [or] an orphan, nor take a widow’s garment in pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:18 “But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and that the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

Deuteronomy 24:19 “When you reap your harvest in your field and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow, in order that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deuteronomy 24:20 “When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:21 “When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not go over it again; it shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:22 “You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

Deuteronomy 25:1 “If there is a dispute between men and they go to court, and the judges decide their case, and they justify the righteous and condemn the wicked,

Deuteronomy 25:2 then it shall be if the wicked man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall then make him lie down and be beaten in his presence with the number of stripes according to his guilt.

Deuteronomy 25:3 “He may beat him forty times [but] no more, so that he does not beat him with many more stripes than these and your brother is not degraded in your eyes.

Deuteronomy 25:4 “You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing.

Deuteronomy 25:5 “When brothers live together and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the deceased shall not be [married] outside [the family] to a strange man. Her husband’s brother shall go in to her and take her to himself as wife and perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her.

Deuteronomy 25:6 “It shall be that the firstborn whom she bears shall assume the name of his dead brother, so that his name will not be blotted out from Israel.

Deuteronomy 25:7 “But if the man does not desire to take his brother’s wife, then his brother’s wife shall go up to the gate to the elders and say, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to establish a name for his brother in Israel; he is not willing to perform the duty of a husband’s brother to me.’

Deuteronomy 25:8 “Then the elders of his city shall summon him and speak to him. And [if] he persists and says, ‘I do not desire to take her,’

Deuteronomy 25:9 then his brother’s wife shall come to him in the sight of the elders, and pull his sandal off his foot and spit in his face; and she shall declare, ‘Thus it is done to the man who does not build up his brother’s house.’

Deuteronomy 25:10 “In Israel his name shall be called, ‘The house of him whose sandal is removed.’

Deuteronomy 25:11 “If [two] men, a man and his countryman, are struggling together, and the wife of one comes near to deliver her husband from the hand of the one who is striking him, and puts out her hand and seizes his genitals,

Deuteronomy 25:12 then you shall cut off her hand; you shall not show pity.

Deuteronomy 25:13 “You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a large and a small.

Deuteronomy 25:14 “You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small.

Deuteronomy 25:15 “You shall have a full and just weight; you shall have a full and just measure, that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Deuteronomy 25:16 “For everyone who does these things, everyone who acts unjustly is an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 25:17 “Remember what Amalek did to you along the way when you came out from Egypt,

Deuteronomy 25:18 how he met you along the way and attacked among you all the stragglers at your rear when you were faint and weary; and he did not fear God.

Deuteronomy 25:19 “Therefore it shall come about when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your surrounding enemies, in the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven; you must not forget.

Deuteronomy 26:1 “Then it shall be, when you enter the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, and you possess it and live in it,

Deuteronomy 26:2 that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground which you bring in from your land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put [it] in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His name.

Deuteronomy 26:3 “You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and say to him, ‘I declare this day to the LORD my God that I have entered the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’

Deuteronomy 26:4 “Then the priest shall take the basket from your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 26:5 “You shall answer and say before the LORD your God, ‘My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down to Egypt and sojourned there, few in number; but there he became a great, mighty and populous nation.

Deuteronomy 26:6 ‘And the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, and imposed hard labor on us.

Deuteronomy 26:7 ‘Then we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction and our toil and our oppression;

Deuteronomy 26:8 and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with great terror and with signs and wonders;

Deuteronomy 26:9 and He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 26:10 ‘Now behold, I have brought the first of the produce of the ground which You, O LORD have given me.’ And you shall set it down before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God;

Deuteronomy 26:11 and you and the Levite and the alien who is among you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given you and your household.

Deuteronomy 26:12 “When you have finished paying all the tithe of your increase in the third year, the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the stranger, to the orphan and to the widow, that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied.

Deuteronomy 26:13 “You shall say before the LORD your God, ‘I have removed the sacred [portion] from [my] house, and also have given it to the Levite and the alien, the orphan and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed or forgotten any of Your commandments.

Deuteronomy 26:14 ‘I have not eaten of it while mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor offered any of it to the dead. I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have done according to all that You have commanded me.

Deuteronomy 26:15 ‘Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel, and the ground which You have given us, a land flowing with milk and honey, as You swore to our fathers.’

Deuteronomy 26:16 “This day the LORD your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances. You shall therefore be careful to do them with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 26:17 “You have today declared the LORD to be your God, and that you would walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments and His ordinances, and listen to His voice.

Deuteronomy 26:18 “The LORD has today declared you to be His people, a treasured possession, as He promised you, and that you should keep all His commandments;

Deuteronomy 26:19 and that He will set you high above all nations which He has made, for praise, fame, and honor; and that you shall be a consecrated people to the LORD your God, as He has spoken.”

Deuteronomy 27:1 Then Moses and the elders of Israel charged the people, saying, “Keep all the commandments which I command you today.

Deuteronomy 27:2 “So it shall be on the day when you cross the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God gives you, that you shall set up for yourself large stones and coat them with lime

Deuteronomy 27:3 and write on them all the words of this law, when you cross over, so that you may enter the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

Deuteronomy 27:4 “So it shall be when you cross the Jordan, you shall set up on Mount Ebal, these stones, as I am commanding you today, and you shall coat them with lime.

Deuteronomy 27:5 “Moreover, you shall build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not wield an iron [tool] on them.

Deuteronomy 27:6 “You shall build the altar of the LORD your God of uncut stones, and you shall offer on it burnt offerings to the LORD your God;

Deuteronomy 27:7 and you shall sacrifice peace offerings and eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:8 “You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very distinctly.”

Deuteronomy 27:9 Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying, “Be silent and listen, O Israel! This day you have become a people for the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:10 “You shall therefore obey the LORD your God, and do His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.”

Deuteronomy 27:11 Moses also charged the people on that day, saying,

Deuteronomy 27:12 “When you cross the Jordan, these shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

Deuteronomy 27:14 “The Levites shall then answer and say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

Deuteronomy 27:15 ‘Cursed is the man who makes an idol or a molten image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets [it] up in secret.’ And all the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:16 ‘Cursed is he who dishonors his father or mother.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:17 ‘Cursed is he who moves his neighbor’s boundary mark.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:18 ‘Cursed is he who misleads a blind [person] on the road.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:19 ‘Cursed is he who distorts the justice due an alien, orphan, and widow.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:20 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s skirt.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:21 ‘Cursed is he who lies with any animal.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:22 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or of his mother.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:23 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:24 ‘Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:25 ‘Cursed is he who accepts a bribe to strike down an innocent person.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 27:26 ‘Cursed is he who does not confirm the words of this law by doing them.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 28:1 “Now it shall be, if you diligently obey the LORD your God, being careful to do all His commandments which I command you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth.

Deuteronomy 28:2 “All these blessings will come upon you and overtake you if you obey the LORD your God:

Deuteronomy 28:3 “Blessed [shall] you [be] in the city, and blessed [shall] you [be] in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:4 “Blessed [shall be] the offspring of your body and the produce of your ground and the offspring of your beasts, the increase of your herd and the young of your flock.

Deuteronomy 28:6 “Blessed [shall] you [be] when you come in, and blessed [shall] you [be] when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:7 “The LORD shall cause your enemies who rise up against you to be defeated before you; they will come out against you one way and will flee before you seven ways.

Deuteronomy 28:8 “The LORD will command the blessing upon you in your barns and in all that you put your hand to, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Deuteronomy 28:9 “The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways.

Deuteronomy 28:10 “So all the peoples of the earth will see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they will be afraid of you.

Deuteronomy 28:11 “The LORD will make you abound in prosperity, in the offspring of your body and in the offspring of your beast and in the produce of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you.

Deuteronomy 28:12 “The LORD will open for you His good storehouse, the heavens, to give rain to your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hand; and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow.

Deuteronomy 28:13 “The LORD will make you the head and not the tail, and you only will be above, and you will not be underneath, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I charge you today, to observe [them] carefully, Deuteronomy 28:14 and do not turn aside from any of the words which I command you today, to the right or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Deuteronomy 28:15 “But it shall come about, if you do not obey the LORD your God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes with which I charge you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

Deuteronomy 28:16 “Cursed [shall] you [be] in the city, and cursed [shall] you [be] in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:17 “Cursed [shall be] your basket and your kneading bowl.

Deuteronomy 28:18 “Cursed [shall be] the offspring of your body and the produce of your ground, the increase of your herd and the young of your flock.

Deuteronomy 28:19 “Cursed [shall] you [be] when you come in, and cursed [shall] you [be] when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:20 “The LORD will send upon you curses, confusion, and rebuke, in all you undertake to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, on account of the evil of your deeds, because you have forsaken Me.

Deuteronomy 28:21 “The LORD will make the pestilence cling to you until He has consumed you from the land where you are entering to possess it.

Deuteronomy 28:22 “The LORD will smite you with consumption and with fever and with inflammation and with fiery heat and with the sword and with blight and with mildew, and they will pursue you until you perish.

Deuteronomy 28:23 “The heaven which is over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you, iron.

Deuteronomy 28:24 “The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust; from heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:25 “The LORD shall cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you will go out one way against them, but you will flee seven ways before them, and you will be [an example of] terror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Deuteronomy 28:26 “Your carcasses will be food to all birds of the sky and to the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten [them] away.

Deuteronomy 28:27 “The LORD will smite you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors and with the scab and with the itch, from which you cannot be healed.

Deuteronomy 28:28 “The LORD will smite you with madness and with blindness and with bewilderment of heart;

Deuteronomy 28:29 and you will grope at noon, as the blind man gropes in darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways; but you shall only be oppressed and robbed continually, with none to save you.

Deuteronomy 28:30 “You shall betroth a wife, but another man will violate her; you shall build a house, but you will not live in it; you shall plant a vineyard, but you will not use its fruit.

Deuteronomy 28:31 “Your ox shall be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat of it; your donkey shall be torn away from you, and will not be restored to you; your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you will have none to save you.

Deuteronomy 28:32 “Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people, while your eyes look on and yearn for them continually; but there will be nothing you can do.

Deuteronomy 28:33 “A people whom you do not know shall eat up the produce of your ground and all your labors, and you will never be anything but oppressed and crushed continually.

Deuteronomy 28:34 “You shall be driven mad by the sight of what you see.

Deuteronomy 28:35 “The LORD will strike you on the knees and legs with sore boils, from which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.

Deuteronomy 28:36 “The LORD will bring you and your king, whom you set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone.

Deuteronomy 28:37 “You shall become a horror, a proverb, and a taunt among all the people where the LORD drives you.

Deuteronomy 28:38 “You shall bring out much seed to the field but you will gather in little, for the locust will consume it.

Deuteronomy 28:39 “You shall plant and cultivate vineyards, but you will neither drink of the wine nor gather [the grapes], for the worm will devour them.

Deuteronomy 28:40 “You shall have olive trees throughout your territory but you will not anoint yourself with the oil, for your olives will drop off.

Deuteronomy 28:41 “You shall have sons and daughters but they will not be yours, for they will go into captivity.

Deuteronomy 28:42 “The cricket shall possess all your trees and the produce of your ground.

Deuteronomy 28:43 “The alien who is among you shall rise above you higher and higher, but you will go down lower and lower.

Deuteronomy 28:44 “He shall lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you will be the tail.

Deuteronomy 28:45 “So all these curses shall come on you and pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you would not obey the LORD your God by keeping His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you.

Deuteronomy 28:46 “They shall become a sign and a wonder on you and your descendants forever.

Deuteronomy 28:47 “Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joy and a glad heart, for the abundance of all things;

Deuteronomy 28:48 therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in the lack of all things; and He will put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.

Deuteronomy 28:49 “The LORD will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as the eagle swoops down, a nation whose language you shall not understand,

Deuteronomy 28:50 a nation of fierce countenance who will have no respect for the old, nor show favor to the young.

Deuteronomy 28:51 “Moreover, it shall eat the offspring of your herd and the produce of your ground until you are destroyed, who also leaves you no grain, new wine, or oil, nor the increase of your herd or the young of your flock until they have caused you to perish.

Deuteronomy 28:52 “It shall besiege you in all your towns until your high and fortified walls in which you trusted come down throughout your land, and it shall besiege you in all your towns throughout your land which the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 28:53 “Then you shall eat the offspring of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, during the siege and the distress by which your enemy will oppress you.

Deuteronomy 28:54 “The man who is refined and very delicate among you shall be hostile toward his brother and toward the wife he cherishes and toward the rest of his children who remain,

Deuteronomy 28:55 so that he will not give [even] one of them any of the flesh of his children which he will eat, since he has nothing [else] left, during the siege and the distress by which your enemy will oppress you in all your towns.

Deuteronomy 28:56 “The refined and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and refinement, shall be hostile toward the husband she cherishes and toward her son and daughter,

Deuteronomy 28:57 and toward her afterbirth which issues from between her legs and toward her children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of anything [else], during the siege and the distress by which your enemy will oppress you in your towns.

Deuteronomy 28:58 “If you are not careful to observe all the words of this law which are written in this book, to fear this honored and awesome name, the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 28:59 then the LORD will bring extraordinary plagues on you and your descendants, even severe and lasting plagues, and miserable and chronic sicknesses.

Deuteronomy 28:60 “He will bring back on you all the diseases of Egypt of which you were afraid, and they will cling to you.

Deuteronomy 28:61 “Also every sickness and every plague which, not written in the book of this law, the LORD will bring on you until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:62 “Then you shall be left few in number, whereas you were as numerous as the stars of heaven, because you did not obey the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 28:63 “It shall come about that as the LORD delighted over you to prosper you, and multiply you, so the LORD will delight over you to make you perish and destroy you; and you will be torn from the land where you are entering to possess it.

Deuteronomy 28:64 “Moreover, the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth; and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone, which you or your fathers have not known.

Deuteronomy 28:65 “Among those nations you shall find no rest, and there will be no resting place for the sole of your foot; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing of eyes, and despair of soul.

Deuteronomy 28:66 “So your life shall hang in doubt before you; and you will be in dread night and day, and shall have no assurance of your life.

Deuteronomy 28:67 “In the morning you shall say, ‘Would that it were evening!’ And at evening you shall say, ‘Would that it were morning!’ because of the dread of your heart which you dread, and for the sight of your eyes which you will see.

Deuteronomy 28:68 “The LORD will bring you back to Egypt in ships, by the way about which I spoke to you, ‘You will never see it again!’ And there you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer.”

Deuteronomy 29:1 These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He had made with them at Horeb.

Deuteronomy 29:2 And Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, “You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and all his servants and all his land;

Deuteronomy 29:3 the great trials which your eyes have seen, those great signs and wonders.

Deuteronomy 29:4 “Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a heart to know, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear.

Deuteronomy 29:5 “I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandal has not worn out on your foot.

Deuteronomy 29:6 “You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or strong drink, in order that you might know that I am the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 29:7 “When you reached this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us for battle, but we defeated them;

Deuteronomy 29:8 and we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites.

Deuteronomy 29:9 “So keep the words of this covenant to do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

Deuteronomy 29:10 “You stand today, all of you, before the LORD your God: your chiefs, your tribes, your elders and your officers, [even] all the men of Israel,

Deuteronomy 29:11 your little ones, your wives, and the alien who is within your camps, from the one who chops your wood to the one who draws your water,

Deuteronomy 29:12 that you may enter into the covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath which the LORD your God is making with you today, Deuteronomy 29:13 in order that He may establish you today as His people and that He may be your God, just as He spoke to you and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 29:14 “Now not with you alone am I making this covenant and this oath,

Deuteronomy 29:15 but both with those who stand here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God and with those who are not with us here today

Deuteronomy 29:16 (for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed;

Deuteronomy 29:17 moreover, you have seen their abominations and their idols [of] wood, stone, silver, and gold, which [they had] with them);

Deuteronomy 29:18 so that there will not be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of those nations; that there will not be among you a root bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood.

Deuteronomy 29:19 “It shall be when he hears the words of this curse, that he will boast, saying, ‘I have peace though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart in order to destroy the watered [land] with the dry.’

Deuteronomy 29:20 “The LORD shall never be willing to forgive him, but rather the anger of the LORD and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse which is written in this book will rest on him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under heaven.

Deuteronomy 29:21 “Then the LORD will single him out for adversity from all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant which are written in this book of the law.

Deuteronomy 29:22 “Now the generation to come, your sons who rise up after you and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, when they see the plagues of the land and the diseases with which the LORD has afflicted it, will say,

Deuteronomy 29:23 ‘All its land is brimstone and salt, a burning waste, unsown and unproductive, and no grass grows in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and in His wrath.’

Deuteronomy 29:24 “All the nations will say, ‘Why has the LORD done thus to this land? Why this great outburst of anger?’

Deuteronomy 29:25 “Then [men] will say, ‘Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 29:26 'They went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods whom they have not known and whom He had not allotted to them.

Deuteronomy 29:27 'Therefore, the anger of the LORD burned against that land, to bring upon it every curse which is written in this book;

Deuteronomy 29:28 and the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger and in fury and in great wrath, and cast them into another land, as [it is] this day.'

Deuteronomy 29:29 "The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our sons forever, that we may observe all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30:1 "So it shall be when all of these things have come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and you call [them] to mind in all nations where the LORD your God has banished you,

Deuteronomy 30:2 and you return to the LORD your God and obey Him with all your heart and soul according to all that I command you today, you and your sons,

Deuteronomy 30:3 then the LORD your God will restore you from captivity, and have compassion on you, and will gather you again from all the peoples where the LORD your God has scattered you.

Deuteronomy 30:4 "If your outcasts are at the ends of the earth, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there He will bring you back.

Deuteronomy 30:5 "The LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers.

Deuteronomy 30:6 "Moreover the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live.

Deuteronomy 30:7 "The LORD your God will inflict all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.

Deuteronomy 30:8 "And you shall again obey the LORD, and observe all His commandments which I command you today.

Deuteronomy 30:9 "Then the LORD your God will prosper you abundantly in all the work of your hand, in the offspring of your body and in the offspring of your cattle and in the produce of your ground, for the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers;

Deuteronomy 30:10 if you obey the LORD your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and soul.

Deuteronomy 30:11 “For this commandment which I command you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it out of reach.

Deuteronomy 30:12 “It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us to get it for us and make us hear it, that we may observe it?’

Deuteronomy 30:13 “Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will cross the sea for us to get it for us and make us hear it, that we may observe it?’

Deuteronomy 30:14 “But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may observe it.

Deuteronomy 30:15 “See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, and death and adversity;

Deuteronomy 30:16 in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, that you may live and multiply, and that the LORD your God may bless you in the land where you are entering to possess it.

Deuteronomy 30:17 “But if your heart turns away and you will not obey, but are drawn away and worship other gods and serve them,

Deuteronomy 30:18 I declare to you today that you shall surely perish. You will not prolong [your] days in the land where you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess it.

Deuteronomy 30:19 “I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. So choose life in order that you may live, you and your descendants, Deuteronomy 30:20 by loving the LORD your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, that you may live in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.”

Deuteronomy 31:1 So Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:2 And he said to them, “I am a hundred and twenty years old today; I am no longer able to come and go, and the LORD has said to me, ‘You shall not cross this Jordan.’

Deuteronomy 31:3 “It is the LORD your God who will cross ahead of you; He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua is the one who will cross ahead of you, just as the LORD has spoken.

Deuteronomy 31:4 “The LORD will do to them just as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 31:5 “The LORD will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandments which I have commanded you.

Deuteronomy 31:6 “Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or tremble at them, for the LORD your God is the one who goes with you. He will not fail you or forsake you.”

Deuteronomy 31:7 Then Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall give it to them as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 31:8 “The LORD is the one who goes ahead of you; He will be with you. He will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.”

Deuteronomy 31:9 So Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:10 Then Moses commanded them, saying, “At the end of [every] seven years, at the time of the year of remission of debts, at the Feast of Booths,

Deuteronomy 31:11 when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place which He will choose, you shall read this law in front of all Israel in their hearing.

Deuteronomy 31:12 “Assemble the people, the men and the women and children and the alien who is in your town, so that they may hear and learn and fear the LORD your God, and be careful to observe all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 31:13 “Their children, who have not known, will hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live on the land which you are about to cross the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 31:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, the time for you to die is near; call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, that I may commission him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting.

Deuteronomy 31:15 The LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood at the doorway of the tent.

Deuteronomy 31:16 The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, you are about to lie down with your fathers; and this people will arise and play the harlot with the strange gods of the land, into the midst of which they are going, and will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them.

Deuteronomy 31:17 “Then My anger will be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them and hide My face from them, and they will be consumed, and many evils and troubles will come upon them; so that they will say in that day, ‘Is it not because our God is not among us that these evils have come upon us?’

Deuteronomy 31:18 “But I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they will do, for they will turn to other gods.

Deuteronomy 31:19 “Now therefore, write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the sons of Israel; put it on their lips, so that this song may be a witness for Me against the sons of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:20 “For when I bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and are satisfied and become prosperous, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and spurn Me and break My covenant.

Deuteronomy 31:21 “Then it shall come about, when many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify before them as a witness (for it shall not be forgotten from the lips of their descendants); for I know their intent which they are developing today, before I have brought them into the land which I swore.”

Deuteronomy 31:22 So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the sons of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:23 Then He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and courageous, for you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore to them, and I will be with you.”

Deuteronomy 31:24 It came about, when Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book until they were complete,

Deuteronomy 31:25 that Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

Deuteronomy 31:26 “Take this book of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may remain there as a witness against you.

Deuteronomy 31:27 “For I know your rebellion and your stubbornness; behold, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD; how much more, then, after my death?

Deuteronomy 31:28 “Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call the heavens and the earth to witness against them.

Deuteronomy 31:29 “For I know that after my death you will act corruptly and turn from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days, for you will do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of your hands.”

Deuteronomy 31:30 Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were complete:

Deuteronomy 32:1 “Give ear, O heavens, and let me speak; And let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

Deuteronomy 32:2 “Let my teaching drop as the rain, My speech distill as the dew, As the droplets on the fresh grass And as the showers on the herb.

Deuteronomy 32:3 “For I proclaim the name of the LORD; Ascribe greatness to our God!

Deuteronomy 32:4 “The Rock! His work is perfect, For all His ways are just; A God of faithfulness and without injustice, Righteous and upright is He.

Deuteronomy 32:5 “They have acted corruptly toward Him, [They are] not His children, because of their defect; [But are] a perverse and crooked generation.

Deuteronomy 32:6 “Do you thus repay the LORD, O foolish and unwise people? Is not He your Father who has bought you? He has made you and established you.

Deuteronomy 32:7 “Remember the days of old, Consider the years of all generations. Ask your father, and he will inform you, Your elders, and they will tell you.

Deuteronomy 32:8 “When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, When He separated the sons of man, He set the boundaries of the peoples According to the number of the sons of Israel.

Deuteronomy 32:10 “He found him in a desert land, And in the howling waste of a wilderness; He encircled him, He cared for him, He guarded him as the pupil of His eye.

Deuteronomy 32:11 “Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, That hovers over its young, He spread His wings and caught them, He carried them on His pinions.

Deuteronomy 32:12 “The LORD alone guided him, And there was no foreign god with him.

Deuteronomy 32:13 “He made him ride on the high places of the earth, And he ate the produce of the field; And He made him suck honey from the rock, And oil from the flinty rock,

Deuteronomy 32:14 Curds of cows, and milk of the flock, With fat of lambs, And rams, the breed of Bashan, and goats, With the finest of the wheat— And of the blood of grapes you drank wine.

Deuteronomy 32:15 “But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked— You are grown fat, thick, and sleek— Then he forsook God who made him, And scorned the Rock of his salvation.

Deuteronomy 32:16 “They made Him jealous with strange [gods]; With abominations they provoked Him to anger.

Deuteronomy 32:17 “They sacrificed to demons who were not God, To gods whom they have not known, New [gods] who came lately, Whom your fathers did not dread.

Deuteronomy 32:18 “You neglected the Rock who begot you, And forgot the God who gave you birth.

Deuteronomy 32:19 “The LORD saw [this], and spurned [them] Because of the provocation of His sons and daughters.

Deuteronomy 32:20 “Then He said, ‘I will hide My face from them, I will see what their end [shall be]; For they are a perverse generation, Sons in whom is no faithfulness.

Deuteronomy 32:21 ‘They have made Me jealous with [what] is not God; They have provoked Me to anger with their idols. So I will make them jealous with [those who] are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation,

Deuteronomy 32:22 For a fire is kindled in My anger, And burns to the lowest part of Sheol, And consumes the earth with its yield, And sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Deuteronomy 32:23 ‘I will heap misfortunes on them; I will use My arrows on them.

Deuteronomy 32:24 ‘[They will be] wasted by famine, and consumed by plague And bitter destruction; And the teeth of beasts I will send upon them, With the venom of crawling things of the dust.

Deuteronomy 32:25 ‘Outside the sword will bereave, And inside terror— Both young man and virgin, The nursling with the man of gray hair.

Deuteronomy 32:26 ‘I would have said, “I will cut them to pieces, I will remove the memory of them from men,”

Deuteronomy 32:27 Had I not feared the provocation by the enemy, That their adversaries would misjudge, That they would say, “Our hand is triumphant, And the LORD has not done all this.”‘

Deuteronomy 32:28 “For they are a nation lacking in counsel, And there is no understanding in them.

Deuteronomy 32:29 “Would that they were wise, that they understood this, That they would discern their future!

Deuteronomy 32:30 “How could one chase a thousand, And two put ten thousand to flight, Unless their Rock had sold them, And the LORD had given them up?

Deuteronomy 32:31 “Indeed their rock is not like our Rock, Even our enemies themselves judge this.

Deuteronomy 32:32 “For their vine is from the vine of Sodom, And from the fields of Gomorrah; Their grapes are grapes of poison, Their clusters, bitter.

Deuteronomy 32:33 “Their wine is the venom of serpents, And the deadly poison of cobras.

Deuteronomy 32:34 ‘Is it not laid up in store with Me, Sealed up in My treasuries?

Deuteronomy 32:35 ‘Vengeance is Mine, and retribution, In due time their foot will slip; For the day of their calamity is near, And the impending things are hastening upon them.’

Deuteronomy 32:36 “For the LORD will vindicate His people, And will have compassion on His servants, When He sees that [their] strength is gone, And there is none [remaining], bond or free.

Deuteronomy 32:37 “And He will say, ‘Where are their gods, The rock in which they sought refuge?

Deuteronomy 32:38 ‘Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, [And] drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise up and help you, Let them be your hiding place!

Deuteronomy 32:39 ‘See now that I, I am He, And there is no god besides Me; It is I who put to death and give life. I have wounded and it is I who heal, And there is no one who can deliver from My hand.

Deuteronomy 32:40 ‘Indeed, I lift up My hand to heaven, And say, as I live forever,

Deuteronomy 32:41 If I sharpen My flashing sword, And My hand takes hold on justice, I will render vengeance on My adversaries, And I will repay those who hate Me.

Deuteronomy 32:42 ‘I will make My arrows drunk with blood, And My sword will devour flesh, With the blood of the slain and the captives, From the long-haired leaders of the enemy.’

Deuteronomy 32:43 “Rejoice, O nations, [with] His people; For He will avenge the blood of His servants, And will render vengeance on His adversaries, And will atone for His land [and] His people.”

Deuteronomy 32:44 Then Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he, with Joshua the son of Nun.

Deuteronomy 32:45 When Moses had finished speaking all these words to all Israel,

Deuteronomy 32:46 he said to them, “Take to your heart all the words with which I am warning you today, which you shall command your sons to observe carefully, [even] all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 32:47 “For it is not an idle word for you; indeed it is your life. And by this word you will prolong your days in the land, which you are about to cross the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 32:48 The LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying, Deuteronomy 32:49 “Go up to this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab opposite Jericho, and look at the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel for a possession.

Deuteronomy 32:50 “Then die on the mountain where you ascend, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people,

Deuteronomy 32:51 because you broke faith with Me in the midst of the sons of Israel at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not treat Me as holy in the midst of the sons of Israel.

Deuteronomy 32:52 “For you shall see the land at a distance, but you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving the sons of Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33:1 Now this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death.

Deuteronomy 33:2 He said, “The LORD came from Sinai, And dawned on them from Seir; He shone forth from Mount Paran, And He came from the midst of ten thousand holy ones; At His right hand there was flashing lightning for them.

Deuteronomy 33:3 “Indeed, He loves the people; All Your holy ones are in Your hand, And they followed in Your steps; [Everyone] receives of Your words.

Deuteronomy 33:4 “Moses charged us with a law, A possession for the assembly of Jacob.

Deuteronomy 33:5 “And He was king in Jeshurun, When the heads of the people were gathered, The tribes of Israel together.

Deuteronomy 33:7 And this regarding Judah; so he said, “Hear, O LORD, the voice of Judah, And bring him to his people. With his hands he contended for them, And may You be a help against his adversaries.”

Deuteronomy 33:8 Of Levi he said, “[Let] Your Thummim and Your Urim [belong] to Your godly man, Whom You proved at Massah, With whom You contended at the waters of Meribah;

Deuteronomy 33:9 Who said of his father and his mother, ‘I did not consider them’; And he did not acknowledge his brothers, Nor did he regard his own sons, For they observed Your word, And kept Your covenant.

Deuteronomy 33:10 “They shall teach Your ordinances to Jacob, And Your law to Israel. They shall put incense before You, And whole burnt offerings on Your altar.

Deuteronomy 33:11 “O LORD, bless his substance, And accept the work of his hands; Shatter the loins of those who rise up against him, And those who hate him, so that they will not rise [again].”

Deuteronomy 33:12 Of Benjamin he said, “May the beloved of the LORD dwell in security by Him, Who shields him all the day, And he dwells between His shoulders.”

Deuteronomy 33:13 Of Joseph he said, “Blessed of the LORD [be] his land, With the choice things of heaven, with the dew, And from the deep lying beneath, Deuteronomy 33:14 And with the choice yield of the sun, And with the choice produce of the months.

Deuteronomy 33:15 “And with the best things of the ancient mountains, And with the choice things of the everlasting hills,

Deuteronomy 33:16 And with the choice things of the earth and its fullness, And the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush. Let it come to the head of Joseph, And to the crown of the head of the one distinguished among his brothers.

Deuteronomy 33:17 “As the firstborn of his ox, majesty is his, And his horns are the horns of the wild ox; With them he will push the peoples, All at once, [to] the ends of the earth. And those are the ten thousands of Ephraim, And those are the thousands of Manasseh.”

Deuteronomy 33:18 Of Zebulun he said, “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going forth, And, Issachar, in your tents.

Deuteronomy 33:19 “They will call peoples [to] the mountain; There they will offer righteous sacrifices; For they will draw out the abundance of the seas, And the hidden treasures of the sand.”

Deuteronomy 33:20 Of Gad he said, “Blessed is the one who enlarges Gad; He lies down as a lion, And tears the arm, also the crown of the head.

Deuteronomy 33:21 “Then he provided the first [part] for himself, For there the ruler’s portion was reserved; And he came [with] the leaders of the people; He executed the justice of the LORD, And His ordinances with Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33:23 Of Naphtali he said, “O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, And full of the blessing of the LORD, Take possession of the sea and the south.”

Deuteronomy 33:24 Of Asher he said, “More blessed than sons is Asher; May he be favored by his brothers, And may he dip his foot in oil.

Deuteronomy 33:25 “Your locks will be iron and bronze, And according to your days, so will your leisurely walk be.

Deuteronomy 33:26 “There is none like the God of Jeshurun, Who rides the heavens to your help, And through the skies in His majesty.

Deuteronomy 33:27 “The eternal God is a dwelling place, And underneath are the everlasting arms; And He drove out the enemy from before you, And said, ‘Destroy!’

Deuteronomy 33:28 “So Israel dwells in security, The fountain of Jacob secluded, In a land of grain and new wine; His heavens also drop down dew.

Deuteronomy 33:29 “Blessed are you, O Israel; Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, Who is the shield of your help And the sword of your majesty! So your enemies will cringe before you, And you will tread upon their high places.”

Deuteronomy 34:1 Now Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land, Gilead as far as Dan,

Deuteronomy 34:2 and all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah as far as the western sea,

Deuteronomy 34:3 and the Negev and the plain in the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.

Deuteronomy 34:4 Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see [it] with your eyes, but you shall not go over there.”

Deuteronomy 34:5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 34:6 And He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor; but no man knows his burial place to this day.

Deuteronomy 34:7 Although Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died, his eye was not dim, nor his vigor abated.

Deuteronomy 34:8 So the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the days of weeping [and] mourning for Moses came to an end.

Deuteronomy 34:9 Now Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him; and the sons of Israel listened to him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Deuteronomy 34:10 Since that time no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

Deuteronomy 34:11 for all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, all his servants, and all his land,

Deuteronomy 34:12 and for all the mighty power and for all the great terror which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

1:1 Now it came about after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant, saying,

Joshua 1:2 "Moses My servant is dead; now therefore arise, cross this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.

Joshua 1:3 "Every place on which the sole of your foot treads, I have given it to you, just as I spoke to Moses.

Joshua 1:4 "From the wilderness and this Lebanon, even as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and as far as the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun will be your territory.

Joshua 1:5 "No man will [be able to] stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you.

Joshua 1:6 "Be strong and courageous, for you shall give this people possession of the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.

Joshua 1:7 "Only be strong and very courageous; be careful to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may have success wherever you go.

Joshua 1:8 "This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have success.

Joshua 1:9 "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

Joshua 1:11 "Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you are to cross this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, to possess it.'"

Joshua 1:12 To the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,

Joshua 1:13 "Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, 'The LORD your God gives you rest and will give you this land.'

Joshua 1:14 "Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan, but you shall cross before your brothers in battle array, all your valiant warriors, and shall help them,

Joshua 1:15 until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as [He gives] you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to your own land, and possess that which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.”

Joshua 1:16 They answered Joshua, saying, “All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

Joshua 1:17 “Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you; only may the LORD your God be with you as He was with Moses.

Joshua 1:18 “Anyone who rebels against your command and does not obey your words in all that you command him, shall be put to death; only be strong and courageous.”

Joshua 2:1 Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men as spies secretly from Shittim, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.” So they went and came into the house of a harlot whose name was Rahab, and lodged there.

Joshua 2:2 It was told the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men from the sons of Israel have come here tonight to search out the land.”

Joshua 2:3 And the king of Jericho sent [word] to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the land.”

Joshua 2:4 But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them, and she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.

Joshua 2:5 “It came about when [it was time] to shut the gate at dark, that the men went out; I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them.”

Joshua 2:6 But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them in the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof.

Joshua 2:7 So the men pursued them on the road to the Jordan to the fords; and as soon as those who were pursuing them had gone out, they shut the gate.

Joshua 2:8 Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,

Joshua 2:9 and said to the men, “I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before you.

Joshua 2:10 “For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

Joshua 2:11 “When we heard [it], our hearts melted and no courage remained in any man any longer because of you; for the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.

Joshua 2:12 “Now therefore, please swear to me by the LORD, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father’s household, and give me a pledge of truth, Joshua 2:13 and spare my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters, with all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death.”

Joshua 2:14 So the men said to her, “Our life for yours if you do not tell this business of ours; and it shall come about when the LORD gives us the land that we will deal kindly and faithfully with you.”

Joshua 2:15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall, so that she was living on the wall.

Joshua 2:16 She said to them, “Go to the hill country, so that the pursuers will not happen upon you, and hide yourselves there for three days until the pursuers return. Then afterward you may go on your way.”

Joshua 2:17 The men said to her, “We [shall be] free from this oath to you which you have made us swear,

Joshua 2:18 unless, when we come into the land, you tie this cord of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down, and gather to yourself into the house your father and your mother and your brothers and all your father’s household.

Joshua 2:19 “It shall come about that anyone who goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood [shall be] on his own head, and we [shall be] free; but anyone who is with you in the house, his blood [shall be] on our head if a hand is [laid] on him.

Joshua 2:20 “But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be free from the oath which you have made us swear.”

Joshua 2:21 She said, “According to your words, so be it.” So she sent them away, and they departed; and she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

Joshua 2:22 They departed and came to the hill country, and remained there for three days until the pursuers returned. Now the pursuers had sought [them] all along the road, but had not found [them].

Joshua 2:23 Then the two men returned and came down from the hill country and crossed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and they related to him all that had happened to them.

Joshua 2:24 They said to Joshua, “Surely the LORD has given all the land into our hands; moreover, all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before us.”

Joshua 3:1 Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and he and all the sons of Israel set out from Shittim and came to the Jordan, and they lodged there before they crossed.

Joshua 3:2 At the end of three days the officers went through the midst of the camp;

Joshua 3:3 and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God with the Levitical priests carrying it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it.

Joshua 3:4 “However, there shall be between you and it a distance of about 2,000 cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you shall go, for you have not passed this way before.”

Joshua 3:5 Then Joshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you.”

Joshua 3:6 And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, “Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over ahead of the people.” So they took up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

Joshua 3:7 Now the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you.

Joshua 3:8 “You shall, moreover, command the priests who are carrying the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand [still] in the Jordan.’“

Joshua 3:9 Then Joshua said to the sons of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God.”

Joshua 3:10 Joshua said, “By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will assuredly dispossess from before you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite.

Joshua 3:11 “Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over ahead of you into the Jordan.

Joshua 3:12 “Now then, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.

Joshua 3:13 “It shall come about when the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, [and] the waters which are flowing down from above will stand in one heap.”

Joshua 3:14 So when the people set out from their tents to cross the Jordan with the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before the people,

Joshua 3:15 and when those who carried the ark came into the Jordan, and the feet of the priests carrying the ark were dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the days of harvest), Joshua 3:16 the waters which were flowing down from above stood [and] rose up in one heap, a great distance away at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those which were flowing down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. So the people crossed opposite Jericho.

Joshua 3:17 And the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel crossed on dry ground, until all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan.

Joshua 4:1 Now when all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

Joshua 4:2 “Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, Joshua 4:3 and command them, saying, ‘Take up for yourselves twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet are standing firm, and carry them over with you and lay them down in the lodging place where you will lodge tonight.’“

Joshua 4:4 So Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe;

Joshua 4:5 and Joshua said to them, “Cross again to the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

Joshua 4:6 “Let this be a sign among you, so that when your children ask later, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’

Joshua 4:7 then you shall say to them, ‘Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off.’ So these stones shall become a memorial to the sons of Israel forever.”

Joshua 4:8 Thus the sons of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the lodging place and put them down there.

Joshua 4:9 Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan at the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant were standing, and they are there to this day.

Joshua 4:10 For the priests who carried the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and crossed;

Joshua 4:11 and when all the people had finished crossing, the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed before the people.

Joshua 4:12 The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle array before the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them;

Joshua 4:13 about 40,000 equipped for war, crossed for battle before the LORD to the desert plains of Jericho.

Joshua 4:14 On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; so that they revered him, just as they had revered Moses all the days of his life.

Joshua 4:15 Now the LORD said to Joshua,

Joshua 4:16 "Command the priests who carry the ark of the testimony that they come up from the Jordan."

Joshua 4:17 So Joshua commanded the priests, saying, "Come up from the Jordan."

Joshua 4:18 It came about when the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come up from the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up to the dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks as before.

Joshua 4:19 Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth of the first month and camped at Gilgal on the eastern edge of Jericho.

Joshua 4:20 Those twelve stones which they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua set up at Gilgal.

Joshua 4:21 He said to the sons of Israel, "When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, 'What are these stones?'

Joshua 4:22 then you shall inform your children, saying, 'Israel crossed this Jordan on dry ground.'

Joshua 4:23 "For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed, just as the LORD your God had done to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed;

Joshua 4:24 that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, so that you may fear the LORD your God forever."

Joshua 5:1 Now it came about when all the kings of the Amorites who [were] beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites who [were] by the sea, heard how the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the sons of Israel until they had crossed, that their hearts melted, and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the sons of Israel.

Joshua 5:2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make for yourself flint knives and circumcise again the sons of Israel the second time."

Joshua 5:3 So Joshua made himself flint knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at Gibeath-haaraloth.

Joshua 5:4 This is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness along the way after they came out of Egypt.

Joshua 5:5 For all the people who came out were circumcised, but all the people who were born in the wilderness along the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised.

Joshua 5:6 For the sons of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, [that is], the men of war who came out of Egypt, perished because they did not listen to the voice of the LORD, to whom the LORD had sworn that He would not let them see the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Joshua 5:7 Their children whom He raised up in their place, Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them along the way.

Joshua 5:8 Now when they had finished circumcising all the nation, they remained in their places in the camp until they were healed.

Joshua 5:9 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” So the name of that place is called Gilgal to this day.

Joshua 5:10 While the sons of Israel camped at Gilgal they observed the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the desert plains of Jericho.

Joshua 5:11 On the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched [grain].

Joshua 5:12 The manna ceased on the day after they had eaten some of the produce of the land, so that the sons of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate some of the yield of the land of Canaan during that year.

Joshua 5:13 Now it came about when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing opposite him with his sword drawn in his hand, and Joshua went to him and said to him, “Are you for us or for our adversaries?”

Joshua 5:14 He said, “No; rather I indeed come now [as] captain of the host of the LORD.” And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and bowed down, and said to him, “What has my lord to say to his servant?”

Joshua 5:15 The captain of the LORD’S host said to Joshua, “Remove your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so.

Joshua 6:1 Now Jericho was tightly shut because of the sons of Israel; no one went out and no one came in.

Joshua 6:2 The LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king [and] the valiant warriors.

Joshua 6:3 “You shall march around the city, all the men of war circling the city once. You shall do so for six days.

Joshua 6:4 “Also seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark; then on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.

Joshua 6:5 “It shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people will go up every man straight ahead.”

Joshua 6:6 So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:7 Then he said to the people, “Go forward, and march around the city, and let the armed men go on before the ark of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:8 And it was [so], that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD went forward and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

Joshua 6:9 The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while they continued to blow the trumpets.

Joshua 6:10 But Joshua commanded the people, saying, “You shall not shout nor let your voice be heard nor let a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout!”

Joshua 6:11 So he had the ark of the LORD taken around the city, circling [it] once; then they came into the camp and spent the night in the camp.

Joshua 6:12 Now Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

Joshua 6:13 The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew the trumpets; and the armed men went before them and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while they continued to blow the trumpets.

Joshua 6:14 Thus the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp; they did so for six days.

Joshua 6:15 Then on the seventh day they rose early at the dawning of the day and marched around the city in the same manner seven times; only on that day they marched around the city seven times.

Joshua 6:16 At the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city.

Joshua 6:17 “The city shall be under the ban, it and all that is in it belongs to the LORD; only Rahab the harlot and all who are with her in the house shall live, because she hid the messengers whom we sent.

Joshua 6:18 “But as for you, only keep yourselves from the things under the ban, so that you do not covet [them] and take some of the things under the ban, and make the camp of Israel accursed and bring trouble on it.

Joshua 6:19 “But all the silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron are holy to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:20 So the people shouted, and [priests] blew the trumpets; and when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted with a great shout and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight ahead, and they took the city.

Joshua 6:21 They utterly destroyed everything in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

Joshua 6:22 Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the harlot’s house and bring the woman and all she has out of there, as you have sworn to her.”

Joshua 6:23 So the young men who were spies went in and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all she had; they also brought out all her relatives and placed them outside the camp of Israel.

Joshua 6:24 They burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only the silver and gold, and articles of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

Joshua 6:25 However, Rahab the harlot and her father’s household and all she had, Joshua spared; and she has lived in the midst of Israel to this day, for she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

Joshua 6:26 Then Joshua made them take an oath at that time, saying, “Cursed before the LORD is the man who rises up and builds this city Jericho; with [the loss of] his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and with [the loss of] his youngest son he shall set up its gates.”

Joshua 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land.

Joshua 7:1 But the sons of Israel acted unfaithfully in regard to the things under the ban, for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took some of the things under the ban, therefore the anger of the LORD burned against the sons of Israel.

Joshua 7:2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, “Go up and spy out the land.” So the men went up and spied out Ai.

Joshua 7:3 They returned to Joshua and said to him, “Do not let all the people go up; [only] about two or three thousand men need go up to Ai; do not make all the people toil up there, for they are few.”

Joshua 7:4 So about three thousand men from the people went up there, but they fled from the men of Ai.

Joshua 7:5 The men of Ai struck down about thirty-six of their men, and pursued them from the gate as far as Shebarim and struck them down on the descent, so the hearts of the people melted and became as water.

Joshua 7:6 Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, [both] he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.

Joshua 7:7 Joshua said, “Alas, O Lord GOD, why did You ever bring this people over the Jordan, [only] to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? If only we had been willing to dwell beyond the Jordan!

Joshua 7:8 “O Lord, what can I say since Israel has turned [their] back before their enemies?

Joshua 7:9 “For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and they will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what will You do for Your great name?”

Joshua 7:10 So the LORD said to Joshua, “Rise up! Why is it that you have fallen on your face?

Joshua 7:11 “Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. And they have even taken some of the things under the ban and have both stolen and deceived. Moreover, they have also put [them] among their own things.

Joshua 7:12 “Therefore the sons of Israel cannot stand before their enemies; they turn [their] backs before their enemies, for they have become accursed. I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy the things under the ban from your midst.

Joshua 7:13 “Rise up! Consecrate the people and say, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, for thus the LORD, the God of Israel, has said, “There are things under the ban in your midst, O Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you have removed the things under the ban from your midst.”

Joshua 7:14 ‘In the morning then you shall come near by your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD takes [by lot] shall come near by families, and the family which the LORD takes shall come near by households, and the household which the LORD takes shall come near man by man.

Joshua 7:15 ‘It shall be that the one who is taken with the things under the ban shall be burned with fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has committed a disgraceful thing in Israel.’“

Joshua 7:16 So Joshua arose early in the morning and brought Israel near by tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

Joshua 7:17 He brought the family of Judah near, and he took the family of the Zerahites; and he brought the family of the Zerahites near man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

Joshua 7:18 He brought his household near man by man; and Achan, son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was taken.

Joshua 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, I implore you, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give praise to Him; and tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me.”

Joshua 7:20 So Achan answered Joshua and said, “Truly, I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel, and this is what I did:

Joshua 7:21 when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold fifty shekels in weight, then I coveted them and took them; and behold, they are concealed in the earth inside my tent with the silver underneath it.”

Joshua 7:22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was concealed in his tent with the silver underneath it.

Joshua 7:23 They took them from inside the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel, and they poured them out before the LORD.

Joshua 7:24 Then Joshua and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the mantle, the bar of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent and all that belonged to him; and they brought them up to the valley of Achor.

Joshua 7:25 Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day.” And all Israel stoned them with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

Joshua 7:26 They raised over him a great heap of stones that stands to this day, and the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the valley of Achor to this day.

Joshua 8:1 Now the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear or be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you and arise, go up to Ai; see, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.

Joshua 8:2 “You shall do to Ai and its king just as you did to Jericho and its king; you shall take only its spoil and its cattle as plunder for yourselves. Set an ambush for the city behind it.”

Joshua 8:3 So Joshua rose with all the people of war to go up to Ai; and Joshua chose 30,000 men, valiant warriors, and sent them out at night.

Joshua 8:4 He commanded them, saying, “See, you are going to ambush the city from behind it. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready.

Joshua 8:5 “Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. And when they come out to meet us as at the first, we will flee before them.

Joshua 8:6 “They will come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, ‘[They] are fleeing before us as at the first.’ So we will flee before them.

Joshua 8:7 “And you shall rise from [your] ambush and take possession of the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

Joshua 8:8 “Then it will be when you have seized the city, that you shall set the city on fire. You shall do [it] according to the word of the LORD. See, I have commanded you.”

Joshua 8:9 So Joshua sent them away, and they went to the place of ambush and remained between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua spent that night among the people.

Joshua 8:10 Now Joshua rose early in the morning and mustered the people, and he went up with the elders of Israel before the people to Ai.

Joshua 8:11 Then all the people of war who [were] with him went up and drew near and arrived in front of the city, and camped on the north side of Ai. Now [there was] a valley between him and Ai.

Joshua 8:12 And he took about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.

Joshua 8:13 So they stationed the people, all the army that was on the north side of the city, and its rear guard on the west side of the city, and Joshua spent that night in the midst of the valley.

Joshua 8:14 It came about when the king of Ai saw [it], that the men of the city hurried and rose up early and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people at the appointed place before the desert plain. But he did not know that [there was] an ambush against him behind the city.

Joshua 8:15 Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

Joshua 8:16 And all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city.

Joshua 8:17 So not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who had not gone out after Israel, and they left the city unguarded and pursued Israel.

Joshua 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” So Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city.

Joshua 8:19 The [men in] ambush rose quickly from their place, and when he had stretched out his hand, they ran and entered the city and captured it, and they quickly set the city on fire.

Joshua 8:20 When the men of Ai turned back and looked, behold, the smoke of the city ascended to the sky, and they had no place to flee this way or that, for the people who had been fleeing to the wilderness turned against the pursuers.

Joshua 8:21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the [men in] ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and slew the men of Ai.

Joshua 8:22 The others came out from the city to encounter them, so that they were [trapped] in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side; and they slew them until no one was left of those who survived or escaped.

Joshua 8:23 But they took alive the king of Ai and brought him to Joshua.

Joshua 8:24 Now when Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field in the wilderness where they pursued them, and all of them were fallen by the edge of the sword until they were destroyed, then all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

Joshua 8:25 All who fell that day, both men and women, were 12,000— all the people of Ai.

Joshua 8:26 For Joshua did not withdraw his hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

Joshua 8:27 Israel took only the cattle and the spoil of that city as plunder for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.

Joshua 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation until this day.

Joshua 8:29 He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; and at sunset Joshua gave command and they took his body down from the tree and threw it at the entrance of the city gate, and raised over it a great heap of stones [that stands] to this day.

Joshua 8:30 Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal,

Joshua 8:31 just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones on which no man had wielded an iron [tool]; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

Joshua 8:32 He wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written, in the presence of the sons of Israel.

Joshua 8:33 All Israel with their elders and officers and their judges were standing on both sides of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as the native. Half of them [stood] in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had given command at first to bless the people of Israel.

Joshua 8:34 Then afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

Joshua 8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel with the women and the little ones and the strangers who were living among them.

Joshua 9:1 Now it came about when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country and in the lowland and on all the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, heard of it,

Joshua 9:2 that they gathered themselves together with one accord to fight with Joshua and with Israel.

Joshua 9:3 When the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,

Joshua 9:4 they also acted craftily and set out as envoys, and took worn-out sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins worn-out and torn and mended,

Joshua 9:5 and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry [and] had become crumbled.

Joshua 9:6 They went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the men of Israel, “We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us.”

Joshua 9:7 The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you are living within our land; how then shall we make a covenant with you?”

Joshua 9:8 But they said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” Then Joshua said to them, “Who are you and where do you come from?”

Joshua 9:9 They said to him, “Your servants have come from a very far country because of the fame of the LORD your God; for we have heard the report of Him and all that He did in Egypt,

Joshua 9:10 and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan who was at Ashtaroth.

Joshua 9:11 “So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, ‘Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them and say to them, “We are your servants; now then, make a covenant with us.”‘

Joshua 9:12 “This our bread [was] warm [when] we took it for our provisions out of our houses on the day that we left to come to you; but now behold, it is dry and has become crumbled.

Joshua 9:13 “These wineskins which we filled were new, and behold, they are torn; and these our clothes and our sandals are worn out because of the very long journey.”

Joshua 9:14 So the men [of Israel] took some of their provisions, and did not ask for the counsel of the LORD.

Joshua 9:15 Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation swore [an oath] to them.

Joshua 9:16 It came about at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were neighbors and that they were living within their land.

Joshua 9:17 Then the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities [were] Gibeon and Chephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath-jearim.

Joshua 9:18 The sons of Israel did not strike them because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD the God of Israel. And the whole congregation grumbled against the leaders.

Joshua 9:19 But all the leaders said to the whole congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them.

Joshua 9:20 “This we will do to them, even let them live, so that wrath will not be upon us for the oath which we swore to them.”

Joshua 9:21 The leaders said to them, “Let them live.” So they became hewers of wood and drawers of water for the whole congregation, just as the leaders had spoken to them.

Joshua 9:22 Then Joshua called for them and spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you are living within our land?

Joshua 9:23 “Now therefore, you are cursed, and you shall never cease being slaves, both hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.”

Joshua 9:24 So they answered Joshua and said, “Because it was certainly told your servants that the LORD your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you; therefore we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

Joshua 9:25 “Now behold, we are in your hands; do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us.”

Joshua 9:26 Thus he did to them, and delivered them from the hands of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them.

Joshua 9:27 But Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which He would choose.

Joshua 10:1 Now it came about when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai, and had utterly destroyed it (just as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king), and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were within their land,

Joshua 10:2 that he feared greatly, because Gibeon [was] a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men [were] mighty.

Joshua 10:3 Therefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent [word] to Hoham king of Hebron and to Piram king of Jarmuth and to Japhia king of Lachish and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

Joshua 10:4 “Come up to me and help me, and let us attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel.”

Joshua 10:5 So the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, [and] the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they with all their armies, and camped by Gibeon and fought against it.

Joshua 10:6 Then the men of Gibeon sent [word] to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, saying, “Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites that live in the hill country have assembled against us.”

Joshua 10:7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the valiant warriors.

Joshua 10:8 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands; not one of them shall stand before you.”

Joshua 10:9 So Joshua came upon them suddenly by marching all night from Gilgal.

Joshua 10:10 And the LORD confounded them before Israel, and He slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and pursued them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon and struck them as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

Joshua 10:11 As they fled from before Israel, [while] they were at the descent of Beth-horon, the LORD threw large stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died; [there were] more who died from the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword.

Joshua 10:12 Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the sons of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, “O sun, stand still at Gibeon, And O moon in the valley of Aijalon.”

Joshua 10:13 So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, Until the nation avenged themselves of their enemies. Is it not written in the book of Jashar? And the sun stopped in the middle of the sky and did not hasten to go [down] for about a whole day.

Joshua 10:14 There was no day like that before it or after it, when the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:15 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp to Gilgal.

Joshua 10:16 Now these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah.

Joshua 10:17 It was told Joshua, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”

Joshua 10:18 Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and assign men by it to guard them, Joshua 10:19 but do not stay [there] yourselves; pursue your enemies and attack them in the rear. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.”

Joshua 10:20 It came about when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished slaying them with a very great slaughter, until they were destroyed, and the survivors [who] remained of them had entered the fortified cities,

Joshua 10:21 that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. No one uttered a word against any of the sons of Israel.

Joshua 10:22 Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave and bring these five kings out to me from the cave.”

Joshua 10:23 They did so, and brought these five kings out to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, [and] the king of Eglon.

Joshua 10:24 When they brought these kings out to Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came near and put their feet on their necks.

Joshua 10:25 Joshua then said to them, “Do not fear or be dismayed! Be strong and courageous, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies with whom you fight.”

Joshua 10:26 So afterward Joshua struck them and put them to death, and he hanged them on five trees; and they hung on the trees until evening.

Joshua 10:27 It came about at sunset that Joshua gave a command, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and put large stones over the mouth of the cave, to this very day.

Joshua 10:28 Now Joshua captured Makkedah on that day, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed it and every person who was in it. He left no survivor. Thus he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Makkedah to Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

Joshua 10:30 The LORD gave it also with its king into the hands of Israel, and he struck it and every person who [was] in it with the edge of the sword. He left no survivor in it. Thus he did to its king just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:31 And Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish, and they camped by it and fought against it.

Joshua 10:32 The LORD gave Lachish into the hands of Israel; and he captured it on the second day, and struck it and every person who [was] in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

Joshua 10:33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish, and Joshua defeated him and his people until he had left him no survivor.

Joshua 10:34 And Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Lachish to Eglon, and they camped by it and fought against it.

Joshua 10:35 They captured it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; and he utterly destroyed that day every person who [was] in it, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

Joshua 10:36 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought against it.

Joshua 10:37 They captured it and struck it and its king and all its cities and all the persons who [were] in it with the edge of the sword. He left no survivor, according to all that he had done to Eglon. And he utterly destroyed it and every person who [was] in it.

Joshua 10:38 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to Debir, and they fought against it.

Joshua 10:39 He captured it and its king and all its cities, and they struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed every person [who was] in it. He left no survivor. Just as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had also done to Libnah and its king.

Joshua 10:40 Thus Joshua struck all the land, the hill country and the Negev and the lowland and the slopes and all their kings. He left no survivor, but he utterly destroyed all who breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded.

Joshua 10:41 Joshua struck them from Kadesh-barnea even as far as Gaza, and all the country of Goshen even as far as Gibeon.

Joshua 10:42 Joshua captured all these kings and their lands at one time, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:43 So Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11:1 Then it came about, when Jabin king of Hazor heard [of it], that he sent to Jobab king of Madon and to the king of Shimron and to the king of Achshaph,

Joshua 11:2 and to the kings who were of the north in the hill country, and in the Arabah— south of Chinneroth and in the lowland and on the heights of Dor on the west—

Joshua 11:3 to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mizpeh.

Joshua 11:4 They came out, they and all their armies with them, [as] many people as the sand that is on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.

Joshua 11:5 So all of these kings having agreed to meet, came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

Joshua 11:6 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow at this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel; you shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.”

Joshua 11:7 So Joshua and all the people of war with him came upon them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and attacked them.

Joshua 11:8 The LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, so that they defeated them, and pursued them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim and the valley of Mizpeh to the east; and they struck them until no survivor was left to them.

Joshua 11:9 Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

Joshua 11:10 Then Joshua turned back at that time, and captured Hazor and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor formerly was the head of all these kingdoms.

Joshua 11:11 They struck every person who was in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying [them]; there was no one left who breathed. And he burned Hazor with fire.

Joshua 11:12 Joshua captured all the cities of these kings, and all their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, [and] utterly destroyed them; just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

Joshua 11:13 However, Israel did not burn any cities that stood on their mounds, except Hazor alone, [which] Joshua burned.

Joshua 11:14 All the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the sons of Israel took as their plunder; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. They left no one who breathed.

Joshua 11:15 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:16 Thus Joshua took all that land: the hill country and all the Negev, all that land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel and its lowland

Joshua 11:17 from Mount Halak, that rises toward Seir, even as far as Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon at the foot of Mount Hermon. And he captured all their kings and struck them down and put them to death.

Joshua 11:18 Joshua waged war a long time with all these kings.

Joshua 11:19 There was not a city which made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivites living in Gibeon; they took them all in battle.

Joshua 11:20 For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, to meet Israel in battle in order that he might utterly destroy them, that they might receive no mercy, but that he might destroy them, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:21 Then Joshua came at that time and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab and from all the hill country of Judah and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.

Joshua 11:22 There were no Anakim left in the land of the sons of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod some remained.

Joshua 11:23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses, and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Thus the land had rest from war.

Joshua 12:1 Now these are the kings of the land whom the sons of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise, from the valley of the Arnon as far as Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah to the east:

Joshua 12:2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, [and] ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, both the middle of the valley and half of Gilead, even as far as the brook Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon;

Joshua 12:3 and the Arabah as far as the Sea of Chinneroth toward the east, and as far as the sea of the Arabah, [even] the Salt Sea, eastward toward Beth-jeshimoth, and on the south, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah;

Joshua 12:4 and the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the remnant of Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

Joshua 12:5 and ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah and all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half of Gilead, [as far as] the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

Joshua 12:6 Moses the servant of the LORD and the sons of Israel defeated them; and Moses the servant of the LORD gave it to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh as a possession.

Joshua 12:7 Now these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the sons of Israel defeated beyond the Jordan toward the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even as far as Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir; and Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,

Joshua 12:8 in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, on the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the Negev; the Hittite, the Amorite and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite:

Joshua 12:9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

Joshua 12:10 the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

Joshua 12:12 the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

Joshua 12:13 the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

Joshua 12:14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

Joshua 12:15 the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

Joshua 12:16 the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;

Joshua 12:18 the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

Joshua 12:19 the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

Joshua 12:20 the king of Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

Joshua 12:21 the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

Joshua 12:22 the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

Joshua 12:23 the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of Goiim in Gilgal, one;

Joshua 13:1 Now Joshua was old [and] advanced in years when the LORD said to him, “You are old [and] advanced in years, and very much of the land remains to be possessed.

Joshua 13:2 “This is the land that remains: all the regions [of] the Philistines and all [those of] the Geshurites;

Joshua 13:3 from the Shihor which is east of Egypt, even as far as the border of Ekron to the north (it is counted as Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines: the Gazite, the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, the Ekronite; and the Avvite

Joshua 13:4 to the south, all the land of the Canaanite, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorite;

Joshua 13:5 and the land of the Gebalite, and all of Lebanon, toward the east, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon as far as Lebo-hamath.

Joshua 13:6 “All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon as far as Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians, I will drive them out from before the sons of Israel; only allot it to Israel for an inheritance as I have commanded you.

Joshua 13:7 “Now therefore, apportion this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.”

Joshua 13:8 With the other half-tribe, the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance which Moses gave them beyond the Jordan to the east, just as Moses the servant of the LORD gave to them;

Joshua 13:9 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, with the city which is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba, as far as Dibon;

Joshua 13:10 and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the sons of Ammon;

Joshua 13:11 and Gilead, and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salecah;

Joshua 13:12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for Moses struck them and dispossessed them.

Joshua 13:13 But the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites or the Maacathites; for Geshur and Maacath live among Israel until this day.

Joshua 13:14 Only to the tribe of Levi he did not give an inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as He spoke to him.

Joshua 13:15 So Moses gave [an inheritance] to the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their families.

Joshua 13:16 Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, with the city which is in the middle of the valley and all the plain by Medeba;

Joshua 13:17 Heshbon, and all its cities which are on the plain: Dibon and Bamoth-baal and Beth-baal-meon,

Joshua 13:18 and Jahaz and Kedemoth and Mephaath,

Joshua 13:19 and Kiriathaim and Sibmah and Zereth-shahar on the hill of the valley,

Joshua 13:20 and Beth-peor and the slopes of Pisgah and Beth-jeshimoth,

Joshua 13:21 even all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land.

Joshua 13:22 The sons of Israel also killed Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner, with the sword among [the rest of] their slain.

Joshua 13:23 The border of the sons of Reuben was the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Joshua 13:24 Moses also gave [an inheritance] to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad, according to their families.

Joshua 13:25 Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the sons of Ammon, as far as Aroer which is before Rabbah;

Joshua 13:26 and from Heshbon as far as Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim as far as the border of Debir;

Joshua 13:27 and in the valley, Beth-haram and Beth-nimrah and Succoth and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as a border, as far as the [lower] end of the Sea of Chinnereth beyond the Jordan to the east.

Joshua 13:28 This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Joshua 13:29 Moses also gave [an inheritance] to the half-tribe of Manasseh; and it was for the half-tribe of the sons of Manasseh according to their families.

Joshua 13:30 Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities;

Joshua 13:31 also half of Gilead, with Ashtaroth and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, [were] for the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the sons of Machir according to their families.

Joshua 13:32 These are [the territories] which Moses apportioned for an inheritance in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho to the east.

Joshua 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi, Moses did not give an inheritance; the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as He had promised to them.

Joshua 14:1 Now these are [the territories] which the sons of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the households of the tribes of the sons of Israel apportioned to them for an inheritance,

Joshua 14:2 by the lot of their inheritance, as the LORD commanded through Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

Joshua 14:3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but he did not give an inheritance to the Levites among them.

Joshua 14:4 For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and they did not give a portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with their pasture lands for their livestock and for their property.

Joshua 14:5 Thus the sons of Israel did just as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

Joshua 14:6 Then the sons of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know the word which the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning you and me in Kadesh-barnea.

Joshua 14:7 “I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought word back to him as [it was] in my heart.

Joshua 14:8 “Nevertheless my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt with fear; but I followed the LORD my God fully.

Joshua 14:9 “So Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘Surely the land on which your foot has trodden will be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have followed the LORD my God fully.’

Joshua 14:10 “Now behold, the LORD has let me live, just as He spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel walked in the wilderness; and now behold, I am eighty-five years old today.

Joshua 14:11 “I am still as strong today as I was in the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so my strength is now, for war and for going out and coming in.

Joshua 14:12 “Now then, give me this hill country about which the LORD spoke on that day, for you heard on that day that Anakim [were] there, with great fortified cities; perhaps the LORD will be with me, and I will drive them out as the LORD has spoken.”

Joshua 14:13 So Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

Joshua 14:14 Therefore, Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite until this day, because he followed the LORD God of Israel fully.

Joshua 14:15 Now the name of Hebron was formerly Kiriath-arba; [for Arba] was the greatest man among the Anakim. Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15:1 Now the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families reached the border of Edom, southward to the wilderness of Zin at the extreme south.

Joshua 15:2 Their south border was from the lower end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that turns to the south.

Joshua 15:3 Then it proceeded southward to the ascent of Akrabbim and continued to Zin, then went up by the south of Kadesh-barnea and continued to Hezron, and went up to Addar and turned about to Karka.

Joshua 15:4 It continued to Azmon and proceeded to the brook of Egypt, and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your south border.

Joshua 15:5 The east border [was] the Salt Sea, as far as the mouth of the Jordan. And the border of the north side was from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan.

Joshua 15:6 Then the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and continued on the north of Beth-arabah, and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

Joshua 15:7 The border went up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and turned northward toward Gilgal which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south of the valley; and the border continued to the waters of En-shemesh and it ended at En-rogel.

Joshua 15:8 Then the border went up the valley of Ben-hinnom to the slope of the Jebusite on the south (that is, Jerusalem); and the border went up to the top of the mountain which is before the valley of Hinnom to the west, which is at the end of the valley of Rephaim toward the north.

Joshua 15:9 From the top of the mountain the border curved to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah and proceeded to the cities of Mount Ephron, then the border curved to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim).

Joshua 15:10 The border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and continued to the slope of Mount Jearim on the north (that is, Chesalon), and went down to Beth-shemesh and continued through Timnah.

Joshua 15:11 The border proceeded to the side of Ekron northward. Then the border curved to Shikkeron and continued to Mount Baalah and proceeded to Jabneel, and the border ended at the sea.

Joshua 15:12 The west border [was] at the Great Sea, even [its] coastline. This is the border around the sons of Judah according to their families.

Joshua 15:13 Now he gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh a portion among the sons of Judah, according to the command of the LORD to Joshua, [namely], Kiriath-arba, [Arba being] the father of Anak (that is, Hebron).

Joshua 15:14 Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, the children of Anak.

Joshua 15:15 Then he went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher.

Joshua 15:16 And Caleb said, “The one who attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will give him Achsah my daughter as a wife.”

Joshua 15:17 Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it; so he gave him Achsah his daughter as a wife.

Joshua 15:18 It came about that when she came [to him], she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. So she alighted from the donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you want?”

Joshua 15:19 Then she said, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me the land of the Negev, give me also springs of water.” So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Joshua 15:20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families.

Joshua 15:21 Now the cities at the extremity of the tribe of the sons of Judah toward the border of Edom in the south were Kabzeel and Eder and Jagur,

Joshua 15:22 and Kinah and Dimonah and Adadah,

Joshua 15:23 and Kedesh and Hazor and Ithnan,

Joshua 15:24 Ziph and Telem and Bealoth,

Joshua 15:25 and Hazor-hadattah and Kerioth-hezron (that is, Hazor),

Joshua 15:26 Amam and Shema and Moladah, Joshua 15:27 and Hazar-gaddah and Heshmon and Beth-pelet,

Joshua 15:28 and Hazar-shual and Beersheba and Biziothiah,

Joshua 15:29 Baalah and Iim and Ezem,

Joshua 15:30 and Eltolad and Chesil and Hormah,

Joshua 15:31 and Ziklag and Madmannah and Sansannah,

Joshua 15:32 and Lebaoth and Shilhim and Ain and Rimmon; in all, twenty-nine cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:33 In the lowland: Eshtaol and Zorah and Ashnah,

Joshua 15:34 and Zanoah and En-gannim, Tappuah and Enam,

Joshua 15:35 Jarmuth and Adullam, Socoh and Azekah,

Joshua 15:36 and Shaaraim and Adithaim and Gederah and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:37 Zenan and Hadashah and Migdal-gad,

Joshua 15:38 and Dilean and Mizpeh and Joktheel,

Joshua 15:39 Lachish and Bozkath and Eglon,

Joshua 15:40 and Cabbon and Lahmas and Chitlish,

Joshua 15:41 and Gederoth, Beth-dagon and Naamah and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:42 Libnah and Ether and Ashan,

Joshua 15:43 and Iphtah and Ashnah and Nezib,

Joshua 15:44 and Keilah and Achzib and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:45 Ekron, with its towns and its villages;

Joshua 15:46 from Ekron even to the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod, with their villages.

Joshua 15:47 Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; as far as the brook of Egypt and the Great Sea, even [its] coastline.

Joshua 15:48 In the hill country: Shamir and Jattir and Socoh,

Joshua 15:49 and Dannah and Kiriath-sannah (that is, Debir),

Joshua 15:50 and Anab and Eshtemoh and Anim,

Joshua 15:51 and Goshen and Holon and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:52 Arab and Dumah and Eshan,

Joshua 15:53 and Janum and Beth-tappuah and Aphekah,

Joshua 15:54 and Humtah and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior; nine cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:55 Maon, Carmel and Ziph and Juttah,

Joshua 15:56 and Jezreel and Jokdeam and Zanoah, Joshua 15:57 Kain, Gibeah and Timnah; ten cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:59 and Maarath and Beth-anoth and Eltekon; six cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:60 Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), and Rabbah; two cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:61 In the wilderness: Beth-arabah, Middin and Secacah,

Joshua 15:62 and Nibshan and the City of Salt and Engedi; six cities with their villages.

Joshua 15:63 Now as for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the sons of Judah could not drive them out; so the Jebusites live with the sons of Judah at Jerusalem until this day.

Joshua 16:1 Then the lot for the sons of Joseph went from the Jordan at Jericho to the waters of Jericho on the east into the wilderness, going up from Jericho through the hill country to Bethel.

Joshua 16:3 It went down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, as far as the territory of lower Beth-horon even to Gezer, and it ended at the sea.

Joshua 16:4 The sons of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance.

Joshua 16:5 Now [this] was the territory of the sons of Ephraim according to their families: the border of their inheritance eastward was Ataroth-addar, as far as upper Beth-horon.

Joshua 16:6 Then the border went westward at Michmethath on the north, and the border turned about eastward to Taanath-shiloh and continued [beyond] it to the east of Janoah.

Joshua 16:7 It went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, then reached Jericho and came out at the Jordan.

Joshua 16:8 From Tappuah the border continued westward to the brook of Kanah, and it ended at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim according to their families,

Joshua 16:9 [together] with the cities which were set apart for the sons of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

Joshua 16:10 But they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so the Canaanites live in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and they became forced laborers.

Joshua 17:1 Now [this] was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war.

Joshua 17:2 So [the lot] was [made] for the rest of the sons of Manasseh according to their families: for the sons of Abiezer and for the sons of Helek and for the sons of Asriel and for the sons of Shechem and for the sons of Hepher and for the sons of Shemida; these [were] the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

Joshua 17:3 However, Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

Joshua 17:4 They came near before Eleazar the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun and before the leaders, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” So according to the command of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among their father’s brothers.

Joshua 17:5 Thus there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan,

Joshua 17:6 because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons. And the land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh.

Joshua 17:7 The border of Manasseh ran from Asher to Michmethath which was east of Shechem; then the border went southward to the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

Joshua 17:8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh [belonged] to the sons of Ephraim.

Joshua 17:9 The border went down to the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook (these cities [belonged] to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh), and the border of Manasseh [was] on the north side of the brook and it ended at the sea.

Joshua 17:10 The south side [belonged] to Ephraim and the north side to Manasseh, and the sea was their border; and they reached to Asher on the north and to Issachar on the east.

Joshua 17:11 In Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its towns and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns, the third is Napheth.

Joshua 17:12 But the sons of Manasseh could not take possession of these cities, because the Canaanites persisted in living in that land.

Joshua 17:13 It came about when the sons of Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out completely.

Joshua 17:14 Then the sons of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why have you given me only one lot and one portion for an inheritance, since I am a numerous people whom the LORD has thus far blessed?”

Joshua 17:15 Joshua said to them, “If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.”

Joshua 17:16 The sons of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the valley land have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth-shean and its towns and those who are in the valley of Jezreel.”

Joshua 17:17 Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, saying, “You are a numerous people and have great power; you shall not have one lot [only],

Joshua 17:18 but the hill country shall be yours. For though it is a forest, you shall clear it, and to its farthest borders it shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have chariots of iron [and] though they are strong.”

Joshua 18:1 Then the whole congregation of the sons of Israel assembled themselves at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there; and the land was subdued before them.

Joshua 18:2 There remained among the sons of Israel seven tribes who had not divided their inheritance.

Joshua 18:3 So Joshua said to the sons of Israel, “How long will you put off entering to take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?

Joshua 18:4 “Provide for yourselves three men from each tribe that I may send them, and that they may arise and walk through the land and write a description of it according to their inheritance; then they shall return to me.

Joshua 18:5 “They shall divide it into seven portions; Judah shall stay in its territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay in their territory on the north.

Joshua 18:6 “You shall describe the land in seven divisions, and bring [the description] here to me. I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

Joshua 18:7 “For the Levites have no portion among you, because the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh also have received their inheritance eastward beyond the Jordan, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

Joshua 18:8 Then the men arose and went, and Joshua commanded those who went to describe the land, saying, “Go and walk through the land and describe it, and return to me; then I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh."

Joshua 18:9 So the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities in seven divisions in a book; and they came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh.

Joshua 18:10 And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land to the sons of Israel according to their divisions.

Joshua 18:11 Now the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot lay between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph.

Joshua 18:12 Their border on the north side was from the Jordan, then the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward, and it ended at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

Joshua 18:13 From there the border continued to Luz, to the side of Luz (that is, Bethel) southward; and the border went down to Ataroth-addar, near the hill which [lies] on the south of lower Beth-horon.

Joshua 18:14 The border extended [from there] and turned round on the west side southward, from the hill which [lies] before Beth-horon southward; and it ended at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a city of the sons of Judah. This [was] the west side.

Joshua 18:15 Then the south side [was] from the edge of Kiriath-jearim, and the border went westward and went to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah.

Joshua 18:16 The border went down to the edge of the hill which is in the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim northward; and it went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the slope of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En-rogel.

Joshua 18:17 It extended northward and went to En-shemesh and went to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, and it went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

Joshua 18:18 It continued to the side in front of the Arabah northward and went down to the Arabah.

Joshua 18:19 The border continued to the side of Beth-hoglah northward; and the border ended at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This [was] the south border.

Joshua 18:20 Moreover, the Jordan was its border on the east side. This [was] the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, according to their families [and] according to its borders all around.

Joshua 18:21 Now the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho and Beth-hoglah and Emek-keziz, Joshua 18:22 and Beth-arabah and Zemaraim and Bethel,

Joshua 18:23 and Avvim and Parah and Ophrah,

Joshua 18:24 and Chephar-ammoni and Ophni and Geba; twelve cities with their villages.

Joshua 18:25 Gibeon and Ramah and Beeroth,

Joshua 18:26 and Mizpeh and Chephirah and Mozah,

Joshua 18:27 and Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah,

Joshua 18:28 and Zelah, Haeleph and the Jebusite (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, Kiriath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their families.

Joshua 19:1 Then the second lot fell to Simeon, to the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families, and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah.

Joshua 19:2 So they had as their inheritance Beersheba or Sheba and Moladah,

Joshua 19:3 and Hazar-shual and Balah and Ezem,

Joshua 19:4 and Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah,

Joshua 19:5 and Ziklag and Beth-marcaboth and Hazar-susah,

Joshua 19:6 and Beth-lebaoth and Sharuhen; thirteen cities with their villages;

Joshua 19:7 Ain, Rimmon and Ether and Ashan; four cities with their villages;

Joshua 19:8 and all the villages which [were] around these cities as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the Negev. This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families.

Joshua 19:9 The inheritance of the sons of Simeon [was taken] from the portion of the sons of Judah, for the share of the sons of Judah was too large for them; so the sons of Simeon received [an] inheritance in the midst of Judah’s inheritance.

Joshua 19:10 Now the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun according to their families. And the territory of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.

Joshua 19:11 Then their border went up to the west and to Maralah, it then touched Dabbesheth and reached to the brook that is before Jokneam.

Joshua 19:12 Then it turned from Sarid to the east toward the sunrise as far as the border of Chisloth-tabor, and it proceeded to Daberath and up to Japhia.

Joshua 19:13 From there it continued eastward toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin, and it proceeded to Rimmon which stretches to Neah.

Joshua 19:14 The border circled around it on the north to Hannathon, and it ended at the valley of Iphtahel.

Joshua 19:15 [Included] also [were] Kattah and Nahalal and Shimron and Idalah and Bethlehem; twelve cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:16 This [was] the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:17 The fourth lot fell to Issachar, to the sons of Issachar according to their families.

Joshua 19:18 Their territory was to Jezreel and [included] Chesulloth and Shunem,

Joshua 19:19 and Hapharaim and Shion and Anaharath,

Joshua 19:20 and Rabbith and Kishion and Ebez,

Joshua 19:21 and Remeth and En-gannim and En-haddah and Beth-pazzez.

Joshua 19:22 The border reached to Tabor and Shahazumah and Beth-shemesh, and their border ended at the Jordan; sixteen cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:23 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their families, the cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:24 Now the fifth lot fell to the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families.

Joshua 19:25 Their territory was Helkath and Hali and Beten and Achshaph,

Joshua 19:26 and Allammelech and Amad and Mishal; and it reached to Carmel on the west and to Shihor-libnath.

Joshua 19:27 It turned toward the east to Beth-dagon and reached to Zebulun, and to the valley of Iphtahel northward to Beth-emek and Neiel; then it proceeded on north to Cabul, Joshua 19:28 and Ebron and Rehob and Hammon and Kanah, as far as Great Sidon.

Joshua 19:29 The border turned to Ramah and to the fortified city of Tyre; then the border turned to Hosah, and it ended at the sea by the region of Achzib.

Joshua 19:30 [Included] also [were] Ummah, and Aphek and Rehob; twenty-two cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:31 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:32 The sixth lot fell to the sons of Naphtali; to the sons of Naphtali according to their families.

Joshua 19:33 Their border was from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim and Adami-nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, and it ended at the Jordan.

Joshua 19:34 Then the border turned westward to Aznoth-tabor and proceeded from there to Hukkok; and it reached to Zebulun on the south and touched Asher on the west, and to Judah at the Jordan toward the east.

Joshua 19:35 The fortified cities [were] Ziddim, Zer and Hammath, Rakkath and Chinnereth,

Joshua 19:36 and Adamah and Ramah and Hazor,

Joshua 19:37 and Kedesh and Edrei and En-hazor,

Joshua 19:38 and Yiron and Migdal-el, Horem and Beth-anath and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:39 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali according to their families, the cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:40 The seventh lot fell to the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families.

Joshua 19:41 The territory of their inheritance was Zorah and Eshtaol and Ir-shemesh,

Joshua 19:42 and Shaalabbin and Aijalon and Ithlah,

Joshua 19:43 and Elon and Timnah and Ekron,

Joshua 19:44 and Eltekeh and Gibbethon and Baalath,

Joshua 19:45 and Jehud and Bene-berak and Gath-rimmon,

Joshua 19:47 The territory of the sons of Dan proceeded beyond them; for the sons of Dan went up and fought with Leshem and captured it. Then they struck it with the edge of the sword and possessed it and settled in it; and they called Leshem Dan after the name of Dan their father.

Joshua 19:48 This [was] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:49 When they finished apportioning the land for inheritance by its borders, the sons of Israel gave an inheritance in their midst to Joshua the son of Nun.

Joshua 19:50 In accordance with the command of the LORD they gave him the city for which he asked, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. So he built the city and settled in it.

Joshua 19:51 These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the households of the tribes of the sons of Israel distributed by lot in Shiloh before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Joshua 20:1 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

Joshua 20:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘Designate the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

Joshua 20:3 that the manslayer who kills any person unintentionally, without premeditation, may flee there, and they shall become your refuge from the avenger of blood.

Joshua 20:4 ‘He shall flee to one of these cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and state his case in the hearing of the elders of that city; and they shall take him into the city to them and give him a place, so that he may dwell among them.

Joshua 20:5 ‘Now if the avenger of blood pursues him, then they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor without premeditation and did not hate him beforehand.

Joshua 20:6 ‘He shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the manslayer shall return to his own city and to his own house, to the city from which he fled.’“

Joshua 20:7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

Joshua 20:8 Beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they designated Bezer in the wilderness on the plain from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 20:9 These were the appointed cities for all the sons of Israel and for the stranger who sojourns among them, that whoever kills any person unintentionally may flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stands before the congregation.

Joshua 21:1 Then the heads of households of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of households of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

Joshua 21:2 They spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, “The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to live in, with their pasture lands for our cattle.”

Joshua 21:3 So the sons of Israel gave the Levites from their inheritance these cities with their pasture lands, according to the command of the LORD.

Joshua 21:4 Then the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the sons of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, received thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah and from the tribe of the Simeonites and from the tribe of Benjamin.

Joshua 21:5 The rest of the sons of Kohath received ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim and from the tribe of Dan and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 21:6 The sons of Gershon received thirteen cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Asher and from the tribe of Naphtali and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

Joshua 21:7 The sons of Merari according to their families received twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben and from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun.

Joshua 21:8 Now the sons of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Joshua 21:9 They gave these cities which are [here] mentioned by name from the tribe of the sons of Judah and from the tribe of the sons of Simeon;

Joshua 21:10 and they were for the sons of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, of the sons of Levi, for the lot was theirs first.

Joshua 21:11 Thus they gave them Kiriath-arba, [Arba being] the father of Anak (that is, Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with its surrounding pasture lands.

Joshua 21:12 But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

Joshua 21:13 So to the sons of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands, and Libnah with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:14 and Jattir with its pasture lands and Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:15 and Holon with its pasture lands and Debir with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:16 and Ain with its pasture lands and Juttah with its pasture lands [and] Beth-shemesh with its pasture lands; nine cities from these two tribes.

Joshua 21:17 From the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pasture lands, Geba with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:19 All the cities of the sons of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

Joshua 21:20 Then the cities from the tribe of Ephraim were allotted to the families of the sons of Kohath, the Levites, [even to] the rest of the sons of Kohath.

Joshua 21:21 They gave them Shechem, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands, in the hill country of Ephraim, and Gezer with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:22 and Kibzaim with its pasture lands and Beth-horon with its pasture lands; four cities.

Joshua 21:23 From the tribe of Dan, Elteke with its pasture lands, Gibbethon with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:25 From the half-tribe of Manasseh, [they allotted] Taanach with its pasture lands and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands; two cities.

Joshua 21:26 All the cities with their pasture lands for the families of the rest of the sons of Kohath were ten.

Joshua 21:27 To the sons of Gershon, one of the families of the Levites, from the half-tribe of Manasseh, [they gave] Golan in Bashan, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands, and Be-eshterah with its pasture lands; two cities.

Joshua 21:28 From the tribe of Issachar, [they gave] Kishion with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:30 From the tribe of Asher, [they gave] Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:32 From the tribe of Naphtali, [they gave] Kedesh in Galilee, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands and Hammoth-dor with its pasture lands and Kartan with its pasture lands; three cities.

Joshua 21:33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

Joshua 21:34 To the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, [they gave] from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasture lands and Kartah with its pasture lands.

Joshua 21:35 Dimnah with its pasture lands, Nahalal with its pasture lands; four cities.

Joshua 21:36 From the tribe of Reuben, [they gave] Bezer with its pasture lands and Jahaz with its pasture lands, Joshua 21:37 Kedemoth with its pasture lands and Mephaath with its pasture lands; four cities.

Joshua 21:38 From the tribe of Gad, [they gave] Ramoth in Gilead, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands and Mahanaim with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:39 Heshbon with its pasture lands, Jazer with its pasture lands; four cities in all.

Joshua 21:40 All [these were] the cities of the sons of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.

Joshua 21:41 All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel were forty-eight cities with their pasture lands.

Joshua 21:42 These cities each had its surrounding pasture lands; thus [it was] with all these cities.

Joshua 21:43 So the LORD gave Israel all the land which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they possessed it and lived in it.

Joshua 21:44 And the LORD gave them rest on every side, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers, and no one of all their enemies stood before them; the LORD gave all their enemies into their hand.

Joshua 21:45 Not one of the good promises which the LORD had made to the house of Israel failed; all came to pass.

Joshua 22:1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua 22:2 and said to them, “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you.

Joshua 22:3 “You have not forsaken your brothers these many days to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

Joshua 22:4 “And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brothers, as He spoke to them; therefore turn now and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan.

Joshua 22:5 “Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God and walk in all His ways and keep His commandments and hold fast to Him and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

Joshua 22:6 So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

Joshua 22:7 Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given [a possession] in Bashan, but to the other half Joshua gave [a possession] among their brothers westward beyond the Jordan. So when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, Joshua 22:8 and said to them, “Return to your tents with great riches and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron, and with very many clothes; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.”

Joshua 22:9 The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned [home] and departed from the sons of Israel at Shiloh which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession which they had possessed, according to the command of the LORD through Moses.

Joshua 22:10 When they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan, a large altar in appearance.

Joshua 22:11 And the sons of Israel heard [it] said, “Behold, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan, on the side [belonging to] the sons of Israel.”

Joshua 22:12 When the sons of Israel heard [of it], the whole congregation of the sons of Israel gathered themselves at Shiloh to go up against them in war.

Joshua 22:13 Then the sons of Israel sent to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

Joshua 22:14 and with him ten chiefs, one chief for each father’s household from each of the tribes of Israel; and each one of them [was] the head of his father’s household among the thousands of Israel.

Joshua 22:15 They came to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them saying,

Joshua 22:16 “Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, ‘What is this unfaithful act which you have committed against the God of Israel, turning away from following the LORD this day, by building yourselves an altar, to rebel against the LORD this day?

Joshua 22:17 ‘Is not the iniquity of Peor enough for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although a plague came on the congregation of the LORD,

Joshua 22:18 that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? If you rebel against the LORD today, He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow.

Joshua 22:19 ‘If, however, the land of your possession is unclean, then cross into the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD’S tabernacle stands, and take possession among us. Only do not rebel against the LORD, or rebel against us by building an altar for yourselves, besides the altar of the LORD our God.

Joshua 22:20 'Did not Achan the son of Zerah act unfaithfully in the things under the ban, and wrath fall on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.'"

Joshua 22:21 Then the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke to the heads of the families of Israel.

Joshua 22:22 "The Mighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows, and may Israel itself know. If [it was] in rebellion, or if in an unfaithful act against the LORD do not save us this day!

Joshua 22:23 "If we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD, or if to offer a burnt offering or grain offering on it, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings on it, may the LORD Himself require it.

Joshua 22:24 "But truly we have done this out of concern, for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your sons may say to our sons, "What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

Joshua 22:25 "For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, [you] sons of Reuben and sons of Gad; you have no portion in the LORD." So your sons may make our sons stop fearing the LORD.'

Joshua 22:26 "Therefore we said, 'Let us build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice;

Joshua 22:27 rather it shall be a witness between us and you and between our generations after us, that we are to perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings, so that your sons will not say to our sons in time to come, "You have no portion in the LORD."'

Joshua 22:28 "Therefore we said, 'It shall also come about if they say [this] to us or to our generations in time to come, then we shall say, "See the copy of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; rather it is a witness between us and you."'

Joshua 22:29 "Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away from following the LORD this day, by building an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering or for sacrifice, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle."

Joshua 22:30 So when Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the congregation, even the heads of the families of Israel who [were] with him, heard the words which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.

Joshua 22:31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Manasseh, “Today we know that the LORD is in our midst, because you have not committed this unfaithful act against the LORD; now you have delivered the sons of Israel from the hand of the LORD.”

Joshua 22:32 Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the sons of Reuben and from the sons of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought back word to them.

Joshua 22:33 The word pleased the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel blessed God; and they did not speak of going up against them in war to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were living.

Joshua 22:34 The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad called the altar [Witness]; “For,” [they said], “it is a witness between us that the LORD is God.”

Joshua 23:1 Now it came about after many days, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies on every side, and Joshua was old, advanced in years,

Joshua 23:2 that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and their heads and their judges and their officers, and said to them, “I am old, advanced in years.

Joshua 23:3 “And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the LORD your God is He who has been fighting for you.

Joshua 23:4 “See, I have apportioned to you these nations which remain as an inheritance for your tribes, with all the nations which I have cut off, from the Jordan even to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun.

Joshua 23:5 “The LORD your God, He will thrust them out from before you and drive them from before you; and you will possess their land, just as the LORD your God promised you.

Joshua 23:6 “Be very firm, then, to keep and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, so that you may not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left,

Joshua 23:7 so that you will not associate with these nations, these which remain among you, or mention the name of their gods, or make [anyone] swear [by them], or serve them, or bow down to them.

Joshua 23:8 “But you are to cling to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

Joshua 23:9 “For the LORD has driven out great and strong nations from before you; and as for you, no man has stood before you to this day.

Joshua 23:10 “One of your men puts to flight a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, just as He promised you.

Joshua 23:11 “So take diligent heed to yourselves to love the LORD your God.

Joshua 23:12 “For if you ever go back and cling to the rest of these nations, these which remain among you, and intermarry with them, so that you associate with them and they with you,

Joshua 23:13 know with certainty that the LORD your God will not continue to drive these nations out from before you; but they will be a snare and a trap to you, and a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:14 “Now behold, today I am going the way of all the earth, and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one word of all the good words which the LORD your God spoke concerning you has failed; all have been fulfilled for you, not one of them has failed.

Joshua 23:15 “It shall come about that just as all the good words which the LORD your God spoke to you have come upon you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the threats, until He has destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:16 “When you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you will perish quickly from off the good land which He has given you.”

Joshua 24:1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel and for their heads and their judges and their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

Joshua 24:2 Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘From ancient times your fathers lived beyond the River, [namely], Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, and they served other gods.

Joshua 24:3 ‘Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac.

Joshua 24:4 ‘To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau, and to Esau I gave Mount Seir to possess it; but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

Joshua 24:5 ‘Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt by what I did in its midst; and afterward I brought you out.

Joshua 24:6 ‘I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and Egypt pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

Joshua 24:7 ‘But when they cried out to the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them and covered them; and your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness for a long time.

Joshua 24:8 'Then I brought you into the land of the Amorites who lived beyond the Jordan, and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, and you took possession of their land when I destroyed them before you.

Joshua 24:9 'Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel, and he sent and summoned Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

Joshua 24:10 'But I was not willing to listen to Balaam. So he had to bless you, and I delivered you from his hand.

Joshua 24:11 'You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho; and the citizens of Jericho fought against you, [and] the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Girgashite, the Hivite and the Jebusite. Thus I gave them into your hand.

Joshua 24:12 'Then I sent the hornet before you and it drove out the two kings of the Amorites from before you, [but] not by your sword or your bow.

Joshua 24:13 'I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you had not built, and you have lived in them; you are eating of vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.'

Joshua 24:14 "Now, therefore, fear the LORD and serve Him in sincerity and truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

Joshua 24:15 "If it is disagreeable in your sight to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve: whether the gods which your fathers served which were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

Joshua 24:16 The people answered and said, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods;

Joshua 24:17 for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did these great signs in our sight and preserved us through all the way in which we went and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed.

Joshua 24:18 "The LORD drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God."

Joshua 24:19 Then Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgression or your sins.

Joshua 24:20 "If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume you after He has done good to you."

Joshua 24:21 The people said to Joshua, “No, but we will serve the LORD.”

Joshua 24:22 Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves the LORD, to serve Him.” And they said, “We are witnesses.”

Joshua 24:23 “Now therefore, put away the foreign gods which are in your midst, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.”

Joshua 24:24 The people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God and we will obey His voice.”

Joshua 24:25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

Joshua 24:26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

Joshua 24:27 Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be for a witness against us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us; thus it shall be for a witness against you, so that you do not deny your God.”

Joshua 24:28 Then Joshua dismissed the people, each to his inheritance.

Joshua 24:29 It came about after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred and ten years old.

Joshua 24:30 And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of Mount Gaash.

Joshua 24:31 Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who survived Joshua, and had known all the deeds of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

Joshua 24:32 Now they buried the bones of Joseph, which the sons of Israel brought up from Egypt, at Shechem, in the piece of ground which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for one hundred pieces of money; and they became the inheritance of Joseph’s sons.

Joshua 24:33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him at Gibeah of Phinehas his son, which was given him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

1:1 Now it came about after the death of Joshua that the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD, saying, “Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?”

Judges 1:2 The LORD said, “Judah shall go up; behold, I have given the land into his hand.”

Judges 1:3 Then Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me into the territory allotted me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I in turn will go with you into the territory allotted you.” So Simeon went with him.

Judges 1:4 Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they defeated ten thousand men at Bezek.

Judges 1:5 They found Adoni-bezek in Bezek and fought against him, and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

Judges 1:6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Judges 1:7 Adoni-bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off used to gather up [scraps] under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me.” So they brought him to Jerusalem and he died there.

Judges 1:8 Then the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it and struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.

Judges 1:9 Afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country and in the Negev and in the lowland.

Judges 1:10 So Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (now the name of Hebron formerly [was] Kiriath-arba); and they struck Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai.

Judges 1:11 Then from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir (now the name of Debir formerly [was] Kiriath-sepher).

Judges 1:12 And Caleb said, “The one who attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will even give him my daughter Achsah for a wife.”

Judges 1:13 Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, captured it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah for a wife.

Judges 1:14 Then it came about when she came [to him], that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. Then she alighted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you want?”

Judges 1:15 She said to him, “Give me a blessing, since you have given me the land of the Negev, give me also springs of water.” So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Judges 1:16 The descendants of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up from the city of palms with the sons of Judah, to the wilderness of Judah which is in the south of Arad; and they went and lived with the people.

Judges 1:17 Then Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites living in Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah.

Judges 1:18 And Judah took Gaza with its territory and Ashkelon with its territory and Ekron with its territory.

Judges 1:19 Now the LORD was with Judah, and they took possession of the hill country; but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley because they had iron chariots.

Judges 1:20 Then they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had promised; and he drove out from there the three sons of Anak.

Judges 1:21 But the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

Judges 1:22 Likewise the house of Joseph went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

Judges 1:23 The house of Joseph spied out Bethel (now the name of the city was formerly Luz).

Judges 1:24 The spies saw a man coming out of the city and they said to him, “Please show us the entrance to the city and we will treat you kindly.”

Judges 1:25 So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free.

Judges 1:26 The man went into the land of the Hittites and built a city and named it Luz which is its name to this day.

Judges 1:27 But Manasseh did not take possession of Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; so the Canaanites persisted in living in that land.

Judges 1:28 It came about when Israel became strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out completely.

Judges 1:29 Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer; so the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.

Judges 1:30 Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites lived among them and became subject to forced labor.

Judges 1:31 Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob.

Judges 1:32 So the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

Judges 1:33 Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, or the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; and the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath became forced labor for them.

Judges 1:34 Then the Amorites forced the sons of Dan into the hill country, for they did not allow them to come down to the valley;

Judges 1:35 yet the Amorites persisted in living in Mount Heres, in Aijalon and in Shaalbim; but when the power of the house of Joseph grew strong, they became forced labor.

Judges 2:1 Now the angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, “I brought you up out of Egypt and led you into the land which I have sworn to your fathers; and I said, ‘I will never break My covenant with you,

Judges 2:2 and as for you, you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.’ But you have not obeyed Me; what is this you have done?

Judges 2:3 “Therefore I also said, ‘I will not drive them out before you; but they will become [as thorns] in your sides and their gods will be a snare to you.’“

Judges 2:4 When the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people lifted up their voices and wept.

Judges 2:5 So they named that place Bochim; and there they sacrificed to the LORD.

Judges 2:6 When Joshua had dismissed the people, the sons of Israel went each to his inheritance to possess the land.

Judges 2:7 The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who survived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

Judges 2:8 Then Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred and ten.

Judges 2:9 And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Judges 2:10 All that generation also were gathered to their fathers; and there arose another generation after them who did not know the LORD, nor yet the work which He had done for Israel.

Judges 2:11 Then the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD and served the Baals, Judges 2:12 and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods from [among] the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them; thus they provoked the LORD to anger.

Judges 2:13 So they forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtaroth.

Judges 2:14 The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands of plunderers who plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies around [them], so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

Judges 2:15 Wherever they went, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had spoken and as the LORD had sworn to them, so that they were severely distressed.

Judges 2:16 Then the LORD raised up judges who delivered them from the hands of those who plundered them.

Judges 2:17 Yet they did not listen to their judges, for they played the harlot after other gods and bowed themselves down to them. They turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers had walked in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do as [their fathers].

Judges 2:18 When the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed and afflicted them.

Judges 2:19 But it came about when the judge died, that they would turn back and act more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them and bow down to them; they did not abandon their practices or their stubborn ways.

Judges 2:20 So the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers and has not listened to My voice,

Judges 2:21 I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,

Judges 2:22 in order to test Israel by them, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it as their fathers did, or not.”

Judges 2:23 So the LORD allowed those nations to remain, not driving them out quickly; and He did not give them into the hand of Joshua.

Judges 3:1 Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to test Israel by them ([that is], all who had not experienced any of the wars of Canaan; Judges 3:2 only in order that the generations of the sons of Israel might be taught war, those who had not experienced it formerly).

Judges 3:3 [These nations are]: the five lords of the Philistines and all the Canaanites and the Sidonians and the Hivites who lived in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon as far as Lebo-hamath.

Judges 3:4 They were for testing Israel, to find out if they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers through Moses.

Judges 3:5 The sons of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites;

Judges 3:6 and they took their daughters for themselves as wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

Judges 3:7 The sons of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asheroth.

Judges 3:8 Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, so that He sold them into the hands of Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the sons of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim eight years.

Judges 3:9 When the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the sons of Israel to deliver them, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother.

Judges 3:10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. When he went out to war, the LORD gave Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand, so that he prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim.

Judges 3:11 Then the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Judges 3:12 Now the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

Judges 3:13 And he gathered to himself the sons of Ammon and Amalek; and he went and defeated Israel, and they possessed the city of the palm trees.

Judges 3:14 The sons of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

Judges 3:15 But when the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. And the sons of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab.

Judges 3:16 Ehud made himself a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length, and he bound it on his right thigh under his cloak.

Judges 3:17 He presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

Judges 3:18 It came about when he had finished presenting the tribute, that he sent away the people who had carried the tribute.

Judges 3:19 But he himself turned back from the idols which were at Gilgal, and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.” And he said, “Keep silence.” And all who attended him left him.

Judges 3:20 Ehud came to him while he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber. And Ehud said, “I have a message from God for you.” And he arose from his seat.

Judges 3:22 The handle also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the refuse came out.

Judges 3:23 Then Ehud went out into the vestibule and shut the doors of the roof chamber behind him, and locked [them].

Judges 3:24 When he had gone out, his servants came and looked, and behold, the doors of the roof chamber were locked; and they said, “He is only relieving himself in the cool room.”

Judges 3:25 They waited until they became anxious; but behold, he did not open the doors of the roof chamber. Therefore they took the key and opened them, and behold, their master had fallen to the floor dead.

Judges 3:26 Now Ehud escaped while they were delaying, and he passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah.

Judges 3:27 It came about when he had arrived, that he blew the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he [was] in front of them.

Judges 3:28 He said to them, “Pursue [them], for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hands.” So they went down after him and seized the fords of the Jordan opposite Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross.

Judges 3:29 They struck down at that time about ten thousand Moabites, all robust and valiant men; and no one escaped.

Judges 3:30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land was undisturbed for eighty years.

Judges 3:31 After him came Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck down six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad; and he also saved Israel.

Judges 4:1 Then the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died.

Judges 4:2 And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; and the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-hagoyim.

Judges 4:3 The sons of Israel cried to the LORD; for he had nine hundred iron chariots, and he oppressed the sons of Israel severely for twenty years.

Judges 4:4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time.

Judges 4:5 She used to sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel came up to her for judgment.

Judges 4:6 Now she sent and summoned Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-naphtali, and said to him, "Behold, the LORD, the God of Israel, has commanded, 'Go and march to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men from the sons of Naphtali and from the sons of Zebulun.

Judges 4:7 'I will draw out to you Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his many [troops] to the river Kishon, and I will give him into your hand.'"

Judges 4:8 Then Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go."

Judges 4:9 She said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the honor shall not be yours on the journey that you are about to take, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hands of a woman." Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

Judges 4:10 Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up with him; Deborah also went up with him.

Judges 4:11 Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, from the sons of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the oak in Zaanannim, which is near Kedesh.

Judges 4:12 Then they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

Judges 4:13 Sisera called together all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots, and all the people who [were] with him, from Harosheth-hagoyim to the river Kishon.

Judges 4:14 Deborah said to Barak, "Arise! For this is the day in which the LORD has given Sisera into your hands; behold, the LORD has gone out before you." So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

Judges 4:15 The LORD routed Sisera and all [his] chariots and all [his] army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from [his] chariot and fled away on foot.

Judges 4:16 But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth-hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not even one was left.

Judges 4:17 Now Sisera fled away on foot to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite, for [there was] peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

Judges 4:18 Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my master, turn aside to me! Do not be afraid.” And he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

Judges 4:19 He said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty.” So she opened a bottle of milk and gave him a drink; then she covered him.

Judges 4:20 He said to her, “Stand in the doorway of the tent, and it shall be if anyone comes and inquires of you, and says, ‘Is there anyone here?’ that you shall say, ‘No.’“

Judges 4:21 But Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg and seized a hammer in her hand, and went secretly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went through into the ground; for he was sound asleep and exhausted. So he died.

Judges 4:22 And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking.” And he entered with her, and behold Sisera was lying dead with the tent peg in his temple.

Judges 4:23 So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the sons of Israel.

Judges 4:24 The hand of the sons of Israel pressed heavier and heavier upon Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin the king of Canaan.

Judges 5:1 Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying, Judges 5:2 “That the leaders led in Israel, That the people volunteered, Bless the LORD!

Judges 5:3 “Hear, O kings; give ear, O rulers! I— to the LORD, I will sing, I will sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Judges 5:4 “LORD, when You went out from Seir, When You marched from the field of Edom, The earth quaked, the heavens also dripped, Even the clouds dripped water.

Judges 5:5 “The mountains quaked at the presence of the LORD, This Sinai, at the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel.

Judges 5:6 “In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, In the days of Jael, the highways were deserted, And travelers went by roundabout ways.

Judges 5:7 “The peasantry ceased, they ceased in Israel, Until I, Deborah, arose, Until I arose, a mother in Israel.

Judges 5:8 “New gods were chosen; Then war [was] in the gates. Not a shield or a spear was seen Among forty thousand in Israel.

Judges 5:9 “My heart [goes out] to the commanders of Israel, The volunteers among the people; Bless the LORD!

Judges 5:10 “You who ride on white donkeys, You who sit on [rich] carpets, And you who travel on the road— sing!

Judges 5:11 “At the sound of those who divide [flocks] among the watering places, There they shall recount the righteous deeds of the LORD, The righteous deeds for His peasantry in Israel. Then the people of the LORD went down to the gates.

Judges 5:12 “Awake, awake, Deborah; Awake, awake, sing a song! Arise, Barak, and take away your captives, O son of Abinoam.

Judges 5:13 “Then survivors came down to the nobles; The people of the LORD came down to me as warriors.

Judges 5:14 “From Ephraim those whose root is in Amalek [came down], Following you, Benjamin, with your peoples; From Machir commanders came down, And from Zebulun those who wield the staff of office.

Judges 5:15 “And the princes of Issachar [were] with Deborah; As [was] Issachar, so [was] Barak; Into the valley they rushed at his heels; Among the divisions of Reuben [There were] great resolves of heart.

Judges 5:16 “Why did you sit among the sheepfolds, To hear the piping for the flocks? Among the divisions of Reuben [There were] great searchings of heart.

Judges 5:17 “Gilead remained across the Jordan; And why did Dan stay in ships? Asher sat at the seashore, And remained by its landings.

Judges 5:18 “Zebulun [was] a people who despised their lives [even] to death, And Naphtali also, on the high places of the field.

Judges 5:19 “The kings came [and] fought; Then fought the kings of Canaan At Taanach near the waters of Megiddo; They took no plunder in silver.

Judges 5:21 “The torrent of Kishon swept them away, The ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon. O my soul, march on with strength.

Judges 5:22 “Then the horses’ hoofs beat From the dashing, the dashing of his valiant steeds.

Judges 5:23 ‘Curse Meroz,’ said the angel of the LORD, ‘Utterly curse its inhabitants; Because they did not come to the help of the LORD, To the help of the LORD against the warriors.’

Judges 5:24 “Most blessed of women is Jael, The wife of Heber the Kenite; Most blessed is she of women in the tent.

Judges 5:25 “He asked for water [and] she gave him milk; In a magnificent bowl she brought him curds.

Judges 5:26 “She reached out her hand for the tent peg, And her right hand for the workmen’s hammer. Then she struck Sisera, she smashed his head; And she shattered and pierced his temple.

Judges 5:27 “Between her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay; Between her feet he bowed, he fell; Where he bowed, there he fell dead.

Judges 5:28 “Out of the window she looked and lamented, The mother of Sisera through the lattice, ‘Why does his chariot delay in coming? Why do the hoofbeats of his chariots tarry?’

Judges 5:30 ‘Are they not finding, are they not dividing the spoil? A maiden, two maidens for every warrior; To Sisera a spoil of dyed work, A spoil of dyed work embroidered, Dyed work of double embroidery on the neck of the spoiler?’

Judges 5:31 “Thus let all Your enemies perish, O LORD; But let those who love Him be like the rising of the sun in its might.” And the land was undisturbed for forty years.

Judges 6:1 Then the sons of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hands of Midian seven years.

Judges 6:2 The power of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of Midian the sons of Israel made for themselves the dens which were in the mountains and the caves and the strongholds.

Judges 6:3 For it was when Israel had sown, that the Midianites would come up with the Amalekites and the sons of the east and go against them.

Judges 6:4 So they would camp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel as well as no sheep, ox, or donkey.

Judges 6:5 For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, they would come in like locusts for number, both they and their camels were innumerable; and they came into the land to devastate it.

Judges 6:6 So Israel was brought very low because of Midian, and the sons of Israel cried to the LORD.

Judges 6:7 Now it came about when the sons of Israel cried to the LORD on account of Midian,

Judges 6:8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the sons of Israel, and he said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘It was I who brought you up from Egypt and brought you out from the house of slavery.

Judges 6:9 ‘I delivered you from the hands of the Egyptians and from the hands of all your oppressors, and dispossessed them before you and gave you their land,

Judges 6:10 and I said to you, “I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. But you have not obeyed Me.”‘“

Judges 6:11 Then the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak that was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press in order to save [it] from the Midianites.

Judges 6:12 The angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, “The LORD is with you, O valiant warrior.”

Judges 6:13 Then Gideon said to him, “O my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has abandoned us and given us into the hand of Midian.”

Judges 6:14 The LORD looked at him and said, “Go in this your strength and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?”

Judges 6:15 He said to Him, “O Lord, how shall I deliver Israel? Behold, my family is the least in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father’s house.”

Judges 6:16 But the LORD said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat Midian as one man.”

Judges 6:17 So Gideon said to Him, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who speak with me.

Judges 6:18 “Please do not depart from here, until I come [back] to You, and bring out my offering and lay it before You.” And He said, “I will remain until you return.”

Judges 6:19 Then Gideon went in and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour; he put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, and brought [them] out to him under the oak and presented [them].

Judges 6:20 The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And he did so.

Judges 6:21 Then the angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.

Judges 6:22 When Gideon saw that he was the angel of the LORD, he said, “Alas, O Lord GOD! For now I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face.”

Judges 6:23 The LORD said to him, “Peace to you, do not fear; you shall not die.”

Judges 6:24 Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and named it The LORD is Peace. To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 6:25 Now on the same night the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s bull and a second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal which belongs to your father, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it;

Judges 6:26 and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold in an orderly manner, and take a second bull and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down.”

Judges 6:27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants and did as the LORD had spoken to him; and because he was too afraid of his father’s household and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it by night.

Judges 6:28 When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was torn down, and the Asherah which was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar which had been built.

Judges 6:29 They said to one another, “Who did this thing?” And when they searched about and inquired, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash did this thing.”

Judges 6:30 Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has torn down the altar of Baal, and indeed, he has cut down the Asherah which was beside it.”

Judges 6:31 But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Will you contend for Baal, or will you deliver him? Whoever will plead for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because someone has torn down his altar.”

Judges 6:32 Therefore on that day he named him Jerubbaal, that is to say, “Let Baal contend against him,” because he had torn down his altar.

Judges 6:33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the sons of the east assembled themselves; and they crossed over and camped in the valley of Jezreel.

Judges 6:34 So the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; and he blew a trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called together to follow him.

Judges 6:35 He sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and they also were called together to follow him; and he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

Judges 6:36 Then Gideon said to God, “If You will deliver Israel through me, as You have spoken, Judges 6:37 behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I will know that You will deliver Israel through me, as You have spoken.”

Judges 6:38 And it was so. When he arose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece, he drained the dew from the fleece, a bowl full of water.

Judges 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, “Do not let Your anger burn against me that I may speak once more; please let me make a test once more with the fleece, let it now be dry only on the fleece, and let there be dew on all the ground.”

Judges 6:40 God did so that night; for it was dry only on the fleece, and dew was on all the ground.

Judges 7:1 Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him, rose early and camped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Midian was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

Judges 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, “The people who are with you are too many for Me to give Midian into their hands, for Israel would become boastful, saying, ‘My own power has delivered me.’

Judges 7:3 “Now therefore come, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, ‘Whoever is afraid and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.’“ So 22,000 people returned, but 10,000 remained.

Judges 7:4 Then the LORD said to Gideon, “The people are still too many; bring them down to the water and I will test them for you there. Therefore it shall be that he of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall go with you,’ he shall go with you; but everyone of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.”

Judges 7:5 So he brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, “You shall separate everyone who laps the water with his tongue as a dog laps, as well as everyone who kneels to drink.”

Judges 7:6 Now the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was 300 men; but all the rest of the people kneeled to drink water.

Judges 7:7 The LORD said to Gideon, “I will deliver you with the 300 men who lapped and will give the Midianites into your hands; so let all the [other] people go, each man to his home.”

Judges 7:8 So the 300 men took the people's provisions and their trumpets into their hands. And Gideon sent all the [other] men of Israel, each to his tent, but retained the 300 men; and the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

Judges 7:9 Now the same night it came about that the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have given it into your hands.

Judges 7:10 "But if you are afraid to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp, Judges 7:11 and you will hear what they say; and afterward your hands will be strengthened that you may go down against the camp." So he went with Purah his servant down to the outposts of the army that was in the camp.

Judges 7:12 Now the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the sons of the east were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as numerous as the sand on the seashore.

Judges 7:13 When Gideon came, behold, a man was relating a dream to his friend. And he said, "Behold, I had a dream; a loaf of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian, and it came to the tent and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down so that the tent lay flat."

Judges 7:14 His friend replied, "This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given Midian and all the camp into his hand."

Judges 7:15 When Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship. He returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Arise, for the LORD has given the camp of Midian into your hands."

Judges 7:16 He divided the 300 men into three companies, and he put trumpets and empty pitchers into the hands of all of them, with torches inside the pitchers.

Judges 7:17 He said to them, "Look at me and do likewise. And behold, when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do.

Judges 7:18 "When I and all who are with me blow the trumpet, then you also blow the trumpets all around the camp and say, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

Judges 7:19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and smashed the pitchers that were in their hands.

Judges 7:20 When the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers, they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing, and cried, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”

Judges 7:21 Each stood in his place around the camp; and all the army ran, crying out as they fled.

Judges 7:22 When they blew 300 trumpets, the LORD set the sword of one against another even throughout the whole army; and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as the edge of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.

Judges 7:23 The men of Israel were summoned from Naphtali and Asher and all Manasseh, and they pursued Midian.

Judges 7:24 Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against Midian and take the waters before them, as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.” So all the men of Ephraim were summoned and they took the waters as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.

Judges 7:25 They captured the two leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the wine press of Zeeb, while they pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon from across the Jordan.

Judges 8:1 Then the men of Ephraim said to him, “What is this thing you have done to us, not calling us when you went to fight against Midian?” And they contended with him vigorously.

Judges 8:2 But he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning [of the grapes] of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

Judges 8:3 “God has given the leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb into your hands; and what was I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger toward him subsided when he said that.

Judges 8:4 Then Gideon and the 300 men who were with him came to the Jordan [and] crossed over, weary yet pursuing.

Judges 8:5 He said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who are following me, for they are weary, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

Judges 8:6 The leaders of Succoth said, “Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands, that we should give bread to your army?”

Judges 8:7 Gideon said, “All right, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thrash your bodies with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.”

Judges 8:8 He went up from there to Penuel and spoke similarly to them; and the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered.

Judges 8:9 So he spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, “When I return safely, I will tear down this tower.”

Judges 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about 15,000 men, all who were left of the entire army of the sons of the east; for the fallen were 120,000 swordsmen.

Judges 8:11 Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the camp when the camp was unsuspecting.

Judges 8:12 When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole army.

Judges 8:13 Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres.

Judges 8:14 And he captured a youth from Succoth and questioned him. Then [the youth] wrote down for him the princes of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

Judges 8:15 He came to the men of Succoth and said, “Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you taunted me, saying, ‘Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?’“

Judges 8:16 He took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and he disciplined the men of Succoth with them.

Judges 8:17 He tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

Judges 8:18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men [were] they whom you killed at Tabor?” And they said, “They were like you, each one resembling the son of a king.”

Judges 8:19 He said, “They [were] my brothers, the sons of my mother. [As] the LORD lives, if only you had let them live, I would not kill you.”

Judges 8:20 So he said to Jether his firstborn, “Rise, kill them.” But the youth did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

Judges 8:21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Rise up yourself, and fall on us; for as the man, so is his strength.” So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments which were on their camels’ necks.

Judges 8:22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, both you and your son, also your son’s son, for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian.”

Judges 8:23 But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you.”

Judges 8:24 Yet Gideon said to them, “I would request of you, that each of you give me an earring from his spoil.” (For they had gold earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

Judges 8:25 They said, “We will surely give [them].” So they spread out a garment, and every one of them threw an earring there from his spoil.

Judges 8:26 The weight of the gold earrings that he requested was 1,700 [shekels] of gold, besides the crescent ornaments and the pendants and the purple robes which [were] on the kings of Midian, and besides the neck bands that [were] on their camels’ necks.

Judges 8:27 Gideon made it into an ephod, and placed it in his city, Ophrah, and all Israel played the harlot with it there, so that it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

Judges 8:28 So Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their heads anymore. And the land was undisturbed for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Judges 8:29 Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.

Judges 8:30 Now Gideon had seventy sons who were his direct descendants, for he had many wives.

Judges 8:31 His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.

Judges 8:32 And Gideon the son of Joash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 8:33 Then it came about, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the sons of Israel again played the harlot with the Baals, and made Baal-berith their god.

Judges 8:34 Thus the sons of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;

Judges 8:35 nor did they show kindness to the household of Jerubbaal ([that is], Gideon) in accord with all the good that he had done to Israel.

Judges 9:1 And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother’s relatives, and spoke to them and to the whole clan of the household of his mother’s father, saying,

Judges 9:2 “Speak, now, in the hearing of all the leaders of Shechem, ‘Which is better for you, that seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you, or that one man rule over you?’ Also, remember that I am your bone and your flesh.”

Judges 9:3 And his mother’s relatives spoke all these words on his behalf in the hearing of all the leaders of Shechem; and they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, “He is our relative.”

Judges 9:4 They gave him seventy [pieces] of silver from the house of Baal-berith with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless fellows, and they followed him.

Judges 9:5 Then he went to his father’s house at Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself.

Judges 9:6 All the men of Shechem and all Beth-millo assembled together, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar which was in Shechem.

Judges 9:7 Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and called out. Thus he said to them, “Listen to me, O men of Shechem, that God may listen to you.

Judges 9:8 “Once the trees went forth to anoint a king over them, and they said to the olive tree, ‘Reign over us!’

Judges 9:9 “But the olive tree said to them, ‘Shall I leave my fatness with which God and men are honored, and go to wave over the trees?’

Judges 9:10 “Then the trees said to the fig tree, ‘You come, reign over us!’

Judges 9:11 “But the fig tree said to them, ‘Shall I leave my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to wave over the trees?’

Judges 9:12 “Then the trees said to the vine, ‘You come, reign over us!’

Judges 9:13 “But the vine said to them, ‘Shall I leave my new wine, which cheers God and men, and go to wave over the trees?’

Judges 9:14 “Finally all the trees said to the bramble, ‘You come, reign over us!’

Judges 9:15 “The bramble said to the trees, ‘If in truth you are anointing me as king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, may fire come out from the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon.’

Judges 9:16 “Now therefore, if you have dealt in truth and integrity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have dealt with him as he deserved—

Judges 9:17 for my father fought for you and risked his life and delivered you from the hand of Midian;

Judges 9:18 but you have risen against my father’s house today and have killed his sons, seventy men, on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your relative—

Judges 9:19 if then you have dealt in truth and integrity with Jerubbaal and his house this day, rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you.

Judges 9:20 “But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and consume the men of Shechem and Beth-millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem and from Beth-millo, and consume Abimelech.”

Judges 9:21 Then Jotham escaped and fled, and went to Beer and remained there because of Abimelech his brother.

Judges 9:22 Now Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

Judges 9:23 Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech,

Judges 9:24 so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood might be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers.

Judges 9:25 The men of Shechem set men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who might pass by them along the road; and it was told to Abimelech.

Judges 9:26 Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his relatives, and crossed over into Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their trust in him.

Judges 9:27 They went out into the field and gathered [the grapes of] their vineyards and trod [them], and held a festival; and they went into the house of their god, and ate and drank and cursed Abimelech.

Judges 9:28 Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and [is] Zebul [not] his lieutenant? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?

Judges 9:29 “Would, therefore, that this people were under my authority! Then I would remove Abimelech.” And he said to Abimelech, “Increase your army and come out.”

Judges 9:30 When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger burned.

Judges 9:31 He sent messengers to Abimelech deceitfully, saying, “Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his relatives have come to Shechem; and behold, they are stirring up the city against you.

Judges 9:32 “Now therefore, arise by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.

Judges 9:33 “In the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you shall do to them whatever you can.”

Judges 9:34 So Abimelech and all the people who [were] with him arose by night and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

Judges 9:35 Now Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the city gate; and Abimelech and the people who [were] with him arose from the ambush.

Judges 9:36 When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains.” But Zebul said to him, “You are seeing the shadow of the mountains as [if they were] men.”

Judges 9:37 Gaal spoke again and said, “Behold, people are coming down from the highest part of the land, and one company comes by the way of the diviners’ oak.”

Judges 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, “Where is your boasting now with which you said, ‘Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?’ Is this not the people whom you despised? Go out now and fight with them!”

Judges 9:39 So Gaal went out before the leaders of Shechem and fought with Abimelech.

Judges 9:40 Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him; and many fell wounded up to the entrance of the gate.

Judges 9:41 Then Abimelech remained at Arumah, but Zebul drove out Gaal and his relatives so that they could not remain in Shechem.

Judges 9:42 Now it came about the next day, that the people went out to the field, and it was told to Abimelech.

Judges 9:43 So he took his people and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field; when he looked and saw the people coming out from the city, he arose against them and slew them.

Judges 9:44 Then Abimelech and the company who was with him dashed forward and stood in the entrance of the city gate; the other two companies then dashed against all who [were] in the field and slew them.

Judges 9:45 Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and he captured the city and killed the people who [were] in it; then he razed the city and sowed it with salt.

Judges 9:46 When all the leaders of the tower of Shechem heard of [it], they entered the inner chamber of the temple of El-berith.

Judges 9:47 It was told Abimelech that all the leaders of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

Judges 9:48 So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who [were] with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand and cut down a branch from the trees, and lifted it and laid [it] on his shoulder. Then he said to the people who [were] with him, “What you have seen me do, hurry [and] do likewise.”

Judges 9:49 All the people also cut down each one his branch and followed Abimelech, and put [them] on the inner chamber and set the inner chamber on fire over those [inside], so that all the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

Judges 9:50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he camped against Thebez and captured it.

Judges 9:51 But there was a strong tower in the center of the city, and all the men and women with all the leaders of the city fled there and shut themselves in; and they went up on the roof of the tower.

Judges 9:52 So Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and approached the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.

Judges 9:53 But a certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, crushing his skull.

Judges 9:54 Then he called quickly to the young man, his armor bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, so that it will not be said of me, 'A woman slew him.'" So the young man pierced him through, and he died.

Judges 9:55 When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, each departed to his home.

Judges 9:56 Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father in killing his seventy brothers.

Judges 9:57 Also God returned all the wickedness of the men of Shechem on their heads, and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came upon them.

Judges 10:1 Now after Abimelech died, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel; and he lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges 10:2 He judged Israel twenty-three years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

Judges 10:3 After him, Jair the Gileadite arose and judged Israel twenty-two years.

Judges 10:4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys, and they had thirty cities in the land of Gilead that are called Havvoth-jair to this day.

Judges 10:5 And Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

Judges 10:6 Then the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, served the Baals and the Ashtaroth, the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the sons of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; thus they forsook the LORD and did not serve Him.

Judges 10:7 The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the sons of Ammon.

Judges 10:8 They afflicted and crushed the sons of Israel that year; for eighteen years they [afflicted] all the sons of Israel who were beyond the Jordan in Gilead in the land of the Amorites.

Judges 10:9 The sons of Ammon crossed the Jordan to fight also against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed.

Judges 10:10 Then the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, “We have sinned against You, for indeed, we have forsaken our God and served the Baals.”

Judges 10:11 The LORD said to the sons of Israel, “[Did I] not [deliver you] from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the sons of Ammon, and the Philistines?

Judges 10:12 “Also when the Sidonians, the Amalekites and the Maonites oppressed you, you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hands.

Judges 10:13 “Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods; therefore I will no longer deliver you.

Judges 10:14 “Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress.”

Judges 10:15 The sons of Israel said to the LORD, “We have sinned, do to us whatever seems good to You; only please deliver us this day.”

Judges 10:16 So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD; and He could bear the misery of Israel no longer.

Judges 10:17 Then the sons of Ammon were summoned and they camped in Gilead. And the sons of Israel gathered together and camped in Mizpah.

Judges 10:18 The people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, “Who is the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall become head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11:1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a valiant warrior, but he was the son of a harlot. And Gilead was the father of Jephthah.

Judges 11:2 Gilead’s wife bore him sons; and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, “You shall not have an inheritance in our father’s house, for you are the son of another woman.”

Judges 11:3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob; and worthless fellows gathered themselves about Jephthah, and they went out with him.

Judges 11:4 It came about after a while that the sons of Ammon fought against Israel.

Judges 11:5 When the sons of Ammon fought against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob;

Judges 11:6 and they said to Jephthah, “Come and be our chief that we may fight against the sons of Ammon.”

Judges 11:7 Then Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “Did you not hate me and drive me from my father’s house? So why have you come to me now when you are in trouble?”

Judges 11:8 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “For this reason we have now returned to you, that you may go with us and fight with the sons of Ammon and become head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11:9 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “If you take me back to fight against the sons of Ammon and the LORD gives them up to me, will I become your head?”

Judges 11:10 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “The LORD is witness between us; surely we will do as you have said.”

Judges 11:11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah.

Judges 11:12 Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, “What is between you and me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?”

Judges 11:13 The king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel took away my land when they came up from Egypt, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok and the Jordan; therefore, return them peaceably now.”

Judges 11:14 But Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the sons of Ammon, Judges 11:15 and they said to him, “Thus says Jephthah, ‘Israel did not take away the land of Moab nor the land of the sons of Ammon.

Judges 11:16 ‘For when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh,

Judges 11:17 then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please let us pass through your land,” but the king of Edom would not listen. And they also sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained at Kadesh.

Judges 11:18 ‘Then they went through the wilderness and around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came to the east side of the land of Moab, and they camped beyond the Arnon; but they did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon [was] the border of Moab.

Judges 11:19 ‘And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, “Please let us pass through your land to our place.”

Judges 11:20 ‘But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered all his people and camped in Jahaz and fought with Israel.

Judges 11:21 'The LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them; so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

Judges 11:22 'So they possessed all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.

Judges 11:23 'Since now the LORD, the God of Israel, drove out the Amorites from before His people Israel, are you then to possess it?

Judges 11:24 'Do you not possess what Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God has driven out before us, we will possess it.

Judges 11:25 'Now are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive with Israel, or did he ever fight against them?

Judges 11:26 'While Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

Judges 11:27 'I therefore have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong by making war against me; may the LORD, the Judge, judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.'"

Judges 11:28 But the king of the sons of Ammon disregarded the message which Jephthah sent him.

Judges 11:29 Now the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, so that he passed through Gilead and Manasseh; then he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he went on to the sons of Ammon.

Judges 11:30 Jephthah made a vow to the LORD and said, "If You will indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand, Judges 11:31 then it shall be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, it shall be the LORD'S, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

Judges 11:32 So Jephthah crossed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD gave them into his hand.

Judges 11:33 He struck them with a very great slaughter from Aroer to the entrance of Minnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the sons of Ammon were subdued before the sons of Israel.

Judges 11:34 When Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, behold, his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dancing. Now she was his one [and] only child; besides her he had no son or daughter.

Judges 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are among those who trouble me; for I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot take [it] back."

Judges 11:36 So she said to him, "My father, you have given your word to the LORD; do to me as you have said, since the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the sons of Ammon."

Judges 11:37 She said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me; let me alone two months, that I may go to the mountains and weep because of my virginity, I and my companions."

Judges 11:38 Then he said, "Go." So he sent her away for two months; and she left with her companions, and wept on the mountains because of her virginity.

Judges 11:39 At the end of two months she returned to her father, who did to her according to the vow which he had made; and she had no relations with a man. Thus it became a custom in Israel,

Judges 11:40 that the daughters of Israel went yearly to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

Judges 12:1 Then the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they crossed to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the sons of Ammon without calling us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you."

Judges 12:2 Jephthah said to them, "I and my people were at great strife with the sons of Ammon; when I called you, you did not deliver me from their hand.

Judges 12:3 "When I saw that you would not deliver [me], I took my life in my hands and crossed over against the sons of Ammon, and the LORD gave them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?"

Judges 12:4 Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim; and the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You are fugitives of Ephraim, O Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim [and] in the midst of Manasseh."

Judges 12:5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan opposite Ephraim. And it happened when [any of] the fugitives of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No,"

Judges 12:6 then they would say to him, "Say now, 'Shibboleth.'" But he said, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it correctly. Then they seized him and slew him at the fords of the Jordan. Thus there fell at that time 42,000 of Ephraim.

Judges 12:7 Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in [one of] the cities of Gilead.

Judges 12:8 Now Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel after him.

Judges 12:9 He had thirty sons, and thirty daughters [whom] he gave in marriage outside [the family], and he brought in thirty daughters from outside for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

Judges 12:10 Then Ibzan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

Judges 12:11 Now Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel after him; and he judged Israel ten years.

Judges 12:12 Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

Judges 12:13 Now Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel after him.

Judges 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys; and he judged Israel eight years.

Judges 12:15 Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges 13:1 Now the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, so that the LORD gave them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.

Judges 13:2 There was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had borne no [children].

Judges 13:3 Then the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Behold now, you are barren and have borne no [children], but you shall conceive and give birth to a son.

Judges 13:4 “Now therefore, be careful not to drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing.

Judges 13:5 “For behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and no razor shall come upon his head, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel from the hands of the Philistines.”

Judges 13:6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A man of God came to me and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of God, very awesome. And I did not ask him where he [came] from, nor did he tell me his name.

Judges 13:7 “But he said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and now you shall not drink wine or strong drink nor eat any unclean thing, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.’“

Judges 13:8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD and said, “O Lord, please let the man of God whom You have sent come to us again that he may teach us what to do for the boy who is to be born.”

Judges 13:9 God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she was sitting in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

Judges 13:10 So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, “Behold, the man who came the [other] day has appeared to me.”

Judges 13:11 Then Manoah arose and followed his wife, and when he came to the man he said to him, “Are you the man who spoke to the woman?” And he said, “I am.”

Judges 13:12 Manoah said, “Now when your words come [to pass], what shall be the boy’s mode of life and his vocation?”

Judges 13:13 So the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Let the woman pay attention to all that I said.

Judges 13:14 “She should not eat anything that comes from the vine nor drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing; let her observe all that I commanded.”

Judges 13:15 Then Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain you so that we may prepare a young goat for you.”

Judges 13:16 The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain me, I will not eat your food, but if you prepare a burnt offering, [then] offer it to the LORD.” For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.

Judges 13:17 Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that when your words come [to pass], we may honor you?”

Judges 13:18 But the angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask my name, seeing it is wonderful?”

Judges 13:19 So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering and offered it on the rock to the LORD, and He performed wonders while Manoah and his wife looked on.

Judges 13:20 For it came about when the flame went up from the altar toward heaven, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. When Manoah and his wife saw [this], they fell on their faces to the ground.

Judges 13:21 Now the angel of the LORD did not appear to Manoah or his wife again. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD.

Judges 13:22 So Manoah said to his wife, “We will surely die, for we have seen God.”

Judges 13:23 But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have let us hear [things] like this at this time.”

Judges 13:24 Then the woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson; and the child grew up and the LORD blessed him.

Judges 13:25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14:1 Then Samson went down to Timnah and saw a woman in Timnah, [one] of the daughters of the Philistines.

Judges 14:2 So he came back and told his father and mother, “I saw a woman in Timnah, [one] of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, get her for me as a wife.”

Judges 14:3 Then his father and his mother said to him, “Is there no woman among the daughters of your relatives, or among all our people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?” But Samson said to his father, “Get her for me, for she looks good to me.”

Judges 14:4 However, his father and mother did not know that it was of the LORD, for He was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

Judges 14:5 Then Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came as far as the vineyards of Timnah; and behold, a young lion [came] roaring toward him.

Judges 14:6 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, so that he tore him as one tears a young goat though he had nothing in his hand; but he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

Judges 14:7 So he went down and talked to the woman; and she looked good to Samson.

Judges 14:8 When he returned later to take her, he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion; and behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the body of the lion.

Judges 14:9 So he scraped the honey into his hands and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and mother, he gave [some] to them and they ate [it]; but he did not tell them that he had scraped the honey out of the body of the lion.

Judges 14:10 Then his father went down to the woman; and Samson made a feast there, for the young men customarily did this.

Judges 14:11 When they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

Judges 14:12 Then Samson said to them, “Let me now propound a riddle to you; if you will indeed tell it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen wraps and thirty changes of clothes.

Judges 14:13 “But if you are unable to tell me, then you shall give me thirty linen wraps and thirty changes of clothes.” And they said to him, “Propound your riddle, that we may hear it.”

Judges 14:14 So he said to them, “Out of the eater came something to eat, And out of the strong came something sweet.” But they could not tell the riddle in three days.

Judges 14:15 Then it came about on the fourth day that they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, so that he will tell us the riddle, or we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us to impoverish us? Is this not [so]?"

Judges 14:16 Samson's wife wept before him and said, "You only hate me, and you do not love me; you have propounded a riddle to the sons of my people, and have not told [it] to me." And he said to her, "Behold, I have not told [it] to my father or mother; so should I tell you?"

Judges 14:17 However she wept before him seven days while their feast lasted. And on the seventh day he told her because she pressed him so hard. She then told the riddle to the sons of her people.

Judges 14:18 So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion?" And he said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, You would not have found out my riddle."

Judges 14:19 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of them and took their spoil and gave the changes [of clothes] to those who told the riddle. And his anger burned, and he went up to his father's house.

Judges 14:20 But Samson's wife was [given] to his companion who had been his friend.

Judges 15:1 But after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a young goat, and said, "I will go in to my wife in [her] room." But her father did not let him enter.

Judges 15:2 Her father said, "I really thought that you hated her intensely; so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister more beautiful than she? Please let her be yours instead."

Judges 15:3 Samson then said to them, "This time I shall be blameless in regard to the Philistines when I do them harm."

Judges 15:4 Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned [the foxes] tail to tail and put one torch in the middle between two tails.

Judges 15:5 When he had set fire to the torches, he released the foxes into the standing grain of the Philistines, thus burning up both the shocks and the standing grain, along with the vineyards [and] groves.

Judges 15:6 Then the Philistines said, "Who did this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion." So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.

Judges 15:7 Samson said to them, "Since you act like this, I will surely take revenge on you, but after that I will quit."

Judges 15:8 He struck them ruthlessly with a great slaughter; and he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

Judges 15:9 Then the Philistines went up and camped in Judah, and spread out in Lehi.

Judges 15:10 The men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” And they said, “We have come up to bind Samson in order to do to him as he did to us.”

Judges 15:11 Then 3,000 men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?” And he said to them, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.”

Judges 15:12 They said to him, “We have come down to bind you so that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines.” And Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me.”

Judges 15:13 So they said to him, “No, but we will bind you fast and give you into their hands; yet surely we will not kill you.” Then they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

Judges 15:14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met him. And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily so that the ropes that were on his arms were as flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds dropped from his hands.

Judges 15:15 He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, so he reached out and took it and killed a thousand men with it.

Judges 15:16 Then Samson said, “With the jawbone of a donkey, Heaps upon heaps, With the jawbone of a donkey I have killed a thousand men.”

Judges 15:17 When he had finished speaking, he threw the jawbone from his hand; and he named that place Ramath-lehi.

Judges 15:18 Then he became very thirsty, and he called to the LORD and said, “You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant, and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?”

Judges 15:19 But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi so that water came out of it. When he drank, his strength returned and he revived. Therefore he named it En-hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day.

Judges 15:20 So he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Judges 16:1 Now Samson went to Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her.

Judges 16:2 [When it was told] to the Gazites, saying, “Samson has come here,” they surrounded [the place] and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. And they kept silent all night, saying, “[Let us wait] until the morning light, then we will kill him.”

Judges 16:3 Now Samson lay until midnight, and at midnight he arose and took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts and pulled them up along with the bars; then he put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the mountain which is opposite Hebron.

Judges 16:4 After this it came about that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

Judges 16:5 The lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, “Entice him, and see where his great strength [lies] and how we may overpower him that we may bind him to afflict him. Then we will each give you eleven hundred [pieces] of silver.”

Judges 16:6 So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me where your great strength is and how you may be bound to afflict you.”

Judges 16:7 Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh cords that have not been dried, then I will become weak and be like any [other] man.”

Judges 16:8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

Judges 16:9 Now she had [men] lying in wait in an inner room. And she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he snapped the cords as a string of tow snaps when it touches fire. So his strength was not discovered.

Judges 16:10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “Behold, you have deceived me and told me lies; now please tell me how you may be bound.”

Judges 16:11 He said to her, “If they bind me tightly with new ropes which have not been used, then I will become weak and be like any [other] man.”

Judges 16:12 So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” For the [men] were lying in wait in the inner room. But he snapped the ropes from his arms like a thread.

Judges 16:13 Then Delilah said to Samson, “Up to now you have deceived me and told me lies; tell me how you may be bound.” And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my hair with the web [and fasten it with a pin, then I will become weak and be like any other man.”

Judges 16:14 So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his hair and wove them into the web]. And she fastened [it] with the pin and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin of the loom and the web.

Judges 16:15 Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have deceived me these three times and have not told me where your great strength is.”

Judges 16:16 It came about when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was annoyed to death.

Judges 16:17 So he told her all [that was] in his heart and said to her, “A razor has never come on my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will leave me and I will become weak and be like any [other] man.”

Judges 16:18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all [that was] in his heart, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up once more, for he has told me all [that is] in his heart.” Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hands.

Judges 16:19 She made him sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his hair. Then she began to afflict him, and his strength left him.

Judges 16:20 She said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he awoke from his sleep and said, “I will go out as at other times and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

Judges 16:21 Then the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze chains, and he was a grinder in the prison.

Judges 16:22 However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it was shaved off.

Judges 16:23 Now the lords of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice, for they said, “Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hands.”

Judges 16:24 When the people saw him, they praised their god, for they said, “Our god has given our enemy into our hands, Even the destroyer of our country, Who has slain many of us.”

Judges 16:25 It so happened when they were in high spirits, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may amuse us.” So they called for Samson from the prison, and he entertained them. And they made him stand between the pillars.

Judges 16:26 Then Samson said to the boy who was holding his hand, “Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean against them.”

Judges 16:27 Now the house was full of men and women, and all the lords of the Philistines were there. And about 3,000 men and women were on the roof looking on while Samson was amusing [them].

Judges 16:28 Then Samson called to the LORD and said, “O Lord GOD, please remember me and please strengthen me just this time, O God, that I may at once be avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.”

Judges 16:29 Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and braced himself against them, the one with his right hand and the other with his left.

Judges 16:30 And Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” And he bent with all his might so that the house fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those whom he killed in his life.

Judges 16:31 Then his brothers and all his father’s household came down, took him, brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. Thus he had judged Israel twenty years.

Judges 17:1 Now there was a man of the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah.

Judges 17:2 He said to his mother, “The eleven hundred [pieces] of silver which were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse in my hearing, behold, the silver is with me; I took it.” And his mother said, “Blessed be my son by the LORD.”

Judges 17:3 He then returned the eleven hundred [pieces] of silver to his mother, and his mother said, “I wholly dedicate the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son to make a graven image and a molten image; now therefore, I will return them to you.”

Judges 17:4 So when he returned the silver to his mother, his mother took two hundred [pieces] of silver and gave them to the silversmith who made them into a graven image and a molten image, and they were in the house of Micah.

Judges 17:5 And the man Micah had a shrine and he made an ephod and household idols and consecrated one of his sons, that he might become his priest.

Judges 17:6 In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.

Judges 17:7 Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he was staying there.

Judges 17:8 Then the man departed from the city, from Bethlehem in Judah, to stay wherever he might find [a place]; and as he made his journey, he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah.

Judges 17:9 Micah said to him, “Where do you come from?” And he said to him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to stay wherever I may find [a place].”

Judges 17:10 Micah then said to him, “Dwell with me and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten [pieces] of silver a year, a suit of clothes, and your maintenance.” So the Levite went [in].

Judges 17:11 The Levite agreed to live with the man, and the young man became to him like one of his sons.

Judges 17:12 So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in the house of Micah.

Judges 17:13 Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, seeing I have a Levite as priest.”

Judges 18:1 In those days there was no king of Israel; and in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for themselves to live in, for until that day an inheritance had not been allotted to them as a possession among the tribes of Israel.

Judges 18:2 So the sons of Dan sent from their family five men out of their whole number, valiant men from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to search it; and they said to them, “Go, search the land.” And they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

Judges 18:3 When they were near the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite; and they turned aside there and said to him, “Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this [place]? And what do you have here?”

Judges 18:4 He said to them, “Thus and so has Micah done to me, and he has hired me and I have become his priest.”

Judges 18:5 They said to him, “Inquire of God, please, that we may know whether our way on which we are going will be prosperous.”

Judges 18:6 The priest said to them, “Go in peace; your way in which you are going has the LORD’S approval.”

Judges 18:7 Then the five men departed and came to Laish and saw the people who were in it living in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no ruler humiliating [them] for anything in the land, and they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone.

Judges 18:8 When they came back to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers said to them, “What [do] you [report]?”

Judges 18:9 They said, “Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good. And will you sit still? Do not delay to go, to enter, to possess the land.

Judges 18:10 “When you enter, you will come to a secure people with a spacious land; for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth.”

Judges 18:11 Then from the family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundred men armed with weapons of war set out.

Judges 18:12 They went up and camped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. Therefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan to this day; behold, it is west of Kiriath-jearim.

Judges 18:13 They passed from there to the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.

Judges 18:14 Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish said to their kinsmen, “Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod and household idols and a graven image and a molten image? Now therefore, consider what you should do.”

Judges 18:15 They turned aside there and came to the house of the young man, the Levite, to the house of Micah, and asked him of his welfare.

Judges 18:16 The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the sons of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.

Judges 18:17 Now the five men who went to spy out the land went up [and] entered there, [and] took the graven image and the ephod and household idols and the molten image, while the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.

Judges 18:18 When these went into Micah’s house and took the graven image, the ephod and household idols and the molten image, the priest said to them, “What are you doing?”

Judges 18:19 They said to him, “Be silent, put your hand over your mouth and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be a priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?”

Judges 18:20 The priest’s heart was glad, and he took the ephod and household idols and the graven image and went among the people.

Judges 18:21 Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the livestock and the valuables in front of them.

Judges 18:22 When they had gone some distance from the house of Micah, the men who [were] in the houses near Micah’s house assembled and overtook the sons of Dan.

Judges 18:23 They cried to the sons of Dan, who turned around and said to Micah, “What is [the matter] with you, that you have assembled together?”

Judges 18:24 He said, “You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and have gone away, and what do I have besides? So how can you say to me, ‘What is [the matter] with you?’“

Judges 18:25 The sons of Dan said to him, “Do not let your voice be heard among us, or else fierce men will fall upon you and you will lose your life, with the lives of your household.”

Judges 18:26 So the sons of Dan went on their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Judges 18:27 Then they took what Micah had made and the priest who had belonged to him, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burned the city with fire.

Judges 18:28 And there was no one to deliver [them], because it was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with anyone, and it was in the valley which is near Beth-rehob. And they rebuilt the city and lived in it.

Judges 18:29 They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father who was born in Israel; however, the name of the city formerly was Laish.

Judges 18:30 The sons of Dan set up for themselves the graven image; and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.

Judges 18:31 So they set up for themselves Micah's graven image which he had made, all the time that the house of God was at Shiloh.

Judges 19:1 Now it came about in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, who took a concubine for himself from Bethlehem in Judah.

Judges 19:2 But his concubine played the harlot against him, and she went away from him to her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah, and was there for a period of four months.

Judges 19:3 Then her husband arose and went after her to speak tenderly to her in order to bring her back, taking with him his servant and a pair of donkeys. So she brought him into her father's house, and when the girl's father saw him, he was glad to meet him.

Judges 19:4 His father-in-law, the girl's father, detained him; and he remained with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.

Judges 19:5 Now on the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to go; and the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Sustain yourself with a piece of bread, and afterward you may go."

Judges 19:6 So both of them sat down and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Please be willing to spend the night, and let your heart be merry."

Judges 19:7 Then the man arose to go, but his father-in-law urged him so that he spent the night there again.

Judges 19:8 On the fifth day he arose to go early in the morning, and the girl's father said, "Please sustain yourself, and wait until afternoon"; so both of them ate.

Judges 19:9 When the man arose to go along with his concubine and servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold now, the day has drawn to a close; please spend the night. Lo, the day is coming to an end; spend the night here that your heart may be merry. Then tomorrow you may arise early for your journey so that you may go home.”

Judges 19:10 But the man was not willing to spend the night, so he arose and departed and came to [a place] opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). And there were with him a pair of saddled donkeys; his concubine also was with him.

Judges 19:11 When they [were] near Jebus, the day was almost gone; and the servant said to his master, “Please come, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it.”

Judges 19:12 However, his master said to him, “We will not turn aside into the city of foreigners who are not of the sons of Israel; but we will go on as far as Gibeah.”

Judges 19:13 He said to his servant, “Come and let us approach one of these places; and we will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah.”

Judges 19:14 So they passed along and went their way, and the sun set on them near Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin.

Judges 19:15 They turned aside there in order to enter [and] lodge in Gibeah. When they entered, they sat down in the open square of the city, for no one took them into [his] house to spend the night.

Judges 19:16 Then behold, an old man was coming out of the field from his work at evening. Now the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was staying in Gibeah, but the men of the place were Benjamites.

Judges 19:17 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, “Where are you going, and where do you come from?”

Judges 19:18 He said to him, “We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, [for] I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem in Judah. But I am [now] going to my house, and no man will take me into his house.

Judges 19:19 “Yet there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and also bread and wine for me, your maidservant, and the young man who is with your servants; there is no lack of anything.”

Judges 19:20 The old man said, “Peace to you. Only let me [take care of] all your needs; however, do not spend the night in the open square.”

Judges 19:21 So he took him into his house and gave the donkeys fodder, and they washed their feet and ate and drank.

Judges 19:22 While they were celebrating, behold, the men of the city, certain worthless fellows, surrounded the house, pounding the door; and they spoke to the owner of the house, the old man, saying, “Bring out the man who came into your house that we may have relations with him.”

Judges 19:23 Then the man, the owner of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my fellows, please do not act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house, do not commit this act of folly.

Judges 19:24 “Here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. Please let me bring them out that you may ravish them and do to them whatever you wish. But do not commit such an act of folly against this man.”

Judges 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and brought [her] out to them; and they raped her and abused her all night until morning, then let her go at the approach of dawn.

Judges 19:26 As the day began to dawn, the woman came and fell down at the doorway of the man’s house where her master was, until [full] daylight.

Judges 19:27 When her master arose in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, then behold, his concubine was lying at the doorway of the house with her hands on the threshold.

Judges 19:28 He said to her, “Get up and let us go,” but there was no answer. Then he placed her on the donkey; and the man arose and went to his home.

Judges 19:29 When he entered his house, he took a knife and laid hold of his concubine and cut her in twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout the territory of Israel.

Judges 19:30 All who saw [it] said, “Nothing like this has [ever] happened or been seen from the day when the sons of Israel came up from the land of Egypt to this day. Consider it, take counsel and speak up!”

Judges 20:1 Then all the sons of Israel from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead, came out, and the congregation assembled as one man to the LORD at Mizpah.

Judges 20:2 The chiefs of all the people, [even] of all the tribes of Israel, took their stand in the assembly of the people of God, 400,000 foot soldiers who drew the sword.

Judges 20:3 (Now the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the sons of Israel said, “Tell [us], how did this wickedness take place?”

Judges 20:4 So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “I came with my concubine to spend the night at Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin.

Judges 20:5 “But the men of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me; instead, they ravished my concubine so that she died.

Judges 20:6 “And I took hold of my concubine and cut her in pieces and sent her throughout the land of Israel’s inheritance; for they have committed a lewd and disgraceful act in Israel.

Judges 20:7 “Behold, all you sons of Israel, give your advice and counsel here.”

Judges 20:8 Then all the people arose as one man, saying, “Not one of us will go to his tent, nor will any of us return to his house.

Judges 20:9 “But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah; [we will go up] against it by lot.

Judges 20:10 “And we will take 10 men out of 100 throughout the tribes of Israel, and 100 out of 1,000, and 1,000 out of 10,000 to supply food for the people, that when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, they may punish [them] for all the disgraceful acts that they have committed in Israel.”

Judges 20:11 Thus all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united as one man.

Judges 20:12 Then the tribes of Israel sent men through the entire tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that has taken place among you?

Judges 20:13 “Now then, deliver up the men, the worthless fellows in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and remove [this] wickedness from Israel.” But the sons of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.

Judges 20:14 The sons of Benjamin gathered from the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the sons of Israel.

Judges 20:15 From the cities on that day the sons of Benjamin were numbered, 26,000 men who draw the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah who were numbered, 700 choice men.

Judges 20:16 Out of all these people 700 choice men were left-handed; each one could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

Judges 20:17 Then the men of Israel besides Benjamin were numbered, 400,000 men who draw the sword; all these were men of war.

Judges 20:18 Now the sons of Israel arose, went up to Bethel, and inquired of God and said, “Who shall go up first for us to battle against the sons of Benjamin?” Then the LORD said, “Judah [shall go up] first.”

Judges 20:19 So the sons of Israel arose in the morning and camped against Gibeah.

Judges 20:20 The men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel arrayed for battle against them at Gibeah.

Judges 20:21 Then the sons of Benjamin came out of Gibeah and felled to the ground on that day 22,000 men of Israel.

Judges 20:22 But the people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and arrayed for battle again in the place where they had arrayed themselves the first day.

Judges 20:23 The sons of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall we again draw near for battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin?” And the LORD said, “Go up against him.”

Judges 20:24 Then the sons of Israel came against the sons of Benjamin the second day.

Judges 20:25 Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah the second day and felled to the ground again 18,000 men of the sons of Israel; all these drew the sword.

Judges 20:26 Then all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel and wept; thus they remained there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

Judges 20:27 The sons of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God [was] there in those days, Judges 20:28 and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, Aaron’s son, stood before it to [minister] in those days), saying, “Shall I yet again go out to battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?” And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.”

Judges 20:29 So Israel set men in ambush around Gibeah.

Judges 20:30 The sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day and arrayed themselves against Gibeah as at other times.

Judges 20:31 The sons of Benjamin went out against the people and were drawn away from the city, and they began to strike and kill some of the people as at other times, on the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, [and] in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

Judges 20:32 The sons of Benjamin said, “They are struck down before us, as at the first.” But the sons of Israel said, “Let us flee that we may draw them away from the city to the highways.”

Judges 20:33 Then all the men of Israel arose from their place and arrayed themselves at Baal-tamar; and the men of Israel in ambush broke out of their place, even out of Maareh-geba.

Judges 20:34 When ten thousand choice men from all Israel came against Gibeah, the battle became fierce; but Benjamin did not know that disaster was close to them.

Judges 20:35 And the LORD struck Benjamin before Israel, so that the sons of Israel destroyed 25,100 men of Benjamin that day, all who draw the sword.

Judges 20:36 So the sons of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. When the men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah,

Judges 20:37 the men in ambush hurried and rushed against Gibeah; the men in ambush also deployed and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.

Judges 20:38 Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise from the city.

Judges 20:39 Then the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill about thirty men of Israel, for they said, “Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle.”

Judges 20:40 But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, Benjamin looked behind them; and behold, the whole city was going up [in smoke] to heaven.

Judges 20:41 Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified; for they saw that disaster was close to them.

Judges 20:42 Therefore, they turned their backs before the men of Israel toward the direction of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them while those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them.

Judges 20:43 They surrounded Benjamin, pursued them without rest [and] trod them down opposite Gibeah toward the east.

Judges 20:44 Thus 18,000 men of Benjamin fell; all these were valiant warriors.

Judges 20:45 The rest turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, but they caught 5,000 of them on the highways and overtook them at Gidom and killed 2,000 of them.

Judges 20:46 So all of Benjamin who fell that day were 25,000 men who draw the sword; all these were valiant warriors.

Judges 20:47 But 600 men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they remained at the rock of Rimmon four months.

Judges 20:48 The men of Israel then turned back against the sons of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city with the cattle and all that they found; they also set on fire all the cities which they found.

Judges 21:1 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, “None of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin in marriage.”

Judges 21:2 So the people came to Bethel and sat there before God until evening, and lifted up their voices and wept bitterly.

Judges 21:3 They said, “Why, O LORD, God of Israel, has this come about in Israel, so that one tribe should be [missing] today in Israel?”

Judges 21:4 It came about the next day that the people arose early and built an altar there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

Judges 21:5 Then the sons of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?” For they had taken a great oath concerning him who did not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, “He shall surely be put to death.”

Judges 21:6 And the sons of Israel were sorry for their brother Benjamin and said, “One tribe is cut off from Israel today.

Judges 21:7 “What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters in marriage?”

Judges 21:8 And they said, “What one is there of the tribes of Israel who did not come up to the LORD at Mizpah?” And behold, no one had come to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

Judges 21:9 For when the people were numbered, behold, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there.

Judges 21:10 And the congregation sent 12,000 of the valiant warriors there, and commanded them, saying, “Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones.

Judges 21:11 “This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every man and every woman who has lain with a man.”

Judges 21:12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead 400 young virgins who had not known a man by lying with him; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

Judges 21:13 Then the whole congregation sent [word] and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.

Judges 21:14 Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had kept alive from the women of Jabesh-gilead; yet they were not enough for them.

Judges 21:15 And the people were sorry for Benjamin because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

Judges 21:16 Then the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?”

Judges 21:17 They said, “[There must be] an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe will not be blotted out from Israel.

Judges 21:18 “But we cannot give them wives of our daughters.” For the sons of Israel had sworn, saying, “Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.”

Judges 21:19 So they said, “Behold, there is a feast of the LORD from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south side of Lebonah.”

Judges 21:20 And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, “Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,

Judges 21:21 and watch; and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to take part in the dances, then you shall come out of the vineyards and each of you shall catch his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

Judges 21:22 “It shall come about, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we shall say to them, ‘Give them to us voluntarily, because we did not take for each man [of Benjamin] a wife in battle, nor did you give [them] to them, [else] you would now be guilty.’“

Judges 21:23 The sons of Benjamin did so, and took wives according to their number from those who danced, whom they carried away. And they went and returned to their inheritance and rebuilt the cities and lived in them.

Judges 21:24 The sons of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family, and each one of them went out from there to his inheritance.

Judges 21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

1:1 Now it came about in the days when the judges governed, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to sojourn in the land of Moab with his wife and his two sons.

Ruth 1:2 The name of the man [was] Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi; and the names of his two sons [were] Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem in Judah. Now they entered the land of Moab and remained there.

Ruth 1:4 They took for themselves Moabite women [as] wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. And they lived there about ten years.

Ruth 1:5 Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died, and the woman was bereft of her two children and her husband.

Ruth 1:6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the land of Moab, for she had heard in the land of Moab that the LORD had visited His people in giving them food.

Ruth 1:7 So she departed from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.

Ruth 1:8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go, return each of you to her mother’s house. May the LORD deal kindly with you as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

Ruth 1:9 “May the LORD grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband.” Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

Ruth 1:10 And they said to her, “[No], but we will surely return with you to your people.”

Ruth 1:11 But Naomi said, “Return, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Have I yet sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

Ruth 1:12 “Return, my daughters! Go, for I am too old to have a husband. If I said I have hope, if I should even have a husband tonight and also bear sons, Ruth 1:13 would you therefore wait until they were grown? Would you therefore refrain from marrying? No, my daughters; for it is harder for me than for you, for the hand of the LORD has gone forth against me.”

Ruth 1:14 And they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

Ruth 1:15 Then she said, “Behold, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and her gods; return after your sister-in-law.”

Ruth 1:16 But Ruth said, “Do not urge me to leave you [or] turn back from following you; for where you go, I will go, and where you lodge, I will lodge. Your people [shall be] my people, and your God, my God.

Ruth 1:17 “Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. Thus may the LORD do to me, and worse, if [anything but] death parts you and me.”

Ruth 1:18 When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

Ruth 1:19 So they both went until they came to Bethlehem. And when they had come to Bethlehem, all the city was stirred because of them, and the women said, “Is this Naomi?”

Ruth 1:20 She said to them, “Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

Ruth 1:21 “I went out full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has witnessed against me and the Almighty has afflicted me?”

Ruth 1:22 So Naomi returned, and with her Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, who returned from the land of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

Ruth 2:1 Now Naomi had a kinsman of her husband, a man of great wealth, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz.

Ruth 2:2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “Please let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain after one in whose sight I may find favor.” And she said to her, “Go, my daughter.”

Ruth 2:3 So she departed and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

Ruth 2:4 Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, “May the LORD be with you.” And they said to him, “May the LORD bless you.”

Ruth 2:5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, “Whose young woman is this?”

Ruth 2:6 The servant in charge of the reapers replied, “She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the land of Moab.

Ruth 2:7 “And she said, ‘Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.’ Thus she came and has remained from the morning until now; she has been sitting in the house for a little while.”

Ruth 2:8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen carefully, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field; furthermore, do not go on from this one, but stay here with my maids.

Ruth 2:9 “Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Indeed, I have commanded the servants not to touch you. When you are thirsty, go to the water jars and drink from what the servants draw.”

Ruth 2:10 Then she fell on her face, bowing to the ground and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your sight that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?”

Ruth 2:11 Boaz replied to her, “All that you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of your husband has been fully reported to me, and how you left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people that you did not previously know.

Ruth 2:12 “May the LORD reward your work, and your wages be full from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to seek refuge.”

Ruth 2:13 Then she said, “I have found favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and indeed have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not like one of your maidservants.”

Ruth 2:14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come here, that you may eat of the bread and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar.” So she sat beside the reapers; and he served her roasted grain, and she ate and was satisfied and had some left.

Ruth 2:15 When she rose to glean, Boaz commanded his servants, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not insult her.

Ruth 2:16 “Also you shall purposely pull out for her [some grain] from the bundles and leave [it] that she may glean, and do not rebuke her.”

Ruth 2:17 So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

Ruth 2:18 She took [it] up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. She also took [it] out and gave Naomi what she had left after she was satisfied.

Ruth 2:19 Her mother-in-law then said to her, “Where did you glean today and where did you work? May he who took notice of you be blessed.” So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and said, “The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz.”

Ruth 2:20 Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed of the LORD who has not withdrawn his kindness to the living and to the dead.” Again Naomi said to her, “The man is our relative, he is one of our closest relatives.”

Ruth 2:21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, “Furthermore, he said to me, ‘You should stay close to my servants until they have finished all my harvest.’“

Ruth 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maids, so that [others] do not fall upon you in another field.”

Ruth 2:23 So she stayed close by the maids of Boaz in order to glean until the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3:1 Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, shall I not seek security for you, that it may be well with you?

Ruth 3:2 “Now is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maids you were? Behold, he winnows barley at the threshing floor tonight.

Ruth 3:3 “Wash yourself therefore, and anoint yourself and put on your [best] clothes, and go down to the threshing floor; [but] do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

Ruth 3:4 “It shall be when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies, and you shall go and uncover his feet and lie down; then he will tell you what you shall do.”

Ruth 3:5 She said to her, “All that you say I will do.”

Ruth 3:6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her.

Ruth 3:7 When Boaz had eaten and drunk and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came secretly, and uncovered his feet and lay down.

Ruth 3:8 It happened in the middle of the night that the man was startled and bent forward; and behold, a woman was lying at his feet.

Ruth 3:9 He said, “Who are you?” And she answered, “I am Ruth your maid. So spread your covering over your maid, for you are a close relative.”

Ruth 3:10 Then he said, “May you be blessed of the LORD, my daughter. You have shown your last kindness to be better than the first by not going after young men, whether poor or rich.

Ruth 3:11 “Now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you whatever you ask, for all my people in the city know that you are a woman of excellence.

Ruth 3:12 “Now it is true I am a close relative; however, there is a relative closer than I.

Ruth 3:13 “Remain this night, and when morning comes, if he will redeem you, good; let him redeem you. But if he does not wish to redeem you, then I will redeem you, as the LORD lives. Lie down until morning.”

Ruth 3:14 So she lay at his feet until morning and rose before one could recognize another; and he said, “Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.”

Ruth 3:15 Again he said, “Give me the cloak that is on you and hold it.” So she held it, and he measured six [measures] of barley and laid [it] on her. Then she went into the city.

Ruth 3:16 When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, “How did it go, my daughter?” And she told her all that the man had done for her.

Ruth 3:17 She said, “These six [measures] of barley he gave to me, for he said, ‘Do not go to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’“

Ruth 3:18 Then she said, “Wait, my daughter, until you know how the matter turns out; for the man will not rest until he has settled it today.”

Ruth 4:1 Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there, and behold, the close relative of whom Boaz spoke was passing by, so he said, “Turn aside, friend, sit down here.” And he turned aside and sat down.

Ruth 4:2 He took ten men of the elders of the city and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

Ruth 4:3 Then he said to the closest relative, “Naomi, who has come back from the land of Moab, has to sell the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech.

Ruth 4:4 “So I thought to inform you, saying, ‘Buy [it] before those who are sitting [here], and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem [it], redeem [it]; but if not, tell me that I may know; for there is no one but you to redeem [it], and I am after you.’“ And he said, “I will redeem [it].”

Ruth 4:5 Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the deceased, in order to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance.”

Ruth 4:6 The closest relative said, “I cannot redeem [it] for myself, because I would jeopardize my own inheritance. Redeem [it] for yourself; you [may have] my right of redemption, for I cannot redeem [it].”

Ruth 4:7 Now this was [the custom] in former times in Israel concerning the redemption and the exchange [of land] to confirm any matter: a man removed his sandal and gave it to another; and this was the [manner of] attestation in Israel.

Ruth 4:8 So the closest relative said to Boaz, “Buy [it] for yourself.” And he removed his sandal.

Ruth 4:9 Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses today that I have bought from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon.

Ruth 4:10 “Moreover, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, to be my wife in order to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance, so that the name of the deceased will not be cut off from his brothers or from the court of his [birth] place; you are witnesses today.”

Ruth 4:11 All the people who were in the court, and the elders, said, “[We are] witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, both of whom built the house of Israel; and may you achieve wealth in Ephrathah and become famous in Bethlehem.

Ruth 4:12 “Moreover, may your house be like the house of Perez whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the offspring which the LORD will give you by this young woman.”

Ruth 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife, and he went in to her. And the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

Ruth 4:14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed is the LORD who has not left you without a redeemer today, and may his name become famous in Israel.

Ruth 4:15 “May he also be to you a restorer of life and a sustainer of your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”

Ruth 4:16 Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her lap, and became his nurse.

Ruth 4:17 The neighbor women gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi!” So they named him Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Ruth 4:18 Now these are the generations of Perez: to Perez was born Hezron,

Ruth 4:19 and to Hezron was born Ram, and to Ram, Amminadab,

Ruth 4:20 and to Amminadab was born Nahshon, and to Nahshon, Salmon,

Ruth 4:21 and to Salmon was born Boaz, and to Boaz, Obed,

Ruth 4:22 and to Obed was born Jesse, and to Jesse, David.

1 Samuel

1:1 Now there was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

1 Samuel 1:2 He had two wives: the name of one was Hannah and the name of the other Peninnah; and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

1 Samuel 1:3 Now this man would go up from his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to the LORD there.

1 Samuel 1:4 When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters;

1 Samuel 1:5 but to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, but the LORD had closed her womb.

1 Samuel 1:6 Her rival, however, would provoke her bitterly to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb.

1 Samuel 1:7 It happened year after year, as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she would provoke her; so she wept and would not eat.

1 Samuel 1:8 Then Elkanah her husband said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep and why do you not eat and why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

1 Samuel 1:9 Then Hannah rose after eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the temple of the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:10 She, greatly distressed, prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly.

1 Samuel 1:11 She made a vow and said, “O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant and remember me, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and a razor shall never come on his head.”

1 Samuel 1:12 Now it came about, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli was watching her mouth.

1 Samuel 1:13 As for Hannah, she was speaking in her heart, only her lips were moving, but her voice was not heard. So Eli thought she was drunk.

1 Samuel 1:14 Then Eli said to her, “How long will you make yourself drunk? Put away your wine from you.”

1 Samuel 1:15 But Hannah replied, “No, my lord, I am a woman oppressed in spirit; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have poured out my soul before the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:16 “Do not consider your maidservant as a worthless woman, for I have spoken until now out of my great concern and provocation.”

1 Samuel 1:17 Then Eli answered and said, “Go in peace; and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of Him.”

1 Samuel 1:18 She said, “Let your maidservant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no longer [sad].

1 Samuel 1:19 Then they arose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned again to their house in Ramah. And Elkanah had relations with Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

1 Samuel 1:20 It came about in due time, after Hannah had conceived, that she gave birth to a son; and she named him Samuel, [saying], “Because I have asked him of the LORD.”

1 Samuel 1:21 Then the man Elkanah went up with all his household to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and [pay] his vow.

1 Samuel 1:22 But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “[I will not go up] until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD and stay there forever.”

1 Samuel 1:23 Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do what seems best to you. Remain until you have weaned him; only may the LORD confirm His word.” So the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him.

1 Samuel 1:24 Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with a three-year-old bull and one ephah of flour and a jug of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh, although the child was young.

1 Samuel 1:25 Then they slaughtered the bull, and brought the boy to Eli.

1 Samuel 1:26 She said, “Oh, my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you, praying to the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:27 “For this boy I prayed, and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of Him.

1 Samuel 1:28 “So I have also dedicated him to the LORD; as long as he lives he is dedicated to the LORD.” And he worshiped the LORD there.

1 Samuel 2:1 Then Hannah prayed and said, “My heart exults in the LORD; My horn is exalted in the LORD, My mouth speaks boldly against my enemies, Because I rejoice in Your salvation.

1 Samuel 2:2 “There is no one holy like the LORD, Indeed, there is no one besides You, Nor is there any rock like our God.

1 Samuel 2:3 “Boast no more so very proudly, Do not let arrogance come out of your mouth; For the LORD is a God of knowledge, And with Him actions are weighed.

1 Samuel 2:4 “The bows of the mighty are shattered, But the feeble gird on strength.

1 Samuel 2:5 “Those who were full hire themselves out for bread, But those who were hungry cease [to hunger]. Even the barren gives birth to seven, But she who has many children languishes.

1 Samuel 2:6 “The LORD kills and makes alive; He brings down to Sheol and raises up.

1 Samuel 2:7 “The LORD makes poor and rich; He brings low, He also exalts.

1 Samuel 2:8 “He raises the poor from the dust, He lifts the needy from the ash heap To make them sit with nobles, And inherit a seat of honor; For the pillars of the earth are the LORD’S, And He set the world on them.

1 Samuel 2:9 “He keeps the feet of His godly ones, But the wicked ones are silenced in darkness; For not by might shall a man prevail.

1 Samuel 2:10 “Those who contend with the LORD will be shattered; Against them He will thunder in the heavens, The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; And He will give strength to His king, And will exalt the horn of His anointed.”

1 Samuel 2:11 Then Elkanah went to his home at Ramah. But the boy ministered to the LORD before Eli the priest.

1 Samuel 2:12 Now the sons of Eli were worthless men; they did not know the LORD

1 Samuel 2:13 and the custom of the priests with the people. When any man was offering a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand.

1 Samuel 2:14 Then he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. Thus they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

1 Samuel 2:15 Also, before they burned the fat, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give the priest meat for roasting, as he will not take boiled meat from you, only raw."

1 Samuel 2:16 If the man said to him, "They must surely burn the fat first, and then take as much as you desire," then he would say, "No, but you shall give [it to me] now; and if not, I will take it by force."

1 Samuel 2:17 Thus the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD, for the men despised the offering of the LORD.

1 Samuel 2:18 Now Samuel was ministering before the LORD, [as] a boy wearing a linen ephod.

1 Samuel 2:19 And his mother would make him a little robe and bring it to him from year to year when she would come up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

1 Samuel 2:20 Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, "May the LORD give you children from this woman in place of the one she dedicated to the LORD." And they went to their own home.

1 Samuel 2:21 The LORD visited Hannah; and she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew before the LORD.

1 Samuel 2:22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who served at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

1 Samuel 2:23 He said to them, "Why do you do such things, the evil things that I hear from all these people?

1 Samuel 2:24 "No, my sons; for the report is not good which I hear the LORD'S people circulating.

1 Samuel 2:25 "If one man sins against another, God will mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for the LORD desired to put them to death.

1 Samuel 2:26 Now the boy Samuel was growing in stature and in favor both with the LORD and with men.

1 Samuel 2:27 Then a man of God came to Eli and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Did I [not] indeed reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt [in bondage] to Pharaoh’s house?

1 Samuel 2:28 ‘Did I [not] choose them from all the tribes of Israel to be My priests, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, to carry an ephod before Me; and did I [not] give to the house of your father all the fire [offerings] of the sons of Israel?

1 Samuel 2:29 ‘Why do you kick at My sacrifice and at My offering which I have commanded [in My] dwelling, and honor your sons above Me, by making yourselves fat with the choicest of every offering of My people Israel?’

1 Samuel 2:30 “Therefore the LORD God of Israel declares, ‘I did indeed say that your house and the house of your father should walk before Me forever’; but now the LORD declares, ‘Far be it from Me— for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me will be lightly esteemed.

1 Samuel 2:31 ‘Behold, the days are coming when I will break your strength and the strength of your father’s house so that there will not be an old man in your house.

1 Samuel 2:32 ‘You will see the distress of [My] dwelling, in [spite of] all the good that I do for Israel; and an old man will not be in your house forever.

1 Samuel 2:33 ‘Yet I will not cut off every man of yours from My altar so that your eyes will fail [from weeping] and your soul grieve, and all the increase of your house will die in the prime of life.

1 Samuel 2:34 ‘This will be the sign to you which will come concerning your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: on the same day both of them will die.

1 Samuel 2:35 ‘But I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who will do according to what is in My heart and in My soul; and I will build him an enduring house, and he will walk before My anointed always.

1 Samuel 2:36 ‘Everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread and say, “Please assign me to one of the priest’s offices so that I may eat a piece of bread.”‘“

1 Samuel 3:1 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD before Eli. And word from the LORD was rare in those days, visions were infrequent.

1 Samuel 3:2 It happened at that time as Eli was lying down in his place (now his eyesight had begun to grow dim [and] he could not see [well]),

1 Samuel 3:3 and the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD where the ark of God [was],

1 Samuel 3:4 that the LORD called Samuel; and he said, “Here I am.”

1 Samuel 3:5 Then he ran to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, lie down again.” So he went and lay down.

1 Samuel 3:6 The LORD called yet again, “Samuel!” So Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he answered, “I did not call, my son, lie down again.”

1 Samuel 3:7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor had the word of the LORD yet been revealed to him.

1 Samuel 3:8 So the LORD called Samuel again for the third time. And he arose and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli discerned that the LORD was calling the boy.

1 Samuel 3:9 And Eli said to Samuel, “Go lie down, and it shall be if He calls you, that you shall say, ‘Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.’“ So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

1 Samuel 3:10 Then the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for Your servant is listening.”

1 Samuel 3:11 The LORD said to Samuel, “Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle.

1 Samuel 3:12 “In that day I will carry out against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

1 Samuel 3:13 “For I have told him that I am about to judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons brought a curse on themselves and he did not rebuke them.

1 Samuel 3:14 “Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever.”

1 Samuel 3:15 So Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. But Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.

1 Samuel 3:16 Then Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” And he said, “Here I am.”

1 Samuel 3:17 He said, “What is the word that He spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. May God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the words that He spoke to you.”

1 Samuel 3:18 So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. And he said, “It is the LORD; let Him do what seems good to Him.”

1 Samuel 3:19 Thus Samuel grew and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fail.

1 Samuel 3:20 All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the LORD.

1 Samuel 3:21 And the LORD appeared again at Shiloh, because the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

1 Samuel 4:1 Thus the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle and camped beside Ebenezer while the Philistines camped in Aphek.

1 Samuel 4:2 The Philistines drew up in battle array to meet Israel. When the battle spread, Israel was defeated before the Philistines who killed about four thousand men on the battlefield.

1 Samuel 4:3 When the people came into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us take to ourselves from Shiloh the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that it may come among us and deliver us from the power of our enemies.”

1 Samuel 4:4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and from there they carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts who sits [above] the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, [were] there with the ark of the covenant of God.

1 Samuel 4:5 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth resounded.

1 Samuel 4:6 When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What [does] the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews [mean]?” Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

1 Samuel 4:7 The Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp.” And they said, “Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before.

1 Samuel 4:8 “Woe to us! Who shall deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who smote the Egyptians with all [kinds of] plagues in the wilderness.

1 Samuel 4:9 “Take courage and be men, O Philistines, or you will become slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been slaves to you; therefore, be men and fight.”

1 Samuel 4:10 So the Philistines fought and Israel was defeated, and every man fled to his tent; and the slaughter was very great, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.

1 Samuel 4:11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

1 Samuel 4:12 Now a man of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes torn and dust on his head.

1 Samuel 4:13 When he came, behold, Eli was sitting on [his] seat by the road eagerly watching, because his heart was trembling for the ark of God. So the man came to tell [it] in the city, and all the city cried out.

1 Samuel 4:14 When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he said, “What [does] the noise of this commotion [mean]?” Then the man came hurriedly and told Eli.

1 Samuel 4:15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were set so that he could not see.

1 Samuel 4:16 The man said to Eli, “I am the one who came from the battle line. Indeed, I escaped from the battle line today.” And he said, “How did things go, my son?”

1 Samuel 4:17 Then the one who brought the news replied, “Israel has fled before the Philistines and there has also been a great slaughter among the people, and your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been taken.”

1 Samuel 4:18 When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell off the seat backward beside the gate, and his neck was broken and he died, for he was old and heavy. Thus he judged Israel forty years.

1 Samuel 4:19 Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’s wife, was pregnant and about to give birth; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was taken and that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she kneeled down and gave birth, for her pains came upon her.

1 Samuel 4:20 And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, “Do not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son.” But she did not answer or pay attention.

1 Samuel 4:21 And she called the boy Ichabod, saying, “The glory has departed from Israel,” because the ark of God was taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

1 Samuel 4:22 She said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God was taken.”

1 Samuel 5:1 Now the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

1 Samuel 5:2 Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it to the house of Dagon and set it by Dagon.

1 Samuel 5:3 When the Ashdodites arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set him in his place again.

1 Samuel 5:4 But when they arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. And the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands [were] cut off on the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left to him.

1 Samuel 5:5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor all who enter Dagon’s house tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

1 Samuel 5:6 Now the hand of the LORD was heavy on the Ashdodites, and He ravaged them and smote them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territories.

1 Samuel 5:7 When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, “The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is severe on us and on Dagon our god.”

1 Samuel 5:8 So they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?” And they said, “Let the ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath.” And they brought the ark of the God of Israel [around].

1 Samuel 5:9 After they had brought it around, the hand of the LORD was against the city with very great confusion; and He smote the men of the city, both young and old, so that tumors broke out on them.

1 Samuel 5:10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And as the ark of God came to Ekron the Ekronites cried out, saying, “They have brought the ark of the God of Israel around to us, to kill us and our people.”

1 Samuel 5:11 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines and said, “Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, so that it will not kill us and our people.” For there was a deadly confusion throughout the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

1 Samuel 5:12 And the men who did not die were smitten with tumors and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6:1 Now the ark of the LORD had been in the country of the Philistines seven months.

1 Samuel 6:2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we shall send it to its place.”

1 Samuel 6:3 They said, “If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty; but you shall surely return to Him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you.”

1 Samuel 6:4 Then they said, “What shall be the guilt offering which we shall return to Him?” And they said, “Five golden tumors and five golden mice [according to] the number of the lords of the Philistines, for one plague was on all of you and on your lords.

1 Samuel 6:5 “So you shall make likenesses of your tumors and likenesses of your mice that ravage the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will ease His hand from you, your gods, and your land.

1 Samuel 6:6 “Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had severely dealt with them, did they not allow the people to go, and they departed?

1 Samuel 6:7 “Now therefore, take and prepare a new cart and two milch cows on which there has never been a yoke; and hitch the cows to the cart and take their calves home, away from them.

1 Samuel 6:8 “Take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart; and put the articles of gold which you return to Him as a guilt offering in a box by its side. Then send it away that it may go.

1 Samuel 6:9 “Watch, if it goes up by the way of its own territory to Beth-shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we will know that it was not His hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance.”

1 Samuel 6:10 Then the men did so, and took two milch cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

1 Samuel 6:11 They put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the golden mice and the likenesses of their tumors.

1 Samuel 6:12 And the cows took the straight way in the direction of Beth-shemesh; they went along the highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right or to the left. And the lords of the Philistines followed them to the border of Beth-shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:13 Now [the people of] Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they raised their eyes and saw the ark and were glad to see [it].

1 Samuel 6:14 The cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite and stood there where there [was] a large stone; and they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

1 Samuel 6:15 The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone; and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices that day to the LORD.

1 Samuel 6:16 When the five lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned to Ekron that day.

1 Samuel 6:17 These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

1 Samuel 6:18 and the golden mice, [according] to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities and of country villages. The large stone on which they set the ark of

1 Samuel 6:19 He struck down some of the men of Beth-shemesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck down of all the people, 50,070 men, and the people mourned because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

1 Samuel 6:20 The men of Beth-shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us?”

1 Samuel 6:21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up to you.”

1 Samuel 7:1 And the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took the ark of the LORD and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

1 Samuel 7:2 From the day that the ark remained at Kiriath-jearim, the time was long, for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

1 Samuel 7:3 Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, “If you return to the LORD with all your heart, remove the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you and direct your hearts to the LORD and serve Him alone; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 7:4 So the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth and served the LORD alone.

1 Samuel 7:5 Then Samuel said, “Gather all Israel to Mizpah and I will pray to the LORD for you.”

1 Samuel 7:6 They gathered to Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day and said there, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel judged the sons of Israel at Mizpah.

1 Samuel 7:7 Now when the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered to Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the sons of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 7:8 Then the sons of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease to cry to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 7:9 Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it for a whole burnt offering to the LORD; and Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel and the LORD answered him.

1 Samuel 7:10 Now Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, and the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day against the Philistines and confused them, so that they were routed before Israel.

1 Samuel 7:11 The men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them down as far as below Beth-car.

1 Samuel 7:12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and named it Ebenezer, saying, “Thus far the LORD has helped us.”

1 Samuel 7:13 So the Philistines were subdued and they did not come anymore within the border of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

1 Samuel 7:14 The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel delivered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. So there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

1 Samuel 7:15 Now Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

1 Samuel 7:16 He used to go annually on circuit to Bethel and Gilgal and Mizpah, and he judged Israel in all these places.

1 Samuel 7:17 Then his return [was] to Ramah, for his house [was] there, and there he judged Israel; and he built there an altar to the LORD.

1 Samuel 8:1 And it came about when Samuel was old that he appointed his sons judges over Israel.

1 Samuel 8:2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; [they] were judging in Beersheba.

1 Samuel 8:3 His sons, however, did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after dishonest gain and took bribes and perverted justice.

1 Samuel 8:4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah;

1 Samuel 8:5 and they said to him, “Behold, you have grown old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint a king for us to judge us like all the nations.”

1 Samuel 8:6 But the thing was displeasing in the sight of Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” And Samuel prayed to the LORD.

1 Samuel 8:7 The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in regard to all that they say to you, for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from being king over them.

1 Samuel 8:8 “Like all the deeds which they have done since the day that I brought them up from Egypt even to this day— in that they have forsaken Me and served other gods— so they are doing to you also.

1 Samuel 8:9 “Now then, listen to their voice; however, you shall solemnly warn them and tell them of the procedure of the king who will reign over them.”

1 Samuel 8:10 So Samuel spoke all the words of the LORD to the people who had asked of him a king.

1 Samuel 8:11 He said, “This will be the procedure of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and place [them] for himself in his chariots and among his horsemen and they will run before his chariots.

1 Samuel 8:12 “He will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and of fifties, and [some] to do his plowing and to reap his harvest and to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

1 Samuel 8:13 “He will also take your daughters for perfumers and cooks and bakers.

1 Samuel 8:14 “He will take the best of your fields and your vineyards and your olive groves and give [them] to his servants.

1 Samuel 8:15 “He will take a tenth of your seed and of your vineyards and give to his officers and to his servants.

1 Samuel 8:16 “He will also take your male servants and your female servants and your best young men and your donkeys and use [them] for his work.

1 Samuel 8:17 “He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his servants.

1 Samuel 8:18 “Then you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

1 Samuel 8:19 Nevertheless, the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and they said, “No, but there shall be a king over us,

1 Samuel 8:20 that we also may be like all the nations, that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

1 Samuel 8:21 Now after Samuel had heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the LORD’S hearing.

1 Samuel 8:22 The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice and appoint them a king.” So Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Go every man to his city.”

1 Samuel 9:1 Now there was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valor.

1 Samuel 9:2 He had a son whose name was Saul, a choice and handsome [man], and there was not a more handsome person than he among the sons of Israel; from his shoulders and up he was taller than any of the people.

1 Samuel 9:3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take now with you one of the servants, and arise, go search for the donkeys."

1 Samuel 9:4 He passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find [them]. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but [they were] not [there]. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find [them].

1 Samuel 9:5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, or else my father will cease [to be concerned] about the donkeys and will become anxious for us."

1 Samuel 9:6 He said to him, "Behold now, there is a man of God in this city, and the man is held in honor; all that he says surely comes true. Now let us go there, perhaps he can tell us about our journey on which we have set out."

1 Samuel 9:7 Then Saul said to his servant, "But behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is gone from our sack and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

1 Samuel 9:8 The servant answered Saul again and said, "Behold, I have in my hand a fourth of a shekel of silver; I will give [it] to the man of God and he will tell us our way."

1 Samuel 9:9 (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he used to say, "Come, and let us go to the seer"; for [he who is called] a prophet now was formerly called a seer.)

1 Samuel 9:10 Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

1 Samuel 9:11 As they went up the slope to the city, they found young women going out to draw water and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

1 Samuel 9:12 They answered them and said, "He is; see, [he is] ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come into the city today, for the people have a sacrifice on the high place today.

1 Samuel 9:13 "As soon as you enter the city you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up for you will find him at once."

1 Samuel 9:14 So they went up to the city. As they came into the city, behold, Samuel was coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

1 Samuel 9:15 Now a day before Saul's coming, the LORD had revealed [this] to Samuel saying,

1 Samuel 9:16 "About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over My people Israel; and he will deliver My people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have regarded My people, because their cry has come to Me."

1 Samuel 9:17 When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, "Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! This one shall rule over My people."

1 Samuel 9:18 Then Saul approached Samuel in the gate and said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is."

1 Samuel 9:19 Samuel answered Saul and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and in the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is on your mind.

1 Samuel 9:20 "As for your donkeys which were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them, for they have been found. And for whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's household?"

1 Samuel 9:21 Saul replied, "Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me in this way?"

1 Samuel 9:22 Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall and gave them a place at the head of those who were invited, who were about thirty men.

1 Samuel 9:23 Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion that I gave you, concerning which I said to you, 'Set it aside.'"

1 Samuel 9:24 Then the cook took up the leg with what was on it and set [it] before Saul. And [Samuel] said, "Here is what has been reserved! Set [it] before you [and] eat, because it has been kept for you until the appointed time, since I said I have invited the people." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

1 Samuel 9:25 When they came down from the high place into the city, [Samuel] spoke with Saul on the roof.

1 Samuel 9:26 And they arose early; and at daybreak Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, "Get up, that I may send you away." So Saul arose, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.

1 Samuel 9:27 As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Say to the servant that he might go ahead of us and pass on, but you remain standing now, that I may proclaim the word of God to you."

1 Samuel 10:1 Then Samuel took the flask of oil, poured it on his head, kissed him and said, "Has not the LORD anointed you a ruler over His inheritance?

1 Samuel 10:2 “When you go from me today, then you will find two men close to Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, ‘The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. Now behold, your father has ceased to be concerned about the donkeys and is anxious for you, saying, “What shall I do about my son?”‘

1 Samuel 10:3 “Then you will go on further from there, and you will come as far as the oak of Tabor, and there three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a jug of wine;

1 Samuel 10:4 and they will greet you and give you two [loaves] of bread, which you will accept from their hand.

1 Samuel 10:5 “Afterward you will come to the hill of God where the Philistine garrison is; and it shall be as soon as you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with harp, tambourine, flute, and a lyre before them, and they will be prophesying.

1 Samuel 10:6 “Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you mightily, and you shall prophesy with them and be changed into another man.

1 Samuel 10:7 “It shall be when these signs come to you, do for yourself what the occasion requires, for God is with you.

1 Samuel 10:8 “And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice peace offerings. You shall wait seven days until I come to you and show you what you should do.”

1 Samuel 10:9 Then it happened when he turned his back to leave Samuel, God changed his heart; and all those signs came about on that day.

1 Samuel 10:10 When they came to the hill there, behold, a group of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him mightily, so that he prophesied among them.

1 Samuel 10:11 It came about, when all who knew him previously saw that he prophesied now with the prophets, that the people said to one another, “What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 10:12 A man there said, “Now, who is their father?” Therefore it became a proverb: “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 10:13 When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

1 Samuel 10:14 Now Saul’s uncle said to him and his servant, “Where did you go?” And he said, “To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they could not be found, we went to Samuel.”

1 Samuel 10:15 Saul's uncle said, “Please tell me what Samuel said to you.”

1 Samuel 10:16 So Saul said to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found.” But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom which Samuel had mentioned.

1 Samuel 10:17 Thereafter Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah;

1 Samuel 10:18 and he said to the sons of Israel, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘I brought Israel up from Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the power of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.’

1 Samuel 10:19 “But you have today rejected your God, who delivers you from all your calamities and your distresses; yet you have said, ‘No, but set a king over us!’ Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans.”

1 Samuel 10:20 Thus Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot.

1 Samuel 10:21 Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the Matrite family was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken; but when they looked for him, he could not be found.

1 Samuel 10:22 Therefore they inquired further of the LORD, “Has the man come here yet?” So the LORD said, “Behold, he is hiding himself by the baggage.”

1 Samuel 10:23 So they ran and took him from there, and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.

1 Samuel 10:24 Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen? Surely there is no one like him among all the people.” So all the people shouted and said, “[Long] live the king!”

1 Samuel 10:25 Then Samuel told the people the ordinances of the kingdom, and wrote [them] in the book and placed [it] before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his house.

1 Samuel 10:26 Saul also went to his house at Gibeah; and the valiant [men] whose hearts God had touched went with him.

1 Samuel 10:27 But certain worthless men said, “How can this one deliver us?” And they despised him and did not bring him any present. But he kept silent.

1 Samuel 11:1 Now Nahash the Ammonite came up and besieged Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a covenant with us and we will serve you.”

1 Samuel 11:2 But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “I will make [it] with you on this condition, that I will gouge out the right eye of every one of you, thus I will make it a reproach on all Israel.”

1 Samuel 11:3 The elders of Jabesh said to him, “Let us alone for seven days, that we may send messengers throughout the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to deliver us, we will come out to you.”

1 Samuel 11:4 Then the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and spoke these words in the hearing of the people, and all the people lifted up their voices and wept.

1 Samuel 11:5 Now behold, Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen, and he said, “What is [the matter] with the people that they weep?” So they related to him the words of the men of Jabesh.

1 Samuel 11:6 Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul mightily when he heard these words, and he became very angry.

1 Samuel 11:7 He took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent [them] throughout the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen.” Then the dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one man.

1 Samuel 11:8 He numbered them in Bezek; and the sons of Israel were 300,000, and the men of Judah 30,000.

1 Samuel 11:9 They said to the messengers who had come, “Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will have deliverance.’“ So the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

1 Samuel 11:10 Then the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you.”

1 Samuel 11:11 The next morning Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp at the morning watch and struck down the Ammonites until the heat of the day. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

1 Samuel 11:12 Then the people said to Samuel, “Who is he that said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Bring the men, that we may put them to death.”

1 Samuel 11:13 But Saul said, “Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has accomplished deliverance in Israel.”

1 Samuel 11:14 Then Samuel said to the people, “Come and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there.”

1 Samuel 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they also offered sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

1 Samuel 12:1 Then Samuel said to all Israel, “Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me and I have appointed a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:2 “Now, here is the king walking before you, but I am old and gray, and behold my sons are with you. And I have walked before you from my youth even to this day.

1 Samuel 12:3 “Here I am; bear witness against me before the LORD and His anointed. Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? I will restore [it] to you.”

1 Samuel 12:4 They said, “You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from any man’s hand.”

1 Samuel 12:5 He said to them, “The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day that you have found nothing in my hand.” And they said, “[He is] witness.”

1 Samuel 12:6 Then Samuel said to the people, “It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt.

1 Samuel 12:7 “So now, take your stand, that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did for you and your fathers.

1 Samuel 12:8 “When Jacob went into Egypt and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron who brought your fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

1 Samuel 12:9 “But they forgot the LORD their God, so He sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

1 Samuel 12:10 “They cried out to the LORD and said, ‘We have sinned because we have forsaken the LORD and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; but now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve You.’

1 Samuel 12:11 “Then the LORD sent Jerubbaal and Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel, and delivered you from the hands of your enemies all around, so that you lived in security.

1 Samuel 12:12 “When you saw that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon came against you, you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us,’ although the LORD your God [was] your king.

1 Samuel 12:13 “Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen, whom you have asked for, and behold, the LORD has set a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:14 “If you will fear the LORD and serve Him, and listen to His voice and not rebel against the command of the LORD, then both you and also the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God.

1 Samuel 12:15 “If you will not listen to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the command of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, [as it was] against your fathers.

1 Samuel 12:16 “Even now, take your stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes.

1 Samuel 12:17 “Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD, that He may send thunder and rain. Then you will know and see that your wickedness is great which you have done in the sight of the LORD by asking for yourselves a king.”

1 Samuel 12:18 So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

1 Samuel 12:19 Then all the people said to Samuel, “Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, so that we may not die, for we have added to all our sins [this] evil by asking for ourselves a king.”

1 Samuel 12:20 Samuel said to the people, “Do not fear. You have committed all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

1 Samuel 12:21 “You must not turn aside, for [then you would go] after futile things which can not profit or deliver, because they are futile.

1 Samuel 12:22 “For the LORD will not abandon His people on account of His great name, because the LORD has been pleased to make you a people for Himself.

1 Samuel 12:23 “Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but I will instruct you in the good and right way.

1 Samuel 12:24 “Only fear the LORD and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you.

1 Samuel 12:25 “But if you still do wickedly, both you and your king will be swept away.”

1 Samuel 13:1 Saul was [thirty] years old when he began to reign, and he reigned [forty] two years over Israel.

1 Samuel 13:2 Now Saul chose for himself 3,000 men of Israel, of which 2,000 were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, while 1,000 were with Jonathan at Gibeah of Benjamin. But he sent away the rest of the people, each to his tent.

1 Samuel 13:3 Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of [it]. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear.”

1 Samuel 13:4 All Israel heard the news that Saul had smitten the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel had become odious to the Philistines. The people were then summoned to Saul at Gilgal.

1 Samuel 13:5 Now the Philistines assembled to fight with Israel, 30,000 chariots and 6,000 horsemen, and people like the sand which is on the seashore in abundance; and they came up and camped in Michmash, east of Beth-aven.

1 Samuel 13:6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were hard-pressed), then the people hid themselves in caves, in thickets, in cliffs, in cellars, and in pits.

1 Samuel 13:7 Also [some of] the Hebrews crossed the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. But as for Saul, he [was] still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

1 Samuel 13:8 Now he waited seven days, according to the appointed time set by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattering from him.

1 Samuel 13:9 So Saul said, “Bring to me the burnt offering and the peace offerings.” And he offered the burnt offering.

1 Samuel 13:10 As soon as he finished offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him [and] to greet him.

1 Samuel 13:11 But Samuel said, “What have you done?” And Saul said, “Because I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you did not come within the appointed days, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash,

1 Samuel 13:12 therefore I said, ‘Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not asked the favor of the LORD.’ So I forced myself and offered the burnt offering.”

1 Samuel 13:13 Samuel said to Saul, “You have acted foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, for now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

1 Samuel 13:14 “But now your kingdom shall not endure. The LORD has sought out for Himself a man after His own heart, and the LORD has appointed him as ruler over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.”

1 Samuel 13:15 Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

1 Samuel 13:16 Now Saul and his son Jonathan and the people who were present with them were staying in Geba of Benjamin while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

1 Samuel 13:17 And the raiders came from the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual,

1 Samuel 13:18 and another company turned toward Beth-horon, and another company turned toward the border which overlooks the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

1 Samuel 13:19 Now no blacksmith could be found in all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, “Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears.”

1 Samuel 13:20 So all Israel went down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his plowshare, his mattock, his axe, and his hoe.

1 Samuel 13:21 The charge was two-thirds of a shekel for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks, and the axes, and to fix the hoes.

1 Samuel 13:22 So it came about on the day of battle that neither sword nor spear was found in the hands of any of the people who [were] with Saul and Jonathan, but they were found with Saul and his son Jonathan.

1 Samuel 13:23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Samuel 14:1 Now the day came that Jonathan, the son of Saul, said to the young man who was carrying his armor, “Come and let us cross over to the Philistines’ garrison that is on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.

1 Samuel 14:2 Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron. And the people who [were] with him [were] about six hundred men,

1 Samuel 14:3 and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD at Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

1 Samuel 14:4 Between the passes by which Jonathan sought to cross over to the Philistines’ garrison, there was a sharp crag on the one side and a sharp crag on the other side, and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

1 Samuel 14:5 The one crag rose on the north opposite Michmash, and the other on the south opposite Geba.

1 Samuel 14:6 Then Jonathan said to the young man who was carrying his armor, “Come and let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; perhaps the LORD will work for us, for the LORD is not restrained to save by many or by few.”

1 Samuel 14:7 His armor bearer said to him, “Do all that is in your heart; turn yourself, [and] here I am with you according to your desire.”

1 Samuel 14:8 Then Jonathan said, “Behold, we will cross over to the men and reveal ourselves to them.

1 Samuel 14:9 “If they say to us, ‘Wait until we come to you’; then we will stand in our place and not go up to them.

1 Samuel 14:10 “But if they say, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up, for the LORD has given them into our hands; and this shall be the sign to us.”

1 Samuel 14:11 When both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, the Philistines said, “Behold, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves.”

1 Samuel 14:12 So the men of the garrison hailed Jonathan and his armor bearer and said, “Come up to us and we will tell you something.” And Jonathan said to his armor bearer, “Come up after me, for the LORD has given them into the hands of Israel.”

1 Samuel 14:13 Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor bearer behind him; and they fell before Jonathan, and his armor bearer put some to death after him.

1 Samuel 14:14 That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer made was about twenty men within about half a furrow in an acre of land.

1 Samuel 14:15 And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. Even the garrison and the raiders trembled, and the earth quaked so that it became a great trembling.

1 Samuel 14:16 Now Saul’s watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude melted away; and they went here and [there].

1 Samuel 14:17 Saul said to the people who [were] with him, “Number now and see who has gone from us.” And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not [there].

1 Samuel 14:18 Then Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring the ark of God here.” For the ark of God was at that time with the sons of Israel.

1 Samuel 14:19 While Saul talked to the priest, the commotion in the camp of the Philistines continued and increased; so Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”

1 Samuel 14:20 Then Saul and all the people who [were] with him rallied and came to the battle; and behold, every man’s sword was against his fellow, [and there was] very great confusion.

1 Samuel 14:21 Now the Hebrews [who] were with the Philistines previously, who went up with them all around in the camp, even they also [turned] to be with the Israelites who [were] with Saul and Jonathan.

1 Samuel 14:22 When all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, even they also pursued them closely in the battle.

1 Samuel 14:23 So the LORD delivered Israel that day, and the battle spread beyond Beth-aven.

1 Samuel 14:24 Now the men of Israel were hard-pressed on that day, for Saul had put the people under oath, saying, “Cursed be the man who eats food before evening, and until I have avenged myself on my enemies.” So none of the people tasted food.

1 Samuel 14:25 All [the people of] the land entered the forest, and there was honey on the ground.

1 Samuel 14:26 When the people entered the forest, behold, [there was] a flow of honey; but no man put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.

1 Samuel 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard when his father put the people under oath; therefore, he put out the end of the staff that [was] in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.

1 Samuel 14:28 Then one of the people said, “Your father strictly put the people under oath, saying, ‘Cursed be the man who eats food today.’“ And the people were weary.

1 Samuel 14:29 Then Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. See now, how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

1 Samuel 14:30 “How much more, if only the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great.”

1 Samuel 14:31 They struck among the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. And the people were very weary.

1 Samuel 14:32 The people rushed greedily upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slew [them] on the ground; and the people ate [them] with the blood.

1 Samuel 14:33 Then they told Saul, saying, “Behold, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood.” And he said, “You have acted treacherously; roll a great stone to me today.”

1 Samuel 14:34 Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, ‘Each one of you bring me his ox or his sheep, and slaughter [it] here and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.’“ So all the people that night brought each one his ox with him and slaughtered [it] there.

1 Samuel 14:35 And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

1 Samuel 14:36 Then Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them.” And they said, “Do whatever seems good to you.” So the priest said, “Let us draw near to God here.”

1 Samuel 14:37 Saul inquired of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You give them into the hand of Israel?” But He did not answer him on that day.

1 Samuel 14:38 Saul said, “Draw near here, all you chiefs of the people, and investigate and see how this sin has happened today.

1 Samuel 14:39 “For as the LORD lives, who delivers Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.” But not one of all the people answered him.

1 Samuel 14:40 Then he said to all Israel, “You shall be on one side and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side.” And the people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

1 Samuel 14:41 Therefore, Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, “Give a perfect [lot].” And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.

1 Samuel 14:42 Saul said, “Cast [lots] between me and Jonathan my son.” And Jonathan was taken.

1 Samuel 14:43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” So Jonathan told him and said, “I indeed tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am, I must die!”

1 Samuel 14:44 Saul said, “May God do this [to me] and more also, for you shall surely die, Jonathan.”

1 Samuel 14:45 But the people said to Saul, “Must Jonathan die, who has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan and he did not die.

1 Samuel 14:46 Then Saul went up from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

1 Samuel 14:47 Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, the sons of Ammon, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines; and wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment.

1 Samuel 14:48 He acted valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.

1 Samuel 14:49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishvi and Malchi-shua; and the names of his two daughters [were these]: the name of the firstborn Merab and the name of the younger Michal.

1 Samuel 14:50 The name of Saul’s wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the captain of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul’s uncle.

1 Samuel 14:51 Kish [was] the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner [was] the son of Abiel.

1 Samuel 14:52 Now the war against the Philistines was severe all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any mighty man or any valiant man, he attached him to his staff.

1 Samuel 15:1 Then Samuel said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over His people, over Israel; now therefore, listen to the words of the LORD.

1 Samuel 15:2 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘I will punish Amalek [for] what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way while he was coming up from Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:3 ‘Now go and strike Amalek and utterly destroy all that he has, and do not spare him; but put to death both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’“

1 Samuel 15:4 Then Saul summoned the people and numbered them in Telaim, 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men of Judah.

1 Samuel 15:5 Saul came to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the valley.

1 Samuel 15:6 Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, so that I do not destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the sons of Israel when they came up from Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

1 Samuel 15:7 So Saul defeated the Amalekites, from Havilah as you go to Shur, which is east of Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:8 He captured Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

1 Samuel 15:9 But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were not willing to destroy them utterly; but everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed.

1 Samuel 15:10 Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying,

1 Samuel 15:11 “I regret that I have made Saul king, for he has turned back from following Me and has not carried out My commands.” And Samuel was distressed and cried out to the LORD all night.

1 Samuel 15:12 Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul; and it was told Samuel, saying, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself, then turned and proceeded on down to Gilgal.”

1 Samuel 15:13 Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, “Blessed are you of the LORD! I have carried out the command of the LORD.”

1 Samuel 15:14 But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?”

1 Samuel 15:15 Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites, for the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; but the rest we have utterly destroyed.”

1 Samuel 15:16 Then Samuel said to Saul, “Wait, and let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night.” And he said to him, “Speak!”

1 Samuel 15:17 Samuel said, “Is it not true, though you were little in your own eyes, you were [made] the head of the tribes of Israel? And the LORD anointed you king over Israel,

1 Samuel 15:18 and the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, ‘Go and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are exterminated.’

1 Samuel 15:19 “Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD, but rushed upon the spoil and did what was evil in the sight of the LORD?”

1 Samuel 15:20 Then Saul said to Samuel, “I did obey the voice of the LORD, and went on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and have brought back Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

1 Samuel 15:21 “But the people took [some] of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the choicest of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God at Gilgal.”

1 Samuel 15:22 Samuel said, “Has the LORD as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices As in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, [And] to heed than the fat of rams.

1 Samuel 15:23 “For rebellion is as the sin of divination, And insubordination is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, He has also rejected you from [being] king.”

1 Samuel 15:24 Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned; I have indeed transgressed the command of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice.

1 Samuel 15:25 “Now therefore, please pardon my sin and return with me, that I may worship the LORD.”

1 Samuel 15:26 But Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”

1 Samuel 15:27 As Samuel turned to go, [Saul] seized the edge of his robe, and it tore.

1 Samuel 15:28 So Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbor, who is better than you.

1 Samuel 15:29 “Also the Glory of Israel will not lie or change His mind; for He is not a man that He should change His mind.”

1 Samuel 15:30 Then he said, “I have sinned; [but] please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and go back with me, that I may worship the LORD your God.”

1 Samuel 15:31 So Samuel went back following Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

1 Samuel 15:32 Then Samuel said, “Bring me Agag, the king of the Amalekites.” And Agag came to him cheerfully. And Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death is past.”

1 Samuel 15:33 But Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before the LORD at Gilgal.

1 Samuel 15:34 Then Samuel went to Ramah, but Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul.

1 Samuel 15:35 Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death; for Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16:1 Now the LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve over Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have selected a king for Myself among his sons.”

1 Samuel 16:2 But Samuel said, “How can I go? When Saul hears [of it], he will kill me.” And the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’

1 Samuel 16:3 “You shall invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for Me the one whom I designate to you.”

1 Samuel 16:4 So Samuel did what the LORD said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him and said, “Do you come in peace?”

1 Samuel 16:5 He said, “In peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

1 Samuel 16:6 When they entered, he looked at Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’S anointed is before Him.”

1 Samuel 16:7 But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for God [sees] not as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

1 Samuel 16:8 Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.”

1 Samuel 16:9 Next Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.”

1 Samuel 16:10 Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen these.”

1 Samuel 16:11 And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are these all the children?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and behold, he is tending the sheep.” Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.”

1 Samuel 16:12 So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is he.”

1 Samuel 16:13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

1 Samuel 16:14 Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrorized him.

1 Samuel 16:15 Saul’s servants then said to him, “Behold now, an evil spirit from God is terrorizing you.

1 Samuel 16:16 “Let our lord now command your servants who are before you. Let them seek a man who is a skillful player on the harp; and it shall come about when the evil spirit from God is on you, that he shall play [the harp] with his hand, and you will be well.”

1 Samuel 16:17 So Saul said to his servants, “Provide for me now a man who can play well and bring [him] to me.”

1 Samuel 16:18 Then one of the young men said, “Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is a skillful musician, a mighty man of valor, a warrior, one prudent in speech, and a handsome man; and the LORD is with him.”

1 Samuel 16:19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me your son David who is with the flock.”

1 Samuel 16:20 Jesse took a donkey [loaded with] bread and a jug of wine and a young goat, and sent [them] to Saul by David his son.

1 Samuel 16:21 Then David came to Saul and attended him; and Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor bearer.

1 Samuel 16:22 Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Let David now stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.”

1 Samuel 16:23 So it came about whenever the [evil] spirit from God came to Saul, David would take the harp and play [it] with his hand; and Saul would be refreshed and be well, and the evil spirit would depart from him.

1 Samuel 17:1 Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; and they were gathered at Socoh which belongs to Judah, and they camped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

1 Samuel 17:2 Saul and the men of Israel were gathered and camped in the valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array to encounter the Philistines.

1 Samuel 17:3 The Philistines stood on the mountain on one side while Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with the valley between them.

1 Samuel 17:4 Then a champion came out from the armies of the Philistines named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

1 Samuel 17:5 [He had] a bronze helmet on his head, and he was clothed with scale-armor which weighed five thousand shekels of bronze.

1 Samuel 17:6 [He] also [had] bronze greaves on his legs and a bronze javelin [slung] between his shoulders.

1 Samuel 17:7 The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear [weighed] six hundred shekels of iron; his shield-carrier also walked before him.

1 Samuel 17:8 He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel and said to them, "Why do you come out to draw up in battle array? Am I not the Philistine and you servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and let him come down to me.

1 Samuel 17:9 "If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will become your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall become our servants and serve us."

1 Samuel 17:10 Again the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man that we may fight together."

1 Samuel 17:11 When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

1 Samuel 17:12 Now David was the son of the Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse, and he had eight sons. And Jesse was old in the days of Saul, advanced [in years] among men.

1 Samuel 17:13 The three older sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and the second to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

1 Samuel 17:14 David was the youngest. Now the three oldest followed Saul,

1 Samuel 17:15 but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father's flock at Bethlehem.

1 Samuel 17:16 The Philistine came forward morning and evening for forty days and took his stand.

1 Samuel 17:17 Then Jesse said to David his son, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves and run to the camp to your brothers.

1 Samuel 17:18 "Bring also these ten cuts of cheese to the commander of [their] thousand, and look into the welfare of your brothers, and bring back news of them.

1 Samuel 17:19 "For Saul and they and all the men of Israel are in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines."

1 Samuel 17:20 So David arose early in the morning and left the flock with a keeper and took [the supplies] and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the circle of the camp while the army was going out in battle array shouting the war cry.

1 Samuel 17:21 Israel and the Philistines drew up in battle array, army against army.

1 Samuel 17:22 Then David left his baggage in the care of the baggage keeper, and ran to the battle line and entered in order to greet his brothers.

1 Samuel 17:23 As he was talking with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine from Gath named Goliath, was coming up from the army of the Philistines, and he spoke these same words; and David heard [them].

1 Samuel 17:24 When all the men of Israel saw the man, they fled from him and were greatly afraid.

1 Samuel 17:25 The men of Israel said, “Have you seen this man who is coming up? Surely he is coming up to defy Israel. And it will be that the king will enrich the man who kills him with great riches and will give him his daughter and make his father’s house free in Israel.”

1 Samuel 17:26 Then David spoke to the men who were standing by him, saying, “What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should taunt the armies of the living God?”

1 Samuel 17:27 The people answered him in accord with this word, saying, “Thus it will be done for the man who kills him.”

1 Samuel 17:28 Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab’s anger burned against David and he said, “Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your insolence and the wickedness of your heart; for you have come down in order to see the battle.”

1 Samuel 17:29 But David said, “What have I done now? Was it not just a question?”

1 Samuel 17:30 Then he turned away from him to another and said the same thing; and the people answered the same thing as before.

1 Samuel 17:31 When the words which David spoke were heard, they told [them] to Saul, and he sent for him.

1 Samuel 17:32 David said to Saul, “Let no man’s heart fail on account of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.”

1 Samuel 17:33 Then Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are [but] a youth while he has been a warrior from his youth.”

1 Samuel 17:34 But David said to Saul, “Your servant was tending his father’s sheep. When a lion or a bear came and took a lamb from the flock,

1 Samuel 17:35 I went out after him and attacked him, and rescued [it] from his mouth; and when he rose up against me, I seized [him] by his beard and struck him and killed him.

1 Samuel 17:36 “Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, since he has taunted the armies of the living God.”

1 Samuel 17:37 And David said, “The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.” And Saul said to David, “Go, and may the LORD be with you.”

1 Samuel 17:38 Then Saul clothed David with his garments and put a bronze helmet on his head, and he clothed him with armor.

1 Samuel 17:39 David girded his sword over his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested [them]. So David said to Saul, “I cannot go with these, for I have not tested [them].” And David took them off.

1 Samuel 17:40 He took his stick in his hand and chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in the shepherd’s bag which he had, even in [his] pouch, and his sling was in his hand; and he approached the Philistine.

1 Samuel 17:41 Then the Philistine came on and approached David, with the shield-bearer in front of him.

1 Samuel 17:42 When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him; for he was [but] a youth, and ruddy, with a handsome appearance.

1 Samuel 17:43 The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

1 Samuel 17:44 The Philistine also said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the beasts of the field.”

1 Samuel 17:45 Then David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have taunted.

1 Samuel 17:46 “This day the LORD will deliver you up into my hands, and I will strike you down and remove your head from you. And I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,

1 Samuel 17:47 and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not deliver by sword or by spear; for the battle is the LORD’S and He will give you into our hands.”

1 Samuel 17:48 Then it happened when the Philistine rose and came and drew near to meet David, that David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

1 Samuel 17:49 And David put his hand into his bag and took from it a stone and slung [it], and struck the Philistine on his forehead. And the stone sank into his forehead, so that he fell on his face to the ground.

1 Samuel 17:50 Thus David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and he struck the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David's hand.

1 Samuel 17:51 Then David ran and stood over the Philistine and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

1 Samuel 17:52 The men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted and pursued the Philistines as far as the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the slain Philistines lay along the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath and Ekron.

1 Samuel 17:53 The sons of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines and plundered their camps.

1 Samuel 17:54 Then David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his weapons in his tent.

1 Samuel 17:55 Now when Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?" And Abner said, "By your life, O king, I do not know."

1 Samuel 17:56 The king said, "You inquire whose son the youth is."

1 Samuel 17:57 So when David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand.

1 Samuel 17:58 Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "[I am] the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

1 Samuel 18:1 Now it came about when he had finished speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as himself.

1 Samuel 18:2 Saul took him that day and did not let him return to his father's house.

1 Samuel 18:3 Then Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself.

1 Samuel 18:4 Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, including his sword and his bow and his belt.

1 Samuel 18:5 So David went out wherever Saul sent him, [and] prospered; and Saul set him over the men of war. And it was pleasing in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

1 Samuel 18:6 It happened as they were coming, when David returned from killing the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy and with musical instruments.

1 Samuel 18:7 The women sang as they played, and said, “Saul has slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands.”

1 Samuel 18:8 Then Saul became very angry, for this saying displeased him; and he said, “They have ascribed to David ten thousands, but to me they have ascribed thousands. Now what more can he have but the kingdom?”

1 Samuel 18:9 Saul looked at David with suspicion from that day on.

1 Samuel 18:10 Now it came about on the next day that an evil spirit from God came mightily upon Saul, and he raved in the midst of the house, while David was playing [the harp] with his hand, as usual; and a spear [was] in Saul’s hand.

1 Samuel 18:11 Saul hurled the spear for he thought, “I will pin David to the wall.” But David escaped from his presence twice.

1 Samuel 18:12 Now Saul was afraid of David, for the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul.

1 Samuel 18:13 Therefore Saul removed him from his presence and appointed him as his commander of a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

1 Samuel 18:14 David was prospering in all his ways for the LORD [was] with him.

1 Samuel 18:15 When Saul saw that he was prospering greatly, he dreaded him.

1 Samuel 18:16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, and he went out and came in before them.

1 Samuel 18:17 Then Saul said to David, “Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife, only be a valiant man for me and fight the LORD’S battles.” For Saul thought, “My hand shall not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him.”

1 Samuel 18:18 But David said to Saul, “Who am I, and what is my life [or] my father’s family in Israel, that I should be the king’s son-in-law?”

1 Samuel 18:19 So it came about at the time when Merab, Saul’s daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.

1 Samuel 18:20 Now Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved David. When they told Saul, the thing was agreeable to him.

1 Samuel 18:21 Saul thought, “I will give her to him that she may become a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” Therefore Saul said to David, “For a second time you may be my son-in-law today.”

1 Samuel 18:22 Then Saul commanded his servants, “Speak to David secretly, saying, ‘Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you; now therefore, become the king’s son-in-law.’“

1 Samuel 18:23 So Saul’s servants spoke these words to David. But David said, “Is it trivial in your sight to become the king’s son-in-law, since I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?”

1 Samuel 18:24 The servants of Saul reported to him according to these words [which] David spoke.

1 Samuel 18:25 Saul then said, “Thus you shall say to David, ‘The king does not desire any dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king’s enemies.’“ Now Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 18:26 When his servants told David these words, it pleased David to become the king’s son-in-law. Before the days had expired

1 Samuel 18:27 David rose up and went, he and his men, and struck down two hundred men among the Philistines. Then David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might become the king’s son-in-law. So Saul gave him Michal his daughter for a wife.

1 Samuel 18:28 When Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and [that] Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved him,

1 Samuel 18:29 then Saul was even more afraid of David. Thus Saul was David’s enemy continually.

1 Samuel 18:30 Then the commanders of the Philistines went out [to battle], and it happened as often as they went out, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul. So his name was highly esteemed.

1 Samuel 19:1 Now Saul told Jonathan his son and all his servants to put David to death. But Jonathan, Saul’s son, greatly delighted in David.

1 Samuel 19:2 So Jonathan told David saying, “Saul my father is seeking to put you to death. Now therefore, please be on guard in the morning, and stay in a secret place and hide yourself.

1 Samuel 19:3 “I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you; if I find out anything, then I will tell you.”

1 Samuel 19:4 Then Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father and said to him, “Do not let the king sin against his servant David, since he has not sinned against you, and since his deeds [have been] very beneficial to you.

1 Samuel 19:5 “For he took his life in his hand and struck the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great deliverance for all Israel; you saw [it] and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood by putting David to death without a cause?”

1 Samuel 19:6 Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul vowed, “As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death.”

1 Samuel 19:7 Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these words. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as formerly.

1 Samuel 19:8 When there was war again, David went out and fought with the Philistines and defeated them with great slaughter, so that they fled before him.

1 Samuel 19:9 Now there was an evil spirit from the LORD on Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, and David was playing [the harp] with [his] hand.

1 Samuel 19:10 Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away out of Saul’s presence, so that he stuck the spear into the wall. And David fled and escaped that night.

1 Samuel 19:11 Then Saul sent messengers to David’s house to watch him, in order to put him to death in the morning. But Michal, David’s wife, told him, saying, “If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be put to death.”

1 Samuel 19:12 So Michal let David down through a window, and he went out and fled and escaped.

1 Samuel 19:13 Michal took the household idol and laid [it] on the bed, and put a quilt of goats’ [hair] at its head, and covered [it] with clothes.

1 Samuel 19:14 When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, “He is sick.”

1 Samuel 19:15 Then Saul sent messengers to see David, saying, “Bring him up to me on his bed, that I may put him to death.”

1 Samuel 19:16 When the messengers entered, behold, the household idol [was] on the bed with the quilt of goats’ [hair] at its head.

1 Samuel 19:17 So Saul said to Michal, “Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?” And Michal said to Saul, “He said to me, ‘Let me go! Why should I put you to death?’“

1 Samuel 19:18 Now David fled and escaped and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.

1 Samuel 19:20 Then Saul sent messengers to take David, but when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing [and] presiding over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul; and they also prophesied.

1 Samuel 19:21 When it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.

1 Samuel 19:22 Then he himself went to Ramah and came as far as the large well that is in Secu; and he asked and said, “Where are Samuel and David?” And [someone] said, “Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah.”

1 Samuel 19:23 He proceeded there to Naioth in Ramah; and the Spirit of God came upon him also, so that he went along prophesying continually until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:24 He also stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said to Jonathan, “What have I done? What is my iniquity? And what is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?”

1 Samuel 20:2 He said to him, “Far from it, you shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me. So why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!”

1 Samuel 20:3 Yet David vowed again, saying, “Your father knows well that I have found favor in your sight, and he has said, ‘Do not let Jonathan know this, or he will be grieved.’ But truly as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is hardly a step between me and death.”

1 Samuel 20:4 Then Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you say, I will do for you.”

1 Samuel 20:5 So David said to Jonathan, “Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I ought to sit down to eat with the king. But let me go, that I may hide myself in the field until the third evening.

1 Samuel 20:6 “If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked [leave] of me to run to Bethlehem his city, because it is the yearly sacrifice there for the whole family.’

1 Samuel 20:7 “If he says, ‘It is good,’ your servant [will be] safe; but if he is very angry, know that he has decided on evil.

1 Samuel 20:8 “Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if there is iniquity in me, put me to death yourself; for why then should you bring me to your father?”

1 Samuel 20:9 Jonathan said, “Far be it from you! For if I should indeed learn that evil has been decided by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you about it?”

1 Samuel 20:10 Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?”

1 Samuel 20:11 Jonathan said to David, “Come, and let us go out into the field.” So both of them went out to the field.

1 Samuel 20:12 Then Jonathan said to David, “The LORD, the God of Israel, [be witness]! When I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow, [or] the third day, behold, if there is good [feeling] toward David, shall I not then send to you and make it known to you?

1 Samuel 20:13 “If it please my father [to do] you harm, may the LORD do so to Jonathan and more also, if I do not make it known to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And may the LORD be with you as He has been with my father.

1 Samuel 20:14 “If I am still alive, will you not show me the lovingkindness of the LORD, that I may not die?

1 Samuel 20:15 “You shall not cut off your lovingkindness from my house forever, not even when the LORD cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.”

1 Samuel 20:16 So Jonathan made a [covenant] with the house of David, [saying], “May the LORD require [it] at the hands of David’s enemies.”

1 Samuel 20:17 Jonathan made David vow again because of his love for him, because he loved him as he loved his own life.

1 Samuel 20:18 Then Jonathan said to him, “Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed because your seat will be empty.

1 Samuel 20:19 “When you have stayed for three days, you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself on that eventful day, and you shall remain by the stone Ezel.

1 Samuel 20:20 “I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target.

1 Samuel 20:21 “And behold, I will send the lad, [saying], ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I specifically say to the lad, ‘Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, get them,’ then come; for there is safety for you and no harm, as the LORD lives.

1 Samuel 20:22 “But if I say to the youth, ‘Behold, the arrows are beyond you,’ go, for the LORD has sent you away.

1 Samuel 20:23 “As for the agreement of which you and I have spoken, behold, the LORD is between you and me forever.”

1 Samuel 20:24 So David hid in the field; and when the new moon came, the king sat down to eat food.

1 Samuel 20:25 The king sat on his seat as usual, the seat by the wall; then Jonathan rose up and Abner sat down by Saul’s side, but David’s place was empty.

1 Samuel 20:26 Nevertheless Saul did not speak anything that day, for he thought, “It is an accident, he is not clean, surely [he is] not clean.”

1 Samuel 20:27 It came about the next day, the second [day] of the new moon, that David’s place was empty; so Saul said to Jonathan his son, “Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?”

1 Samuel 20:28 Jonathan then answered Saul, “David earnestly asked leave of me [to go] to Bethlehem,

1 Samuel 20:29 for he said, ‘Please let me go, since our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to attend. And now, if I have found favor in your sight, please let me get away that I may see my brothers.’ For this reason he has not come to the king’s table.”

1 Samuel 20:30 Then Saul’s anger burned against Jonathan and he said to him, “You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother’s nakedness?

1 Samuel 20:31 “For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Therefore now, send and bring him to me, for he must surely die.”

1 Samuel 20:32 But Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, “Why should he be put to death? What has he done?”

1 Samuel 20:33 Then Saul hurled his spear at him to strike him down; so Jonathan knew that his father had decided to put David to death.

1 Samuel 20:34 Then Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved over David because his father had dishonored him.

1 Samuel 20:35 Now it came about in the morning that Jonathan went out into the field for the appointment with David, and a little lad [was] with him.

1 Samuel 20:36 He said to his lad, “Run, find now the arrows which I am about to shoot.” As the lad was running, he shot an arrow past him.

1 Samuel 20:37 When the lad reached the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the lad and said, “Is not the arrow beyond you?”

1 Samuel 20:38 And Jonathan called after the lad, “Hurry, be quick, do not stay!” And Jonathan’s lad picked up the arrow and came to his master.

1 Samuel 20:39 But the lad was not aware of anything; only Jonathan and David knew about the matter.

1 Samuel 20:40 Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad and said to him, “Go, bring [them] to the city.”

1 Samuel 20:41 When the lad was gone, David rose from the south side and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed three times. And they kissed each other and wept together, but David [wept] the more.

1 Samuel 20:42 Jonathan said to David, “Go in safety, inasmuch as we have sworn to each other in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD will be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants forever.’“ Then he rose and departed, while Jonathan went into the city.

1 Samuel 21:1 Then David came to Nob to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech came trembling to meet David and said to him, “Why are you alone and no one with you?”

1 Samuel 21:2 David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has commissioned me with a matter and has said to me, ‘Let no one know anything about the matter on which I am sending you and with which I have commissioned you; and I have directed the young men to a certain place.’

1 Samuel 21:3 “Now therefore, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found.”

1 Samuel 21:4 The priest answered David and said, “There is no ordinary bread on hand, but there is consecrated bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women.”

1 Samuel 21:5 David answered the priest and said to him, “Surely women have been kept from us as previously when I set out and the vessels of the young men were holy, though it was an ordinary journey; how much more then today will their vessels [be holy]?”

1 Samuel 21:6 So the priest gave him consecrated [bread]; for there was no bread there but the bread of the Presence which was removed from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread [in its place] when it was taken away.

1 Samuel 21:7 Now one of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul’s shepherds.

1 Samuel 21:8 David said to Ahimelech, “Now is there not a spear or a sword on hand? For I brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s matter was urgent.”

1 Samuel 21:9 Then the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you would take it for yourself, take [it]. For there is no other except it here.” And David said, “There is none like it; give it to me.”

1 Samuel 21:10 Then David arose and fled that day from Saul, and went to Achish king of Gath.

1 Samuel 21:11 But the servants of Achish said to him, “Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of this one as they danced, saying, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands ‘?”

1 Samuel 21:12 David took these words to heart and greatly feared Achish king of Gath.

1 Samuel 21:13 So he disguised his sanity before them, and acted insanely in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva run down into his beard.

1 Samuel 21:14 Then Achish said to his servants, “Behold, you see the man behaving as a madman. Why do you bring him to me?

1 Samuel 21:15 “Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this one to act the madman in my presence? Shall this one come into my house?”

1 Samuel 22:1 So David departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father’s household heard [of it], they went down there to him.

1 Samuel 22:2 Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him; and he became captain over them. Now there were about four hundred men with him.

1 Samuel 22:3 And David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, “Please let my father and my mother come [and stay] with you until I know what God will do for me.”

1 Samuel 22:4 Then he left them with the king of Moab; and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

1 Samuel 22:5 The prophet Gad said to David, “Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go into the land of Judah.” So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

1 Samuel 22:6 Then Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.

1 Samuel 22:7 Saul said to his servants who stood around him, “Hear now, O Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse also give to all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?

1 Samuel 22:8 “For all of you have conspired against me so that there is no one who discloses to me when my son makes [a covenant] with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me to lie in ambush, as [it is] this day.”

1 Samuel 22:9 Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing by the servants of Saul, said, “I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

1 Samuel 22:10 “He inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

1 Samuel 22:11 Then the king sent someone to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father’s household, the priests who were in Nob; and all of them came to the king.

1 Samuel 22:12 Saul said, “Listen now, son of Ahitub.” And he answered, “Here I am, my lord.”

1 Samuel 22:13 Saul then said to him, “Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me, in that you have given him bread and a sword and have inquired of God for him, so that he would rise up against me by lying in ambush as [it is] this day?”

1 Samuel 22:14 Then Ahimelech answered the king and said, “And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, even the king’s son-in-law, who is captain over your guard, and is honored in your house?

1 Samuel 22:15 “Did I [just] begin to inquire of God for him today? Far be it from me! Do not let the king impute anything to his servant [or] to any of the household of my father, for your servant knows nothing at all of this whole affair.”

1 Samuel 22:16 But the king said, “You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father’s household!”

1 Samuel 22:17 And the king said to the guards who were attending him, “Turn around and put the priests of the LORD to death, because their hand also is with David and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not reveal it to me.” But the servants of the king were not willing to put forth their hands to attack the priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 22:18 Then the king said to Doeg, “You turn around and attack the priests.” And Doeg the Edomite turned around and attacked the priests, and he killed that day eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

1 Samuel 22:19 And he struck Nob the city of the priests with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and infants; also oxen, donkeys, and sheep [he struck] with the edge of the sword.

1 Samuel 22:20 But one son of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David.

1 Samuel 22:21 Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 22:22 Then David said to Abiathar, “I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have brought about [the death] of every person in your father’s household.

1 Samuel 22:23 “Stay with me; do not be afraid, for he who seeks my life seeks your life, for you are safe with me.”

1 Samuel 23:1 Then they told David, saying, “Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are plundering the threshing floors.”

1 Samuel 23:2 So David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” And the LORD said to David, “Go and attack the Philistines and deliver Keilah.”

1 Samuel 23:3 But David’s men said to him, “Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines?”

1 Samuel 23:4 Then David inquired of the LORD once more. And the LORD answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will give the Philistines into your hand.”

1 Samuel 23:5 So David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines; and he led away their livestock and struck them with a great slaughter. Thus David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah.

1 Samuel 23:6 Now it came about, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, [that] he came down [with] an ephod in his hand.

1 Samuel 23:7 When it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah, Saul said, “God has delivered him into my hand, for he shut himself in by entering a city with double gates and bars.”

1 Samuel 23:8 So Saul summoned all the people for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

1 Samuel 23:9 Now David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him; so he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.”

1 Samuel 23:10 Then David said, “O LORD God of Israel, Your servant has heard for certain that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah to destroy the city on my account.

1 Samuel 23:11 “Will the men of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down just as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant.” And the LORD said, “He will come down.”

1 Samuel 23:12 Then David said, “Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will surrender you.”

1 Samuel 23:13 Then David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah, and they went wherever they could go. When it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up the pursuit.

1 Samuel 23:14 David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.

1 Samuel 23:15 Now David became aware that Saul had come out to seek his life while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.

1 Samuel 23:16 And Jonathan, Saul’s son, arose and went to David at Horesh, and encouraged him in God.

1 Samuel 23:17 Thus he said to him, “Do not be afraid, because the hand of Saul my father will not find you, and you will be king over Israel and I will be next to you; and Saul my father knows that also.”

1 Samuel 23:18 So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; and David stayed at Horesh while Jonathan went to his house.

1 Samuel 23:19 Then Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not hiding with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?

1 Samuel 23:20 “Now then, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to do so; and our part [shall be] to surrender him into the king’s hand.”

1 Samuel 23:21 Saul said, “May you be blessed of the LORD, for you have had compassion on me.

1 Samuel 23:22 “Go now, make more sure, and investigate and see his place where his haunt is, [and] who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning.

1 Samuel 23:23 “So look, and learn about all the hiding places where he hides himself and return to me with certainty, and I will go with you; and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.”

1 Samuel 23:24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.

1 Samuel 23:25 When Saul and his men went to seek [him], they told David, and he came down to the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard [it], he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon.

1 Samuel 23:26 Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain; and David was hurrying to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men were surrounding David and his men to seize them.

1 Samuel 23:27 But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come, for the Philistines have made a raid on the land.”

1 Samuel 23:28 So Saul returned from pursuing David and went to meet the Philistines; therefore they called that place the Rock of Escape.

1 Samuel 23:29 David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds of Engedi.

1 Samuel 24:1 Now when Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, saying, “Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi.”

1 Samuel 24:2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to seek David and his men in front of the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

1 Samuel 24:3 He came to the sheepfolds on the way, where there [was] a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the inner recesses of the cave.

1 Samuel 24:4 The men of David said to him, “Behold, [this is] the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Behold; I am about to give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it seems good to you.’“ Then David arose and cut off the edge of Saul’s robe secretly.

1 Samuel 24:5 It came about afterward that David’s conscience bothered him because he had cut off the edge of Saul’s [robe].

1 Samuel 24:6 So he said to his men, “Far be it from me because of the LORD that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD’S anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, since he is the LORD’S anointed.”

1 Samuel 24:7 David persuaded his men with [these] words and did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul arose, left the cave, and went on [his] way.

1 Samuel 24:8 Now afterward David arose and went out of the cave and called after Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

1 Samuel 24:9 David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of men, saying, ‘Behold, David seeks to harm you’?

1 Samuel 24:10 “Behold, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD had given you today into my hand in the cave, and some said to kill you, but [my eye] had pity on you; and I said, ‘I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD’S anointed.’

1 Samuel 24:11 “Now, my father, see! Indeed, see the edge of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the edge of your robe and did not kill you, know and perceive that there is no evil or rebellion in my hands, and I have not sinned against you, though you are lying in wait for my life to take it.

1 Samuel 24:12 “May the LORD judge between you and me, and may the LORD avenge me on you; but my hand shall not be against you.

1 Samuel 24:13 “As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness’; but my hand shall not be against you.

1 Samuel 24:14 “After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog, a single flea?

1 Samuel 24:15 “The LORD therefore be judge and decide between you and me; and may He see and plead my cause and deliver me from your hand.”

1 Samuel 24:16 When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” Then Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

1 Samuel 24:17 He said to David, “You are more righteous than I; for you have dealt well with me, while I have dealt wickedly with you.

1 Samuel 24:18 “You have declared today that you have done good to me, that the LORD delivered me into your hand and [yet] you did not kill me.

1 Samuel 24:19 “For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away safely? May the LORD therefore reward you with good in return for what you have done to me this day.

1 Samuel 24:20 “Now, behold, I know that you will surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand.

1 Samuel 24:21 “So now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me and that you will not destroy my name from my father’s household.”

1 Samuel 24:22 David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel 25:1 Then Samuel died; and all Israel gathered together and mourned for him, and buried him at his house in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

1 Samuel 25:2 Now [there was] a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel; and the man was very rich, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And it came about while he was shearing his sheep in Carmel

1 Samuel 25:3 (now the man’s name was Nabal, and his wife’s name was Abigail. And the woman was intelligent and beautiful in appearance, but the man was harsh and evil in [his] dealings, and he was a Calebite),

1 Samuel 25:4 that David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.

1 Samuel 25:5 So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, “Go up to Carmel, visit Nabal and greet him in my name;

1 Samuel 25:6 and thus you shall say, ‘Have a long life, peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.

1 Samuel 25:7 ‘Now I have heard that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us and we have not insulted them, nor have they missed anything all the days they were in Carmel.

1 Samuel 25:8 ‘Ask your young men and they will tell you. Therefore let [my] young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on a festive day. Please give whatever you find at hand to your servants and to your son David.’“

1 Samuel 25:9 When David’s young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in David’s name; then they waited.

1 Samuel 25:10 But Nabal answered David’s servants and said, “Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who are each breaking away from his master.

1 Samuel 25:11 “Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men whose origin I do not know?”

1 Samuel 25:12 So David’s young men retraced their way and went back; and they came and told him according to all these words.

1 Samuel 25:13 David said to his men, “Each [of you] gird on his sword.” So each man girded on his sword. And David also girded on his sword, and about four hundred men went up behind David while two hundred stayed with the baggage.

1 Samuel 25:14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife, saying, “Behold, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, and he scorned them.

1 Samuel 25:15 “Yet the men were very good to us, and we were not insulted, nor did we miss anything as long as we went about with them, while we were in the fields.

1 Samuel 25:16 “They were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the time we were with them tending the sheep.

1 Samuel 25:17 “Now therefore, know and consider what you should do, for evil is plotted against our master and against all his household; and he is such a worthless man that no one can speak to him.”

1 Samuel 25:18 Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred [loaves] of bread and two jugs of wine and five sheep already prepared and five measures of roasted grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded [them] on donkeys.

1 Samuel 25:19 She said to her young men, “Go on before me; behold, I am coming after you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:20 It came about as she was riding on her donkey and coming down by the hidden part of the mountain, that behold, David and his men were coming down toward her; so she met them.

1 Samuel 25:21 Now David had said, “Surely in vain I have guarded all that this [man] has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; and he has returned me evil for good.

1 Samuel 25:22 “May God do so to the enemies of David, and more also, if by morning I leave [as much as] one male of any who belong to him.”

1 Samuel 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she hurried and dismounted from her donkey, and fell on her face before David and bowed herself to the ground.

1 Samuel 25:24 She fell at his feet and said, “On me alone, my lord, be the blame. And please let your maidservant speak to you, and listen to the words of your maidservant.

1 Samuel 25:25 “Please do not let my lord pay attention to this worthless man, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name and folly is with him; but I your maidservant did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.

1 Samuel 25:26 “Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, since the LORD has restrained you from shedding blood, and from avenging yourself by your own hand, now then let your enemies and those who seek evil against my lord, be as Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:27 “Now let this gift which your maidservant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who accompany my lord.

1 Samuel 25:28 “Please forgive the transgression of your maidservant; for the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil will not be found in you all your days.

1 Samuel 25:29 “Should anyone rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, then the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; but the lives of your enemies He will sling out as from the hollow of a sling.

1 Samuel 25:30 “And when the LORD does for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and appoints you ruler over Israel,

1 Samuel 25:31 this will not cause grief or a troubled heart to my lord, both by having shed blood without cause and by my lord having avenged himself. When the LORD deals well with my lord, then remember your maidservant.”

1 Samuel 25:32 Then David said to Abigail, “Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me,

1 Samuel 25:33 and blessed be your discernment, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodshed and from avenging myself by my own hand.

1 Samuel 25:34 “Nevertheless, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from harming you, unless you had come quickly to meet me, surely there would not have been left to Nabal until the morning light [as much as] one male.”

1 Samuel 25:35 So David received from her hand what she had brought him and said to her, “Go up to your house in peace. See, I have listened to you and granted your request.”

1 Samuel 25:36 Then Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal’s heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; so she did not tell him anything at all until the morning light.

1 Samuel 25:37 But in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him so that he became [as] a stone.

1 Samuel 25:38 About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

1 Samuel 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal and has kept back His servant from evil. The LORD has also returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head.” Then David sent a proposal to Abigail, to take her as his wife.

1 Samuel 25:40 When the servants of David came to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, “David has sent us to you to take you as his wife.”

1 Samuel 25:41 She arose and bowed with her face to the ground and said, “Behold, your maidservant is a maid to wash the feet of my lord’s servants.”

1 Samuel 25:42 Then Abigail quickly arose, and rode on a donkey, with her five maidens who attended her; and she followed the messengers of David and became his wife.

1 Samuel 25:43 David had also taken Ahinoam of Jezreel, and they both became his wives.

1 Samuel 25:44 Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David’s wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1 Samuel 26:1 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is not David hiding on the hill of Hachilah, [which is] before Jeshimon?”

1 Samuel 26:2 So Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having with him three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

1 Samuel 26:3 Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, beside the road, and David was staying in the wilderness. When he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness,

1 Samuel 26:4 David sent out spies, and he knew that Saul was definitely coming.

1 Samuel 26:5 David then arose and came to the place where Saul had camped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; and Saul was lying in the circle of the camp, and the people were camped around him.

1 Samuel 26:6 Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab’s brother, saying, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?” And Abishai said, “I will go down with you.”

1 Samuel 26:7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping inside the circle of the camp with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people were lying around him.

1 Samuel 26:8 Then Abishai said to David, “Today God has delivered your enemy into your hand; now therefore, please let me strike him with the spear to the ground with one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time.”

1 Samuel 26:9 But David said to Abishai, “Do not destroy him, for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD’S anointed and be without guilt?”

1 Samuel 26:10 David also said, “As the LORD lives, surely the LORD will strike him, or his day will come that he dies, or he will go down into battle and perish.

1 Samuel 26:11 “The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD’S anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water, and let us go.”

1 Samuel 26:12 So David took the spear and the jug of water from [beside] Saul’s head, and they went away, but no one saw or knew [it], nor did any awake, for they were all asleep, because a sound sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.

1 Samuel 26:13 Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the mountain at a distance [with] a large area between them.

1 Samuel 26:14 David called to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, “Will you not answer, Abner?” Then Abner replied, “Who are you who calls to the king?”

1 Samuel 26:15 So David said to Abner, “Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came to destroy the king your lord.

1 Samuel 26:16 “This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, [all] of you must surely die, because you did not guard your lord, the LORD’S anointed. And now, see where the king’s spear is and the jug of water that was at his head.”

1 Samuel 26:17 Then Saul recognized David’s voice and said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And David said, “It is my voice, my lord the king.”

1 Samuel 26:18 He also said, “Why then is my lord pursuing his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand?

1 Samuel 26:19 “Now therefore, please let my lord the king listen to the words of his servant. If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering; but if it is men, cursed are they before the LORD, for they have driven me out today so that I would have no attachment with the inheritance of the LORD, saying, ‘Go, serve other gods.’

1 Samuel 26:20 “Now then, do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to search for a single flea, just as one hunts a partridge in the mountains.”

1 Samuel 26:21 Then Saul said, “I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not harm you again because my life was precious in your sight this day. Behold, I have played the fool and have committed a serious error.”

1 Samuel 26:22 David replied, “Behold the spear of the king! Now let one of the young men come over and take it.

1 Samuel 26:23 “The LORD will repay each man [for] his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into [my] hand today, but I refused to stretch out my hand against the LORD’S anointed.

1 Samuel 26:24 “Now behold, as your life was highly valued in my sight this day, so may my life be highly valued in the sight of the LORD, and may He deliver me from all distress.”

1 Samuel 26:25 Then Saul said to David, “Blessed are you, my son David; you will both accomplish much and surely prevail.” So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1 Samuel 27:1 Then David said to himself, “Now I will perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape into the land of the Philistines. Saul then will despair of searching for me anymore in all the territory of Israel, and I will escape from his hand.”

1 Samuel 27:2 So David arose and crossed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath.

1 Samuel 27:3 And David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each with his household, [even] David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal’s widow.

1 Samuel 27:4 Now it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath, so he no longer searched for him.

1 Samuel 27:5 Then David said to Achish, “If now I have found favor in your sight, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may live there; for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”

1 Samuel 27:6 So Achish gave him Ziklag that day; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

1 Samuel 27:7 The number of days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

1 Samuel 27:8 Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites and the Girzites and the Amalekites; for they were the inhabitants of the land from ancient times, as you come to Shur even as far as the land of Egypt.

1 Samuel 27:9 David attacked the land and did not leave a man or a woman alive, and he took away the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing. Then he returned and came to Achish.

1 Samuel 27:10 Now Achish said, “Where have you made a raid today?” And David said, “Against the Negev of Judah and against the Negev of the Jerahmeelites and against the Negev of the Kenites.”

1 Samuel 27:11 David did not leave a man or a woman alive to bring to Gath, saying, “Otherwise they will tell about us, saying, ‘So has David done and so [has been] his practice all the time he has lived in the country of the Philistines.’“

1 Samuel 27:12 So Achish believed David, saying, “He has surely made himself odious among his people Israel; therefore he will become my servant forever.”

1 Samuel 28:1 Now it came about in those days that the Philistines gathered their armed camps for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, “Know assuredly that you will go out with me in the camp, you and your men.”

1 Samuel 28:2 David said to Achish, “Very well, you shall know what your servant can do.” So Achish said to David, “Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life.”

1 Samuel 28:3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had removed from the land those who were mediums and spiritists.

1 Samuel 28:4 So the Philistines gathered together and came and camped in Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together and they camped in Gilboa.

1 Samuel 28:5 When Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid and his heart trembled greatly.

1 Samuel 28:6 When Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by prophets.

1 Samuel 28:7 Then Saul said to his servants, “Seek for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her.” And his servants said to him, “Behold, there is a woman who is a medium at En-dor.”

1 Samuel 28:8 Then Saul disguised himself by putting on other clothes, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, “Conjure up for me, please, and bring up for me whom I shall name to you.”

1 Samuel 28:9 But the woman said to him, “Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who are mediums and spiritists from the land. Why are you then laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?"

1 Samuel 28:10 Saul vowed to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."

1 Samuel 28:11 Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

1 Samuel 28:12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul."

1 Samuel 28:13 The king said to her, "Do not be afraid; but what do you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I see a divine being coming up out of the earth."

1 Samuel 28:14 He said to her, "What is his form?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is wrapped with a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and did homage.

1 Samuel 28:15 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Saul answered, "I am greatly distressed; for the Philistines are waging war against me, and God has departed from me and no longer answers me, either through prophets or by dreams; therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I should do."

1 Samuel 28:16 Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary?

1 Samuel 28:17 "The LORD has done accordingly as He spoke through me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, to David.

1 Samuel 28:18 "As you did not obey the LORD and did not execute His fierce wrath on Amalek, so the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

1 Samuel 28:19 "Moreover the LORD will also give over Israel along with you into the hands of the Philistines, therefore tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Indeed the LORD will give over the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines!"

1 Samuel 28:20 Then Saul immediately fell full length upon the ground and was very afraid because of the words of Samuel; also there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day and all night.

1 Samuel 28:21 The woman came to Saul and saw that he was terrified, and said to him, "Behold, your maidservant has obeyed you, and I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to your words which you spoke to me.

1 Samuel 28:22 “So now also, please listen to the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you that [you may] eat and have strength when you go on [your] way.”

1 Samuel 28:23 But he refused and said, “I will not eat.” However, his servants together with the woman urged him, and he listened to them. So he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.

1 Samuel 28:24 The woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she quickly slaughtered it; and she took flour, kneaded it and baked unleavened bread from it.

1 Samuel 28:25 She brought [it] before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they arose and went away that night.

1 Samuel 29:1 Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring which is in Jezreel.

1 Samuel 29:2 And the lords of the Philistines were proceeding on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were proceeding on in the rear with Achish.

1 Samuel 29:3 Then the commanders of the Philistines said, “What [are] these Hebrews [doing here]?” And Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, “Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or [rather] these years, and I have found no fault in him from the day he deserted [to me] to this day?”

1 Samuel 29:4 But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him, and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, “Make the man go back, that he may return to his place where you have assigned him, and do not let him go down to battle with us, or in the battle he may become an adversary to us. For with what could this [man] make himself acceptable to his lord? [Would it] not [be] with the heads of these men?

1 Samuel 29:5 “Is this not David, of whom they sing in the dances, saying, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands ‘?”

1 Samuel 29:6 Then Achish called David and said to him, “[As] the LORD lives, you [have been] upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army are pleasing in my sight; for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, you are not pleasing in the sight of the lords.

1 Samuel 29:7 “Now therefore return and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 29:8 David said to Achish, “But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day when I came before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”

1 Samuel 29:9 But Achish replied to David, “I know that you are pleasing in my sight, like an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, ‘He must not go up with us to the battle.’

1 Samuel 29:10 “Now then arise early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you, and as soon as you have arisen early in the morning and have light, depart.”

1 Samuel 29:11 So David arose early, he and his men, to depart in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30:1 Then it happened when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negev and on Ziklag, and had overthrown Ziklag and burned it with fire;

1 Samuel 30:2 and they took captive the women [and all] who were in it, both small and great, without killing anyone, and carried [them] off and went their way.

1 Samuel 30:3 When David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

1 Samuel 30:4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted their voices and wept until there was no strength in them to weep.

1 Samuel 30:5 Now David’s two wives had been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

1 Samuel 30:6 Moreover David was greatly distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, for all the people were embittered, each one because of his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

1 Samuel 30:7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, “Please bring me the ephod.” So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

1 Samuel 30:8 David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I pursue this band? Shall I overtake them?” And He said to him, “Pursue, for you will surely overtake them, and you will surely rescue [all].”

1 Samuel 30:9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, [where] those left behind remained.

1 Samuel 30:10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men, for two hundred who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor remained [behind].

1 Samuel 30:11 Now they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David, and gave him bread and he ate, and they provided him water to drink.

1 Samuel 30:12 They gave him a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins, and he ate; then his spirit revived. For he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

1 Samuel 30:13 David said to him, “To whom do you belong? And where are you from?” And he said, “I am a young man of Egypt, a servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me behind when I fell sick three days ago.

1 Samuel 30:14 “We made a raid on the Negev of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag with fire.”

1 Samuel 30:15 Then David said to him, “Will you bring me down to this band?” And he said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this band.”

1 Samuel 30:16 When he had brought him down, behold, they were spread over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing because of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

1 Samuel 30:17 David slaughtered them from the twilight until the evening of the next day; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.

1 Samuel 30:18 So David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and rescued his two wives.

1 Samuel 30:19 But nothing of theirs was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything that they had taken for themselves; David brought [it] all back.

1 Samuel 30:20 So David had captured all the sheep and the cattle [which the people] drove ahead of the [other] livestock, and they said, “This is David’s spoil.”

1 Samuel 30:21 When David came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to follow David, who had also been left at the brook Besor, and they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him, then David approached the people and greeted them.

1 Samuel 30:22 Then all the wicked and worthless men among those who went with David said, “Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead [them] away and depart.”

1 Samuel 30:23 Then David said, “You must not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us, who has kept us and delivered into our hand the band that came against us.

1 Samuel 30:24 “And who will listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike.”

1 Samuel 30:25 So it has been from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

1 Samuel 30:26 Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent [some] of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, “Behold, a gift for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD:

1 Samuel 30:27 to those who were in Bethel, and to those who were in Ramoth of the Negev, and to those who were in Jattir,

1 Samuel 30:28 and to those who were in Aroer, and to those who were in Siphmoth, and to those who were in Eshtemoa,

1 Samuel 30:29 and to those who were in Racal, and to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who were in the cities of the Kenites,

1 Samuel 30:30 and to those who were in Hormah, and to those who were in Bor-ashan, and to those who were in Athach,

1 Samuel 30:31 and to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were accustomed to go.”

1 Samuel 31:1 Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel, and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:2 The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchi-shua the sons of Saul.

1 Samuel 31:3 The battle went heavily against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was badly wounded by the archers.

1 Samuel 31:4 Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and pierce me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised will come and pierce me through and make sport of me.” But his armor bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. So Saul took his sword and fell on it.

1 Samuel 31:5 When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him.

1 Samuel 31:6 Thus Saul died with his three sons, his armor bearer, and all his men on that day together.

1 Samuel 31:7 When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, with those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; then the Philistines came and lived in them.

1 Samuel 31:8 It came about on the next day when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:9 They cut off his head and stripped off his weapons, and sent [them] throughout the land of the Philistines, to carry the good news to the house of their idols and to the people.

1 Samuel 31:10 They put his weapons in the temple of Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

1 Samuel 31:11 Now when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,

1 Samuel 31:12 all the valiant men rose and walked all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and they came to Jabesh and burned them there.

1 Samuel 31:13 They took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

2 Samuel

1:1 Now it came about after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, that David remained two days in Ziklag.

2 Samuel 1:2 On the third day, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes torn and dust on his head. And it came about when he came to David that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

2 Samuel 1:3 Then David said to him, “From where do you come?” And he said to him, “I have escaped from the camp of Israel.”

2 Samuel 1:4 David said to him, “How did things go? Please tell me.” And he said, “The people have fled from the battle, and also many of the people have fallen and are dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.”

2 Samuel 1:5 So David said to the young man who told him, “How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?”

2 Samuel 1:6 The young man who told him said, “By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and behold, Saul was leaning on his spear. And behold, the chariots and the horsemen pursued him closely.

2 Samuel 1:7 “When he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I said, ‘Here I am.’

2 Samuel 1:8 “He said to me, ‘Who are you?’ And I answered him, ‘I am an Amalekite.’

2 Samuel 1:9 “Then he said to me, ‘Please stand beside me and kill me, for agony has seized me because my life still lingers in me.’

2 Samuel 1:10 “So I stood beside him and killed him, because I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown which [was] on his head and the bracelet which [was] on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord.”

2 Samuel 1:11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and [so] also [did] all the men who [were] with him.

2 Samuel 1:12 They mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and his son Jonathan and for the people of the LORD and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

2 Samuel 1:13 David said to the young man who told him, “Where are you from?” And he answered, “I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite.”

2 Samuel 1:14 Then David said to him, “How is it you were not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the LORD’S anointed?”

2 Samuel 1:15 And David called one of the young men and said, “Go, cut him down.” So he struck him and he died.

2 Samuel 1:16 David said to him, “Your blood is on your head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, ‘I have killed the LORD’S anointed.’“

2 Samuel 1:17 Then David chanted with this lament over Saul and Jonathan his son,

2 Samuel 1:18 and he told [them] to teach the sons of Judah [the song of] the bow; behold, it is written in the book of Jashar.

2 Samuel 1:19 “Your beauty, O Israel, is slain on your high places! How have the mighty fallen!

2 Samuel 1:20 “Tell [it] not in Gath, Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, Or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice, The daughters of the uncircumcised will exult.

2 Samuel 1:21 “O mountains of Gilboa, Let not dew or rain be on you, nor fields of offerings; For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, The shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.

2 Samuel 1:22 “From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, The bow of Jonathan did not turn back, And the sword of Saul did not return empty.

2 Samuel 1:23 “Saul and Jonathan, beloved and pleasant in their life, And in their death they were not parted; They were swifter than eagles, They were stronger than lions.

2 Samuel 1:24 “O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, Who clothed you luxuriously in scarlet, Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

2 Samuel 1:25 “How have the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slain on your high places.

2 Samuel 1:26 “I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; You have been very pleasant to me. Your love to me was more wonderful Than the love of women.

2 Samuel 1:27 “How have the mighty fallen, And the weapons of war perished!”

2 Samuel 2:1 Then it came about afterwards that David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah?” And the LORD said to him, “Go up.” So David said, “Where shall I go up?” And He said, “To Hebron.”

2 Samuel 2:2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

2 Samuel 2:3 And David brought up his men who [were] with him, each with his household; and they lived in the cities of Hebron.

2 Samuel 2:4 Then the men of Judah came and there anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, “It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul.”

2 Samuel 2:5 David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, “May you be blessed of the LORD because you have shown this kindness to Saul your lord, and have buried him.

2 Samuel 2:6 “Now may the LORD show lovingkindness and truth to you; and I also will show this goodness to you, because you have done this thing.

2 Samuel 2:7 “Now therefore, let your hands be strong and be valiant; for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

2 Samuel 2:8 But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul’s army, had taken Ish-bosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.

2 Samuel 2:9 He made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, even over all Israel.

2 Samuel 2:10 Ish-bosheth, Saul’s son, was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he was king for two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David.

2 Samuel 2:11 The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

2 Samuel 2:12 Now Abner the son of Ner, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon with the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul.

2 Samuel 2:13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah and the servants of David went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, one on the one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

2 Samuel 2:14 Then Abner said to Joab, “Now let the young men arise and hold a contest before us.” And Joab said, “Let them arise.”

2 Samuel 2:15 So they arose and went over by count, twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

2 Samuel 2:16 Each one of them seized his opponent by the head and [thrust] his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:17 That day the battle was very severe, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

2 Samuel 2:18 Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel; and Asahel [was] [as] swift-footed as one of the gazelles which is in the field.

2 Samuel 2:19 Asahel pursued Abner and did not turn to the right or to the left from following Abner.

2 Samuel 2:20 Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Is that you, Asahel?" And he answered, "It is I."

2 Samuel 2:21 So Abner said to him, "Turn to your right or to your left, and take hold of one of the young men for yourself, and take for yourself his spoil." But Asahel was not willing to turn aside from following him.

2 Samuel 2:22 Abner repeated again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face to your brother Joab?"

2 Samuel 2:23 However, he refused to turn aside; therefore Abner struck him in the belly with the butt end of the spear, so that the spear came out at his back. And he fell there and died on the spot. And it came about that all who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, stood still.

2 Samuel 2:24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and when the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is in front of Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:25 The sons of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became one band, and they stood on the top of a certain hill.

2 Samuel 2:26 Then Abner called to Joab and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? How long will you refrain from telling the people to turn back from following their brothers?"

2 Samuel 2:27 Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely then the people would have gone away in the morning, each from following his brother."

2 Samuel 2:28 So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people halted and pursued Israel no longer, nor did they continue to fight anymore.

2 Samuel 2:29 Abner and his men then went through the Arabah all that night; so they crossed the Jordan, walked all morning, and came to Mahanaim.

2 Samuel 2:30 Then Joab returned from following Abner; when he had gathered all the people together, nineteen of David's servants besides Asahel were missing.

2 Samuel 2:31 But the servants of David had struck down many of Benjamin and Abner's men, [so that] three hundred and sixty men died.

2 Samuel 2:32 And they took up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb which was in Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men went all night until the day dawned at Hebron.

2 Samuel 3:1 Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David grew steadily stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker continually.

2 Samuel 3:2 Sons were born to David at Hebron: his firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

2 Samuel 3:3 and his second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur;

2 Samuel 3:4 and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

2 Samuel 3:5 and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David at Hebron.

2 Samuel 3:6 It came about while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David that Abner was making himself strong in the house of Saul.

2 Samuel 3:7 Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah; and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

2 Samuel 3:8 Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ish-bosheth and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hands of David; and yet today you charge me with a guilt concerning the woman.

2 Samuel 3:9 "May God do so to Abner, and more also, if as the LORD has sworn to David, I do not accomplish this for him,

2 Samuel 3:10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba."

2 Samuel 3:11 And he could no longer answer Abner a word, because he was afraid of him.

2 Samuel 3:12 Then Abner sent messengers to David in his place, saying, "Whose is the land? Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel over to you."

2 Samuel 3:13 He said, “Good! I will make a covenant with you, but I demand one thing of you, namely, you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul’s daughter, when you come to see me.”

2 Samuel 3:14 So David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul’s son, saying, “Give me my wife Michal, to whom I was betrothed for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.”

2 Samuel 3:15 Ish-bosheth sent and took her from [her] husband, from Paltiel the son of Laish.

2 Samuel 3:16 But her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her as far as Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, “Go, return.” So he returned.

2 Samuel 3:17 Now Abner had consultation with the elders of Israel, saying, “In times past you were seeking for David to be king over you.

2 Samuel 3:18 “Now then, do [it]! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.’“

2 Samuel 3:19 Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin; and in addition Abner went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and to the whole house of Benjamin.

2 Samuel 3:20 Then Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

2 Samuel 3:21 Abner said to David, “Let me arise and go and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may be king over all that your soul desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

2 Samuel 3:22 And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much spoil with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

2 Samuel 3:23 When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, they told Joab, saying, “Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace.”

2 Samuel 3:24 Then Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you; why then have you sent him away and he is already gone?

2 Samuel 3:25 “You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you and to learn of your going out and coming in and to find out all that you are doing.”

2 Samuel 3:26 When Joab came out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David did not know [it].

2 Samuel 3:27 So when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him privately, and there he struck him in the belly so that he died on account of the blood of Asahel his brother.

2 Samuel 3:28 Afterward when David heard it, he said, “I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

2 Samuel 3:29 “May it fall on the head of Joab and on all his father’s house; and may there not fail from the house of Joab one who has a discharge, or who is a leper, or who takes hold of a distaff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.”

2 Samuel 3:30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner because he had put their brother Asahel to death in the battle at Gibeon.

2 Samuel 3:31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes and gird on sackcloth and lament before Abner.” And King David walked behind the bier.

2 Samuel 3:32 Thus they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

2 Samuel 3:33 The king chanted a [lament] for Abner and said, “Should Abner die as a fool dies?

2 Samuel 3:34 “Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put in fetters; As one falls before the wicked, you have fallen.” And all the people wept again over him.

2 Samuel 3:35 Then all the people came to persuade David to eat bread while it was still day; but David vowed, saying, “May God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down.”

2 Samuel 3:36 Now all the people took note [of it], and it pleased them, just as everything the king did pleased all the people.

2 Samuel 3:37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been [the will] of the king to put Abner the son of Ner to death.

2 Samuel 3:38 Then the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?

2 Samuel 3:39 “I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah are too difficult for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his evil.”

2 Samuel 4:1 Now when Ish-bosheth, Saul’s son, heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel was disturbed.

2 Samuel 4:2 Saul’s son [had] two men who were commanders of bands: the name of the one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin (for Beeroth is also considered [part] of Benjamin,

2 Samuel 4:3 and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been aliens there until this day).

2 Samuel 4:4 Now Jonathan, Saul’s son, had a son crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the report of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened that in her hurry to flee, he fell and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

2 Samuel 4:5 So the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, departed and came to the house of Ish-bosheth in the heat of the day while he was taking his midday rest.

2 Samuel 4:6 They came to the middle of the house as if to get wheat, and they struck him in the belly; and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

2 Samuel 4:7 Now when they came into the house, as he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, they struck him and killed him and beheaded him. And they took his head and traveled by way of the Arabah all night.

2 Samuel 4:8 Then they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron and said to the king, “Behold, the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; thus the LORD has given my lord the king vengeance this day on Saul and his descendants.”

2 Samuel 4:9 David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress,

2 Samuel 4:10 when one told me, saying, ‘Behold, Saul is dead,’ and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and killed him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for [his] news.

2 Samuel 4:11 “How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house on his bed, shall I not now require his blood from your hand and destroy you from the earth?”

2 Samuel 4:12 Then David commanded the young men, and they killed them and cut off their hands and feet and hung them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

2 Samuel 5:1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 Samuel 5:2 “Previously, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and in. And the LORD said to you, ‘You will shepherd My people Israel, and you will be a ruler over Israel.’“

2 Samuel 5:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them before the LORD at Hebron; then they anointed David king over Israel.

2 Samuel 5:4 David was thirty years old when he became king, [and] he reigned forty years.

2 Samuel 5:5 At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

2 Samuel 5:6 Now the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, and they said to David, “You shall not come in here, but the blind and lame will turn you away”; thinking, “David cannot enter here.”

2 Samuel 5:7 Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion, that is the city of David.

2 Samuel 5:8 David said on that day, “Whoever would strike the Jebusites, let him reach the lame and the blind, who are hated by David’s soul, through the water tunnel.” Therefore they say, “The blind or the lame shall not come into the house.”

2 Samuel 5:9 So David lived in the stronghold and called it the city of David. And David built all around from the Millo and inward.

2 Samuel 5:10 David became greater and greater, for the LORD God of hosts was with him.

2 Samuel 5:11 Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees and carpenters and stonemasons; and they built a house for David.

2 Samuel 5:12 And David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

2 Samuel 5:13 Meanwhile David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron; and more sons and daughters were born to David.

2 Samuel 5:14 Now these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

2 Samuel 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

2 Samuel 5:16 Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet.

2 Samuel 5:17 When the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek out David; and when David heard [of it], he went down to the stronghold.

2 Samuel 5:18 Now the Philistines came and spread themselves out in the valley of Rephaim.

2 Samuel 5:19 Then David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand?” And the LORD said to David, “Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand.”

2 Samuel 5:20 So David came to Baal-perazim and defeated them there; and he said, “The LORD has broken through my enemies before me like the breakthrough of waters.” Therefore he named that place Baal-perazim.

2 Samuel 5:21 They abandoned their idols there, so David and his men carried them away.

2 Samuel 5:22 Now the Philistines came up once again and spread themselves out in the valley of Rephaim.

2 Samuel 5:23 When David inquired of the LORD, He said, “You shall not go [directly] up; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the balsam trees.

2 Samuel 5:24 “It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall act promptly, for then the LORD will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.”

2 Samuel 5:25 Then David did so, just as the LORD had commanded him, and struck down the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

2 Samuel 6:1 Now David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 Samuel 6:2 And David arose and went with all the people who were with him to Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God which is called by the Name, the very name of the LORD of hosts who is enthroned [above] the cherubim.

2 Samuel 6:3 They placed the ark of God on a new cart that they might bring it from the house of Abinadab which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart.

2 Samuel 6:4 So they brought it with the ark of God from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Ahio was walking ahead of the ark.

2 Samuel 6:5 Meanwhile, David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before the LORD with all kinds of [instruments made of] fir wood, and with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets and cymbals.

2 Samuel 6:6 But when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out toward the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen nearly upset [it].

2 Samuel 6:7 And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and God struck him down there for his irreverence; and he died there by the ark of God.

2 Samuel 6:8 David became angry because of the LORD’S outburst against Uzzah, and that place is called Perez-uzzah to this day.

2 Samuel 6:9 So David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, “How can the ark of the LORD come to me?”

2 Samuel 6:10 And David was unwilling to move the ark of the LORD into the city of David with him; but David took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

2 Samuel 6:11 Thus the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

2 Samuel 6:12 Now it was told King David, saying, “The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, on account of the ark of God.” David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

2 Samuel 6:13 And so it was, that when the bearers of the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

2 Samuel 6:14 And David was dancing before the LORD with all [his] might, and David was wearing a linen ephod.

2 Samuel 6:15 So David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the LORD with shouting and the sound of the trumpet.

2 Samuel 6:16 Then it happened [as] the ark of the LORD came into the city of David that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

2 Samuel 6:17 So they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

2 Samuel 6:18 When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offering, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

2 Samuel 6:19 Further, he distributed to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, both to men and women, a cake of bread and one of dates and one of raisins to each one. Then all the people departed each to his house.

2 Samuel 6:20 But when David returned to bless his household, Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, “How the king of Israel distinguished himself today! He uncovered himself today in the eyes of his servants’ maids as one of the foolish ones shamelessly uncovers himself!”

2 Samuel 6:21 So David said to Michal, “[It was] before the LORD, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel; therefore I will celebrate before the LORD.

2 Samuel 6:22 “I will be more lightly esteemed than this and will be humble in my own eyes, but with the maids of whom you have spoken, with them I will be distinguished.”

2 Samuel 6:23 Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

2 Samuel 7:1 Now it came about when the king lived in his house, and the LORD had given him rest on every side from all his enemies,

2 Samuel 7:2 that the king said to Nathan the prophet, “See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within tent curtains.”

2 Samuel 7:3 Nathan said to the king, “Go, do all that is in your mind, for the LORD is with you.”

2 Samuel 7:4 But in the same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

2 Samuel 7:5 “Go and say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Are you the one who should build Me a house to dwell in?

2 Samuel 7:6 “For I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought up the sons of Israel from Egypt, even to this day; but I have been moving about in a tent, even in a tabernacle.

2 Samuel 7:7 “Wherever I have gone with all the sons of Israel, did I speak a word with one of the tribes of Israel, which I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’”‘

2 Samuel 7:8 “Now therefore, thus you shall say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel.

2 Samuel 7:9 “I have been with you wherever you have gone and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a great name, like the names of the great men who are on the earth.

2 Samuel 7:10 “I will also appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them, that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, nor will the wicked afflict them any more as formerly,

2 Samuel 7:11 even from the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also declares to you that the LORD will make a house for you.

2 Samuel 7:12 “When your days are complete and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your descendant after you, who will come forth from you, and I will establish his kingdom.

2 Samuel 7:13 “He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

2 Samuel 7:14 “I will be a father to him and he will be a son to Me; when he commits iniquity, I will correct him with the rod of men and the strokes of the sons of men,

2 Samuel 7:15 but My lovingkindness shall not depart from him, as I took [it] away from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

2 Samuel 7:16 “Your house and your kingdom shall endure before Me forever; your throne shall be established forever.”“‘

2 Samuel 7:17 In accordance with all these words and all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

2 Samuel 7:18 Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD, and he said, “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far?

2 Samuel 7:19 “And yet this was insignificant in Your eyes, O Lord GOD, for You have spoken also of the house of Your servant concerning the distant future. And this is the custom of man, O Lord GOD.

2 Samuel 7:20 “Again what more can David say to You? For You know Your servant, O Lord GOD!

2 Samuel 7:21 “For the sake of Your word, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness to let Your servant know.

2 Samuel 7:22 “For this reason You are great, O Lord GOD; for there is none like You, and there is no God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

2 Samuel 7:23 “And what one nation on the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people and to make a name for Himself, and to do a great thing for You and awesome things for Your land, before Your people whom You have redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, [from] nations and their gods?

2 Samuel 7:24 “For You have established for Yourself Your people Israel as Your own people forever, and You, O LORD, have become their God.

2 Samuel 7:25 “Now therefore, O LORD God, the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house, confirm [it] forever, and do as You have spoken,

2 Samuel 7:26 that Your name may be magnified forever, by saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is God over Israel’; and may the house of Your servant David be established before You.

2 Samuel 7:27 “For You, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have made a revelation to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house’; therefore Your servant has found courage to pray this prayer to You.

2 Samuel 7:28 “Now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are truth, and You have promised this good thing to Your servant.

2 Samuel 7:29 “Now therefore, may it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You. For You, O Lord GOD, have spoken; and with Your blessing may the house of Your servant be blessed forever.”

2 Samuel 8:1 Now after this it came about that David defeated the Philistines and subdued them; and David took control of the chief city from the hand of the Philistines.

2 Samuel 8:2 He defeated Moab, and measured them with the line, making them lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death and one full line to keep alive. And the Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute.

2 Samuel 8:3 Then David defeated Hadadezer, the son of Rehob king of Zobah, as he went to restore his rule at the River.

2 Samuel 8:4 David captured from him 1,700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers; and David hamstrung the chariot horses, but reserved [enough] of them for 100 chariots.

2 Samuel 8:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 Arameans.

2 Samuel 8:6 Then David put garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus, and the Arameans became servants to David, bringing tribute. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:7 David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 8:8 From Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a very large amount of bronze.

2 Samuel 8:9 Now when Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer,

2 Samuel 8:10 Toi sent Joram his son to King David to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him; for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi. And [Joram] brought with him articles of silver, of gold and of bronze.

2 Samuel 8:11 King David also dedicated these to the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he had subdued:

2 Samuel 8:12 from Aram and Moab and the sons of Ammon and the Philistines and Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

2 Samuel 8:13 So David made a name [for himself] when he returned from killing 18,000 Arameans in the Valley of Salt.

2 Samuel 8:14 He put garrisons in Edom. In all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:15 So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered justice and righteousness for all his people.

2 Samuel 8:16 Joab the son of Zeruiah [was] over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud [was] recorder.

2 Samuel 8:17 Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar [were] priests, and Seraiah [was] secretary.

2 Samuel 8:18 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David’s sons were chief ministers.

2 Samuel 9:1 Then David said, “Is there yet anyone left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan’s sake?”

2 Samuel 9:2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "[I am] your servant."

2 Samuel 9:3 The king said, "Is there not yet anyone of the house of Saul to whom I may show the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is crippled in both feet."

2 Samuel 9:4 So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel in Lo-debar."

2 Samuel 9:5 Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

2 Samuel 9:6 Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, came to David and fell on his face and prostrated himself. And David said, "Mephibosheth." And he said, "Here is your servant!"

2 Samuel 9:7 David said to him, "Do not fear, for I will surely show kindness to you for the sake of your father Jonathan, and will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul; and you shall eat at my table regularly."

2 Samuel 9:8 Again he prostrated himself and said, "What is your servant, that you should regard a dead dog like me?"

2 Samuel 9:9 Then the king called Saul's servant Ziba and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given to your master's grandson.

2 Samuel 9:10 "You and your sons and your servants shall cultivate the land for him, and you shall bring in [the produce] so that your master's grandson may have food; nevertheless Mephibosheth your master's grandson shall eat at my table regularly." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

2 Samuel 9:11 Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant so your servant will do." So Mephibosheth ate at David's table as one of the king's sons.

2 Samuel 9:12 Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. And all who lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.

2 Samuel 9:13 So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he ate at the king's table regularly. Now he was lame in both feet.

2 Samuel 10:1 Now it happened afterwards that the king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun his son became king in his place.

2 Samuel 10:2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent some of his servants to console him concerning his father. But when David's servants came to the land of the Ammonites,

2 Samuel 10:3 the princes of the Ammonites said to Hanun their lord, “Do you think that David is honoring your father because he has sent consolers to you? Has David not sent his servants to you in order to search the city, to spy it out and overthrow it?”

2 Samuel 10:4 So Hanun took David’s servants and shaved off half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their hips, and sent them away.

2 Samuel 10:5 When they told [it] to David, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, “Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and [then] return.”

2 Samuel 10:6 Now when the sons of Ammon saw that they had become odious to David, the sons of Ammon sent and hired the Arameans of Beth-rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, 20,000 foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with 1,000 men, and the men of Tob with 12,000 men.

2 Samuel 10:7 When David heard [of it], he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.

2 Samuel 10:8 The sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, while the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah [were] by themselves in the field.

2 Samuel 10:9 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel, and arrayed [them] against the Arameans.

2 Samuel 10:10 But the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of Abishai his brother, and he arrayed [them] against the sons of Ammon.

2 Samuel 10:11 He said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me, but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come to help you.

2 Samuel 10:12 “Be strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what is good in His sight.”

2 Samuel 10:13 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him.

2 Samuel 10:14 When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans fled, they [also] fled before Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab returned from [fighting] against the sons of Ammon and came to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 10:15 When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together.

2 Samuel 10:16 And Hadadezer sent and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the River, and they came to Helam; and Shobach the commander of the army of Hadadezer led them.

2 Samuel 10:17 Now when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Arameans arrayed themselves to meet David and fought against him.

2 Samuel 10:18 But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed 700 charioteers of the Arameans and 40,000 horsemen and struck down Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there.

2 Samuel 10:19 When all the kings, servants of Hadadezer, saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Arameans feared to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

2 Samuel 11:1 Then it happened in the spring, at the time when kings go out [to battle], that David sent Joab and his servants with him and all Israel, and they destroyed the sons of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 11:2 Now when evening came David arose from his bed and walked around on the roof of the king's house, and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful in appearance.

2 Samuel 11:3 So David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

2 Samuel 11:4 David sent messengers and took her, and when she came to him, he lay with her; and when she had purified herself from her uncleanness, she returned to her house.

2 Samuel 11:5 The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, "I am pregnant."

2 Samuel 11:6 Then David sent to Joab, [saying], "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David.

2 Samuel 11:7 When Uriah came to him, David asked concerning the welfare of Joab and the people and the state of the war.

2 Samuel 11:8 Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." And Uriah went out of the king's house, and a present from the king was sent out after him.

2 Samuel 11:9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

2 Samuel 11:10 Now when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

2 Samuel 11:11 Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in temporary shelters, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? By your life and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing."

2 Samuel 11:12 Then David said to Uriah, “Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you go.” So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

2 Samuel 11:13 Now David called him, and he ate and drank before him, and he made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his bed with his lord’s servants, but he did not go down to his house.

2 Samuel 11:14 Now in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent [it] by the hand of Uriah.

2 Samuel 11:15 He had written in the letter, saying, “Place Uriah in the front line of the fiercest battle and withdraw from him, so that he may be struck down and die.”

2 Samuel 11:16 So it was as Joab kept watch on the city, that he put Uriah at the place where he knew there [were] valiant men.

2 Samuel 11:17 The men of the city went out and fought against Joab, and some of the people among David’s servants fell; and Uriah the Hittite also died.

2 Samuel 11:18 Then Joab sent and reported to David all the events of the war.

2 Samuel 11:19 He charged the messenger, saying, “When you have finished telling all the events of the war to the king,

2 Samuel 11:20 and if it happens that the king’s wrath rises and he says to you, ‘Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

2 Samuel 11:21 ‘Who struck down Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?’—then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.’“

2 Samuel 11:22 So the messenger departed and came and reported to David all that Joab had sent him [to tell].

2 Samuel 11:23 The messenger said to David, “The men prevailed against us and came out against us in the field, but we pressed them as far as the entrance of the gate.

2 Samuel 11:24 “Moreover, the archers shot at your servants from the wall; so some of the king’s servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.”

2 Samuel 11:25 Then David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall say to Joab, ‘Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; make your battle against the city stronger and overthrow it’; and [so] encourage him.”

2 Samuel 11:26 Now when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

2 Samuel 11:27 When the [time of] mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house and she became his wife; then she bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Samuel 12:1 Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said, "There were two men in one city, the one rich and the other poor.

2 Samuel 12:2 "The rich man had a great many flocks and herds.

2 Samuel 12:3 "But the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb Which he bought and nourished; And it grew up together with him and his children. It would eat of his bread and drink of his cup and lie in his bosom, And was like a daughter to him.

2 Samuel 12:4 "Now a traveler came to the rich man, And he was unwilling to take from his own flock or his own herd, To prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him; Rather he took the poor man's ewe lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

2 Samuel 12:5 Then David's anger burned greatly against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, surely the man who has done this deserves to die.

2 Samuel 12:6 "He must make restitution for the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing and had no compassion."

2 Samuel 12:7 Nathan then said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'It is I who anointed you king over Israel and it is I who delivered you from the hand of Saul.

2 Samuel 12:8 'I also gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your care, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah; and if [that had been] too little, I would have added to you many more things like these!

2 Samuel 12:9 'Why have you despised the word of the LORD by doing evil in His sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the sons of Ammon.

2 Samuel 12:10 'Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

2 Samuel 12:11 "Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you from your own household; I will even take your wives before your eyes and give [them] to your companion, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight.

2 Samuel 12:12 'Indeed you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and under the sun.'"

2 Samuel 12:13 Then David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.” And Nathan said to David, “The LORD also has taken away your sin; you shall not die.

2 Samuel 12:14 “However, because by this deed you have given occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born to you shall surely die.”

2 Samuel 12:15 So Nathan went to his house. Then the LORD struck the child that Uriah’s widow bore to David, so that he was [very] sick.

2 Samuel 12:16 David therefore inquired of God for the child; and David fasted and went and lay all night on the ground.

2 Samuel 12:17 The elders of his household stood beside him in order to raise him up from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat food with them.

2 Samuel 12:18 Then it happened on the seventh day that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, “Behold, while the child was [still] alive, we spoke to him and he did not listen to our voice. How then can we tell him that the child is dead, since he might do [himself] harm!”

2 Samuel 12:19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; so David said to his servants, “Is the child dead?” And they said, “He is dead.”

2 Samuel 12:20 So David arose from the ground, washed, anointed [himself], and changed his clothes; and he came into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he came to his own house, and when he requested, they set food before him and he ate.

2 Samuel 12:21 Then his servants said to him, “What is this thing that you have done? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept; but when the child died, you arose and ate food.”

2 Samuel 12:22 He said, “While the child was [still] alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, ‘Who knows, the LORD may be gracious to me, that the child may live.’

2 Samuel 12:23 “But now he has died; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.”

2 Samuel 12:24 Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her; and she gave birth to a son, and he named him Solomon. Now the LORD loved him

2 Samuel 12:25 and sent [word] through Nathan the prophet, and he named him Jedidiah for the LORD’S sake.

2 Samuel 12:26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon and captured the royal city.

2 Samuel 12:27 Joab sent messengers to David and said, “I have fought against Rabbah, I have even captured the city of waters.

2 Samuel 12:28 “Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and camp against the city and capture it, or I will capture the city myself and it will be named after me.”

2 Samuel 12:29 So David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, fought against it and captured it.

2 Samuel 12:30 Then he took the crown of their king from his head; and its weight [was] a talent of gold, and [in it] [was] a precious stone; and it was [placed] on David’s head. And he brought out the spoil of the city in great amounts.

2 Samuel 12:31 He also brought out the people who were in it, and set [them] under saws, sharp iron instruments, and iron axes, and made them pass through the brickkiln. And thus he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned [to] Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13:1 Now it was after this that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 Samuel 13:2 Amnon was so frustrated because of his sister Tamar that he made himself ill, for she was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her.

2 Samuel 13:3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David’s brother; and Jonadab was a very shrewd man.

2 Samuel 13:4 He said to him, “O son of the king, why are you so depressed morning after morning? Will you not tell me?” Then Amnon said to him, “I am in love with Tamar, the sister of my brother Absalom.”

2 Samuel 13:5 Jonadab then said to him, “Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill; when your father comes to see you, say to him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come and give me [some] food to eat, and let her prepare the food in my sight, that I may see [it] and eat from her hand.’“

2 Samuel 13:6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, “Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand.”

2 Samuel 13:7 Then David sent to the house for Tamar, saying, “Go now to your brother Amnon’s house, and prepare food for him.”

2 Samuel 13:8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon’s house, and he was lying down. And she took dough, kneaded [it], made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

2 Samuel 13:9 She took the pan and dished [them] out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, “Have everyone go out from me.” So everyone went out from him.

2 Samuel 13:10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand.” So Tamar took the cakes which she had made and brought them into the bedroom to her brother Amnon.

2 Samuel 13:11 When she brought [them] to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, “Come, lie with me, my sister.”

2 Samuel 13:12 But she answered him, “No, my brother, do not violate me, for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this disgraceful thing!

2 Samuel 13:13 “As for me, where could I get rid of my reproach? And as for you, you will be like one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you.”

2 Samuel 13:14 However, he would not listen to her; since he was stronger than she, he violated her and lay with her.

2 Samuel 13:15 Then Amnon hated her with a very great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, “Get up, go away!”

2 Samuel 13:16 But she said to him, “No, because this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other that you have done to me!” Yet he would not listen to her.

2 Samuel 13:17 Then he called his young man who attended him and said, “Now throw this woman out of my [presence], and lock the door behind her.”

2 Samuel 13:18 Now she had on a long-sleeved garment; for in this manner the virgin daughters of the king dressed themselves in robes. Then his attendant took her out and locked the door behind her.

2 Samuel 13:19 Tamar put ashes on her head and tore her long-sleeved garment which [was] on her; and she put her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went.

2 Samuel 13:20 Then Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now keep silent, my sister, he is your brother; do not take this matter to heart.” So Tamar remained and was desolate in her brother Absalom’s house.

2 Samuel 13:21 Now when King David heard of all these matters, he was very angry.

2 Samuel 13:22 But Absalom did not speak to Amnon either good or bad; for Absalom hated Amnon because he had violated his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:23 Now it came about after two full years that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king’s sons.

2 Samuel 13:24 Absalom came to the king and said, “Behold now, your servant has sheepshearers; please let the king and his servants go with your servant.”

2 Samuel 13:25 But the king said to Absalom, “No, my son, we should not all go, for we will be burdensome to you.” Although he urged him, he would not go, but blessed him.

2 Samuel 13:26 Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us.” And the king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

2 Samuel 13:27 But when Absalom urged him, he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.

2 Samuel 13:28 Absalom commanded his servants, saying, “See now, when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon,’ then put him to death. Do not fear; have not I myself commanded you? Be courageous and be valiant.”

2 Samuel 13:29 The servants of Absalom did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons arose and each mounted his mule and fled.

2 Samuel 13:30 Now it was while they were on the way that the report came to David, saying, “Absalom has struck down all the king’s sons, and not one of them is left.”

2 Samuel 13:31 Then the king arose, tore his clothes and lay on the ground; and all his servants were standing by with clothes torn.

2 Samuel 13:32 Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David’s brother, responded, “Do not let my lord suppose they have put to death all the young men, the king’s sons, for Amnon alone is dead; because by the intent of Absalom this has been determined since the day that he violated his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:33 “Now therefore, do not let my lord the king take the report to heart, namely, ‘all the king’s sons are dead,’ for only Amnon is dead.”

2 Samuel 13:34 Now Absalom had fled. And the young man who was the watchman raised his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the road behind him by the side of the mountain.

2 Samuel 13:35 Jonadab said to the king, “Behold, the king’s sons have come; according to your servant’s word, so it happened.”

2 Samuel 13:36 As soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king’s sons came and lifted their voices and wept; and also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.

2 Samuel 13:37 Now Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. And [David] mourned for his son every day.

2 Samuel 13:38 So Absalom had fled and gone to Geshur, and was there three years.

2 Samuel 13:39 [The heart of] King David longed to go out to Absalom; for he was comforted concerning Amnon, since he was dead.

2 Samuel 14:1 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart [was inclined] toward Absalom.

2 Samuel 14:2 So Joab sent to Tekoa and brought a wise woman from there and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning garments now, and do not anoint yourself with oil, but be like a woman who has been mourning for the dead many days;

2 Samuel 14:3 then go to the king and speak to him in this manner." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

2 Samuel 14:4 Now when the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself and said, "Help, O king."

2 Samuel 14:5 The king said to her, "What is your trouble?" And she answered, "Truly I am a widow, for my husband is dead.

2 Samuel 14:6 "Your maidservant had two sons, but the two of them struggled together in the field, and there was no one to separate them, so one struck the other and killed him.

2 Samuel 14:7 "Now behold, the whole family has risen against your maidservant, and they say, 'Hand over the one who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed, and destroy the heir also.' Thus they will extinguish my coal which is left, so as to leave my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth."

2 Samuel 14:8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

2 Samuel 14:9 The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "O my lord, the king, the iniquity is on me and my father's house, but the king and his throne are guiltless."

2 Samuel 14:10 So the king said, "Whoever speaks to you, bring him to me, and he will not touch you anymore."

2 Samuel 14:11 Then she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, [so that] the avenger of blood will not continue to destroy, otherwise they will destroy my son." And he said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

2 Samuel 14:12 Then the woman said, "Please let your maidservant speak a word to my lord the king." And he said, "Speak."

2 Samuel 14:13 The woman said, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, [in that] the king does not bring back his banished one.

2 Samuel 14:14 "For we will surely die and are like water spilled on the ground which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away life, but plans ways so that the banished one will not be cast out from him.

2 Samuel 14:15 “Now the reason I have come to speak this word to my lord the king is that the people have made me afraid; so your maidservant said, ‘Let me now speak to the king, perhaps the king will perform the request of his maidservant.

2 Samuel 14:16 ‘For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy both me and my son from the inheritance of God.’

2 Samuel 14:17 “Then your maidservant said, ‘Please let the word of my lord the king be comforting, for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.’“

2 Samuel 14:18 Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Please do not hide anything from me that I am about to ask you.” And the woman said, “Let my lord the king please speak.”

2 Samuel 14:19 So the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman replied, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. Indeed, it was your servant Joab who commanded me, and it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant;

2 Samuel 14:20 in order to change the appearance of things your servant Joab has done this thing. But my lord is wise, like the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all that is in the earth.”

2 Samuel 14:21 Then the king said to Joab, “Behold now, I will surely do this thing; go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom.”

2 Samuel 14:22 Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself and blessed the king; then Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, O my lord, the king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant.”

2 Samuel 14:23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 14:24 However the king said, “Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face.” So Absalom turned to his own house and did not see the king’s face.

2 Samuel 14:25 Now in all Israel was no one as handsome as Absalom, so highly praised; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no defect in him.

2 Samuel 14:26 When he cut the hair of his head (and it was at the end of every year that he cut [it], for it was heavy on him so he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head at 200 shekels by the king’s weight.

2 Samuel 14:27 To Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of beautiful appearance.

2 Samuel 14:28 Now Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, and did not see the king’s face.

2 Samuel 14:29 Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. So he sent again a second time, but he would not come.

2 Samuel 14:30 Therefore he said to his servants, “See, Joab’s field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

2 Samuel 14:31 Then Joab arose, came to Absalom at his house and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

2 Samuel 14:32 Absalom answered Joab, “Behold, I sent for you, saying, ‘Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me still to be there.”‘ Now therefore, let me see the king’s face, and if there is iniquity in me, let him put me to death.”

2 Samuel 14:33 So when Joab came to the king and told him, he called for Absalom. Thus he came to the king and prostrated himself on his face to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel 15:1 Now it came about after this that Absalom provided for himself a chariot and horses and fifty men as runners before him.

2 Samuel 15:2 Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the way to the gate; and when any man had a suit to come to the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him and say, “From what city are you?” And he would say, “Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel.”

2 Samuel 15:3 Then Absalom would say to him, “See, your claims are good and right, but no man listens to you on the part of the king.”

2 Samuel 15:4 Moreover, Absalom would say, “Oh that one would appoint me judge in the land, then every man who has any suit or cause could come to me and I would give him justice.”

2 Samuel 15:5 And when a man came near to prostrate himself before him, he would put out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him.

2 Samuel 15:6 In this manner Absalom dealt with all Israel who came to the king for judgment; so Absalom stole away the hearts of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 15:7 Now it came about at the end of forty years that Absalom said to the king, “Please let me go and pay my vow which I have vowed to the LORD, in Hebron.

2 Samuel 15:8 “For your servant vowed a vow while I was living at Geshur in Aram, saying, ‘If the LORD shall indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.’“

2 Samuel 15:9 The king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he arose and went to Hebron.

2 Samuel 15:10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, ‘Absalom is king in Hebron.’“

2 Samuel 15:11 Then two hundred men went with Absalom from Jerusalem, who were invited and went innocently, and they did not know anything.

2 Samuel 15:12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counselor, from his city Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, for the people increased continually with Absalom.

2 Samuel 15:13 Then a messenger came to David, saying, “The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom.”

2 Samuel 15:14 David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, “Arise and let us flee, for [otherwise] none of us will escape from Absalom. Go in haste, or he will overtake us quickly and bring down calamity on us and strike the city with the edge of the sword.”

2 Samuel 15:15 Then the king’s servants said to the king, “Behold, your servants [are ready to do] whatever my lord the king chooses.”

2 Samuel 15:16 So the king went out and all his household with him. But the king left ten concubines to keep the house.

2 Samuel 15:17 The king went out and all the people with him, and they stopped at the last house.

2 Samuel 15:18 Now all his servants passed on beside him, all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had come with him from Gath, passed on before the king.

2 Samuel 15:19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why will you also go with us? Return and remain with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile; [return] to your own place.

2 Samuel 15:20 “You came [only] yesterday, and shall I today make you wander with us, while I go where I will? Return and take back your brothers; mercy and truth be with you.”

2 Samuel 15:21 But Ittai answered the king and said, “As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there also your servant will be.”

2 Samuel 15:22 Therefore David said to Ittai, “Go and pass over.” So Ittai the Gittite passed over with all his men and all the little ones who [were] with him.

2 Samuel 15:23 While all the country was weeping with a loud voice, all the people passed over. The king also passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over toward the way of the wilderness.

2 Samuel 15:24 Now behold, Zadok also [came], and all the Levites with him carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar came up until all the people had finished passing from the city.

2 Samuel 15:25 The king said to Zadok, “Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the sight of the LORD, then He will bring me back again and show me both it and His habitation.

2 Samuel 15:26 “But if He should say thus, ‘I have no delight in you,’ behold, here I am, let Him do to me as seems good to Him.”

2 Samuel 15:27 The king said also to Zadok the priest, “Are you [not] a seer? Return to the city in peace and your two sons with you, your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

2 Samuel 15:28 “See, I am going to wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.”

2 Samuel 15:29 Therefore Zadok and Abiathar returned the ark of God to Jerusalem and remained there.

2 Samuel 15:30 And David went up the ascent of the [Mount of] Olives, and wept as he went, and his head was covered and he walked barefoot. Then all the people who were with him each covered his head and went up weeping as they went.

2 Samuel 15:31 Now someone told David, saying, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” And David said, “O LORD, I pray, make the counsel of Ahithophel foolishness.”

2 Samuel 15:32 It happened as David was coming to the summit, where God was worshiped, that behold, Hushai the Archite met him with his coat torn and dust on his head.

2 Samuel 15:33 David said to him, “If you pass over with me, then you will be a burden to me.

2 Samuel 15:34 “But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father’s servant in time past, so I will now be your servant,’ then you can thwart the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

2 Samuel 15:35 “Are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? So it shall be that whatever you hear from the king’s house, you shall report to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

2 Samuel 15:36 “Behold their two sons are with them there, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son; and by them you shall send me everything that you hear.”

2 Samuel 15:37 So Hushai, David’s friend, came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 16:1 Now when David had passed a little beyond the summit, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them [were] two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred clusters of raisins, a hundred summer fruits, and a jug of wine.

2 Samuel 16:2 The king said to Ziba, “Why do you have these?” And Ziba said, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride, and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine, for whoever is faint in the wilderness to drink.”

2 Samuel 16:3 Then the king said, “And where is your master’s son?” And Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.’“

2 Samuel 16:4 So the king said to Ziba, “Behold, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours.” And Ziba said, “I prostrate myself; let me find favor in your sight, O my lord, the king!”

2 Samuel 16:5 When King David came to Bahurim, behold, there came out from there a man of the family of the house of Saul whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he came out cursing continually as he came.

2 Samuel 16:6 He threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David; and all the people and all the mighty men were at his right hand and at his left.

2 Samuel 16:7 Thus Shimei said when he cursed, “Get out, get out, you man of bloodshed, and worthless fellow!

2 Samuel 16:8 “The LORD has returned upon you all the bloodshed of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. And behold, you are [taken] in your own evil, for you are a man of bloodshed!”

2 Samuel 16:9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over now and cut off his head.”

2 Samuel 16:10 But the king said, “What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, and if the LORD has told him, ‘Curse David,’ then who shall say, ‘Why have you done so?’“

2 Samuel 16:11 Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, “Behold, my son who came out from me seeks my life; how much more now this Benjamite? Let him alone and let him curse, for the LORD has told him.

2 Samuel 16:12 “Perhaps the LORD will look on my affliction and return good to me instead of his cursing this day.”

2 Samuel 16:13 So David and his men went on the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside parallel with him and as he went he cursed and cast stones and threw dust at him.

2 Samuel 16:14 The king and all the people who were with him arrived weary and he refreshed himself there.

2 Samuel 16:15 Then Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, entered Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

2 Samuel 16:16 Now it came about when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "[Long] live the king! [Long] live the king!"

2 Samuel 16:17 Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

2 Samuel 16:18 Then Hushai said to Absalom, "No! For whom the LORD, this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

2 Samuel 16:19 "Besides, whom should I serve? [Should I] not [serve] in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so I will be in your presence."

2 Samuel 16:20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your advice. What shall we do?"

2 Samuel 16:21 Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father. The hands of all who are with you will also be strengthened."

2 Samuel 16:22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

2 Samuel 16:23 The advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, [was] as if one inquired of the word of God; so was all the advice of Ahithophel [regarded] by both David and Absalom.

2 Samuel 17:1 Furthermore, Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Please let me choose 12,000 men that I may arise and pursue David tonight.

2 Samuel 17:2 "I will come upon him while he is weary and exhausted and terrify him, so that all the people who are with him will flee. Then I will strike down the king alone,

2 Samuel 17:3 and I will bring back all the people to you. The return of everyone depends on the man you seek; [then] all the people will be at peace."

2 Samuel 17:4 So the plan pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

2 Samuel 17:5 Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he has to say."

2 Samuel 17:6 When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "Ahithophel has spoken thus. Shall we carry out his plan? If not, you speak."

2 Samuel 17:7 So Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the advice that Ahithophel has given is not good."

2 Samuel 17:8 Moreover, Hushai said, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men and they are fierce, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. And your father is an expert in warfare, and will not spend the night with the people.

2 Samuel 17:9 “Behold, he has now hidden himself in one of the caves or in another place; and it will be when he falls on them at the first attack, that whoever hears [it] will say, ‘There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.’

2 Samuel 17:10 “And even the one who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will completely lose heart; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man and those who are with him are valiant men.

2 Samuel 17:11 “But I counsel that all Israel be surely gathered to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea in abundance, and that you personally go into battle.

2 Samuel 17:12 “So we shall come to him in one of the places where he can be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him, not even one will be left.

2 Samuel 17:13 “If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it into the valley until not even a small stone is found there.”

2 Samuel 17:14 Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had ordained to thwart the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring calamity on Absalom.

2 Samuel 17:15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, “This is what Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel, and this is what I have counseled.

2 Samuel 17:16 “Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, ‘Do not spend the night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means cross over, or else the king and all the people who are with him will be destroyed.’“

2 Samuel 17:17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel, and a maidservant would go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David, for they could not be seen entering the city.

2 Samuel 17:18 But a lad did see them and told Absalom; so the two of them departed quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard, and they went down into it.

2 Samuel 17:19 And the woman took a covering and spread it over the well’s mouth and scattered grain on it, so that nothing was known.

2 Samuel 17:20 Then Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house and said, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” And the woman said to them, “They have crossed the brook of water.” And when they searched and could not find [them], they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 17:21 It came about after they had departed that they came up out of the well and went and told King David; and they said to

David, “Arise and cross over the water quickly for thus Ahithophel has counseled against you.”

2 Samuel 17:22 Then David and all the people who [were] with him arose and crossed the Jordan; and by dawn not even one remained who had not crossed the Jordan.

2 Samuel 17:23 Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled [his] donkey and arose and went to his home, to his city, and set his house in order, and strangled himself; thus he died and was buried in the grave of his father.

2 Samuel 17:24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

2 Samuel 17:25 Absalom set Amasa over the army in place of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab’s mother.

2 Samuel 17:26 And Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

2 Samuel 17:27 Now when David had come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

2 Samuel 17:28 brought beds, basins, pottery, wheat, barley, flour, parched [grain], beans, lentils, parched [seeds],

2 Samuel 17:29 honey, curds, sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David and for the people who [were] with him, to eat; for they said, “The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.”

2 Samuel 18:1 Then David numbered the people who were with him and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

2 Samuel 18:2 David sent the people out, one third under the command of Joab, one third under the command of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab’s brother, and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, “I myself will surely go out with you also.”

2 Samuel 18:3 But the people said, “You should not go out; for if we indeed flee, they will not care about us; even if half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore now it is better that you [be ready] to help us from the city.”

2 Samuel 18:4 Then the king said to them, “Whatever seems best to you I will do.” So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and thousands.

2 Samuel 18:5 The king charged Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, “[Deal] gently for my sake with the young man Absalom.” And all the people heard when the king charged all the commanders concerning Absalom.

2 Samuel 18:6 Then the people went out into the field against Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim.

2 Samuel 18:7 The people of Israel were defeated there before the servants of David, and the slaughter there that day was great, 20,000 men.

2 Samuel 18:8 For the battle there was spread over the whole countryside, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

2 Samuel 18:9 Now Absalom happened to meet the servants of David. For Absalom was riding on [his] mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak. And his head caught fast in the oak, so he was left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him kept going.

2 Samuel 18:10 When a certain man saw [it], he told Joab and said, “Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak.”

2 Samuel 18:11 Then Joab said to the man who had told him, “Now behold, you saw [him]! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? And I would have given you ten [pieces] of silver and a belt.”

2 Samuel 18:12 The man said to Joab, “Even if I should receive a thousand [pieces of] silver in my hand, I would not put out my hand against the king’s son; for in our hearing the king charged you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ‘Protect for me the young man Absalom!’

2 Samuel 18:13 “Otherwise, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof.”

2 Samuel 18:14 Then Joab said, “I will not waste time here with you.” So he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

2 Samuel 18:15 And ten young men who carried Joab’s armor gathered around and struck Absalom and killed him.

2 Samuel 18:16 Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the people.

2 Samuel 18:17 They took Absalom and cast him into a deep pit in the forest and erected over him a very great heap of stones. And all Israel fled, each to his tent.

2 Samuel 18:18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a pillar which is in the King’s Valley, for he said, “I have no son to preserve my name.” So he named the pillar after his own name, and it is called Absalom’s Monument to this day.

2 Samuel 18:19 Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, “Please let me run and bring the king news that the LORD has freed him from the hand of his enemies.”

2 Samuel 18:20 But Joab said to him, “You are not the man to carry news this day, but you shall carry news another day; however, you shall carry no news today because the king’s son is dead.”

2 Samuel 18:21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” So the Cushite bowed to Joab and ran.

2 Samuel 18:22 Now Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said once more to Joab, “But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite.” And Joab said, “Why would you run, my son, since you will have no reward for going?”

2 Samuel 18:23 “But whatever happens,” [he said], “I will run.” So he said to him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and passed up the Cushite.

2 Samuel 18:24 Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and raised his eyes and looked, and behold, a man running by himself.

2 Samuel 18:25 The watchman called and told the king. And the king said, “If he is by himself there is good news in his mouth.” And he came nearer and nearer.

2 Samuel 18:26 Then the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, “Behold, [another] man running by himself.” And the king said, “This one also is bringing good news.”

2 Samuel 18:27 The watchman said, “I think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.” And the king said, “This is a good man and comes with good news.”

2 Samuel 18:28 Ahimaaz called and said to the king, “All is well.” And he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground. And he said, “Blessed is the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 18:29 The king said, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” And Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent the king’s servant, and your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what [it was].”

2 Samuel 18:30 Then the king said, “Turn aside and stand here.” So he turned aside and stood still.

2 Samuel 18:31 Behold, the Cushite arrived, and the Cushite said, “Let my lord the king receive good news, for the LORD has freed you this day from the hand of all those who rose up against you.”

2 Samuel 18:32 Then the king said to the Cushite, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” And the Cushite answered, “Let the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you for evil, be as that young man!”

2 Samuel 18:33 The king was deeply moved and went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. And thus he said as he walked, “O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:1 Then it was told Joab, “Behold, the king is weeping and mourns for Absalom.”

2 Samuel 19:2 The victory that day was turned to mourning for all the people, for the people heard [it] said that day, “The king is grieved for his son.”

2 Samuel 19:3 So the people went by stealth into the city that day, as people who are humiliated steal away when they flee in battle.

2 Samuel 19:4 The king covered his face and cried out with a loud voice, “O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:5 Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, “Today you have covered with shame the faces of all your servants, who today have saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines,

2 Samuel 19:6 by loving those who hate you, and by hating those who love you. For you have shown today that princes and servants are nothing to you; for I know this day that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, then you would be pleased.

2 Samuel 19:7 “Now therefore arise, go out and speak kindly to your servants, for I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, surely not a man will pass the night with you, and this will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now.”

2 Samuel 19:8 So the king arose and sat in the gate. When they told all the people, saying, “Behold, the king is sitting in the gate,” then all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled, each to his tent.

2 Samuel 19:9 All the people were quarreling throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies and saved us from the hand of the Philistines, but now he has fled out of the land from Absalom.

2 Samuel 19:10 “However, Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now then, why are you silent about bringing the king back?”

2 Samuel 19:11 Then King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, “Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the word of all Israel has come to the king, [even] to his house?

2 Samuel 19:12 ‘You are my brothers; you are my bone and my flesh. Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?’

2 Samuel 19:13 “Say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God do so to me, and more also, if you will not be commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab.’“

2 Samuel 19:14 Thus he turned the hearts of all the men of Judah as one man, so that they sent [word] to the king, [saying], “Return, you and all your servants.”

2 Samuel 19:15 The king then returned and came as far as the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal in order to go to meet the king, to bring the king across the Jordan.

2 Samuel 19:16 Then Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

2 Samuel 19:17 There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, with Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they rushed to the Jordan before the king.

2 Samuel 19:18 Then they kept crossing the ford to bring over the king’s household, and to do what was good in his sight. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan.

2 Samuel 19:19 So he said to the king, “Let not my lord consider me guilty, nor remember what your servant did wrong on the day when my lord the king came out from Jerusalem, so that the king would take [it] to heart.

2 Samuel 19:20 “For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore behold, I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 19:21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah said, “Should not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD’S anointed?”

2 Samuel 19:22 David then said, “What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be an adversary to me? Should any man be put to death in Israel today? For do I not know that I am king over Israel today?”

2 Samuel 19:23 The king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” Thus the king swore to him.

2 Samuel 19:24 Then Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither cared for his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came [home] in peace.

2 Samuel 19:25 It was when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?”

2 Samuel 19:26 So he answered, “O my lord, the king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said, ‘I will saddle a donkey for myself that I may ride on it and go with the king,’ because your servant is lame.

2 Samuel 19:27 “Moreover, he has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is like the angel of God, therefore do what is good in your sight.

2 Samuel 19:28 “For all my father’s household was nothing but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right do I have yet that I should complain anymore to the king?”

2 Samuel 19:29 So the king said to him, “Why do you still speak of your affairs? I have decided, ‘You and Ziba shall divide the land.’“

2 Samuel 19:30 Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him even take it all, since my lord the king has come safely to his own house.”

2 Samuel 19:31 Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim; and he went on to the Jordan with the king to escort him over the Jordan.

2 Samuel 19:32 Now Barzillai was very old, being eighty years old; and he had sustained the king while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very great man.

2 Samuel 19:33 The king said to Barzillai, “You cross over with me and I will sustain you in Jerusalem with me.”

2 Samuel 19:34 But Barzillai said to the king, “How long have I yet to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

2 Samuel 19:35 “I am now eighty years old. Can I distinguish between good and bad? Or can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Or can I hear anymore the voice of singing men and women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

2 Samuel 19:36 “Your servant would merely cross over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king compensate me [with] this reward?

2 Samuel 19:37 “Please let your servant return, that I may die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother. However, here is your servant Chimham, let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what is good in your sight.”

2 Samuel 19:38 The king answered, “Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what is good in your sight; and whatever you require of me, I will do for you.”

2 Samuel 19:39 All the people crossed over the Jordan and the king crossed too. The king then kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his place.

2 Samuel 19:40 Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; and all the people of Judah and also half the people of Israel accompanied the king.

2 Samuel 19:41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king and said to the king, “Why had our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king and his household and all David’s men with him over the Jordan?”

2 Samuel 19:42 Then all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “Because the king is a close relative to us. Why then are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king’s [expense], or has anything been taken for us?”

2 Samuel 19:43 But the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, “We have ten parts in the king, therefore we also have more [claim] on David than you. Why then did you treat us with contempt? Was it not our advice first to bring back our king?” Yet the words of the men of Judah were harsher than the words of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20:1 Now a worthless fellow happened to be there whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite; and he blew the trumpet and said, “We have no portion in David, Nor do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse; Every man to his tents, O Israel!”

2 Samuel 20:2 So all the men of Israel withdrew from following David [and] followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah remained steadfast to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 20:3 Then David came to his house at Jerusalem, and the king took the ten women, the concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and placed them under guard and provided them with sustenance, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as widows.

2 Samuel 20:4 Then the king said to Amasa, “Call out the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself.”

2 Samuel 20:5 So Amasa went to call out [the men of] Judah, but he delayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

2 Samuel 20:6 And David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom; take your lord’s servants and pursue him, so that he does not find for himself fortified cities and escape from our sight.”

2 Samuel 20:7 So Joab’s men went out after him, along with the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all the mighty men; and they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

2 Samuel 20:8 When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was dressed in his military attire, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened at his waist; and as he went forward, it fell out.

2 Samuel 20:9 Joab said to Amasa, “Is it well with you, my brother?” And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

2 Samuel 20:10 But Amasa was not on guard against the sword which was in Joab's hand so he struck him in the belly with it and poured out his inward parts on the ground, and did not [strike] him again, and he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

2 Samuel 20:11 Now there stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David, [let him] follow Joab."

2 Samuel 20:12 But Amasa lay wallowing in [his] blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa from the highway into the field and threw a garment over him when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still.

2 Samuel 20:13 As soon as he was removed from the highway, all the men passed on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

2 Samuel 20:14 Now he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, even Beth-maacah, and all the Berites; and they were gathered together and also went after him.

2 Samuel 20:15 They came and besieged him in Abel Beth-maacah, and they cast up a siege ramp against the city, and it stood by the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab were wreaking destruction in order to topple the wall.

2 Samuel 20:16 Then a wise woman called from the city, "Hear, hear! Please tell Joab, 'Come here that I may speak with you.'"

2 Samuel 20:17 So he approached her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" And he answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."

2 Samuel 20:18 Then she spoke, saying, "Formerly they used to say, 'They will surely ask [advice] at Abel,' and thus they ended [the dispute].

2 Samuel 20:19 "I am of those who are peaceable [and] faithful in Israel. You are seeking to destroy a city, even a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?"

2 Samuel 20:20 Joab replied, "Far be it, far be it from me that I should swallow up or destroy!

2 Samuel 20:21 "Such is not the case. But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against King David. Only hand him over, and I will depart from the city." And the woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."

2 Samuel 20:22 Then the woman wisely came to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, each to his tent. Joab also returned to the king at Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 20:23 Now Joab was over the whole army of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

2 Samuel 20:24 and Adoram was over the forced labor, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder;

2 Samuel 20:25 and Sheva was scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

2 Samuel 20:26 and Ira the Jairite was also a priest to David.

2 Samuel 21:1 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David sought the presence of the LORD. And the LORD said, “It is for Saul and his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death.”

2 Samuel 21:2 So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the sons of Israel made a covenant with them, but Saul had sought to kill them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah).

2 Samuel 21:3 Thus David said to the Gibeonites, “What should I do for you? And how can I make atonement that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?”

2 Samuel 21:4 Then the Gibeonites said to him, “We have no [concern] of silver or gold with Saul or his house, nor is it for us to put any man to death in Israel.” And he said, “I will do for you whatever you say.”

2 Samuel 21:5 So they said to the king, “The man who consumed us and who planned to exterminate us from remaining within any border of Israel,

2 Samuel 21:6 let seven men from his sons be given to us, and we will hang them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD.” And the king said, “I will give [them].”

2 Samuel 21:7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the oath of the LORD which was between them, between David and Saul’s son Jonathan.

2 Samuel 21:8 So the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, Armoni and Mephibosheth whom she had borne to Saul, and the five sons of Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

2 Samuel 21:9 Then he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the mountain before the LORD, so that the seven of them fell together; and they were put to death in the first days of harvest at the beginning of barley harvest.

2 Samuel 21:10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until it rained on them from the sky; and she allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

2 Samuel 21:11 When it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done,

2 Samuel 21:12 then David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the open square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them on the day the Philistines struck down Saul in Gilboa.

2 Samuel 21:13 He brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there, and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

2 Samuel 21:14 They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the grave of Kish his father; thus they did all that the king commanded, and after that God was moved by prayer for the land.

2 Samuel 21:15 Now when the Philistines were at war again with Israel, David went down and his servants with him; and as they fought against the Philistines, David became weary.

2 Samuel 21:16 Then Ishbi-benob, who was among the descendants of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred [shekels] of bronze in weight, was girded with a new [sword], and he intended to kill David.

2 Samuel 21:17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, “You shall not go out again with us to battle, so that you do not extinguish the lamp of Israel.”

2 Samuel 21:18 Now it came about after this that there was war again with the Philistines at Gob; then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Saph, who was among the descendants of the giant.

2 Samuel 21:19 There was war with the Philistines again at Gob, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.

2 Samuel 21:20 There was war at Gath again, where there was a man of [great] stature who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also had been born to the giant.

2 Samuel 21:21 When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David’s brother, struck him down.

2 Samuel 21:22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

2 Samuel 22:1 And David spoke the words of this song to the LORD in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

2 Samuel 22:2 He said, “The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;

2 Samuel 22:3 My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge; My savior, You save me from violence.

2 Samuel 22:4 “I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, And I am saved from my enemies.

2 Samuel 22:5 “For the waves of death encompassed me; The torrents of destruction overwhelmed me;

2 Samuel 22:6 The cords of Sheol surrounded me; The snares of death confronted me.

2 Samuel 22:7 “In my distress I called upon the LORD, Yes, I cried to my God; And from His temple He heard my voice, And my cry for help [came] into His ears.

2 Samuel 22:8 “Then the earth shook and quaked, The foundations of heaven were trembling And were shaken, because He was angry.

2 Samuel 22:9 “Smoke went up out of His nostrils, Fire from His mouth devoured; Coals were kindled by it.

2 Samuel 22:10 “He bowed the heavens also, and came down With thick darkness under His feet.

2 Samuel 22:11 “And He rode on a cherub and flew; And He appeared on the wings of the wind.

2 Samuel 22:12 “And He made darkness canopies around Him, A mass of waters, thick clouds of the sky.

2 Samuel 22:13 “From the brightness before Him Coals of fire were kindled.

2 Samuel 22:14 “The LORD thundered from heaven, And the Most High uttered His voice.

2 Samuel 22:15 “And He sent out arrows, and scattered them, Lightning, and routed them.

2 Samuel 22:16 “Then the channels of the sea appeared, The foundations of the world were laid bare By the rebuke of the LORD, At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

2 Samuel 22:17 “He sent from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters.

2 Samuel 22:18 “He delivered me from my strong enemy, From those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

2 Samuel 22:19 “They confronted me in the day of my calamity, But the LORD was my support.

2 Samuel 22:20 “He also brought me forth into a broad place; He rescued me, because He delighted in me.

2 Samuel 22:21 “The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has recompensed me.

2 Samuel 22:22 “For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not acted wickedly against my God.

2 Samuel 22:23 “For all His ordinances [were] before me, And [as for] His statutes, I did not depart from them.

2 Samuel 22:24 “I was also blameless toward Him, And I kept myself from my iniquity.

2 Samuel 22:25 “Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness before His eyes.

2 Samuel 22:26 “With the kind You show Yourself kind, With the blameless You show Yourself blameless;

2 Samuel 22:27 With the pure You show Yourself pure, And with the perverted You show Yourself astute.

2 Samuel 22:28 “And You save an afflicted people; But Your eyes are on the haughty [whom] You abase.

2 Samuel 22:29 “For You are my lamp, O LORD; And the LORD illumines my darkness.

2 Samuel 22:30 “For by You I can run upon a troop; By my God I can leap over a wall.

2 Samuel 22:31 “As for God, His way is blameless; The word of the LORD is tested; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

2 Samuel 22:32 “For who is God, besides the LORD? And who is a rock, besides our God?

2 Samuel 22:33 “God is my strong fortress; And He sets the blameless in His way.

2 Samuel 22:34 “He makes my feet like hinds’ [feet], And sets me on my high places.

2 Samuel 22:35 “He trains my hands for battle, So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

2 Samuel 22:36 “You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, And Your help makes me great.

2 Samuel 22:37 “You enlarge my steps under me, And my feet have not slipped.

2 Samuel 22:38 “I pursued my enemies and destroyed them, And I did not turn back until they were consumed.

2 Samuel 22:39 “And I have devoured them and shattered them, so that they did not rise; And they fell under my feet.

2 Samuel 22:40 “For You have girded me with strength for battle; You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

2 Samuel 22:41 “You have also made my enemies turn [their] backs to me, And I destroyed those who hated me.

2 Samuel 22:42 “They looked, but there was none to save; [Even] to the LORD, but He did not answer them.

2 Samuel 22:43 “Then I pulverized them as the dust of the earth; I crushed [and] stamped them as the mire of the streets.

2 Samuel 22:44 “You have also delivered me from the contentions of my people; You have kept me as head of the nations; A people whom I have not known serve me.

2 Samuel 22:45 “Foreigners pretend obedience to me; As soon as they hear, they obey me.

2 Samuel 22:46 “Foreigners lose heart, And come trembling out of their fortresses.

2 Samuel 22:47 “The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock; And exalted be God, the rock of my salvation,

2 Samuel 22:48 The God who executes vengeance for me, And brings down peoples under me,

2 Samuel 22:49 Who also brings me out from my enemies; You even lift me above those who rise up against me; You rescue me from the violent man.

2 Samuel 22:50 “Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the nations, And I will sing praises to Your name.

2 Samuel 22:51 “[He] is a tower of deliverance to His king, And shows lovingkindness to His anointed, To David and his descendants forever.”

2 Samuel 23:1 Now these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse declares, The man who was raised on high declares, The anointed of the God of Jacob, And the sweet psalmist of Israel,

2 Samuel 23:2 “The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, And His word was on my tongue.

2 Samuel 23:3 “The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spoke to me, ‘He who rules over men righteously, Who rules in the fear of God,

2 Samuel 23:4 Is as the light of the morning [when] the sun rises, A morning without clouds, [When] the tender grass [springs] out of the earth, Through sunshine after rain.’

2 Samuel 23:5 “Truly is not my house so with God? For He has made an everlasting covenant with me, Ordered in all things, and secured; For all my salvation and all [my] desire, Will He not indeed make [it] grow?

2 Samuel 23:6 “But the worthless, every one of them will be thrust away like thorns, Because they cannot be taken in hand;

2 Samuel 23:7 But the man who touches them Must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear, And they will be completely burned with fire in [their] place.”

2 Samuel 23:8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains, he was [called] Adino the Eznite, because of eight hundred slain [by him] at one time;

2 Samuel 23:9 and after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there to battle and the men of Israel had withdrawn.

2 Samuel 23:10 He arose and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary and clung to the sword, and the LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to strip [the slain].

2 Samuel 23:11 Now after him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered into a troop where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistines.

2 Samuel 23:12 But he took his stand in the midst of the plot, defended it and struck the Philistines; and the LORD brought about a great victory.

2 Samuel 23:13 Then three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam, while the troop of the Philistines was camping in the valley of Rephaim.

2 Samuel 23:14 David was then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

2 Samuel 23:15 David had a craving and said, “Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!”

2 Samuel 23:16 So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took [it] and brought [it] to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD;

2 Samuel 23:17 and he said, “Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this. [Shall I drink] the blood of the men who went in [jeopardy] of their lives?” Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

2 Samuel 23:18 Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the thirty. And he swung his spear against three hundred and killed [them], and had a name as well as the three.

2 Samuel 23:19 He was most honored of the thirty, therefore he became their commander; however, he did not attain to the three.

2 Samuel 23:20 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, killed the two [sons of] Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day.

2 Samuel 23:21 He killed an Egyptian, an impressive man. Now the Egyptian [had] a spear in his hand, but he went down to him with a club and snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

2 Samuel 23:22 These [things] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and had a name as well as the three mighty men.

2 Samuel 23:23 He was honored among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David appointed him over his guard.

2 Samuel 23:24 Asahel the brother of Joab was among the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

2 Samuel 23:25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,

2 Samuel 23:26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

2 Samuel 23:27 Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

2 Samuel 23:28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

2 Samuel 23:29 Heleb the son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin,

2 Samuel 23:30 Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash,

2 Samuel 23:31 Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

2 Samuel 23:32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

2 Samuel 23:33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Ararite,

2 Samuel 23:34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maacathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

2 Samuel 23:35 Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

2 Samuel 23:36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

2 Samuel 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor bearers of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

2 Samuel 23:38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

2 Samuel 23:39 Uriah the Hittite; thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24:1 Now again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and it incited David against them to say, “Go, number Israel and Judah.”

2 Samuel 24:2 The king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, “Go about now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and register the people, that I may know the number of the people.”

2 Samuel 24:3 But Joab said to the king, “Now may the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king [still] see; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?”

2 Samuel 24:4 Nevertheless, the king’s word prevailed against Joab and against the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to register the people of Israel.

2 Samuel 24:5 They crossed the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad and toward Jazer.

2 Samuel 24:6 Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and they came to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon,

2 Samuel 24:7 and came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites, and they went out to the south of Judah, [to] Beersheba.

2 Samuel 24:8 So when they had gone about through the whole land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

2 Samuel 24:9 And Joab gave the number of the registration of the people to the king; and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

2 Samuel 24:10 Now David’s heart troubled him after he had numbered the people. So David said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, please take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.”

2 Samuel 24:11 When David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David’s seer, saying,

2 Samuel 24:12 “Go and speak to David, ‘Thus the LORD says, “I am offering you three things; choose for yourself one of them, which I will do to you.”’“

2 Samuel 24:13 So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, “Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days’ pestilence in your land? Now consider and see what answer I shall return to Him who sent me.”

2 Samuel 24:14 Then David said to Gad, “I am in great distress. Let us now fall into the hand of the LORD for His mercies are great, but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

2 Samuel 24:15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time, and seventy thousand men of the people from Dan to Beersheba died.

2 Samuel 24:16 When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the calamity and said to the angel who destroyed the people, “It is enough! Now relax your hand!” And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

2 Samuel 24:17 Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking down the people, and said, “Behold, it is I who have sinned, and it is I who have done wrong; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand be against me and against my father’s house.”

2 Samuel 24:18 So Gad came to David that day and said to him, “Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

2 Samuel 24:19 David went up according to the word of Gad, just as the LORD had commanded.

2 Samuel 24:20 Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over toward him; and Araunah went out and bowed his face to the ground before the king.

2 Samuel 24:21 Then Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” And David said, “To buy the threshing floor from you, in order to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be held back from the people.”

2 Samuel 24:22 Araunah said to David, “Let my lord the king take and offer up what is good in his sight. Look, the oxen for the burnt offering, the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood.

2 Samuel 24:23 “Everything, O king, Araunah gives to the king.” And Araunah said to the king, “May the LORD your God accept you.”

2 Samuel 24:24 However, the king said to Araunah, “No, but I will surely buy [it] from you for a price, for I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God which cost me nothing.” So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

2 Samuel 24:25 David built there an altar to the LORD and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. Thus the LORD was moved by prayer for the land, and the plague was held back from Israel.

1 Kings

1:1 Now King David was old, advanced in age; and they covered him with clothes, but he could not keep warm.

1 Kings 1:2 So his servants said to him, “Let them seek a young virgin for my lord the king, and let her attend the king and become his nurse; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm.”

1 Kings 1:3 So they searched for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

1 Kings 1:4 The girl was very beautiful; and she became the king's nurse and served him, but the king did not cohabit with her.

1 Kings 1:5 Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." So he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen with fifty men to run before him.

1 Kings 1:6 His father had never crossed him at any time by asking, "Why have you done so?" And he was also a very handsome man, and he was born after Absalom.

1 Kings 1:7 He had conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest; and following Adonijah they helped him.

1 Kings 1:8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

1 Kings 1:9 Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel; and he invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants.

1 Kings 1:10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, and Solomon his brother.

1 Kings 1:11 Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know [it]?

1 Kings 1:12 "So now come, please let me give you counsel and save your life and the life of your son Solomon.

1 Kings 1:13 "Go at once to King David and say to him, 'Have you not, my lord, O king, sworn to your maidservant, saying, "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne "? Why then has Adonijah become king?'

1 Kings 1:14 "Behold, while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words."

1 Kings 1:15 So Bathsheba went in to the king in the bedroom. Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the king.

1 Kings 1:16 Then Bathsheba bowed and prostrated herself before the king. And the king said, "What do you wish?"

1 Kings 1:17 She said to him, "My lord, you swore to your maidservant by the LORD your God, [saying], 'Surely your son Solomon shall be king after me and he shall sit on my throne.'

1 Kings 1:18 "Now, behold, Adonijah is king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know [it].

1 Kings 1:19 "He has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king and Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant.

1 Kings 1:20 “As for you now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

1 Kings 1:21 “Otherwise it will come about, as soon as my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered offenders.”

1 Kings 1:22 Behold, while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.

1 Kings 1:23 They told the king, saying, “Here is Nathan the prophet.” And when he came in before the king, he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.

1 Kings 1:24 Then Nathan said, “My lord the king, have you said, ‘Adonijah shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne ‘?

1 Kings 1:25 “For he has gone down today and has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king’s sons and the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest, and behold, they are eating and drinking before him; and they say, ‘[Long] live King Adonijah!’

1 Kings 1:26 “But me, [even] me your servant, and Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and your servant Solomon, he has not invited.

1 Kings 1:27 “Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not shown to your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

1 Kings 1:28 Then King David said, “Call Bathsheba to me.” And she came into the king’s presence and stood before the king.

1 Kings 1:29 The king vowed and said, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress,

1 Kings 1:30 surely as I vowed to you by the LORD the God of Israel, saying, ‘Your son Solomon shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place’; I will indeed do so this day.”

1 Kings 1:31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and prostrated herself before the king and said, “May my lord King David live forever.”

1 Kings 1:32 Then King David said, “Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” And they came into the king’s presence.

1 Kings 1:33 The king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon.

1 Kings 1:34 “Let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there as king over Israel, and blow the trumpet and say, ‘[Long] live King Solomon!’

1 Kings 1:35 “Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne and be king in my place; for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah.”

1 Kings 1:36 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, “Amen! Thus may the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say.

1 Kings 1:37 “As the LORD has been with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David!”

1 Kings 1:38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David’s mule, and brought him to Gihon.

1 Kings 1:39 Zadok the priest then took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, “[Long] live King Solomon!”

1 Kings 1:40 All the people went up after him, and the people were playing on flutes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth shook at their noise.

1 Kings 1:41 Now Adonijah and all the guests who [were] with him heard [it] as they finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, “Why is the city making such an uproar?”

1 Kings 1:42 While he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. Then Adonijah said, “Come in, for you are a valiant man and bring good news.”

1 Kings 1:43 But Jonathan replied to Adonijah, “No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

1 Kings 1:44 “The king has also sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have made him ride on the king’s mule.

1 Kings 1:45 “Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon, and they have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise which you have heard.

1 Kings 1:46 “Besides, Solomon has even taken his seat on the throne of the kingdom.

1 Kings 1:47 “Moreover, the king’s servants came to bless our lord King David, saying, ‘May your God make the name of Solomon better than your name and his throne greater than your throne!’ And the king bowed himself on the bed.

1 Kings 1:48 “The king has also said thus, ‘Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has granted one to sit on my throne today while my own eyes see [it].’“

1 Kings 1:49 Then all the guests of Adonijah were terrified; and they arose and each went on his way.

1 Kings 1:50 And Adonijah was afraid of Solomon, and he arose, went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

1 Kings 1:51 Now it was told Solomon, saying, “Behold, Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon, for behold, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.’“

1 Kings 1:52 Solomon said, “If he is a worthy man, not one of his hairs will fall to the ground; but if wickedness is found in him, he will die.”

1 Kings 1:53 So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and prostrated himself before King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, “Go to your house.”

1 Kings 2:1 As David’s time to die drew near, he charged Solomon his son, saying,

1 Kings 2:2 “I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong, therefore, and show yourself a man.

1 Kings 2:3 “Keep the charge of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His ordinances, and His testimonies, according to what is written in the Law of Moses, that you may succeed in all that you do and wherever you turn,

1 Kings 2:4 so that the LORD may carry out His promise which He spoke concerning me, saying, ‘If your sons are careful of their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.’

1 Kings 2:5 “Now you also know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed; he also shed the blood of war in peace. And he put the blood of war on his belt about his waist, and on his sandals on his feet.

1 Kings 2:6 “So act according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray hair go down to Sheol in peace.

1 Kings 2:7 “But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table; for they assisted me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

1 Kings 2:8 “Behold, there is with you Shimei the son of Gera the Benjamite, of Bahurim; now it was he who cursed me with a violent curse on the day I went to Mahanaim. But when he came down to me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, saying, ‘I will not put you to death with the sword.’

1 Kings 2:9 “Now therefore, do not let him go unpunished, for you are a wise man; and you will know what you ought to do to him, and you will bring his gray hair down to Sheol with blood.”

1 Kings 2:10 Then David slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David.

1 Kings 2:11 The days that David reigned over Israel [were] forty years: seven years he reigned in Hebron and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.

1 Kings 2:12 And Solomon sat on the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was firmly established.

1 Kings 2:13 Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, “Do you come peacefully?” And he said, “Peacefully.”

1 Kings 2:14 Then he said, “I have something [to say] to you.” And she said, “Speak.”

1 Kings 2:15 So he said, “You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel expected me to be king; however, the kingdom has turned about and become my brother’s, for it was his from the LORD.

1 Kings 2:16 “Now I am making one request of you; do not refuse me.” And she said to him, “Speak.”

1 Kings 2:17 Then he said, “Please speak to Solomon the king, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife.”

1 Kings 2:18 Bathsheba said, “Very well; I will speak to the king for you.”

1 Kings 2:19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king arose to meet her, bowed before her, and sat on his throne; then he had a throne set for the king’s mother, and she sat on his right.

1 Kings 2:20 Then she said, “I am making one small request of you; do not refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you.”

1 Kings 2:21 So she said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as a wife.”

1 Kings 2:22 King Solomon answered and said to his mother, “And why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him also the kingdom— for he is my older brother— even for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah!”

1 Kings 2:23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, “May God do so to me and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life.

1 Kings 2:24 “Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father and who has made me a house as He promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death today.”

1 Kings 2:25 So King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him so that he died.

1 Kings 2:26 Then to Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go to Anathoth to your own field, for you deserve to die; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted in everything with which my father was afflicted.”

1 Kings 2:27 So Solomon dismissed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD, which He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

1 Kings 2:28 Now the news came to Joab, for Joab had followed Adonijah, although he had not followed Absalom. And Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar.

1 Kings 2:29 It was told King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD, and behold, he is beside the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, fall upon him.”

1 Kings 2:30 So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and said to him, “Thus the king has said, ‘Come out.’“ But he said, “No, for I will die here.” And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, “Thus spoke Joab, and thus he answered me.”

1 Kings 2:31 The king said to him, “Do as he has spoken and fall upon him and bury him, that you may remove from me and from my father’s house the blood which Joab shed without cause.

1 Kings 2:32 “The LORD will return his blood on his own head, because he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he and killed them with the sword, while my father David did not know [it]: Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

1 Kings 2:33 “So shall their blood return on the head of Joab and on the head of his descendants forever; but to David and his descendants and his house and his throne, may there be peace from the LORD forever.”

1 Kings 2:34 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell upon him and put him to death, and he was buried at his own house in the wilderness.

1 Kings 2:35 The king appointed Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in his place, and the king appointed Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

1 Kings 2:36 Now the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, “Build for yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and do not go out from there to any place.

1 Kings 2:37 “For on the day you go out and cross over the brook Kidron, you will know for certain that you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your own head.”

1 Kings 2:38 Shimei then said to the king, “The word is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

1 Kings 2:39 But it came about at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, “Behold, your servants are in Gath.”

1 Kings 2:40 Then Shimei arose and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish to look for his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

1 Kings 2:41 It was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned.

1 Kings 2:42 So the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD and solemnly warn you, saying, ‘You will know for certain that on the day you depart and go anywhere, you shall surely die ‘? And you said to me, ‘The word which I have heard is good.’

1 Kings 2:43 “Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD, and the command which I have laid on you?”

1 Kings 2:44 The king also said to Shimei, “You know all the evil which you acknowledge in your heart, which you did to my father David; therefore the LORD shall return your evil on your own head.

1 Kings 2:45 “But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever.”

1 Kings 2:46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and fell upon him so that he died. Thus the kingdom was established in the hands of Solomon.

1 Kings 3:1 Then Solomon formed a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh’s daughter and brought her to the city of David until he had finished building his own house and the house of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem.

1 Kings 3:2 The people were still sacrificing on the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days.

1 Kings 3:3 Now Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

1 Kings 3:4 The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place; Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

1 Kings 3:5 In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night; and God said, “Ask what [you wish] me to give you.”

1 Kings 3:6 Then Solomon said, “You have shown great lovingkindness to Your servant David my father, according as he walked before You in truth and righteousness and uprightness of heart toward You; and You have reserved for him this great lovingkindness, that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as [it is] this day.

1 Kings 3:7 “Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king in place of my father David, yet I am but a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

1 Kings 3:8 “Your servant is in the midst of Your people which You have chosen, a great people who are too many to be numbered or counted.

1 Kings 3:9 “So give Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people to discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Yours?”

1 Kings 3:10 It was pleasing in the sight of the Lord that Solomon had asked this thing.

1 Kings 3:11 God said to him, “Because you have asked this thing and have not asked for yourself long life, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have you asked for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself discernment to understand justice,

1 Kings 3:12 behold, I have done according to your words. Behold, I have given you a wise and discerning heart, so that there has been no one like you before you, nor shall one like you arise after you.

1 Kings 3:13 “I have also given you what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there will not be any among the kings like you all your days.

1 Kings 3:14 “If you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and commandments, as your father David walked, then I will prolong your days.”

1 Kings 3:15 Then Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and made peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

1 Kings 3:16 Then two women who were harlots came to the king and stood before him.

1 Kings 3:17 The one woman said, “Oh, my lord, this woman and I live in the same house; and I gave birth to a child while she [was] in the house.

1 Kings 3:18 “It happened on the third day after I gave birth, that this woman also gave birth to a child, and we were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, only the two of us in the house.

1 Kings 3:19 “This woman’s son died in the night, because she lay on it.

1 Kings 3:20 “So she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your maidservant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom.

1 Kings 3:21 “When I rose in the morning to nurse my son, behold, he was dead; but when I looked at him carefully in the morning, behold, he was not my son, whom I had borne.”

1 Kings 3:22 Then the other woman said, “No! For the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son.” But the first woman said, “No! For the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.” Thus they spoke before the king.

1 Kings 3:23 Then the king said, “The one says, ‘This is my son who is living, and your son is the dead one’; and the other says, ‘No! For your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’“

1 Kings 3:24 The king said, “Get me a sword.” So they brought a sword before the king.

1 Kings 3:25 The king said, “Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one and half to the other.”

1 Kings 3:26 Then the woman whose child [was] the living one spoke to the king, for she was deeply stirred over her son and said, “Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him.” But the other said, “He shall be neither mine nor yours; divide [him]!”

1 Kings 3:27 Then the king said, “Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him. She is his mother.”

1 Kings 3:28 When all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had handed down, they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

1 Kings 4:1 Now King Solomon was king over all Israel.

1 Kings 4:2 These were his officials: Azariah the son of Zadok [was] the priest;

1 Kings 4:3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha [were] secretaries; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud [was] the recorder;

1 Kings 4:4 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada [was] over the army; and Zadok and Abiathar [were] priests;

1 Kings 4:5 and Azariah the son of Nathan [was] over the deputies; and Zabud the son of Nathan, a priest, [was] the king’s friend;

1 Kings 4:6 and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda [was] over the men subject to forced labor.

1 Kings 4:7 Solomon had twelve deputies over all Israel, who provided for the king and his household; each man had to provide for a month in the year.

1 Kings 4:8 These are their names: Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;

1 Kings 4:9 Ben-deker in Makaz and Shaalbim and Beth-shemesh and Elonbeth-hanan;

1 Kings 4:10 Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (Socoh [was] his and all the land of Hepher);

1 Kings 4:11 Ben-abinadab, [in] all the height of Dor (Taphath the daughter of Solomon was his wife);

1 Kings 4:12 Baana the son of Ahilud, [in] Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah as far as the other side of Jokmeam;

1 Kings 4:13 Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (the towns of Jair, the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead were his: the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars [were] his);

1 Kings 4:14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo, [in] Mahanaim;

1 Kings 4:15 Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also married Basemath the daughter of Solomon);

1 Kings 4:16 Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;

1 Kings 4:17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

1 Kings 4:18 Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin;

1 Kings 4:19 Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and [he was] the only deputy who [was] in the land.

1 Kings 4:20 Judah and Israel [were] as numerous as the sand that is on the seashore in abundance; [they] were eating and drinking and rejoicing.

1 Kings 4:21 Now Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River [to] the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt; [they] brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

1 Kings 4:22 Solomon’s provision for one day was thirty kors of fine flour and sixty kors of meal,

1 Kings 4:23 ten fat oxen, twenty pasture-fed oxen, a hundred sheep besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened fowl.

1 Kings 4:24 For he had dominion over everything west of the River, from Tiphsah even to Gaza, over all the kings west of the River; and he had peace on all sides around about him.

1 Kings 4:25 So Judah and Israel lived in safety, every man under his vine and his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

1 Kings 4:26 Solomon had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots, and 12,000 horsemen.

1 Kings 4:27 Those deputies provided for King Solomon and all who came to King Solomon’s table, each in his month; they left nothing lacking.

1 Kings 4:28 They also brought barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds to the place where it should be, each according to his charge.

1 Kings 4:29 Now God gave Solomon wisdom and very great discernment and breadth of mind, like the sand that is on the seashore.

1 Kings 4:30 Solomon’s wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the sons of the east and all the wisdom of Egypt.

1 Kings 4:31 For he was wiser than all men, than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was [known] in all the surrounding nations.

1 Kings 4:32 He also spoke 3,000 proverbs, and his songs were 1,005.

1 Kings 4:33 He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that grows on the wall; he spoke also of animals and birds and creeping things and fish.

1 Kings 4:34 Men came from all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

1 Kings 5:1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram had always been a friend of David.

1 Kings 5:2 Then Solomon sent [word] to Hiram, saying,

1 Kings 5:3 “You know that David my father was unable to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

1 Kings 5:4 “But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor misfortune.

1 Kings 5:5 “Behold, I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, ‘Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he will build the house for My name.’

1 Kings 5:6 “Now therefore, command that they cut for me cedars from Lebanon, and my servants will be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you say, for you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.”

1 Kings 5:7 When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, “Blessed be the LORD today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people.”

1 Kings 5:8 So Hiram sent [word] to Solomon, saying, “I have heard [the message] which you have sent me; I will do what you desire concerning the cedar and cypress timber.

1 Kings 5:9 “My servants will bring [them] down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts [to go] by sea to the place where you direct me, and I will have them broken up there, and you shall carry [them] away. Then you shall accomplish my desire by giving food to my household.”

1 Kings 5:10 So Hiram gave Solomon as much as he desired of the cedar and cypress timber.

1 Kings 5:11 Solomon then gave Hiram 20,000 kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty kors of beaten oil; thus Solomon would give Hiram year by year.

1 Kings 5:12 The LORD gave wisdom to Solomon, just as He promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant.

1 Kings 5:13 Now King Solomon levied forced laborers from all Israel; and the forced laborers numbered 30,000 men.

1 Kings 5:14 He sent them to Lebanon, 10,000 a month in relays; they were in Lebanon a month [and] two months at home. And Adoniram [was] over the forced laborers.

1 Kings 5:15 Now Solomon had 70,000 transporters, and 80,000 hewers [of stone] in the mountains,

1 Kings 5:16 besides Solomon’s 3,300 chief deputies who [were] over the project [and] who ruled over the people who were doing the work.

1 Kings 5:17 Then the king commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stones.

1 Kings 5:18 So Solomon’s builders and Hiram’s builders and the Gebalites cut them, and prepared the timbers and the stones to build the house.

1 Kings 6:1 Now it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon’s reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 6:2 As for the house which King Solomon built for the LORD, its length [was] sixty cubits and its width twenty [cubits] and its height thirty cubits.

1 Kings 6:3 The porch in front of the nave of the house [was] twenty cubits in length, corresponding to the width of the house, [and] its depth along the front of the house [was] ten cubits.

1 Kings 6:4 Also for the house he made windows with [artistic] frames.

1 Kings 6:5 Against the wall of the house he built stories encompassing the walls of the house around both the nave and the inner sanctuary; thus he made side chambers all around.

1 Kings 6:6 The lowest story [was] five cubits wide, and the middle [was] six cubits wide, and the third [was] seven cubits wide; for on the outside he made offsets [in the wall] of the house all around in order that [the beams] would not be inserted in the walls of the house.

1 Kings 6:7 The house, while it was being built, was built of stone prepared at the quarry, and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any iron tool heard in the house while it was being built.

1 Kings 6:8 The doorway for the lowest side chamber [was] on the right side of the house; and they would go up by winding stairs to the middle [story], and from the middle to the third.

1 Kings 6:9 So he built the house and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar.

1 Kings 6:10 He also built the stories against the whole house, each five cubits high; and they were fastened to the house with timbers of cedar.

1 Kings 6:11 Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon saying,

1 Kings 6:12 “[Concerning] this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes and execute My ordinances and keep all My commandments by walking in them, then I will carry out My word with you which I spoke to David your father.

1 Kings 6:13 “I will dwell among the sons of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel.”

1 Kings 6:14 So Solomon built the house and finished it.

1 Kings 6:15 Then he built the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the ceiling he overlaid [the walls] on the inside with wood, and he overlaid the floor of the house with boards of cypress.

1 Kings 6:16 He built twenty cubits on the rear part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling; he built [them] for it on the inside as an inner sanctuary, [even] as the most holy place.

1 Kings 6:17 The house, that is, the nave in front of [the inner sanctuary], was forty cubits [long].

1 Kings 6:18 There was cedar on the house within, carved [in the shape] of gourds and open flowers; all was cedar, there was no stone seen.

1 Kings 6:19 Then he prepared an inner sanctuary within the house in order to place there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1 Kings 6:20 The inner sanctuary [was] twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and twenty cubits in height, and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the altar with cedar.

1 Kings 6:21 So Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold. And he drew chains of gold across the front of the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold.

1 Kings 6:22 He overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also the whole altar which was by the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.

1 Kings 6:23 Also in the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

1 Kings 6:24 Five cubits [was] the one wing of the cherub and five cubits the other wing of the cherub; from the end of one wing to the end of the other wing [were] ten cubits.

1 Kings 6:25 The other cherub [was] ten cubits; both the cherubim were of the same measure and the same form.

1 Kings 6:26 The height of the one cherub [was] ten cubits, and so [was] the other cherub.

1 Kings 6:27 He placed the cherubim in the midst of the inner house, and the wings of the cherubim were spread out, so that the wing of the one was touching the [one] wall, and the wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall. So their wings were touching each other in the center of the house.

1 Kings 6:28 He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

1 Kings 6:29 Then he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, inner and outer [sanctuaries].

1 Kings 6:30 He overlaid the floor of the house with gold, inner and outer [sanctuaries].

1 Kings 6:31 For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood, the lintel [and] five-sided doorposts.

1 Kings 6:32 So [he made] two doors of olive wood, and he carved on them carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

1 Kings 6:33 So also he made for the entrance of the nave four-sided doorposts of olive wood

1 Kings 6:34 and two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door turned on pivots, and the two leaves of the other door turned on pivots.

1 Kings 6:35 He carved [on it] cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; and he overlaid [them] with gold evenly applied on the engraved work.

1 Kings 6:36 He built the inner court with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams.

1 Kings 6:37 In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

1 Kings 6:38 In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished throughout all its parts and according to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

1 Kings 7:1 Now Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

1 Kings 7:2 He built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was 100 cubits and its width 50 cubits and its height 30 cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars with cedar beams on the pillars.

1 Kings 7:3 It was paneled with cedar above the side chambers which were on the 45 pillars, 15 in each row.

1 Kings 7:4 [There were artistic window] frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three ranks.

1 Kings 7:5 All the doorways and doorposts [had] squared [artistic] frames, and window was opposite window in three ranks.

1 Kings 7:6 Then he made the hall of pillars; its length was 50 cubits and its width 30 cubits, and a porch [was] in front of them and pillars and a threshold in front of them.

1 Kings 7:7 He made the hall of the throne where he was to judge, the hall of judgment, and it was paneled with cedar from floor to floor.

1 Kings 7:8 His house where he was to live, the other court inward from the hall, was of the same workmanship. He also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had married.

1 Kings 7:9 All these were of costly stones, of stone cut according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside; even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court.

1 Kings 7:10 The foundation was of costly stones, [even] large stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits.

1 Kings 7:11 And above were costly stones, stone cut according to measure, and cedar.

1 Kings 7:12 So the great court all around [had] three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams even as the inner court of the house of the LORD, and the porch of the house.

1 Kings 7:13 Now King Solomon sent and brought Hiram from Tyre.

1 Kings 7:14 He was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill for doing any work in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and performed all his work.

1 Kings 7:15 He fashioned the two pillars of bronze; eighteen cubits was the height of one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of both.

1 Kings 7:16 He also made two capitals of molten bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

1 Kings 7:17 [There were] nets of network and twisted threads of chainwork for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital and seven for the other capital.

1 Kings 7:18 So he made the pillars, and two rows around on the one network to cover the capitals which were on the top of the pomegranates; and so he did for the other capital.

1 Kings 7:19 The capitals which [were] on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily design, four cubits.

1 Kings 7:20 [There were] capitals on the two pillars, even above [and] close to the rounded projection which was beside the network; and the pomegranates [numbered] two hundred in rows around both capitals.

1 Kings 7:21 Thus he set up the pillars at the porch of the nave; and he set up the right pillar and named it Jachin, and he set up the left pillar and named it Boaz.

1 Kings 7:22 On the top of the pillars was lily design. So the work of the pillars was finished.

1 Kings 7:23 Now he made the sea of cast [metal] ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height was five cubits, and thirty cubits in circumference.

1 Kings 7:24 Under its brim gourds went around encircling it ten to a cubit, completely surrounding the sea; the gourds were in two rows, cast with the rest.

1 Kings 7:25 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the sea [was set] on top of them, and all their rear parts [turned] inward.

1 Kings 7:26 It was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, [as] a lily blossom; it could hold two thousand baths.

1 Kings 7:27 Then he made the ten stands of bronze; the length of each stand was four cubits and its width four cubits and its height three cubits.

1 Kings 7:28 This was the design of the stands: they had borders, even borders between the frames,

1 Kings 7:29 and on the borders which were between the frames [were] lions, oxen and cherubim; and on the frames there [was] a pedestal above, and beneath the lions and oxen [were] wreaths of hanging work.

1 Kings 7:30 Now each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and its four feet had supports; beneath the basin [were] cast supports with wreaths at each side.

1 Kings 7:31 Its opening inside the crown at the top [was] a cubit, and its opening [was] round like the design of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on its opening [there were] engravings, and their borders were square, not round.

1 Kings 7:32 The four wheels [were] underneath the borders, and the axles of the wheels [were] on the stand. And the height of a wheel [was] a cubit and a half.

1 Kings 7:33 The workmanship of the wheels [was] like the workmanship of a chariot wheel. Their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs [were] all cast.

1 Kings 7:34 Now [there were] four supports at the four corners of each stand; its supports [were] part of the stand itself.

1 Kings 7:35 On the top of the stand [there was] a circular form half a cubit high, and on the top of the stand its stays and its borders [were] part of it.

1 Kings 7:36 He engraved on the plates of its stays and on its borders, cherubim, lions and palm trees, according to the clear space on each, with wreaths [all] around.

1 Kings 7:37 He made the ten stands like this: all of them had one casting, one measure and one form.

1 Kings 7:38 He made ten basins of bronze, one basin held forty baths; each basin [was] four cubits, [and] on each of the ten stands [was] one basin.

1 Kings 7:39 Then he set the stands, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea [of cast metal] on the right side of the house eastward toward the south.

1 Kings 7:40 Now Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing all the work which he performed for King Solomon [in] the house of the LORD:

1 Kings 7:41 the two pillars and the [two] bowls of the capitals which [were] on the top of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which [were] on the top of the pillars;

1 Kings 7:42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two bowls of the capitals which [were] on the tops of the pillars;

1 Kings 7:43 and the ten stands with the ten basins on the stands;

1 Kings 7:44 and the one sea and the twelve oxen under the sea;

1 Kings 7:45 and the pails and the shovels and the bowls; even all these utensils which Hiram made for King Solomon [in] the house of the LORD [were] of polished bronze.

1 Kings 7:46 In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

1 Kings 7:48 Solomon made all the furniture which [was in] the house of the LORD: the golden altar and the golden table on which [was] the bread of the Presence;

1 Kings 7:49 and the lampstands, five on the right side and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; and the flowers and the lamps and the tongs, of gold;

1 Kings 7:50 and the cups and the snuffers and the bowls and the spoons and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, [and] for the doors of the house, [that is], of the nave, of gold.

1 Kings 7:51 Thus all the work that King Solomon performed [in] the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things dedicated by his father David, the silver and the gold and the utensils, [and] he put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' [households] of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion.

1 Kings 8:2 All the men of Israel assembled themselves to King Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

1 Kings 8:3 Then all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.

1 Kings 8:4 They brought up the ark of the LORD and the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils, which were in the tent, and the priests and the Levites brought them up.

1 Kings 8:5 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen they could not be counted or numbered.

1 Kings 8:6 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubim.

1 Kings 8:7 For the cherubim spread [their] wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its poles from above.

1 Kings 8:8 But the poles were so long that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; they are there to this day.

1 Kings 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

1 Kings 8:10 It happened that when the priests came from the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD,

1 Kings 8:11 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:12 Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud.

1 Kings 8:13 “I have surely built You a lofty house, A place for Your dwelling forever.”

1 Kings 8:14 Then the king faced about and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

1 Kings 8:15 He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled [it] with His hand, saying,

1 Kings 8:16 ‘Since the day that I brought My people Israel from Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel [in which] to build a house that My name might be there, but I chose David to be over My people Israel.’

1 Kings 8:17 “Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Kings 8:18 “But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.

1 Kings 8:19 ‘Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will be born to you, he will build the house for My name.’

1 Kings 8:20 “Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Kings 8:21 “There I have set a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD, which He made with our fathers when He brought them from the land of Egypt.”

1 Kings 8:22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven.

1 Kings 8:23 He said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and [showing] lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart,

1 Kings 8:24 who have kept with Your servant, my father David, that which You have promised him; indeed, You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand as it is this day.

1 Kings 8:25 “Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way to walk before Me as you have walked.’

1 Kings 8:26 “Now therefore, O God of Israel, let Your word, I pray, be confirmed which You have spoken to Your servant, my father David.

1 Kings 8:27 “But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You, how much less this house which I have built!

1 Kings 8:28 “Yet have regard to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You today;

1 Kings 8:29 that Your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, ‘My name shall be there,’ to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place.

1 Kings 8:30 “Listen to the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear in heaven Your dwelling place; hear and forgive.

1 Kings 8:31 “If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath, and he comes [and] takes an oath before Your altar in this house,

1 Kings 8:32 then hear in heaven and act and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked by bringing his way on his own head and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

1 Kings 8:33 “When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy, because they have sinned against You, if they turn to You again and confess Your name and pray and make supplication to You in this house,

1 Kings 8:34 then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their fathers.

1 Kings 8:35 “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name and turn from their sin when You afflict them,

1 Kings 8:36 then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel, indeed, teach them the good way in which they should walk. And send rain on Your land, which You have given Your people for an inheritance.

1 Kings 8:37 “If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight [or] mildew, locust [or] grasshopper, if their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities, whatever plague, whatever sickness [there is],

1 Kings 8:38 whatever prayer or supplication is made by any man [or] by all Your people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart, and spreading his hands toward this house;

1 Kings 8:39 then hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive and act and render to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know, for You alone know the hearts of all the sons of men,

1 Kings 8:40 that they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

1 Kings 8:41 “Also concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel, when he comes from a far country for Your name’s sake

1 Kings 8:42 (for they will hear of Your great name and Your mighty hand, and of Your outstretched arm); when he comes and prays toward this house,

1 Kings 8:43 hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, to fear You, as [do] Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

1 Kings 8:44 “When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way You shall send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name,

1 Kings 8:45 then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

1 Kings 8:46 “When they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them and deliver them to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near;

1 Kings 8:47 if they take thought in the land where they have been taken captive, and repent and make supplication to You in the land of those who have taken them captive, saying, ‘We have sinned and have committed iniquity, we have acted wickedly’;

1 Kings 8:48 if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and pray to You toward their land which You have given to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name;

1 Kings 8:49 then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven Your dwelling place, and maintain their cause,

1 Kings 8:50 and forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You, and make them [objects of] compassion before those who have taken them captive, that they may have compassion on them

1 Kings 8:51 (for they are Your people and Your inheritance which You have brought forth from Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace),

1 Kings 8:52 that Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant and to the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to You.

1 Kings 8:53 “For You have separated them from all the peoples of the earth as Your inheritance, as You spoke through Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers forth from Egypt, O Lord GOD.”

1 Kings 8:54 When Solomon had finished praying this entire prayer and supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread toward heaven.

1 Kings 8:55 And he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying:

1 Kings 8:56 “Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised; not one word has failed of all His good promise, which He promised through Moses His servant.

1 Kings 8:57 “May the LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers; may He not leave us or forsake us,

1 Kings 8:58 that He may incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His ordinances, which He commanded our fathers.

1 Kings 8:59 “And may these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that He may maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel, as each day requires,

1 Kings 8:60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no one else.

1 Kings 8:61 “Let your heart therefore be wholly devoted to the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as at this day.”

1 Kings 8:62 Now the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the LORD.

1 Kings 8:63 Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:64 On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that [was] before the house of the LORD, because there he offered the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings; for the bronze altar that [was] before the LORD [was] too small to hold the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings.

1 Kings 8:65 So Solomon observed the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, for seven days and seven [more] days, [even] fourteen days.

1 Kings 8:66 On the eighth day he sent the people away and they blessed the king. Then they went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to David His servant and to Israel His people.

1 Kings 9:1 Now it came about when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all that Solomon desired to do,

1 Kings 9:2 that the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.

1 Kings 9:3 The LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built by putting My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

1 Kings 9:4 "As for you, if you will walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you [and] will keep My statutes and My ordinances,

1 Kings 9:5 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, just as I promised to your father David, saying, 'You shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'

1 Kings 9:6 "But if you or your sons indeed turn away from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

1 Kings 9:7 then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them, and the house which I have consecrated for My name, I will cast out of My sight. So Israel will become a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

1 Kings 9:8 "And this house will become a heap of ruins; everyone who passes by will be astonished and hiss and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'

1 Kings 9:9 "And they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and adopted other gods and worshiped them and served them, therefore the LORD has brought all this adversity on them.'"

1 Kings 9:10 It came about at the end of twenty years in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house

1 Kings 9:11 (Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold according to all his desire), then King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

1 Kings 9:12 So Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they did not please him.

1 Kings 9:13 He said, “What are these cities which you have given me, my brother?” So they were called the land of Cabul to this day.

1 Kings 9:14 And Hiram sent to the king 120 talents of gold.

1 Kings 9:15 Now this is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon levied to build the house of the LORD, his own house, the Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

1 Kings 9:16 [For] Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer and burned it with fire, and killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and had given it [as] a dowry to his daughter, Solomon’s wife.

1 Kings 9:17 So Solomon rebuilt Gezer and the lower Beth-horon

1 Kings 9:18 and Baalath and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land [of Judah],

1 Kings 9:19 and all the storage cities which Solomon had, even the cities for his chariots and the cities for his horsemen, and all that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his rule.

1 Kings 9:20 [As for] all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel,

1 Kings 9:21 their descendants who were left after them in the land whom the sons of Israel were unable to destroy utterly, from them Solomon levied forced laborers, even to this day.

1 Kings 9:22 But Solomon did not make slaves of the sons of Israel; for they were men of war, his servants, his princes, his captains, his chariot commanders, and his horsemen.

1 Kings 9:23 These [were] the chief officers who [were] over Solomon’s work, five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people doing the work.

1 Kings 9:24 As soon as Pharaoh’s daughter came up from the city of David to her house which [Solomon] had built for her, then he built the Millo.

1 Kings 9:25 Now three times in a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to the LORD, burning incense with them [on the altar] which [was] before the LORD. So he finished the house.

1 Kings 9:26 King Solomon also built a fleet of ships in Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

1 Kings 9:27 And Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who knew the sea, along with the servants of Solomon.

1 Kings 9:28 They went to Ophir and took four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought [it] to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10:1 Now when the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with difficult questions.

1 Kings 10:2 So she came to Jerusalem with a very large retinue, with camels carrying spices and very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

1 Kings 10:3 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from the king which he did not explain to her.

1 Kings 10:4 When the queen of Sheba perceived all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

1 Kings 10:5 the food of his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his waiters and their attire, his cupbearers, and his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

1 Kings 10:6 Then she said to the king, “It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

1 Kings 10:7 “Nevertheless I did not believe the reports, until I came and my eyes had seen it. And behold, the half was not told me. You exceed [in] wisdom and prosperity the report which I heard.

1 Kings 10:8 “How blessed are your men, how blessed are these your servants who stand before you continually [and] hear your wisdom.

1 Kings 10:9 “Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you to set you on the throne of Israel; because the LORD loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do justice and righteousness.”

1 Kings 10:10 She gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very great [amount] of spices and precious stones. Never again did such abundance of spices come in as that which the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

1 Kings 10:11 Also the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir a very great [number of] almug trees and precious stones.

1 Kings 10:12 The king made of the almug trees supports for the house of the LORD and for the king’s house, also lyres and harps for the singers; such almug trees have not come in [again] nor have they been seen to this day.

1 Kings 10:13 King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire which she requested, besides what he gave her according to his royal bounty. Then she turned and went to her own land together with her servants.

1 Kings 10:14 Now the weight of gold which came in to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold,

1 Kings 10:15 besides [that] from the traders and the wares of the merchants and all the kings of the Arabs and the governors of the country.

1 Kings 10:16 King Solomon made 200 large shields of beaten gold, using 600 [shekels of] gold on each large shield.

1 Kings 10:17 [He made] 300 shields of beaten gold, using three minas of gold on each shield, and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

1 Kings 10:18 Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with refined gold.

1 Kings 10:19 [There] [were] six steps to the throne and a round top to the throne at its rear, and arms on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms.

1 Kings 10:20 Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on the one side and on the other; nothing like [it] was made for any other kingdom.

1 Kings 10:21 All King Solomon’s drinking vessels [were] of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon [were] of pure gold. None was of silver; it was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

1 Kings 10:22 For the king had at sea the ships of Tarshish with the ships of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks.

1 Kings 10:23 So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.

1 Kings 10:24 All the earth was seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart.

1 Kings 10:25 They brought every man his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

1 Kings 10:26 Now Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; and he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

1 Kings 10:27 The king made silver [as common] as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees that are in the lowland.

1 Kings 10:28 Also Solomon’s import of horses was from Egypt and Kue, [and] the king’s merchants procured [them] from Kue for a price.

1 Kings 10:29 A chariot was imported from Egypt for 600 [shekels] of silver, and a horse for 150; and by the same means they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of the Arameans.

1 Kings 11:1 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women,

1 Kings 11:2 from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the sons of Israel, “You shall not associate with them, nor shall they associate with you, [for] they will surely turn your heart away after their gods.” Solomon held fast to these in love.

1 Kings 11:3 He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away.

1 Kings 11:4 For when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart away after other gods; and his heart was not wholly devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father [had been].

1 Kings 11:5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians and after Milcom the detestable idol of the Ammonites.

1 Kings 11:6 Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not follow the LORD fully, as David his father [had done].

1 Kings 11:7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable idol of Moab, on the mountain which is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the detestable idol of the sons of Ammon.

1 Kings 11:8 Thus also he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

1 Kings 11:9 Now the LORD was angry with Solomon because his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

1 Kings 11:10 and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not observe what the LORD had commanded.

1 Kings 11:11 So the LORD said to Solomon, “Because you have done this, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant.

1 Kings 11:12 “Nevertheless I will not do it in your days for the sake of your father David, [but] I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

1 Kings 11:13 “However, I will not tear away all the kingdom, [but] I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen.”

1 Kings 11:14 Then the LORD raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the royal line in Edom.

1 Kings 11:15 For it came about, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, and had struck down every male in Edom

1 Kings 11:16 (for Joab and all Israel stayed there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom),

1 Kings 11:17 that Hadad fled to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, while Hadad [was] a young boy.

1 Kings 11:18 They arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house and assigned him food and gave him land.

1 Kings 11:19 Now Hadad found great favor before Pharaoh, so that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

1 Kings 11:20 The sister of Tahpenes bore his son Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh.

1 Kings 11:21 But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Send me away, that I may go to my own country."

1 Kings 11:22 Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you are seeking to go to your own country?" And he answered, "Nothing; nevertheless you must surely let me go."

1 Kings 11:23 God also raised up [another] adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

1 Kings 11:24 He gathered men to himself and became leader of a marauding band, after David slew them of [Zobah]; and they went to Damascus and stayed there, and reigned in Damascus.

1 Kings 11:25 So he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the evil that Hadad [did]; and he abhorred Israel and reigned over Aram.

1 Kings 11:26 Then Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also rebelled against the king.

1 Kings 11:27 Now this was the reason why he rebelled against the king: Solomon built the Millo, [and] closed up the breach of the city of his father David.

1 Kings 11:28 Now the man Jeroboam was a valiant warrior, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he appointed him over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

1 Kings 11:29 It came about at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. Now Ahijah had clothed himself with a new cloak; and both of them were alone in the field.

1 Kings 11:30 Then Ahijah took hold of the new cloak which was on him and tore it into twelve pieces.

1 Kings 11:31 He said to Jeroboam, “Take for yourself ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and give you ten tribes

1 Kings 11:32 (but he will have one tribe, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel),

1 Kings 11:33 because they have forsaken Me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon; and they have not walked in My ways, doing what is right in My sight and [observing] My statutes and My ordinances, as his father David [did].

1 Kings 11:34 ‘Nevertheless I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of My servant David whom I chose, who observed My commandments and My statutes;

1 Kings 11:35 but I will take the kingdom from his son’s hand and give it to you, [even] ten tribes.

1 Kings 11:36 ‘But to his son I will give one tribe, that My servant David may have a lamp always before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen for Myself to put My name.

1 Kings 11:37 ‘I will take you, and you shall reign over whatever you desire, and you shall be king over Israel.

1 Kings 11:38 ‘Then it will be, that if you listen to all that I command you and walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight by observing My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then I will be with you and build you an enduring house as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.

1 Kings 11:39 ‘Thus I will afflict the descendants of David for this, but not always.’“

1 Kings 11:40 Solomon sought therefore to put Jeroboam to death; but Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt to Shishak king of Egypt, and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

1 Kings 11:41 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon and whatever he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

1 Kings 11:42 Thus the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

1 Kings 11:43 And Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David, and his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

1 Kings 12:1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

1 Kings 12:2 Now when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard [of it], he was living in Egypt (for he was yet in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon).

1 Kings 12:3 Then they sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

1 Kings 12:4 “Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

1 Kings 12:5 Then he said to them, “Depart for three days, then return to me.” So the people departed.

1 Kings 12:6 King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, “How do you counsel [me] to answer this people?”

1 Kings 12:7 Then they spoke to him, saying, “If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve them and grant them their petition, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.”

1 Kings 12:8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him.

1 Kings 12:9 So he said to them, “What counsel do you give that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’?”

1 Kings 12:10 The young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, “Thus you shall say to this people who spoke to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us!’ But you shall speak to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins!

1 Kings 12:11 ‘Whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.’“

1 Kings 12:12 Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had directed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

1 Kings 12:13 The king answered the people harshly, for he forsook the advice of the elders which they had given him,

1 Kings 12:14 and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.”

1 Kings 12:15 So the king did not listen to the people; for it was a turn [of events] from the LORD, that He might establish His word, which the LORD spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

1 Kings 12:16 When all Israel [saw] that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, “What portion do we have in David? [We have] no inheritance in the son of Jesse; To your tents, O Israel! Now look after your own house, David!” So Israel departed to their tents.

1 Kings 12:17 But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

1 Kings 12:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

1 Kings 12:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

1 Kings 12:20 It came about when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. None but the tribe of Judah followed the house of David.

1 Kings 12:21 Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

1 Kings 12:22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

1 Kings 12:23 “Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the rest of the people, saying,

1 Kings 12:24 ‘Thus says the LORD, “You must not go up and fight against your relatives the sons of Israel; return every man to his house, for this thing has come from Me.”‘“ So they listened to the word of the LORD, and returned and went [their way] according to the word of the LORD.

1 Kings 12:25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived there. And he went out from there and built Penuel.

1 Kings 12:26 Jeroboam said in his heart, “Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.

1 Kings 12:27 “If this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will return to their lord, [even] to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.”

1 Kings 12:28 So the king consulted, and made two golden calves, and he said to them, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; behold your gods, O Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt.”

1 Kings 12:29 He set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.

1 Kings 12:30 Now this thing became a sin, for the people went [to worship] before the one as far as Dan.

1 Kings 12:31 And he made houses on high places, and made priests from among all the people who were not of the sons of Levi.

1 Kings 12:32 Jeroboam instituted a feast in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast which is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; thus he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves which he had made. And he stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

1 Kings 12:33 Then he went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised in his own heart; and he instituted a feast for the sons of Israel and went up to the altar to burn incense.

1 Kings 13:1 Now behold, there came a man of God from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD, while Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense.

1 Kings 13:2 He cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, “O altar, altar, thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and human bones shall be burned on you.’“

1 Kings 13:3 Then he gave a sign the same day, saying, “This is the sign which the LORD has spoken, ‘Behold, the altar shall be split apart and the ashes which are on it shall be poured out.’“

1 Kings 13:4 Now when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, “Seize him.” But his hand which he stretched out against him dried up, so that he could not draw it back to himself.

1 Kings 13:5 The altar also was split apart and the ashes were poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

1 Kings 13:6 The king said to the man of God, “Please entreat the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me.” So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored to him, and it became as it was before.

1 Kings 13:7 Then the king said to the man of God, “Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.”

1 Kings 13:8 But the man of God said to the king, “If you were to give me half your house I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water in this place.

1 Kings 13:9 “For so it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way which you came.’“

1 Kings 13:10 So he went another way and did not return by the way which he came to Bethel.

1 Kings 13:11 Now an old prophet was living in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the deeds which the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words which he had spoken to the king, these also they related to their father.

1 Kings 13:12 Their father said to them, “Which way did he go?” Now his sons had seen the way which the man of God who came from Judah had gone.

1 Kings 13:13 Then he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him and he rode away on it.

1 Kings 13:14 So he went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak; and he said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” And he said, “I am.”

1 Kings 13:15 Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat bread.”

1 Kings 13:16 He said, “I cannot return with you, nor go with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place.

1 Kings 13:17 “For a command [came] to me by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall eat no bread, nor drink water there; do not return by going the way which you came.’“

1 Kings 13:18 He said to him, “I also am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.’“ [But] he lied to him.

1 Kings 13:19 So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house and drank water.

1 Kings 13:20 Now it came about, as they were sitting down at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

1 Kings 13:21 and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have disobeyed the command of the LORD, and have not observed the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

1 Kings 13:22 but have returned and eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which He said to you, “Eat no bread and drink no water”; your body shall not come to the grave of your fathers.’“

1 Kings 13:23 It came about after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

1 Kings 13:24 Now when he had gone, a lion met him on the way and killed him, and his body was thrown on the road, with the donkey standing beside it; the lion also was standing beside the body.

1 Kings 13:25 And behold, men passed by and saw the body thrown on the road, and the lion standing beside the body; so they came and told [it] in the city where the old prophet lived.

1 Kings 13:26 Now when the prophet who brought him back from the way heard [it], he said, “It is the man of God, who disobeyed the command of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him.”

1 Kings 13:27 Then he spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And they saddled [it].

1 Kings 13:28 He went and found his body thrown on the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the body; the lion had not eaten the body nor torn the donkey.

1 Kings 13:29 So the prophet took up the body of the man of God and laid it on the donkey and brought it back, and he came to the city of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him.

1 Kings 13:30 He laid his body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, [saying], “Alas, my brother!”

1 Kings 13:31 After he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, saying, “When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

1 Kings 13:32 “For the thing shall surely come to pass which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria.”

1 Kings 13:33 After this event Jeroboam did not return from his evil way, but again he made priests of the high places from among all the people; any who would, he ordained, to be priests of the high places.

1 Kings 13:34 This event became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to blot [it] out and destroy [it] from off the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14:1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick.

1 Kings 14:2 Jeroboam said to his wife, “Arise now, and disguise yourself so that they will not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh; behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who spoke concerning me [that I would be] king over this people.

1 Kings 14:3 “Take ten loaves with you, [some] cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

1 Kings 14:4 Jeroboam’s wife did so, and arose and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were dim because of his age.

1 Kings 14:5 Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, “Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you concerning her son, for he is sick. You shall say thus and thus to her, for it will be when she arrives that she will pretend to be another woman.”

1 Kings 14:6 When Ahijah heard the sound of her feet coming in the doorway, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam, why do you pretend to be another woman? For I am sent to you [with] a harsh [message].

1 Kings 14:7 “Go, say to Jeroboam, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, “Because I exalted you from among the people and made you leader over My people Israel,

1 Kings 14:8 and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you— yet you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in My sight;

1 Kings 14:9 you also have done more evil than all who were before you, and have gone and made for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back—

1 Kings 14:10 therefore behold, I am bringing calamity on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male person, both bond and free in Israel, and I will make a clean sweep of the house of Jeroboam, as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone.

1 Kings 14:11 “Anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city the dogs will eat. And he who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat; for the LORD has spoken [it].”‘

1 Kings 14:12 “Now you, arise, go to your house. When your feet enter the city the child will die.

1 Kings 14:13 “All Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he alone of Jeroboam’s [family] will come to the grave, because in him something good was found toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

1 Kings 14:14 “Moreover, the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house of Jeroboam this day and from now on.

1 Kings 14:15 “For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the [Euphrates] River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger.

1 Kings 14:16 “He will give up Israel on account of the sins of Jeroboam, which he committed and with which he made Israel to sin.”

1 Kings 14:17 Then Jeroboam’s wife arose and departed and came to Tirzah. As she was entering the threshold of the house, the child died.

1 Kings 14:18 All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

1 Kings 14:19 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

1 Kings 14:20 The time that Jeroboam reigned [was] twenty-two years; and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

1 Kings 14:21 Now Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

1 Kings 14:22 Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy more than all that their fathers had done, with the sins which they committed.

1 Kings 14:23 For they also built for themselves high places and [sacred] pillars and Asherim on every high hill and beneath every luxuriant tree.

1 Kings 14:24 There were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

1 Kings 14:25 Now it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

1 Kings 14:26 He took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and he took everything, even taking all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

1 Kings 14:27 So King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place, and committed them to the care of the commanders of the guard who guarded the doorway of the king's house.

1 Kings 14:28 Then it happened as often as the king entered the house of the LORD, that the guards would carry them and would bring them back into the guards' room.

1 Kings 14:29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

1 Kings 14:30 There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

1 Kings 14:31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And Abijam his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 15:1 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah.

1 Kings 15:2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

1 Kings 15:3 He walked in all the sins of his father which he had committed before him; and his heart was not wholly devoted to the LORD his God, like the heart of his father David.

1 Kings 15:4 But for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem;

1 Kings 15:5 because David did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the case of Uriah the Hittite.

1 Kings 15:6 There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

1 Kings 15:7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

1 Kings 15:8 And Abijam slept with his fathers and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 15:9 So in the twentieth year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Asa began to reign as king of Judah.

1 Kings 15:10 He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

1 Kings 15:11 Asa did what was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father.

1 Kings 15:12 He also put away the male cult prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols which his fathers had made.

1 Kings 15:13 He also removed Maacah his mother from [being] queen mother, because she had made a horrid image as an Asherah; and Asa cut down her horrid image and burned [it] at the brook Kidron.

1 Kings 15:14 But the high places were not taken away; nevertheless the heart of Asa was wholly devoted to the LORD all his days.

1 Kings 15:15 He brought into the house of the LORD the dedicated things of his father and his own dedicated things: silver and gold and utensils.

1 Kings 15:16 Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

1 Kings 15:17 Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent [anyone] from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

1 Kings 15:18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold which were left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king’s house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying,

1 Kings 15:19 “[Let there be] a treaty between you and me, [as] between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you a present of silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me.”

1 Kings 15:20 So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah and all Chinneroth, besides all the land of Naphtali.

1 Kings 15:21 When Baasha heard [of it], he ceased fortifying Ramah and remained in Tirzah.

1 Kings 15:22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah— none was exempt— and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built. And King Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

1 Kings 15:23 Now the rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might and all that he did and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

1 Kings 15:24 And Asa slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

1 Kings 15:25 Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

1 Kings 15:26 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and in his sin which he made Israel sin.

1 Kings 15:27 Then Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.

1 Kings 15:28 So Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah and reigned in his place.

1 Kings 15:29 It came about as soon as he was king, he struck down all the household of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam any persons alive, until he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite,

1 Kings 15:30 [and] because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

1 Kings 15:31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 15:32 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

1 Kings 15:33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel at Tirzah, [and reigned] twenty-four years.

1 Kings 15:34 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he made Israel sin.

1 Kings 16:1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

1 Kings 16:2 “Inasmuch as I exalted you from the dust and made you leader over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have made My people Israel sin, provoking Me to anger with their sins,

1 Kings 16:3 behold, I will consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

1 Kings 16:4 “Anyone of Baasha who dies in the city the dogs will eat, and anyone of his who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat.”

1 Kings 16:5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:6 And Baasha slept with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 16:7 Moreover, the word of the LORD through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani also came against Baasha and his household, both because of all the evil which he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck it.

1 Kings 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel at Tirzah, [and reigned] two years.

1 Kings 16:9 His servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he [was] at Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who [was] over the household at Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:10 Then Zimri went in and struck him and put him to death in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and became king in his place.

1 Kings 16:11 It came about when he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave a single male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends.

1 Kings 16:12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha through Jehu the prophet,

1 Kings 16:13 for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned and which they made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

1 Kings 16:14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days at Tirzah. Now the people were camped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

1 Kings 16:16 The people who were camped heard it said, “Zimri has conspired and has also struck down the king.” Therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

1 Kings 16:17 Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:18 When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king’s house and burned the king’s house over him with fire, and died,

1 Kings 16:19 because of his sins which he sinned, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, making Israel sin.

1 Kings 16:20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy which he carried out, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; the [other] half followed Omri.

1 Kings 16:22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. And Tibni died and Omri became king.

1 Kings 16:23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel [and reigned] twelve years; he reigned six years at Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:24 He bought the hill Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and named the city which he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.

1 Kings 16:25 Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, and acted more wickedly than all who [were] before him.

1 Kings 16:26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sins which he made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel with their idols.

1 Kings 16:27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did and his might which he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:28 So Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 16:29 Now Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

1 Kings 16:30 Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all who were before him.

1 Kings 16:31 It came about, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went to serve Baal and worshiped him.

1 Kings 16:32 So he erected an altar for Baal in the house of Baal which he built in Samaria.

1 Kings 16:33 Ahab also made the Asherah. Thus Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

1 Kings 16:34 In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho; he laid its foundations with the [loss of] Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the [loss of] his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

1 Kings 17:1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD, the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, surely there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word.”

1 Kings 17:2 The word of the LORD came to him, saying,

1 Kings 17:3 “Go away from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan.

1 Kings 17:4 “It shall be that you will drink of the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there.”

1 Kings 17:5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan.

1 Kings 17:6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he would drink from the brook.

1 Kings 17:7 It happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

1 Kings 17:8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

1 Kings 17:9 “Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there; behold, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you.”

1 Kings 17:10 So he arose and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her and said, “Please get me a little water in a jar, that I may drink.”

1 Kings 17:11 As she was going to get [it], he called to her and said, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand.”

1 Kings 17:12 But she said, “As the LORD your God lives, I have no bread, only a handful of flour in the bowl and a little oil in the jar; and behold, I am gathering a few sticks that I may go in and prepare for me and my son, that we may eat it and die.”

1 Kings 17:13 Then Elijah said to her, “Do not fear; go, do as you have said, but make me a little bread cake from it first and bring [it] out to me, and afterward you may make [one] for yourself and for your son.

1 Kings 17:14 “For thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘The bowl of flour shall not be exhausted, nor shall the jar of oil be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain on the face of the earth.’“

1 Kings 17:15 So she went and did according to the word of Elijah, and she and he and her household ate for [many] days.

1 Kings 17:16 The bowl of flour was not exhausted nor did the jar of oil become empty, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through Elijah.

1 Kings 17:17 Now it came about after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.

1 Kings 17:18 So she said to Elijah, “What do I have to do with you, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my iniquity to remembrance and to put my son to death!”

1 Kings 17:19 He said to her, “Give me your son.” Then he took him from her bosom and carried him up to the upper room where he was living, and laid him on his own bed.

1 Kings 17:20 He called to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, have You also brought calamity to the widow with whom I am staying, by causing her son to die?”

1 Kings 17:21 Then he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, I pray You, let this child’s life return to him.”

1 Kings 17:22 The LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the life of the child returned to him and he revived.

1 Kings 17:23 Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, “See, your son is alive.”

1 Kings 17:24 Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.”

1 Kings 18:1 Now it happened [after] many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, “Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the face of the earth.”

1 Kings 18:2 So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine [was] severe in Samaria.

1 Kings 18:3 Ahab called Obadiah who [was] over the household. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly;

1 Kings 18:4 for when Jezebel destroyed the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water.)

1 Kings 18:5 Then Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the valleys; perhaps we will find grass and keep the horses and mules alive, and not have to kill some of the cattle.”

1 Kings 18:6 So they divided the land between them to survey it; Ahab went one way by himself and Obadiah went another way by himself.

1 Kings 18:7 Now as Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah met him, and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, “Is this you, Elijah my master?”

1 Kings 18:8 He said to him, “It is I. Go, say to your master, ‘Behold, Elijah [is here].’“

1 Kings 18:9 He said, “What sin have I committed, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab to put me to death?

1 Kings 18:10 “As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to search for you; and when they said, ‘He is not [here],’ he made the kingdom or nation swear that they could not find you.

1 Kings 18:11 “And now you are saying, ‘Go, say to your master, “Behold, Elijah [is here].”‘

1 Kings 18:12 “It will come about when I leave you that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you where I do not know; so when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although [I] your servant have feared the LORD from my youth.

1 Kings 18:13 “Has it not been told to my master what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, that I hid a hundred prophets of the LORD by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water?

1 Kings 18:14 “And now you are saying, ‘Go, say to your master, “Behold, Elijah [is here]”‘; he will then kill me.”

1 Kings 18:15 Elijah said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today.”

1 Kings 18:16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

1 Kings 18:17 When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, “Is this you, you troubler of Israel?”

1 Kings 18:18 He said, “I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father’s house [have], because you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and you have followed the Baals.

1 Kings 18:19 “Now then send [and] gather to me all Israel at Mount Carmel, [together] with 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

1 Kings 18:20 So Ahab sent [a message] among all the sons of Israel and brought the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

1 Kings 18:21 Elijah came near to all the people and said, “How long [will] you hesitate between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him.” But the people did not answer him a word.

1 Kings 18:22 Then Elijah said to the people, “I alone am left a prophet of the LORD, but Baal’s prophets are 450 men.

1 Kings 18:23 “Now let them give us two oxen; and let them choose one ox for themselves and cut it up, and place it on the wood, but put no fire [under it]; and I will prepare the other ox and lay it on the wood, and I will not put a fire [under it].

1 Kings 18:24 “Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD, and the God who answers by fire, He is God.” And all the people said, “That is a good idea.”

1 Kings 18:25 So Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one ox for yourselves and prepare it first for you are many, and call on the name of your god, but put no fire [under it].”

1 Kings 18:26 Then they took the ox which was given them and they prepared it and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon saying, “O Baal, answer us.” But there was no voice and no one answered. And they leaped about the altar which they made.

1 Kings 18:27 It came about at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, “Call out with a loud voice, for he is a god; either he is occupied or gone aside, or is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and needs to be awakened.”

1 Kings 18:28 So they cried with a loud voice and cut themselves according to their custom with swords and lances until the blood gushed out on them.

1 Kings 18:29 When midday was past, they raved until the time of the offering of the [evening] sacrifice; but there was no voice, no one answered, and no one paid attention.

1 Kings 18:30 Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come near to me.” So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD which had been torn down.

1 Kings 18:31 Elijah took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Israel shall be your name.”

1 Kings 18:32 So with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD, and he made a trench around the altar, large enough to hold two measures of seed.

1 Kings 18:33 Then he arranged the wood and cut the ox in pieces and laid [it] on the wood.

1 Kings 18:34 And he said, “Fill four pitchers with water and pour [it] on the burnt offering and on the wood.” And he said, “Do it a second time,” and they did it a second time. And he said, “Do it a third time,” and they did it a third time.

1 Kings 18:35 The water flowed around the altar and he also filled the trench with water.

1 Kings 18:36 At the time of the offering of the [evening] sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came near and said, “O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, today let it be known that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant and I have done all these things at Your word.

1 Kings 18:37 “Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that You, O LORD, are God, and [that] You have turned their heart back again.”

1 Kings 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

1 Kings 18:39 When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, “The LORD, He is God; the LORD, He is God.”

1 Kings 18:40 Then Elijah said to them, “Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape.” So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

1 Kings 18:41 Now Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of the roar of a [heavy] shower.”

1 Kings 18:42 So Ahab went up to eat and drink. But Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he crouched down on the earth and put his face between his knees.

1 Kings 18:43 He said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.” So he went up and looked and said, “There is nothing.” And he said, “Go back “ seven times.

1 Kings 18:44 It came about at the seventh [time], that he said, “Behold, a cloud as small as a man’s hand is coming up from the sea.”

And he said, “Go up, say to Ahab, ‘Prepare [your chariot] and go down, so that the [heavy] shower does not stop you.’“

1 Kings 18:45 In a little while the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy shower. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel.

1 Kings 18:46 Then the hand of the LORD was on Elijah, and he girded up his loins and outran Ahab to Jezreel.

1 Kings 19:1 Now Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.

1 Kings 19:2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So may the gods do to me and even more, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.”

1 Kings 19:3 And he was afraid and arose and ran for his life and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

1 Kings 19:4 But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree; and he requested for himself that he might die, and said, “It is enough; now, O LORD, take my life, for I am not better than my fathers.”

1 Kings 19:5 He lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and behold, there was an angel touching him, and he said to him, “Arise, eat.”

1 Kings 19:6 Then he looked and behold, there was at his head a bread cake [baked on] hot stones, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank and lay down again.

1 Kings 19:7 The angel of the LORD came again a second time and touched him and said, “Arise, eat, because the journey is too great for you.”

1 Kings 19:8 So he arose and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God.

1 Kings 19:9 Then he came there to a cave and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD [came] to him, and He said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

1 Kings 19:10 He said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.”

1 Kings 19:11 So He said, “Go forth and stand on the mountain before the LORD.” And behold, the LORD was passing by! And a great and strong wind was rending the mountains and breaking in pieces the rocks before the LORD; [but] the LORD [was] not in the wind. And after the wind an earthquake, [but] the LORD [was] not in the earthquake.

1 Kings 19:12 After the earthquake a fire, [but] the LORD [was] not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of a gentle blowing.

1 Kings 19:13 When Elijah heard [it], he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, a voice [came] to him and said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

1 Kings 19:14 Then he said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.”

1 Kings 19:15 The LORD said to him, “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and when you have arrived, you shall anoint Hazael king over Aram;

1 Kings 19:16 and Jehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place.

1 Kings 19:17 “It shall come about, the one who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall put to death, and the one who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall put to death.

1 Kings 19:18 “Yet I will leave 7,000 in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

1 Kings 19:19 So he departed from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, while he was plowing with twelve pairs [of oxen] before him, and he with the twelfth. And Elijah passed over to him and threw his mantle on him.

1 Kings 19:20 He left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, “Please let me kiss my father and my mother, then I will follow you.” And he said to him, “Go back again, for what have I done to you?”

1 Kings 19:21 So he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their flesh with the implements of the oxen, and gave [it] to the people and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah and ministered to him.

1 Kings 20:1 Now Ben-hadad king of Aram gathered all his army, and there [were] thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria and fought against it.

1 Kings 20:2 Then he sent messengers to the city to Ahab king of Israel and said to him, “Thus says Ben-hadad,

1 Kings 20:3 ‘Your silver and your gold are mine; your most beautiful wives and children are also mine.’“

1 Kings 20:4 The king of Israel replied, “It is according to your word, my lord, O king; I am yours, and all that I have.”

1 Kings 20:5 Then the messengers returned and said, “Thus says Ben-hadad, ‘Surely, I sent to you saying, “You shall give me your silver and your gold and your wives and your children,”

1 Kings 20:6 but about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants; and whatever is desirable in your eyes, they will take in their hand and carry away.'"

1 Kings 20:7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, "Please observe and see how this man is looking for trouble; for he sent to me for my wives and my children and my silver and my gold, and I did not refuse him."

1 Kings 20:8 All the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent."

1 Kings 20:9 So he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do, but this thing I cannot do.'" And the messengers departed and brought him word again.

1 Kings 20:10 Ben-hadad sent to him and said, "May the gods do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria will suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me."

1 Kings 20:11 Then the king of Israel replied, "Tell [him], 'Let not him who girds on [his armor] boast like him who takes [it] off.'"

1 Kings 20:12 When [Ben-hadad] heard this message, as he was drinking with the kings in the temporary shelters, he said to his servants, "Station [yourselves]." So they stationed [themselves] against the city.

1 Kings 20:13 Now behold, a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver them into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

1 Kings 20:14 Ahab said, "By whom?" So he said, "Thus says the LORD, 'By the young men of the rulers of the provinces.'" Then he said, "Who shall begin the battle?" And he answered, "You."

1 Kings 20:15 Then he mustered the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and there were 232; and after them he mustered all the people, [even] all the sons of Israel, 7,000.

1 Kings 20:16 They went out at noon, while Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the temporary shelters with the thirty-two kings who helped him.

1 Kings 20:17 The young men of the rulers of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out and they told him, saying, "Men have come out from Samaria."

1 Kings 20:18 Then he said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive."

1 Kings 20:19 So these went out from the city, the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and the army which followed them.

1 Kings 20:20 They killed each his man; and the Arameans fled and Israel pursued them, and Ben-hadad king of Aram escaped on a horse with horsemen.

1 Kings 20:21 The king of Israel went out and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Arameans with a great slaughter.

1 Kings 20:22 Then the prophet came near to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself and observe and see what you have to do; for at the turn of the year the king of Aram will come up against you."

1 Kings 20:23 Now the servants of the king of Aram said to him, "Their gods are gods of the mountains, therefore they were stronger than we; but rather let us fight against them in the plain, [and] surely we will be stronger than they.

1 Kings 20:24 "Do this thing: remove the kings, each from his place, and put captains in their place,

1 Kings 20:25 and muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they." And he listened to their voice and did so.

1 Kings 20:26 At the turn of the year, Ben-hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

1 Kings 20:27 The sons of Israel were mustered and were provisioned and went to meet them; and the sons of Israel camped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Arameans filled the country.

1 Kings 20:28 Then a man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because the Arameans have said, "The LORD is a god of [the] mountains, but He is not a god of [the] valleys," therefore I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

1 Kings 20:29 So they camped one over against the other seven days. And on the seventh day the battle was joined, and the sons of Israel killed [of] the Arameans 100,000 foot soldiers in one day.

1 Kings 20:30 But the rest fled to Aphek into the city, and the wall fell on 27,000 men who were left. And Ben-hadad fled and came into the city into an inner chamber.

1 Kings 20:31 His servants said to him, "Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings, please let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will save your life."

1 Kings 20:32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins and [put] ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-hadad says, 'Please let me live.'" And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

1 Kings 20:33 Now the men took this as an omen, and quickly catching his word said, “Your brother Ben-hadad.” Then he said, “Go, bring him.” Then Ben-hadad came out to him, and he took him up into the chariot.

1 Kings 20:34 [Ben-hadad] said to him, “The cities which my father took from your father I will restore, and you shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria.” [Ahab said], “And I will let you go with this covenant.” So he made a covenant with him and let him go.

1 Kings 20:35 Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to another by the word of the LORD, “Please strike me.” But the man refused to strike him.

1 Kings 20:36 Then he said to him, “Because you have not listened to the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you have departed from me, a lion will kill you.” And as soon as he had departed from him a lion found him and killed him.

1 Kings 20:37 Then he found another man and said, “Please strike me.” And the man struck him, wounding him.

1 Kings 20:38 So the prophet departed and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

1 Kings 20:39 As the king passed by, he cried to the king and said, “Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, ‘Guard this man; if for any reason he is missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.’

1 Kings 20:40 “While your servant was busy here and there, he was gone.” And the king of Israel said to him, “So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided [it].”

1 Kings 20:41 Then he hastily took the bandage away from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him that he was of the prophets.

1 Kings 20:42 He said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have let go out of [your] hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.’“

1 Kings 20:43 So the king of Israel went to his house sullen and vexed, and came to Samaria.

1 Kings 21:1 Now it came about after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which [was] in Jezreel beside the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

1 Kings 21:2 Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, “Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden because it is close beside my house, and I will give you a better vineyard than it in its place; if you like, I will give you the price of it in money.”

1 Kings 21:3 But Naboth said to Ahab, “The LORD forbid me that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers.”

1 Kings 21:4 So Ahab came into his house sullen and vexed because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he said, “I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers.” And he lay down on his bed and turned away his face and ate no food.

1 Kings 21:5 But Jezebel his wife came to him and said to him, “How is it that your spirit is so sullen that you are not eating food?”

1 Kings 21:6 So he said to her, “Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, ‘Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you a vineyard in its place.’ But he said, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’“

1 Kings 21:7 Jezebel his wife said to him, “Do you now reign over Israel? Arise, eat bread, and let your heart be joyful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”

1 Kings 21:8 So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name and sealed them with his seal, and sent letters to the elders and to the nobles who were living with Naboth in his city.

1 Kings 21:9 Now she wrote in the letters, saying, “Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth at the head of the people;

1 Kings 21:10 and seat two worthless men before him, and let them testify against him, saying, ‘You cursed God and the king.’ Then take him out and stone him to death.”

1 Kings 21:11 So the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent [word] to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent them.

1 Kings 21:12 They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people.

1 Kings 21:13 Then the two worthless men came in and sat before him; and the worthless men testified against him, even against Naboth, before the people, saying, “Naboth cursed God and the king.” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death with stones.

1 Kings 21:14 Then they sent [word] to Jezebel, saying, “Naboth has been stoned and is dead.”

1 Kings 21:15 When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, “Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth, the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead.”

1 Kings 21:16 When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

1 Kings 21:17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

1 Kings 21:18 “Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria; behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth where he has gone down to take possession of it.

1 Kings 21:19 “You shall speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Have you murdered and also taken possession?”‘ And you shall speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, “In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth the dogs will lick up your blood, even yours.”‘“

1 Kings 21:20 Ahab said to Elijah, “Have you found me, O my enemy?” And he answered, “I have found [you], because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD.

1 Kings 21:21 “Behold, I will bring evil upon you, and will utterly sweep you away, and will cut off from Ahab every male, both bond and free in Israel;

1 Kings 21:22 and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked [Me] to anger, and [because] you have made Israel sin.

1 Kings 21:23 “Of Jezebel also has the LORD spoken, saying, ‘The dogs will eat Jezebel in the district of Jezreel.’

1 Kings 21:24 “The one belonging to Ahab, who dies in the city, the dogs will eat, and the one who dies in the field the birds of heaven will eat.”

1 Kings 21:25 Surely there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do evil in the sight of the LORD, because Jezebel his wife incited him.

1 Kings 21:26 He acted very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel.

1 Kings 21:27 It came about when Ahab heard these words, that he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and fasted, and he lay in sackcloth and went about despondently.

1 Kings 21:28 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

1 Kings 21:29 “Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days, [but] I will bring the evil upon his house in his son’s days.”

1 Kings 22:1 Three years passed without war between Aram and Israel.

1 Kings 22:2 In the third year Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:3 Now the king of Israel said to his servants, “Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us, and we are still doing nothing to take it out of the hand of the king of Aram?”

1 Kings 22:4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?” And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

1 Kings 22:5 Moreover, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please inquire first for the word of the LORD.”

1 Kings 22:6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle or shall I refrain?” And they said, “Go up, for the Lord will give [it] into the hand of the king.”

1 Kings 22:7 But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not yet a prophet of the LORD here that we may inquire of him?”

1 Kings 22:8 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. [He is] Micaiah son of Imlah.” But Jehoshaphat said, “Let not the king say so.”

1 Kings 22:9 Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, “Bring quickly Micaiah son of Imlah.”

1 Kings 22:10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in [their] robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

1 Kings 22:11 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are consumed.’“

1 Kings 22:12 All the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and prosper, for the LORD will give [it] into the hand of the king.”

1 Kings 22:13 Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, “Behold now, the words of the prophets are uniformly favorable to the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably.”

1 Kings 22:14 But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I shall speak.”

1 Kings 22:15 When he came to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we refrain?” And he answered him, “Go up and succeed, and the LORD will give [it] into the hand of the king.”

1 Kings 22:16 Then the king said to him, “How many times must I adjure you to speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

1 Kings 22:17 So he said, “I saw all Israel Scattered on the mountains, Like sheep which have no shepherd. And the LORD said, ‘These have no master. Let each of them return to his house in peace.’“

1 Kings 22:18 Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

1 Kings 22:19 Micaiah said, “Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him on His right and on His left.

1 Kings 22:20 “The LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’ And one said this while another said that.

1 Kings 22:21 “Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’

1 Kings 22:22 “The LORD said to him, ‘How?’ And he said, ‘I will go out and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Then He said, ‘You are to entice [him] and also prevail. Go and do so.’

1 Kings 22:23 “Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the LORD has proclaimed disaster against you.”

1 Kings 22:24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, “How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?”

1 Kings 22:25 Micaiah said, “Behold, you shall see on that day when you enter an inner room to hide yourself.”

1 Kings 22:26 Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son;

1 Kings 22:27 and say, ‘Thus says the king, “Put this man in prison and feed him sparingly with bread and water until I return safely.”‘“

1 Kings 22:28 Micaiah said, “If you indeed return safely the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Listen, all you people.”

1 Kings 22:29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

1 Kings 22:30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.

1 Kings 22:31 Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, “Do not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel alone.”

1 Kings 22:32 So when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “Surely it is the king of Israel,” and they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

1 Kings 22:33 When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

1 Kings 22:34 Now a certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel in a joint of the armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the fight; for I am severely wounded.”

1 Kings 22:35 The battle raged that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot in front of the Arameans, and died at evening, and the blood from the wound ran into the bottom of the chariot.

1 Kings 22:36 Then a cry passed throughout the army close to sunset, saying, “Every man to his city and every man to his country.”

1 Kings 22:37 So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

1 Kings 22:38 They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood (now the harlots bathed themselves [there]), according to the word of the LORD which He spoke.

1 Kings 22:39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did and the ivory house which he built and all the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 22:40 So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 22:41 Now Jehoshaphat the son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

1 Kings 22:43 He walked in all the way of Asa his father; he did not turn aside from it, doing right in the sight of the LORD. However, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense on the high places.

1 Kings 22:44 Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might which he showed and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

1 Kings 22:46 The remnant of the sodomites who remained in the days of his father Asa, he expelled from the land.

1 Kings 22:47 Now there was no king in Edom; a deputy was king.

1 Kings 22:48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber.

1 Kings 22:49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Let my servants go with your servants in the ships.” But Jehoshaphat was not willing.

1 Kings 22:50 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and Jehoram his son became king in his place.

1 Kings 22:51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel.

1 Kings 22:52 He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

1 Kings 22:53 So he served Baal and worshiped him and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

2 Kings

1:1 Now Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

2 Kings 1:2 And Ahaziah fell through the lattice in his upper chamber which [was] in Samaria, and became ill. So he sent messengers and said to them, “Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover from this sickness.”

2 Kings 1:3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel [that] you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?’

2 Kings 1:4 “Now therefore thus says the LORD, ‘You shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you shall surely die.’“ Then Elijah departed.

2 Kings 1:5 When the messengers returned to him he said to them, “Why have you returned?”

2 Kings 1:6 They said to him, “A man came up to meet us and said to us, ‘Go, return to the king who sent you and say to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel [that] you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.’““

2 Kings 1:7 He said to them, “What kind of man was he who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?”

2 Kings 1:8 They answered him, “[He was] a hairy man with a leather girdle bound about his loins.” And he said, “It is Elijah the Tishbite.”

2 Kings 1:9 Then [the king] sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him, and behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he said to him, “O man of God, the king says, ‘Come down.’“

2 Kings 1:10 Elijah replied to the captain of fifty, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

2 Kings 1:11 So he again sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he said to him, “O man of God, thus says the king, ‘Come down quickly.’“

2 Kings 1:12 Elijah replied to them, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

2 Kings 1:13 So he again sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. When the third captain of fifty went up, he came and bowed down on his knees before Elijah, and begged him and said to him, “O man of God, please let my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight.

2 Kings 1:14 “Behold fire came down from heaven and consumed the first two captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight.”

2 Kings 1:15 The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So he arose and went down with him to the king.

2 Kings 1:16 Then he said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron— is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word?— therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.’“

2 Kings 1:17 So Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And because he had no son, Jehoram became king in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

2 Kings 1:18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 2:1 And it came about when the LORD was about to take up Elijah by a whirlwind to heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

2 Kings 2:2 Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here please, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

2 Kings 2:3 Then the sons of the prophets who [were at] Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?” And he said, “Yes, I know; be still.”

2 Kings 2:4 Elijah said to him, “Elisha, please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho.

2 Kings 2:5 The sons of the prophets who [were] at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?” And he answered, “Yes, I know; be still.”

2 Kings 2:6 Then Elijah said to him, “Please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” And he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on.

2 Kings 2:7 Now fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite [them] at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.

2 Kings 2:8 Elijah took his mantle and folded it together and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

2 Kings 2:9 When they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you.” And Elisha said, “Please, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me.”

2 Kings 2:10 He said, “You have asked a hard thing. [Nevertheless], if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be [so].”

2 Kings 2:11 As they were going along and talking, behold, [there appeared] a chariot of fire and horses of fire which separated the two of them. And Elijah went up by a whirlwind to heaven.

2 Kings 2:12 Elisha saw [it] and cried out, “My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!” And he saw Elijah no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

2 Kings 2:13 He also took up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and returned and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

2 Kings 2:14 He took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and struck the waters and said, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” And when he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha crossed over.

2 Kings 2:15 Now when the sons of the prophets who [were] at Jericho opposite [him] saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” And they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

2 Kings 2:16 They said to him, “Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men, please let them go and search for your master; perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him on some mountain or into some valley.” And he said, “You shall not send.”

2 Kings 2:17 But when they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, “Send.” They sent therefore fifty men; and they searched three days but did not find him.

2 Kings 2:18 They returned to him while he was staying at Jericho; and he said to them, “Did I not say to you, ‘Do not go ‘?”

2 Kings 2:19 Then the men of the city said to Elisha, “Behold now, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad and the land is unfruitful.”

2 Kings 2:20 He said, “Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it.” So they brought [it] to him.

2 Kings 2:21 He went out to the spring of water and threw salt in it and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘I have purified these waters; there shall not be from there death or unfruitfulness any longer.’“

2 Kings 2:22 So the waters have been purified to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

2 Kings 2:23 Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up by the way, young lads came out from the city and mocked him and said to him, “Go up, you baldhead; go up, you baldhead!”

2 Kings 2:24 When he looked behind him and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and tore up forty-two lads of their number.

2 Kings 2:25 He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3:1 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 Kings 3:2 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and his mother; for he put away the [sacred] pillar of Baal which his father had made.

2 Kings 3:3 Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

2 Kings 3:4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder, and used to pay the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams.

2 Kings 3:5 But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

2 Kings 3:6 And King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.

2 Kings 3:7 Then he went and sent [word] to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” And he said, “I will go up; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

2 Kings 3:8 He said, “Which way shall we go up?” And he answered, “The way of the wilderness of Edom.”

2 Kings 3:9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days’ journey, and there was no water for the army or for the cattle that followed them.

2 Kings 3:10 Then the king of Israel said, “Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab.”

2 Kings 3:11 But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?” And one of the king of Israel’s servants answered and said, “Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.”

2 Kings 3:12 Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

2 Kings 3:13 Now Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What do I have to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother.” And the king of Israel said to him, “No, for the LORD has called these three kings [together] to give them into the hand of Moab.”

2 Kings 3:14 Elisha said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look at you nor see you.

2 Kings 3:15 “But now bring me a minstrel.” And it came about, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

2 Kings 3:16 He said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Make this valley full of trenches.’

2 Kings 3:17 “For thus says the LORD, ‘You shall not see wind nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, both you and your cattle and your beasts.

2 Kings 3:18 ‘This is but a slight thing in the sight of the LORD; He will also give the Moabites into your hand.

2 Kings 3:19 ‘Then you shall strike every fortified city and every choice city, and fell every good tree and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.’“

2 Kings 3:20 It happened in the morning about the time of offering the sacrifice, that behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

2 Kings 3:21 Now all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. And all who were able to put on armor and older were summoned and stood on the border.

2 Kings 3:22 They rose early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water opposite [them] as red as blood.

2 Kings 3:23 Then they said, “This is blood; the kings have surely fought together, and they have slain one another. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!”

2 Kings 3:24 But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites arose and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land, slaughtering the Moabites.

2 Kings 3:25 Thus they destroyed the cities; and each one threw a stone on every piece of good land and filled it. So they stopped all the springs of water and felled all the good trees, until in Kir-hareseth [only] they left its stones; however, the slingers went about [it] and struck it.

2 Kings 3:26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him 700 men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not.

2 Kings 3:27 Then he took his oldest son who was to reign in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. And there came great wrath against Israel, and they departed from him and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4:1 Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, “Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD; and the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves.”

2 Kings 4:2 Elisha said to her, “What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?” And she said, “Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil.”

2 Kings 4:3 Then he said, “Go, borrow vessels at large for yourself from all your neighbors, [even] empty vessels; do not get a few.

2 Kings 4:4 “And you shall go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour out into all these vessels, and you shall set aside what is full.”

2 Kings 4:5 So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons; they were bringing [the vessels] to her and she poured.

2 Kings 4:6 When the vessels were full, she said to her son, “Bring me another vessel.” And he said to her, “There is not one vessel more.” And the oil stopped.

2 Kings 4:7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, “Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you [and] your sons can live on the rest.”

2 Kings 4:8 Now there came a day when Elisha passed over to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman, and she persuaded him to eat food. And so it was, as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat food.

2 Kings 4:9 She said to her husband, “Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God passing by us continually.

2 Kings 4:10 “Please, let us make a little walled upper chamber and let us set a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; and it shall be, when he comes to us, [that] he can turn in there.”

2 Kings 4:11 One day he came there and turned in to the upper chamber and rested.

2 Kings 4:12 Then he said to Gehazi his servant, “Call this Shunammite.” And when he had called her, she stood before him.

2 Kings 4:13 He said to him, “Say now to her, ‘Behold, you have been careful for us with all this care; what can I do for you? Would you be spoken for to the king or to the captain of the army?'" And she answered, "I live among my own people."

2 Kings 4:14 So he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Truly she has no son and her husband is old."

2 Kings 4:15 He said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

2 Kings 4:16 Then he said, "At this season next year you will embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord, O man of God, do not lie to your maidservant."

2 Kings 4:17 The woman conceived and bore a son at that season the next year, as Elisha had said to her.

2 Kings 4:18 When the child was grown, the day came that he went out to his father to the reapers.

2 Kings 4:19 He said to his father, "My head, my head." And he said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother."

2 Kings 4:20 When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her lap until noon, and [then] died.

2 Kings 4:21 She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the door] behind him and went out.

2 Kings 4:22 Then she called to her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and return."

2 Kings 4:23 He said, "Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor sabbath." And she said, "[It will be] well."

2 Kings 4:24 Then she saddled a donkey and said to her servant, "Drive and go forward; do not slow down the pace for me unless I tell you."

2 Kings 4:25 So she went and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Behold, there is the Shunammite.

2 Kings 4:26 "Please run now to meet her and say to her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?'" And she answered, "It is well."

2 Kings 4:27 When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. And Gehazi came near to push her away; but the man of God said, "Let her alone, for her soul is troubled within her; and the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me."

2 Kings 4:28 Then she said, "Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me'?"

2 Kings 4:29 Then he said to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins and take my staff in your hand, and go your way; if you meet any man, do not salute him, and if anyone salutes you, do not answer him; and lay my staff on the lad's face."

2 Kings 4:30 The mother of the lad said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." And he arose and followed her.

2 Kings 4:31 Then Gehazi passed on before them and laid the staff on the lad's face, but there was no sound or response. So he returned to meet him and told him, "The lad has not awakened."

2 Kings 4:32 When Elisha came into the house, behold the lad was dead and laid on his bed.

2 Kings 4:33 So he entered and shut the door behind them both and prayed to the LORD.

2 Kings 4:34 And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands, and he stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child became warm.

2 Kings 4:35 Then he returned and walked in the house once back and forth, and went up and stretched himself on him; and the lad sneezed seven times and the lad opened his eyes.

2 Kings 4:36 He called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, "Take up your son."

2 Kings 4:37 Then she went in and fell at his feet and bowed herself to the ground, and she took up her son and went out.

2 Kings 4:38 When Elisha returned to Gilgal, [there was] a famine in the land. As the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."

2 Kings 4:39 Then one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, for they did not know [what they were].

2 Kings 4:40 So they poured [it] out for the men to eat. And as they were eating of the stew, they cried out and said, "O man of God, there is death in the pot." And they were unable to eat.

2 Kings 4:41 But he said, "Now bring meal." He threw it into the pot and said, "Pour [it] out for the people that they may eat." Then there was no harm in the pot.

2 Kings 4:42 Now a man came from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And he said, "Give [them] to the people that they may eat."

2 Kings 4:43 His attendant said, "What, will I set this before a hundred men?" But he said, "Give [them] to the people that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and have [some] left over.'"

2 Kings 4:44 So he set [it] before them, and they ate and had [some] left over, according to the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 5:1 Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man with his master, and highly respected, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man was also a valiant warrior, [but he was] a leper.

2 Kings 5:2 Now the Arameans had gone out in bands and had taken captive a little girl from the land of Israel; and she waited on Naaman's wife.

2 Kings 5:3 She said to her mistress, "I wish that my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his leprosy."

2 Kings 5:4 Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus spoke the girl who is from the land of Israel."

2 Kings 5:5 Then the king of Aram said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." He departed and took with him ten talents of silver and six thousand [shekels] of gold and ten changes of clothes.

2 Kings 5:6 He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "And now as this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may cure him of his leprosy."

2 Kings 5:7 When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man is sending [word] to me to cure a man of his leprosy? But consider now, and see how he is seeking a quarrel against me."

2 Kings 5:8 It happened when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent [word] to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Now let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

2 Kings 5:9 So Naaman came with his horses and his chariots and stood at the doorway of the house of Elisha.

2 Kings 5:10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will be restored to you and [you will] be clean."

2 Kings 5:11 But Naaman was furious and went away and said, "Behold, I thought, 'He will surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper.'

2 Kings 5:12 "Are not Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

2 Kings 5:13 Then his servants came near and spoke to him and said, "My father, had the prophet told you [to do some] great thing, would you not have done [it]? How much more [then], when he says to you, ‘Wash, and be clean ‘?”

2 Kings 5:14 So he went down and dipped [himself] seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child and he was clean.

2 Kings 5:15 When he returned to the man of God with all his company, and came and stood before him, he said, “Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel; so please take a present from your servant now.”

2 Kings 5:16 But he said, “As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will take nothing.” And he urged him to take [it], but he refused.

2 Kings 5:17 Naaman said, “If not, please let your servant at least be given two mules’ load of earth; for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering nor will he sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.

2 Kings 5:18 “In this matter may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon your servant in this matter.”

2 Kings 5:19 He said to him, “Go in peace.” So he departed from him some distance.

2 Kings 5:20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, thought, “Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Aramean, by not receiving from his hands what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him.”

2 Kings 5:21 So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him and said, “Is all well?”

2 Kings 5:22 He said, “All is well. My master has sent me, saying, ‘Behold, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.’“

2 Kings 5:23 Naaman said, “Be pleased to take two talents.” And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes and gave them to two of his servants; and they carried [them] before him.

2 Kings 5:24 When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand and deposited them in the house, and he sent the men away, and they departed.

2 Kings 5:25 But he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, “Where have you been, Gehazi?” And he said, “Your servant went nowhere.”

2 Kings 5:26 Then he said to him, “Did not my heart go [with you], when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money and to receive clothes and olive groves and vineyards and sheep and oxen and male and female servants?

2 Kings 5:27 “Therefore, the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and to your descendants forever.” So he went out from his presence a leper [as white] as snow.

2 Kings 6:1 Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “Behold now, the place before you where we are living is too limited for us.

2 Kings 6:2 “Please let us go to the Jordan and each of us take from there a beam, and let us make a place there for ourselves where we may live.” So he said, “Go.”

2 Kings 6:3 Then one said, “Please be willing to go with your servants.” And he answered, “I shall go.”

2 Kings 6:4 So he went with them; and when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

2 Kings 6:5 But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, “Alas, my master! For it was borrowed.”

2 Kings 6:6 Then the man of God said, “Where did it fall?” And when he showed him the place, he cut off a stick and threw [it] in there, and made the iron float.

2 Kings 6:7 He said, “Take it up for yourself.” So he put out his hand and took it.

2 Kings 6:8 Now the king of Aram was warring against Israel; and he counseled with his servants saying, “In such and such a place shall be my camp.”

2 Kings 6:9 The man of God sent [word] to the king of Israel saying, “Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Arameans are coming down there.”

2 Kings 6:10 The king of Israel sent to the place about which the man of God had told him; thus he warned him, so that he guarded himself there, more than once or twice.

2 Kings 6:11 Now the heart of the king of Aram was enraged over this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, “Will you tell me which of us is for the king of Israel?”

2 Kings 6:12 One of his servants said, “No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.”

2 Kings 6:13 So he said, “Go and see where he is, that I may send and take him.” And it was told him, saying, “Behold, he is in Dothan.”

2 Kings 6:14 He sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

2 Kings 6:15 Now when the attendant of the man of God had risen early and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was circling the city. And his servant said to him, “Alas, my master! What shall we do?”

2 Kings 6:16 So he answered, “Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

2 Kings 6:17 Then Elisha prayed and said, “O LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see.” And the LORD opened the servant’s eyes and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

2 Kings 6:18 When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, “Strike this people with blindness, I pray.” So He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

2 Kings 6:19 Then Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, nor is this the city; follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek.” And he brought them to Samaria.

2 Kings 6:20 When they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, “O LORD, open the eyes of these [men], that they may see.” So the LORD opened their eyes and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

2 Kings 6:21 Then the king of Israel when he saw them, said to Elisha, “My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?”

2 Kings 6:22 He answered, “You shall not kill [them]. Would you kill those you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master.”

2 Kings 6:23 So he prepared a great feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the marauding bands of Arameans did not come again into the land of Israel.

2 Kings 6:24 Now it came about after this, that Ben-hadad king of Aram gathered all his army and went up and besieged Samaria.

2 Kings 6:25 There was a great famine in Samaria; and behold, they besieged it, until a donkey’s head was sold for eighty [shekels] of silver, and a fourth of a kab of dove’s dung for five [shekels] of silver.

2 Kings 6:26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall a woman cried out to him, saying, “Help, my lord, O king!”

2 Kings 6:27 He said, “If the LORD does not help you, from where shall I help you? From the threshing floor, or from the wine press?”

2 Kings 6:28 And the king said to her, “What is the matter with you?” And she answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give your son that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.’

2 Kings 6:29 “So we boiled my son and ate him; and I said to her on the next day, ‘Give your son, that we may eat him’; but she has hidden her son.”

2 Kings 6:30 When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes— now he was passing by on the wall— and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth beneath on his body.

2 Kings 6:31 Then he said, “May God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today.”

2 Kings 6:32 Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And [the king] sent a man from his presence; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, “Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold the door shut against him. Is not the sound of his master’s feet behind him?”

2 Kings 6:33 While he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him and he said, “Behold, this evil is from the LORD; why should I wait for the LORD any longer?”

2 Kings 7:1 Then Elisha said, “Listen to the word of the LORD; thus says the LORD, ‘Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will be [sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.’“

2 Kings 7:2 The royal officer on whose hand the king was leaning answered the man of God and said, “Behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, could this thing be?” Then he said, “Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat of it.”

2 Kings 7:3 Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, “Why do we sit here until we die?

2 Kings 7:4 “If we say, ‘We will enter the city,’ then the famine is in the city and we will die there; and if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us go over to the camp of the Arameans. If they spare us, we will live; and if they kill us, we will but die.”

2 Kings 7:5 They arose at twilight to go to the camp of the Arameans; when they came to the outskirts of the camp of the Arameans, behold, there was no one there.

2 Kings 7:6 For the Lord had caused the army of the Arameans to hear a sound of chariots and a sound of horses, [even] the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, “Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.”

2 Kings 7:7 Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents and their horses and their donkeys, [even] the camp just as it was, and fled for their life.

2 Kings 7:8 When these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they entered one tent and ate and drank, and carried from there silver and gold and clothes, and went and hid [them]; and they returned and entered another tent and carried from there [also], and went and hid [them].

2 Kings 7:9 Then they said to one another, “We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, but we are keeping silent; if we wait until morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come, let us go and tell the king’s household.”

2 Kings 7:10 So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and they told them, saying, “We came to the camp of the Arameans, and behold, there was no one there, nor the voice of man, only the horses tied and the donkeys tied, and the tents just as they were.”

2 Kings 7:11 The gatekeepers called and told [it] within the king’s household.

2 Kings 7:12 Then the king arose in the night and said to his servants, “I will now tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone from the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, ‘When they come out of the city, we will capture them alive and get into the city.’“

2 Kings 7:13 One of his servants said, “Please, let some [men] take five of the horses which remain, which are left in the city. Behold, they [will be in any case] like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it; behold, they [will be in any case] like all the multitude of Israel who have already perished, so let us send and see.”

2 Kings 7:14 They took therefore two chariots with horses, and the king sent after the army of the Arameans, saying, “Go and see.”

2 Kings 7:15 They went after them to the Jordan, and behold, all the way was full of clothes and equipment which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. Then the messengers returned and told the king.

2 Kings 7:16 So the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. Then a measure of fine flour [was sold] for a shekel and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 7:17 Now the king appointed the royal officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate; but the people trampled on him at the gate, and he died just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.

2 Kings 7:18 It happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, “Two measures of barley for a shekel and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, will be [sold] tomorrow about this time at the gate of Samaria.”

2 Kings 7:19 Then the royal officer answered the man of God and said, “Now behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?” And he said, “Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat of it.”

2 Kings 7:20 And so it happened to him, for the people trampled on him at the gate and he died.

2 Kings 8:1 Now Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, “Arise and go with your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will even come on the land for seven years.”

2 Kings 8:2 So the woman arose and did according to the word of the man of God, and she went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

2 Kings 8:3 At the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went out to appeal to the king for her house and for her field.

2 Kings 8:4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, “Please relate to me all the great things that Elisha has done.”

2 Kings 8:5 As he was relating to the king how he had restored to life the one who was dead, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and for her field. And Gehazi said, “My lord, O king, this is the woman and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.”

2 Kings 8:6 When the king asked the woman, she related [it] to him. So the king appointed for her a certain officer, saying, “Restore all that was hers and all the produce of the field from the day that she left the land even until now.”

2 Kings 8:7 Then Elisha came to Damascus. Now Ben-hadad king of Aram was sick, and it was told him, saying, “The man of God has come here.”

2 Kings 8:8 The king said to Hazael, “Take a gift in your hand and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’“

2 Kings 8:9 So Hazael went to meet him and took a gift in his hand, even every kind of good thing of Damascus, forty camels’ loads; and he came and stood before him and said, “Your son Ben-hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, saying, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’“

2 Kings 8:10 Then Elisha said to him, “Go, say to him, ‘You will surely recover,’ but the LORD has shown me that he will certainly die.”

2 Kings 8:11 He fixed his gaze steadily [on him] until he was ashamed, and the man of God wept.

2 Kings 8:12 Hazael said, “Why does my lord weep?” Then he answered, “Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel: their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword, and their little ones you will dash in pieces, and their women with child you will rip up."

2 Kings 8:13 Then Hazael said, "But what is your servant, [who is but] a dog, that he should do this great thing?" And Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Aram."

2 Kings 8:14 So he departed from Elisha and returned to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me that you would surely recover."

2 Kings 8:15 On the following day, he took the cover and dipped it in water and spread it on his face, so that he died. And Hazael became king in his place.

2 Kings 8:16 Now in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then the king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah became king.

2 Kings 8:17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

2 Kings 8:18 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab became his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Kings 8:19 However, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David His servant, since He had promised him to give a lamp to him through his sons always.

2 Kings 8:20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

2 Kings 8:21 Then Joram crossed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him. And he arose by night and struck the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots; but [his] army fled to their tents.

2 Kings 8:22 So Edom revolted against Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

2 Kings 8:23 The rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 8:24 So Joram slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 8:25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 8:26 Ahaziah [was] twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name [was] Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

2 Kings 8:27 He walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab [had done], because he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

2 Kings 8:28 Then he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead, and the Arameans wounded Joram.

2 Kings 8:29 So King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was sick.

2 Kings 9:1 Now Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, “Gird up your loins, and take this flask of oil in your hand and go to Ramoth-gilead.

2 Kings 9:2 “When you arrive there, search out Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in and bid him arise from among his brothers, and bring him to an inner room.

2 Kings 9:3 “Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I have anointed you king over Israel.”‘ Then open the door and flee and do not wait.”

2 Kings 9:4 So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

2 Kings 9:5 When he came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting, and he said, “I have a word for you, O captain.” And Jehu said, “For which [one] of us?” And he said, “For you, O captain.”

2 Kings 9:6 He arose and went into the house, and he poured the oil on his head and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, [even] over Israel.

2 Kings 9:7 ‘You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

2 Kings 9:8 ‘For the whole house of Ahab shall perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male person both bond and free in Israel.

2 Kings 9:9 ‘I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

2 Kings 9:10 ‘The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and none shall bury [her].’“ Then he opened the door and fled.

2 Kings 9:11 Now Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, “Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?” And he said to them, “You know [very well] the man and his talk.”

2 Kings 9:12 They said, “It is a lie, tell us now.” And he said, “Thus and thus he said to me, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I have anointed you king over Israel.”‘“

2 Kings 9:13 Then they hurried and each man took his garment and placed it under him on the bare steps, and blew the trumpet, saying, “Jehu is king!”

2 Kings 9:14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Now Joram with all Israel was defending Ramoth-gilead against Hazael king of Aram,

2 Kings 9:15 but King Joram had returned to Jezreel to be healed of the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Aram. So Jehu said, “If this is your mind, [then] let no one escape [or] leave the city to go tell [it] in Jezreel.”

2 Kings 9:16 Then Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was lying there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

2 Kings 9:17 Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, “I see a company.” And Joram said, “Take a horseman and send him to meet them and let him say, ‘Is it peace?’“

2 Kings 9:18 So a horseman went to meet him and said, “Thus says the king, ‘Is it peace?’“ And Jehu said, “What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me.” And the watchman reported, “The messenger came to them, but he did not return.”

2 Kings 9:19 Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them and said, “Thus says the king, ‘Is it peace?’“ And Jehu answered, “What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me.”

2 Kings 9:20 The watchman reported, “He came even to them, and he did not return; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously.”

2 Kings 9:21 Then Joram said, “Get ready.” And they made his chariot ready. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu and found him in the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

2 Kings 9:22 When Joram saw Jehu, he said, “Is it peace, Jehu?” And he answered, “What peace, so long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?”

2 Kings 9:23 So Joram reined about and fled and said to Ahaziah, “[There is] treachery, O Ahaziah!”

2 Kings 9:24 And Jehu drew his bow with his full strength and shot Joram between his arms; and the arrow went through his heart and he sank in his chariot.

2 Kings 9:25 Then [Jehu] said to Bidkar his officer, “Take [him] up and cast him into the property of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite, for I remember when you and I were riding together after Ahab his father, that the LORD laid this oracle against him:

2 Kings 9:26 ‘Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will repay you in this property,’ says the LORD. Now then, take and cast him into the property, according to the word of the LORD.”

2 Kings 9:27 When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw [this], he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu pursued him and said, “Shoot him too, in the chariot.” [So they shot him] at the ascent of Gur, which is at Ibleam. But he fled to Megiddo and died there.

2 Kings 9:28 Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave with his fathers in the city of David.

2 Kings 9:29 Now in the eleventh year of Joram, the son of Ahab, Ahaziah became king over Judah.

2 Kings 9:30 When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard [of it], and she painted her eyes and adorned her head and looked out the window.

2 Kings 9:31 As Jehu entered the gate, she said, “Is it well, Zimri, your master’s murderer?”

2 Kings 9:32 Then he lifted up his face to the window and said, “Who is on my side? Who?” And two or three officials looked down at him.

2 Kings 9:33 He said, “Throw her down.” So they threw her down, and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her under foot.

2 Kings 9:34 When he came in, he ate and drank; and he said, “See now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king’s daughter.”

2 Kings 9:35 They went to bury her, but they found nothing more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

2 Kings 9:36 Therefore they returned and told him. And he said, “This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ‘In the property of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;

2 Kings 9:37 and the corpse of Jezebel will be as dung on the face of the field in the property of Jezreel, so they cannot say, “This is Jezebel.”“‘

2 Kings 10:1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent [them] to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to the guardians of [the children of] Ahab, saying,

2 Kings 10:2 “Now, when this letter comes to you, since your master’s sons are with you, as well as the chariots and horses and a fortified city and the weapons,

2 Kings 10:3 select the best and fittest of your master's sons, and set [him] on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

2 Kings 10:4 But they feared greatly and said, "Behold, the two kings did not stand before him; how then can we stand?"

2 Kings 10:5 And the one who [was] over the household, and he who [was] over the city, the elders, and the guardians of [the children], sent [word] to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, all that you say to us we will do, we will not make any man king; do what is good in your sight."

2 Kings 10:6 Then he wrote a letter to them a second time saying, "If you are on my side, and you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow about this time." Now the king's sons, seventy persons, [were] with the great men of the city, [who] were rearing them.

2 Kings 10:7 When the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and slaughtered [them], seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent [them] to him at Jezreel.

2 Kings 10:8 When the messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he said, "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

2 Kings 10:9 Now in the morning he went out and stood and said to all the people, "You are innocent; behold, I conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these?

2 Kings 10:10 "Know then that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the LORD has done what He spoke through His servant Elijah."

2 Kings 10:11 So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his acquaintances and his priests, until he left him without a survivor.

2 Kings 10:12 Then he arose and departed and went to Samaria. On the way while he was at Beth-eked of the shepherds,

2 Kings 10:13 Jehu met the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and said, "Who are you?" And they answered, "We are the relatives of Ahaziah; and we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."

2 Kings 10:14 He said, "Take them alive." So they took them alive and killed them at the pit of Beth-eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

2 Kings 10:15 Now when he had departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab [coming] to meet him; and he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." [Jehu said], "If it is, give [me] your hand." And he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

2 Kings 10:16 He said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.” So he made him ride in his chariot.

2 Kings 10:17 When he came to Samaria, he killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to Elijah.

2 Kings 10:18 Then Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much.

2 Kings 10:19 “Now, summon all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers and all his priests; let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal; whoever is missing shall not live.” But Jehu did it in cunning, so that he might destroy the worshipers of Baal.

2 Kings 10:20 And Jehu said, “Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal.” And they proclaimed [it].

2 Kings 10:21 Then Jehu sent throughout Israel and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And when they went into the house of Baal, the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other.

2 Kings 10:22 He said to the one who [was] in charge of the wardrobe, “Bring out garments for all the worshipers of Baal.” So he brought out garments for them.

2 Kings 10:23 Jehu went into the house of Baal with Jehonadab the son of Rechab; and he said to the worshipers of Baal, “Search and see that there is here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but only the worshipers of Baal.”

2 Kings 10:24 Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed for himself eighty men outside, and he had said, “The one who permits any of the men whom I bring into your hands to escape shall give up his life in exchange.”

2 Kings 10:25 Then it came about, as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the royal officers, “Go in, kill them; let none come out.” And they killed them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the royal officers threw [them] out, and went to the inner room of the house of Baal.

2 Kings 10:26 They brought out the [sacred] pillars of the house of Baal and burned them.

2 Kings 10:27 They also broke down the [sacred] pillar of Baal and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine to this day.

2 Kings 10:28 Thus Jehu eradicated Baal out of Israel.

2 Kings 10:29 However, [as for] the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin, from these Jehu did not depart, [even] the golden calves that [were] at Bethel and that [were] at Dan.

2 Kings 10:30 The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in executing what is right in My eyes, [and] have done to the house of Ahab according to all that [was] in My heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."

2 Kings 10:31 But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, which he made Israel sin.

2 Kings 10:32 In those days the LORD began to cut off [portions] from Israel; and Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:

2 Kings 10:33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.

2 Kings 10:34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu and all that he did and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 10:35 And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 10:36 Now the time which Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria [was] twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11:1 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose and destroyed all the royal offspring.

2 Kings 11:2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So they hid him from Athaliah, and he was not put to death.

2 Kings 11:3 So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD six years, while Athaliah was reigning over the land.

2 Kings 11:4 Now in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him in the house of the LORD. Then he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

2 Kings 11:5 He commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: one third of you, who come in on the sabbath and keep watch over the king's house

2 Kings 11:6 (one third also [shall be] at the gate Sur, and one third at the gate behind the guards), shall keep watch over the house for defense.

2 Kings 11:7 "Two parts of you, [even] all who go out on the sabbath, shall also keep watch over the house of the LORD for the king.

2 Kings 11:8 "Then you shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within the ranks shall be put to death. And be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

2 Kings 11:9 So the captains of hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with those who were to go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

2 Kings 11:10 The priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that [had been] King David's, which [were] in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 11:11 The guards stood each with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, around the king.

2 Kings 11:12 Then he brought the king's son out and put the crown on him and [gave him] the testimony; and they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, "[Long] live the king!"

2 Kings 11:13 When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard [and of] the people, she came to the people in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 11:14 She looked and behold, the king was standing by the pillar, according to the custom, with the captains and the trumpeters beside the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

2 Kings 11:15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks, and whoever follows her put to death with the sword." For the priest said, "Let her not be put to death in the house of the LORD."

2 Kings 11:16 So they seized her, and when she arrived at the horses' entrance of the king's house, she was put to death there.

2 Kings 11:17 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they would be the LORD'S people, also between the king and the people.

2 Kings 11:18 All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 11:19 He took the captains of hundreds and the Carites and the guards and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guards to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

2 Kings 11:20 So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king's house.

2 Kings 11:21 Jehoash was seven years old when he became king.

2 Kings 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 Kings 12:2 Jehoash did right in the sight of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

2 Kings 12:3 Only the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

2 Kings 12:4 Then Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the sacred things which is brought into the house of the LORD, in current money, [both] the money of each man's assessment [and] all the money which any man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD,

2 Kings 12:5 let the priests take it for themselves, each from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the damages of the house wherever any damage may be found."

2 Kings 12:6 But it came about that in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had not repaired the damages of the house.

2 Kings 12:7 Then King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the [other] priests and said to them, "Why do you not repair the damages of the house? Now therefore take no [more] money from your acquaintances, but pay it for the damages of the house."

2 Kings 12:8 So the priests agreed that they would take no [more] money from the people, nor repair the damages of the house.

2 Kings 12:9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid and put it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money which was brought into the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 12:10 When they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came up and tied [it] in bags and counted the money which was found in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 12:11 They gave the money which was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the house of the LORD;

2 Kings 12:12 and to the masons and the stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the damages to the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.

2 Kings 12:13 But there were not made for the house of the LORD silver cups, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver from the money which was brought into the house of the LORD;

2 Kings 12:14 for they gave that to those who did the work, and with it they repaired the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 12:15 Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the men into whose hand they gave the money to pay to those who did the work, for they dealt faithfully.

2 Kings 12:16 The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it was for the priests.

2 Kings 12:17 Then Hazael king of Aram went up and fought against Gath and captured it, and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

2 Kings 12:18 Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things and all the gold that was found among the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent [them] to Hazael king of Aram. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

2 Kings 12:19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 12:20 His servants arose and made a conspiracy and struck down Joash at the house of Millo [as he was] going down to Silla.

2 Kings 12:21 For Jozacar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck [him] and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 13:1 In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel at Samaria, [and he reigned] seventeen years.

2 Kings 13:2 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel sin; he did not turn from them.

2 Kings 13:3 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He gave them continually into the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael.

2 Kings 13:4 Then Jehoahaz entreated the favor of the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them.

2 Kings 13:5 The LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Arameans; and the sons of Israel lived in their tents as formerly.

2 Kings 13:6 Nevertheless they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel sin, but walked in them; and the Asherah also remained standing in Samaria.

2 Kings 13:7 For he left to Jehoahaz of the army not more than fifty horsemen and ten chariots and 10,000 footmen, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

2 Kings 13:8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 13:9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Joash his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] sixteen years.

2 Kings 13:11 He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel sin, but he walked in them.

2 Kings 13:12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 13:13 So Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

2 Kings 13:14 When Elisha became sick with the illness of which he was to die, Joash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him and said, “My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!”

2 Kings 13:15 Elisha said to him, “Take a bow and arrows.” So he took a bow and arrows.

2 Kings 13:16 Then he said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow.” And he put his hand [on it], then Elisha laid his hands on the king’s hands.

2 Kings 13:17 He said, “Open the window toward the east,” and he opened [it]. Then Elisha said, “Shoot!” And he shot. And he said, “The LORD’S arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Aram; for you will defeat the Arameans at Aphek until you have destroyed [them].”

2 Kings 13:18 Then he said, “Take the arrows,” and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground,” and he struck [it] three times and stopped.

2 Kings 13:19 So the man of God was angry with him and said, “You should have struck five or six times, then you would have struck Aram until you would have destroyed [it]. But now you shall strike Aram [only] three times.”

2 Kings 13:20 Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites would invade the land in the spring of the year.

2 Kings 13:21 As they were burying a man, behold, they saw a marauding band; and they cast the man into the grave of Elisha. And when the man touched the bones of Elisha he revived and stood up on his feet.

2 Kings 13:22 Now Hazael king of Aram had oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

2 Kings 13:23 But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them and turned to them because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them or cast them from His presence until now.

2 Kings 13:24 When Hazael king of Aram died, Ben-hadad his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 13:25 Then Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again from the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken in war from the hand of Jehoahaz his father. Three times Joash defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

2 Kings 14:1 In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah became king.

2 Kings 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

2 Kings 14:3 He did right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father; he did according to all that Joash his father had done.

2 Kings 14:4 Only the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

2 Kings 14:5 Now it came about, as soon as the kingdom was firmly in his hand, that he killed his servants who had slain the king his father.

2 Kings 14:6 But the sons of the slayers he did not put to death, according to what is written in the book of the Law of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the sons, nor the sons be put to death for the fathers; but each shall be put to death for his own sin."

2 Kings 14:7 He killed [of] Edom in the Valley of Salt 10,000 and took Sela by war, and named it Joktheel to this day.

2 Kings 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face each other."

2 Kings 14:9 Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thorn bush which was in Lebanon sent to the cedar which was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trampled the thorn bush.

2 Kings 14:10 "You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has become proud. Enjoy your glory and stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble so that you, even you, would fall, and Judah with you?"

2 Kings 14:11 But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

2 Kings 14:12 Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled each to his tent.

2 Kings 14:13 Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, 400 cubits.

2 Kings 14:14 He took all the gold and silver and all the utensils which were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 14:15 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 14:16 So Jehoash slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 14:17 Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

2 Kings 14:18 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 14:19 They conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

2 Kings 14:20 Then they brought him on horses and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

2 Kings 14:21 All the people of Judah took Azariah, who [was] sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah.

2 Kings 14:22 He built Elath and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

2 Kings 14:23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel became king in Samaria, [and reigned] forty-one years.

2 Kings 14:24 He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin.

2 Kings 14:25 He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which He spoke through His servantJonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath-hepher.

2 Kings 14:26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, [which was] very bitter; for there was neither bond nor free, nor was there any helper for Israel.

2 Kings 14:27 The LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

2 Kings 14:28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam and all that he did and his might, how he fought and how he recovered for Israel, Damascus and Hamath, [which had belonged] to Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 14:29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel, and Zechariah his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 15:1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah became king.

2 Kings 15:2 He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

2 Kings 15:3 He did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

2 Kings 15:4 Only the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

2 Kings 15:5 The LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death. And he lived in a separate house, while Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land.

2 Kings 15:6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 15:7 And Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Jotham his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in Samaria [for] six months.

2 Kings 15:9 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin.

2 Kings 15:10 Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him and struck him before the people and killed him, and reigned in his place.

2 Kings 15:11 Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:12 This is the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." And so it was.

2 Kings 15:13 Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned one month in Samaria.

2 Kings 15:14 Then Menahem son of Gadi went up from Tirzah and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him and became king in his place.

2 Kings 15:15 Now the rest of the acts of Shallum and his conspiracy which he made, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:16 Then Menahem struck Tiphsah and all who were in it and its borders from Tirzah, because they did not open [to him]; therefore he struck [it] and ripped up all its women who were with child.

2 Kings 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel [and reigned] ten years in Samaria.

2 Kings 15:18 He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin.

2 Kings 15:19 Pul, king of Assyria, came against the land, and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand might be with him to strengthen the kingdom under his rule.

2 Kings 15:20 Then Menahem exacted the money from Israel, even from all the mighty men of wealth, from each man fifty shekels of silver to pay the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria returned and did not remain there in the land.

2 Kings 15:21 Now the rest of the acts of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 15:22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 15:23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] two years.

2 Kings 15:24 He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin.

2 Kings 15:25 Then Pekah son of Remaliah, his officer, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the castle of the king's house with Argob and Arieh; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites, and he killed him and became king in his place.

2 Kings 15:26 Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah and all that he did, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] twenty years.

2 Kings 15:28 He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin.

2 Kings 15:29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came and captured Ijon and Abel-beth-maacah and Janoah and Kedesh and Hazor and Gilead and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria.

2 Kings 15:30 And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him and put him to death and became king in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

2 Kings 15:31 Now the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah became king.

2 Kings 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name [was] Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

2 Kings 15:34 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

2 Kings 15:35 Only the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 15:36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 15:37 In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Aram and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.

2 Kings 15:38 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Ahaz his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 16:1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, became king.

2 Kings 16:2 Ahaz [was] twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David [had done].

2 Kings 16:3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and even made his son pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had driven out from before the sons of Israel.

2 Kings 16:4 He sacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills and under every green tree.

2 Kings 16:5 Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to [wage] war; and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.

2 Kings 16:6 At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram, and cleared the Judeans out of Elath entirely; and the Arameans came to Elath and have lived there to this day.

2 Kings 16:7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, “I am your servant and your son; come up and deliver me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me.”

2 Kings 16:8 Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king’s house, and sent a present to the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 16:9 So the king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and captured it, and carried [the people of] it away into exile to Kir, and put Rezin to death.

2 Kings 16:10 Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar which [was] at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the pattern of the altar and its model, according to all its workmanship.

2 Kings 16:11 So Urijah the priest built an altar; according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, thus Urijah the priest made [it], before the coming of King Ahaz from Damascus.

2 Kings 16:12 When the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; then the king approached the altar and went up to it,

2 Kings 16:13 and burned his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

2 Kings 16:14 The bronze altar, which [was] before the LORD, he brought from the front of the house, from between [his] altar and the house of the LORD, and he put it on the north side of [his] altar.

2 Kings 16:15 Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, “Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering and the evening meal offering and the king’s burnt offering and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their meal offering and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. But the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire [by].”

2 Kings 16:16 So Urijah the priest did according to all that King Ahaz commanded.

2 Kings 16:17 Then King Ahaz cut off the borders of the stands, and removed the laver from them; he also took down the sea from the bronze oxen which were under it and put it on a pavement of stone.

2 Kings 16:18 The covered way for the sabbath which they had built in the house, and the outer entry of the king, he removed from the house of the LORD because of the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 16:19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 16:20 So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

2 Kings 17:1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] nine years.

2 Kings 17:2 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, only not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

2 Kings 17:3 Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him, and Hoshea became his servant and paid him tribute.

2 Kings 17:4 But the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, who had sent messengers to So king of Egypt and had offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as [he had done] year by year; so the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison.

2 Kings 17:5 Then the king of Assyria invaded the whole land and went up to Samaria and besieged it three years.

2 Kings 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and carried Israel away into exile to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and Habor, [on] the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

2 Kings 17:7 Now [this] came about because the sons of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and they had feared other gods

2 Kings 17:8 and walked in the customs of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons of Israel, and [in the customs] of the kings of Israel which they had introduced.

2 Kings 17:9 The sons of Israel did things secretly which were not right against the LORD their God. Moreover, they built for themselves high places in all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city.

2 Kings 17:10 They set for themselves [sacred] pillars and Asherim on every high hill and under every green tree,

2 Kings 17:11 and there they burned incense on all the high places as the nations [did] which the LORD had carried away to exile before them; and they did evil things provoking the LORD.

2 Kings 17:12 They served idols, concerning which the LORD had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.”

2 Kings 17:13 Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah through all His prophets [and] every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways and keep My commandments, My statutes according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you through My servants the prophets.”

2 Kings 17:14 However, they did not listen, but stiffened their neck like their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

2 Kings 17:15 They rejected His statutes and His covenant which He made with their fathers and His warnings with which He warned them. And they followed vanity and became vain, and [went] after the nations which surrounded them, concerning which the LORD had commanded them not to do like them.

2 Kings 17:16 They forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God and made for themselves molten images, [even] two calves, and made an Asherah and worshiped all the host of heaven and served Baal.

2 Kings 17:17 Then they made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire, and practiced divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him.

2 Kings 17:18 So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from His sight; none was left except the tribe of Judah.

2 Kings 17:19 Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the customs which Israel had introduced.

2 Kings 17:20 The LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel and afflicted them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them out of His sight.

2 Kings 17:21 When He had torn Israel from the house of David, they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD and made them commit a great sin.

2 Kings 17:22 The sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them

2 Kings 17:23 until the LORD removed Israel from His sight, as He spoke through all His servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away into exile from their own land to Assyria until this day.

2 Kings 17:24 The king of Assyria brought [men] from Babylon and from Cuthah and from Avva and from Hamath and Sephar-vaim, and settled [them] in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel. So they possessed Samaria and lived in its cities.

2 Kings 17:25 At the beginning of their living there, they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them which killed some of them.

2 Kings 17:26 So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, “The nations whom you have carried away into exile in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the god of the land; so he has sent lions among them, and behold, they kill them because they do not know the custom of the god of the land."

2 Kings 17:27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Take there one of the priests whom you carried away into exile and let him go and live there; and let him teach them the custom of the god of the land."

2 Kings 17:28 So one of the priests whom they had carried away into exile from Samaria came and lived at Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

2 Kings 17:29 But every nation still made gods of its own and put them in the houses of the high places which the people of Samaria had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.

2 Kings 17:30 The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima,

2 Kings 17:31 and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaim.

2 Kings 17:32 They also feared the LORD and appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who acted for them in the houses of the high places.

2 Kings 17:33 They feared the LORD and served their own gods according to the custom of the nations from among whom they had been carried away into exile.

2 Kings 17:34 To this day they do according to the earlier customs: they do not fear the LORD, nor do they follow their statutes or their ordinances or the law, or the commandments which the LORD commanded the sons of Jacob, whom He named Israel;

2 Kings 17:35 with whom the LORD made a covenant and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down yourselves to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them.

2 Kings 17:36 "But the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, and to Him you shall bow yourselves down, and to Him you shall sacrifice.

2 Kings 17:37 "The statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall observe to do forever; and you shall not fear other gods.

2 Kings 17:38 "The covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods.

2 Kings 17:39 "But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."

2 Kings 17:40 However, they did not listen, but they did according to their earlier custom.

2 Kings 17:41 So while these nations feared the LORD, they also served their idols; their children likewise and their grandchildren, as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

2 Kings 18:1 Now it came about in the third year of Hoshea, the son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah became king.

2 Kings 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

2 Kings 18:3 He did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

2 Kings 18:4 He removed the high places and broke down the [sacred] pillars and cut down the Asherah. He also broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and it was called Nehushtan.

2 Kings 18:5 He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; so that after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor [among those] who were before him.

2 Kings 18:6 For he clung to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.

2 Kings 18:7 And the LORD was with him; wherever he went he prospered. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

2 Kings 18:8 He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

2 Kings 18:9 Now in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.

2 Kings 18:10 At the end of three years they captured it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was captured.

2 Kings 18:11 Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away into exile to Assyria, and put them in Halah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,

2 Kings 18:12 because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant, [even] all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded; they would neither listen nor do [it].

2 Kings 18:13 Now in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and seized them.

2 Kings 18:14 Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong. Withdraw from me; whatever you impose on me I will bear.” So the king of Assyria required of Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

2 Kings 18:15 Hezekiah gave [him] all the silver which was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king’s house.

2 Kings 18:16 At that time Hezekiah cut off [the gold from] the doors of the temple of the LORD, and [from] the doorposts which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 18:17 Then the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a large army to Jerusalem. So they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they went up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway of the fuller’s field.

2 Kings 18:18 When they called to the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebnah the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, came out to them.

2 Kings 18:19 Then Rabshakeh said to them, “Say now to Hezekiah, ‘Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, “What is this confidence that you have?

2 Kings 18:20 “You say (but [they are] only empty words), ‘[I have] counsel and strength for the war.’ Now on whom do you rely, that you have rebelled against me?

2 Kings 18:21 “Now behold, you rely on the staff of this crushed reed, [even] on Egypt; on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

2 Kings 18:22 “But if you say to me, ‘We trust in the LORD our God,’ is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem ‘?

2 Kings 18:23 “Now therefore, come, make a bargain with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.

2 Kings 18:24 “How then can you repulse one official of the least of my master’s servants, and rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

2 Kings 18:25 “Have I now come up without the LORD’S approval against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, ‘Go up against this land and destroy it.’““

2 Kings 18:26 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebnah and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, “Speak now to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand [it]; and do not speak with us in Judean in the hearing of the people who are on the wall.”

2 Kings 18:27 But Rabshakeh said to them, “Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words, [and] not to the men who sit on the wall, [doomed] to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?”

2 Kings 18:28 Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in Judean, saying, “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 18:29 “Thus says the king, ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you from my hand;

2 Kings 18:30 nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, “The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”

2 Kings 18:31 ‘Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, “Make your peace with me and come out to me, and eat each of his vine and each of his fig tree and drink each of the waters of his own cistern,

2 Kings 18:32 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, that you may live and not die.” But do not listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you, saying, “The LORD will deliver us.”

2 Kings 18:33 ‘Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

2 Kings 18:34 ‘Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand?

2 Kings 18:35 ‘Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their land from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?’“

2 Kings 18:36 But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king’s commandment was, “Do not answer him.”

2 Kings 18:37 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

2 Kings 19:1 And when King Hezekiah heard [it], he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth and entered the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 19:2 Then he sent Eliakim who was over the household with Shebna the scribe and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

2 Kings 19:3 They said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah, ‘This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and rejection; for children have come to birth and there is no strength to [deliver].

2 Kings 19:4 ‘Perhaps the LORD your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for the remnant that is left.’“

2 Kings 19:5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

2 Kings 19:6 Isaiah said to them, “Thus you shall say to your master, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

2 Kings 19:7 “Behold, I will put a spirit in him so that he will hear a rumor and return to his own land. And I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.”‘“

2 Kings 19:8 Then Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

2 Kings 19:9 When he heard [them] say concerning Tirhakah king of Cush, “Behold, he has come out to fight against you,” he sent messengers again to Hezekiah saying,

2 Kings 19:10 “Thus you shall say to Hezekiah king of Judah, ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you saying, “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”

2 Kings 19:11 ‘Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. So will you be spared?

2 Kings 19:12 ‘Did the gods of those nations which my fathers destroyed deliver them, [even] Gozan and Haran and Rezeph and the sons of Eden who [were] in Telassar?

2 Kings 19:13 ‘Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, and [of] Hena and Ivvah?’“

2 Kings 19:14 Then Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the house of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

2 Kings 19:15 Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, who are enthroned [above] the cherubim, You are the God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

2 Kings 19:16 “Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and listen to the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God.

2 Kings 19:17 “Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands

2 Kings 19:18 and have cast their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone. So they have destroyed them.

2 Kings 19:19 “Now, O LORD our God, I pray, deliver us from his hand that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, O LORD, are God.”

2 Kings 19:20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah saying, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Because you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard [you].’

2 Kings 19:21 “This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him: ‘She has despised you and mocked you, The virgin daughter of Zion; She has shaken [her] head behind you, The daughter of Jerusalem!

2 Kings 19:22 ‘Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised [your] voice, And haughtily lifted up your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

2 Kings 19:23 ‘Through your messengers you have reproached the Lord, And you have said, “With my many chariots I came up to the heights of the mountains, To the remotest parts of Lebanon; And I cut down its tall cedars [and] its choice cypresses. And I entered its farthest lodging place, its thickest forest.

2 Kings 19:24 “I dug [wells] and drank foreign waters, And with the sole of my feet I dried up All the rivers of Egypt.”

2 Kings 19:25 ‘Have you not heard? Long ago I did it; From ancient times I planned it. Now I have brought it to pass, That you should turn fortified cities into ruinous heaps.

2 Kings 19:26 ‘Therefore their inhabitants were short of strength, They were dismayed and put to shame; They were as the vegetation of the field and as the green herb, As grass on the housetops is scorched before it is grown up.

2 Kings 19:27 ‘But I know your sitting down, And your going out and your coming in, And your raging against Me.

2 Kings 19:28 ‘Because of your raging against Me, And because your arrogance has come up to My ears, Therefore I will put My hook in your nose, And My bridle in your lips, And I will turn you back by the way which you came.

2 Kings 19:29 ‘Then this shall be the sign for you: you will eat this year what grows of itself, in the second year what springs from the same, and in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

2 Kings 19:30 ‘The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward.

2 Kings 19:31 ‘For out of Jerusalem will go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion survivors. The zeal of the LORD will perform this.

2 Kings 19:32 ‘Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, “He will not come to this city or shoot an arrow there; and he will not come before it with a shield or throw up a siege ramp against it.

2 Kings 19:33 “By the way that he came, by the same he will return, and he shall not come to this city,”‘ declares the LORD.

2 Kings 19:34 ‘For I will defend this city to save it for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.’“

2 Kings 19:35 Then it happened that night that the angel of the LORD went out and struck 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians; and when men rose early in the morning, behold, all of them were dead.

2 Kings 19:36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned [home], and lived at Nineveh.

2 Kings 19:37 It came about as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 20:1 In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live.’“

2 Kings 20:2 Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying,

2 Kings 20:3 “Remember now, O LORD, I beseech You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart and have done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

2 Kings 20:4 Before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

2 Kings 20:5 “Return and say to Hezekiah the leader of My people, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of your father David, “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 20:6 “I will add fifteen years to your life, and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.”’“

2 Kings 20:7 Then Isaiah said, “Take a cake of figs.” And they took and laid [it] on the boil, and he recovered.

2 Kings 20:8 Now Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?”

2 Kings 20:9 Isaiah said, “This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps or go back ten steps?”

2 Kings 20:10 So Hezekiah answered, “It is easy for the shadow to decline ten steps; no, but let the shadow turn backward ten steps.”

2 Kings 20:11 Isaiah the prophet cried to the LORD, and He brought the shadow on the stairway back ten steps by which it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.

2 Kings 20:12 At that time Berodach-baladan a son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

2 Kings 20:13 Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all his treasure house, the silver and the gold and the spices and the precious oil and the house of his armor and all that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house nor in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

2 Kings 20:14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say, and from where have they come to you?” And Hezekiah said, “They have come from a far country, from Babylon.”

2 Kings 20:15 He said, “What have they seen in your house?” So Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasuries that I have not shown them.”

2 Kings 20:16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 20:17 ‘Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and all that your fathers have laid up in store to this day will be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,’ says the LORD.

2 Kings 20:18 ‘Some of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you will beget, will be taken away; and they will become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.’“

2 Kings 20:19 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “Is it not so, if there will be peace and truth in my days?”

2 Kings 20:20 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 20:21 So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother’s name was Hephzibah.

2 Kings 21:2 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

2 Kings 21:3 For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he erected altars for Baal and made an Asherah, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

2 Kings 21:4 He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “In Jerusalem I will put My name.”

2 Kings 21:5 For he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:6 He made his son pass through the fire, practiced witchcraft and used divination, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD provoking [Him to anger].

2 Kings 21:7 Then he set the carved image of Asherah that he had made, in the house of which the LORD said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever.

2 Kings 21:8 “And I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them.”

2 Kings 21:9 But they did not listen, and Manasseh seduced them to do evil more than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel.

2 Kings 21:10 Now the LORD spoke through His servants the prophets, saying,

2 Kings 21:11 “Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, having done wickedly more than all the Amorites did who [were] before him, and has also made Judah sin with his idols;

2 Kings 21:12 therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I am bringing [such] calamity on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle.

2 Kings 21:13 ‘I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

2 Kings 21:14 ‘I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they will become as plunder and spoil to all their enemies;

2 Kings 21:15 because they have done evil in My sight, and have been provoking Me to anger since the day their fathers came from Egypt, even to this day.’“

2 Kings 21:16 Moreover, Manasseh shed very much innocent blood until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did and his sin which he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 21:18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza, and Amon his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name [was] Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

2 Kings 21:20 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done.

2 Kings 21:21 For he walked in all the way that his father had walked, and served the idols that his father had served and worshiped them.

2 Kings 21:22 So he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:23 The servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his own house.

2 Kings 21:24 Then the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

2 Kings 21:25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 21:26 He was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name [was] Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

2 Kings 22:2 He did right in the sight of the LORD and walked in all the way of his father David, nor did he turn aside to the right or to the left.

2 Kings 22:3 Now in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the LORD saying,

2 Kings 22:4 "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest that he may count the money brought in to the house of the LORD which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people.

2 Kings 22:5 "Let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD, and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the LORD to repair the damages of the house,

2 Kings 22:6 to the carpenters and the builders and the masons and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

2 Kings 22:7 "Only no accounting shall be made with them for the money delivered into their hands, for they deal faithfully."

2 Kings 22:8 Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan who read it.

2 Kings 22:9 Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king and said, “Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD.”

2 Kings 22:10 Moreover, Shaphan the scribe told the king saying, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read it in the presence of the king.

2 Kings 22:11 When the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes.

2 Kings 22:12 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor the son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king’s servant saying,

2 Kings 22:13 “Go, inquire of the LORD for me and the people and all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found, for great is the wrath of the LORD that burns against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us.”

2 Kings 22:14 So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her.

2 Kings 22:15 She said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Tell the man who sent you to me,

2 Kings 22:16 thus says the LORD, “Behold, I bring evil on this place and on its inhabitants, [even] all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read.

2 Kings 22:17 “Because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods that they might provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore My wrath burns against this place, and it shall not be quenched.”‘

2 Kings 22:18 “But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD thus shall you say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, “[Regarding] the words which you have heard,

2 Kings 22:19 because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants that they should become a desolation and a curse, and you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I truly have heard you,” declares the LORD.

2 Kings 22:20 “Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring on this place.”“ So they brought back word to the king.

2 Kings 23:1 Then the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:2 The king went up to the house of the LORD and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 23:3 The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all [his] heart and all [his] soul, to carry out the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people entered into the covenant.

2 Kings 23:4 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest and the priests of the second order and the doorkeepers, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

2 Kings 23:5 He did away with the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah and in the surrounding area of Jerusalem, also those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and to the moon and to the constellations and to all the host of heaven.

2 Kings 23:6 He brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and ground [it] to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the common people.

2 Kings 23:7 He also broke down the houses of the [male] cult prostitutes which [were] in the house of the LORD, where the women were weaving hangings for the Asherah.

2 Kings 23:8 Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates which [were] at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which [were] on one’s left at the city gate.

2 Kings 23:9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

2 Kings 23:10 He also defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire for Molech.

2 Kings 23:11 He did away with the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the official, which [was] in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

2 Kings 23:12 The altars which [were] on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down; and he smashed them there and threw their dust into the brook Kidron.

2 Kings 23:13 The high places which [were] before Jerusalem, which [were] on the right of the mount of destruction which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled.

2 Kings 23:14 He broke in pieces the [sacred] pillars and cut down the Asherim and filled their places with human bones.

2 Kings 23:15 Furthermore, the altar that [was] at Bethel [and] the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down. Then he demolished its stones, ground them to dust, and burned the Asherah.

2 Kings 23:16 Now when Josiah turned, he saw the graves that [were] there on the mountain, and he sent and took the bones from the graves and burned [them] on the altar and defiled it according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.

2 Kings 23:17 Then he said, “What is this monument that I see?” And the men of the city told him, “It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel.”

2 Kings 23:18 He said, “Let him alone; let no one disturb his bones.” So they left his bones undisturbed with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

2 Kings 23:19 Josiah also removed all the houses of the high places which [were] in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made provoking the LORD; and he did to them just as he had done in Bethel.

2 Kings 23:20 All the priests of the high places who [were] there he slaughtered on the altars and burned human bones on them; then he returned to Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:21 Then the king commanded all the people saying, “Celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God as it is written in this book of the covenant.”

2 Kings 23:22 Surely such a Passover had not been celebrated from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and of the kings of Judah.

2 Kings 23:23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was observed to the LORD in Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:24 Moreover, Josiah removed the mediums and the spiritists and the teraphim and the idols and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 23:25 Before him there was no king like him who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; nor did any like him arise after him.

2 Kings 23:26 However, the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath with which His anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.

2 Kings 23:27 The LORD said, “I will remove Judah also from My sight, as I have removed Israel. And I will cast off Jerusalem, this city which I have chosen, and the temple of which I said, ‘My name shall be there.’“

2 Kings 23:28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 23:29 In his days Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates. And King Josiah went to meet him, and when [Pharaoh Neco] saw him he killed him at Megiddo.

2 Kings 23:30 His servants drove his body in a chariot from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

2 Kings 23:31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 Kings 23:32 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

2 Kings 23:33 Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2 Kings 23:34 Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away and brought [him] to Egypt, and he died there.

2 Kings 23:35 So Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land in order to give the money at the command of Pharaoh.

He exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, each according to his valuation, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

2 Kings 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name [was] Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

2 Kings 23:37 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

2 Kings 24:1 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant [for] three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 Kings 24:2 The LORD sent against him bands of Chaldeans, bands of Arameans, bands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites. So He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken through His servants the prophets.

2 Kings 24:3 Surely at the command of the LORD it came upon Judah, to remove [them] from His sight because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done,

2 Kings 24:4 and also for the innocent blood which he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and the LORD would not forgive.

2 Kings 24:5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 24:6 So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.

2 Kings 24:7 The king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates.

2 Kings 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name [was] Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

2 Kings 24:9 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

2 Kings 24:10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.

2 Kings 24:11 And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it.

2 Kings 24:12 Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother and his servants and his captains and his officials. So the king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign.

2 Kings 24:13 He carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, just as the LORD had said.

2 Kings 24:14 Then he led away into exile all Jerusalem and all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

2 Kings 24:15 So he led Jehoiachin away into exile to Babylon; also the king's mother and the king's wives and his officials and the leading men of the land, he led away into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

2 Kings 24:16 All the men of valor, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, one thousand, all strong and fit for war, and these the king of Babylon brought into exile to Babylon.

2 Kings 24:17 Then the king of Babylon made his uncle Mattaniah king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

2 Kings 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 Kings 24:19 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

2 Kings 24:20 For through the anger of the LORD [this] came about in Jerusalem and Judah until He cast them out from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25:1 Now in the ninth year of his reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, camped against it and built a siege wall all around it.

2 Kings 25:2 So the city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

2 Kings 25:3 On the ninth day of the [fourth] month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

2 Kings 25:4 Then the city was broken into, and all the men of war [fled] by night by way of the gate between the two walls beside the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. And they went by way of the Arabah.

2 Kings 25:5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho and all his army was scattered from him.

2 Kings 25:6 Then they captured the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and he passed sentence on him.

2 Kings 25:7 They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah and bound him with bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon.

2 Kings 25:8 Now on the seventh day of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

2 Kings 25:9 He burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every great house he burned with fire.

2 Kings 25:10 So all the army of the Chaldeans who [were with] the captain of the guard broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

2 Kings 25:11 Then the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon and the rest of the people, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away into exile.

2 Kings 25:12 But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.

2 Kings 25:13 Now the bronze pillars which were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea which were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and carried the bronze to Babylon.

2 Kings 25:14 They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the bronze vessels which were used in [temple] service.

2 Kings 25:15 The captain of the guard also took away the firepans and the basins, what was fine gold and what was fine silver.

2 Kings 25:16 The two pillars, the one sea, and the stands which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD— the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight.

2 Kings 25:17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a bronze capital was on it; the height of the capital was three cubits, with a network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze. And the second pillar was like these with network.

2 Kings 25:18 Then the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the second priest, with the three officers of the temple.

2 Kings 25:19 From the city he took one official who was overseer of the men of war, and five of the king's advisers who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

2 Kings 25:20 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

2 Kings 25:21 Then the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was led away into exile from its land.

2 Kings 25:22 Now [as for] the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan over them.

2 Kings 25:23 When all the captains of the forces, they and [their] men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah [governor], they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, namely, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

2 Kings 25:24 Gedaliah swore to them and their men and said to them, “Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you.”

2 Kings 25:25 But it came about in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck Gedaliah down so that he died along with the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

2 Kings 25:26 Then all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces arose and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

2 Kings 25:27 Now it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh [day] of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison;

2 Kings 25:28 and he spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the throne of the kings who [were] with him in Babylon.

2 Kings 25:29 Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes and had his meals in the king’s presence regularly all the days of his life;

2 Kings 25:30 and for his allowance, a regular allowance was given him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

1 Chronicles 4:2 Reaiah the son of Shobal became the father of Jahath, and Jahath became the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These [were] the families of the Zorathites.

1 Chronicles 4:3 These [were] the sons of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash; and the name of their sister [was] Hazzelelponi.

1 Chronicles 4:4 Penuel [was] the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These [were] the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem.

1 Chronicles 4:5 Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

1 Chronicles 4:6 Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

1 Chronicles 4:7 The sons of Helah [were] Zereth, Izhar and Ethnan.

1 Chronicles 4:8 Koz became the father of Anub and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

1 Chronicles 4:9 Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother named him Jabez saying, “Because I bore [him] with pain.”

1 Chronicles 4:10 Now Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, “Oh that You would bless me indeed and enlarge my border, and that Your hand might be with me, and that You would keep [me] from harm that [it] may not pain me!” And God granted him what he requested.

1 Chronicles 4:11 Chelub the brother of Shuhah became the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

1 Chronicles 4:12 Eshton became the father of Beth-rapha and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These are the men of Recah.

1 Chronicles 4:13 Now the sons of Kenaz [were] Othniel and Seraiah. And the sons of Othniel [were] Hathath and Meonothai.

1 Chronicles 4:14 Meonothai became the father of Ophrah, and Seraiah became the father of Joab the father of Ge-harashim, for they were craftsmen.

1 Chronicles 4:15 The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh [were] Iru, Elah and Naam; and the son of Elah [was] Kenaz.

1 Chronicles 4:16 The sons of Jehallelel [were] Ziph and Ziphah, Tiria and Asarel.

1 Chronicles 4:17 The sons of Ezrah [were] Jether, Mered, Epher and Jalon. (And these are the sons of Bithia the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took) and she conceived [and bore] Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

1 Chronicles 4:18 His Jewish wife bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.

1 Chronicles 4:19 The sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, [were] the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

1 Chronicles 4:37 Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah;

1 Chronicles 4:38 these mentioned by name [were] leaders in their families; and their fathers' houses increased greatly.

1 Chronicles 4:39 They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

1 Chronicles 4:40 They found rich and good pasture, and the land was broad and quiet and peaceful; for those who lived there formerly [were] Hamites.

1 Chronicles 4:41 These, recorded by name, came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place, because there was pasture there for their flocks.

1 Chronicles 4:42 From them, from the sons of Simeon, five hundred men went to Mount Seir, with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, as their leaders.

1 Chronicles 4:43 They destroyed the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

1 Chronicles 5:1 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; so that he is not enrolled in the genealogy according to the birthright.

1 Chronicles 5:2 Though Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him [came] the leader, yet the birthright belonged to Joseph),

1 Chronicles 5:3 the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel [were] Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

1 Chronicles 5:4 The sons of Joel [were] Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

1 Chronicles 5:5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,

1 Chronicles 5:6 Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away into exile; he was leader of the Reubenites.

1 Chronicles 5:7 His kinsmen by their families, in the genealogy of their generations, [were] Jeiel the chief, then Zechariah

1 Chronicles 5:8 and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal-meon.

1 Chronicles 5:9 To the east he settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their cattle had increased in the land of Gilead.

1 Chronicles 5:10 In the days of Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand, so that they occupied their tents throughout all the land east of Gilead.

1 Chronicles 5:11 Now the sons of Gad lived opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah.

1 Chronicles 5:12 Joel [was] the chief and Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.

1 Chronicles 5:13 Their kinsmen of their fathers' households [were] Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber, seven.

1 Chronicles 5:14 These [were] the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

1 Chronicles 5:15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, [was] head of their fathers' households.

1 Chronicles 5:16 They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and in its towns, and in all the pasture lands of Sharon, as far as their borders.

1 Chronicles 5:17 All of these were enrolled in the genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

1 Chronicles 5:18 The sons of Reuben and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, [consisting] of valiant men, men who bore shield and sword and shot with bow and [were] skillful in battle, [were] 44,760, who went to war.

1 Chronicles 5:19 They made war against the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab.

1 Chronicles 5:20 They were helped against them, and the Hagrites and all who [were] with them were given into their hand; for they cried out to God in the battle, and He answered their prayers because they trusted in Him.

1 Chronicles 5:21 They took away their cattle: their 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, 2,000 donkeys; and 100,000 men.

1 Chronicles 5:22 For many fell slain, because the war [was] of God. And they settled in their place until the exile.

1 Chronicles 5:23 Now the sons of the half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the land; from Bashan to Baal-hermon and Senir and Mount Hermon they were numerous.

1 Chronicles 5:24 These were the heads of their fathers' households, even Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel, mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their fathers' households.

1 Chronicles 5:25 But they acted treacherously against the God of their fathers and played the harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

1 Chronicles 5:26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul, king of Assyria, even the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away into exile, namely the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

1 Chronicles 6:1 The sons of Levi [were] Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

1 Chronicles 6:2 The sons of Kohath [were] Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

1 Chronicles 6:3 The children of Amram [were] Aaron, Moses and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron [were] Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 6:4 Eleazar became the father of Phinehas, [and] Phinehas became the father of Abishua,

1 Chronicles 6:48 Their kinsmen the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

1 Chronicles 6:49 But Aaron and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

1 Chronicles 6:50 These are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

1 Chronicles 6:51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

1 Chronicles 6:52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son,

1 Chronicles 6:53 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

1 Chronicles 6:54 Now these are their settlements according to their camps within their borders. To the sons of Aaron of the families of the Kohathites (for theirs was the [first] lot),

1 Chronicles 6:55 to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah and its pasture lands around it;

1 Chronicles 6:56 but the fields of the city and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

1 Chronicles 6:57 To the sons of Aaron they gave the [following] cities of refuge: Hebron, Libnah also with its pasture lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

1 Chronicles 6:58 Hilen with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands,

1 Chronicles 6:59 Ashan with its pasture lands and Beth-shemesh with its pasture lands;

1 Chronicles 6:60 and from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its pasture lands, Allemeth with its pasture lands, and Anathoth with its pasture lands. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

1 Chronicles 6:61 Then to the rest of the sons of Kohath [were given] by lot, from the family of the tribe, from the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities.

1 Chronicles 6:62 To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, [were given] from the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Asher, the tribe of Naphtali, and the tribe of Manasseh, thirteen cities in Bashan.

1 Chronicles 6:63 To the sons of Merari [were given] by lot, according to their families, from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad and the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

1 Chronicles 6:64 So the sons of Israel gave to the Levites the cities with their pasture lands.

1 Chronicles 6:65 They gave by lot from the tribe of the sons of Judah, the tribe of the sons of Simeon and the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, these cities which are mentioned by name.

1 Chronicles 6:66 Now some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim.

1 Chronicles 6:67 They gave to them the [following] cities of refuge: Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with its pasture lands, Gezer also with its pasture lands,

1 Chronicles 6:68 Jokmeam with its pasture lands, Beth-horon with its pasture lands,

1 Chronicles 6:69 Aijalon with its pasture lands and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands;

1 Chronicles 6:70 and from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its pasture lands and Bileam with its pasture lands, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.

1 Chronicles 6:71 To the sons of Gershom [were given], from the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands and Ashtaroth with its pasture lands;

1 Chronicles 9:17 Now the gatekeepers [were] Shallum and Akkub and Talmon and Ahiman and their relatives (Shallum the chief

1 Chronicles 9:18 [being stationed] until now at the king's gate to the east). These [were] the gatekeepers for the camp of the sons of Levi.

1 Chronicles 9:19 Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his relatives of his father's house, the Korahites, [were] over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent; and their fathers had been over the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entrance.

1 Chronicles 9:20 Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them previously, [and] the LORD was with him.

1 Chronicles 9:21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting.

1 Chronicles 9:22 All these who were chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds were 212. These were enrolled by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer appointed in their office of trust.

1 Chronicles 9:23 So they and their sons had charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, [even] the house of the tent, as guards.

1 Chronicles 9:24 The gatekeepers were on the four sides, to the east, west, north and south.

1 Chronicles 9:25 Their relatives in their villages [were] to come in every seven days from time to time [to be] with them;

1 Chronicles 9:26 for the four chief gatekeepers who [were] Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God.

1 Chronicles 9:27 They spent the night around the house of God, because the watch was committed to them; and they [were] in charge of opening [it] morning by morning.

1 Chronicles 9:28 Now some of them had charge of the utensils of service, for they counted them when they brought them in and when they took them out.

1 Chronicles 9:29 Some of them also were appointed over the furniture and over all the utensils of the sanctuary and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the frankincense and the spices.

1 Chronicles 9:30 Some of the sons of the priests prepared the mixing of the spices.

1 Chronicles 9:31 Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the responsibility over the things which were baked in pans.

1 Chronicles 9:32 Some of their relatives of the sons of the Kohathites [were] over the showbread to prepare it every sabbath.

1 Chronicles 9:33 Now these are the singers, heads of fathers' [households] of the Levites, [who lived] in the chambers [of the temple] free [from other service]; for they were engaged in their work day and night.

1 Chronicles 9:34 These were heads of fathers' [households] of the Levites according to their generations, chief men, who lived in Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 9:35 In Gibeon Jeiel the father of Gibeon lived, and his wife's name was Maacah,

1 Chronicles 9:36 and his firstborn son [was] Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab,

1 Chronicles 9:37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.

1 Chronicles 9:38 Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. And they also lived with their relatives in Jerusalem opposite their [other] relatives.

1 Chronicles 9:39 Ner became the father of Kish, and Kish became the father of Saul, and Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.

1 Chronicles 9:40 The son of Jonathan [was] Merib-baal; and Merib-baal became the father of Micah.

1 Chronicles 9:41 The sons of Micah [were] Pithon, Melech, Tahrea [and Ahaz].

1 Chronicles 9:42 Ahaz became the father of Jarah, and Jarah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza,

1 Chronicles 9:43 and Moza became the father of Binea and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

1 Chronicles 9:44 Azel had six sons whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru and Ishmael and Sheariah and Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1 Chronicles 10:2 The Philistines closely pursued Saul and his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

1 Chronicles 10:3 The battle became heavy against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was wounded by the archers.

1 Chronicles 10:4 Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised will come and abuse me.” But his armor bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took his sword and fell on it.

1 Chronicles 10:5 When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died.

1 Chronicles 10:6 Thus Saul died with his three sons, and all [those] of his house died together.

1 Chronicles 10:7 When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

1 Chronicles 10:8 It came about the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1 Chronicles 10:9 So they stripped him and took his head and his armor and sent [messengers] around the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

1 Chronicles 10:10 They put his armor in the house of their gods and fastened his head in the house of Dagon.

1 Chronicles 10:11 When all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

1 Chronicles 10:12 all the valiant men arose and took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh, and they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

1 Chronicles 10:13 So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against the LORD, because of the word of the LORD which he did not keep; and also because he asked counsel of a medium, making inquiry [of it],

1 Chronicles 10:14 and did not inquire of the LORD. Therefore He killed him and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11:1 Then all Israel gathered to David at Hebron and said, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

1 Chronicles 11:2 “In times past, even when Saul was king, you [were] the one who led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be prince over My people Israel.’“

1 Chronicles 11:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD through Samuel.

1 Chronicles 11:4 Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, [were] there.

1 Chronicles 11:5 The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You shall not enter here.” Nevertheless David captured the stronghold of Zion (that is, the city of David).

1 Chronicles 11:6 Now David had said, “Whoever strikes down a Jebusite first shall be chief and commander.” Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

1 Chronicles 11:7 Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore it was called the city of David.

1 Chronicles 11:8 He built the city all around, from the Millo even to the surrounding area; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

1 Chronicles 11:9 David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts [was] with him.

1 Chronicles 11:10 Now these are the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

1 Chronicles 11:11 These [constitute] the list of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred whom he killed at one time.

1 Chronicles 11:12 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who [was] one of the three mighty men.

1 Chronicles 11:13 He was with David at Pasdammim when the Philistines were gathered together there to battle, and there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled before the Philistines.

1 Chronicles 11:14 They took their stand in the midst of the plot and defended it, and struck down the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory.

1 Chronicles 11:15 Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam, while the army of the Philistines was camping in the valley of Rephaim.

1 Chronicles 11:16 David was then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines [was] then in Bethlehem.

1 Chronicles 11:17 David had a craving and said, “Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!”

1 Chronicles 11:18 So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which [was] by the gate, and took [it] and brought [it] to David; nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD;

1 Chronicles 11:19 and he said, “Be it far from me before my God that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men [who went] at the risk of their lives? For at the risk of their lives they brought it.” Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

1 Chronicles 11:20 As for Abshai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the thirty, and he swung his spear against three hundred and killed them; and he had a name as well as the thirty.

1 Chronicles 11:21 Of the three in the second [rank] he was the most honored and became their commander; however, he did not attain to the [first] three.

1 Chronicles 11:22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, mighty in deeds, struck down the two [sons of] Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion inside a pit on a snowy day.

1 Chronicles 11:23 He killed an Egyptian, a man of [great] stature five cubits tall. Now in the Egyptian’s hand [was] a spear like a weaver’s beam, but he went down to him with a club and snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

1 Chronicles 11:24 These [things] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and had a name as well as the three mighty men.

1 Chronicles 11:25 Behold, he was honored among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three; and David appointed him over his guard.

1 Chronicles 11:26 Now the mighty men of the armies [were] Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

1 Chronicles 11:27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

1 Chronicles 11:28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,

1 Chronicles 11:29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

1 Chronicles 11:30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

1 Chronicles 11:31 Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

1 Chronicles 11:32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

1 Chronicles 11:33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

1 Chronicles 11:34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite,

1 Chronicles 11:35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur,

1 Chronicles 11:36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

1 Chronicles 11:37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,

1 Chronicles 11:38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri,

1 Chronicles 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

1 Chronicles 11:40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

1 Chronicles 11:41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,

1 Chronicles 11:42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

1 Chronicles 11:43 Hanan the son of Maacah and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

1 Chronicles 11:44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

1 Chronicles 11:45 Jediael the son of Shimri and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

1 Chronicles 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite and Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite,

1 Chronicles 11:47 Eliel and Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Chronicles 12:1 Now these are the ones who came to David at Ziklag, while he was still restricted because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men who helped [him] in war.

1 Chronicles 12:2 They were equipped with bows, using both the right hand and the left [to sling] stones and [to shoot] arrows from the bow; [they were] Saul’s kinsmen from Benjamin.

1 Chronicles 12:3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah and Jehu the Anathothite,

1 Chronicles 12:4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty. Then Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

1 Chronicles 12:5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Haruphite,

1 Chronicles 12:6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, Jashobeam, the Korahites,

1 Chronicles 12:7 and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

1 Chronicles 12:8 From the Gadites there came over to David in the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear, and whose faces were like the faces of lions, and [they were] as swift as the gazelles on the mountains.

1 Chronicles 12:9 Ezer [was] the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

1 Chronicles 12:10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

1 Chronicles 12:11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

1 Chronicles 12:12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

1 Chronicles 12:13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh.

1 Chronicles 12:14 These of the sons of Gad were captains of the army; he who was least was equal to a hundred and the greatest to a thousand.

1 Chronicles 12:15 These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks and they put to flight all those in the valleys, both to the east and to the west.

1 Chronicles 12:16 Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.

1 Chronicles 12:17 David went out to meet them, and said to them, “If you come peacefully to me to help me, my heart shall be united with you; but if to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look on [it] and decide.”

1 Chronicles 12:18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, who was the chief of the thirty, [and he said], “[We] are yours, O David, And with you, O son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, And peace to him who helps you; Indeed, your God helps you!” Then David received them and made them captains of the band.

1 Chronicles 12:19 From Manasseh also some defected to David when he was about to go to battle with the Philistines against Saul. But they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines after consultation sent him away, saying, “At [the cost of] our heads he may defect to his master Saul.”

1 Chronicles 12:20 As he went to Ziklag there defected to him from Manasseh: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, captains of thousands who belonged to Manasseh.

1 Chronicles 12:21 They helped David against the band of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the army.

1 Chronicles 12:22 For day by day [men] came to David to help him, until there was a great army like the army of God.

1 Chronicles 12:23 Now these are the numbers of the divisions equipped for war, who came to David at Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 12:24 The sons of Judah who bore shield and spear [were] 6,800, equipped for war.

1 Chronicles 12:25 Of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor for war, 7,100.

1 Chronicles 12:26 Of the sons of Levi 4,600.

1 Chronicles 12:27 Now Jehoiada was the leader of [the house of] Aaron, and with him were 3,700,

1 Chronicles 12:28 also Zadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father’s house twenty-two captains.

1 Chronicles 12:29 Of the sons of Benjamin, Saul’s kinsmen, 3,000; for until now the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul.

1 Chronicles 12:30 Of the sons of Ephraim 20,800, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers’ households.

1 Chronicles 12:31 Of the half-tribe of Manasseh 18,000, who were designated by name to come and make David king.

1 Chronicles 12:32 Of the sons of Issachar, men who understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do, their chiefs [were] two hundred; and all their kinsmen [were] at their command.

1 Chronicles 12:33 Of Zebulun, there were 50,000 who went out in the army, who could draw up in battle formation with all kinds of weapons of war and helped [David] with an undivided heart.

1 Chronicles 12:34 Of Naphtali [there were] 1,000 captains, and with them 37,000 with shield and spear.

1 Chronicles 12:35 Of the Danites who could draw up in battle formation, [there were] 28,600.

1 Chronicles 12:36 Of Asher [there were] 40,000 who went out in the army to draw up in battle formation.

1 Chronicles 12:37 From the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites and the Gadites and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, [there were] 120,000 with all [kinds] of weapons of war for the battle.

1 Chronicles 12:38 All these, being men of war who could draw up in battle formation, came to Hebron with a perfect heart to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

1 Chronicles 12:39 They were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their kinsmen had prepared for them.

1 Chronicles 12:40 Moreover those who were near to them, [even] as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and on oxen, great quantities of flour cakes, fig cakes and bunches of raisins, wine, oil, oxen and sheep. There was joy indeed in Israel.

1 Chronicles 13:1 Then David consulted with the captains of the thousands and the hundreds, even with every leader.

1 Chronicles 13:2 David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is from the LORD our God, let us send everywhere to our kinsmen who remain in all the land of Israel, also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their cities with pasture lands, that they may meet with us;

1 Chronicles 13:3 and let us bring back the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it in the days of Saul."

1 Chronicles 13:4 Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

1 Chronicles 13:5 So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

1 Chronicles 13:6 David and all Israel went up to Baalah, [that is], to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD who is enthroned [above] the cherubim, where His name is called.

1 Chronicles 13:7 They carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

1 Chronicles 13:8 David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all [their] might, even with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals and with trumpets.

1 Chronicles 13:9 When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, because the oxen nearly upset [it].

1 Chronicles 13:10 The anger of the LORD burned against Uzza, so He struck him down because he put out his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

1 Chronicles 13:11 Then David became angry because of the LORD'S outburst against Uzza; and he called that place Perez-uzza to this day.

1 Chronicles 13:12 David was afraid of God that day, saying, “How can I bring the ark of God [home] to me?”

1 Chronicles 13:13 So David did not take the ark with him to the city of David, but took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

1 Chronicles 13:14 Thus the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; and the LORD blessed the family of Obed-edom with all that he had.

1 Chronicles 14:1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees, masons and carpenters, to build a house for him.

1 Chronicles 14:2 And David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, [and] that his kingdom was highly exalted, for the sake of His people Israel.

1 Chronicles 14:3 Then David took more wives at Jerusalem, and David became the father of more sons and daughters.

1 Chronicles 14:4 These are the names of the children born [to him] in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1 Chronicles 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1 Chronicles 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1 Chronicles 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

1 Chronicles 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard of it and went out against them.

1 Chronicles 14:9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.

1 Chronicles 14:10 David inquired of God, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will You give them into my hand?” Then the LORD said to him, “Go up, for I will give them into your hand.”

1 Chronicles 14:11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there; and David said, “God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like the breakthrough of waters.” Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.

1 Chronicles 14:12 They abandoned their gods there; so David gave the order and they were burned with fire.

1 Chronicles 14:13 The Philistines made yet another raid in the valley.

1 Chronicles 14:14 David inquired again of God, and God said to him, “You shall not go up after them; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the balsam trees.

1 Chronicles 14:15 “It shall be when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.”

1 Chronicles 14:16 David did just as God had commanded him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even as far as Gezer.

1 Chronicles 14:17 Then the fame of David went out into all the lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him on all the nations.

1 Chronicles 15:1 Now [David] built houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

1 Chronicles 15:2 Then David said, “No one is to carry the ark of God but the Levites; for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of God and to minister to Him forever.”

1 Chronicles 15:3 And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place which he had prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:4 David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

1 Chronicles 15:5 of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and 120 of his relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and 220 of his relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:7 of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and 130 of his relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:8 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and 200 of his relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:9 of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and 80 of his relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:10 of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and 112 of his relatives.

1 Chronicles 15:11 Then David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab,

1 Chronicles 15:12 and said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ [households] of the Levites; consecrate yourselves both you and your relatives, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to [the place] that I have prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:13 “Because you did not [carry it] at the first, the LORD our God made an outburst on us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance.”

1 Chronicles 15:14 So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

1 Chronicles 15:15 The sons of the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 15:16 Then David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their relatives the singers, with instruments of music, harps, lyres, loud-sounding cymbals, to raise sounds of joy.

1 Chronicles 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and from his relatives, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and from the sons of Merari their relatives, Ethan the son of Kushaiah,

1 Chronicles 15:18 and with them their relatives of the second rank, Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.

1 Chronicles 15:19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph and Ethan [were appointed] to sound aloud cymbals of bronze;

1 Chronicles 15:20 and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah, with harps [tuned] to alamoth;

1 Chronicles 15:21 and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel and Azaziah, to lead with lyres tuned to the sheminith.

1 Chronicles 15:22 Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was [in charge of] the singing; he gave instruction in singing because he was skillful.

1 Chronicles 15:23 Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah also [were] gatekeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:25 So [it was] David, with the elders of Israel and the captains over thousands, who went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-edom with joy.

1 Chronicles 15:26 Because God was helping the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

1 Chronicles 15:27 Now David was clothed with a robe of fine linen with all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers and Chenaniah the leader of the singing [with] the singers. David also wore an ephod of linen.

1 Chronicles 15:28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the horn, with trumpets, with loud-sounding cymbals, with harps and lyres.

1 Chronicles 15:29 It happened when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and celebrating; and she despised him in her heart.

1 Chronicles 16:1 And they brought in the ark of God and placed it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

1 Chronicles 16:2 When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 16:3 He distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread and a portion [of meat] and a raisin cake.

1 Chronicles 16:4 He appointed some of the Levites [as] ministers before the ark of the LORD, even to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

1 Chronicles 16:5 Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, [then] Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, with musical instruments, harps, lyres; also Asaph [played] loud-sounding cymbals,

1 Chronicles 16:6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests [blew] trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

1 Chronicles 16:7 Then on that day David first assigned Asaph and his relatives to give thanks to the LORD.

1 Chronicles 16:8 Oh give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name; Make known His deeds among the peoples.

1 Chronicles 16:9 Sing to Him, sing praises to Him; Speak of all His wonders.

1 Chronicles 16:10 Glory in His holy name; Let the heart of those who seek the LORD be glad.

1 Chronicles 16:11 Seek the LORD and His strength; Seek His face continually.

1 Chronicles 16:12 Remember His wonderful deeds which He has done, His marvels and the judgments from His mouth,

1 Chronicles 16:13 O seed of Israel His servant, Sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!

1 Chronicles 16:14 He is the LORD our God; His judgments are in all the earth.

1 Chronicles 16:15 Remember His covenant forever, The word which He commanded to a thousand generations,

1 Chronicles 16:16 [The covenant] which He made with Abraham, And His oath to Isaac.

1 Chronicles 16:17 He also confirmed it to Jacob for a statute, To Israel as an everlasting covenant,

1 Chronicles 16:18 Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan, As the portion of your inheritance.”

1 Chronicles 16:19 When they were only a few in number, Very few, and strangers in it,

1 Chronicles 16:20 And they wandered about from nation to nation, And from [one] kingdom to another people,

1 Chronicles 16:21 He permitted no man to oppress them, And He reproved kings for their sakes, [saying],

1 Chronicles 16:22 “Do not touch My anointed ones, And do My prophets no harm.”

1 Chronicles 16:23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.

1 Chronicles 16:24 Tell of His glory among the nations, His wonderful deeds among all the peoples.

1 Chronicles 16:25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; He also is to be feared above all gods.

1 Chronicles 16:26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, But the LORD made the heavens.

1 Chronicles 16:27 Splendor and majesty are before Him, Strength and joy are in His place.

1 Chronicles 16:28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

1 Chronicles 16:29 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; Bring an offering, and come before Him; Worship the LORD in holy array.

1 Chronicles 16:30 Tremble before Him, all the earth; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved.

1 Chronicles 16:31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; And let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns.”

1 Chronicles 16:32 Let the sea roar, and all it contains; Let the field exult, and all that is in it.

1 Chronicles 16:33 Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD; For He is coming to judge the earth.

1 Chronicles 16:34 O give thanks to the LORD, for [He is] good; For His lovingkindness is everlasting.

1 Chronicles 16:35 Then say, “Save us, O God of our salvation, And gather us and deliver us from the nations, To give thanks to Your holy name, And glory in Your praise.”

1 Chronicles 16:36 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, From everlasting even to everlasting. Then all the people said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD.

1 Chronicles 16:37 So he left Asaph and his relatives there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark continually, as every day’s work required;

1 Chronicles 16:38 and Obed-edom with his 68 relatives; Obed-edom, also the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah as gatekeepers.

1 Chronicles 16:39 [He left] Zadok the priest and his relatives the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place which [was] at Gibeon,

1 Chronicles 16:40 to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which He commanded Israel.

1 Chronicles 16:41 With them [were] Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His lovingkindness is everlasting.

1 Chronicles 16:42 And with them [were] Heman and Jeduthun [with] trumpets and cymbals for those who should sound aloud, and [with] instruments [for] the songs of God, and the sons of Jeduthun for the gate.

1 Chronicles 16:43 Then all the people departed each to his house, and David returned to bless his household.

1 Chronicles 17:1 And it came about, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, “Behold, I am dwelling in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains.”

1 Chronicles 17:2 Then Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.”

1 Chronicles 17:3 It came about the same night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

1 Chronicles 17:4 “Go and tell David My servant, ‘Thus says the LORD, “You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in;

1 Chronicles 17:5 for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but I have gone from tent to tent and from [one] dwelling place [to another].

1 Chronicles 17:6 “In all places where I have walked with all Israel, have I spoken a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built for Me a house of cedar?’”‘

1 Chronicles 17:7 “Now, therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader over My people Israel.

1 Chronicles 17:8 “I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name like the name of the great ones who are in the earth.

1 Chronicles 17:9 “I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and not be moved again; and the wicked will not waste them anymore as formerly,

1 Chronicles 17:10 even from the day that I commanded judges [to be] over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover, I tell you that the LORD will build a house for you.

1 Chronicles 17:11 “When your days are fulfilled that you must go [to be] with your fathers, that I will set up [one of] your descendants after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

1 Chronicles 17:12 “He shall build for Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

1 Chronicles 17:13 “I will be his father and he shall be My son; and I will not take My lovingkindness away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.

1 Chronicles 17:14 “But I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forever.”“

1 Chronicles 17:15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

1 Chronicles 17:16 Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD and said, “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house that You have brought me this far?

1 Chronicles 17:17 “This was a small thing in Your eyes, O God; but You have spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the standard of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

1 Chronicles 17:18 “What more can David still [say] to You concerning the honor [bestowed] on Your servant? For You know Your servant.

1 Chronicles 17:19 “O LORD, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have wrought all this greatness, to make known all these great things.

1 Chronicles 17:20 “O LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

1 Chronicles 17:21 “And what one nation in the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself [as] a people, to make You a name by great and terrible things, in driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed out of Egypt?

1 Chronicles 17:22 “For Your people Israel You made Your own people forever, and You, O LORD, became their God.

1 Chronicles 17:23 “Now, O LORD, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do as You have spoken.

1 Chronicles 17:24 “Let Your name be established and magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, [even] a God to Israel; and the house of David Your servant is established before You.’

1 Chronicles 17:25 “For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build for him a house; therefore Your servant has found [courage] to pray before You.

1 Chronicles 17:26 “Now, O LORD, You are God, and have promised this good thing to Your servant.

1 Chronicles 17:27 “And now it has pleased You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You; for You, O LORD, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.”

1 Chronicles 18:1 Now after this it came about that David defeated the Philistines and subdued them and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

1 Chronicles 18:2 He defeated Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute.

1 Chronicles 18:3 David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah [as far as] Hamath, as he went to establish his rule to the Euphrates River.

1 Chronicles 18:4 David took from him 1,000 chariots and 7,000 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers, and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved [enough] of them for 100 chariots.

1 Chronicles 18:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 men of the Arameans.

1 Chronicles 18:6 Then David put [garrisons] among the Arameans of Damascus; and the Arameans became servants to David, bringing tribute. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

1 Chronicles 18:7 David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 18:8 Also from Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a very large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the bronze utensils.

1 Chronicles 18:9 Now when Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,

1 Chronicles 18:10 he sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and had defeated him; for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou. And [Hadoram brought] all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

1 Chronicles 18:11 King David also dedicated these to the LORD with the silver and the gold which he had carried away from all the nations: from Edom, Moab, the sons of Ammon, the Philistines, and from Amalek.

1 Chronicles 18:12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah defeated 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1 Chronicles 18:13 Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

1 Chronicles 18:14 So David reigned over all Israel; and he administered justice and righteousness for all his people.

1 Chronicles 18:15 Joab the son of Zeruiah [was] over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud [was] recorder;

1 Chronicles 18:16 and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar [were] priests, and Shavsha [was] secretary;

1 Chronicles 18:17 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada [was] over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David [were] chiefs at the king's side.

1 Chronicles 19:1 Now it came about after this, that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died, and his son became king in his place.

1 Chronicles 19:2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun to console him.

1 Chronicles 19:3 But the princes of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David is honoring your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

1 Chronicles 19:4 So Hanun took David's servants and shaved them and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their hips, and sent them away.

1 Chronicles 19:5 Then [certain persons] went and told David about the men. And he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and [then] return."

1 Chronicles 19:6 When the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah and from Zobah.

1 Chronicles 19:7 So they hired for themselves 32,000 chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. And the sons of Ammon gathered together from their cities and came to battle.

1 Chronicles 19:8 When David heard [of it], he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.

1 Chronicles 19:9 The sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

1 Chronicles 19:10 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel and they arrayed themselves against the Arameans.

1 Chronicles 19:11 But the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of Abshai his brother; and they arrayed themselves against the sons of Ammon.

1 Chronicles 19:12 He said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

1 Chronicles 19:13 “Be strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what is good in His sight.”

1 Chronicles 19:14 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him.

1 Chronicles 19:15 When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans fled, they also fled before Abshai his brother and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 19:16 When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the River, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer leading them.

1 Chronicles 19:17 When it was told David, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came upon them and drew up in formation against them. And when David drew up in battle array against the Arameans, they fought against him.

1 Chronicles 19:18 The Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed of the Arameans 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers, and put to death Shophach the commander of the army.

1 Chronicles 19:19 So when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. Thus the Arameans were not willing to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

1 Chronicles 20:1 Then it happened in the spring, at the time when kings go out [to battle], that Joab led out the army and ravaged the land of the sons of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it.

1 Chronicles 20:2 David took the crown of their king from his head, and he found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there was a precious stone in it; and it was placed on David’s head. And he brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

1 Chronicles 20:3 He brought out the people who [were] in it, and cut [them] with saws and with sharp instruments and with axes. And thus David did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned [to] Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 20:4 Now it came about after this, that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the giants, and they were subdued.

1 Chronicles 20:5 And there was war with the Philistines again, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear [was] like a weaver’s beam.

1 Chronicles 20:6 Again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of [great] stature who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six [fingers on each hand] and six [toes on each foot]; and he also was descended from the giants.

1 Chronicles 20:7 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David’s brother, killed him.

1 Chronicles 20:8 These were descended from the giants in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1 Chronicles 21:1 Then Satan stood up against Israel and moved David to number Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:2 So David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, “Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan, and bring me [word] that I may know their number.”

1 Chronicles 21:3 Joab said, “May the LORD add to His people a hundred times as many as they are! But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord’s servants? Why does my lord seek this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt to Israel?”

1 Chronicles 21:4 Nevertheless, the king’s word prevailed against Joab. Therefore, Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 21:5 Joab gave the number of the census of [all] the people to David. And all Israel were 1,100,000 men who drew the sword; and Judah [was] 470,000 men who drew the sword.

1 Chronicles 21:6 But he did not number Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king’s command was abhorrent to Joab.

1 Chronicles 21:7 God was displeased with this thing, so He struck Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:8 David said to God, “I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. But now, please take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly.”

1 Chronicles 21:9 The LORD spoke to Gad, David’s seer, saying,

1 Chronicles 21:10 “Go and speak to David, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I offer you three things; choose for yourself one of them, which I will do to you.”‘“

1 Chronicles 21:11 So Gad came to David and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Take for yourself

1 Chronicles 21:12 either three years of famine, or three months to be swept away before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes [you], or else three days of the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.’ Now, therefore, consider what answer I shall return to Him who sent me.”

1 Chronicles 21:13 David said to Gad, “I am in great distress; please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

1 Chronicles 21:14 So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel; 70,000 men of Israel fell.

1 Chronicles 21:15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he was about to destroy [it], the LORD saw and was sorry over the calamity, and said to the destroying angel, “It is enough; now relax your hand.” And the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1 Chronicles 21:16 Then David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, covered with sackcloth, fell on their faces.

1 Chronicles 21:17 David said to God, “Is it not I who commanded to count the people? Indeed, I am the one who has sinned and done very wickedly, but these sheep, what have they done? O LORD my God, please let Your hand be against me and my father’s household, but not against Your people that they should be plagued.”

1 Chronicles 21:18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1 Chronicles 21:19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he spoke in the name of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 21:20 Now Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons [who were] with him hid themselves. And Ornan was threshing wheat.

1 Chronicles 21:21 As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out from the threshing floor and prostrated himself before David with his face to the ground.

1 Chronicles 21:22 Then David said to Ornan, “Give me the site of [this] threshing floor, that I may build on it an altar to the LORD; for the full price you shall give it to me, that the plague may be restrained from the people.”

1 Chronicles 21:23 Ornan said to David, “Take [it] for yourself; and let my lord the king do what is good in his sight. See, I will give the oxen for burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for wood and the wheat for the grain offering; I will give [it] all."

1 Chronicles 21:24 But King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy [it] for the full price; for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, or offer a burnt offering which costs me nothing."

1 Chronicles 21:25 So David gave Ornan 600 shekels of gold by weight for the site.

1 Chronicles 21:26 Then David built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called to the LORD and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

1 Chronicles 21:27 The LORD commanded the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

1 Chronicles 21:28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he offered sacrifice there.

1 Chronicles 21:29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering [were] in the high place at Gibeon at that time.

1 Chronicles 21:30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was terrified by the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22:1 Then David said, "This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

1 Chronicles 22:2 So David gave orders to gather the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, and he set stonecutters to hew out stones to build the house of God.

1 Chronicles 22:3 David prepared large quantities of iron to make the nails for the doors of the gates and for the clamps, and more bronze than could be weighed;

1 Chronicles 22:4 and timbers of cedar logs beyond number, for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought large quantities of cedar timber to David.

1 Chronicles 22:5 David said, "My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD shall be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all lands. [Therefore] now I will make preparation for it." So David made ample preparations before his death.

1 Chronicles 22:6 Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

1 Chronicles 22:7 David said to Solomon, "My son, I had intended to build a house to the name of the LORD my God.

1 Chronicles 22:8 "But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house to My name, because you have shed [so] much blood on the earth before Me.

1 Chronicles 22:9 ‘Behold, a son will be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.

1 Chronicles 22:10 ‘He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

1 Chronicles 22:11 “Now, my son, the LORD be with you that you may be successful, and build the house of the LORD your God just as He has spoken concerning you.

1 Chronicles 22:12 “Only the LORD give you discretion and understanding, and give you charge over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

1 Chronicles 22:13 “Then you will prosper, if you are careful to observe the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous, do not fear nor be dismayed.

1 Chronicles 22:14 “Now behold, with great pains I have prepared for the house of the LORD 100,000 talents of gold and 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weight, for they are in great quantity; also timber and stone I have prepared, and you may add to them.

1 Chronicles 22:15 “Moreover, there are many workmen with you, stonecutters and masons of stone and carpenters, and all men who are skillful in every kind of work.

1 Chronicles 22:16 “Of the gold, the silver and the bronze and the iron there is no limit. Arise and work, and may the LORD be with you.”

1 Chronicles 22:17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon, [saying],

1 Chronicles 22:18 “Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people.

1 Chronicles 22:19 “Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise, therefore, and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy vessels of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the LORD.”

1 Chronicles 23:1 Now when David reached old age, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

1 Chronicles 23:2 And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites.

1 Chronicles 23:3 The Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward, and their number by census of men was 38,000.

1 Chronicles 23:4 Of these, 24,000 were to oversee the work of the house of the LORD; and 6,000 [were] officers and judges,

1 Chronicles 23:5 and 4,000 [were] gatekeepers, and 4,000 [were] praising the LORD with the instruments which David made for giving praise.

1 Chronicles 23:6 David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

1 Chronicles 23:7 Of the Gershonites [were] Ladan and Shimei.

1 Chronicles 23:8 The sons of Ladan [were] Jehiel the first and Zetham and Joel, three.

1 Chronicles 23:9 The sons of Shimei [were] Shelomoth and Haziel and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' [households] of Ladan.

1 Chronicles 23:10 The sons of Shimei [were] Jahath, Zina, Jeush and Beriah. These four [were] the sons of Shimei.

1 Chronicles 23:11 Jahath was the first and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became a father's household, one class.

1 Chronicles 23:12 The sons of Kohath were four: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

1 Chronicles 23:13 The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was set apart to sanctify him as most holy, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to Him and to bless in His name forever.

1 Chronicles 23:14 But [as for] Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.

1 Chronicles 23:15 The sons of Moses [were] Gershom and Eliezer.

1 Chronicles 23:16 The son of Gershom [was] Shebuel the chief.

1 Chronicles 23:17 The son of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

1 Chronicles 23:18 The son of Izhar was Shelomith the chief.

1 Chronicles 23:19 The sons of Hebron [were] Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

1 Chronicles 23:20 The sons of Uzziel [were] Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

1 Chronicles 23:21 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli [were] Eleazar and Kish.

1 Chronicles 23:22 Eleazar died and had no sons, but daughters only, so their brothers, the sons of Kish, took them [as wives].

1 Chronicles 23:23 The sons of Mushi [were] three: Mahli, Eder and Jeremoth.

1 Chronicles 23:24 These were the sons of Levi according to their fathers' households, [even] the heads of the fathers' [households] of those of them who were counted, in the number of names by their census, doing the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward.

1 Chronicles 23:25 For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people, and He dwells in Jerusalem forever.

1 Chronicles 23:26 "Also, the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its utensils for its service."

1 Chronicles 23:27 For by the last words of David the sons of Levi [were] numbered from twenty years old and upward.

1 Chronicles 23:28 For their office is to assist the sons of Aaron with the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God,

1 Chronicles 23:29 and with the showbread, and the fine flour for a grain offering, and unleavened wafers, or [what is baked in] the pan or what is well-mixed, and all measures of volume and size.

1 Chronicles 23:30 They are to stand every morning to thank and to praise the LORD, and likewise at evening,

1 Chronicles 23:31 and to offer all burnt offerings to the LORD, on the sabbaths, the new moons and the fixed festivals in the number [set] by the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD.

1 Chronicles 23:32 Thus they are to keep charge of the tent of meeting, and charge of the holy place, and charge of the sons of Aaron their relatives, for the service of the house of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 24:1 Now the divisions of the descendants of Aaron [were these]: the sons of Aaron [were] Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

1 Chronicles 24:3 David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their offices for their ministry.

1 Chronicles 24:4 Since more chief men were found from the descendants of Eleazar than the descendants of Ithamar, they divided them thus: [there were] sixteen heads of fathers' households of the descendants of Eleazar and eight of the descendants of Ithamar, according to their fathers' households.

1 Chronicles 24:5 Thus they were divided by lot, the one as the other; for they were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God, both from the descendants of Eleazar and the descendants of Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:6 Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel the scribe, from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' [households] of the priests and of the Levites; one father's household taken for Eleazar and one taken for Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:7 Now the first lot came out for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah,

1 Chronicles 24:8 the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim,

1 Chronicles 24:9 the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin,

1 Chronicles 24:10 the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah,

1 Chronicles 24:11 the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah,

1 Chronicles 24:12 the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim,

1 Chronicles 24:13 the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Jeshebeab,

1 Chronicles 24:14 the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer,

1 Chronicles 24:15 the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Happizzez,

1 Chronicles 24:16 the nineteenth for Pethahiah, the twentieth for Jehezkel,

1 Chronicles 24:17 the twenty-first for Jachin, the twenty-second for Gamul,

1 Chronicles 24:18 the twenty-third for Delaiah, the twenty-fourth for Maaziah.

1 Chronicles 24:19 These were their offices for their ministry when [they] came in to the house of the LORD according to the ordinance [given] to them through Aaron their father, just as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

1 Chronicles 24:20 Now for the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

1 Chronicles 24:21 Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the first.

1 Chronicles 24:22 Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

1 Chronicles 24:23 The sons [of Hebron]: Jeriah [the first], Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

1 Chronicles 24:24 [Of] the sons of Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of Micah, Shamir.

1 Chronicles 24:25 The brother of Micah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.

1 Chronicles 24:26 The sons of Merari, Mahli and Mushi; the sons of Jaaziah, Beno.

1 Chronicles 24:27 The sons of Merari: by Jaaziah [were] Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.

1 Chronicles 24:28 By Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

1 Chronicles 24:29 By Kish: the sons of Kish, Jerahmeel.

1 Chronicles 24:30 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. These [were] the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

1 Chronicles 24:31 These also cast lots just as their relatives the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' [households] of the priests and of the Levites—the head of fathers' [households] as well as those of his younger brother.

1 Chronicles 25:1 Moreover, David and the commanders of the army set apart for the service [some] of the sons of Asaph and of Heman and of Jeduthun, who [were] to prophesy with lyres, harps and cymbals; and the number of those who performed their service was:

1 Chronicles 25:2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asharelah; the sons of Asaph [were] under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the direction of the king.

1 Chronicles 25:3 Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising the LORD.

1 Chronicles 25:4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth.

1 Chronicles 25:5 All these [were] the sons of Heman the king's seer to exalt him according to the words of God, for God gave fourteen sons and three daughters to Heman.

1 Chronicles 25:6 All these were under the direction of their father to sing in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, harps and lyres, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman [were] under the direction of the king.

1 Chronicles 25:7 Their number who were trained in singing to the LORD, with their relatives, all who were skillful, [was] 288.

1 Chronicles 25:8 They cast lots for their duties, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher [as well] as the pupil.

1 Chronicles 25:9 Now the first lot came out for Asaph to Joseph, the second for Gedaliah, he with his relatives and sons [were] twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:10 the third to Zaccur, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:11 the fourth to Izri, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:12 the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:13 the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:14 the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:15 the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:16 the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:17 the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:18 the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:19 the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:20 for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:21 for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:22 for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:23 for the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:24 for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:25 for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:26 for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:27 for the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:28 for the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:29 for the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:30 for the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles 25:31 for the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his relatives, twelve.

1 Chronicles 26:1 For the divisions of the gatekeepers [there were] of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

1 Chronicles 26:2 Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

1 Chronicles 26:3 Elam the fifth, Johanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.

1 Chronicles 26:4 Obed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

1 Chronicles 26:5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh [and] Peullethai the eighth; God had indeed blessed him.

1 Chronicles 26:6 Also to his son Shemaiah sons were born who ruled over the house of their father, for they were mighty men of valor.

1 Chronicles 26:7 The sons of Shemaiah [were] Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad, whose brothers, Elihu and Semachiah, were valiant men.

1 Chronicles 26:8 All these [were] of the sons of Obed-edom; they and their sons and their relatives [were] able men with strength for the service, 62 from Obed-edom.

1 Chronicles 26:9 Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, 18 valiant men.

1 Chronicles 26:10 Also Hosah, [one] of the sons of Merari had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father made him first),

1 Chronicles 26:11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and relatives of Hosah [were] 13.

1 Chronicles 26:12 To these divisions of the gatekeepers, the chief men, [were given] duties like their relatives to minister in the house of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 26:13 They cast lots, the small and the great alike, according to their fathers' households, for every gate.

1 Chronicles 26:14 The lot to the east fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots [for] his son Zechariah, a counselor with insight, and his lot came out to the north.

1 Chronicles 26:15 For Obed-edom [it fell] to the south, and to his sons went the storehouse.

1 Chronicles 26:16 For Shuppim and Hosah [it was] to the west, by the gate of Shallecheth, on the ascending highway. Guard corresponded to guard.

1 Chronicles 26:17 On the east there were six Levites, on the north four daily, on the south four daily, and at the storehouse two by two.

1 Chronicles 26:18 At the Parbar on the west [there were] four at the highway and two at the Parbar.

1 Chronicles 26:19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and of the sons of Merari.

1 Chronicles 26:20 The Levites, their relatives, had charge of the treasures of the house of God and of the treasures of the dedicated gifts.

1 Chronicles 26:21 The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, [namely], the Jehielites, [were] the heads of the fathers' [households], belonging to Ladan the Gershonite.

1 Chronicles 26:22 The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, had charge of the treasures of the house of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 26:23 As for the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites,

1 Chronicles 26:24 Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was officer over the treasures.

1 Chronicles 26:25 His relatives by Eliezer [were] Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son and Shelomoth his son.

1 Chronicles 26:26 This Shelomoth and his relatives had charge of all the treasures of the dedicated gifts which King David and the heads of the fathers' [households], the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and the commanders of the army, had dedicated.

1 Chronicles 26:27 They dedicated part of the spoil won in battles to repair the house of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 26:28 And all that Samuel the seer had dedicated and Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Zeruiah, everyone who had dedicated [anything, all of this] was in the care of Shelomoth and his relatives.

1 Chronicles 26:29 As for the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were [assigned] to outside duties for Israel, as officers and judges.

1 Chronicles 26:30 As for the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 capable men, had charge of the affairs of Israel west of the Jordan, for all the work of the LORD and the service of the king.

1 Chronicles 26:31 As for the Hebronites, Jerijah the chief (these Hebronites were investigated according to their genealogies and fathers' [households], in the fortieth year of David's reign, and men of outstanding capability were found among them at Jazer of Gilead)

1 Chronicles 26:32 and his relatives, capable men, [were] 2,700 in number, heads of fathers' [households]. And King David made them overseers of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manassites concerning all the affairs of God and of the king.

1 Chronicles 27:1 Now [this is] the enumeration of the sons of Israel, the heads of fathers' [households], the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all the affairs of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division [numbering] 24,000:

1 Chronicles 27:2 Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel had charge of the first division for the first month; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:3 [He was] from the sons of Perez, [and was] chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month.

1 Chronicles 27:4 Dodai the Ahohite and his division had charge of the division for the second month, Mikloth [being] the chief officer; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:5 The third commander of the army for the third month [was] Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, [as] chief; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:6 This Benaiah [was] the mighty man of the thirty, and had charge of thirty; and over his division was Ammizabad his son.

1 Chronicles 27:7 The fourth for the fourth month [was] Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:8 The fifth for the fifth month [was] the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:9 The sixth for the sixth month [was] Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:10 The seventh for the seventh month [was] Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:11 The eighth for the eighth month [was] Sibbecai the Hushathite of the Zerahites; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:12 The ninth for the ninth month [was] Abiezer the Anathothite of the Benjamites; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:13 The tenth for the tenth month [was] Maharai the Netophathite of the Zerahites; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:14 The eleventh for the eleventh month [was] Benaiah the Pirathonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:15 The twelfth for the twelfth month [was] Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel; and in his division [were] 24,000.

1 Chronicles 27:16 Now in charge of the tribes of Israel: chief officer for the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;

1 Chronicles 27:17 for Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Zadok;

1 Chronicles 27:18 for Judah, Elihu, [one] of David’s brothers; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

1 Chronicles 27:19 for Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel;

1 Chronicles 27:20 for the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

1 Chronicles 27:21 for the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

1 Chronicles 27:22 for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These [were] the princes of the tribes of Israel.

1 Chronicles 27:23 But David did not count those twenty years of age and under, because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven.

1 Chronicles 27:24 Joab the son of Zeruiah had begun to count [them], but did not finish; and because of this, wrath came upon Israel, and the number was not included in the account of the chronicles of King David.

1 Chronicles 27:25 Now Azmaveth the son of Adiel had charge of the king’s storehouses. And Jonathan the son of Uzziah had charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages and in the towers.

1 Chronicles 27:26 Ezri the son of Chelub had charge of the agricultural workers who tilled the soil.

1 Chronicles 27:27 Shimei the Ramathite had charge of the vineyards; and Zabdi the Shiphmite had charge of the produce of the vineyards [stored] in the wine cellars.

1 Chronicles 27:28 Baal-hanan the Gederite had charge of the olive and sycamore trees in the Shephelah; and Joash had charge of the stores of oil.

1 Chronicles 27:29 Shitrai the Sharonite had charge of the cattle which were grazing in Sharon; and Shaphat the son of Adlai had charge of the cattle in the valleys.

1 Chronicles 27:30 Obil the Ishmaelite had charge of the camels; and Jehdeiah the Meronothite had charge of the donkeys.

1 Chronicles 27:31 Jaziz the Hagrite had charge of the flocks. All these were overseers of the property which belonged to King David.

1 Chronicles 27:32 Also Jonathan, David’s uncle, [was] a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni tutored the king’s sons.

1 Chronicles 27:33 Ahithophel [was] counselor to the king; and Hushai the Archite [was] the king’s friend.

1 Chronicles 27:34 Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar succeeded Ahithophel; and Joab was the commander of the king’s army.

1 Chronicles 28:1 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the commanders of the divisions that served the king, and the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, with the officials and the mighty men, even all the valiant men.

1 Chronicles 28:2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, “Listen to me, my brethren and my people; I [had] intended to build a permanent home for the ark of the covenant of the LORD and for the footstool of our God. So I had made preparations to build [it].

1 Chronicles 28:3 “But God said to me, ‘You shall not build a house for My name because you are a man of war and have shed blood.’

1 Chronicles 28:4 “Yet, the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be a leader; and in the house of Judah, my father’s house, and among the sons of my father He took pleasure in me to make [me] king over all Israel.

1 Chronicles 28:5 “Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

1 Chronicles 28:6 “He said to me, ‘Your son Solomon is the one who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be a son to Me, and I will be a father to him.

1 Chronicles 28:7 ‘I will establish his kingdom forever if he resolutely performs My commandments and My ordinances, as is done now.’

1 Chronicles 28:8 “So now, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek after all the commandments of the LORD your God so that you may possess the good land and bequeath [it] to your sons after you forever.

1 Chronicles 28:9 “As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.

1 Chronicles 28:10 “Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be courageous and act.”

1 Chronicles 28:11 Then David gave to his son Solomon the plan of the porch [of the temple], its buildings, its storehouses, its upper rooms, its inner rooms and the room for the mercy seat;

1 Chronicles 28:12 and the plan of all that he had in mind, for the courts of the house of the LORD, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the storehouses of the house of God and for the storehouses of the dedicated things;

1 Chronicles 28:13 also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD and for all the utensils of service in the house of the LORD;

1 Chronicles 28:14 for the golden [utensils], the weight of gold for all utensils for every kind of service; for the silver utensils, the weight [of silver] for all utensils for every kind of service;

1 Chronicles 28:15 and the weight [of gold] for the golden lampstands and their golden lamps, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and [the weight of silver] for the silver lampstands, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps according to the use of each lampstand;

1 Chronicles 28:16 and the gold by weight for the tables of showbread, for each table; and silver for the silver tables;

1 Chronicles 28:17 and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold; and for the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl; and for the silver bowls with the weight for each bowl;

1 Chronicles 28:18 and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the model of the chariot, [even] the cherubim that spread out [their wings] and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 28:19 “All [this],” [said David], “the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, all the details of this pattern.”

1 Chronicles 28:20 Then David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and act; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.

1 Chronicles 28:21 “Now behold, [there are] the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and every willing man of any skill will be with you in all the work for all kinds of service. The officials also and all the people will be entirely at your command.”

1 Chronicles 29:1 Then King David said to the entire assembly, “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is still young and inexperienced and the work is great; for the temple is not for man, but for the LORD God.

1 Chronicles 29:2 “Now with all my ability I have provided for the house of my God the gold for the [things of] gold, and the silver for the [things of] silver, and the bronze for the [things of] bronze, the iron for the [things of] iron, and wood for the [things of] wood, onyx stones and inlaid [stones], stones of antimony and stones of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones and alabaster in abundance.

1 Chronicles 29:3 “Moreover, in my delight in the house of my God, the treasure I have of gold and silver, I give to the house of my God, over and above all that I have already provided for the holy temple,

1 Chronicles 29:4 [namely], 3,000 talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the buildings;

1 Chronicles 29:5 of gold for the [things of] gold and of silver for the [things of] silver, that is, for all the work done by the craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?”

1 Chronicles 29:6 Then the rulers of the fathers’ [households], and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with the overseers over the king’s work, offered willingly;

1 Chronicles 29:7 and for the service for the house of God they gave 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, and 10,000 talents of silver, and 18,000 talents of brass, and 100,000 talents of iron.

1 Chronicles 29:8 Whoever possessed [precious] stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, in care of Jehiel the Gershonite.

1 Chronicles 29:9 Then the people rejoiced because they had offered so willingly, for they made their offering to the LORD with a whole heart, and King David also rejoiced greatly.

1 Chronicles 29:10 So David blessed the LORD in the sight of all the assembly; and David said, “Blessed are You, O LORD God of Israel our father, forever and ever.

1 Chronicles 29:11 “Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, indeed everything that is in the heavens and the earth; Yours is the dominion, O LORD, and You exalt Yourself as head over all.

1 Chronicles 29:12 “Both riches and honor [come] from You, and You rule over all, and in Your hand is power and might; and it lies in Your hand to make great and to strengthen everyone.

1 Chronicles 29:13 “Now therefore, our God, we thank You, and praise Your glorious name.

1 Chronicles 29:14 “But who am I and who are my people that we should be able to offer as generously as this? For all things come from You, and from Your hand we have given You.

1 Chronicles 29:15 “For we are sojourners before You, and tenants, as all our fathers were; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope.

1 Chronicles 29:16 “O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided to build You a house for Your holy name, it is from Your hand, and all is Yours.

1 Chronicles 29:17 “Since I know, O my God, that You try the heart and delight in uprightness, I, in the integrity of my heart, have willingly offered all these [things]; so now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here, make [their] offerings willingly to You.

1 Chronicles 29:18 “O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, our fathers, preserve this forever in the intentions of the heart of Your people, and direct their heart to You;

1 Chronicles 29:19 and give to my son Solomon a perfect heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies and Your statutes, and to do [them] all, and to build the temple, for which I have made provision.”

1 Chronicles 29:20 Then David said to all the assembly, “Now bless the LORD your God.” And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed low and did homage to the LORD and to the king.

1 Chronicles 29:21 On the next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD, 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams [and] 1,000 lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

1 Chronicles 29:22 So they ate and drank that day before the LORD with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king a second time, and they anointed [him] as ruler for the LORD and Zadok as priest.

1 Chronicles 29:23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father; and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

1 Chronicles 29:24 All the officials, the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David pledged allegiance to King Solomon.

1 Chronicles 29:25 The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him royal majesty which had not been on any king before him in Israel.

1 Chronicles 29:26 Now David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

1 Chronicles 29:27 The period which he reigned over Israel [was] forty years; he reigned in Hebron seven years and in Jerusalem thirty-three [years].

1 Chronicles 29:28 Then he died in a ripe old age, full of days, riches and honor; and his son Solomon reigned in his place.

1 Chronicles 29:29 Now the acts of King David, from first to last, are written in the chronicles of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet and in the chronicles of Gad the seer,

1 Chronicles 29:30 with all his reign, his power, and the circumstances which came on him, on Israel, and on all the kingdoms of the lands.

2 Chronicles

1:1 Now Solomon the son of David established himself securely over his kingdom, and the LORD his God [was] with him and exalted him greatly.

2 Chronicles 1:2 Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' [households].

2 Chronicles 1:3 Then Solomon and all the assembly with him went to the high place which was at Gibeon, for God's tent of meeting was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

2 Chronicles 1:4 However, David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 1:5 Now the bronze altar, which Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of the LORD, and Solomon and the assembly sought it out.

2 Chronicles 1:6 Solomon went up there before the LORD to the bronze altar which [was] at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

2 Chronicles 1:7 In that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask what I shall give you.”

2 Chronicles 1:8 Solomon said to God, “You have dealt with my father David with great lovingkindness, and have made me king in his place.

2 Chronicles 1:9 “Now, O LORD God, Your promise to my father David is fulfilled, for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

2 Chronicles 1:10 “Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people, for who can rule this great people of Yours?”

2 Chronicles 1:11 God said to Solomon, “Because you had this in mind, and did not ask for riches, wealth or honor, or the life of those who hate you, nor have you even asked for long life, but you have asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge that you may rule My people over whom I have made you king,

2 Chronicles 1:12 wisdom and knowledge have been granted to you. And I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as none of the kings who were before you has possessed nor those who will come after you.”

2 Chronicles 1:13 So Solomon went from the high place which was at Gibeon, from the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem, and he reigned over Israel.

2 Chronicles 1:14 Solomon amassed chariots and horsemen. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 1:15 The king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the lowland.

2 Chronicles 1:16 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue; the king's traders procured them from Kue for a price.

2 Chronicles 1:17 They imported chariots from Egypt for 600 [shekels] of silver apiece and horses for 150 apiece, and by the same means they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

2 Chronicles 2:1 Now Solomon decided to build a house for the name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:2 So Solomon assigned 70,000 men to carry loads and 80,000 men to quarry [stone] in the mountains and 3,600 to supervise them.

2 Chronicles 2:3 Then Solomon sent [word] to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, "As you dealt with David my father and sent him cedars to build him a house to dwell in, so do for me.

2 Chronicles 2:4 "Behold, I am about to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, dedicating it to Him, to burn fragrant incense before Him and [to set out] the showbread continually, and to offer burnt offerings morning and evening, on sabbaths and on new moons and on the appointed feasts of the LORD our God, this [being required] forever in Israel.

2 Chronicles 2:5 "The house which I am about to build [will be] great, for greater is our God than all the gods.

2 Chronicles 2:6 "But who is able to build a house for Him, for the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain Him? So who am I, that I should build a house for Him, except to burn [incense] before Him?

2 Chronicles 2:7 "Now send me a skilled man to work in gold, silver, brass and iron, and in purple, crimson and violet [fabrics], and who knows how to make engravings, to [work] with the skilled men whom I have in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

2 Chronicles 2:8 "Send me also cedar, cypress and algum timber from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber of Lebanon; and indeed my servants [will work] with your servants,

2 Chronicles 2:9 to prepare timber in abundance for me, for the house which I am about to build [will be] great and wonderful.

2 Chronicles 2:10 "Now behold, I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, 20,000 kors of crushed wheat and 20,000 kors of barley, and 20,000 baths of wine and 20,000 baths of oil."

2 Chronicles 2:11 Then Huram, king of Tyre, answered in a letter sent to Solomon: “Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.”

2 Chronicles 2:12 Then Huram continued, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who will build a house for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:13 “Now I am sending Huram-abi, a skilled man, endowed with understanding,

2 Chronicles 2:14 the son of a Danite woman and a Tyrian father, who knows how to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone and wood, [and] in purple, violet, linen and crimson fabrics, and [who knows how] to make all kinds of engravings and to execute any design which may be assigned to him, [to work] with your skilled men and with those of my lord David your father.

2 Chronicles 2:15 “Now then, let my lord send to his servants wheat and barley, oil and wine, of which he has spoken.

2 Chronicles 2:16 “We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you on rafts by sea to Joppa, so that you may carry it up to Jerusalem.”

2 Chronicles 2:17 Solomon numbered all the aliens who [were] in the land of Israel, following the census which his father David had taken; and 153,600 were found.

2 Chronicles 2:18 He appointed 70,000 of them to carry loads and 80,000 to quarry [stones] in the mountains and 3,600 supervisors to make the people work.

2 Chronicles 3:1 Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where [the LORD] had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2 Chronicles 3:2 He began to build on the second [day] in the second month of the fourth year of his reign.

2 Chronicles 3:3 Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for building the house of God. The length in cubits, according to the old standard [was] sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.

2 Chronicles 3:4 The porch which was in front of the house was as long as the width of the house, twenty cubits, and the height 120; and inside he overlaid it with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 3:5 He overlaid the main room with cypress wood and overlaid it with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains.

2 Chronicles 3:6 Further, he adorned the house with precious stones; and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

2 Chronicles 3:7 He also overlaid the house with gold— the beams, the thresholds and its walls and its doors; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

2 Chronicles 3:8 Now he made the room of the holy of holies: its length across the width of the house [was] twenty cubits, and its width [was] twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, [amounting] to 600 talents.

2 Chronicles 3:9 The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:10 Then he made two sculptured cherubim in the room of the holy of holies and overlaid them with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:11 The wingspan of the cherubim [was] twenty cubits; the wing of one, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and [its] other wing, of five cubits, touched the wing of the other cherub.

2 Chronicles 3:12 The wing of the other cherub, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house; and [its] other wing of five cubits was attached to the wing of the first cherub.

2 Chronicles 3:13 The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits, and they stood on their feet facing the [main] room.

2 Chronicles 3:14 He made the veil of violet, purple, crimson and fine linen, and he worked cherubim on it.

2 Chronicles 3:15 He also made two pillars for the front of the house, thirty-five cubits high, and the capital on the top of each [was] five cubits.

2 Chronicles 3:16 He made chains in the inner sanctuary and placed [them] on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates and placed [them] on the chains.

2 Chronicles 3:17 He erected the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and the other on the left, and named the one on the right Jachin and the one on the left Boaz.

2 Chronicles 4:1 Then he made a bronze altar, twenty cubits in length and twenty cubits in width and ten cubits in height.

2 Chronicles 4:2 Also he made the cast [metal] sea, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height [was] five cubits and its circumference thirty cubits.

2 Chronicles 4:3 Now figures like oxen [were] under it [and] all around it, ten cubits, entirely encircling the sea. The oxen [were] in two rows, cast in one piece.

2 Chronicles 4:4 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing the north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east; and the sea [was set] on top of them and all their hindquarters turned inwards.

2 Chronicles 4:5 It was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, [like] a lily blossom; it could hold 3,000 baths.

2 Chronicles 4:6 He also made ten basins in which to wash, and he set five on the right side and five on the left to rinse things for the burnt offering; but the sea [was] for the priests to wash in.

2 Chronicles 4:7 Then he made the ten golden lampstands in the way prescribed for them and he set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

2 Chronicles 4:8 He also made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred golden bowls.

2 Chronicles 4:9 Then he made the court of the priests and the great court and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with bronze.

2 Chronicles 4:10 He set the sea on the right side [of the house] toward the southeast.

2 Chronicles 4:11 Huram also made the pails, the shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing the work which he performed for King Solomon in the house of God:

2 Chronicles 4:12 the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on top of the pillars,

2 Chronicles 4:13 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the pillars.

2 Chronicles 4:14 He also made the stands and he made the basins on the stands,

2 Chronicles 4:15 [and] the one sea with the twelve oxen under it.

2 Chronicles 4:16 The pails, the shovels, the forks and all its utensils, Huram-abi made of polished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 4:17 On the plain of the Jordan the king cast them in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.

2 Chronicles 4:18 Thus Solomon made all these utensils in great quantities, for the weight of the bronze could not be found out.

2 Chronicles 4:19 Solomon also made all the things that [were] in the house of God: even the golden altar, the tables with the bread of the Presence on them,

2 Chronicles 4:20 the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary in the way prescribed;

2 Chronicles 4:21 the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of purest gold;

2 Chronicles 4:22 and the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons and the firepans of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its inner doors for the holy of holies and the doors of the house, [that is], of the nave, of gold.

2 Chronicles 5:1 Thus all the work that Solomon performed for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver and the gold and all the utensils, [and] put [them] in the treasuries of the house of God.

2 Chronicles 5:2 Then Solomon assembled to Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' [households] of the sons of Israel, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2 Chronicles 5:3 All the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, that is [in] the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 5:4 Then all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

2 Chronicles 5:5 They brought up the ark and the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils which [were] in the tent; the Levitical priests brought them up.

2 Chronicles 5:6 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

2 Chronicles 5:7 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the holy of holies, under the wings of the cherubim.

2 Chronicles 5:8 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its poles.

2 Chronicles 5:9 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; and they are there to this day.

2 Chronicles 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put [there] at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 5:11 When the priests came forth from the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without regard to divisions),

2 Chronicles 5:12 and all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and kinsmen, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps and lyres, standing east of the altar, and with them one hundred and twenty priests blowing trumpets

2 Chronicles 5:13 in unison when the trumpeters and the singers were to make themselves heard with one voice to praise and to glorify the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice accompanied by trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and when they praised the LORD [saying,]"[He] indeed is good for His lovingkindness is everlasting," then the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud,

2 Chronicles 5:14 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

2 Chronicles 6:1 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud.

2 Chronicles 6:2 "I have built You a lofty house, And a place for Your dwelling forever."

2 Chronicles 6:3 Then the king faced about and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

2 Chronicles 6:4 He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled [it] with His hands, saying,

2 Chronicles 6:5 'Since the day that I brought My people from the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel [in which] to build a house that My name might be there, nor did I choose any man for a leader over My people Israel;

2 Chronicles 6:6 but I have chosen Jerusalem that My name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.'

2 Chronicles 6:7 "Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 6:8 "But the LORD said to my father David, 'Because it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.

2 Chronicles 6:9 'Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will be born to you, he shall build the house for My name.'

2 Chronicles 6:10 "Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in the place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 6:11 "There I have set the ark in which is the covenant of the LORD, which He made with the sons of Israel."

2 Chronicles 6:12 Then he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

2 Chronicles 6:13 Now Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt on his knees in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven.

2 Chronicles 6:14 He said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no god like You in heaven or on earth, keeping covenant and [showing] lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart;

2 Chronicles 6:15 who has kept with Your servant David, my father, that which You have promised him; indeed You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

2 Chronicles 6:16 “Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David, my father, that which You have promised him, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk in My law as you have walked before Me.’

2 Chronicles 6:17 “Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, let Your word be confirmed which You have spoken to Your servant David.

2 Chronicles 6:18 “But will God indeed dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built.

2 Chronicles 6:19 “Yet have regard to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You;

2 Chronicles 6:20 that Your eye may be open toward this house day and night, toward the place of which You have said that [You would] put Your name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place.

2 Chronicles 6:21 “Listen to the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place; hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven; hear and forgive.

2 Chronicles 6:22 “If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath, and he comes [and] takes an oath before Your altar in this house,

2 Chronicles 6:23 then hear from heaven and act and judge Your servants, punishing the wicked by bringing his way on his own head and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

2 Chronicles 6:24 “If Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they return [to You] and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this house,

2 Chronicles 6:25 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You have given to them and to their fathers.

2 Chronicles 6:26 “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict them;

2 Chronicles 6:27 then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel, indeed, teach them the good way in which they should walk. And send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

2 Chronicles 6:28 “If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, if there is locust or grasshopper, if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities, whatever plague or whatever sickness [there is],

2 Chronicles 6:29 whatever prayer or supplication is made by any man or by all Your people Israel, each knowing his own affliction and his own pain, and spreading his hands toward this house,

2 Chronicles 6:30 then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and render to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men,

2 Chronicles 6:31 that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

2 Chronicles 6:32 “Also concerning the foreigner who is not from Your people Israel, when he comes from a far country for Your great name’s sake and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this house,

2 Chronicles 6:33 then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, and fear You as [do] Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

2 Chronicles 6:34 “When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You shall send them, and they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name,

2 Chronicles 6:35 then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

2 Chronicles 6:36 “When they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them and deliver them to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to a land far off or near,

2 Chronicles 6:37 if they take thought in the land where they are taken captive, and repent and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have committed iniquity and have acted wickedly’;

2 Chronicles 6:38 if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been taken captive, and pray toward their land which You have given to their fathers and the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your name,

2 Chronicles 6:39 then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, their prayer and supplications, and maintain their cause and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

2 Chronicles 6:40 “Now, O my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer [offered] in this place.

2 Chronicles 6:41 “Now therefore arise, O LORD God, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your might; let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation and let Your godly ones rejoice in what is good.

2 Chronicles 6:42 “O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed; remember [Your] lovingkindness to Your servant David.”

2 Chronicles 7:1 Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 Chronicles 7:2 The priests could not enter into the house of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD’S house.

2 Chronicles 7:3 All the sons of Israel, seeing the fire come down and the glory of the LORD upon the house, bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave praise to the LORD, [saying], “Truly He is good, truly His lovingkindness is everlasting.”

2 Chronicles 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.

2 Chronicles 7:5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

2 Chronicles 7:6 The priests stood at their posts, and the Levites also, with the instruments of music to the LORD, which King David had made for giving praise to the LORD— “for His lovingkindness is everlasting “— whenever he gave praise by their means, while the priests on the other side blew trumpets; and all Israel was standing.

2 Chronicles 7:7 Then Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that [was] before the house of the LORD, for there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to contain the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat.

2 Chronicles 7:8 So Solomon observed the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly [who came] from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 7:9 On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for the dedication of the altar they observed seven days and the feast seven days.

2 Chronicles 7:10 Then on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and happy of heart because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David and to Solomon and to His people Israel.

2 Chronicles 7:11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's palace, and successfully completed all that he had planned on doing in the house of the LORD and in his palace.

2 Chronicles 7:12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

2 Chronicles 7:13 "If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people,

2 Chronicles 7:14 and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:15 "Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayer [offered] in this place.

2 Chronicles 7:16 "For now I have chosen and consecrated this house that My name may be there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

2 Chronicles 7:17 "As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, even to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep My statutes and My ordinances,

2 Chronicles 7:18 then I will establish your royal throne as I covenanted with your father David, saying, 'You shall not lack a man [to be] ruler in Israel.'

2 Chronicles 7:19 "But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

2 Chronicles 7:20 then I will uproot you from My land which I have given you, and this house which I have consecrated for My name I will cast out of My sight and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

2 Chronicles 7:21 "As for this house, which was exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'

2 Chronicles 7:22 "And they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers who brought them from the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this adversity on them.'"

2 Chronicles 8:1 Now it came about at the end of the twenty years in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house

2 Chronicles 8:2 that he built the cities which Huram had given to him, and settled the sons of Israel there.

2 Chronicles 8:3 Then Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and captured it.

2 Chronicles 8:4 He built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities which he had built in Hamath.

2 Chronicles 8:5 He also built upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon, fortified cities [with] walls, gates and bars;

2 Chronicles 8:6 and Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen, and all that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his rule.

2 Chronicles 8:7 All of the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel,

2 Chronicles 8:8 [namely], from their descendants who were left after them in the land whom the sons of Israel had not destroyed, them Solomon raised as forced laborers to this day.

2 Chronicles 8:9 But Solomon did not make slaves for his work from the sons of Israel; they were men of war, his chief captains and commanders of his chariots and his horsemen.

2 Chronicles 8:10 These were the chief officers of King Solomon, two hundred and fifty who ruled over the people.

2 Chronicles 8:11 Then Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house which he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy where the ark of the LORD has entered."

2 Chronicles 8:12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the porch;

2 Chronicles 8:13 and [did so] according to the daily rule, offering [them] up according to the commandment of Moses, for the sabbaths, the new moons and the three annual feasts— the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Booths.

2 Chronicles 8:14 Now according to the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties of praise and ministering before the priests according to the daily rule, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for David the man of God had so commanded.

2 Chronicles 8:15 And they did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites in any manner or concerning the storehouses.

2 Chronicles 8:16 Thus all the work of Solomon was carried out from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

2 Chronicles 8:17 Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Eloth on the seashore in the land of Edom.

2 Chronicles 8:18 And Huram by his servants sent him ships and servants who knew the sea; and they went with Solomon’s servants to Ophir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold and brought them to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:1 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with difficult questions. She had a very large retinue, with camels carrying spices and a large amount of gold and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was on her heart.

2 Chronicles 9:2 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from Solomon which he did not explain to her.

2 Chronicles 9:3 When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house which he had built,

2 Chronicles 9:4 the food at his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, she was breathless.

2 Chronicles 9:5 Then she said to the king, “It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

2 Chronicles 9:6 “Nevertheless I did not believe their reports until I came and my eyes had seen it. And behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You surpass the report that I heard.

2 Chronicles 9:7 “How blessed are your men, how blessed are these your servants who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom.

2 Chronicles 9:8 “Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king for the LORD your God; because your God loved Israel establishing them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness.”

2 Chronicles 9:9 Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold and a very great [amount of] spices and precious stones; there had never been spice like that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:10 The servants of Huram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum trees and precious stones.

2 Chronicles 9:11 From the algum trees the king made steps for the house of the LORD and for the king’s palace, and lyres and harps for the singers; and none like that was seen before in the land of Judah.

2 Chronicles 9:12 King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire which she requested besides [a return for] what she had brought to the king. Then she turned and went to her own land with her servants.

2 Chronicles 9:13 Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold,

2 Chronicles 9:14 besides that which the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:15 King Solomon made 200 large shields of beaten gold, using 600 [shekels of] beaten gold on each large shield.

2 Chronicles 9:16 [He made] 300 shields of beaten gold, using three hundred shekels of gold on each shield, and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

2 Chronicles 9:17 Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 9:18 [There were] six steps to the throne and a footstool in gold attached to the throne, and arms on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms.

2 Chronicles 9:19 Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on the one side and on the other; nothing like [it] was made for any [other] kingdom.

2 Chronicles 9:20 All King Solomon’s drinking vessels [were] of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon [were] of pure gold; silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:21 For the king had ships which went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks.

2 Chronicles 9:22 So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

2 Chronicles 9:23 And all the kings of the earth were seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart.

2 Chronicles 9:24 They brought every man his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

2 Chronicles 9:25 Now Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 9:26 He was the ruler over all the kings from the Euphrates River even to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 9:27 The king made silver [as common] as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees that are in the lowland.

2 Chronicles 9:28 And they were bringing horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

2 Chronicles 9:29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from first to last, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

2 Chronicles 9:30 Solomon reigned forty years in Jerusalem over all Israel.

2 Chronicles 9:31 And Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 10:1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

2 Chronicles 10:2 When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard [of it] (for he was in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

2 Chronicles 10:3 So they sent and summoned him. When Jeroboam and all Israel came, they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

2 Chronicles 10:4 "Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

2 Chronicles 10:5 He said to them, "Return to me again in three days." So the people departed.

2 Chronicles 10:6 Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you counsel [me] to answer this people?"

2 Chronicles 10:7 They spoke to him, saying, "If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

2 Chronicles 10:8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him.

2 Chronicles 10:9 So he said to them, "What counsel do you give that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

2 Chronicles 10:10 The young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall say to the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us.' Thus you shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins!

2 Chronicles 10:11 'Whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I [will discipline you] with scorpions.'"

2 Chronicles 10:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had directed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

2 Chronicles 10:13 The king answered them harshly, and King Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the elders.

2 Chronicles 10:14 He spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I [will discipline you] with scorpions.”

2 Chronicles 10:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn [of events] from God that the LORD might establish His word, which He spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

2 Chronicles 10:16 When all Israel [saw] that the king did not listen to them the people answered the king, saying, “What portion do we have in David? [We have] no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to your tents, O Israel; Now look after your own house, David.” So all Israel departed to their tents.

2 Chronicles 10:17 But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

2 Chronicles 10:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, and the sons of Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 10:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11:1 Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2 Chronicles 11:2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

2 Chronicles 11:3 “Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

2 Chronicles 11:4 ‘Thus says the LORD, “You shall not go up or fight against your relatives; return every man to his house, for this thing is from Me.”’“ So they listened to the words of the LORD and returned from going against Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 11:5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built cities for defense in Judah.

2 Chronicles 11:6 Thus he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2 Chronicles 11:7 Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam,

2 Chronicles 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2 Chronicles 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2 Chronicles 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron, which are fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin.

2 Chronicles 11:11 He also strengthened the fortresses and put officers in them and stores of food, oil and wine.

2 Chronicles 11:12 [He put] shields and spears in every city and strengthened them greatly. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

2 Chronicles 11:13 Moreover, the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel stood with him from all their districts.

2 Chronicles 11:14 For the Levites left their pasture lands and their property and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had excluded them from serving as priests to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 11:15 He set up priests of his own for the high places, for the satyrs and for the calves which he had made.

2 Chronicles 11:16 Those from all the tribes of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 11:17 They strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

2 Chronicles 11:18 Then Rehoboam took as a wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David [and of] Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse,

2 Chronicles 11:19 and she bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham.

2 Chronicles 11:20 After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom, and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith.

2 Chronicles 11:21 Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom more than all his [other] wives and concubines. For he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines and fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

2 Chronicles 11:22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as head and leader among his brothers, for he [intended] to make him king.

2 Chronicles 11:23 He acted wisely and distributed some of his sons through all the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities, and he gave them food in abundance. And he sought many wives [for them].

2 Chronicles 12:1 When the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and strong, he and all Israel with him forsook the law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 12:2 And it came about in King Rehoboam’s fifth year, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem

2 Chronicles 12:3 with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. And the people who came with him from Egypt were without number: the Lubim, the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians.

2 Chronicles 12:4 He captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 12:5 Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the princes of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and he said to them, “Thus says the LORD, ‘You have forsaken Me, so I also have forsaken you to Shishak.’“

2 Chronicles 12:6 So the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “The LORD is righteous.”

2 Chronicles 12:7 When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, “They have humbled themselves [so] I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some [measure] of deliverance, and My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak.

2 Chronicles 12:8 “But they will become his slaves so that they may learn [the difference between] My service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.”

2 Chronicles 12:9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s palace. He took everything; he even took the golden shields which Solomon had made.

2 Chronicles 12:10 Then King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and committed them to the care of the commanders of the guard who guarded the door of the king’s house.

2 Chronicles 12:11 As often as the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards came and carried them and [then] brought them back into the guards’ room.

2 Chronicles 12:12 And when he humbled himself, the anger of the LORD turned away from him, so as not to destroy [him] completely; and also conditions were good in Judah.

2 Chronicles 12:13 So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. And his mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

2 Chronicles 12:14 He did evil because he did not set his heart to seek the LORD.

2 Chronicles 12:15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, from first to last, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, according to genealogical enrollment? And [there were] wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

2 Chronicles 12:16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David; and his son Abijah became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 13:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

2 Chronicles 13:2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. Now there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 13:3 Abijah began the battle with an army of valiant warriors, 400,000 chosen men, while Jeroboam drew up in battle formation against him with 800,000 chosen men [who were] valiant warriors.

2 Chronicles 13:4 Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

2 Chronicles 13:5 "Do you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the rule over Israel forever to David and his sons by a covenant of salt?

2 Chronicles 13:6 "Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master,

2 Chronicles 13:7 and worthless men gathered about him, scoundrels, who proved too strong for Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when he was young and timid and could not hold his own against them.

2 Chronicles 13:8 "So now you intend to resist the kingdom of the LORD through the sons of David, being a great multitude and [having] with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made for gods for you.

2 Chronicles 13:9 "Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests like the peoples of [other] lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, even he may become a priest of [what are] no gods.

2 Chronicles 13:10 "But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the sons of Aaron are ministering to the LORD as priests, and the Levites attend to their work.

2 Chronicles 13:11 "Every morning and evening they burn to the LORD burnt offerings and fragrant incense, and the showbread is [set] on the clean table, and the golden lampstand with its lamps is [ready] to light every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him.

2 Chronicles 13:12 “Now behold, God is with us at [our] head and His priests with the signal trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you will not succeed.”

2 Chronicles 13:13 But Jeroboam had set an ambush to come from the rear, so that [Israel] was in front of Judah and the ambush was behind them.

2 Chronicles 13:14 When Judah turned around, behold, they were attacked both front and rear; so they cried to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets.

2 Chronicles 13:15 Then the men of Judah raised a war cry, and when the men of Judah raised the war cry, then it was that God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2 Chronicles 13:16 When the sons of Israel fled before Judah, God gave them into their hand.

2 Chronicles 13:17 Abijah and his people defeated them with a great slaughter, so that 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell slain.

2 Chronicles 13:18 Thus the sons of Israel were subdued at that time, and the sons of Judah conquered because they trusted in the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured from him [several] cities, Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages and Ephron with its villages.

2 Chronicles 13:20 Jeroboam did not again recover strength in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him and he died.

2 Chronicles 13:21 But Abijah became powerful; and took fourteen wives to himself, and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2 Chronicles 13:22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his words are written in the treatise of the prophet Iddo.

2 Chronicles 14:1 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and his son Asa became king in his place. The land was undisturbed for ten years during his days.

2 Chronicles 14:2 Asa did good and right in the sight of the LORD his God,

2 Chronicles 14:3 for he removed the foreign altars and high places, tore down the [sacred] pillars, cut down the Asherim,

2 Chronicles 14:4 and commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers and to observe the law and the commandment.

2 Chronicles 14:5 He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah. And the kingdom was undisturbed under him.

2 Chronicles 14:6 He built fortified cities in Judah, since the land was undisturbed, and there was no one at war with him during those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

2 Chronicles 14:7 For he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities and surround [them] with walls and towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side.” So they built and prospered.

2 Chronicles 14:8 Now Asa had an army of 300,000 from Judah, bearing large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, bearing shields and wielding bows; all of them were valiant warriors.

2 Chronicles 14:9 Now Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and 300 chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

2 Chronicles 14:10 So Asa went out to meet him, and they drew up in battle formation in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

2 Chronicles 14:11 Then Asa called to the LORD his God and said, “LORD, there is no one besides You to help [in the battle] between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O LORD our God, for we trust in You, and in Your name have come against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; let not man prevail against You.”

2 Chronicles 14:12 So the LORD routed the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

2 Chronicles 14:13 Asa and the people who [were] with him pursued them as far as Gerar; and so many Ethiopians fell that they could not recover, for they were shattered before the LORD and before His army. And they carried away very much plunder.

2 Chronicles 14:14 They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the dread of the LORD had fallen on them; and they despoiled all the cities, for there was much plunder in them.

2 Chronicles 14:15 They also struck down those who owned livestock, and they carried away large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15:1 Now the Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded,

2 Chronicles 15:2 and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Listen to me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: the LORD is with you when you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

2 Chronicles 15:3 “For many days Israel was without the true God and without a teaching priest and without law.

2 Chronicles 15:4 “But in their distress they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and they sought Him, and He let them find Him.

2 Chronicles 15:5 “In those times there was no peace to him who went out or to him who came in, for many disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands.

2 Chronicles 15:6 “Nation was crushed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress.

2 Chronicles 15:7 “But you, be strong and do not lose courage, for there is reward for your work.”

2 Chronicles 15:8 Now when Asa heard these words and the prophecy which Azariah the son of Oded the prophet spoke, he took courage and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. He then restored the altar of the LORD which was in front of the porch of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 15:9 He gathered all Judah and Benjamin and those from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who resided with them, for many defected to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

2 Chronicles 15:10 So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign.

2 Chronicles 15:11 They sacrificed to the LORD that day 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep from the spoil they had brought.

2 Chronicles 15:12 They entered into the covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and soul;

2 Chronicles 15:13 and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.

2 Chronicles 15:14 Moreover, they made an oath to the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets and with horns.

2 Chronicles 15:15 All Judah rejoiced concerning the oath, for they had sworn with their whole heart and had sought Him earnestly, and He let them find Him. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

2 Chronicles 15:16 He also removed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from the [position of] queen mother, because she had made a horrid image as an Asherah, and Asa cut down her horrid image, crushed [it] and burned [it] at the brook Kidron.

2 Chronicles 15:17 But the high places were not removed from Israel; nevertheless Asa’s heart was blameless all his days.

2 Chronicles 15:18 He brought into the house of God the dedicated things of his father and his own dedicated things: silver and gold and utensils.

2 Chronicles 15:19 And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa’s reign.

2 Chronicles 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent [anyone] from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 16:2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the king's house, and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying,

2 Chronicles 16:3 "[Let there be] a treaty between you and me, [as] between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

2 Chronicles 16:4 So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim and all the store cities of Naphtali.

2 Chronicles 16:5 When Baasha heard [of it], he ceased fortifying Ramah and stopped his work.

2 Chronicles 16:6 Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building, and with them he fortified Geba and Mizpah.

2 Chronicles 16:7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand.

2 Chronicles 16:8 "Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim an immense army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand.

2 Chronicles 16:9 "For the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His. You have acted foolishly in this. Indeed, from now on you will surely have wars."

2 Chronicles 16:10 Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him for this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

2 Chronicles 16:11 Now, the acts of Asa from first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa became diseased in his feet. His disease was severe, yet even in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

2 Chronicles 16:13 So Asa slept with his fathers, having died in the forty-first year of his reign.

2 Chronicles 16:14 They buried him in his own tomb which he had cut out for himself in the city of David, and they laid him in the resting place which he had filled with spices of various kinds blended by the perfumers' art; and they made a very great fire for him.

2 Chronicles 17:1 Jehoshaphat his son then became king in his place, and made his position over Israel firm.

2 Chronicles 17:2 He placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had captured.

2 Chronicles 17:3 The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father David's earlier days and did not seek the Baals,

2 Chronicles 17:4 but sought the God of his father, followed His commandments, and did not act as Israel did.

2 Chronicles 17:5 So the LORD established the kingdom in his control, and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great riches and honor.

2 Chronicles 17:6 He took great pride in the ways of the LORD and again removed the high places and the Asherim from Judah.

2 Chronicles 17:7 Then in the third year of his reign he sent his officials, Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;

2 Chronicles 17:8 and with them the Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

2 Chronicles 17:9 They taught in Judah, [having] the book of the law of the LORD with them; and they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

2 Chronicles 17:10 Now the dread of the LORD was on all the kingdoms of the lands which [were] around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

2 Chronicles 17:11 Some of the Philistines brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat; the Arabians also brought him flocks, 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

2 Chronicles 17:12 So Jehoshaphat grew greater and greater, and he built fortresses and store cities in Judah.

2 Chronicles 17:13 He had large supplies in the cities of Judah, and warriors, valiant men, in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 17:14 This was their muster according to their fathers' households: of Judah, commanders of thousands, Adnah [was] the commander, and with him 300,000 valiant warriors;

2 Chronicles 17:15 and next to him [was] Johanan the commander, and with him 280,000;

2 Chronicles 17:16 and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who volunteered for the LORD, and with him 200,000 valiant warriors;

2 Chronicles 17:17 and of Benjamin, Eliada a valiant warrior, and with him 200,000 armed with bow and shield;

2 Chronicles 17:18 and next to him Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 equipped for war.

2 Chronicles 17:19 These are they who served the king, apart from those whom the king put in the fortified cities through all Judah.

2 Chronicles 18:1 Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor; and he allied himself by marriage with Ahab.

2 Chronicles 18:2 Some years later he went down to [visit] Ahab at Samaria. And Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen for him and the people who were with him, and induced him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.

2 Chronicles 18:3 Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, “Will you go with me [against] Ramoth-gilead?” And he said to him, “I am as you are, and my people as your people, and [we will be] with you in the battle.”

2 Chronicles 18:4 Moreover, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please inquire first for the word of the LORD.”

2 Chronicles 18:5 Then the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?” And they said, “Go up, for God will give [it] into the hand of the king.”

2 Chronicles 18:6 But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not yet a prophet of the LORD here that we may inquire of him?”

2 Chronicles 18:7 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me but always evil. He is Micaiah, son of Imla.” But Jehoshaphat said, “Let not the king say so.”

2 Chronicles 18:8 Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, “Bring quickly Micaiah, Imla’s son.”

2 Chronicles 18:9 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in [their] robes, and [they] were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

2 Chronicles 18:10 Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are consumed.’“

2 Chronicles 18:11 All the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will give [it] into the hand of the king.”

2 Chronicles 18:12 Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, “Behold, the words of the prophets are uniformly favorable to the king. So please let your word be like one of them and speak favorably."

2 Chronicles 18:13 But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, what my God says, that I will speak."

2 Chronicles 18:14 When he came to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" He said, "Go up and succeed, for they will be given into your hand."

2 Chronicles 18:15 Then the king said to him, "How many times must I adjure you to speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

2 Chronicles 18:16 So he said, "I saw all Israel Scattered on the mountains, Like sheep which have no shepherd; And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each of them return to his house in peace.'"

2 Chronicles 18:17 Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

2 Chronicles 18:18 Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right and on His left.

2 Chronicles 18:19 "The LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one said this while another said that.

2 Chronicles 18:20 "Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, 'I will entice him.' And the LORD said to him, 'How?'

2 Chronicles 18:21 "He said, 'I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then He said, 'You are to entice [him] and prevail also. Go and do so.'

2 Chronicles 18:22 "Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of these your prophets, for the LORD has proclaimed disaster against you."

2 Chronicles 18:23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?"

2 Chronicles 18:24 Micaiah said, "Behold, you will see on that day when you enter an inner room to hide yourself."

2 Chronicles 18:25 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

2 Chronicles 18:26 and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this [man] in prison and feed him sparingly with bread and water until I return safely."'"

2 Chronicles 18:27 Micaiah said, "If you indeed return safely, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Listen, all you people."

2 Chronicles 18:28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

2 Chronicles 18:29 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

2 Chronicles 18:30 Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, “Do not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel alone.”

2 Chronicles 18:31 So when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “It is the king of Israel,” and they turned aside to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.

2 Chronicles 18:32 When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

2 Chronicles 18:33 A certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel in a joint of the armor. So he said to the driver of the chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the fight, for I am severely wounded.”

2 Chronicles 18:34 The battle raged that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot in front of the Arameans until the evening; and at sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19:1 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned in safety to his house in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 19:2 Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD and so [bring] wrath on yourself from the LORD?

2 Chronicles 19:3 “But there is [some] good in you, for you have removed the Asheroth from the land and you have set your heart to seek God.”

2 Chronicles 19:4 So Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem and went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 19:5 He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.

2 Chronicles 19:6 He said to the judges, “Consider what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for the LORD who is with you when you render judgment.

2 Chronicles 19:7 “Now then let the fear of the LORD be upon you; be very careful what you do, for the LORD our God will have no part in unrighteousness or partiality or the taking of a bribe.”

2 Chronicles 19:8 In Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the heads of the fathers’

[households] of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD and to judge disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 19:9 Then he charged them saying, “Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and wholeheartedly.

2 Chronicles 19:10 “Whenever any dispute comes to you from your brethren who live in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them so that they may not be guilty before the LORD, and wrath may [not] come on you and your brethren. Thus you shall do and you will not be guilty.

2 Chronicles 19:11 “Behold, Amariah the chief priest will be over you in all that pertains to the LORD, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all that pertains to the king. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Act resolutely, and the LORD be with the upright.”

2 Chronicles 20:1 Now it came about after this that the sons of Moab and the sons of Ammon, together with some of the Meunites, came to make war against Jehoshaphat.

2 Chronicles 20:2 Then some came and reported to Jehoshaphat, saying, “A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, out of Aram and behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar (that is Engedi).”

2 Chronicles 20:3 Jehoshaphat was afraid and turned his attention to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

2 Chronicles 20:4 So Judah gathered together to seek help from the LORD; they even came from all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:5 Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD before the new court,

2 Chronicles 20:6 and he said, “O LORD, the God of our fathers, are You not God in the heavens? And are You not ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand so that no one can stand against You.

2 Chronicles 20:7 “Did You not, O our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and give it to the descendants of Abraham Your friend forever?

2 Chronicles 20:8 “They have lived in it, and have built You a sanctuary there for Your name, saying,

2 Chronicles 20:9 ‘Should evil come upon us, the sword, [or] judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house and before You (for Your name is in this house) and cry to You in our distress, and You will hear and deliver [us].’

2 Chronicles 20:10 “Now behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You did not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt (they turned aside from them and did not destroy them),

2 Chronicles 20:11 see [how] they are rewarding us by coming to drive us out from Your possession which You have given us as an inheritance.

2 Chronicles 20:12 “O our God, will You not judge them? For we are powerless before this great multitude who are coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are on You.”

2 Chronicles 20:13 All Judah was standing before the LORD, with their infants, their wives and their children.

2 Chronicles 20:14 Then in the midst of the assembly the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite of the sons of Asaph;

2 Chronicles 20:15 and he said, “Listen, all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat: thus says the LORD to you, ‘Do not fear or be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours but God’s.

2 Chronicles 20:16 ‘Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel.

2 Chronicles 20:17 ‘You [need] not fight in this [battle]; station yourselves, stand and see the salvation of the LORD on your behalf, O Judah and Jerusalem.’ Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out to face them, for the LORD is with you.”

2 Chronicles 20:18 Jehoshaphat bowed his head with [his] face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:19 The Levites, from the sons of the Kohathites and of the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

2 Chronicles 20:20 They rose early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa; and when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, put your trust in the LORD your God and you will be established. Put your trust in His prophets and succeed.”

2 Chronicles 20:21 When he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who sang to the LORD and those who praised [Him] in holy attire, as they went out before the army and said, “Give thanks to the LORD, for His lovingkindness is everlasting.”

2 Chronicles 20:22 When they began singing and praising, the LORD set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they were routed.

2 Chronicles 20:23 For the sons of Ammon and Moab rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir destroying [them] completely; and when they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

2 Chronicles 20:24 When Judah came to the lookout of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude, and behold, they [were] corpses lying on the ground, and no one had escaped.

2 Chronicles 20:25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found much among them, [including] goods, garments and valuable things which they took for themselves, more than they could carry. And they were three days taking the spoil because there was so much.

2 Chronicles 20:26 Then on the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Beracah, for there they blessed the LORD. Therefore they have named that place “The Valley of Beracah “ until today.

2 Chronicles 20:27 Every man of Judah and Jerusalem returned with Jehoshaphat at their head, returning to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

2 Chronicles 20:28 They came to Jerusalem with harps, lyres and trumpets to the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:29 And the dread of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

2 Chronicles 20:30 So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God gave him rest on all sides.

2 Chronicles 20:31 Now Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He [was] thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. And his mother’s name [was] Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

2 Chronicles 20:32 He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not depart from it, doing right in the sight of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:33 The high places, however, were not removed; the people had not yet directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 20:34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first to last, behold, they are written in the annals of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

2 Chronicles 20:35 After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. He acted wickedly in so doing.

2 Chronicles 20:36 So he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion-geber.

2 Chronicles 20:37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, “Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works.” So the ships were broken and could not go to Tarshish.

2 Chronicles 21:1 Then Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Jehoram his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 21:2 He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All these [were] the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

2 Chronicles 21:3 Their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

2 Chronicles 21:4 Now when Jehoram had taken over the kingdom of his father and made himself secure, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and some of the rulers of Israel also.

2 Chronicles 21:5 Jehoram [was] thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 21:6 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did (for Ahab's daughter was his wife), and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 21:7 Yet the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David because of the covenant which He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

2 Chronicles 21:8 In his days Edom revolted against the rule of Judah and set up a king over themselves.

2 Chronicles 21:9 Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots with him. And he arose by night and struck down the Edomites who were surrounding him and the commanders of the chariots.

2 Chronicles 21:10 So Edom revolted against Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

2 Chronicles 21:11 Moreover, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot and led Judah astray.

2 Chronicles 21:12 Then a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet saying, "Thus says the LORD God of your father David, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father and the ways of Asa king of Judah,

2 Chronicles 21:13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot as the house of Ahab played the harlot, and you have also killed your brothers, your own family, who were better than you,

2 Chronicles 21:14 behold, the LORD is going to strike your people, your sons, your wives and all your possessions with a great calamity;

2 Chronicles 21:15 and you will suffer severe sickness, a disease of your bowels, until your bowels come out because of the sickness, day by day.'"

2 Chronicles 21:16 Then the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabs who bordered the Ethiopians;

2 Chronicles 21:17 and they came against Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions found in the king's house together with his sons and his wives, so that no son was left to him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

2 Chronicles 21:18 So after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable sickness.

2 Chronicles 21:19 Now it came about in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels came out because of his sickness and he died in great pain. And his people made no fire for him like the fire for his fathers.

2 Chronicles 21:20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years; and he departed with no one's regret, and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22:1 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, for the band of men who came with the Arabs to the camp had slain all the older [sons]. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2 Chronicles 22:2 Ahaziah [was] twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri.

2 Chronicles 22:3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly.

2 Chronicles 22:4 He did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab, for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

2 Chronicles 22:5 He also walked according to their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. But the Arameans wounded Joram.

2 Chronicles 22:6 So he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

2 Chronicles 22:7 Now the destruction of Ahaziah was from God, in that he went to Joram. For when he came, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

2 Chronicles 22:8 It came about when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers ministering to Ahaziah, and slew them.

2 Chronicles 22:9 He also sought Ahaziah, and they caught him while he was hiding in Samaria; they brought him to Jehu, put him to death and buried him. For they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So there was no one of the house of Ahaziah to retain the power of the kingdom.

2 Chronicles 22:10 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah.

2 Chronicles 22:11 But Jehoshabeath the king's daughter took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she would not put him to death.

2 Chronicles 22:12 He was hidden with them in the house of God six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23:1 Now in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Johanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, [and they entered] into a covenant with him.

2 Chronicles 23:2 They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the heads of the fathers' [households] of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 23:3 Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And Jehoiada said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has spoken concerning the sons of David.

2 Chronicles 23:4 "This is the thing which you shall do: one third of you, of the priests and Levites who come in on the sabbath, [shall be] gatekeepers,

2 Chronicles 23:5 and one third [shall be] at the king's house, and a third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people [shall be] in the courts of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 23:6 "But let no one enter the house of the LORD except the priests and the ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy. And let all the people keep the charge of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 23:7 “The Levites will surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house, let him be killed. Thus be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.”

2 Chronicles 23:8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with those who were to go out on the sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss [any of] the divisions.

2 Chronicles 23:9 Then Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David’s, which were in the house of God.

2 Chronicles 23:10 He stationed all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, around the king.

2 Chronicles 23:11 Then they brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him, and [gave him] the testimony and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, “[Long] live the king!”

2 Chronicles 23:12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came into the house of the LORD to the people.

2 Chronicles 23:13 She looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters [were] beside the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets, the singers with [their] musical instruments leading the praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and said, “Treason! Treason!”

2 Chronicles 23:14 Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, “Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, put to death with the sword.” For the priest said, “Let her not be put to death in the house of the LORD.”

2 Chronicles 23:15 So they seized her, and when she arrived at the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king’s house, they put her to death there.

2 Chronicles 23:16 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they would be the LORD’S people.

2 Chronicles 23:17 And all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, and they broke in pieces his altars and his images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

2 Chronicles 23:18 Moreover, Jehoiada placed the offices of the house of the LORD under the authority of the Levitical priests, whom David had assigned over the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses— with rejoicing and singing according to the order of David.

2 Chronicles 23:19 He stationed the gatekeepers of the house of the LORD, so that no one would enter [who was] in any way unclean.

2 Chronicles 23:20 He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came through the upper gate to the king's house. And they placed the king upon the royal throne.

2 Chronicles 23:21 So all of the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24:1 Joash [was] seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name [was] Zibiah from Beersheba.

2 Chronicles 24:2 Joash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

2 Chronicles 24:3 Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

2 Chronicles 24:4 Now it came about after this that Joash decided to restore the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:5 He gathered the priests and Levites and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God annually, and you shall do the matter quickly." But the Levites did not act quickly.

2 Chronicles 24:6 So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief [priest] and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the levy [fixed by] Moses the servant of the LORD on the congregation of Israel for the tent of the testimony?"

2 Chronicles 24:7 For the sons of the wicked Athaliah had broken into the house of God and even used the holy things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

2 Chronicles 24:8 So the king commanded, and they made a chest and set it outside by the gate of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:9 They made a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD the levy [fixed by] Moses the servant of God on Israel in the wilderness.

2 Chronicles 24:10 All the officers and all the people rejoiced and brought in their levies and dropped [them] into the chest until they had finished.

2 Chronicles 24:11 It came about whenever the chest was brought in to the king's officer by the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, then the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer would come, empty the chest, take it, and return it to its place. Thus they did daily and collected much money.

2 Chronicles 24:12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:13 So the workmen labored, and the repair work progressed in their hands, and they restored the house of God according to its specifications and strengthened it.

2 Chronicles 24:14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and it was made into utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for the service and the burnt offering, and pans and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

2 Chronicles 24:15 Now when Jehoiada reached a ripe old age he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old at his death.

2 Chronicles 24:16 They buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done well in Israel and to God and His house.

2 Chronicles 24:17 But after the death of Jehoiada the officials of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and the king listened to them.

2 Chronicles 24:18 They abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols; so wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their guilt.

2 Chronicles 24:19 Yet He sent prophets to them to bring them back to the LORD; though they testified against them, they would not listen.

2 Chronicles 24:20 Then the Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people and said to them, “Thus God has said, ‘Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD and do not prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, He has also forsaken you.’“

2 Chronicles 24:21 So they conspired against him and at the command of the king they stoned him to death in the court of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:22 Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which his father Jehoiada had shown him, but he murdered his son. And as he died he said, “May the LORD see and avenge!”

2 Chronicles 24:23 Now it happened at the turn of the year that the army of the Arameans came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, destroyed all the officials of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

2 Chronicles 24:24 Indeed the army of the Arameans came with a small number of men; yet the LORD delivered a very great army into their hands, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.

2 Chronicles 24:25 When they had departed from him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and murdered him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 24:26 Now these are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

2 Chronicles 24:27 As to his sons and the many oracles against him and the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the treatise of the Book of the Kings. Then Amaziah his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 25:2 He did right in the sight of the LORD, yet not with a whole heart.

2 Chronicles 25:3 Now it came about as soon as the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, that he killed his servants who had slain his father the king.

2 Chronicles 25:4 However, he did not put their children to death, but [did] as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, which the LORD commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death for sons, nor sons be put to death for fathers, but each shall be put to death for his own sin."

2 Chronicles 25:5 Moreover, Amaziah assembled Judah and appointed them according to [their] fathers' households under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds throughout Judah and Benjamin; and he took a census of those from twenty years old and upward and found them to be 300,000 choice men, [able] to go to war [and] handle spear and shield.

2 Chronicles 25:6 He hired also 100,000 valiant warriors out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver.

2 Chronicles 25:7 But a man of God came to him saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel [nor with] any of the sons of Ephraim.

2 Chronicles 25:8 "But if you do go, do [it], be strong for the battle; [yet] God will bring you down before the enemy, for God has power to help and to bring down."

2 Chronicles 25:9 Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what [shall we] do for the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "The LORD has much more to give you than this."

2 Chronicles 25:10 Then Amaziah dismissed them, the troops which came to him from Ephraim, to go home; so their anger burned against Judah and they returned home in fierce anger.

2 Chronicles 25:11 Now Amaziah strengthened himself and led his people forth, and went to the Valley of Salt and struck down 10,000 of the sons of Seir.

2 Chronicles 25:12 The sons of Judah also captured 10,000 alive and brought them to the top of the cliff and threw them down from the top of the cliff, so that they were all dashed to pieces.

2 Chronicles 25:13 But the troops whom Amaziah sent back from going with him to battle, raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck down 3,000 of them and plundered much spoil.

2 Chronicles 25:14 Now after Amaziah came from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought the gods of the sons of Seir, set them up as his gods, bowed down before them and burned incense to them.

2 Chronicles 25:15 Then the anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, “Why have you sought the gods of the people who have not delivered their own people from your hand?”

2 Chronicles 25:16 As he was talking with him, the king said to him, “Have we appointed you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be struck down?” Then the prophet stopped and said, “I know that God has planned to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.”

2 Chronicles 25:17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us face each other.”

2 Chronicles 25:18 Joash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thorn bush which was in Lebanon sent to the cedar which was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ But there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon and trampled the thorn bush.

2 Chronicles 25:19 “You said, ‘Behold, you have defeated Edom.’ And your heart has become proud in boasting. Now stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble so that you, even you, would fall and Judah with you?”

2 Chronicles 25:20 But Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God, that He might deliver them into the hand [of Joash] because they had sought the gods of Edom.

2 Chronicles 25:21 So Joash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah.

2 Chronicles 25:22 Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled each to his tent.

2 Chronicles 25:23 Then Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, 400 cubits.

2 Chronicles 25:24 [He took] all the gold and silver and all the utensils which were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 25:25 And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

2 Chronicles 25:26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

2 Chronicles 25:27 From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD they conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

2 Chronicles 25:28 Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

2 Chronicles 26:1 And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who [was] sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah.

2 Chronicles 26:2 He built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

2 Chronicles 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jechiliah of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 26:4 He did right in the sight of the LORD according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

2 Chronicles 26:5 He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the vision of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God prospered him.

2 Chronicles 26:6 Now he went out and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in [the area of] Ashdod and among the Philistines.

2 Chronicles 26:7 God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur-baal, and the Meunites.

2 Chronicles 26:8 The Ammonites also gave tribute to Uzziah, and his fame extended to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.

2 Chronicles 26:9 Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate and at the Valley Gate and at the corner buttress and fortified them.

2 Chronicles 26:10 He built towers in the wilderness and hewed many cisterns, for he had much livestock, both in the lowland and in the plain. [He also had] plowmen and vinedressers in the hill country and the fertile fields, for he loved the soil.

2 Chronicles 26:11 Moreover, Uzziah had an army ready for battle, which entered combat by divisions according to the number of their muster, prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's officers.

2 Chronicles 26:12 The total number of the heads of the households, of valiant warriors, was 2,600.

2 Chronicles 26:13 Under their direction was an elite army of 307,500, who could wage war with great power, to help the king against the enemy.

2 Chronicles 26:14 Moreover, Uzziah prepared for all the army shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows and sling stones.

2 Chronicles 26:15 In Jerusalem he made engines [of war] invented by skillful men to be on the towers and on the corners for the purpose of shooting arrows and great stones. Hence his fame spread afar, for he was marvelously helped until he [was] strong.

2 Chronicles 26:16 But when he became strong, his heart was so proud that he acted corruptly, and he was unfaithful to the LORD his God, for he entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2 Chronicles 26:17 Then Azariah the priest entered after him and with him eighty priests of the LORD, valiant men.

2 Chronicles 26:18 They opposed Uzziah the king and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful and will have no honor from the LORD God."

2 Chronicles 26:19 But Uzziah, with a censer in his hand for burning incense, was enraged; and while he was enraged with the priests, the leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense.

2 Chronicles 26:20 Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and behold, he [was] leprous on his forehead; and they hurried him out of there, and he himself also hastened to get out because the LORD had smitten him.

2 Chronicles 26:21 King Uzziah was a leper to the day of his death; and he lived in a separate house, being a leper, for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son [was] over the king's house judging the people of the land.

2 Chronicles 26:22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first to last, the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, has written.

2 Chronicles 26:23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the grave which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." And Jotham his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

2 Chronicles 27:2 He did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done; however he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people continued acting corruptly.

2 Chronicles 27:3 He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively the wall of Ophel.

2 Chronicles 27:4 Moreover, he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and he built fortresses and towers on the wooded [hills].

2 Chronicles 27:5 He fought also with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them so that the Ammonites gave him during that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites also paid him this [amount] in the second and in the third year.

2 Chronicles 27:6 So Jotham became mighty because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 27:7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, even all his wars and his acts, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 27:9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 28:1 Ahaz [was] twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do right in the sight of the LORD as David his father [had done].

2 Chronicles 28:2 But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel; he also made molten images for the Baals.

2 Chronicles 28:3 Moreover, he burned incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom and burned his sons in fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons of Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:4 He sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills and under every green tree.

2 Chronicles 28:5 Wherefore, the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Aram; and they defeated him and carried away from him a great number of captives and brought [them] to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted him with heavy casualties.

2 Chronicles 28:6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah 120,000 in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 28:7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son and Azrikam the ruler of the house and Elkanah the second to the king.

2 Chronicles 28:8 The sons of Israel carried away captive of their brethren 200,000 women, sons and daughters; and they took also a great deal of spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 28:9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name [was] Oded; and he went out to meet the army which came to Samaria and said to them, "Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage [which] has even reached heaven.

2 Chronicles 28:10 "Now you are proposing to subjugate for yourselves the people of Judah and Jerusalem for male and female slaves. Surely, [do] you not [have] transgressions of your own against the LORD your God?

2 Chronicles 28:11 "Now therefore, listen to me and return the captives whom you captured from your brothers, for the burning anger of the LORD is against you."

2 Chronicles 28:12 Then some of the heads of the sons of Ephraim— Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai— arose against those who were coming from the battle,

2 Chronicles 28:13 and said to them, "You must not bring the captives in here, for you are proposing [to bring] upon us guilt against the LORD adding to our sins and our guilt; for our guilt is great so that [His] burning anger is against Israel."

2 Chronicles 28:14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the officers and all the assembly.

2 Chronicles 28:15 Then the men who were designated by name arose, took the captives, and they clothed all their naked ones from the spoil; and they gave them clothes and sandals, fed them and gave them drink, anointed them [with oil], led all their feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers; then they returned to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 28:16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria for help.

2 Chronicles 28:17 For again the Edomites had come and attacked Judah and carried away captives.

2 Chronicles 28:18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the Negev of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, and Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages, and they settled there.

2 Chronicles 28:19 For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had brought about a lack of restraint in Judah and was very unfaithful to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 28:20 So Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him.

2 Chronicles 28:21 Although Ahaz took a portion out of the house of the LORD and out of the palace of the king and of the princes, and gave [it] to the king of Assyria, it did not help him.

2 Chronicles 28:22 Now in the time of his distress this same King Ahaz became yet more unfaithful to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 28:23 For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, and said, “Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me.” But they became the downfall of him and all Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:24 Moreover, when Ahaz gathered together the utensils of the house of God, he cut the utensils of the house of God in pieces; and he closed the doors of the house of the LORD and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 28:25 In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

2 Chronicles 28:26 Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:27 So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 29:1 Hezekiah became king [when he was] twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name [was] Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

2 Chronicles 29:2 He did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

2 Chronicles 29:3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

2 Chronicles 29:4 He brought in the priests and the Levites and gathered them into the square on the east.

2 Chronicles 29:5 Then he said to them, “Listen to me, O Levites. Consecrate yourselves now, and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry the uncleanness out from the holy place.

2 Chronicles 29:6 “For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken Him and turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and have turned [their] backs.

2 Chronicles 29:7 “They have also shut the doors of the porch and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:8 “Therefore the wrath of the LORD was against Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of terror, of horror, and of hissing, as you see with your own eyes.

2 Chronicles 29:9 “For behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

2 Chronicles 29:10 “Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His burning anger may turn away from us.

2 Chronicles 29:11 “My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to minister to Him, and to be His ministers and burn incense.”

2 Chronicles 29:12 Then the Levites arose: Mahath, the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, from the sons of the Kohathites; and from the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and from the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

2 Chronicles 29:13 and from the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; and from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

2 Chronicles 29:14 and from the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2 Chronicles 29:15 They assembled their brothers, consecrated themselves, and went in to cleanse the house of the LORD, according to the commandment of the king by the words of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:16 So the priests went in to the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse [it], and every unclean thing which they found in the temple of the LORD they brought out to the court of the house of the LORD. Then the Levites received [it] to carry out to the Kidron valley.

2 Chronicles 29:17 Now they began the consecration on the first [day] of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the porch of the LORD. Then they consecrated the house of the LORD in eight days, and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

2 Chronicles 29:18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, “We have cleansed the whole house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all of its utensils, and the table of showbread with all of its utensils.

2 Chronicles 29:19 “Moreover, all the utensils which King Ahaz had discarded during his reign in his unfaithfulness, we have prepared and consecrated; and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.”

2 Chronicles 29:20 Then King Hezekiah arose early and assembled the princes of the city and went up to the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. And he ordered the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer [them] on the altar of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:22 So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They also slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; they slaughtered the lambs also and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

2 Chronicles 29:23 Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.

2 Chronicles 29:24 The priests slaughtered them and purged the altar with their blood to atone for all Israel, for the king ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:25 He then stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with harps and with lyres, according to the command of David and of Gad the king’s seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for the command was from the LORD through His prophets.

2 Chronicles 29:26 The Levites stood with the [musical] instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

2 Chronicles 29:27 Then Hezekiah gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD also began with the trumpets, [accompanied] by the instruments of David, king of Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:28 While the whole assembly worshiped, the singers also sang and the trumpets sounded; all this [continued] until the burnt offering was finished.

2 Chronicles 29:29 Now at the completion of the burnt offerings, the king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped.

2 Chronicles 29:30 Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with joy, and bowed down and worshiped.

2 Chronicles 29:31 Then Hezekiah said, “Now [that] you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD.” And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all those who were willing [brought] burnt offerings.

2 Chronicles 29:32 The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:33 The consecrated things were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep.

2 Chronicles 29:34 But the priests were too few, so that they were unable to skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was completed and until the [other] priests had consecrated themselves. For the Levites were more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the priests.

2 Chronicles 29:35 There [were] also many burnt offerings with the fat of the peace offerings and with the libations for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was established [again].

2 Chronicles 29:36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over what God had prepared for the people, because the thing came about suddenly.

2 Chronicles 30:1 Now Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 30:2 For the king and his princes and all the assembly in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month,

2 Chronicles 30:3 since they could not celebrate it at that time, because the priests had not consecrated themselves in sufficient numbers, nor had the people been gathered to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 30:4 Thus the thing was right in the sight of the king and all the assembly.

2 Chronicles 30:5 So they established a decree to circulate a proclamation throughout all Israel from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem. For they had not celebrated [it] in great numbers as it was prescribed.

2 Chronicles 30:6 The couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his princes, even according to the command of the king, saying, “O sons of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that He may return to those of you who escaped [and] are left from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

2 Chronicles 30:7 “Do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who were unfaithful to the LORD God of their fathers, so that He made them a horror, as you see.

2 Chronicles 30:8 “Now do not stiffen your neck like your fathers, but yield to the LORD and enter His sanctuary which He has consecrated forever, and serve the LORD your God, that His burning anger may turn away from you.

2 Chronicles 30:9 “For if you return to the LORD, your brothers and your sons [will find] compassion before those who led them captive and will return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate, and will not turn [His] face away from you if you return to Him.”

2 Chronicles 30:10 So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun, but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

2 Chronicles 30:11 Nevertheless some men of Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 30:12 The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the princes commanded by the word of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:13 Now many people were gathered at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very large assembly.

2 Chronicles 30:14 They arose and removed the altars which [were] in Jerusalem; they also removed all the incense altars and cast [them] into the brook Kidron.

2 Chronicles 30:15 Then they slaughtered the Passover [lambs] on the fourteenth of the second month. And the priests and Levites were ashamed of themselves, and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:16 They stood at their stations after their custom, according to the law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood [which they received] from the hand of the Levites.

2 Chronicles 30:17 For [there were] many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves; therefore, the Levites [were] over the slaughter of the Passover [lambs] for everyone who [was] unclean, in order to consecrate [them] to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:18 For a multitude of the people, [even] many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than prescribed. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, “May the good LORD pardon

2 Chronicles 30:19 everyone who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though not according to the purification [rules] of the sanctuary."

2 Chronicles 30:20 So the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

2 Chronicles 30:21 The sons of Israel present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread [for] seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day after day with loud instruments to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:22 Then Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good insight [in the things] of the LORD. So they ate for the appointed seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and giving thanks to the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 30:23 Then the whole assembly decided to celebrate [the feast] another seven days, so they celebrated the seven days with joy.

2 Chronicles 30:24 For Hezekiah king of Judah had contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the princes had contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep; and a large number of priests consecrated themselves.

2 Chronicles 30:25 All the assembly of Judah rejoiced, with the priests and the Levites and all the assembly that came from Israel, both the sojourners who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah.

2 Chronicles 30:26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, because there was nothing like this in Jerusalem since the days of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.

2 Chronicles 30:27 Then the Levitical priests arose and blessed the people; and their voice was heard and their prayer came to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

2 Chronicles 31:1 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the Asherim and pulled down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each to his possession.

2 Chronicles 31:2 And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites by their divisions, each according to his service, [both] the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 31:3 [He] also [appointed] the king's portion of his goods for the burnt offerings, [namely], for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths and for the new moons and for the fixed festivals, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 31:4 Also he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to the law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 31:5 As soon as the order spread, the sons of Israel provided in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of all.

2 Chronicles 31:6 The sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of sacred gifts which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and placed [them] in heaps.

2 Chronicles 31:7 In the third month they began to make the heaps, and finished [them] by the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 31:8 When Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.

2 Chronicles 31:9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

2 Chronicles 31:10 Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok said to him, “Since the contributions began to be brought into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat with plenty left over, for the LORD has blessed His people, and this great quantity is left over.”

2 Chronicles 31:11 Then Hezekiah commanded [them] to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared [them].

2 Chronicles 31:12 They faithfully brought in the contributions and the tithes and the consecrated things; and Conaniah the Levite [was] the officer in charge of them and his brother Shimei [was] second.

2 Chronicles 31:13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath and Benaiah [were] overseers under the authority of Conaniah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of King Hezekiah, and Azariah [was] the [chief] officer of the house of God.

2 Chronicles 31:14 Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the eastern [gate, was] over the freewill offerings of God, to apportion the contributions for the LORD and the most holy things.

2 Chronicles 31:15 Under his authority [were] Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah in the cities of the priests, to distribute faithfully [their portions] to their brothers by divisions, whether great or small,

2 Chronicles 31:16 without regard to their genealogical enrollment, to the males from thirty years old and upward— everyone who entered the house of the LORD for his daily obligations— for their work in their duties according to their divisions;

2 Chronicles 31:17 as well as the priests who were enrolled genealogically according to their fathers' households, and the Levites from twenty years old and upwards, by their duties [and] their divisions.

2 Chronicles 31:18 The genealogical enrollment [included] all their little children, their wives, their sons and their daughters, for the whole assembly, for they consecrated themselves faithfully in holiness.

2 Chronicles 31:19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests [who were] in the pasture lands of their cities, or in each and every city, [there were] men who were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone genealogically enrolled among the Levites.

2 Chronicles 31:20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah; and he did what [was] good, right and true before the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 31:21 Every work which he began in the service of the house of God in law and in commandment, seeking his God, he did with all his heart and prospered.

2 Chronicles 32:1 After these acts of faithfulness Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and besieged the fortified cities, and thought to break into them for himself.

2 Chronicles 32:2 Now when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to make war on Jerusalem,

2 Chronicles 32:3 he decided with his officers and his warriors to cut off the [supply of] water from the springs which [were] outside the city, and they helped him.

2 Chronicles 32:4 So many people assembled and stopped up all the springs and the stream which flowed through the region, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find abundant water?"

2 Chronicles 32:5 And he took courage and rebuilt all the wall that had been broken down and erected towers on it, and [built] another outside wall and strengthened the Millo [in] the city of David, and made weapons and shields in great number.

2 Chronicles 32:6 He appointed military officers over the people and gathered them to him in the square at the city gate, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

2 Chronicles 32:7 "Be strong and courageous, do not fear or be dismayed because of the king of Assyria nor because of all the horde that is with him; for the one with us is greater than the one with him.

2 Chronicles 32:8 "With him is [only] an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles." And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 32:9 After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem while he [was] besieging Lachish with all his forces with him, against Hezekiah king of Judah and against all Judah who [were] at Jerusalem, saying,

2 Chronicles 32:10 “Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, ‘On what are you trusting that you are remaining in Jerusalem under siege?

2 Chronicles 32:11 ‘Is not Hezekiah misleading you to give yourselves over to die by hunger and by thirst, saying, “The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria “?

2 Chronicles 32:12 ‘Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, “You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense “?

2 Chronicles 32:13 ‘Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands able at all to deliver their land from my hand?

2 Chronicles 32:14 ‘Who [was there] among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed who could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?

2 Chronicles 32:15 ‘Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?’“

2 Chronicles 32:16 His servants spoke further against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.

2 Chronicles 32:17 He also wrote letters to insult the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand.”

2 Chronicles 32:18 They called this out with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so that they might take the city.

2 Chronicles 32:19 They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of men’s hands.

2 Chronicles 32:20 But King Hezekiah and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed about this and cried out to heaven.

2 Chronicles 32:21 And the LORD sent an angel who destroyed every mighty warrior, commander and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned in shame to his own land. And when he had entered the temple of his god, some of his own children killed him there with the sword.

2 Chronicles 32:22 So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from the hand of all [others], and guided them on every side.

2 Chronicles 32:23 And many were bringing gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem and choice presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

2 Chronicles 32:24 In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill; and he prayed to the LORD, and the LORD spoke to him and gave him a sign.

2 Chronicles 32:25 But Hezekiah gave no return for the benefit he received, because his heart was proud; therefore wrath came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 32:26 However, Hezekiah humbled the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah.

2 Chronicles 32:27 Now Hezekiah had immense riches and honor; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuable articles,

2 Chronicles 32:28 storehouses also for the produce of grain, wine and oil, pens for all kinds of cattle and sheepfolds for the flocks.

2 Chronicles 32:29 He made cities for himself and acquired flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very great wealth.

2 Chronicles 32:30 It was Hezekiah who stopped the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all that he did.

2 Chronicles 32:31 Even [in the matter of] the envoys of the rulers of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him [alone only] to test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

2 Chronicles 32:32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his deeds of devotion, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 32:33 So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 33:2 He did evil in the sight of the LORD according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:3 For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; he also erected altars for the Baals and made Asherim, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

2 Chronicles 33:4 He built altars in the house of the LORD of which the LORD had said, “My name shall be in Jerusalem forever.”

2 Chronicles 33:5 For he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 33:6 He made his sons pass through the fire in the valley of Ben-hinnom; and he practiced witchcraft, used divination, practiced sorcery and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him [to anger].

2 Chronicles 33:7 Then he put the carved image of the idol which he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, “In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

2 Chronicles 33:8 and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them according to all the law, the statutes and the ordinances [given] through Moses.”

2 Chronicles 33:9 Thus Manasseh misled Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

2 Chronicles 33:11 Therefore the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze [chains] and took him to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 33:12 When he was in distress, he entreated the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

2 Chronicles 33:13 When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD [was] God.

2 Chronicles 33:14 Now after this he built the outer wall of the city of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the Fish Gate; and he encircled the Ophel [with it] and made it very high. Then he put army commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah.

2 Chronicles 33:15 He also removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw [them] outside the city.

2 Chronicles 33:16 He set up the altar of the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it; and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:17 Nevertheless the people still sacrificed in the high places, [although] only to the LORD their God.

2 Chronicles 33:18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh even his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are among the records of the kings of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:19 His prayer also and [how God] was entreated by him, and all his sin, his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherim and the carved images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of the Hozai.

2 Chronicles 33:20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And Amon his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 33:21 Amon [was] twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 33:22 He did evil in the sight of the LORD as Manasseh his father had done, and Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and he served them.

2 Chronicles 33:23 Moreover, he did not humble himself before the LORD as his father Manasseh had done, but Amon multiplied guilt.

2 Chronicles 33:24 Finally his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house.

2 Chronicles 33:25 But the people of the land killed all the conspirators against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34:1 Josiah [was] eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:2 He did right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David and did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

2 Chronicles 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign while he was still a youth, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, the carved images and the molten images.

2 Chronicles 34:4 They tore down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars that were high above them he chopped down; also the Asherim, the carved images and the molten images he broke in pieces and ground to powder and scattered [it] on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

2 Chronicles 34:5 Then he burned the bones of the priests on their altars and purged Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:6 In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, even as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding ruins,

2 Chronicles 34:7 he also tore down the altars and beat the Asherim and the carved images into powder, and chopped down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah an official of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 34:9 They came to Hilkiah the high priest and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the doorkeepers, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:10 Then they gave [it] into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD used it to restore and repair the house.

2 Chronicles 34:11 They in turn gave [it] to the carpenters and to the builders to buy quarried stone and timber for couplings and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

2 Chronicles 34:12 The men did the work faithfully with foremen over them to supervise: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites of the sons of Merari, Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of the Kohathites, and the Levites, all who were skillful with musical instruments.

2 Chronicles 34:13 [They were] also over the burden bearers, and supervised all the workmen from job to job; and [some] of the Levites [were] scribes and officials and gatekeepers.

2 Chronicles 34:14 When they were bringing out the money which had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD [given] by Moses.

2 Chronicles 34:15 Hilkiah responded and said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

2 Chronicles 34:16 Then Shaphan brought the book to the king and reported further word to the king, saying, “Everything that was entrusted to your servants they are doing.

2 Chronicles 34:17 “They have also emptied out the money which was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hands of the supervisors and the workmen.”

2 Chronicles 34:18 Moreover, Shaphan the scribe told the king saying, “Hilkiah the priest gave me a book.” And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

2 Chronicles 34:19 When the king heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes.

2 Chronicles 34:20 Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,

2 Chronicles 34:21 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book which has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD which is poured out on us because our fathers have not observed the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."

2 Chronicles 34:22 So Hilkiah and [those] whom the king had told went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her regarding this.

2 Chronicles 34:23 She said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me,

2 Chronicles 34:24 thus says the LORD, "Behold, I am bringing evil on this place and on its inhabitants, [even] all the curses written in the book which they have read in the presence of the king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 34:25 "Because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place and it shall not be quenched."'

2 Chronicles 34:26 "But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you will say to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel [regarding] the words which you have heard,

2 Chronicles 34:27 "Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and [because] you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes and wept before Me, I truly have heard you," declares the LORD.

2 Chronicles 34:28 "Behold, I will gather you to your fathers and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, so your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring on this place and on its inhabitants."'" And they brought back word to the king.

2 Chronicles 34:29 Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:30 The king went up to the house of the LORD and all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites and all the people, from the greatest to the least; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 34:31 Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD to walk after the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant written in this book.

2 Chronicles 34:32 Moreover, he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand [with him]. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 34:33 Josiah removed all the abominations from all the lands belonging to the sons of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel to serve the LORD their God. Throughout his lifetime they did not turn from following the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 35:1 Then Josiah celebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover [animals] on the fourteenth [day] of the first month.

2 Chronicles 35:2 He set the priests in their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 35:3 He also said to the Levites who taught all Israel [and] who were holy to the LORD, “Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; it will be a burden on [your] shoulders no longer. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.

2 Chronicles 35:4 “Prepare [yourselves] by your fathers’ households in your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel and according to the writing of his son Solomon.

2 Chronicles 35:5 “Moreover, stand in the holy place according to the sections of the fathers’ households of your brethren the lay people, and according to the Levites, by division of a father’s household.

2 Chronicles 35:6 “Now slaughter the Passover [animals], sanctify yourselves and prepare for your brethren to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses.”

2 Chronicles 35:7 Josiah contributed to the lay people, to all who were present, flocks of lambs and young goats, all for the Passover offerings, numbering 30,000 plus 3,000 bulls; these were from the king’s possessions.

2 Chronicles 35:8 His officers also contributed a freewill offering to the people, the priests and the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the officials of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings 2,600 [from the flocks] and 300 bulls.

2 Chronicles 35:9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the officers of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for the Passover offerings 5,000 [from the flocks] and 500 bulls.

2 Chronicles 35:10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood at their stations and the Levites by their divisions according to the king’s command.

2 Chronicles 35:11 They slaughtered the Passover [animals], and while the priests sprinkled the blood [received] from their hand, the Levites skinned [them].

2 Chronicles 35:12 Then they removed the burnt offerings that [they] might give them to the sections of the fathers' households of the lay people to present to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. [They did] this also with the bulls.

2 Chronicles 35:13 So they roasted the Passover [animals] on the fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled the holy things in pots, in kettles, in pans, and carried [them] speedily to all the lay people.

2 Chronicles 35:14 Afterwards they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, [were] offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

2 Chronicles 35:15 The singers, the sons of Asaph, [were] also at their stations according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers at each gate did not have to depart from their service, because the Levites their brethren prepared for them.

2 Chronicles 35:16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared on that day to celebrate the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD according to the command of King Josiah.

2 Chronicles 35:17 Thus the sons of Israel who were present celebrated the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days.

2 Chronicles 35:18 There had not been celebrated a Passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the kings of Israel celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 35:19 In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign this Passover was celebrated.

2 Chronicles 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt came up to make war at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to engage him.

2 Chronicles 35:21 But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "What have we to do with each other, O King of Judah? [I am] not [coming] against you today but against the house with which I am at war, and God has ordered me to hurry. Stop for your own sake from [interfering with] God who is with me, so that He will not destroy you."

2 Chronicles 35:22 However, Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to make war with him; nor did he listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but came to make war on the plain of Megiddo.

2 Chronicles 35:23 The archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, “Take me away, for I am badly wounded.”

2 Chronicles 35:24 So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

2 Chronicles 35:25 Then Jeremiah chanted a lament for Josiah. And all the male and female singers speak about Josiah in their lamentations to this day. And they made them an ordinance in Israel; behold, they are also written in the Lamentations.

2 Chronicles 35:26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion as written in the law of the LORD,

2 Chronicles 35:27 and his acts, first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36:1 Then the people of the land took Joahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in place of his father in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:2 Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:3 Then the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

2 Chronicles 36:4 The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Joahaz his brother and brought him to Egypt.

2 Chronicles 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 36:6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him and bound him with bronze [chains] to take him to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also brought [some] of the articles of the house of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his temple at Babylon.

2 Chronicles 36:8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 36:9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 36:10 At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon with the valuable articles of the house of the LORD, and he made his kinsman Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:12 He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet who spoke for the LORD.

2 Chronicles 36:13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear [allegiance] by God. But he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 36:14 Furthermore, all the officials of the priests and the people were very unfaithful [following] all the abominations of the nations; and they defiled the house of the LORD which He had sanctified in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:15 The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent [word] to them again and again by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place;

2 Chronicles 36:16 but they [continually] mocked the messengers of God, despised His words and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, until there was no remedy.

2 Chronicles 36:17 Therefore He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or infirm; He gave [them] all into his hand.

2 Chronicles 36:18 All the articles of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his officers, he brought [them] all to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 36:19 Then they burned the house of God and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its fortified buildings with fire and destroyed all its valuable articles.

2 Chronicles 36:20 Those who had escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon; and they were servants to him and to his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia,

2 Chronicles 36:21 to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths. All the days of its desolation it kept sabbath until seventy years were complete.

2 Chronicles 36:22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia— in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah— the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also [put it] in writing, saying,

2 Chronicles 36:23 “Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all His people, may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up!’“

Ezra

1:1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also [put it] in writing, saying:

Ezra 1:2 “Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

Ezra 1:3 ‘Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him! Let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel; He is the God who is in Jerusalem.

Ezra 1:4 ‘Every survivor, at whatever place he may live, let the men of that place support him with silver and gold, with goods and cattle, together with a freewill offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.’“

Ezra 1:5 Then the heads of fathers’ [households] of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites arose, even everyone whose spirit God had stirred to go up and rebuild the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

Ezra 1:6 All those about them encouraged them with articles of silver, with gold, with goods, with cattle and with valuables, aside from all that was given as a freewill offering.

Ezra 1:7 Also King Cyrus brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and put in the house of his gods;

Ezra 1:8 and Cyrus, king of Persia, had them brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and he counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

Ezra 1:9 Now this [was] their number: 30 gold dishes, 1,000 silver dishes, 29 duplicates;

Ezra 1:10 30 gold bowls, 410 silver bowls of a second [kind and] 1,000 other articles.

Ezra 1:11 All the articles of gold and silver [numbered] 5,400. Sheshbazzar brought them all up with the exiles who went up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2:1 Now these are the people of the province who came up out of the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city.

Ezra 2:2 These came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum [and] Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

Ezra 2:3 the sons of Parosh, 2,172;

Ezra 2:4 the sons of Shephatiah, 372;

Ezra 2:5 the sons of Arah, 775;

Ezra 2:6 the sons of Pahath-moab of the sons of Jeshua [and] Joab, 2,812;

Ezra 2:13 the sons of Adonikam, 666;

Ezra 2:14 the sons of Bigvai, 2,056;

Ezra 2:15 the sons of Adin, 454;

Ezra 2:16 the sons of Ater of Hezekiah, 98;

Ezra 2:17 the sons of Bezai, 323;

Ezra 2:18 the sons of Jorah, 112;

Ezra 2:19 the sons of Hashum, 223;

Ezra 2:20 the sons of Gibbar, 95;

Ezra 2:21 the men of Bethlehem, 123;

Ezra 2:22 the men of Netophah, 56;

Ezra 2:23 the men of Anathoth, 128;

Ezra 2:24 the sons of Azmaveth, 42;

Ezra 2:25 the sons of Kiriath-arim, Chephirah and Beeroth, 743;

Ezra 2:26 the sons of Ramah and Geba, 621;

Ezra 2:27 the men of Michmas, 122;

Ezra 2:28 the men of Bethel and Ai, 223;

Ezra 2:29 the sons of Nebo, 52;

Ezra 2:30 the sons of Magbish, 156;

Ezra 2:31 the sons of the other Elam, 1,254;

Ezra 2:32 the sons of Harim, 320;

Ezra 2:33 the sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, 725;

Ezra 2:34 the men of Jericho, 345;

Ezra 2:35 the sons of Senaah, 3,630.

Ezra 2:36 The priests: the sons of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua, 973;

Ezra 2:37 the sons of Immer, 1,052;

Ezra 2:38 the sons of Pashhur, 1,247;

Ezra 2:39 the sons of Harim, 1,017.

Ezra 2:40 The Levites: the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah, 74.

Ezra 2:41 The singers: the sons of Asaph, 128.

Ezra 2:42 The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, in all 139.

Ezra 2:43 The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,

Ezra 2:44 the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon,

Ezra 2:45 the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub,

Ezra 2:46 the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmai, the sons of Hanan,

Ezra 2:47 the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah,

Ezra 2:48 the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam,

Ezra 2:49 the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai,

Ezra 2:50 the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephisim,

Ezra 2:51 the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,

Ezra 2:52 the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,

Ezra 2:53 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,

Ezra 2:54 the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

Ezra 2:55 The sons of Solomon’s servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda,

Ezra 2:56 the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,

Ezra 2:57 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Ami.

Ezra 2:58 All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon’s servants were 392.

Ezra 2:59 Now these are those who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan [and] Immer, but they were not able to give evidence of their fathers' households and their descendants, whether they were of Israel:

Ezra 2:60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, 652.

Ezra 2:61 Of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and he was called by their name.

Ezra 2:62 These searched [among] their ancestral registration, but they could not be located; therefore they were considered unclean [and excluded] from the priesthood.

Ezra 2:63 The governor said to them that they should not eat from the most holy things until a priest stood up with Urim and Thummim.

Ezra 2:64 The whole assembly numbered 42,360,

Ezra 2:65 besides their male and female servants who numbered 7,337; and they had 200 singing men and women.

Ezra 2:66 Their horses were 736; their mules, 245;

Ezra 2:67 their camels, 435; [their] donkeys, 6,720.

Ezra 2:68 Some of the heads of fathers' [households], when they arrived at the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to restore it on its foundation.

Ezra 2:69 According to their ability they gave to the treasury for the work 61,000 gold drachmas and 5,000 silver minas and 100 priestly garments.

Ezra 2:70 Now the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Ezra 3:1 Now when the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel [were] in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

Ezra 3:2 Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers arose and built the altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses, the man of God.

Ezra 3:3 So they set up the altar on its foundation, for they were terrified because of the peoples of the lands; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, burnt offerings morning and evening.

Ezra 3:4 They celebrated the Feast of Booths, as it is written, and [offered] the fixed number of burnt offerings daily, according to the ordinance, as each day required;

Ezra 3:5 and afterward [there was] a continual burnt offering, also for the new moons and for all the fixed festivals of the LORD that were consecrated, and from everyone who offered a freewill offering to the LORD.

Ezra 3:6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, but the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid.

Ezra 3:7 Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and food, drink and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa, according to the permission they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

Ezra 3:8 Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all who came from the captivity to Jerusalem, began [the work] and appointed the Levites from twenty years and older to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.

Ezra 3:9 Then Jeshua [with] his sons and brothers stood united [with] Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah [and] the sons of Henadad [with] their sons and brothers the Levites, to oversee the workmen in the temple of God.

Ezra 3:10 Now when the builders had laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD according to the directions of King David of Israel.

Ezra 3:11 They sang, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, [saying], "For He is good, for His lovingkindness is upon Israel forever." And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Ezra 3:12 Yet many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' [households], the old men who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, while many shouted aloud for joy,

Ezra 3:13 so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard far away.

Ezra 4:1 Now when the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the people of the exile were building a temple to the LORD God of Israel,

Ezra 4:2 they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers' [households], and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we, like you, seek your God; and we have been sacrificing to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here."

Ezra 4:3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers' [households] of Israel said to them, "You have nothing in common with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves will together build to the LORD God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia has commanded us."

Ezra 4:4 Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and frightened them from building,

Ezra 4:5 and hired counselors against them to frustrate their counsel all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezra 4:6 Now in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezra 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his colleagues wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the text of the letter was written in Aramaic and translated [from] Aramaic.

Ezra 4:8 Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes, as follows—

Ezra 4:9 then [wrote] Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues, the judges and the lesser governors, the officials, the secretaries, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites,

Ezra 4:10 and the rest of the nations which the great and honorable Osnappar deported and settled in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the region beyond the River. Now

Ezra 4:11 this is the copy of the letter which they sent to him: "To King Artaxerxes: Your servants, the men in the region beyond the River, and now

Ezra 4:12 let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem; they are rebuilding the rebellious and evil city and are finishing the walls and repairing the foundations.

Ezra 4:13 "Now let it be known to the king, that if that city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, they will not pay tribute, custom or toll, and it will damage the revenue of the kings.

Ezra 4:14 "Now because we are in the service of the palace, and it is not fitting for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and informed the king,

Ezra 4:15 so that a search may be made in the record books of your fathers. And you will discover in the record books and learn that that city is a rebellious city and damaging to kings and provinces, and that they have incited revolt within it in past days; therefore that city was laid waste.

Ezra 4:16 "We inform the king that if that city is rebuilt and the walls finished, as a result you will have no possession in [the province] beyond the River."

Ezra 4:17 [Then] the king sent an answer to Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their colleagues who live in Samaria and in the rest of [the provinces] beyond the River: “Peace. And now

Ezra 4:18 the document which you sent to us has been translated and read before me.

Ezra 4:19 “A decree has been issued by me, and a search has been made and it has been discovered that that city has risen up against the kings in past days, that rebellion and revolt have been perpetrated in it,

Ezra 4:20 that mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem, governing all [the provinces] beyond the River, and that tribute, custom and toll were paid to them.

Ezra 4:21 “So, now issue a decree to make these men stop [work], that this city may not be rebuilt until a decree is issued by me.

Ezra 4:22 “Beware of being negligent in carrying out this [matter]; why should damage increase to the detriment of the kings?”

Ezra 4:23 Then as soon as the copy of King Artaxerxes’ document was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their colleagues, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force of arms.

Ezra 4:24 Then work on the house of God in Jerusalem ceased, and it was stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezra 5:1 When the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them,

Ezra 5:2 then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them supporting them.

Ezra 5:3 At that time Tattenai, the governor of [the province] beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues came to them and spoke to them thus, “Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?”

Ezra 5:4 Then we told them accordingly what the names of the men were who were reconstructing this building.

Ezra 5:5 But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them until a report could come to Darius, and then a written reply be returned concerning it.

Ezra 5:6 [This is] the copy of the letter which Tattenai, the governor of [the province] beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai and his colleagues the officials, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king.

Ezra 5:7 They sent a report to him in which it was written thus: “To Darius the king, all peace.

Ezra 5:8 “Let it be known to the king that we have gone to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is being built with huge stones, and beams are being laid in the walls; and this work is going on with great care and is succeeding in their hands.

Ezra 5:9 “Then we asked those elders and said to them thus, ‘Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?’

Ezra 5:10 “We also asked them their names so as to inform you, and that we might write down the names of the men who were at their head.

Ezra 5:11 “Thus they answered us, saying, ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

Ezra 5:12 ‘But because our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, [who] destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

Ezra 5:13 ‘However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

Ezra 5:14 ‘Also the gold and silver utensils of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, and brought them to the temple of Babylon, these King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon and they were given to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

Ezra 5:15 ‘He said to him, “Take these utensils, go [and] deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem and let the house of God be rebuilt in its place.”

Ezra 5:16 ‘Then that Sheshbazzar came [and] laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from then until now it has been under construction and it is not [yet] completed.’

Ezra 5:17 “Now if it pleases the king, let a search be conducted in the king’s treasure house, which is there in Babylon, if it be that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to rebuild this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send to us his decision concerning this [matter].”

Ezra 6:1 Then King Darius issued a decree, and search was made in the archives, where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

Ezra 6:2 In Ecbatana in the fortress, which is in the province of Media, a scroll was found and there was written in it as follows: “Memorandum—

Ezra 6:3 “In the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king issued a decree: ‘[Concerning] the house of God at Jerusalem, let the temple, the place where sacrifices are offered, be rebuilt and let its foundations be retained, its height being 60 cubits and its width 60 cubits;

Ezra 6:4 with three layers of huge stones and one layer of timbers. And let the cost be paid from the royal treasury.

Ezra 6:5 ‘Also let the gold and silver utensils of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and brought to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; and you shall put [them] in the house of God.’

Ezra 6:6 “Now [therefore], Tattenai, governor of [the province] beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai and your colleagues, the officials of [the provinces] beyond the River, keep away from there.

Ezra 6:7 “Leave this work on the house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its site.

Ezra 6:8 “Moreover, I issue a decree concerning what you are to do for these elders of Judah in the rebuilding of this house of God: the full cost is to be paid to these people from the royal treasury out of the taxes of [the provinces] beyond the River, and that without delay.

Ezra 6:9 “Whatever is needed, both young bulls, rams, and lambs for a burnt offering to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and anointing oil, as the priests in Jerusalem request, [it] is to be given to them daily without fail,

Ezra 6:10 that they may offer acceptable sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Ezra 6:11 “And I issued a decree that any man who violates this edict, a timber shall be drawn from his house and he shall be impaled on it and his house shall be made a refuse heap on account of this.

Ezra 6:12 “May the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who attempts to change [it], so as to destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued [this] decree, let [it] be carried out with all diligence!”

Ezra 6:13 Then Tattenai, the governor of [the province] beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues carried out [the decree] with all diligence, just as King Darius had sent.

Ezra 6:14 And the elders of the Jews were successful in building through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and the decree of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

Ezra 6:15 This temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar; it was the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Ezra 6:16 And the sons of Israel, the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

Ezra 6:17 They offered for the dedication of this temple of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel 12 male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel.

Ezra 6:18 Then they appointed the priests to their divisions and the Levites in their orders for the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

Ezra 6:19 The exiles observed the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month.

Ezra 6:20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure. Then they slaughtered the Passover [lamb] for all the exiles, both for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

Ezra 6:21 The sons of Israel who returned from exile and all those who had separated themselves from the impurity of the nations of the land to [join] them, to seek the LORD God of Israel, ate [the Passover].

Ezra 6:22 And they observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, for the LORD had caused them to rejoice, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them to encourage them in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 7:1 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, [there went up] Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

Ezra 7:2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

Ezra 7:3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

Ezra 7:4 son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,

Ezra 7:5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the chief priest.

Ezra 7:6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a scribe skilled in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all he requested because the hand of the LORD his God [was] upon him.

Ezra 7:7 Some of the sons of Israel and some of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

Ezra 7:8 He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

Ezra 7:9 For on the first of the first month he began to go up from Babylon; and on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, because the good hand of his God [was] upon him.

Ezra 7:10 For Ezra had set his heart to study the law of the LORD and to practice [it], and to teach [His] statutes and ordinances in Israel.

Ezra 7:11 Now this is the copy of the decree which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, learned in the words of the commandments of the LORD and His statutes to Israel:

Ezra 7:12 “Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect [peace]. And now

Ezra 7:13 I have issued a decree that any of the people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my kingdom who are willing to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

Ezra 7:14 “Forasmuch as you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God which is in your hand,

Ezra 7:15 and to bring the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

Ezra 7:16 with all the silver and gold which you find in the whole province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and of the priests, who offered willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem;

Ezra 7:17 with this money, therefore, you shall diligently buy bulls, rams and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings and offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

Ezra 7:18 “Whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do according to the will of your God.

Ezra 7:19 “Also the utensils which are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

Ezra 7:20 “The rest of the needs for the house of your God, for which you may have occasion to provide, provide [for it] from the royal treasury.

Ezra 7:21 “I, even I, King Artaxerxes, issue a decree to all the treasurers who are [in the provinces] beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, may require of you, it shall be done diligently,

Ezra 7:22 [even] up to 100 talents of silver, 100 kors of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of oil, and salt as needed.

Ezra 7:23 “Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done with zeal for the house of the God of heaven, so that there will not be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons.

Ezra 7:24 “We also inform you that it is not allowed to impose tax, tribute or toll [on] any of the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, Nethinim or servants of this house of God.

Ezra 7:25 “You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges that they may judge all the people who are in [the province] beyond the River, [even] all those who know the laws of your God; and you may teach anyone who is ignorant [of them].

Ezra 7:26 “Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed upon him strictly, whether for death or for banishment or for confiscation of goods or for imprisonment.”

Ezra 7:27 Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put [such a thing] as this in the king’s heart, to adorn the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem,

Ezra 7:28 and has extended lovingkindness to me before the king and his counselors and before all the king’s mighty princes. Thus I was strengthened according to the hand of the LORD my God upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Ezra 8:1 Now these are the heads of their fathers’ [households] and the genealogical enrollment of those who went up with me from Babylon in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Ezra 8:2 of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattush;

Ezra 8:3 of the sons of Shecaniah [who was] of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah and with him 150 males [who were in] the genealogical list;

Ezra 8:4 of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah and 200 males with him;

Ezra 8:5 of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah, the son of Jahaziel and 300 males with him;

Ezra 8:6 and of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan and 50 males with him;

Ezra 8:7 and of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah and 70 males with him;

Ezra 8:8 and of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael and 80 males with him;

Ezra 8:9 of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel and 218 males with him;

Ezra 8:10 and of the sons of Bani, Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah and 160 males with him;

Ezra 8:11 and of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai and 28 males with him;

Ezra 8:12 and of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan and 110 males with him;

Ezra 8:13 and of the sons of Adonikam, the last ones, these being their names, Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah, and 60 males with them;

Ezra 8:14 and of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and 70 males with them.

Ezra 8:15 Now I assembled them at the river that runs to Ahava, where we camped for three days; and when I observed the people and the priests, I did not find any Levites there.

Ezra 8:16 So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, leading men, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, teachers.

Ezra 8:17 I sent them to Iddo the leading man at the place Casiphia; and I told them what to say to Iddo [and] his brothers, the temple servants at the place Casiphia, [that is], to bring ministers to us for the house of our God.

Ezra 8:18 According to the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of insight of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, and his sons and brothers, 18 men;

Ezra 8:19 and Hashabiah and Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, with his brothers and their sons, 20 men;

Ezra 8:20 and 220 of the temple servants, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, all of them designated by name.

Ezra 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God to seek from Him a safe journey for us, our little ones, and all our possessions.

Ezra 8:22 For I was ashamed to request from the king troops and horsemen to protect us from the enemy on the way, because we had said to the king, "The hand of our God is favorably disposed to all those who seek Him, but His power and His anger are against all those who forsake Him."

Ezra 8:23 So we fasted and sought our God concerning this [matter], and He listened to our entreaty.

Ezra 8:24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten of their brothers;

Ezra 8:25 and I weighed out to them the silver, the gold and the utensils, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counselors and his princes and all Israel present [there] had offered.

Ezra 8:26 Thus I weighed into their hands 650 talents of silver, and silver utensils [worth] 100 talents, [and] 100 gold talents,

Ezra 8:27 and 20 gold bowls [worth] 1,000 darics, and two utensils of fine shiny bronze, precious as gold.

Ezra 8:28 Then I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the utensils are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

Ezra 8:29 "Watch and keep [them] until you weigh [them] before the leading priests, the Levites and the heads of the fathers' [households] of Israel at Jerusalem, [in] the chambers of the house of the LORD."

Ezra 8:30 So the priests and the Levites accepted the weighed out silver and gold and the utensils, to bring [them] to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

Ezra 8:31 Then we journeyed from the river Ahava on the twelfth of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was over us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the ambushes by the way.

Ezra 8:32 Thus we came to Jerusalem and remained there three days.

Ezra 8:33 On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the utensils were weighed out in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him [was] Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them [were] the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

Ezra 8:34 Everything [was] numbered and weighed, and all the weight was recorded at that time.

Ezra 8:35 The exiles who had come from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, 12 male goats for a sin offering, all as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezra 8:36 Then they delivered the king's edicts to the king's satraps and to the governors [in the provinces] beyond the River, and they supported the people and the house of God.

Ezra 9:1 Now when these things had been completed, the princes approached me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, according to their abominations, [those] of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites.

Ezra 9:2 "For they have taken some of their daughters [as wives] for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy race has intermingled with the peoples of the lands; indeed, the hands of the princes and the rulers have been foremost in this unfaithfulness."

Ezra 9:3 When I heard about this matter, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled some of the hair from my head and my beard, and sat down appalled.

Ezra 9:4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles gathered to me, and I sat appalled until the evening offering.

Ezra 9:5 But at the evening offering I arose from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn, and I fell on my knees and stretched out my hands to the LORD my God;

Ezra 9:6 and I said, “O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to You, my God, for our iniquities have risen above our heads and our guilt has grown even to the heavens.

Ezra 9:7 “Since the days of our fathers to this day we [have been] in great guilt, and on account of our iniquities we, our kings [and] our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity and to plunder and to open shame, as [it is] this day.

Ezra 9:8 “But now for a brief moment grace has been [shown] from the LORD our God, to leave us an escaped remnant and to give us a peg in His holy place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and grant us a little reviving in our bondage.

Ezra 9:9 “For we are slaves; yet in our bondage our God has not forsaken us, but has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us reviving to raise up the house of our God, to restore its ruins and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezra 9:10 “Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments,

Ezra 9:11 which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from end to end [and] with their impurity.

Ezra 9:12 ‘So now do not give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters to your sons, and never seek their peace or their prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good [things] of the land and leave [it] as an inheritance to your sons forever.’

Ezra 9:13 “After all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and our great guilt, since You our God have requited [us] less than our iniquities [deserve], and have given us an escaped remnant as this,

Ezra 9:14 shall we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the peoples who commit these abominations? Would You not be angry with us to the point of destruction, until there is no remnant nor any who escape?

Ezra 9:15 “O LORD God of Israel, You are righteous, for we have been left an escaped remnant, as [it is] this day; behold, we are before You in our guilt, for no one can stand before You because of this.”

Ezra 10:1 Now while Ezra was praying and making confession, weeping and prostrating himself before the house of God, a very large assembly, men, women and children, gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept bitterly.

Ezra 10:2 Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope for Israel in spite of this.

Ezra 10:3 “So now let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

Ezra 10:4 “Arise! For [this] matter is your responsibility, but we will be with you; be courageous and act.”

Ezra 10:5 Then Ezra rose and made the leading priests, the Levites and all Israel, take oath that they would do according to this proposal; so they took the oath.

Ezra 10:6 Then Ezra rose from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib. Although he went there, he did not eat bread nor drink water, for he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

Ezra 10:7 They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the exiles, that they should assemble at Jerusalem,

Ezra 10:8 and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his possessions should be forfeited and he himself excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

Ezra 10:9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month on the twentieth of the month, and all the people sat in the open square [before] the house of God, trembling because of this matter and the heavy rain.

Ezra 10:10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful and have married foreign wives adding to the guilt of Israel.

Ezra 10:11 “Now therefore, make confession to the LORD God of your fathers and do His will; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives.”

Ezra 10:12 Then all the assembly replied with a loud voice, “That’s right! As you have said, so it is our duty to do.

Ezra 10:13 “But there are many people; it is the rainy season and we are not able to stand in the open. Nor [can] the task [be done] in one or two days, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter.

Ezra 10:14 “Let our leaders represent the whole assembly and let all those in our cities who have married foreign wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each city, until the fierce anger of our God on account of this matter is turned away from us.”

Ezra 10:15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.

Ezra 10:16 But the exiles did so. And Ezra the priest selected men [who were] heads of fathers' [households] for [each] [of] their father's households, all of them by name. So they convened on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.

Ezra 10:17 They finished [investigating] all the men who had married foreign wives by the first day of the first month.

Ezra 10:18 Among the sons of the priests who had married foreign wives were found of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah.

Ezra 10:19 They pledged to put away their wives, and being guilty, [they offered] a ram of the flock for their offense.

Ezra 10:20 Of the sons of Immer [there were] Hanani and Zebadiah;

Ezra 10:21 and of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziah;

Ezra 10:22 and of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasah.

Ezra 10:23 Of Levites [there were] Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.

Ezra 10:24 Of the singers [there was] Eliashib; and of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem and Uri.

Ezra 10:25 Of Israel, of the sons of Parosh [there were] Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah and Benaiah;

Ezra 10:26 and of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah;

Ezra 10:27 and of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza;

Ezra 10:28 and of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai [and] Athlai;

Ezra 10:29 and of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch and Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal [and] Jeremoth;

Ezra 10:30 and of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh;

Ezra 10:31 and [of] the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,

Ezra 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch [and] Shemariah;

Ezra 10:33 of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh [and] Shimei;

Ezra 10:34 of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

Ezra 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,

Ezra 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezra 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasu,

Ezra 10:38 Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

Ezra 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

Ezra 10:40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezra 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezra 10:42 Shallum, Amariah [and] Joseph.

Ezra 10:43 Of the sons of Nebo [there were] Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel [and] Benaiah.

Ezra 10:44 All these had married foreign wives, and some of them had wives [by whom] they had children.

Nehemiah

1:1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month Chislev, [in] the twentieth year, while I was in Susa the capitol,

Nehemiah 1:2 that Hanani, one of my brothers, and some men from Judah came; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped [and] had survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 1:3 They said to me, “The remnant there in the province who survived the captivity are in great distress and reproach, and the wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its gates are burned with fire.”

Nehemiah 1:4 When I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days; and I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 1:5 I said, “I beseech You, O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who preserves the covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments,

Nehemiah 1:6 let Your ear now be attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant which I am praying before You now, day and night, on behalf of the sons of Israel Your servants, confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have sinned against You; I and my father’s house have sinned.

Nehemiah 1:7 “We have acted very corruptly against You and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses.

Nehemiah 1:8 “Remember the word which You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you are unfaithful I will scatter you among the peoples;

Nehemiah 1:9 but [if] you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though those of you who have been scattered were in the most remote part of the heavens, I will gather them from there and will bring them to the place where I have chosen to cause My name to dwell.’

Nehemiah 1:10 “They are Your servants and Your people whom You redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand.

Nehemiah 1:11 “O Lord, I beseech You, may Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and the prayer of Your servants who delight to revere Your name, and make Your servant successful today and grant him compassion before this man.” Now I was the cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah 2:1 And it came about in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, that wine [was] before him, and I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence.

Nehemiah 2:2 So the king said to me, “Why is your face sad though you are not sick? This is nothing but sadness of heart.” Then I was very much afraid.

Nehemiah 2:3 I said to the king, “Let the king live forever. Why should my face not be sad when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies desolate and its gates have been consumed by fire?”

Nehemiah 2:4 Then the king said to me, “What would you request?” So I prayed to the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 2:5 I said to the king, “If it please the king, and if your servant has found favor before you, send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, that I may rebuild it.”

Nehemiah 2:6 Then the king said to me, the queen sitting beside him, “How long will your journey be, and when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a definite time.

Nehemiah 2:7 And I said to the king, “If it please the king, let letters be given me for the governors [of the provinces] beyond the River, that they may allow me to pass through until I come to Judah, Nehemiah 2:8 and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king’s forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress which is by the temple, for the wall of the city and for the house to which I will go.” And the king granted [them] to me because the good hand of my God [was] on me.

Nehemiah 2:9 Then I came to the governors [of the provinces] beyond the River and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

Nehemiah 2:10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard [about it], it was very displeasing to them that someone had come to seek the welfare of the sons of Israel.

Nehemiah 2:11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

Nehemiah 2:12 And I arose in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my God was putting into my mind to do for Jerusalem and there was no animal with me except the animal on which I was riding.

Nehemiah 2:13 So I went out at night by the Valley Gate in the direction of the Dragon's Well and [on] to the Refuse Gate, inspecting the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were consumed by fire.

Nehemiah 2:14 Then I passed on to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but there was no place for my mount to pass.

Nehemiah 2:15 So I went up at night by the ravine and inspected the wall. Then I entered the Valley Gate again and returned.

Nehemiah 2:16 The officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; nor had I as yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials or the rest who did the work.

Nehemiah 2:17 Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation we are in, that Jerusalem is desolate and its gates burned by fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer be a reproach."

Nehemiah 2:18 I told them how the hand of my God had been favorable to me and also about the king's words which he had spoken to me. Then they said, "Let us arise and build." So they put their hands to the good [work].

Nehemiah 2:19 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard [it], they mocked us and despised us and said, "What is this thing you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

Nehemiah 2:20 So I answered them and said to them, "The God of heaven will give us success; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no portion, right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Nehemiah 3:1 Then Eliashib the high priest arose with his brothers the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They consecrated the wall to the Tower of the Hundred [and] the Tower of Hananel.

Nehemiah 3:2 Next to him the men of Jericho built, and next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

Nehemiah 3:3 Now the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

Nehemiah 3:4 Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz made repairs. And next to him Meshullam the son of Berechiah the son of Meshezabel made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana [also] made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:5 Moreover, next to him the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their masters.

Nehemiah 3:6 Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars.

Nehemiah 3:7 Next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, also made repairs for the official seat of the governor [of the province] beyond the River.

Nehemiah 3:8 Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah of the goldsmiths made repairs. And next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Nehemiah 3:9 Next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:10 Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of Furnaces.

Nehemiah 3:12 Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

Nehemiah 3:13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall to the Refuse Gate.

Nehemiah 3:14 Malchijah the son of Rechab, the official of the district of Beth-haccherem repaired the Refuse Gate. He built it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars.

Nehemiah 3:15 Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the official of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, covered it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah at the king's garden as far as the steps that descend from the city of David.

Nehemiah 3:16 After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, official of half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs as far as [a point] opposite the tombs of David, and as far as the artificial pool and the house of the mighty men.

Nehemiah 3:17 After him the Levites carried out repairs [under] Rehum the son of Bani. Next to him Hashabiah, the official of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

Nehemiah 3:18 After him their brothers carried out repairs [under] Bavvai the son of Henadad, official of [the other] half of the district of Keilah.

Nehemiah 3:19 Next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the official of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the ascent of the armory at the Angle.

Nehemiah 3:20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the Angle to the doorway of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Nehemiah 3:21 After him Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another section, from the doorway of Eliashib's house even as far as the end of his house.

Nehemiah 3:22 After him the priests, the men of the valley, carried out repairs.

Nehemiah 3:23 After them Benjamin and Hasshub carried out repairs in front of their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, son of Ananiah, carried out repairs beside his house.

Nehemiah 3:24 After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah as far as the Angle and as far as the corner.

Nehemiah 3:25 Palal the son of Uzai [made repairs] in front of the Angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh [made repairs].

Nehemiah 3:26 The temple servants living in Ophel [made repairs] as far as the front of the Water Gate toward the east and the projecting tower.

Nehemiah 3:27 After them the Tekoites repaired another section in front of the great projecting tower and as far as the wall of Ophel.

Nehemiah 3:28 Above the Horse Gate the priests carried out repairs, each in front of his house.

Nehemiah 3:29 After them Zadok the son of Immer carried out repairs in front of his house. And after him Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, carried out repairs.

Nehemiah 3:30 After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah carried out repairs in front of his own quarters.

Nehemiah 3:31 After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, carried out repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the upper room of the corner.

Nehemiah 3:32 Between the upper room of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants carried out repairs.

Nehemiah 4:1 Now it came about that when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious and very angry and mocked the Jews.

Nehemiah 4:2 He spoke in the presence of his brothers and the wealthy [men] of Samaria and said, “What are these feeble Jews doing?

Are they going to restore [it] for themselves? Can they offer sacrifices? Can they finish in a day? Can they revive the stones from the dusty rubble even the burned ones?”

Nehemiah 4:3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite [was] near him and he said, “Even what they are building— if a fox should jump on [it], he would break their stone wall down!”

Nehemiah 4:4 Hear, O our God, how we are despised! Return their reproach on their own heads and give them up for plunder in a land of captivity.

Nehemiah 4:5 Do not forgive their iniquity and let not their sin be blotted out before You, for they have demoralized the builders.

Nehemiah 4:6 So we built the wall and the whole wall was joined together to half its [height], for the people had a mind to work.

Nehemiah 4:7 Now when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of the walls of Jerusalem went on, [and] that the breaches began to be closed, they were very angry.

Nehemiah 4:8 All of them conspired together to come [and] fight against Jerusalem and to cause a disturbance in it.

Nehemiah 4:9 But we prayed to our God, and because of them we set up a guard against them day and night.

Nehemiah 4:10 Thus in Judah it was said, “The strength of the burden bearers is failing, Yet there is much rubbish; And we ourselves are unable To rebuild the wall.”

Nehemiah 4:11 Our enemies said, “They will not know or see until we come among them, kill them and put a stop to the work.”

Nehemiah 4:12 When the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times, “They will come up against us from every place where you may turn,”

Nehemiah 4:13 then I stationed [men] in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, the exposed places, and I stationed the people in families with their swords, spears and bows.

Nehemiah 4:14 When I saw [their fear], I rose and spoke to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people: “Do not be afraid of them; remember the Lord who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives and your houses.”

Nehemiah 4:15 When our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had frustrated their plan, then all of us returned to the wall, each one to his work.

Nehemiah 4:16 From that day on, half of my servants carried on the work while half of them held the spears, the shields, the bows and the breastplates; and the captains [were] behind the whole house of Judah.

Nehemiah 4:17 Those who were rebuilding the wall and those who carried burdens took [their] load with one hand doing the work and the other holding a weapon.

Nehemiah 4:18 As for the builders, each [wore] his sword girded at his side as he built, while the trumpeter [stood] near me.

Nehemiah 4:19 I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated on the wall far from one another.

Nehemiah 4:20 “At whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

Nehemiah 4:21 So we carried on the work with half of them holding spears from dawn until the stars appeared.

Nehemiah 4:22 At that time I also said to the people, “Let each man with his servant spend the night within Jerusalem so that they may be a guard for us by night and a laborer by day.”

Nehemiah 4:23 So neither I, my brothers, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us removed our clothes, each [took] his weapon [even to] the water.

Nehemiah 5:1 Now there was a great outcry of the people and of their wives against their Jewish brothers.

Nehemiah 5:2 For there were those who said, “We, our sons and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain that we may eat and live.”

Nehemiah 5:3 There were others who said, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our houses that we might get grain because of the famine.”

Nehemiah 5:4 Also there were those who said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s tax [on] our fields and our vineyards.

Nehemiah 5:5 “Now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our children like their children. Yet behold, we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters are forced into bondage [already], and we are helpless because our fields and vineyards belong to others.”

Nehemiah 5:6 Then I was very angry when I had heard their outcry and these words.

Nehemiah 5:7 I consulted with myself and contended with the nobles and the rulers and said to them, “You are exacting usury, each from his brother!” Therefore, I held a great assembly against them.

Nehemiah 5:8 I said to them, “We according to our ability have redeemed our Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations; now would you even sell your brothers that they may be sold to us?” Then they were silent and could not find a word [to say].

Nehemiah 5:9 Again I said, “The thing which you are doing is not good; should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?

Nehemiah 5:10 “And likewise I, my brothers and my servants are lending them money and grain. Please, let us leave off this usury.

Nehemiah 5:11 “Please, give back to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, also the hundredth [part] of the money and of the grain, the new wine and the oil that you are exacting from them.”

Nehemiah 5:12 Then they said, “We will give [it] back and will require nothing from them; we will do exactly as you say.” So I called the priests and took an oath from them that they would do according to this promise.

Nehemiah 5:13 I also shook out the front of my garment and said, “Thus may God shake out every man from his house and from his possessions who does not fulfill this promise; even thus may he be shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amen!” And they praised the LORD. Then the people did according to this promise.

Nehemiah 5:14 Moreover, from the day that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, [for] twelve years, neither I nor my kinsmen have eaten the governor’s food [allowance].

Nehemiah 5:15 But the former governors who were before me laid burdens on the people and took from them bread and wine besides forty shekels of silver; even their servants domineered the people. But I did not do so because of the fear of God.

Nehemiah 5:16 I also applied myself to the work on this wall; we did not buy any land, and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

Nehemiah 5:17 Moreover, [there were] at my table one hundred and fifty Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations that were around us.

Nehemiah 5:18 Now that which was prepared for each day was one ox [and] six choice sheep, also birds were prepared for me; and once in ten days all sorts of wine [were furnished] in abundance. Yet for all this I did not demand the governor’s food [allowance], because the servitude was heavy on this people.

Nehemiah 5:19 Remember me, O my God, for good, [according to] all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah 6:1 Now when it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, to Geshem the Arab and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall, and [that] no breach remained in it, although at that time I had not set up the doors in the gates, Nehemiah 6:2 then Sanballat and Geshem sent [a message] to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together at Chephirim in the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to harm me.

Nehemiah 6:3 So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?”

Nehemiah 6:4 They sent [messages] to me four times in this manner, and I answered them in the same way.

Nehemiah 6:5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same manner a fifth time with an open letter in his hand.

Nehemiah 6:6 In it was written, “It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says, that you and the Jews are planning to rebel; therefore you are rebuilding the wall. And you are to be their king, according to these reports.

Nehemiah 6:7 “You have also appointed prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem concerning you, ‘A king is in Judah!’ And now it will be reported to the king according to these reports. So come now, let us take counsel together.”

Nehemiah 6:8 Then I sent [a message] to him saying, “Such things as you are saying have not been done, but you are inventing them in your own mind.”

Nehemiah 6:9 For all of them were [trying] to frighten us, thinking, “They will become discouraged with the work and it will not be done.” But now, [O God], strengthen my hands.

Nehemiah 6:10 When I entered the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was confined at home, he said, “Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you, and they are coming to kill you at night.”

Nehemiah 6:11 But I said, “Should a man like me flee? And could one such as I go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.”

Nehemiah 6:12 Then I perceived that surely God had not sent him, but he uttered [his] prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Nehemiah 6:13 He was hired for this reason, that I might become frightened and act accordingly and sin, so that they might have an evil report in order that they could reproach me.

Nehemiah 6:14 Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also Noadiah the prophetess and the rest of the prophets who were [trying] to frighten me.

Nehemiah 6:15 So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of [the month] Elul, in fifty-two days.

Nehemiah 6:16 When all our enemies heard [of it], and all the nations surrounding us saw [it], they lost their confidence; for they recognized that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.

Nehemiah 6:17 Also in those days many letters went from the nobles of Judah to Tobiah, and Tobiah's [letters] came to them.

Nehemiah 6:18 For many in Judah were bound by oath to him because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

Nehemiah 6:19 Moreover, they were speaking about his good deeds in my presence and reported my words to him. Then Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Nehemiah 7:1 Now when the wall was rebuilt and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

Nehemiah 7:2 then I put Hanani my brother, and Hananiah the commander of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem, for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many.

Nehemiah 7:3 Then I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot, and while they are standing [guard], let them shut and bolt the doors. Also appoint guards from the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each at his post, and each in front of his own house."

Nehemiah 7:4 Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few and the houses were not built.

Nehemiah 7:5 Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the people to be enrolled by genealogies. Then I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up first in which I found the following record:

Nehemiah 7:6 These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city,

Nehemiah 7:7 who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of men of the people of Israel:

Nehemiah 7:8 the sons of Parosh, 2,172;

Nehemiah 7:9 the sons of Shephatiah, 372;

Nehemiah 7:10 the sons of Arah, 652;

Nehemiah 7:11 the sons of Pahath-moab of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, 2,818;

Nehemiah 7:12 the sons of Elam, 1,254;

Nehemiah 7:13 the sons of Zattu, 845;

Nehemiah 7:14 the sons of Zaccai, 760;

Nehemiah 7:15 the sons of Binnui, 648;

Nehemiah 7:16 the sons of Bebai, 628;

Nehemiah 7:17 the sons of Azgad, 2,322;

Nehemiah 7:18 the sons of Adonikam, 667;

Nehemiah 7:19 the sons of Bigvai, 2,067;

Nehemiah 7:20 the sons of Adin, 655;

Nehemiah 7:21 the sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, 98;

Nehemiah 7:22 the sons of Hashum, 328;

Nehemiah 7:23 the sons of Bezai, 324;

Nehemiah 7:24 the sons of Hariph, 112;

Nehemiah 7:25 the sons of Gibeon, 95;

Nehemiah 7:26 the men of Bethlehem and Netophah, 188;

Nehemiah 7:27 the men of Anathoth, 128;

Nehemiah 7:28 the men of Beth-azmaveth, 42;

Nehemiah 7:29 the men of Kiriath-jearim, Chephirah and Beeroth, 743;

Nehemiah 7:30 the men of Ramah and Geba, 621;

Nehemiah 7:31 the men of Michmas, 122;

Nehemiah 7:32 the men of Bethel and Ai, 123;

Nehemiah 7:33 the men of the other Nebo, 52;

Nehemiah 7:34 the sons of the other Elam, 1,254;

Nehemiah 7:35 the sons of Harim, 320;

Nehemiah 7:36 the men of Jericho, 345;

Nehemiah 7:37 the sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, 721;

Nehemiah 7:38 the sons of Senaah, 3,930.

Nehemiah 7:39 The priests: the sons of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua, 973;

Nehemiah 7:40 the sons of Immer, 1,052;

Nehemiah 7:41 the sons of Pashhur, 1,247;

Nehemiah 7:42 the sons of Harim, 1,017.

Nehemiah 7:43 The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodevah, 74.

Nehemiah 7:44 The singers: the sons of Asaph, 148.

Nehemiah 7:45 The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, 138.

Nehemiah 7:46 The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,

Nehemiah 7:47 the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon,

Nehemiah 7:48 the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmai,

Nehemiah 7:49 the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,

Nehemiah 7:50 the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda,

Nehemiah 7:51 the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah,

Nehemiah 7:52 the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephushesim,

Nehemiah 7:53 the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,

Nehemiah 7:54 the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,

Nehemiah 7:55 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,

Nehemiah 7:56 the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

Nehemiah 7:57 The sons of Solomon’s servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida,

Nehemiah 7:58 the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,

Nehemiah 7:59 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Amon.

Nehemiah 7:60 All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon’s servants [were] 392.

Nehemiah 7:61 These [were] they who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer; but they could not show their fathers’ houses or their descendants, whether they were of Israel:

Nehemiah 7:62 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, 642.

Nehemiah 7:63 Of the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai, the Gileadite, and was named after them.

Nehemiah 7:64 These searched [among] their ancestral registration, but it could not be located; therefore they were considered unclean [and excluded] from the priesthood.

Nehemiah 7:65 The governor said to them that they should not eat from the most holy things until a priest arose with Urim and Thummim.

Nehemiah 7:66 The whole assembly together [was] 42,360,

Nehemiah 7:67 besides their male and their female servants, of whom [there were] 7,337; and they had 245 male and female singers.

Nehemiah 7:68 Their horses were 736; their mules, 245;

Nehemiah 7:69 [their] camels, 435; [their] donkeys, 6,720.

Nehemiah 7:70 Some from among the heads of fathers' [households] gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold drachmas, 50 basins, 530 priests' garments.

Nehemiah 7:71 Some of the heads of fathers' [households] gave into the treasury of the work 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,200 silver minas.

Nehemiah 7:72 That which the rest of the people gave was 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,000 silver minas and 67 priests' garments.

Nehemiah 7:73 Now the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants and all Israel, lived in their cities. And when the seventh month came, the sons of Israel [were] in their cities.

Nehemiah 8:1 And all the people gathered as one man at the square which was in front of the Water Gate, and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel.

Nehemiah 8:2 Then Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly of men, women and all who [could] listen with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.

Nehemiah 8:3 He read from it before the square which was in front of the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of men and women, those who could understand; and all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

Nehemiah 8:4 Ezra the scribe stood at a wooden podium which they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah [and] Meshullam on his left hand.

Nehemiah 8:5 Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

Nehemiah 8:6 Then Ezra blessed the LORD the great God. And all the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" while lifting up their hands; then they bowed low and worshiped the LORD with [their] faces to the ground.

Nehemiah 8:7 Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, the Levites, explained the law to the people while the people [remained] in their place.

Nehemiah 8:8 They read from the book, from the law of God, translating to give the sense so that they understood the reading.

Nehemiah 8:9 Then Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest [and] scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping when they heard the words of the law.

Nehemiah 8:10 Then he said to them, “Go, eat of the fat, drink of the sweet, and send portions to him who has nothing prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

Nehemiah 8:11 So the Levites calmed all the people, saying, “Be still, for the day is holy; do not be grieved.”

Nehemiah 8:12 All the people went away to eat, to drink, to send portions and to celebrate a great festival, because they understood the words which had been made known to them.

Nehemiah 8:13 Then on the second day the heads of fathers’ [households] of all the people, the priests and the Levites were gathered to Ezra the scribe that they might gain insight into the words of the law.

Nehemiah 8:14 They found written in the law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the sons of Israel should live in booths during the feast of the seventh month.

Nehemiah 8:15 So they proclaimed and circulated a proclamation in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the hills, and bring olive branches and wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches and branches of [other] leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written.”

Nehemiah 8:16 So the people went out and brought [them] and made booths for themselves, each on his roof, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

Nehemiah 8:17 The entire assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in them. The sons of Israel had indeed not done so from the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day. And there was great rejoicing.

Nehemiah 8:18 He read from the book of the law of God daily, from the first day to the last day. And they celebrated the feast seven days, and on the eighth day [there was] a solemn assembly according to the ordinance.

Nehemiah 9:1 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel assembled with fasting, in sackcloth and with dirt upon them.

Nehemiah 9:2 The descendants of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

Nehemiah 9:3 While they stood in their place, they read from the book of the law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day; and for [another] fourth they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God.

Nehemiah 9:4 Now on the Levites' platform stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani [and] Chenani, and they cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

Nehemiah 9:5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah [and] Pethahiah, said, “Arise, bless the LORD your God forever and ever! O may Your glorious name be blessed And exalted above all blessing and praise!

Nehemiah 9:6 “You alone are the LORD. You have made the heavens, The heaven of heavens with all their host, The earth and all that is on it, The seas and all that is in them. You give life to all of them And the heavenly host bows down before You.

Nehemiah 9:7 “You are the LORD God, Who chose Abram And brought him out from Ur of the Chaldees, And gave him the name Abraham.

Nehemiah 9:8 “You found his heart faithful before You, And made a covenant with him To give [him] the land of the Canaanite, Of the Hittite and the Amorite, Of the Perizzite, the Jebusite and the Girgashite— To give [it] to his descendants. And You have fulfilled Your promise, For You are righteous.

Nehemiah 9:9 “You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, And heard their cry by the Red Sea.

Nehemiah 9:10 “Then You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, Against all his servants and all the people of his land; For You knew that they acted arrogantly toward them, And made a name for Yourself as [it is] this day.

Nehemiah 9:11 “You divided the sea before them, So they passed through the midst of the sea on dry ground; And their pursuers You hurled into the depths, Like a stone into raging waters.

Nehemiah 9:12 “And with a pillar of cloud You led them by day, And with a pillar of fire by night To light for them the way In which they were to go.

Nehemiah 9:13 “Then You came down on Mount Sinai, And spoke with them from heaven; You gave them just ordinances and true laws, Good statutes and commandments.

Nehemiah 9:14 “So You made known to them Your holy sabbath, And laid down for them commandments, statutes and law, Through Your servant Moses.

Nehemiah 9:15 “You provided bread from heaven for them for their hunger, You brought forth water from a rock for them for their thirst, And You told them to enter in order to possess The land which You swore to give them.

Nehemiah 9:16 “But they, our fathers, acted arrogantly; They became stubborn and would not listen to Your commandments.

Nehemiah 9:17 “They refused to listen, And did not remember Your wondrous deeds which You had performed among them; So they became stubborn and appointed a leader to return to their slavery in Egypt. But You are a God of forgiveness, Gracious and compassionate, Slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness; And You did not forsake them.

Nehemiah 9:18 “Even when they made for themselves A calf of molten metal And said, ‘This is your God Who brought you up from Egypt,’ And committed great blasphemies,

Nehemiah 9:19 You, in Your great compassion, Did not forsake them in the wilderness; The pillar of cloud did not leave them by day, To guide them on their way, Nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way in which they were to go.

Nehemiah 9:20 “You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them, Your manna You did not withhold from their mouth, And You gave them water for their thirst.

Nehemiah 9:21 “Indeed, forty years You provided for them in the wilderness [and] they were not in want; Their clothes did not wear out, nor did their feet swell.

Nehemiah 9:22 “You also gave them kingdoms and peoples, And allotted [them] to them as a boundary. They took possession of the land of Sihon the king of Heshbon And the land of Og the king of Bashan.

Nehemiah 9:23 “You made their sons numerous as the stars of heaven, And You brought them into the land Which You had told their fathers to enter and possess.

Nehemiah 9:24 “So their sons entered and possessed the land. And You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, And You gave them into their hand, with their kings and the peoples of the land, To do with them as they desired.

Nehemiah 9:25 “They captured fortified cities and a fertile land. They took possession of houses full of every good thing, Hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive groves, Fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled and grew fat, And reveled in Your great goodness.

Nehemiah 9:26 “But they became disobedient and rebelled against You, And cast Your law behind their backs And killed Your prophets who had admonished them So that they might return to You, And they committed great blasphemies.

Nehemiah 9:27 “Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their oppressors who oppressed them, But when they cried to You in the time of their distress, You heard from heaven, and according to Your great compassion You gave them deliverers who delivered them from the hand of their oppressors.

Nehemiah 9:28 “But as soon as they had rest, they did evil again before You; Therefore You abandoned them to the hand of their enemies, so that they ruled over them. When they cried again to You, You heard from heaven, And many times You rescued them according to Your compassion, Nehemiah 9:29 And admonished them in order to turn them back to Your law. Yet they acted arrogantly and did not listen to Your commandments but sinned against Your ordinances, By which if a man observes them he shall live. And they turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck, and would not listen.

Nehemiah 9:30 “However, You bore with them for many years, And admonished them by Your Spirit through Your prophets, Yet they would not give ear. Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

Nehemiah 9:31 “Nevertheless, in Your great compassion You did not make an end of them or forsake them, For You are a gracious and compassionate God.

Nehemiah 9:32 “Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness, Do not let all the hardship seem insignificant before You, Which has come upon us, our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers and on all Your people, From the days of the kings of Assyria to this day.

Nehemiah 9:33 “However, You are just in all that has come upon us; For You have dealt faithfully, but we have acted wickedly.

Nehemiah 9:34 “For our kings, our leaders, our priests and our fathers have not kept Your law Or paid attention to Your commandments and Your admonitions with which You have admonished them.

Nehemiah 9:35 “But they, in their own kingdom, With Your great goodness which You gave them, With the broad and rich land which You set before them, Did not serve You or turn from their evil deeds.

Nehemiah 9:36 “Behold, we are slaves today, And as to the land which You gave to our fathers to eat of its fruit and its bounty, Behold, we are slaves in it.

Nehemiah 9:37 “Its abundant produce is for the kings Whom You have set over us because of our sins; They also rule over our bodies And over our cattle as they please, So we are in great distress.

Nehemiah 9:38 “Now because of all this We are making an agreement in writing; And on the sealed document [are the names of] our leaders, our Levites [and] our priests.”

Nehemiah 10:1 Now on the sealed document [were the names of]: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah, Nehemiah 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Nehemiah 10:3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,

Nehemiah 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Nehemiah 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Nehemiah 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Nehemiah 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Nehemiah 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah. These [were] the priests.

Nehemiah 10:9 And the Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

Nehemiah 10:10 also their brothers Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

Nehemiah 10:11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

Nehemiah 10:12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

Nehemiah 10:13 Hodiah, Bani, Beninu.

Nehemiah 10:14 The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

Nehemiah 10:15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

Nehemiah 10:16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

Nehemiah 10:17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

Nehemiah 10:18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,

Nehemiah 10:19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

Nehemiah 10:20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

Nehemiah 10:21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,

Nehemiah 10:22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

Nehemiah 10:23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,

Nehemiah 10:24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,

Nehemiah 10:25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

Nehemiah 10:26 Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,

Nehemiah 10:27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

Nehemiah 10:28 Now the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, all those who had knowledge and understanding,

Nehemiah 10:29 are joining with their kinsmen, their nobles, and are taking on themselves a curse and an oath to walk in God’s law, which was given through Moses, God’s servant, and to keep and to observe all the commandments of GOD our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes;

Nehemiah 10:30 and that we will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons.

Nehemiah 10:31 As for the peoples of the land who bring wares or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the sabbath or a holy day; and we will forego [the crops] the seventh year and the exaction of every debt.

Nehemiah 10:32 We also placed ourselves under obligation to contribute yearly one third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

Nehemiah 10:33 for the showbread, for the continual grain offering, for the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moon, for the appointed times, for the holy things and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

Nehemiah 10:34 Likewise we cast lots for the supply of wood [among] the priests, the Levites and the people so that they might bring it to the house of our God, according to our fathers' households, at fixed times annually, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law;

Nehemiah 10:35 and that they might bring the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all the fruit of every tree to the house of the LORD annually,

Nehemiah 10:36 and bring to the house of our God the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks as it is written in the law, for the priests who are ministering in the house of our God.

Nehemiah 10:37 We will also bring the first of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine and the oil to the priests at the chambers of the house of our God, and the tithe of our ground to the Levites, for the Levites are they who receive the tithes in all the rural towns.

Nehemiah 10:38 The priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes, and the Levites shall bring up the tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers of the storehouse.

Nehemiah 10:39 For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the contribution of the grain, the new wine and the oil to the chambers; there are the utensils of the sanctuary, the priests who are ministering, the gatekeepers and the singers. Thus we will not neglect the house of our God.

Nehemiah 11:1 Now the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem, but the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while nine-tenths [remained] in the [other] cities.

Nehemiah 11:2 And the people blessed all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 11:3 Now these are the heads of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem, but in the cities of Judah each lived on his own property in their cities— the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon’s servants.

Nehemiah 11:4 Some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin lived in Jerusalem. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez;

Nehemiah 11:5 and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.

Nehemiah 11:6 All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were 468 able men.

Nehemiah 11:7 Now these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah;

Nehemiah 11:8 and after him Gabbai [and] Sallai, 928.

Nehemiah 11:9 Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second in command of the city.

Nehemiah 11:10 From the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin,

Nehemiah 11:11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God,

Nehemiah 11:12 and their kinsmen who performed the work of the temple, 822; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,

Nehemiah 11:13 and his kinsmen, heads of fathers’ [households], 242; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,

Nehemiah 11:14 and their brothers, valiant warriors, 128. And their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggedolim.

Nehemiah 11:15 Now from the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

Nehemiah 11:16 and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, who were in charge of the outside work of the house of God;

Nehemiah 11:17 and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader in beginning the thanksgiving at prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

Nehemiah 11:18 All the Levites in the holy city [were] 284.

Nehemiah 11:19 Also the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon and their brethren who kept watch at the gates, [were] 172.

Nehemiah 11:20 The rest of Israel, of the priests [and] of the Levites, [were] in all the cities of Judah, each on his own inheritance.

Nehemiah 11:21 But the temple servants were living in Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants.

Nehemiah 11:22 Now the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, from the sons of Asaph, who were the singers for the service of the house of God.

Nehemiah 11:23 For [there was] a commandment from the king concerning them and a firm regulation for the song leaders day by day.

Nehemiah 11:24 Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king’s representative in all matters concerning the people.

Nehemiah 11:25 Now as for the villages with their fields, some of the sons of Judah lived in Kiriath-arba and its towns, in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:26 and in Jeshua, in Moladah and Beth-pelet,

Nehemiah 11:27 and in Hazar-shual, in Beersheba and its towns,

Nehemiah 11:28 and in Ziklag, in Meconah and in its towns,

Nehemiah 11:29 and in En-rimmon, in Zorah and in Jarmuth,

Nehemiah 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they encamped from Beersheba as far as the valley of Hinnom.

Nehemiah 11:31 The sons of Benjamin also [lived] from Geba [onward], at Michmash and Aija, at Bethel and its towns,

Nehemiah 11:32 at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

Nehemiah 11:33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

Nehemiah 11:34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

Nehemiah 11:35 Lod and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

Nehemiah 11:36 From the Levites, [some] divisions in Judah belonged to Benjamin.

Nehemiah 12:1 Now these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Nehemiah 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

Nehemiah 12:3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

Nehemiah 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

Nehemiah 12:5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, Nehemiah 12:6 Shemaiah and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Nehemiah 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah and Jedaiah. These were the heads of the priests and their kinsmen in the days of Jeshua.

Nehemiah 12:8 The Levites [were] Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, [and] Mattaniah [who was] in charge of the songs of thanksgiving, he and his brothers.

Nehemiah 12:9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, stood opposite them in [their] service divisions.

Nehemiah 12:10 Jeshua became the father of Joiakim, and Joiakim became the father of Eliashib, and Eliashib became the father of Joiada,

Nehemiah 12:11 and Joiada became the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan became the father of Jaddua.

Nehemiah 12:12 Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of fathers' [households] were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

Nehemiah 12:13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

Nehemiah 12:14 of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

Nehemiah 12:15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

Nehemiah 12:16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

Nehemiah 12:17 of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;

Nehemiah 12:18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

Nehemiah 12:19 of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

Nehemiah 12:20 of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

Nehemiah 12:21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

Nehemiah 12:22 As for the Levites, the heads of fathers' [households] were registered in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan and Jaddua; so [were] the priests in the reign of Darius the Persian.

Nehemiah 12:23 The sons of Levi, the heads of fathers' [households], were registered in the Book of the Chronicles up to the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

Nehemiah 12:24 The heads of the Levites [were] Hashabiah, Sherebiah and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers opposite them, to praise [and] give thanks, as prescribed by David the man of God, division corresponding to division.

Nehemiah 12:25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon [and] Akkub [were] gatekeepers keeping watch at the storehouses of the gates.

Nehemiah 12:26 These [served] in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest [and] scribe.

Nehemiah 12:27 Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites from all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem so that they might celebrate the dedication with gladness, with hymns of thanksgiving and with songs [to the accompaniment] of cymbals, harps and lyres.

Nehemiah 12:28 So the sons of the singers were assembled from the district around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites,

Nehemiah 12:29 from Beth-gilgal and from [their] fields in Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built themselves villages around Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 12:30 The priests and the Levites purified themselves; they also purified the people, the gates and the wall.

Nehemiah 12:31 Then I had the leaders of Judah come up on top of the wall, and I appointed two great choirs, the first proceeding to the right on top of the wall toward the Refuse Gate.

Nehemiah 12:32 Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed them,

Nehemiah 12:33 with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

Nehemiah 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

Nehemiah 12:35 and some of the sons of the priests with trumpets; [and] Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

Nehemiah 12:36 and his kinsmen, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah [and] Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God. And Ezra the scribe went before them.

Nehemiah 12:37 At the Fountain Gate they went directly up the steps of the city of David by the stairway of the wall above the house of David to the Water Gate on the east.

Nehemiah 12:38 The second choir proceeded to the left, while I followed them with half of the people on the wall, above the Tower of Furnaces, to the Broad Wall,

Nehemiah 12:39 and above the Gate of Ephraim, by the Old Gate, by the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate; and they stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

Nehemiah 12:40 Then the two choirs took their stand in the house of God. So did I and half of the officials with me;

Nehemiah 12:41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah, with the trumpets;

Nehemiah 12:42 and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam and Ezer. And the singers sang, with Jezrahiah [their] leader, Nehemiah 12:43 and on that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great joy, even the women and children rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard from afar.

Nehemiah 12:44 On that day men were also appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who served.

Nehemiah 12:45 For they performed the worship of their God and the service of purification, together with the singers and the gatekeepers in accordance with the command of David [and] of his son Solomon.

Nehemiah 12:46 For in the days of David and Asaph, in ancient times, [there were] leaders of the singers, songs of praise and hymns of thanksgiving to God.

Nehemiah 12:47 So all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah gave the portions due the singers and the gatekeepers as each day required, and set apart the consecrated [portion] for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the consecrated [portion] for the sons of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13:1 On that day they read aloud from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and there was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God,

Nehemiah 13:2 because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

Nehemiah 13:3 So when they heard the law, they excluded all foreigners from Israel.

Nehemiah 13:4 Now prior to this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being related to Tobiah,

Nehemiah 13:5 had prepared a large room for him, where formerly they put the grain offerings, the frankincense, the utensils and the tithes of grain, wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, the singers and the gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.

Nehemiah 13:6 But during all this [time] I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had gone to the king. After some time, however, I asked leave from the king, Nehemiah 13:7 and I came to Jerusalem and learned about the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, by preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God.

Nehemiah 13:8 It was very displeasing to me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room.

Nehemiah 13:9 Then I gave an order and they cleansed the rooms; and I returned there the utensils of the house of God with the grain offerings and the frankincense.

Nehemiah 13:10 I also discovered that the portions of the Levites had not been given [them], so that the Levites and the singers who performed the service had gone away, each to his own field.

Nehemiah 13:11 So I reprimanded the officials and said, “Why is the house of God forsaken?” Then I gathered them together and restored them to their posts.

Nehemiah 13:12 All Judah then brought the tithe of the grain, wine and oil into the storehouses.

Nehemiah 13:13 In charge of the storehouses I appointed Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and in addition to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered reliable, and it was their task to distribute to their kinsmen.

Nehemiah 13:14 Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out my loyal deeds which I have performed for the house of my God and its services.

Nehemiah 13:15 In those days I saw in Judah some who were treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sacks of grain and loading [them] on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs and all kinds of loads, and they brought [them] into Jerusalem on the sabbath day. So I admonished [them] on the day they sold food.

Nehemiah 13:16 Also men of Tyre were living there [who] imported fish and all kinds of merchandise, and sold [them] to the sons of Judah on the sabbath, even in Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 13:17 Then I reprimanded the nobles of Judah and said to them, “What is this evil thing you are doing, by profaning the sabbath day?

Nehemiah 13:18 “Did not your fathers do the same, so that our God brought on us and on this city all this trouble? Yet you are adding to the wrath on Israel by profaning the sabbath.”

Nehemiah 13:19 It came about that just as it grew dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and that they should not open them until after the sabbath. Then I stationed some of my servants at the gates [so that] no load would enter on the sabbath day.

Nehemiah 13:20 Once or twice the traders and merchants of every kind of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 13:21 Then I warned them and said to them, “Why do you spend the night in front of the wall? If you do so again, I will use force against you.” From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

Nehemiah 13:22 And I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come as gatekeepers to sanctify the sabbath day. [For] this also remember me, O my God, and have compassion on me according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness.

Nehemiah 13:23 In those days I also saw that the Jews had married women from Ashdod, Ammon [and] Moab.

Nehemiah 13:24 As for their children, half spoke in the language of Ashdod, and none of them was able to speak the language of Judah, but the language of his own people.

Nehemiah 13:25 So I contended with them and cursed them and struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, “You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take of their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.

Nehemiah 13:26 “Did not Solomon king of Israel sin regarding these things? Yet among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless the foreign women caused even him to sin.

Nehemiah 13:27 “Do we then hear about you that you have committed all this great evil by acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?”

Nehemiah 13:28 Even one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite, so I drove him away from me.

Nehemiah 13:29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

Nehemiah 13:30 Thus I purified them from everything foreign and appointed duties for the priests and the Levites, each in his task, Nehemiah 13:31 and [I arranged] for the supply of wood at appointed times and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Esther

1:1 Now it took place in the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned from India to Ethiopia over 127 provinces,

Esther 1:2 in those days as King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne which [was] at the citadel in Susa,

Esther 1:3 in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his princes and attendants, the army [officers] of Persia and Media, the nobles and the princes of his provinces being in his presence.

Esther 1:4 And he displayed the riches of his royal glory and the splendor of his great majesty for many days, 180 days.

Esther 1:5 When these days were completed, the king gave a banquet lasting seven days for all the people who were present at the citadel in Susa, from the greatest to the least, in the court of the garden of the king’s palace.

Esther 1:6 [There were hangings of] fine white and violet linen held by cords of fine purple linen on silver rings and marble columns, [and] couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and precious stones.

Esther 1:7 Drinks were served in golden vessels of various kinds, and the royal wine was plentiful according to the king’s bounty.

Esther 1:8 The drinking was [done] according to the law, there was no compulsion, for so the king had given orders to each official of his household that he should do according to the desires of each person.

Esther 1:9 Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

Esther 1:10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus,

Esther 1:11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king with [her] royal crown in order to display her beauty to the people and the princes, for she was beautiful.

Esther 1:12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king’s command delivered by the eunuchs. Then the king became very angry and his wrath burned within him.

Esther 1:13 Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times— for it was the custom of the king so [to speak] before all who knew law and justice

Esther 1:14 and were close to him: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king’s presence and sat in the first place in the kingdom—

Esther 1:15 “According to law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus [delivered] by the eunuchs?”

Esther 1:16 In the presence of the king and the princes, Memucan said, “Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but [also] all the princes and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

Esther 1:17 “For the queen’s conduct will become known to all the women causing them to look with contempt on their husbands by saying, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in to his presence, but she did not come.’

Esther 1:18 “This day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen’s conduct will speak in [the same way] to all the king’s princes, and there will be plenty of contempt and anger.

Esther 1:19 “If it pleases the king, let a royal edict be issued by him and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media so that it cannot be repealed, that Vashti may no longer come into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal position to another who is more worthy than she.

Esther 1:20 “When the king’s edict which he will make is heard throughout all his kingdom, great as it is, then all women will give honor to their husbands, great and small.”

Esther 1:21 [This] word pleased the king and the princes, and the king did as Memucan proposed.

Esther 1:22 So he sent letters to all the king’s provinces, to each province according to its script and to every people according to their language, that every man should be the master in his own house and the one who speaks in the language of his own people.

Esther 2:1 After these things when the anger of King Ahasuerus had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her.

Esther 2:2 Then the king’s attendants, who served him, said, “Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.

Esther 2:3 “Let the king appoint overseers in all the provinces of his kingdom that they may gather every beautiful young virgin to the citadel of Susa, to the harem, into the custody of Hegai, the king’s eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let their cosmetics be given [them].

Esther 2:4 “Then let the young lady who pleases the king be queen in place of Vashti.” And the matter pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

Esther 2:5 [Now] there was at the citadel in Susa a Jew whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite,

Esther 2:6 who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the captives who had been exiled with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled.

Esther 2:7 He was bringing up Hadassah, that is Esther, his uncle’s daughter, for she had no father or mother. Now the young lady was beautiful of form and face, and when her father and her mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

Esther 2:8 So it came about when the command and decree of the king were heard and many young ladies were gathered to the citadel of Susa into the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken to the king’s palace into the custody of Hegai, who was in charge of the women.

Esther 2:9 Now the young lady pleased him and found favor with him. So he quickly provided her with her cosmetics and food, gave her seven choice maids from the king's palace and transferred her and her maids to the best place in the harem.

Esther 2:10 Esther did not make known her people or her kindred, for Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make [them] known.

Esther 2:11 Every day Mordecai walked back and forth in front of the court of the harem to learn how Esther was and how she fared.

Esther 2:12 Now when the turn of each young lady came to go in to King Ahasuerus, after the end of her twelve months under the regulations for the women— for the days of their beautification were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with spices and the cosmetics for women—

Esther 2:13 the young lady would go in to the king in this way: anything that she desired was given her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace.

Esther 2:14 In the evening she would go in and in the morning she would return to the second harem, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not again go in to the king unless the king delighted in her and she was summoned by name.

Esther 2:15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her as his daughter, came to go in to the king, she did not request anything except what Hegai, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the women, advised. And Esther found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.

Esther 2:16 So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus to his royal palace in the tenth month which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther 2:17 The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she found favor and kindness with him more than all the virgins, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Esther 2:18 Then the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his princes and his servants; he also made a holiday for the provinces and gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

Esther 2:19 When the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

Esther 2:20 Esther had not yet made known her kindred or her people, even as Mordecai had commanded her; for Esther did what Mordecai told her as she had done when under his care.

Esther 2:21 In those days, while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's officials from those who guarded the door, became angry and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

Esther 2:22 But the plot became known to Mordecai and he told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.

Esther 2:23 Now when the plot was investigated and found [to be so], they were both hanged on a gallows; and it was written in the Book of the Chronicles in the king's presence.

Esther 3:1 After these events King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and established his authority over all the princes who [were] with him.

Esther 3:2 All the king's servants who were at the king's gate bowed down and paid homage to Haman; for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid homage.

Esther 3:3 Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you transgressing the king's command?"

Esther 3:4 Now it was when they had spoken daily to him and he would not listen to them, that they told Haman to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

Esther 3:5 When Haman saw that Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid homage to him, Haman was filled with rage.

Esther 3:6 But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him [who] the people of Mordecai [were]; therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who [were] throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

Esther 3:7 In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, Pur, that is the lot, was cast before Haman from day to day and from month [to month], until the twelfth month, that is the month Adar.

Esther 3:8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from [those] of all [other] people and they do not observe the king's laws, so it is not in the king's interest to let them remain.

Esther 3:9 "If it is pleasing to the king, let it be decreed that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who carry on the [king's] business, to put into the king's treasuries."

Esther 3:10 Then the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

Esther 3:11 The king said to Haman, "The silver is yours, and the people [also], to do with them as you please."

Esther 3:12 Then the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written just as Haman commanded to the king's satraps, to the governors who were over each province and to the princes of each people, each province according to its script, each people according to its language, being written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring.

Esther 3:13 Letters were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces to destroy, to kill and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to seize their possessions as plunder.

Esther 3:14 A copy of the edict to be issued as law in every province was published to all the peoples so that they should be ready for this day.

Esther 3:15 The couriers went out impelled by the king's command while the decree was issued at the citadel in Susa; and while the king and Haman sat down to drink, the city of Susa was in confusion.

Esther 4:1 When Mordecai learned all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city and wailed loudly and bitterly.

Esther 4:2 He went as far as the king's gate, for no one was to enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.

Esther 4:3 In each and every province where the command and decree of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing; and many lay on sackcloth and ashes.

Esther 4:4 Then Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and told her, and the queen writhed in great anguish. And she sent garments to clothe Mordecai that he might remove his sackcloth from him, but he did not accept [them].

Esther 4:5 Then Esther summoned Hathach from the king's eunuchs, whom the king had appointed to attend her, and ordered him [to go] to Mordecai to learn what this [was] and why it [was].

Esther 4:6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai to the city square in front of the king's gate.

Esther 4:7 Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews.

Esther 4:8 He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict which had been issued in Susa for their destruction, that he might show Esther and inform her, and to order her to go in to the king to implore his favor and to plead with him for her people.

Esther 4:9 Hathach came back and related Mordecai's words to Esther.

Esther 4:10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach and ordered him [to reply] to Mordecai:

Esther 4:11 “All the king’s servants and the people of the king’s provinces know that for any man or woman who comes to the king to the inner court who is not summoned, he has but one law, that he be put to death, unless the king holds out to him the golden scepter so that he may live. And I have not been summoned to come to the king for these thirty days.”

Esther 4:12 They related Esther’s words to Mordecai.

Esther 4:13 Then Mordecai told [them] to reply to Esther, “Do not imagine that you in the king’s palace can escape any more than all the Jews.

Esther 4:14 “For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place and you and your father’s house will perish. And who knows whether you have not attained royalty for such a time as this?”

Esther 4:15 Then Esther told [them] to reply to Mordecai,

Esther 4:16 “Go, assemble all the Jews who are found in Susa, and fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maidens also will fast in the same way. And thus I will go in to the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish.”

Esther 4:17 So Mordecai went away and did just as Esther had commanded him.

Esther 5:1 Now it came about on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king’s palace in front of the king’s rooms, and the king was sitting on his royal throne in the throne room, opposite the entrance to the palace.

Esther 5:2 When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favor in his sight; and the king extended to Esther the golden scepter which [was] in his hand. So Esther came near and touched the top of the scepter.

Esther 5:3 Then the king said to her, “What is [troubling] you, Queen Esther? And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom it shall be given to you.”

Esther 5:4 Esther said, “If it pleases the king, may the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him.”

Esther 5:5 Then the king said, “Bring Haman quickly that we may do as Esther desires.” So the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Esther 5:6 As they drank their wine at the banquet, the king said to Esther, “What is your petition, for it shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom it shall be done.”

Esther 5:7 So Esther replied, “My petition and my request is:

Esther 5:8 if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and do what I request, may the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king says."

Esther 5:9 Then Haman went out that day glad and pleased of heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate and that he did not stand up or tremble before him, Haman was filled with anger against Mordecai.

Esther 5:10 Haman controlled himself, however, went to his house and sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh.

Esther 5:11 Then Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the number of his sons, and every [instance] where the king had magnified him and how he had promoted him above the princes and servants of the king.

Esther 5:12 Haman also said, "Even Esther the queen let no one but me come with the king to the banquet which she had prepared; and tomorrow also I am invited by her with the king.

Esther 5:13 "Yet all of this does not satisfy me every time I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

Esther 5:14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Have a gallows fifty cubits high made and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it; then go joyfully with the king to the banquet." And the advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

Esther 6:1 During that night the king could not sleep so he gave an order to bring the book of records, the chronicles, and they were read before the king.

Esther 6:2 It was found written what Mordecai had reported concerning Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who were doorkeepers, that they had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

Esther 6:3 The king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

Esther 6:4 So the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace in order to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows which he had prepared for him.

Esther 6:5 The king's servants said to him, "Behold, Haman is standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

Esther 6:6 So Haman came in and the king said to him, "What is to be done for the man whom the king desires to honor?" And Haman said to himself, "Whom would the king desire to honor more than me?"

Esther 6:7 Then Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king desires to honor, Esther 6:8 let them bring a royal robe which the king has worn, and the horse on which the king has ridden, and on whose head a royal crown has been placed;

Esther 6:9 and let the robe and the horse be handed over to one of the king's most noble princes and let them array the man whom the king desires to honor and lead him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus it shall be done to the man whom the king desires to honor.'"

Esther 6:10 Then the king said to Haman, "Take quickly the robes and the horse as you have said, and do so for Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting at the king's gate; do not fall short in anything of all that you have said."

Esther 6:11 So Haman took the robe and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and led him [on horseback] through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus it shall be done to the man whom the king desires to honor."

Esther 6:12 Then Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman hurried home, mourning, with [his] head covered.

Esther 6:13 Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish origin, you will not overcome him, but will surely fall before him."

Esther 6:14 While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and hastily brought Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Esther 7:1 Now the king and Haman came to drink [wine] with Esther the queen.

Esther 7:2 And the king said to Esther on the second day also as they drank their wine at the banquet, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom it shall be done."

Esther 7:3 Then Queen Esther replied, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me as my petition, and my people as my request;

Esther 7:4 for we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed and to be annihilated. Now if we had only been sold as slaves, men and women, I would have remained silent, for the trouble would not be commensurate with the annoyance to the king."

Esther 7:5 Then King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who would presume to do thus?"

Esther 7:6 Esther said, "A foe and an enemy is this wicked Haman!" Then Haman became terrified before the king and queen.

Esther 7:7 The king arose in his anger from drinking wine [and went] into the palace garden; but Haman stayed to beg for his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that harm had been determined against him by the king.

Esther 7:8 Now when the king returned from the palace garden into the place where they were drinking wine, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he even assault the queen with me in the house?” As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

Esther 7:9 Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who [were] before the king said, “Behold indeed, the gallows standing at Haman’s house fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai who spoke good on behalf of the king!” And the king said, “Hang him on it.”

Esther 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai, and the king’s anger subsided.

Esther 8:1 On that day King Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews, to Queen Esther; and Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had disclosed what he was to her.

Esther 8:2 The king took off his signet ring which he had taken away from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Esther 8:3 Then Esther spoke again to the king, fell at his feet, wept and implored him to avert the evil [scheme] of Haman the Agagite and his plot which he had devised against the Jews.

Esther 8:4 The king extended the golden scepter to Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king.

Esther 8:5 Then she said, “If it pleases the king and if I have found favor before him and the matter [seems] proper to the king and I am pleasing in his sight, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king’s provinces.

Esther 8:6 “For how can I endure to see the calamity which will befall my people, and how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?”

Esther 8:7 So King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, “Behold, I have given the house of Haman to Esther, and him they have hanged on the gallows because he had stretched out his hands against the Jews.

Esther 8:8 “Now you write to the Jews as you see fit, in the king’s name, and seal [it] with the king’s signet ring; for a decree which is written in the name of the king and sealed with the king’s signet ring may not be revoked.”

Esther 8:9 So the king's scribes were called at that time in the third month (that is, the month Sivan), on the twenty-third day; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, the satraps, the governors and the princes of the provinces which [extended] from India to Ethiopia, 127 provinces, to every province according to its script, and to every people according to their language as well as to the Jews according to their script and their language.

Esther 8:10 He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horses, riding on steeds sired by the royal stud.

Esther 8:11 In them the king granted the Jews who were in each and every city [the right] to assemble and to defend their lives, to destroy, to kill and to annihilate the entire army of any people or province which might attack them, including children and women, and to plunder their spoil,

Esther 8:12 on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar).

Esther 8:13 A copy of the edict to be issued as law in each and every province was published to all the peoples, so that the Jews would be ready for this day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

Esther 8:14 The couriers, hastened and impelled by the king's command, went out, riding on the royal steeds; and the decree was given out at the citadel in Susa.

Esther 8:15 Then Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal robes of blue and white, with a large crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Susa shouted and rejoiced.

Esther 8:16 For the Jews there was light and gladness and joy and honor.

Esther 8:17 In each and every province and in each and every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree arrived, there was gladness and joy for the Jews, a feast and a holiday. And many among the peoples of the land became Jews, for the dread of the Jews had fallen on them.

Esther 9:1 Now in the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar), on the thirteenth day when the king's command and edict were about to be executed, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to gain the mastery over them, it was turned to the contrary so that the Jews themselves gained the mastery over those who hated them.

Esther 9:2 The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their harm; and no one could stand before them, for the dread of them had fallen on all the peoples.

Esther 9:3 Even all the princes of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and those who were doing the king's business assisted the Jews, because the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them.

Esther 9:4 Indeed, Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai became greater and greater.

Esther 9:5 Thus the Jews struck all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying; and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

Esther 9:6 At the citadel in Susa the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men,

Esther 9:7 and Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

Esther 9:8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

Esther 9:9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha,

Esther 9:10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Esther 9:11 On that day the number of those who were killed at the citadel in Susa was reported to the king.

Esther 9:12 The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman at the citadel in Susa. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall even be granted you. And what is your further request? It shall also be done."

Esther 9:13 Then said Esther, "If it pleases the king, let tomorrow also be granted to the Jews who are in Susa to do according to the edict of today; and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

Esther 9:14 So the king commanded that it should be done so; and an edict was issued in Susa, and Haman's ten sons were hanged.

Esther 9:15 The Jews who were in Susa assembled also on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and killed three hundred men in Susa, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Esther 9:16 Now the rest of the Jews who [were] in the king's provinces assembled, to defend their lives and rid themselves of their enemies, and kill 75,000 of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Esther 9:17 [This was done] on the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

Esther 9:18 But the Jews who were in Susa assembled on the thirteenth and the fourteenth of the same month, and they rested on the fifteenth day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

Esther 9:19 Therefore the Jews of the rural areas, who live in the rural towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar [a] holiday for rejoicing and feasting and sending portions [of food] to one another.

Esther 9:20 Then Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

Esther 9:21 obliging them to celebrate the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same month, annually,

Esther 9:22 because on those days the Jews rid themselves of their enemies, and [it was a] month which was turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and rejoicing and sending portions [of food] to one another and gifts to the poor.

Esther 9:23 Thus the Jews undertook what they had started to do, and what Mordecai had written to them.

Esther 9:24 For Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them and had cast Pur, that is the lot, to disturb them and destroy them.

Esther 9:25 But when it came to the king's attention, he commanded by letter that his wicked scheme which he had devised against the Jews, should return on his own head and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Esther 9:26 Therefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. And because of the instructions in this letter, both what they had seen in this regard and what had happened to them,

Esther 9:27 the Jews established and made a custom for themselves and for their descendants and for all those who allied themselves with them, so that they would not fail to celebrate these two days according to their regulation and according to their appointed time annually.

Esther 9:28 So these days were to be remembered and celebrated throughout every generation, every family, every province and every city; and these days of Purim were not to fail from among the Jews, or their memory fade from their descendants.

Esther 9:29 Then Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

Esther 9:30 He sent letters to all the Jews, to the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, [namely], words of peace and truth,

Esther 9:31 to establish these days of Purim at their appointed times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had established for them, and just as they had established for themselves and for their descendants with instructions for their times of fasting and their lamentations.

Esther 9:32 The command of Esther established these customs for Purim, and it was written in the book.

Esther 10:1 Now King Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land and on the coastlands of the sea.

Esther 10:2 And all the accomplishments of his authority and strength, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia?

Esther 10:3 For Mordecai the Jew was second [only] to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews and in favor with his many kinsmen, one who sought the good of his people and one who spoke for the welfare of his whole nation.

Job

1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and that man was blameless, upright, fearing God and turning away from evil.

Job 1:2 Seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

Job 1:3 His possessions also were 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, 500 female donkeys, and very many servants; and that man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

Job 1:4 His sons used to go and hold a feast in the house of each one on his day, and they would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Job 1:5 When the days of feasting had completed their cycle, Job would send and consecrate them, rising up early in the morning and offering burnt offerings [according to] the number of them all; for Job said, “Perhaps my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” Thus Job did continually.

Job 1:6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them.

Job 1:7 The LORD said to Satan, “From where do you come?” Then Satan answered the LORD and said, “From roaming about on the earth and walking around on it.”

Job 1:8 The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, fearing God and turning away from evil.”

Job 1:9 Then Satan answered the LORD, “Does Job fear God for nothing?

Job 1:10 “Have You not made a hedge about him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

Job 1:11 “But put forth Your hand now and touch all that he has; he will surely curse You to Your face.”

Job 1:12 Then the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, all that he has is in your power, only do not put forth your hand on him.” So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.

Job 1:13 Now on the day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

Job 1:14 a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys feeding beside them,

Job 1:15 and the Sabeans attacked and took them. They also slew the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three bands and made a raid on the camels and took them and slew the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

Job 1:19 and behold, a great wind came from across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people and they died, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

Job 1:20 Then Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head, and he fell to the ground and worshiped.

Job 1:21 He said, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, And naked I shall return there. The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD.”

Job 1:22 Through all this Job did not sin nor did he blame God.

Job 2:1 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD.

Job 2:2 The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” Then Satan answered the LORD and said, “From roaming about on the earth and walking around on it.”

Job 2:3 The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man fearing God and turning away from evil. And he still holds fast his integrity, although you incited Me against him to ruin him without cause.”

Job 2:4 Satan answered the LORD and said, “Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.

Job 2:5 “However, put forth Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh; he will curse You to Your face.”

Job 2:6 So the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, he is in your power, only spare his life.”

Job 2:7 Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

Job 2:8 And he took a potsherd to scrape himself while he was sitting among the ashes.

Job 2:9 Then his wife said to him, “Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God and die!”

Job 2:10 But he said to her, “You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. Shall we indeed accept good from God and not accept adversity?” In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job 2:11 Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, they came each one from his own place, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite; and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and comfort him.

Job 2:12 When they lifted up their eyes at a distance and did not recognize him, they raised their voices and wept. And each of them tore his robe and they threw dust over their heads toward the sky.

Job 2:13 Then they sat down on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights with no one speaking a word to him, for they saw that [his] pain was very great.

Job 3:1 Afterward Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his [birth].

Job 3:2 And Job said,

Job 3:3 “Let the day perish on which I was to be born, And the night [which] said, ‘A boy is conceived.’

Job 3:4 “May that day be darkness; Let not God above care for it, Nor light shine on it.

Job 3:5 “Let darkness and black gloom claim it; Let a cloud settle on it; Let the blackness of the day terrify it.

Job 3:6 “[As for] that night, let darkness seize it; Let it not rejoice among the days of the year; Let it not come into the number of the months.

Job 3:7 “Behold, let that night be barren; Let no joyful shout enter it.

Job 3:8 “Let those curse it who curse the day, Who are prepared to rouse Leviathan.

Job 3:9 “Let the stars of its twilight be darkened; Let it wait for light but have none, And let it not see the breaking dawn;

Job 3:10 Because it did not shut the opening of my [mother’s] womb, Or hide trouble from my eyes.

Job 3:11 “Why did I not die at birth, Come forth from the womb and expire?

Job 3:12 “Why did the knees receive me, And why the breasts, that I should suck?

Job 3:13 “For now I would have lain down and been quiet; I would have slept then, I would have been at rest,

Job 3:14 With kings and [with] counselors of the earth, Who rebuilt ruins for themselves;

Job 3:15 Or with princes who had gold, Who were filling their houses [with] silver.

Job 3:16 “Or like a miscarriage which is discarded, I would not be, As infants that never saw light.

Job 3:17 “There the wicked cease from raging, And there the weary are at rest.

Job 3:18 “The prisoners are at ease together; They do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.

Job 3:19 “The small and the great are there, And the slave is free from his master.

Job 3:20 “Why is light given to him who suffers, And life to the bitter of soul,

Job 3:21 Who long for death, but there is none, And dig for it more than for hidden treasures,

Job 3:22 Who rejoice greatly, [And] exult when they find the grave?

Job 3:23 “[Why is light given] to a man whose way is hidden, And whom God has hedged in?

Job 3:24 “For my groaning comes at the sight of my food, And my cries pour out like water.

Job 3:25 “For what I fear comes upon me, And what I dread befalls me.

Job 3:26 “I am not at ease, nor am I quiet, And I am not at rest, but turmoil comes.”

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,

Job 4:2 “If one ventures a word with you, will you become impatient? But who can refrain from speaking?

Job 4:3 “Behold you have admonished many, And you have strengthened weak hands.

Job 4:4 “Your words have helped the tottering to stand, And you have strengthened feeble knees.

Job 4:5 “But now it has come to you, and you are impatient; It touches you, and you are dismayed.

Job 4:6 “Is not your fear [of God] your confidence, And the integrity of your ways your hope?

Job 4:7 “Remember now, who [ever] perished being innocent? Or where were the upright destroyed?

Job 4:8 “According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity And those who sow trouble harvest it.

Job 4:9 “By the breath of God they perish, And by the blast of His anger they come to an end.

Job 4:10 “The roaring of the lion and the voice of the [fierce] lion, And the teeth of the young lions are broken.

Job 4:11 “The lion perishes for lack of prey, And the whelps of the lioness are scattered.

Job 4:12 “Now a word was brought to me stealthily, And my ear received a whisper of it.

Job 4:13 “Amid disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night, When deep sleep falls on men,

Job 4:14 Dread came upon me, and trembling, And made all my bones shake.

Job 4:15 “Then a spirit passed by my face; The hair of my flesh bristled up.

Job 4:16 “It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance; A form [was] before my eyes; [There was] silence, then I heard a voice:

Job 4:17 ‘Can mankind be just before God? Can a man be pure before his Maker?

Job 4:18 ‘He puts no trust even in His servants; And against His angels He charges error.

Job 4:19 ‘How much more those who dwell in houses of clay, Whose foundation is in the dust, Who are crushed before the moth!

Job 4:20 ‘Between morning and evening they are broken in pieces; Unobserved, they perish forever.

Job 4:21 ‘Is not their tent-cord plucked up within them? They die, yet without wisdom.’

Job 5:1 “Call now, is there anyone who will answer you? And to which of the holy ones will you turn?

Job 5:2 “For anger slays the foolish man, And jealousy kills the simple.

Job 5:3 “I have seen the foolish taking root, And I cursed his abode immediately.

Job 5:4 “His sons are far from safety, They are even oppressed in the gate, And there is no deliverer.

Job 5:5 “His harvest the hungry devour And take it to a [place of] thorns, And the schemer is eager for their wealth.

Job 5:6 “For affliction does not come from the dust, Nor does trouble sprout from the ground,

Job 5:7 For man is born for trouble, As sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 “But as for me, I would seek God, And I would place my cause before God;

Job 5:9 Who does great and unsearchable things, Wonders without number.

Job 5:10 “He gives rain on the earth And sends water on the fields,

Job 5:11 So that He sets on high those who are lowly, And those who mourn are lifted to safety.

Job 5:12 “He frustrates the plotting of the shrewd, So that their hands cannot attain success.

Job 5:13 “He captures the wise by their own shrewdness, And the advice of the cunning is quickly thwarted.

Job 5:14 “By day they meet with darkness, And grope at noon as in the night.

Job 5:15 “But He saves from the sword of their mouth, And the poor from the hand of the mighty.

Job 5:16 “So the helpless has hope, And unrighteousness must shut its mouth.

Job 5:17 “Behold, how happy is the man whom God reproves, So do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.

Job 5:18 “For He inflicts pain, and gives relief; He wounds, and His hands [also] heal.

Job 5:19 “From six troubles He will deliver you, Even in seven evil will not touch you.

Job 5:20 “In famine He will redeem you from death, And in war from the power of the sword.

Job 5:21 “You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, And you will not be afraid of violence when it comes.

Job 5:22 “You will laugh at violence and famine, And you will not be afraid of wild beasts.

Job 5:23 “For you will be in league with the stones of the field, And the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

Job 5:24 “You will know that your tent is secure, For you will visit your abode and fear no loss.

Job 5:25 “You will know also that your descendants will be many, And your offspring as the grass of the earth.

Job 5:26 “You will come to the grave in full vigor, Like the stacking of grain in its season.

Job 5:27 “Behold this; we have investigated it, [and] so it is. Hear it, and know for yourself.”

Job 6:1 Then Job answered,

Job 6:2 “Oh that my grief were actually weighed And laid in the balances together with my calamity!

Job 6:3 “For then it would be heavier than the sand of the seas; Therefore my words have been rash.

Job 6:4 “For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, Their poison my spirit drinks; The terrors of God are arrayed against me.

Job 6:5 “Does the wild donkey bray over [his] grass, Or does the ox low over his fodder?

Job 6:6 “Can something tasteless be eaten without salt, Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

Job 6:7 “My soul refuses to touch [them]; They are like loathsome food to me.

Job 6:8 “Oh that my request might come to pass, And that God would grant my longing!

Job 6:9 “Would that God were willing to crush me, That He would loose His hand and cut me off!

Job 6:10 “But it is still my consolation, And I rejoice in unsparing pain, That I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11 “What is my strength, that I should wait? And what is my end, that I should endure?

Job 6:12 “Is my strength the strength of stones, Or is my flesh bronze?

Job 6:13 “Is it that my help is not within me, And that deliverance is driven from me?

Job 6:14 “For the despairing man [there should be] kindness from his friend; So that he does not forsake the fear of the Almighty.

Job 6:15 “My brothers have acted deceitfully like a wadi, Like the torrents of wadis which vanish,

Job 6:16 Which are turbid because of ice [And] into which the snow melts.

Job 6:17 “When they become waterless, they are silent, When it is hot, they vanish from their place.

Job 6:18 “The paths of their course wind along, They go up into nothing and perish.

Job 6:19 “The caravans of Tema looked, The travelers of Sheba hoped for them.

Job 6:20 “They were disappointed for they had trusted, They came there and were confounded.

Job 6:21 “Indeed, you have now become such, You see a terror and are afraid.

Job 6:22 “Have I said, ‘Give me [something],’ Or, ‘Offer a bribe for me from your wealth,’

Job 6:23 Or, ‘Deliver me from the hand of the adversary,’ Or, ‘Redeem me from the hand of the tyrants ‘?

Job 6:24 “Teach me, and I will be silent; And show me how I have erred.

Job 6:25 “How painful are honest words! But what does your argument prove?

Job 6:26 “Do you intend to reprove [my] words, When the words of one in despair belong to the wind?

Job 6:27 “You would even cast [lots] for the orphans And barter over your friend.

Job 6:28 “Now please look at me, And [see] if I lie to your face.

Job 6:29 “Desist now, let there be no injustice; Even desist, my righteousness is yet in it.

Job 6:30 “Is there injustice on my tongue? Cannot my palate discern calamities?

Job 7:1 “Is not man forced to labor on earth, And [are not] his days like the days of a hired man?

Job 7:2 “As a slave who pants for the shade, And as a hired man who eagerly waits for his wages,

Job 7:3 So am I allotted months of vanity, And nights of trouble are appointed me.

Job 7:4 “When I lie down I say, ‘When shall I arise?’ But the night continues, And I am continually tossing until dawn.

Job 7:5 “My flesh is clothed with worms and a crust of dirt, My skin hardens and runs.

Job 7:6 “My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, And come to an end without hope.

Job 7:7 “Remember that my life is [but] breath; My eye will not again see good.

Job 7:8 “The eye of him who sees me will behold me no longer; Your eyes [will be] on me, but I will not be.

Job 7:9 “When a cloud vanishes, it is gone, So he who goes down to Sheol does not come up.

Job 7:10 “He will not return again to his house, Nor will his place know him anymore.

Job 7:11 “Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 7:12 “Am I the sea, or the sea monster, That You set a guard over me?

Job 7:13 “If I say, ‘My bed will comfort me, My couch will ease my complaint,’

Job 7:14 Then You frighten me with dreams And terrify me by visions;

Job 7:15 So that my soul would choose suffocation, Death rather than my pains.

Job 7:16 “I waste away; I will not live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are [but] a breath.

Job 7:17 “What is man that You magnify him, And that You are concerned about him,

Job 7:18 That You examine him every morning And try him every moment?

Job 7:19 “Will You never turn Your gaze away from me, Nor let me alone until I swallow my spittle?

Job 7:20 “Have I sinned? What have I done to You, O watcher of men? Why have You set me as Your target, So that I am a burden to myself?

Job 7:21 “Why then do You not pardon my transgression And take away my iniquity? For now I will lie down in the dust; And You will seek me, but I will not be.”

Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,

Job 8:2 “How long will you say these things, And the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?

Job 8:3 “Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert what is right?

Job 8:4 “If your sons sinned against Him, Then He delivered them into the power of their transgression.

Job 8:5 “If you would seek God And implore the compassion of the Almighty,

Job 8:6 If you are pure and upright, Surely now He would rouse Himself for you And restore your righteous estate.

Job 8:7 “Though your beginning was insignificant, Yet your end will increase greatly.

Job 8:8 “Please inquire of past generations, And consider the things searched out by their fathers.

Job 8:9 “For we are [only] of yesterday and know nothing, Because our days on earth are as a shadow.

Job 8:10 “Will they not teach you [and] tell you, And bring forth words from their minds?

Job 8:11 “Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh? Can the rushes grow without water?

Job 8:12 “While it is still green [and] not cut down, Yet it withers before any [other] plant.

Job 8:13 “So are the paths of all who forget God; And the hope of the godless will perish,

Job 8:14 Whose confidence is fragile, And whose trust a spider’s web.

Job 8:15 “He trusts in his house, but it does not stand; He holds fast to it, but it does not endure.

Job 8:16 “He thrives before the sun, And his shoots spread out over his garden.

Job 8:17 “His roots wrap around a rock pile, He grasps a house of stones.

Job 8:18 “If he is removed from his place, Then it will deny him, [saying], ‘I never saw you.’

Job 8:19 “Behold, this is the joy of His way; And out of the dust others will spring.

Job 8:20 “Lo, God will not reject [a man of] integrity, Nor will He support the evildoers.

Job 8:21 “He will yet fill your mouth with laughter And your lips with shouting.

Job 8:22 “Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, And the tent of the wicked will be no longer.”

Job 9:1 Then Job answered,

Job 9:2 “In truth I know that this is so; But how can a man be in the right before God?

Job 9:3 “If one wished to dispute with Him, He could not answer Him once in a thousand [times].

Job 9:4 “Wise in heart and mighty in strength, Who has defied Him without harm?

Job 9:5 “[It is God] who removes the mountains, they know not [how], When He overturns them in His anger;

Job 9:6 Who shakes the earth out of its place, And its pillars tremble;

Job 9:7 Who commands the sun not to shine, And sets a seal upon the stars;

Job 9:8 Who alone stretches out the heavens And tramples down the waves of the sea;

Job 9:9 Who makes the Bear, Orion and the Pleiades, And the chambers of the south;

Job 9:10 Who does great things, unfathomable, And wondrous works without number.

Job 9:11 “Were He to pass by me, I would not see Him; Were He to move past [me], I would not perceive Him.

Job 9:12 “Were He to snatch away, who could restrain Him? Who could say to Him, ‘What are You doing?’

Job 9:13 “God will not turn back His anger; Beneath Him crouch the helpers of Rahab.

Job 9:14 “How then can I answer Him, [And] choose my words before Him?

Job 9:15 “For though I were right, I could not answer; I would have to implore the mercy of my judge.

Job 9:16 “If I called and He answered me, I could not believe that He was listening to my voice.

Job 9:17 “For He bruises me with a tempest And multiplies my wounds without cause.

Job 9:18 “He will not allow me to get my breath, But saturates me with bitterness.

Job 9:19 “If [it is a matter] of power, behold, [He is] the strong one! And if [it is a matter] of justice, who can summon Him?

Job 9:20 “Though I am righteous, my mouth will condemn me; Though I am guiltless, He will declare me guilty.

Job 9:21 “I am guiltless; I do not take notice of myself; I despise my life.

Job 9:22 “It is [all] one; therefore I say, ‘He destroys the guiltless and the wicked.’

Job 9:23 “If the scourge kills suddenly, He mocks the despair of the innocent.

Job 9:24 “The earth is given into the hand of the wicked; He covers the faces of its judges. If [it is] not [He], then who is it?

Job 9:25 “Now my days are swifter than a runner; They flee away, they see no good.

Job 9:26 “They slip by like reed boats, Like an eagle that swoops on its prey.

Job 9:27 “Though I say, ‘I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my [sad] countenance and be cheerful,’

Job 9:28 I am afraid of all my pains, I know that You will not acquit me.

Job 9:29 “I am accounted wicked, Why then should I toil in vain?

Job 9:30 “If I should wash myself with snow And cleanse my hands with lye,

Job 9:31 Yet You would plunge me into the pit, And my own clothes would abhor me.

Job 9:32 “For [He is] not a man as I am that I may answer Him, That we may go to court together.

Job 9:33 “There is no umpire between us, Who may lay his hand upon us both.

Job 9:34 “Let Him remove His rod from me, And let not dread of Him terrify me.

Job 9:35 “[Then] I would speak and not fear Him; But I am not like that in myself.

Job 10:1 “I loathe my own life; I will give full vent to my complaint; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 10:2 “I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me; Let me know why You contend with me.

Job 10:3 ‘Is it right for You indeed to oppress, To reject the labor of Your hands, And to look favorably on the schemes of the wicked?

Job 10:4 ‘Have You eyes of flesh? Or do You see as a man sees?

Job 10:5 ‘Are Your days as the days of a mortal, Or Your years as man’s years,

Job 10:6 That You should seek for my guilt And search after my sin?

Job 10:7 ‘According to Your knowledge I am indeed not guilty, Yet there is no deliverance from Your hand.

Job 10:8 ‘Your hands fashioned and made me altogether, And would You destroy me?

Job 10:9 ‘Remember now, that You have made me as clay; And would You turn me into dust again?

Job 10:10 ‘Did You not pour me out like milk And curdle me like cheese;

Job 10:11 Clothe me with skin and flesh, And knit me together with bones and sinews?

Job 10:12 ‘You have granted me life and lovingkindness; And Your care has preserved my spirit.

Job 10:13 ‘Yet these things You have concealed in Your heart; I know that this is within You:

Job 10:14 If I sin, then You would take note of me, And would not acquit me of my guilt.

Job 10:15 'If I am wicked, woe to me! And if I am righteous, I dare not lift up my head. [I am] sated with disgrace and conscious of my misery.

Job 10:16 'Should [my head] be lifted up, You would hunt me like a lion; And again You would show Your power against me.

Job 10:17 'You renew Your witnesses against me And increase Your anger toward me; Hardship after hardship is with me.

Job 10:18 'Why then have You brought me out of the womb? Would that I had died and no eye had seen me!

Job 10:19 'I should have been as though I had not been, Carried from womb to tomb.'

Job 10:20 "Would He not let my few days alone? Withdraw from me that I may have a little cheer

Job 10:21 Before I go— and I shall not return— To the land of darkness and deep shadow,

Job 10:22 The land of utter gloom as darkness [itself], Of deep shadow without order, And which shines as the darkness."

Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered,

Job 11:2 "Shall a multitude of words go unanswered, And a talkative man be acquitted?

Job 11:3 "Shall your boasts silence men? And shall you scoff and none rebuke?

Job 11:4 "For you have said, 'My teaching is pure, And I am innocent in your eyes.'

Job 11:5 "But would that God might speak, And open His lips against you,

Job 11:6 And show you the secrets of wisdom! For sound wisdom has two sides. Know then that God forgets a part of your iniquity.

Job 11:7 "Can you discover the depths of God? Can you discover the limits of the Almighty?

Job 11:8 "[They are] high as the heavens, what can you do? Deeper than Sheol, what can you know?

Job 11:9 "Its measure is longer than the earth And broader than the sea.

Job 11:10 "If He passes by or shuts up, Or calls an assembly, who can restrain Him?

Job 11:11 "For He knows false men, And He sees iniquity without investigating.

Job 11:12 “An idiot will become intelligent When the foal of a wild donkey is born a man.

Job 11:13 “If you would direct your heart right And spread out your hand to Him,

Job 11:14 If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, And do not let wickedness dwell in your tents;

Job 11:15 “Then, indeed, you could lift up your face without [moral] defect, And you would be steadfast and not fear.

Job 11:16 “For you would forget [your] trouble, As waters that have passed by, you would remember [it].

Job 11:17 “Your life would be brighter than noonday; Darkness would be like the morning.

Job 11:18 “Then you would trust, because there is hope; And you would look around and rest securely.

Job 11:19 “You would lie down and none would disturb [you], And many would entreat your favor.

Job 11:20 “But the eyes of the wicked will fail, And there will be no escape for them; And their hope is to breathe their last.”

Job 12:1 Then Job responded,

Job 12:2 “Truly then you are the people, And with you wisdom will die!

Job 12:3 “But I have intelligence as well as you; I am not inferior to you. And who does not know such things as these?

Job 12:4 “I am a joke to my friends, The one who called on God and He answered him; The just [and] blameless [man] is a joke.

Job 12:5 “He who is at ease holds calamity in contempt, As prepared for those whose feet slip.

Job 12:6 “The tents of the destroyers prosper, And those who provoke God are secure, Whom God brings into their power.

Job 12:7 “But now ask the beasts, and let them teach you; And the birds of the heavens, and let them tell you.

Job 12:8 “Or speak to the earth, and let it teach you; And let the fish of the sea declare to you.

Job 12:9 “Who among all these does not know That the hand of the LORD has done this,

Job 12:10 In whose hand is the life of every living thing, And the breath of all mankind?

Job 12:11 “Does not the ear test words, As the palate tastes its food?

Job 12:12 “Wisdom is with aged men, [With] long life is understanding.

Job 12:13 “With Him are wisdom and might; To Him belong counsel and understanding.

Job 12:14 “Behold, He tears down, and it cannot be rebuilt; He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.

Job 12:15 “Behold, He restrains the waters, and they dry up; And He sends them out, and they inundate the earth.

Job 12:16 “With Him are strength and sound wisdom, The misled and the misleader belong to Him.

Job 12:17 “He makes counselors walk barefoot And makes fools of judges.

Job 12:18 “He loosens the bond of kings And binds their loins with a girdle.

Job 12:19 “He makes priests walk barefoot And overthrows the secure ones.

Job 12:20 “He deprives the trusted ones of speech And takes away the discernment of the elders.

Job 12:21 “He pours contempt on nobles And loosens the belt of the strong.

Job 12:22 “He reveals mysteries from the darkness And brings the deep darkness into light.

Job 12:23 “He makes the nations great, then destroys them; He enlarges the nations, then leads them away.

Job 12:24 “He deprives of intelligence the chiefs of the earth’s people And makes them wander in a pathless waste.

Job 12:25 “They grope in darkness with no light, And He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

Job 13:1 “Behold, my eye has seen all [this], My ear has heard and understood it.

Job 13:2 “What you know I also know; I am not inferior to you.

Job 13:3 “But I would speak to the Almighty, And I desire to argue with God.

Job 13:4 “But you smear with lies; You are all worthless physicians.

Job 13:5 “O that you would be completely silent, And that it would become your wisdom!

Job 13:6 “Please hear my argument And listen to the contentions of my lips.

Job 13:7 “Will you speak what is unjust for God, And speak what is deceitful for Him?

Job 13:8 “Will you show partiality for Him? Will you contend for God?

Job 13:9 “Will it be well when He examines you? Or will you deceive Him as one deceives a man?

Job 13:10 “He will surely reprove you If you secretly show partiality.

Job 13:11 “Will not His majesty terrify you, And the dread of Him fall on you?

Job 13:12 “Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, Your defenses are defenses of clay.

Job 13:13 “Be silent before me so that I may speak; Then let come on me what may.

Job 13:14 “Why should I take my flesh in my teeth And put my life in my hands?

Job 13:15 “Though He slay me, I will hope in Him. Nevertheless I will argue my ways before Him.

Job 13:16 “This also will be my salvation, For a godless man may not come before His presence.

Job 13:17 “Listen carefully to my speech, And let my declaration [fill] your ears.

Job 13:18 “Behold now, I have prepared my case; I know that I will be vindicated.

Job 13:19 “Who will contend with me? For then I would be silent and die.

Job 13:20 “Only two things do not do to me, Then I will not hide from Your face:

Job 13:21 Remove Your hand from me, And let not the dread of You terrify me.

Job 13:22 “Then call, and I will answer; Or let me speak, then reply to me.

Job 13:23 “How many are my iniquities and sins? Make known to me my rebellion and my sin.

Job 13:24 “Why do You hide Your face And consider me Your enemy?

Job 13:25 “Will You cause a driven leaf to tremble? Or will You pursue the dry chaff?

Job 13:26 “For You write bitter things against me And make me to inherit the iniquities of my youth.

Job 13:27 “You put my feet in the stocks And watch all my paths; You set a limit for the soles of my feet,

Job 13:28 While I am decaying like a rotten thing, Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

Job 14:1 “Man, who is born of woman, Is short-lived and full of turmoil.

Job 14:2 “Like a flower he comes forth and withers. He also flees like a shadow and does not remain.

Job 14:3 “You also open Your eyes on him And bring him into judgment with Yourself.

Job 14:4 “Who can make the clean out of the unclean? No one!

Job 14:5 “Since his days are determined, The number of his months is with You; And his limits You have set so that he cannot pass.

Job 14:6 “Turn Your gaze from him that he may rest, Until he fulfills his day like a hired man.

Job 14:7 “For there is hope for a tree, When it is cut down, that it will sprout again, And its shoots will not fail.

Job 14:8 “Though its roots grow old in the ground And its stump dies in the dry soil,

Job 14:9 At the scent of water it will flourish And put forth sprigs like a plant.

Job 14:10 “But man dies and lies prostrate. Man expires, and where is he?

Job 14:11 “[As] water evaporates from the sea, And a river becomes parched and dried up,

Job 14:12 So man lies down and does not rise. Until the heavens are no longer, He will not awake nor be aroused out of his sleep.

Job 14:13 “Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, That You would conceal me until Your wrath returns [to You], That You would set a limit for me and remember me!

Job 14:14 “If a man dies, will he live [again]? All the days of my struggle I will wait Until my change comes.

Job 14:15 “You will call, and I will answer You; You will long for the work of Your hands.

Job 14:16 “For now You number my steps, You do not observe my sin.

Job 14:17 “My transgression is sealed up in a bag, And You wrap up my iniquity.

Job 14:18 “But the falling mountain crumbles away, And the rock moves from its place;

Job 14:19 Water wears away stones, Its torrents wash away the dust of the earth; So You destroy man’s hope.

Job 14:20 “You forever overpower him and he departs; [You] change his appearance and send him away.

Job 14:21 “His sons achieve honor, but he does not know [it]; Or they become insignificant, but he does not perceive it.

Job 14:22 “But his body pains him, And he mourns only for himself.”

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded,

Job 15:2 “Should a wise man answer with windy knowledge And fill himself with the east wind?

Job 15:3 “Should he argue with useless talk, Or with words which are not profitable?

Job 15:4 “Indeed, you do away with reverence And hinder meditation before God.

Job 15:5 “For your guilt teaches your mouth, And you choose the language of the crafty.

Job 15:6 “Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; And your own lips testify against you.

Job 15:7 “Were you the first man to be born, Or were you brought forth before the hills?

Job 15:8 “Do you hear the secret counsel of God, And limit wisdom to yourself?

Job 15:9 “What do you know that we do not know? [What] do you understand that we do not?

Job 15:10 “Both the gray-haired and the aged are among us, Older than your father.

Job 15:11 “Are the consolations of God too small for you, Even the word [spoken] gently with you?

Job 15:12 “Why does your heart carry you away? And why do your eyes flash,

Job 15:13 That you should turn your spirit against God And allow [such] words to go out of your mouth?

Job 15:14 “What is man, that he should be pure, Or he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

Job 15:15 “Behold, He puts no trust in His holy ones, And the heavens are not pure in His sight;

Job 15:16 How much less one who is detestable and corrupt, Man, who drinks iniquity like water!

Job 15:17 “I will tell you, listen to me; And what I have seen I will also declare;

Job 15:18 What wise men have told, And have not concealed from their fathers,

Job 15:19 To whom alone the land was given, And no alien passed among them.

Job 15:20 “The wicked man writhes in pain all [his] days, And numbered are the years stored up for the ruthless.

Job 15:21 “Sounds of terror are in his ears; While at peace the destroyer comes upon him.

Job 15:22 “He does not believe that he will return from darkness, And he is destined for the sword.

Job 15:23 “He wanders about for food, saying, ‘Where is it?’ He knows that a day of darkness is at hand.

Job 15:24 “Distress and anguish terrify him, They overpower him like a king ready for the attack,

Job 15:25 Because he has stretched out his hand against God And conducts himself arrogantly against the Almighty.

Job 15:26 “He rushes headlong at Him With his massive shield.

Job 15:27 “For he has covered his face with his fat And made his thighs heavy with flesh.

Job 15:28 “He has lived in desolate cities, In houses no one would inhabit, Which are destined to become ruins.

Job 15:29 “He will not become rich, nor will his wealth endure; And his grain will not bend down to the ground.

Job 15:30 “He will not escape from darkness; The flame will wither his shoots, And by the breath of His mouth he will go away.

Job 15:31 “Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; For emptiness will be his reward.

Job 15:32 “It will be accomplished before his time, And his palm branch will not be green.

Job 15:33 “He will drop off his unripe grape like the vine, And will cast off his flower like the olive tree.

Job 15:34 “For the company of the godless is barren, And fire consumes the tents of the corrupt.

Job 15:35 “They conceive mischief and bring forth iniquity, And their mind prepares deception.”

Job 16:1 Then Job answered,

Job 16:2 “I have heard many such things; Sorry comforters are you all.

Job 16:3 “Is there [no] limit to windy words? Or what plagues you that you answer?

Job 16:4 “I too could speak like you, If I were in your place. I could compose words against you And shake my head at you.

Job 16:5 “I could strengthen you with my mouth, And the solace of my lips could lessen [your pain].

Job 16:6 “If I speak, my pain is not lessened, And if I hold back, what has left me?

Job 16:7 “But now He has exhausted me; You have laid waste all my company.

Job 16:8 “You have shriveled me up, It has become a witness; And my leanness rises up against me, It testifies to my face.

Job 16:9 “His anger has torn me and hunted me down, He has gnashed at me with His teeth; My adversary glares at me.

Job 16:10 “They have gaped at me with their mouth, They have slapped me on the cheek with contempt; They have massed themselves against me.

Job 16:11 “God hands me over to ruffians And tosses me into the hands of the wicked.

Job 16:12 “I was at ease, but He shattered me, And He has grasped me by the neck and shaken me to pieces; He has also set me up as His target.

Job 16:13 “His arrows surround me. Without mercy He splits my kidneys open; He pours out my gall on the ground.

Job 16:14 “He breaks through me with breach after breach; He runs at me like a warrior.

Job 16:15 “I have sewed sackcloth over my skin And thrust my horn in the dust.

Job 16:16 “My face is flushed from weeping, And deep darkness is on my eyelids,

Job 16:17 Although there is no violence in my hands, And my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 “O earth, do not cover my blood, And let there be no [resting] place for my cry.

Job 16:19 “Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven, And my advocate is on high.

Job 16:20 “My friends are my scoffers; My eye weeps to God.

Job 16:21 “O that a man might plead with God As a man with his neighbor!

Job 16:22 “For when a few years are past, I shall go the way of no return.

Job 17:1 “My spirit is broken, my days are extinguished, The grave is [ready] for me.

Job 17:2 “Surely mockers are with me, And my eye gazes on their provocation.

Job 17:3 “Lay down, now, a pledge for me with Yourself; Who is there that will be my guarantor?

Job 17:4 “For You have kept their heart from understanding, Therefore You will not exalt [them].

Job 17:5 “He who informs against friends for a share [of the spoil], The eyes of his children also will languish.

Job 17:6 “But He has made me a byword of the people, And I am one at whom men spit.

Job 17:7 “My eye has also grown dim because of grief, And all my members are as a shadow.

Job 17:8 “The upright will be appalled at this, And the innocent will stir up himself against the godless.

Job 17:9 “Nevertheless the righteous will hold to his way, And he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.

Job 17:10 “But come again all of you now, For I do not find a wise man among you.

Job 17:11 “My days are past, my plans are torn apart, [Even] the wishes of my heart.

Job 17:12 “They make night into day, [saying], ‘The light is near,’ in the presence of darkness.

Job 17:13 “If I look for Sheol as my home, I make my bed in the darkness;

Job 17:14 If I call to the pit, ‘You are my father’; To the worm, ‘my mother and my sister’;

Job 17:15 Where now is my hope? And who regards my hope?

Job 17:16 “Will it go down with me to Sheol? Shall we together go down into the dust?”

Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite responded,

Job 18:2 “How long will you hunt for words? Show understanding and then we can talk.

Job 18:3 “Why are we regarded as beasts, As stupid in your eyes?

Job 18:4 “O you who tear yourself in your anger— For your sake is the earth to be abandoned, Or the rock to be moved from its place?

Job 18:5 “Indeed, the light of the wicked goes out, And the flame of his fire gives no light.

Job 18:6 “The light in his tent is darkened, And his lamp goes out above him.

Job 18:7 “His vigorous stride is shortened, And his own scheme brings him down.

Job 18:8 “For he is thrown into the net by his own feet, And he steps on the webbing.

Job 18:9 “A snare seizes [him] by the heel, [And] a trap snaps shut on him.

Job 18:10 “A noose for him is hidden in the ground, And a trap for him on the path.

Job 18:11 “All around terrors frighten him, And harry him at every step.

Job 18:12 “His strength is famished, And calamity is ready at his side.

Job 18:13 “His skin is devoured by disease, The firstborn of death devours his limbs.

Job 18:14 “He is torn from the security of his tent, And they march him before the king of terrors.

Job 18:15 “There dwells in his tent nothing of his; Brimstone is scattered on his habitation.

Job 18:16 “His roots are dried below, And his branch is cut off above.

Job 18:17 “Memory of him perishes from the earth, And he has no name abroad.

Job 18:18 “He is driven from light into darkness, And chased from the inhabited world.

Job 18:19 “He has no offspring or posterity among his people, Nor any survivor where he sojourned.

Job 18:20 “Those in the west are appalled at his fate, And those in the east are seized with horror.

Job 18:21 “Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, And this is the place of him who does not know God.”

Job 19:1 Then Job responded,

Job 19:2 “How long will you torment me And crush me with words?

Job 19:3 “These ten times you have insulted me; You are not ashamed to wrong me.

Job 19:4 “Even if I have truly erred, My error lodges with me.

Job 19:5 “If indeed you vaunt yourselves against me And prove my disgrace to me,

Job 19:6 Know then that God has wronged me And has closed His net around me.

Job 19:7 “Behold, I cry, ‘Violence!’ but I get no answer; I shout for help, but there is no justice.

Job 19:8 “He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass, And He has put darkness on my paths.

Job 19:9 “He has stripped my honor from me And removed the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 “He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone; And He has uprooted my hope like a tree.

Job 19:11 “He has also kindled His anger against me And considered me as His enemy.

Job 19:12 “His troops come together, And build up their way against me And camp around my tent.

Job 19:13 “He has removed my brothers far from me, And my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.

Job 19:14 “My relatives have failed, And my intimate friends have forgotten me.

Job 19:15 “Those who live in my house and my maids consider me a stranger. I am a foreigner in their sight.

Job 19:16 “I call to my servant, but he does not answer; I have to implore him with my mouth.

Job 19:17 “My breath is offensive to my wife, And I am loathsome to my own brothers.

Job 19:18 “Even young children despise me; I rise up and they speak against me.

Job 19:19 “All my associates abhor me, And those I love have turned against me.

Job 19:20 “My bone clings to my skin and my flesh, And I have escaped [only] by the skin of my teeth.

Job 19:21 “Pity me, pity me, O you my friends, For the hand of God has struck me.

Job 19:22 “Why do you persecute me as God [does], And are not satisfied with my flesh?

Job 19:23 “Oh that my words were written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book!

Job 19:24 “That with an iron stylus and lead They were engraved in the rock forever!

Job 19:25 “As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, And at the last He will take His stand on the earth.

Job 19:26 “Even after my skin is destroyed, Yet from my flesh I shall see God;

Job 19:27 Whom I myself shall behold, And whom my eyes will see and not another. My heart faints within me!

Job 19:28 “If you say, ‘How shall we persecute him?’ And ‘What pretext for a case against him can we find?’

Job 19:29 “[Then] be afraid of the sword for yourselves, For wrath [brings] the punishment of the sword, So that you may know there is judgment.”

Job 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered,

Job 20:2 “Therefore my disquieting thoughts make me respond, Even because of my inward agitation.

Job 20:3 “I listened to the reproof which insults me, And the spirit of my understanding makes me answer.

Job 20:4 “Do you know this from of old, From the establishment of man on earth,

Job 20:5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, And the joy of the godless momentary?

Job 20:6 “Though his loftiness reaches the heavens, And his head touches the clouds,

Job 20:7 He perishes forever like his refuse; Those who have seen him will say, ‘Where is he?’

Job 20:8 “He flies away like a dream, and they cannot find him; Even like a vision of the night he is chased away.

Job 20:9 “The eye which saw him sees him no longer, And his place no longer beholds him.

Job 20:10 “His sons favor the poor, And his hands give back his wealth.

Job 20:11 “His bones are full of his youthful vigor, But it lies down with him in the dust.

Job 20:12 “Though evil is sweet in his mouth [And] he hides it under his tongue,

Job 20:13 [Though] he desires it and will not let it go, But holds it in his mouth,

Job 20:14 [Yet] his food in his stomach is changed To the venom of cobras within him.

Job 20:15 “He swallows riches, But will vomit them up; God will expel them from his belly.

Job 20:16 “He sucks the poison of cobras; The viper’s tongue slays him.

Job 20:17 “He does not look at the streams, The rivers flowing with honey and curds.

Job 20:18 “He returns what he has attained And cannot swallow [it]; As to the riches of his trading, He cannot even enjoy [them].

Job 20:19 “For he has oppressed [and] forsaken the poor; He has seized a house which he has not built.

Job 20:20 “Because he knew no quiet within him, He does not retain anything he desires.

Job 20:21 “Nothing remains for him to devour, Therefore his prosperity does not endure.

Job 20:22 “In the fullness of his plenty he will be cramped; The hand of everyone who suffers will come [against] him.

Job 20:23 “When he fills his belly, [God] will send His fierce anger on him And will rain [it] on him while he is eating.

Job 20:24 “He may flee from the iron weapon, [But] the bronze bow will pierce him.

Job 20:25 “It is drawn forth and comes out of his back, Even the glittering point from his gall. Terrors come upon him,

Job 20:26 Complete darkness is held in reserve for his treasures, And unfanned fire will devour him; It will consume the survivor in his tent.

Job 20:27 “The heavens will reveal his iniquity, And the earth will rise up against him.

Job 20:28 “The increase of his house will depart; [His possessions] will flow away in the day of His anger.

Job 20:29 “This is the wicked man’s portion from God, Even the heritage decreed to him by God.”

Job 21:1 Then Job answered,

Job 21:2 “Listen carefully to my speech, And let this be your [way of] consolation.

Job 21:3 “Bear with me that I may speak; Then after I have spoken, you may mock.

Job 21:4 “As for me, is my complaint to man? And why should I not be impatient?

Job 21:5 “Look at me, and be astonished, And put [your] hand over [your] mouth.

Job 21:6 “Even when I remember, I am disturbed, And horror takes hold of my flesh.

Job 21:7 “Why do the wicked [still] live, Continue on, also become very powerful?

Job 21:8 “Their descendants are established with them in their sight, And their offspring before their eyes,

Job 21:9 Their houses are safe from fear, And the rod of God is not on them.

Job 21:10 “His ox mates without fail; His cow calves and does not abort.

Job 21:11 “They send forth their little ones like the flock, And their children skip about.

Job 21:12 “They sing to the timbrel and harp And rejoice at the sound of the flute.

Job 21:13 “They spend their days in prosperity, And suddenly they go down to Sheol.

Job 21:14 “They say to God, ‘Depart from us! We do not even desire the knowledge of Your ways.

Job 21:15 ‘Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him, And what would we gain if we entreat Him?’

Job 21:16 “Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand; The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

Job 21:17 “How often is the lamp of the wicked put out, Or does their calamity fall on them? Does God apportion destruction in His anger?

Job 21:18 “Are they as straw before the wind, And like chaff which the storm carries away?

Job 21:19 “[You say], ‘God stores away a man’s iniquity for his sons.’ Let God repay him so that he may know [it].

Job 21:20 “Let his own eyes see his decay, And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

Job 21:21 “For what does he care for his household after him, When the number of his months is cut off?

Job 21:22 “Can anyone teach God knowledge, In that He judges those on high?

Job 21:23 “One dies in his full strength, Being wholly at ease and satisfied;

Job 21:24 His sides are filled out with fat, And the marrow of his bones is moist,

Job 21:25 While another dies with a bitter soul, Never even tasting [anything] good.

Job 21:26 “Together they lie down in the dust, And worms cover them.

Job 21:27 “Behold, I know your thoughts, And the plans by which you would wrong me.

Job 21:28 “For you say, ‘Where is the house of the nobleman, And where is the tent, the dwelling places of the wicked?’

Job 21:29 “Have you not asked wayfaring men, And do you not recognize their witness?

Job 21:30 “For the wicked is reserved for the day of calamity; They will be led forth at the day of fury.

Job 21:31 “Who will confront him with his actions, And who will repay him for what he has done?

Job 21:32 “While he is carried to the grave, [Men] will keep watch over [his] tomb.

Job 21:33 “The clods of the valley will gently cover him; Moreover, all men will follow after him, While countless ones [go] before him.

Job 21:34 “How then will you vainly comfort me, For your answers remain [full of] falsehood?”

Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded,

Job 22:2 “Can a vigorous man be of use to God, Or a wise man be useful to himself?

Job 22:3 “Is there any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous, Or profit if you make your ways perfect?

Job 22:4 “Is it because of your reverence that He reproves you, That He enters into judgment against you?

Job 22:5 “Is not your wickedness great, And your iniquities without end?

Job 22:6 “For you have taken pledges of your brothers without cause, And stripped men naked.

Job 22:7 “To the weary you have given no water to drink, And from the hungry you have withheld bread.

Job 22:8 “But the earth belongs to the mighty man, And the honorable man dwells in it.

Job 22:9 “You have sent widows away empty, And the strength of the orphans has been crushed.

Job 22:10 “Therefore snares surround you, And sudden dread terrifies you,

Job 22:11 Or darkness, so that you cannot see, And an abundance of water covers you.

Job 22:12 “Is not God [in] the height of heaven? Look also at the distant stars, how high they are!

Job 22:13 “You say, ‘What does God know? Can He judge through the thick darkness?

Job 22:14 ‘Clouds are a hiding place for Him, so that He cannot see; And He walks on the vault of heaven.’

Job 22:15 “Will you keep to the ancient path Which wicked men have trod,

Job 22:16 Who were snatched away before their time, Whose foundations were washed away by a river?

Job 22:17 “They said to God, ‘Depart from us!’ And ‘What can the Almighty do to them?’

Job 22:18 “Yet He filled their houses with good [things]; But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

Job 22:19 “The righteous see and are glad, And the innocent mock them,

Job 22:20 [Saying], ‘Truly our adversaries are cut off, And their abundance the fire has consumed.’

Job 22:21 “Yield now and be at peace with Him; Thereby good will come to you.

Job 22:22 “Please receive instruction from His mouth And establish His words in your heart.

Job 22:23 “If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored; If you remove unrighteousness far from your tent,

Job 22:24 And place [your] gold in the dust, And [the gold of] Ophir among the stones of the brooks,

Job 22:25 Then the Almighty will be your gold And choice silver to you.

Job 22:26 “For then you will delight in the Almighty And lift up your face to God.

Job 22:27 “You will pray to Him, and He will hear you; And you will pay your vows.

Job 22:28 “You will also decree a thing, and it will be established for you; And light will shine on your ways.

Job 22:29 “When you are cast down, you will speak with confidence, And the humble person He will save.

Job 22:30 “He will deliver one who is not innocent, And he will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands.”

Job 23:1 Then Job replied,

Job 23:2 “Even today my complaint is rebellion; His hand is heavy despite my groaning.

Job 23:3 “Oh that I knew where I might find Him, That I might come to His seat!

Job 23:4 “I would present [my] case before Him And fill my mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5 “I would learn the words [which] He would answer, And perceive what He would say to me.

Job 23:6 “Would He contend with me by the greatness of [His] power? No, surely He would pay attention to me.

Job 23:7 “There the upright would reason with Him; And I would be delivered forever from my Judge.

Job 23:8 “Behold, I go forward but He is not [there], And backward, but I cannot perceive Him;

Job 23:9 When He acts on the left, I cannot behold [Him]; He turns on the right, I cannot see Him.

Job 23:10 “But He knows the way I take; [When] He has tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Job 23:11 “My foot has held fast to His path; I have kept His way and not turned aside.

Job 23:12 “I have not departed from the command of His lips; I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.

Job 23:13 “But He is unique and who can turn Him? And [what] His soul desires, that He does.

Job 23:14 “For He performs what is appointed for me, And many such [decrees] are with Him.

Job 23:15 “Therefore, I would be dismayed at His presence; [When] I consider, I am terrified of Him.

Job 23:16 “[It is] God [who] has made my heart faint, And the Almighty [who] has dismayed me,

Job 23:17 But I am not silenced by the darkness, Nor deep gloom [which] covers me.

Job 24:1 “Why are times not stored up by the Almighty, And why do those who know Him not see His days?

Job 24:2 “Some remove the landmarks; They seize and devour flocks.

Job 24:3 “They drive away the donkeys of the orphans; They take the widow’s ox for a pledge.

Job 24:4 “They push the needy aside from the road; The poor of the land are made to hide themselves altogether.

Job 24:5 “Behold, as wild donkeys in the wilderness They go forth seeking food in their activity, As bread for [their] children in the desert.

Job 24:6 “They harvest their fodder in the field And glean the vineyard of the wicked.

Job 24:7 “They spend the night naked, without clothing, And have no covering against the cold.

Job 24:8 “They are wet with the mountain rains And hug the rock for want of a shelter.

Job 24:9 “Others snatch the orphan from the breast, And against the poor they take a pledge.

Job 24:10 “They cause [the poor] to go about naked without clothing, And they take away the sheaves from the hungry.

Job 24:11 “Within the walls they produce oil; They tread wine presses but thirst.

Job 24:12 “From the city men groan, And the souls of the wounded cry out; Yet God does not pay attention to folly.

Job 24:13 “Others have been with those who rebel against the light; They do not want to know its ways Nor abide in its paths.

Job 24:14 “The murderer arises at dawn; He kills the poor and the needy, And at night he is as a thief.

Job 24:15 “The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight, Saying, ‘No eye will see me.’ And he disguises his face.

Job 24:16 “In the dark they dig into houses, They shut themselves up by day; They do not know the light.

Job 24:17 “For the morning is the same to him as thick darkness, For he is familiar with the terrors of thick darkness.

Job 24:18 “They are insignificant on the surface of the water; Their portion is cursed on the earth. They do not turn toward the vineyards.

Job 24:19 “Drought and heat consume the snow waters, [So does] Sheol [those who] have sinned.

Job 24:20 “A mother will forget him; The worm feeds sweetly till he is no longer remembered. And wickedness will be broken like a tree.

Job 24:21 “He wrongs the barren woman And does no good for the widow.

Job 24:22 “But He drags off the valiant by His power; He rises, but no one has assurance of life.

Job 24:23 “He provides them with security, and they are supported; And His eyes are on their ways.

Job 24:24 “They are exalted a little while, then they are gone; Moreover, they are brought low and like everything gathered up; Even like the heads of grain they are cut off.

Job 24:25 “Now if it is not so, who can prove me a liar, And make my speech worthless?”

Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,

Job 25:2 “Dominion and awe belong to Him Who establishes peace in His heights.

Job 25:3 “Is there any number to His troops? And upon whom does His light not rise?

Job 25:4 “How then can a man be just with God? Or how can he be clean who is born of woman?

Job 25:5 “If even the moon has no brightness And the stars are not pure in His sight, Job 25:6 How much less man, [that] maggot, And the son of man, [that] worm!”

Job 26:1 Then Job responded,

Job 26:2 “What a help you are to the weak! How you have saved the arm without strength!

Job 26:3 “What counsel you have given to [one] without wisdom! What helpful insight you have abundantly provided!

Job 26:4 “To whom have you uttered words? And whose spirit was expressed through you?

Job 26:5 “The departed spirits tremble Under the waters and their inhabitants.

Job 26:6 “Naked is Sheol before Him, And Abaddon has no covering.

Job 26:7 “He stretches out the north over empty space And hangs the earth on nothing.

Job 26:8 “He wraps up the waters in His clouds, And the cloud does not burst under them.

Job 26:9 “He obscures the face of the full moon And spreads His cloud over it.

Job 26:10 “He has inscribed a circle on the surface of the waters At the boundary of light and darkness.

Job 26:11 “The pillars of heaven tremble And are amazed at His rebuke.

Job 26:12 “He quieted the sea with His power, And by His understanding He shattered Rahab.

Job 26:13 “By His breath the heavens are cleared; His hand has pierced the fleeing serpent.

Job 26:14 “Behold, these are the fringes of His ways; And how faint a word we hear of Him! But His mighty thunder, who can understand?”

Job 27:1 Then Job continued his discourse and said,

Job 27:2 “As God lives, who has taken away my right, And the Almighty, who has embittered my soul,

Job 27:3 For as long as life is in me, And the breath of God is in my nostrils,

Job 27:4 My lips certainly will not speak unjustly, Nor will my tongue mutter deceit.

Job 27:5 “Far be it from me that I should declare you right; Till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.

Job 27:6 “I hold fast my righteousness and will not let it go. My heart does not reproach any of my days.

Job 27:7 “May my enemy be as the wicked And my opponent as the unjust.

Job 27:8 “For what is the hope of the godless when he is cut off, When God requires his life?

Job 27:9 “Will God hear his cry When distress comes upon him?

Job 27:10 “Will he take delight in the Almighty? Will he call on God at all times?

Job 27:11 “I will instruct you in the power of God; What is with the Almighty I will not conceal.

Job 27:12 “Behold, all of you have seen [it]; Why then do you act foolishly?

Job 27:13 “This is the portion of a wicked man from God, And the inheritance [which] tyrants receive from the Almighty.

Job 27:14 “Though his sons are many, they are destined for the sword; And his descendants will not be satisfied with bread.

Job 27:15 “His survivors will be buried because of the plague, And their widows will not be able to weep.

Job 27:16 “Though he piles up silver like dust And prepares garments as [plentiful as] the clay,

Job 27:17 He may prepare [it], but the just will wear [it] And the innocent will divide the silver.

Job 27:18 “He has built his house like the spider’s web, Or as a hut [which] the watchman has made.

Job 27:19 “He lies down rich, but never again; He opens his eyes, and it is no longer.

Job 27:20 “Terrors overtake him like a flood; A tempest steals him away in the night.

Job 27:21 “The east wind carries him away, and he is gone, For it whirls him away from his place.

Job 27:22 “For it will hurl at him without sparing; He will surely try to flee from its power.

Job 27:23 “[Men] will clap their hands at him And will hiss him from his place.

Job 28:1 “Surely there is a mine for silver And a place where they refine gold.

Job 28:2 “Iron is taken from the dust, And copper is smelted from rock.

Job 28:3 “[Man] puts an end to darkness, And to the farthest limit he searches out The rock in gloom and deep shadow.

Job 28:4 “He sinks a shaft far from habitation, Forgotten by the foot; They hang and swing to and fro far from men.

Job 28:5 “The earth, from it comes food, And underneath it is turned up as fire.

Job 28:6 “Its rocks are the source of sapphires, And its dust [contains] gold.

Job 28:7 “The path no bird of prey knows, Nor has the falcon’s eye caught sight of it.

Job 28:8 “The proud beasts have not trodden it, Nor has the [fierce] lion passed over it.

Job 28:9 “He puts his hand on the flint; He overturns the mountains at the base.

Job 28:10 “He hews out channels through the rocks, And his eye sees anything precious.

Job 28:11 “He dams up the streams from flowing, And what is hidden he brings out to the light.

Job 28:12 “But where can wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:13 “Man does not know its value, Nor is it found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 “The deep says, ‘It is not in me’; And the sea says, ‘It is not with me.’

Job 28:15 “Pure gold cannot be given in exchange for it, Nor can silver be weighed as its price.

Job 28:16 “It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir, In precious onyx, or sapphire.

Job 28:17 “Gold or glass cannot equal it, Nor can it be exchanged for articles of fine gold.

Job 28:18 “Coral and crystal are not to be mentioned; And the acquisition of wisdom is above [that of] pearls.

Job 28:19 “The topaz of Ethiopia cannot equal it, Nor can it be valued in pure gold.

Job 28:20 “Where then does wisdom come from? And where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:21 “Thus it is hidden from the eyes of all living And concealed from the birds of the sky.

Job 28:22 “Abaddon and Death say, ‘With our ears we have heard a report of it.’

Job 28:23 “God understands its way, And He knows its place.

Job 28:24 “For He looks to the ends of the earth And sees everything under the heavens.

Job 28:25 “When He imparted weight to the wind And meted out the waters by measure,

Job 28:26 When He set a limit for the rain And a course for the thunderbolt,

Job 28:27 Then He saw it and declared it; He established it and also searched it out.

Job 28:28 “And to man He said, ‘Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; And to depart from evil is understanding.’“

Job 29:1 And Job again took up his discourse and said,

Job 29:2 “Oh that I were as in months gone by, As in the days when God watched over me;

Job 29:3 When His lamp shone over my head, [And] by His light I walked through darkness;

Job 29:4 As I was in the prime of my days, When the friendship of God [was] over my tent;

Job 29:5 When the Almighty was yet with me, [And] my children were around me;

Job 29:6 When my steps were bathed in butter, And the rock poured out for me streams of oil!

Job 29:7 “When I went out to the gate of the city, When I took my seat in the square,

Job 29:8 The young men saw me and hid themselves, And the old men arose [and] stood.

Job 29:9 “The princes stopped talking And put [their] hands on their mouths;

Job 29:10 The voice of the nobles was hushed, And their tongue stuck to their palate.

Job 29:11 “For when the ear heard, it called me blessed, And when the eye saw, it gave witness of me,

Job 29:12 Because I delivered the poor who cried for help, And the orphan who had no helper.

Job 29:13 “The blessing of the one ready to perish came upon me, And I made the widow’s heart sing for joy.

Job 29:14 “I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; My justice was like a robe and a turban.

Job 29:15 “I was eyes to the blind And feet to the lame.

Job 29:16 “I was a father to the needy, And I investigated the case which I did not know.

Job 29:17 “I broke the jaws of the wicked And snatched the prey from his teeth.

Job 29:18 “Then I thought, ‘I shall die in my nest, And I shall multiply [my] days as the sand.

Job 29:19 ‘My root is spread out to the waters, And dew lies all night on my branch.

Job 29:20 ‘My glory is [ever] new with me, And my bow is renewed in my hand.’

Job 29:21 “To me they listened and waited, And kept silent for my counsel.

Job 29:22 “After my words they did not speak again, And my speech dropped on them.

Job 29:23 “They waited for me as for the rain, And opened their mouth as for the spring rain.

Job 29:24 “I smiled on them when they did not believe, And the light of my face they did not cast down.

Job 29:25 “I chose a way for them and sat as chief, And dwelt as a king among the troops, As one who comforted the mourners.

Job 30:1 “But now those younger than I mock me, Whose fathers I disdained to put with the dogs of my flock.

Job 30:2 “Indeed, what [good was] the strength of their hands to me? Vigor had perished from them.

Job 30:3 “From want and famine they are gaunt Who gnaw the dry ground by night in waste and desolation,

Job 30:4 Who pluck mallow by the bushes, And whose food is the root of the broom shrub.

Job 30:5 “They are driven from the community; They shout against them as [against] a thief,

Job 30:6 So that they dwell in dreadful valleys, In holes of the earth and of the rocks.

Job 30:7 “Among the bushes they cry out; Under the nettles they are gathered together.

Job 30:8 “Fools, even those without a name, They were scourged from the land.

Job 30:9 “And now I have become their taunt, I have even become a byword to them.

Job 30:10 “They abhor me [and] stand aloof from me, And they do not refrain from spitting at my face.

Job 30:11 “Because He has loosed His bowstring and afflicted me, They have cast off the bridle before me.

Job 30:12 “On the right hand their brood arises; They thrust aside my feet and build up against me their ways of destruction.

Job 30:13 “They break up my path, They profit from my destruction; No one restrains them.

Job 30:14 “As [through] a wide breach they come, Amid the tempest they roll on.

Job 30:15 “Terrors are turned against me; They pursue my honor as the wind, And my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

Job 30:16 “And now my soul is poured out within me; Days of affliction have seized me.

Job 30:17 “At night it pierces my bones within me, And my gnawing [pains] take no rest.

Job 30:18 “By a great force my garment is distorted; It binds me about as the collar of my coat.

Job 30:19 “He has cast me into the mire, And I have become like dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 “I cry out to You for help, but You do not answer me; I stand up, and You turn Your attention against me.

Job 30:21 “You have become cruel to me; With the might of Your hand You persecute me.

Job 30:22 “You lift me up to the wind [and] cause me to ride; And You dissolve me in a storm.

Job 30:23 “For I know that You will bring me to death And to the house of meeting for all living.

Job 30:24 “Yet does not one in a heap of ruins stretch out [his] hand, Or in his disaster therefore cry out for help?

Job 30:25 “Have I not wept for the one whose life is hard? Was not my soul grieved for the needy?

Job 30:26 “When I expected good, then evil came; When I waited for light, then darkness came.

Job 30:27 “I am seething within and cannot relax; Days of affliction confront me.

Job 30:28 “I go about mourning without comfort; I stand up in the assembly [and] cry out for help.

Job 30:29 “I have become a brother to jackals And a companion of ostriches.

Job 30:30 “My skin turns black on me, And my bones burn with fever.

Job 30:31 “Therefore my harp is turned to mourning, And my flute to the sound of those who weep.

Job 31:1 “I have made a covenant with my eyes; How then could I gaze at a virgin?

Job 31:2 “And what is the portion of God from above Or the heritage of the Almighty from on high?

Job 31:3 “Is it not calamity to the unjust And disaster to those who work iniquity?

Job 31:4 “Does He not see my ways And number all my steps?

Job 31:5 “If I have walked with falsehood, And my foot has hastened after deceit,

Job 31:6 Let Him weigh me with accurate scales, And let God know my integrity.

Job 31:7 “If my step has turned from the way, Or my heart followed my eyes, Or if any spot has stuck to my hands,

Job 31:8 Let me sow and another eat, And let my crops be uprooted.

Job 31:9 “If my heart has been enticed by a woman, Or I have lurked at my neighbor’s doorway,

Job 31:10 May my wife grind for another, And let others kneel down over her.

Job 31:11 “For that would be a lustful crime; Moreover, it would be an iniquity [punishable by] judges.

Job 31:12 “For it would be fire that consumes to Abaddon, And would uproot all my increase.

Job 31:13 “If I have despised the claim of my male or female slaves When they filed a complaint against me,

Job 31:14 What then could I do when God arises? And when He calls me to account, what will I answer Him?

Job 31:15 “Did not He who made me in the womb make him, And the same one fashion us in the womb?

Job 31:16 “If I have kept the poor from [their] desire, Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

Job 31:17 Or have eaten my morsel alone, And the orphan has not shared it

Job 31:18 (But from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, And from infancy I guided her),

Job 31:19 If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, Or that the needy had no covering,

Job 31:20 If his loins have not thanked me, And if he has not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep,

Job 31:21 If I have lifted up my hand against the orphan, Because I saw I had support in the gate,

Job 31:22 Let my shoulder fall from the socket, And my arm be broken off at the elbow.

Job 31:23 “For calamity from God is a terror to me, And because of His majesty I can do nothing.

Job 31:24 “If I have put my confidence [in] gold, And called fine gold my trust,

Job 31:25 If I have gloated because my wealth was great, And because my hand had secured [so] much;

Job 31:26 If I have looked at the sun when it shone Or the moon going in splendor,

Job 31:27 And my heart became secretly enticed, And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth,

Job 31:28 That too would have been an iniquity [calling for] judgment, For I would have denied God above.

Job 31:29 “Have I rejoiced at the extinction of my enemy, Or exulted when evil befell him?

Job 31:30 “No, I have not allowed my mouth to sin By asking for his life in a curse.

Job 31:31 “Have the men of my tent not said, ‘Who can find one who has not been satisfied with his meat ‘?

Job 31:32 “The alien has not lodged outside, [For] I have opened my doors to the traveler.

Job 31:33 “Have I covered my transgressions like Adam, By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,

Job 31:34 Because I feared the great multitude, And the contempt of families terrified me, And kept silent and did not go out of doors?

Job 31:35 “Oh that I had one to hear me! Behold, here is my signature; Let the Almighty answer me! And the indictment which my adversary has written,

Job 31:36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder, I would bind it to myself like a crown.

Job 31:37 “I would declare to Him the number of my steps; Like a prince I would approach Him.

Job 31:38 “If my land cries out against me, And its furrows weep together;

Job 31:39 If I have eaten its fruit without money, Or have caused its owners to lose their lives,

Job 31:40 Let briars grow instead of wheat, And stinkweed instead of barley.” The words of Job are ended.

Job 32:1 Then these three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

Job 32:2 But the anger of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram burned; against Job his anger burned because he justified himself before God.

Job 32:3 And his anger burned against his three friends because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

Job 32:4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were years older than he.

Job 32:5 And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men his anger burned.

Job 32:6 So Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite spoke out and said, “I am young in years and you are old; Therefore I was shy and afraid to tell you what I think.

Job 32:7 “I thought age should speak, And increased years should teach wisdom.

Job 32:8 “But it is a spirit in man, And the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.

Job 32:9 “The abundant [in years] may not be wise, Nor may elders understand justice.

Job 32:10 “So I say, ‘Listen to me, I too will tell what I think.’

Job 32:11 “Behold, I waited for your words, I listened to your reasonings, While you pondered what to say.

Job 32:12 “I even paid close attention to you; Indeed, there was no one who refuted Job, Not one of you who answered his words.

Job 32:13 “Do not say, ‘We have found wisdom; God will rout him, not man.’

Job 32:14 “For he has not arranged [his] words against me, Nor will I reply to him with your arguments.

Job 32:15 “They are dismayed, they no longer answer; Words have failed them.

Job 32:16 “Shall I wait, because they do not speak, Because they stop [and] no longer answer?

Job 32:17 “I too will answer my share, I also will tell my opinion.

Job 32:18 “For I am full of words; The spirit within me constrains me.

Job 32:19 “Behold, my belly is like unvented wine, Like new wineskins it is about to burst.

Job 32:20 “Let me speak that I may get relief; Let me open my lips and answer.

Job 32:21 “Let me now be partial to no one, Nor flatter [any] man.

Job 32:22 “For I do not know how to flatter, [Else] my Maker would soon take me away.

Job 33:1 “However now, Job, please hear my speech, And listen to all my words.

Job 33:2 “Behold now, I open my mouth, My tongue in my mouth speaks.

Job 33:3 “My words are [from] the uprightness of my heart, And my lips speak knowledge sincerely.

Job 33:4 “The Spirit of God has made me, And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

Job 33:5 “Refute me if you can; Array yourselves before me, take your stand.

Job 33:6 “Behold, I belong to God like you; I too have been formed out of the clay.

Job 33:7 “Behold, no fear of me should terrify you, Nor should my pressure weigh heavily on you.

Job 33:8 “Surely you have spoken in my hearing, And I have heard the sound of [your] words:

Job 33:9 ‘I am pure, without transgression; I am innocent and there is no guilt in me.

Job 33:10 ‘Behold, He invents pretexts against me; He counts me as His enemy.

Job 33:11 ‘He puts my feet in the stocks; He watches all my paths.’

Job 33:12 “Behold, let me tell you, you are not right in this, For God is greater than man.

Job 33:13 “Why do you complain against Him That He does not give an account of all His doings?

Job 33:14 “Indeed God speaks once, Or twice, [yet] no one notices it.

Job 33:15 “In a dream, a vision of the night, When sound sleep falls on men, While they slumber in their beds,

Job 33:16 Then He opens the ears of men, And seals their instruction,

Job 33:17 That He may turn man aside [from his] conduct, And keep man from pride;

Job 33:18 He keeps back his soul from the pit, And his life from passing over into Sheol.

Job 33:19 “Man is also chastened with pain on his bed, And with unceasing complaint in his bones;

Job 33:20 So that his life loathes bread, And his soul favorite food.

Job 33:21 “His flesh wastes away from sight, And his bones which were not seen stick out.

Job 33:22 “Then his soul draws near to the pit, And his life to those who bring death.

Job 33:23 “If there is an angel [as] mediator for him, One out of a thousand, To remind a man what is right for him,

Job 33:24 Then let him be gracious to him, and say, ‘Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom’;

Job 33:25 Let his flesh become fresher than in youth, Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor;

Job 33:26 Then he will pray to God, and He will accept him, That he may see His face with joy, And He may restore His righteousness to man.

Job 33:27 “He will sing to men and say, ‘I have sinned and perverted what is right, And it is not proper for me.

Job 33:28 ‘He has redeemed my soul from going to the pit, And my life shall see the light.’

Job 33:29 “Behold, God does all these oftentimes with men, Job 33:30 To bring back his soul from the pit, That he may be enlightened with the light of life.

Job 33:31 “Pay attention, O Job, listen to me; Keep silent, and let me speak.

Job 33:32 “[Then] if you have anything to say, answer me; Speak, for I desire to justify you.

Job 33:33 “If not, listen to me; Keep silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34:1 Then Elihu continued and said,

Job 34:2 “Hear my words, you wise men, And listen to me, you who know.

Job 34:3 “For the ear tests words As the palate tastes food.

Job 34:4 “Let us choose for ourselves what is right; Let us know among ourselves what is good.

Job 34:5 “For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, But God has taken away my right;

Job 34:6 Should I lie concerning my right? My wound is incurable, [though I am] without transgression.’

Job 34:7 “What man is like Job, Who drinks up derision like water,

Job 34:8 Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, And walks with wicked men?

Job 34:9 “For he has said, ‘It profits a man nothing When he is pleased with God.’

Job 34:10 “Therefore, listen to me, you men of understanding. Far be it from God to do wickedness, And from the Almighty to do wrong.

Job 34:11 “For He pays a man according to his work, And makes him find it according to his way.

Job 34:12 “Surely, God will not act wickedly, And the Almighty will not pervert justice.

Job 34:13 “Who gave Him authority over the earth? And who has laid [on Him] the whole world?

Job 34:14 “If He should determine to do so, If He should gather to Himself His spirit and His breath,

Job 34:15 All flesh would perish together, And man would return to dust.

Job 34:16 “But if [you have] understanding, hear this; Listen to the sound of my words.

Job 34:17 “Shall one who hates justice rule? And will you condemn the righteous mighty One,

Job 34:18 Who says to a king, ‘Worthless one,’ To nobles, ‘Wicked ones’;

Job 34:19 Who shows no partiality to princes Nor regards the rich above the poor, For they all are the work of His hands?

Job 34:20 “In a moment they die, and at midnight People are shaken and pass away, And the mighty are taken away without a hand.

Job 34:21 “For His eyes are upon the ways of a man, And He sees all his steps.

Job 34:22 “There is no darkness or deep shadow Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

Job 34:23 “For He does not [need to] consider a man further, That he should go before God in judgment.

Job 34:24 “He breaks in pieces mighty men without inquiry, And sets others in their place.

Job 34:25 “Therefore He knows their works, And He overthrows [them] in the night, And they are crushed.

Job 34:26 “He strikes them like the wicked In a public place,

Job 34:27 Because they turned aside from following Him, And had no regard for any of His ways;

Job 34:28 So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him, And that He might hear the cry of the afflicted—

Job 34:29 When He keeps quiet, who then can condemn? And when He hides His face, who then can behold Him, That is, in regard to both nation and man?—

Job 34:30 So that godless men would not rule Nor be snares of the people.

Job 34:31 “For has anyone said to God, ‘I have borne [chastisement]; I will not offend [anymore];

Job 34:32 Teach me what I do not see; If I have done iniquity, I will not do it again ‘?

Job 34:33 “Shall He recompense on your terms, because you have rejected [it]? For you must choose, and not I; Therefore declare what you know.

Job 34:34 “Men of understanding will say to me, And a wise man who hears me,

Job 34:35 ‘Job speaks without knowledge, And his words are without wisdom.

Job 34:36 ‘Job ought to be tried to the limit, Because he answers like wicked men.

Job 34:37 ‘For he adds rebellion to his sin; He claps his hands among us, And multiplies his words against God.’“ Job 35:1 Then Elihu continued and said, Job 35:2 “Do you think this is according to justice? Do you say, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s ‘?

Job 35:3 “For you say, ‘What advantage will it be to You? What profit will I have, more than if I had sinned?’

Job 35:4 “I will answer you, And your friends with you.

Job 35:5 “Look at the heavens and see; And behold the clouds—they are higher than you.

Job 35:6 “If you have sinned, what do you accomplish against Him? And if your transgressions are many, what do you do to Him?

Job 35:7 “If you are righteous, what do you give to Him, Or what does He receive from your hand?

Job 35:8 “Your wickedness is for a man like yourself, And your righteousness is for a son of man.

Job 35:9 “Because of the multitude of oppressions they cry out; They cry for help because of the arm of the mighty.

Job 35:10 “But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, Who gives songs in the night,

Job 35:11 Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth And makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?’

Job 35:12 “There they cry out, but He does not answer Because of the pride of evil men.

Job 35:13 “Surely God will not listen to an empty [cry], Nor will the Almighty regard it.

Job 35:14 “How much less when you say you do not behold Him, The case is before Him, and you must wait for Him!

Job 35:15 “And now, because He has not visited [in] His anger, Nor has He acknowledged transgression well,

Job 35:16 So Job opens his mouth emptily; He multiplies words without knowledge.”

Job 36:1 Then Elihu continued and said,

Job 36:2 “Wait for me a little, and I will show you That there is yet more to be said in God’s behalf.

Job 36:3 “I will fetch my knowledge from afar, And I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

Job 36:4 “For truly my words are not false; One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

Job 36:5 “Behold, God is mighty but does not despise [any]; [He is] mighty in strength of understanding.

Job 36:6 “He does not keep the wicked alive, But gives justice to the afflicted.

Job 36:7 “He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous; But with kings on the throne He has seated them forever, and they are exalted.

Job 36:8 “And if they are bound in fetters, And are caught in the cords of affliction,

Job 36:9 Then He declares to them their work And their transgressions, that they have magnified themselves.

Job 36:10 “He opens their ear to instruction, And commands that they return from evil.

Job 36:11 “If they hear and serve [Him], They will end their days in prosperity And their years in pleasures.

Job 36:12 “But if they do not hear, they shall perish by the sword And they will die without knowledge.

Job 36:13 “But the godless in heart lay up anger; They do not cry for help when He binds them.

Job 36:14 “They die in youth, And their life [perishes] among the cult prostitutes.

Job 36:15 “He delivers the afflicted in their affliction, And opens their ear in [time of] oppression.

Job 36:16 “Then indeed, He enticed you from the mouth of distress, Instead of it, a broad place with no constraint; And that which was set on your table was full of fatness.

Job 36:17 “But you were full of judgment on the wicked; Judgment and justice take hold [of you].

Job 36:18 “[Beware] that wrath does not entice you to scoffing; And do not let the greatness of the ransom turn you aside.

Job 36:19 “Will your riches keep you from distress, Or all the forces of [your] strength?

Job 36:20 “Do not long for the night, When people vanish in their place.

Job 36:21 “Be careful, do not turn to evil, For you have preferred this to affliction.

Job 36:22 “Behold, God is exalted in His power; Who is a teacher like Him?

Job 36:23 “Who has appointed Him His way, And who has said, ‘You have done wrong ‘?

Job 36:24 “Remember that you should exalt His work, Of which men have sung.

Job 36:25 “All men have seen it; Man beholds from afar.

Job 36:26 “Behold, God is exalted, and we do not know [Him]; The number of His years is unsearchable.

Job 36:27 “For He draws up the drops of water, They distill rain from the mist,

Job 36:28 Which the clouds pour down, They drip upon man abundantly.

Job 36:29 “Can anyone understand the spreading of the clouds, The thundering of His pavilion?

Job 36:30 “Behold, He spreads His lightning about Him, And He covers the depths of the sea.

Job 36:31 “For by these He judges peoples; He gives food in abundance.

Job 36:32 “He covers [His] hands with the lightning, And commands it to strike the mark.

Job 36:33 “Its noise declares His presence; The cattle also, concerning what is coming up.

Job 37:1 “At this also my heart trembles, And leaps from its place.

Job 37:2 “Listen closely to the thunder of His voice, And the rumbling that goes out from His mouth.

Job 37:3 “Under the whole heaven He lets it loose, And His lightning to the ends of the earth.

Job 37:4 “After it, a voice roars; He thunders with His majestic voice, And He does not restrain the lightnings when His voice is heard.

Job 37:5 “God thunders with His voice wondrously, Doing great things which we cannot comprehend.

Job 37:6 “For to the snow He says, ‘Fall on the earth,’ And to the downpour and the rain, ‘Be strong.’

Job 37:7 “He seals the hand of every man, That all men may know His work.

Job 37:8 “Then the beast goes into its lair And remains in its den.

Job 37:9 “Out of the south comes the storm, And out of the north the cold.

Job 37:10 “From the breath of God ice is made, And the expanse of the waters is frozen.

Job 37:11 “Also with moisture He loads the thick cloud; He disperses the cloud of His lightning.

Job 37:12 “It changes direction, turning around by His guidance, That it may do whatever He commands it On the face of the inhabited earth.

Job 37:13 “Whether for correction, or for His world, Or for lovingkindness, He causes it to happen.

Job 37:14 “Listen to this, O Job, Stand and consider the wonders of God.

Job 37:15 “Do you know how God establishes them, And makes the lightning of His cloud to shine?

Job 37:16 “Do you know about the layers of the thick clouds, The wonders of one perfect in knowledge,

Job 37:17 You whose garments are hot, When the land is still because of the south wind?

Job 37:18 “Can you, with Him, spread out the skies, Strong as a molten mirror?

Job 37:19 “Teach us what we shall say to Him; We cannot arrange [our case] because of darkness.

Job 37:20 “Shall it be told Him that I would speak? Or should a man say that he would be swallowed up?

Job 37:21 “Now men do not see the light which is bright in the skies; But the wind has passed and cleared them.

Job 37:22 “Out of the north comes golden [splendor]; Around God is awesome majesty.

Job 37:23 “The Almighty— we cannot find Him; He is exalted in power And He will not do violence to justice and abundant righteousness.

Job 37:24 “Therefore men fear Him; He does not regard any who are wise of heart.”

Job 38:1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

Job 38:2 “Who is this that darkens counsel By words without knowledge?

Job 38:3 “Now gird up your loins like a man, And I will ask you, and you instruct Me!

Job 38:4 “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell [Me], if you have understanding,

Job 38:5 Who set its measurements? Since you know. Or who stretched the line on it?

Job 38:6 “On what were its bases sunk? Or who laid its cornerstone,

Job 38:7 When the morning stars sang together And all the sons of God shouted for joy?

Job 38:8 “Or [who] enclosed the sea with doors When, bursting forth, it went out from the womb;

Job 38:9 When I made a cloud its garment And thick darkness its swaddling band,

Job 38:10 And I placed boundaries on it And set a bolt and doors,

Job 38:11 And I said, ‘Thus far you shall come, but no farther; And here shall your proud waves stop ‘?

Job 38:12 “Have you ever in your life commanded the morning, [And] caused the dawn to know its place,

Job 38:13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, And the wicked be shaken out of it?

Job 38:14 “It is changed like clay [under] the seal; And they stand forth like a garment.

Job 38:15 “From the wicked their light is withheld, And the uplifted arm is broken.

Job 38:16 “Have you entered into the springs of the sea Or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Job 38:17 “Have the gates of death been revealed to you, Or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?

Job 38:18 “Have you understood the expanse of the earth? Tell [Me], if you know all this.

Job 38:19 “Where is the way to the dwelling of light? And darkness, where is its place,

Job 38:20 That you may take it to its territory And that you may discern the paths to its home?

Job 38:21 “You know, for you were born then, And the number of your days is great!

Job 38:22 “Have you entered the storehouses of the snow, Or have you seen the storehouses of the hail,

Job 38:23 Which I have reserved for the time of distress, For the day of war and battle?

Job 38:24 “Where is the way that the light is divided, [Or] the east wind scattered on the earth?

Job 38:25 “Who has cleft a channel for the flood, Or a way for the thunderbolt,

Job 38:26 To bring rain on a land without people, [On] a desert without a man in it,

Job 38:27 To satisfy the waste and desolate land And to make the seeds of grass to sprout?

Job 38:28 “Has the rain a father? Or who has begotten the drops of dew?

Job 38:29 “From whose womb has come the ice? And the frost of heaven, who has given it birth?

Job 38:30 “Water becomes hard like stone, And the surface of the deep is imprisoned.

Job 38:31 “Can you bind the chains of the Pleiades, Or loose the cords of Orion?

Job 38:32 “Can you lead forth a constellation in its season, And guide the Bear with her satellites?

Job 38:33 “Do you know the ordinances of the heavens, Or fix their rule over the earth?

Job 38:34 “Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, So that an abundance of water will cover you?

Job 38:35 “Can you send forth lightnings that they may go And say to you, ‘Here we are’?

Job 38:36 “Who has put wisdom in the innermost being Or given understanding to the mind?

Job 38:37 “Who can count the clouds by wisdom, Or tip the water jars of the heavens,

Job 38:38 When the dust hardens into a mass And the clods stick together?

Job 38:39 “Can you hunt the prey for the lion, Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,

Job 38:40 When they crouch in [their] dens [And] lie in wait in [their] lair?

Job 38:41 “Who prepares for the raven its nourishment When its young cry to God And wander about without food?

Job 39:1 “Do you know the time the mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the calving of the deer?

Job 39:2 “Can you count the months they fulfill, Or do you know the time they give birth?

Job 39:3 “They kneel down, they bring forth their young, They get rid of their labor pains.

Job 39:4 “Their offspring become strong, they grow up in the open field; They leave and do not return to them.

Job 39:5 “Who sent out the wild donkey free? And who loosed the bonds of the swift donkey,

Job 39:6 To whom I gave the wilderness for a home And the salt land for his dwelling place?

Job 39:7 “He scorns the tumult of the city, The shoutings of the driver he does not hear.

Job 39:8 “He explores the mountains for his pasture And searches after every green thing.

Job 39:9 “Will the wild ox consent to serve you, Or will he spend the night at your manger?

Job 39:10 “Can you bind the wild ox in a furrow with ropes, Or will he harrow the valleys after you?

Job 39:11 “Will you trust him because his strength is great And leave your labor to him?

Job 39:12 “Will you have faith in him that he will return your grain And gather [it from] your threshing floor?

Job 39:13 “The ostriches’ wings flap joyously With the pinion and plumage of love,

Job 39:14 For she abandons her eggs to the earth And warms them in the dust,

Job 39:15 And she forgets that a foot may crush them, Or that a wild beast may trample them.

Job 39:16 “She treats her young cruelly, as if [they] were not hers; Though her labor be in vain, [she] is unconcerned;

Job 39:17 Because God has made her forget wisdom, And has not given her a share of understanding.

Job 39:18 “When she lifts herself on high, She laughs at the horse and his rider.

Job 39:19 “Do you give the horse [his] might? Do you clothe his neck with a mane?

Job 39:20 “Do you make him leap like the locust? His majestic snorting is terrible.

Job 39:21 “He paws in the valley, and rejoices in [his] strength; He goes out to meet the weapons.

Job 39:22 “He laughs at fear and is not dismayed; And he does not turn back from the sword.

Job 39:23 “The quiver rattles against him, The flashing spear and javelin.

Job 39:24 “With shaking and rage he races over the ground, And he does not stand still at the voice of the trumpet.

Job 39:25 “As often as the trumpet [sounds] he says, ‘Aha!’ And he scents the battle from afar, And the thunder of the captains and the war cry.

Job 39:26 “Is it by your understanding that the hawk soars, Stretching his wings toward the south?

Job 39:27 “Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up And makes his nest on high?

Job 39:28 “On the cliff he dwells and lodges, Upon the rocky crag, an inaccessible place.

Job 39:29 “From there he spies out food; His eyes see [it] from afar.

Job 39:30 “His young ones also suck up blood; And where the slain are, there is he.”

Job 40:1 Then the LORD said to Job,

Job 40:2 “Will the faultfinder contend with the Almighty? Let him who reproves God answer it.”

Job 40:3 Then Job answered the LORD and said,

Job 40:4 “Behold, I am insignificant; what can I reply to You? I lay my hand on my mouth.

Job 40:5 “Once I have spoken, and I will not answer; Even twice, and I will add nothing more.”

Job 40:6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the storm and said,

Job 40:7 “Now gird up your loins like a man; I will ask you, and you instruct Me.

Job 40:8 “Will you really annul My judgment? Will you condemn Me that you may be justified?

Job 40:9 “Or do you have an arm like God, And can you thunder with a voice like His?

Job 40:10 “Adorn yourself with eminence and dignity, And clothe yourself with honor and majesty.

Job 40:11 “Pour out the overflowings of your anger, And look on everyone who is proud, and make him low.

Job 40:12 “Look on everyone who is proud, [and] humble him, And tread down the wicked where they stand.

Job 40:13 “Hide them in the dust together; Bind them in the hidden [place].

Job 40:14 “Then I will also confess to you, That your own right hand can save you.

Job 40:15 “Behold now, Behemoth, which I made as well as you; He eats grass like an ox.

Job 40:16 “Behold now, his strength in his loins And his power in the muscles of his belly.

Job 40:17 “He bends his tail like a cedar; The sinews of his thighs are knit together.

Job 40:18 “His bones are tubes of bronze; His limbs are like bars of iron.

Job 40:19 “He is the first of the ways of God; Let his maker bring near his sword.

Job 40:20 “Surely the mountains bring him food, And all the beasts of the field play there.

Job 40:21 “Under the lotus plants he lies down, In the covert of the reeds and the marsh.

Job 40:22 “The lotus plants cover him with shade; The willows of the brook surround him.

Job 40:23 “If a river rages, he is not alarmed; He is confident, though the Jordan rushes to his mouth.

Job 40:24 “Can anyone capture him when he is on watch, With barbs can anyone pierce [his] nose?

Job 41:1 “Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook? Or press down his tongue with a cord?

Job 41:2 “Can you put a rope in his nose Or pierce his jaw with a hook?

Job 41:3 “Will he make many supplications to you, Or will he speak to you soft words?

Job 41:4 “Will he make a covenant with you? Will you take him for a servant forever?

Job 41:5 “Will you play with him as with a bird, Or will you bind him for your maidens?

Job 41:6 “Will the traders bargain over him? Will they divide him among the merchants?

Job 41:7 “Can you fill his skin with harpoons, Or his head with fishing spears?

Job 41:8 “Lay your hand on him; Remember the battle; you will not do it again!

Job 41:9 “Behold, your expectation is false; Will you be laid low even at the sight of him?

Job 41:10 “No one is so fierce that he dares to arouse him; Who then is he that can stand before Me?

Job 41:11 “Who has given to Me that I should repay [him]? [Whatever] is under the whole heaven is Mine.

Job 41:12 “I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, Or his mighty strength, or his orderly frame.

Job 41:13 “Who can strip off his outer armor? Who can come within his double mail?

Job 41:14 “Who can open the doors of his face? Around his teeth there is terror.

Job 41:15 “[His] strong scales are [his] pride, Shut up [as with] a tight seal.

Job 41:16 “One is so near to another That no air can come between them.

Job 41:17 “They are joined one to another; They clasp each other and cannot be separated.

Job 41:18 “His sneezes flash forth light, And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

Job 41:19 “Out of his mouth go burning torches; Sparks of fire leap forth.

Job 41:20 “Out of his nostrils smoke goes forth As [from] a boiling pot and [burning] rushes.

Job 41:21 “His breath kindles coals, And a flame goes forth from his mouth.

Job 41:22 “In his neck lodges strength, And dismay leaps before him.

Job 41:23 “The folds of his flesh are joined together, Firm on him and immovable.

Job 41:24 “His heart is as hard as a stone, Even as hard as a lower millstone.

Job 41:25 “When he raises himself up, the mighty fear; Because of the crashing they are bewildered.

Job 41:26 “The sword that reaches him cannot avail, Nor the spear, the dart or the javelin.

Job 41:27 “He regards iron as straw, Bronze as rotten wood.

Job 41:28 “The arrow cannot make him flee; Slingstones are turned into stubble for him.

Job 41:29 “Clubs are regarded as stubble; He laughs at the rattling of the javelin.

Job 41:30 “His underparts are [like] sharp potsherds; He spreads out [like] a threshing sledge on the mire.

Job 41:31 “He makes the depths boil like a pot; He makes the sea like a jar of ointment.

Job 41:32 “Behind him he makes a wake to shine; One would think the deep to be gray-haired.

Job 41:33 “Nothing on earth is like him, One made without fear.

Job 41:34 “He looks on everything that is high; He is king over all the sons of pride.”

Job 42:1 Then Job answered the LORD and said,

Job 42:2 “I know that You can do all things, And that no purpose of Yours can be thwarted.

Job 42:3 ‘Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?’ “Therefore I have declared that which I did not understand, Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.”

Job 42:4 ‘Hear, now, and I will speak; I will ask You, and You instruct me.’

Job 42:5 “I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear; But now my eye sees You;

Job 42:6 Therefore I retract, And I repent in dust and ashes.”

Job 42:7 It came about after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, because you have not spoken of Me what is right as My servant Job has.

Job 42:8 “Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves, and My servant Job will pray for you. For I will accept him so that I may not do with you [according to your] folly, because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.”

Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite [and] Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job.

Job 42:10 The LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he prayed for his friends, and the LORD increased all that Job had twofold.

Job 42:11 Then all his brothers and all his sisters and all who had known him before came to him, and they ate bread with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversities that the LORD had brought on him. And each one gave him one piece of money, and each a ring of gold.

Job 42:12 The LORD blessed the latter [days] of Job more than his beginning; and he had 14,000 sheep and 6,000 camels and 1,000 yoke of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys.

Job 42:13 He had seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 He named the first Jemimah, and the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch.

Job 42:15 In all the land no women were found so fair as Job’s daughters; and their father gave them inheritance among their brothers.

Job 42:16 After this, Job lived 140 years, and saw his sons and his grandsons, four generations.

Job 42:17 And Job died, an old man and full of days.

Psalms

1:1 How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the path of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers!

Psalms 1:2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, And in His law he meditates day and night.

Psalms 1:3 He will be like a tree [firmly] planted by streams of water, Which yields its fruit in its season And its leaf does not wither; And in whatever he does, he prospers.

Psalms 1:4 The wicked are not so, But they are like chaff which the wind drives away.

Psalms 1:5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, Nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

Psalms 1:6 For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, But the way of the wicked will perish.

Psalms 2:1 Why are the nations in an uproar And the peoples devising a vain thing?

Psalms 2:2 The kings of the earth take their stand And the rulers take counsel together Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,

Psalms 2:3 “Let us tear their fetters apart And cast away their cords from us!”

Psalms 2:4 He who sits in the heavens laughs, The Lord scoffs at them.

Psalms 2:5 Then He will speak to them in His anger And terrify them in His fury, saying,

Psalms 2:6 “But as for Me, I have installed My King Upon Zion, My holy mountain.”

Psalms 2:7 “I will surely tell of the decree of the LORD: He said to Me, ‘You are My Son, Today I have begotten You.

Psalms 2:8 ‘Ask of Me, and I will surely give the nations as Your inheritance, And the [very] ends of the earth as Your possession.

Psalms 2:9 ‘You shall break them with a rod of iron, You shall shatter them like earthenware.’“

Psalms 2:10 Now therefore, O kings, show discernment; Take warning, O judges of the earth.

Psalms 2:11 Worship the LORD with reverence And rejoice with trembling.

Psalms 2:12 Do homage to the Son, that He not become angry, and you perish [in] the way, For His wrath may soon be kindled. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him!

Psalms 3:1 A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son. O LORD, how my adversaries have increased! Many are rising up against me.

Psalms 3:2 Many are saying of my soul, “There is no deliverance for him in God.” Selah.

Psalms 3:3 But You, O LORD, are a shield about me, My glory, and the One who lifts my head.

Psalms 3:4 I was crying to the LORD with my voice, And He answered me from His holy mountain. Selah.

Psalms 3:5 I lay down and slept; I awoke, for the LORD sustains me.

Psalms 3:6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people Who have set themselves against me round about.

Psalms 3:8 Salvation belongs to the LORD; Your blessing [be] upon Your people! Selah.

Psalms 4:1 For the choir director; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David. Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness! You have relieved me in my distress; Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

Psalms 4:2 O sons of men, how long will my honor become a reproach? [How long] will you love what is worthless and aim at deception? Selah.

Psalms 4:3 But know that the LORD has set apart the godly man for Himself; The LORD hears when I call to Him.

Psalms 4:4 Tremble, and do not sin; Meditate in your heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

Psalms 4:5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, And trust in the LORD.

Psalms 4:6 Many are saying, “Who will show us [any] good?” Lift up the light of Your countenance upon us, O LORD!

Psalms 4:7 You have put gladness in my heart, More than when their grain and new wine abound.

Psalms 4:8 In peace I will both lie down and sleep, For You alone, O LORD, make me to dwell in safety.

Psalms 5:1 For the choir director; for flute accompaniment. A Psalm of David. Give ear to my words, O LORD, Consider my groaning.

Psalms 5:2 Heed the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God, For to You I pray.

Psalms 5:3 In the morning, O LORD, You will hear my voice; In the morning I will order [my] [prayer] to You and [eagerly] watch.

Psalms 5:4 For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness; No evil dwells with You.

Psalms 5:5 The boastful shall not stand before Your eyes; You hate all who do iniquity.

Psalms 5:6 You destroy those who speak falsehood; The LORD abhors the man of bloodshed and deceit.

Psalms 5:7 But as for me, by Your abundant lovingkindness I will enter Your house, At Your holy temple I will bow in reverence for You.

Psalms 5:8 O LORD, lead me in Your righteousness because of my foes; Make Your way straight before me.

Psalms 5:9 There is nothing reliable in what they say; Their inward part is destruction [itself]. Their throat is an open grave; They flatter with their tongue.

Psalms 5:10 Hold them guilty, O God; By their own devices let them fall! In the multitude of their transgressions thrust them out, For they are rebellious against You.

Psalms 5:11 But let all who take refuge in You be glad, Let them ever sing for joy; And may You shelter them, That those who love Your name may exult in You.

Psalms 5:12 For it is You who blesses the righteous man, O LORD, You surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalms 6:1 For the choir director; with stringed instruments, upon an eight-string lyre. A Psalm of David. O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger, Nor chasten me in Your wrath.

Psalms 7:14 Behold, he travails with wickedness, And he conceives mischief and brings forth falsehood.

Psalms 7:15 He has dug a pit and hollowed it out, And has fallen into the hole which he made.

Psalms 7:16 His mischief will return upon his own head, And his violence will descend upon his own pate.

Psalms 7:17 I will give thanks to the LORD according to His righteousness And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalms 8:1 For the choir director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of David. O LORD, our Lord, How majestic is Your name in all the earth, Who have displayed Your splendor above the heavens!

Psalms 8:2 From the mouth of infants and nursing babes You have established strength Because of Your adversaries, To make the enemy and the revengeful cease.

Psalms 8:3 When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, The moon and the stars, which You have ordained;

Psalms 8:4 What is man that You take thought of him, And the son of man that You care for him?

Psalms 8:5 Yet You have made him a little lower than God, And You crown him with glory and majesty!

Psalms 8:6 You make him to rule over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet, Psalms 8:7 All sheep and oxen, And also the beasts of the field,

Psalms 8:8 The birds of the heavens and the fish of the sea, Whatever passes through the paths of the seas.

Psalms 8:9 O LORD, our Lord, How majestic is Your name in all the earth!

Psalms 9:1 For the choir director; on Muth-labben. A Psalm of David. I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders.

Psalms 9:2 I will be glad and exult in You; I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.

Psalms 9:3 When my enemies turn back, They stumble and perish before You.

Psalms 9:4 For You have maintained my just cause; You have sat on the throne judging righteously.

Psalms 9:5 You have rebuked the nations, You have destroyed the wicked; You have blotted out their name forever and ever.

Psalms 9:6 The enemy has come to an end in perpetual ruins, And You have uprooted the cities; The very memory of them has perished.

Psalms 9:7 But the LORD abides forever; He has established His throne for judgment,

Psalms 9:8 And He will judge the world in righteousness; He will execute judgment for the peoples with equity.

Psalms 9:9 The LORD also will be a stronghold for the oppressed, A stronghold in times of trouble;

Psalms 9:10 And those who know Your name will put their trust in You, For You, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You.

Psalms 9:11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion; Declare among the peoples His deeds.

Psalms 9:12 For He who requires blood remembers them; He does not forget the cry of the afflicted.

Psalms 9:13 Be gracious to me, O LORD; See my affliction from those who hate me, You who lift me up from the gates of death,

Psalms 9:14 That I may tell of all Your praises, That in the gates of the daughter of Zion I may rejoice in Your salvation.

Psalms 9:15 The nations have sunk down in the pit which they have made; In the net which they hid, their own foot has been caught.

Psalms 9:16 The LORD has made Himself known; He has executed judgment. In the work of his own hands the wicked is snared. Higgaion Selah.

Psalms 9:17 The wicked will return to Sheol, [Even] all the nations who forget God.

Psalms 9:18 For the needy will not always be forgotten, Nor the hope of the afflicted perish forever.

Psalms 9:19 Arise, O LORD, do not let man prevail; Let the nations be judged before You.

Psalms 9:20 Put them in fear, O LORD; Let the nations know that they are but men. Selah.

Psalms 10:1 Why do You stand afar off, O LORD? Why do You hide [Yourself] in times of trouble?

Psalms 10:2 In pride the wicked hotly pursue the afflicted; Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

Psalms 10:3 For the wicked boasts of his heart's desire, And the greedy man curses [and] spurns the LORD.

Psalms 10:4 The wicked, in the haughtiness of his countenance, does not seek [Him]. All his thoughts are, "There is no God."

Psalms 10:5 His ways prosper at all times; Your judgments are on high, out of his sight; As for all his adversaries, he snorts at them.

Psalms 10:6 He says to himself, "I will not be moved; Throughout all generations I will not be in adversity."

Psalms 10:7 His mouth is full of curses and deceit and oppression; Under his tongue is mischief and wickedness.

Psalms 10:8 He sits in the lurking places of the villages; In the hiding places he kills the innocent; His eyes stealthily watch for the unfortunate.

Psalms 10:9 He lurks in a hiding place as a lion in his lair; He lurks to catch the afflicted; He catches the afflicted when he draws him into his net.

Psalms 10:10 He crouches, he bows down, And the unfortunate fall by his mighty ones.

Psalms 10:11 He says to himself, "God has forgotten; He has hidden His face; He will never see it."

Psalms 10:12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up Your hand. Do not forget the afflicted.

Psalms 10:13 Why has the wicked spurned God? He has said to himself, "You will not require [it]."

Psalms 10:14 You have seen [it], for You have beheld mischief and vexation to take it into Your hand. The unfortunate commits [himself] to You; You have been the helper of the orphan.

Psalms 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked and the evildoer, Seek out his wickedness until You find none.

Psalms 10:16 The LORD is King forever and ever; Nations have perished from His land.

Psalms 10:17 O LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble; You will strengthen their heart, You will incline Your ear

Psalms 10:18 To vindicate the orphan and the oppressed, So that man who is of the earth will no longer cause terror.

Psalms 11:1 For the choir director. [A Psalm] of David. In the LORD I take refuge; How can you say to my soul, “Flee [as] a bird to your mountain;

Psalms 11:2 For, behold, the wicked bend the bow, They make ready their arrow upon the string To shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.

Psalms 11:3 If the foundations are destroyed, What can the righteous do?”

Psalms 11:4 The LORD is in His holy temple; the LORD’S throne is in heaven; His eyes behold, His eyelids test the sons of men.

Psalms 11:5 The LORD tests the righteous and the wicked, And the one who loves violence His soul hates.

Psalms 11:6 Upon the wicked He will rain snares; Fire and brimstone and burning wind will be the portion of their cup.

Psalms 11:7 For the LORD is righteous, He loves righteousness; The upright will behold His face.

Psalms 12:1 For the choir director; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David. Help, LORD, for the godly man ceases to be, For the faithful disappear from among the sons of men.

Psalms 12:2 They speak falsehood to one another; With flattering lips and with a double heart they speak.

Psalms 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, The tongue that speaks great things;

Psalms 12:4 Who have said, “With our tongue we will prevail; Our lips are our own; who is lord over us?”

Psalms 12:5 “Because of the devastation of the afflicted, because of the groaning of the needy, Now I will arise,” says the LORD; “I will set him in the safety for which he longs.”

Psalms 12:6 The words of the LORD are pure words; As silver tried in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times.

Psalms 12:7 You, O LORD, will keep them; You will preserve him from this generation forever.

Psalms 12:8 The wicked strut about on every side When vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

Psalms 13:1 For the choir director. A Psalm of David. How long, O LORD? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me?

Psalms 13:2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, [Having] sorrow in my heart all the day? How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

Psalms 13:3 Consider [and] answer me, O LORD my God; Enlighten my eyes, or I will sleep the [sleep of] death,

Psalms 13:4 And my enemy will say, “I have overcome him,” [And] my adversaries will rejoice when I am shaken.

Psalms 13:5 But I have trusted in Your lovingkindness; My heart shall rejoice in Your salvation.

Psalms 13:6 I will sing to the LORD, Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalms 14:1 For the choir director. [A Psalm] of David. The fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.” They are corrupt, they have committed abominable deeds; There is no one who does good.

Psalms 14:2 The LORD has looked down from heaven upon the sons of men To see if there are any who understand, Who seek after God.

Psalms 14:3 They have all turned aside, together they have become corrupt; There is no one who does good, not even one.

Psalms 14:4 Do all the workers of wickedness not know, Who eat up my people [as] they eat bread, [And] do not call upon the Lord?

Psalms 14:5 There they are in great dread, For God is with the righteous generation.

Psalms 14:6 You would put to shame the counsel of the afflicted, But the LORD is his refuge.

Psalms 14:7 Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores His captive people, Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.

Psalms 15:1 A Psalm of David. O LORD, who may abide in Your tent? Who may dwell on Your holy hill?

Psalms 15:2 He who walks with integrity, and works righteousness, And speaks truth in his heart.

Psalms 15:3 He does not slander with his tongue, Nor does evil to his neighbor, Nor takes up a reproach against his friend;

Psalms 15:4 In whose eyes a reprobate is despised, But who honors those who fear the LORD; He swears to his own hurt and does not change;

Psalms 15:5 He does not put out his money at interest, Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things will never be shaken.

Psalms 16:1 A Mikhtam of David. Preserve me, O God, for I take refuge in You.

Psalms 16:2 I said to the LORD, “You are my Lord; I have no good besides You.”

Psalms 16:3 As for the saints who are in the earth, They are the majestic ones in whom is all my delight.

Psalms 16:4 The sorrows of those who have bartered for another [god] will be multiplied; I shall not pour out their drink offerings of blood, Nor will I take their names upon my lips.

Psalms 16:5 The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and my cup; You support my lot.

Psalms 16:6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; Indeed, my heritage is beautiful to me.

Psalms 16:7 I will bless the LORD who has counseled me; Indeed, my mind instructs me in the night.

Psalms 16:8 I have set the LORD continually before me; Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

Psalms 16:9 Therefore my heart is glad and my glory rejoices; My flesh also will dwell securely.

Psalms 16:10 For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol; Nor will You allow Your Holy One to undergo decay.

Psalms 16:11 You will make known to me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; In Your right hand there are pleasures forever.

Psalms 17:1 A Prayer of David. Hear a just cause, O LORD, give heed to my cry; Give ear to my prayer, which is not from deceitful lips.

Psalms 17:2 Let my judgment come forth from Your presence; Let Your eyes look with equity.

Psalms 17:3 You have tried my heart; You have visited [me] by night; You have tested me and You find nothing; I have purposed that my mouth will not transgress.

Psalms 17:4 As for the deeds of men, by the word of Your lips I have kept from the paths of the violent.

Psalms 17:5 My steps have held fast to Your paths. My feet have not slipped.

Psalms 17:6 I have called upon You, for You will answer me, O God; Incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.

Psalms 17:7 Wondrously show Your lovingkindness, O Savior of those who take refuge at Your right hand From those who rise up [against them].

Psalms 17:8 Keep me as the apple of the eye; Hide me in the shadow of Your wings

Psalms 17:9 From the wicked who despoil me, My deadly enemies who surround me.

Psalms 17:10 They have closed their unfeeling [heart], With their mouth they speak proudly.

Psalms 17:11 They have now surrounded us in our steps; They set their eyes to cast [us] down to the ground.

Psalms 17:12 He is like a lion that is eager to tear, And as a young lion lurking in hiding places.

Psalms 17:13 Arise, O LORD, confront him, bring him low; Deliver my soul from the wicked with Your sword,

Psalms 17:14 From men with Your hand, O LORD, From men of the world, whose portion is in [this] life, And whose belly You fill with Your treasure; They are satisfied with children, And leave their abundance to their babes.

Psalms 17:15 As for me, I shall behold Your face in righteousness; I will be satisfied with Your likeness when I awake.

Psalms 18:1 For the choir director. A [Psalm] of David the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said, “I love You, O LORD, my strength.”

Psalms 18:2 The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

Psalms 18:3 I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, And I am saved from my enemies.

Psalms 18:4 The cords of death encompassed me, And the torrents of ungodliness terrified me.

Psalms 18:5 The cords of Sheol surrounded me; The snares of death confronted me.

Psalms 18:6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, And cried to my God for help; He heard my voice out of His temple, And my cry for help before Him came into His ears.

Psalms 18:7 Then the earth shook and quaked; And the foundations of the mountains were trembling And were shaken, because He was angry.

Psalms 18:8 Smoke went up out of His nostrils, And fire from His mouth devoured; Coals were kindled by it.

Psalms 18:9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down With thick darkness under His feet.

Psalms 18:10 He rode upon a cherub and flew; And He sped upon the wings of the wind.

Psalms 18:11 He made darkness His hiding place, His canopy around Him, Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

Psalms 18:12 From the brightness before Him passed His thick clouds, Hailstones and coals of fire.

Psalms 18:13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, And the Most High uttered His voice, Hailstones and coals of fire.

Psalms 18:14 He sent out His arrows, and scattered them, And lightning flashes in abundance, and routed them.

Psalms 18:15 Then the channels of water appeared, And the foundations of the world were laid bare At Your rebuke, O LORD, At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

Psalms 18:16 He sent from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters.

Psalms 18:17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, And from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me.

Psalms 18:18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity, But the LORD was my stay.

Psalms 18:19 He brought me forth also into a broad place; He rescued me, because He delighted in me.

Psalms 18:20 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has recompensed me.

Psalms 18:21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not wickedly departed from my God.

Psalms 18:22 For all His ordinances were before me, And I did not put away His statutes from me.

Psalms 18:23 I was also blameless with Him, And I kept myself from my iniquity.

Psalms 18:24 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.

Psalms 18:25 With the kind You show Yourself kind; With the blameless You show Yourself blameless;

Psalms 18:26 With the pure You show Yourself pure, And with the crooked You show Yourself astute.

Psalms 18:27 For You save an afflicted people, But haughty eyes You abase.

Psalms 18:28 For You light my lamp; The LORD my God illumines my darkness.

Psalms 18:29 For by You I can run upon a troop; And by my God I can leap over a wall.

Psalms 18:30 As for God, His way is blameless; The word of the LORD is tried; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

Psalms 18:31 For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God,

Psalms 18:32 The God who girds me with strength And makes my way blameless?

Psalms 18:33 He makes my feet like hinds’ [feet], And sets me upon my high places.

Psalms 18:34 He trains my hands for battle, So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

Psalms 18:35 You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, And Your right hand upholds me; And Your gentleness makes me great.

Psalms 18:36 You enlarge my steps under me, And my feet have not slipped.

Psalms 18:37 I pursued my enemies and overtook them, And I did not turn back until they were consumed.

Psalms 18:38 I shattered them, so that they were not able to rise; They fell under my feet.

Psalms 18:39 For You have girded me with strength for battle; You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

Psalms 18:40 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, And I destroyed those who hated me.

Psalms 18:41 They cried for help, but there was none to save, [Even] to the LORD, but He did not answer them.

Psalms 18:42 Then I beat them fine as the dust before the wind; I emptied them out as the mire of the streets.

Psalms 18:43 You have delivered me from the contentions of the people; You have placed me as head of the nations; A people whom I have not known serve me.

Psalms 18:44 As soon as they hear, they obey me; Foreigners submit to me.

Psalms 18:45 Foreigners fade away, And come trembling out of their fortresses.

Psalms 18:46 The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock; And exalted be the God of my salvation,

Psalms 18:47 The God who executes vengeance for me, And subdues peoples under me.

Psalms 18:48 He delivers me from my enemies; Surely You lift me above those who rise up against me; You rescue me from the violent man.

Psalms 18:49 Therefore I will give thanks to You among the nations, O LORD, And I will sing praises to Your name.

Psalms 18:50 He gives great deliverance to His king, And shows lovingkindness to His anointed, To David and his descendants forever.

Psalms 19:1 For the choir director. A Psalm of David. The heavens are telling of the glory of God; And their expanse is declaring the work of His hands.

Psalms 19:2 Day to day pours forth speech, And night to night reveals knowledge.

Psalms 19:3 There is no speech, nor are there words; Their voice is not heard.

Psalms 19:4 Their line has gone out through all the earth, And their utterances to the end of the world. In them He has placed a tent for the sun, Psalms 19:5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber; It rejoices as a strong man to run his course.

Psalms 19:6 Its rising is from one end of the heavens, And its circuit to the other end of them; And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

Psalms 19:7 The law of the LORD is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

Psalms 19:8 The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

Psalms 19:9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true; they are righteous altogether.

Psalms 19:10 They are more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb.

Psalms 19:11 Moreover, by them Your servant is warned; In keeping them there is great reward.

Psalms 19:12 Who can discern [his] errors? Acquit me of hidden [faults].

Psalms 36:2 For it flatters him in his [own] eyes Concerning the discovery of his iniquity [and] the hatred [of it].

Psalms 36:3 The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit; He has ceased to be wise [and] to do good.

Psalms 36:4 He plans wickedness upon his bed; He sets himself on a path that is not good; He does not despise evil.

Psalms 36:5 Your lovingkindness, O LORD, extends to the heavens, Your faithfulness [reaches] to the skies.

Psalms 36:6 Your righteousness is like the mountains of God; Your judgments are [like] a great deep. O LORD, You preserve man and beast.

Psalms 36:7 How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God! And the children of men take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.

Psalms 36:8 They drink their fill of the abundance of Your house; And You give them to drink of the river of Your delights.

Psalms 36:9 For with You is the fountain of life; In Your light we see light.

Psalms 36:10 O continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, And Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

Psalms 36:11 Let not the foot of pride come upon me, And let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.

Psalms 36:12 There the doers of iniquity have fallen; They have been thrust down and cannot rise.

Psalms 37:1 [A Psalm] of David. Do not fret because of evildoers, Be not envious toward wrongdoers.

Psalms 37:2 For they will wither quickly like the grass And fade like the green herb.

Psalms 37:3 Trust in the LORD and do good; Dwell in the land and cultivate faithfulness.

Psalms 37:4 Delight yourself in the LORD; And He will give you the desires of your heart.

Psalms 37:5 Commit your way to the LORD, Trust also in Him, and He will do it.

Psalms 37:6 He will bring forth your righteousness as the light And your judgment as the noonday.

Psalms 37:7 Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who carries out wicked schemes.

Psalms 37:8 Cease from anger and forsake wrath; Do not fret; [it leads] only to evildoing.

Psalms 37:9 For evildoers will be cut off, But those who wait for the LORD, they will inherit the land.

Psalms 37:10 Yet a little while and the wicked man will be no more; And you will look carefully for his place and he will not be [there].

Psalms 37:11 But the humble will inherit the land And will delight themselves in abundant prosperity.

Psalms 37:12 The wicked plots against the righteous And gnashes at him with his teeth.

Psalms 37:13 The Lord laughs at him, For He sees his day is coming.

Psalms 37:14 The wicked have drawn the sword and bent their bow To cast down the afflicted and the needy, To slay those who are upright in conduct.

Psalms 37:15 Their sword will enter their own heart, And their bows will be broken.

Psalms 37:16 Better is the little of the righteous Than the abundance of many wicked.

Psalms 37:17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken, But the LORD sustains the righteous.

Psalms 37:18 The LORD knows the days of the blameless, And their inheritance will be forever.

Psalms 37:19 They will not be ashamed in the time of evil, And in the days of famine they will have abundance.

Psalms 37:20 But the wicked will perish; And the enemies of the LORD will be like the glory of the pastures, They vanish— like smoke they vanish away.

Psalms 37:21 The wicked borrows and does not pay back, But the righteous is gracious and gives.

Psalms 37:22 For those blessed by Him will inherit the land, But those cursed by Him will be cut off.

Psalms 37:23 The steps of a man are established by the LORD, And He delights in his way.

Psalms 37:24 When he falls, he will not be hurled headlong, Because the LORD is the One who holds his hand.

Psalms 37:25 I have been young and now I am old, Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken Or his descendants begging bread.

Psalms 37:26 All day long he is gracious and lends, And his descendants are a blessing.

Psalms 37:27 Depart from evil and do good, So you will abide forever.

Psalms 37:28 For the LORD loves justice And does not forsake His godly ones; They are preserved forever, But the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

Psalms 37:29 The righteous will inherit the land And dwell in it forever.

Psalms 37:30 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, And his tongue speaks justice.

Psalms 37:31 The law of his God is in his heart; His steps do not slip.

Psalms 37:32 The wicked spies upon the righteous And seeks to kill him.

Psalms 37:33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand Or let him be condemned when he is judged.

Psalms 37:34 Wait for the LORD and keep His way, And He will exalt you to inherit the land; When the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

Psalms 37:35 I have seen a wicked, violent man Spreading himself like a luxuriant tree in its native soil.

Psalms 37:36 Then he passed away, and lo, he was no more; I sought for him, but he could not be found.

Psalms 37:37 Mark the blameless man, and behold the upright; For the man of peace will have a posterity.

Psalms 37:38 But transgressors will be altogether destroyed; The posterity of the wicked will be cut off.

Psalms 37:39 But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; He is their strength in time of trouble.

Psalms 37:40 The LORD helps them and delivers them; He delivers them from the wicked and saves them, Because they take refuge in Him.

Psalms 38:1 A Psalm of David, for a memorial. O LORD, rebuke me not in Your wrath, And chasten me not in Your burning anger.

Psalms 38:2 For Your arrows have sunk deep into me, And Your hand has pressed down on me.

Psalms 38:3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation; There is no health in my bones because of my sin.

Psalms 38:4 For my iniquities are gone over my head; As a heavy burden they weigh too much for me.

Psalms 38:5 My wounds grow foul [and] fester Because of my folly.

Psalms 38:6 I am bent over and greatly bowed down; I go mourning all day long.

Psalms 38:7 For my loins are filled with burning, And there is no soundness in my flesh.

Psalms 38:8 I am benumbed and badly crushed; I groan because of the agitation of my heart.

Psalms 38:9 Lord, all my desire is before You; And my sighing is not hidden from You.

Psalms 38:10 My heart throbs, my strength fails me; And the light of my eyes, even that has gone from me.

Psalms 38:11 My loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my plague; And my kinsmen stand afar off.

Psalms 38:12 Those who seek my life lay snares [for me]; And those who seek to injure me have threatened destruction, And they devise treachery all day long.

Psalms 38:13 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear; And [I am] like a mute man who does not open his mouth.

Psalms 38:14 Yes, I am like a man who does not hear, And in whose mouth are no arguments.

Psalms 38:15 For I hope in You, O LORD; You will answer, O Lord my God.

Psalms 38:16 For I said, “May they not rejoice over me, [Who], when my foot slips, would magnify themselves against me.”

Psalms 38:17 For I am ready to fall, And my sorrow is continually before me.

Psalms 38:18 For I confess my iniquity; I am full of anxiety because of my sin.

Psalms 38:19 But my enemies are vigorous [and] strong, And many are those who hate me wrongfully.

Psalms 38:20 And those who repay evil for good, They oppose me, because I follow what is good.

Psalms 38:21 Do not forsake me, O LORD; O my God, do not be far from me!

Psalms 38:22 Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation!

Psalms 39:1 For the choir director, for Jeduthun. A Psalm of David. I said, “I will guard my ways That I may not sin with my tongue; I will guard my mouth as with a muzzle While the wicked are in my presence.”

Psalms 39:2 I was mute and silent, I refrained [even] from good, And my sorrow grew worse.

Psalms 39:3 My heart was hot within me, While I was musing the fire burned; [Then] I spoke with my tongue:

Psalms 39:4 "LORD, make me to know my end And what is the extent of my days; Let me know how transient I am.

Psalms 39:5 "Behold, You have made my days [as] handbreadths, And my lifetime as nothing in Your sight; Surely every man at his best is a mere breath. Selah.

Psalms 39:6 "Surely every man walks about as a phantom; Surely they make an uproar for nothing; He amasses [riches] and does not know who will gather them.

Psalms 39:7 "And now, Lord, for what do I wait? My hope is in You.

Psalms 39:8 "Deliver me from all my transgressions; Make me not the reproach of the foolish.

Psalms 39:9 "I have become mute, I do not open my mouth, Because it is You who have done [it].

Psalms 39:10 "Remove Your plague from me; Because of the opposition of Your hand I am perishing.

Psalms 39:11 "With reproofs You chasten a man for iniquity; You consume as a moth what is precious to him; Surely every man is a mere breath. Selah.

Psalms 39:12 "Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry; Do not be silent at my tears; For I am a stranger with You, A sojourner like all my fathers.

Psalms 39:13 "Turn Your gaze away from me, that I may smile [again] Before I depart and am no more."

Psalms 40:1 For the choir director. A Psalm of David. I waited patiently for the LORD; And He inclined to me and heard my cry.

Psalms 40:2 He brought me up out of the pit of destruction, out of the miry clay, And He set my feet upon a rock making my footsteps firm.

Psalms 40:3 He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; Many will see and fear And will trust in the LORD.

Psalms 40:4 How blessed is the man who has made the LORD his trust, And has not turned to the proud, nor to those who lapse into falsehood.

Psalms 40:5 Many, O LORD my God, are the wonders which You have done, And Your thoughts toward us; There is none to compare with You. If I would declare and speak of them, They would be too numerous to count.

Psalms 40:6 Sacrifice and meal offering You have not desired; My ears You have opened; Burnt offering and sin offering You have not required.

Psalms 40:7 Then I said, “Behold, I come; In the scroll of the book it is written of me.

Psalms 40:8 I delight to do Your will, O my God; Your Law is within my heart.”

Psalms 40:9 I have proclaimed glad tidings of righteousness in the great congregation; Behold, I will not restrain my lips, O LORD, You know.

Psalms 40:10 I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have spoken of Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great congregation.

Psalms 40:11 You, O LORD, will not withhold Your compassion from me; Your lovingkindness and Your truth will continually preserve me.

Psalms 40:12 For evils beyond number have surrounded me; My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to see; They are more numerous than the hairs of my head, And my heart has failed me.

Psalms 40:13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me; Make haste, O LORD, to help me.

Psalms 40:14 Let those be ashamed and humiliated together Who seek my life to destroy it; Let those be turned back and dishonored Who delight in my hurt.

Psalms 40:15 Let those be appalled because of their shame Who say to me, “Aha, aha!”

Psalms 40:16 Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; Let those who love Your salvation say continually, “The LORD be magnified!”

Psalms 40:17 Since I am afflicted and needy, Let the Lord be mindful of me. You are my help and my deliverer; Do not delay, O my God.

Psalms 41:1 For the choir director. A Psalm of David. How blessed is he who considers the helpless; The LORD will deliver him in a day of trouble.

Psalms 41:2 The LORD will protect him and keep him alive, And he shall be called blessed upon the earth; And do not give him over to the desire of his enemies.

Psalms 41:3 The LORD will sustain him upon his sickbed; In his illness, You restore him to health.

Psalms 41:4 As for me, I said, “O LORD, be gracious to me; Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You.”

Psalms 41:5 My enemies speak evil against me, “When will he die, and his name perish?”

Psalms 41:6 And when he comes to see [me], he speaks falsehood; His heart gathers wickedness to itself; When he goes outside, he tells it.

Psalms 41:7 All who hate me whisper together against me; Against me they devise my hurt, [saying],

Psalms 41:8 “A wicked thing is poured out upon him, That when he lies down, he will not rise up again.”

Psalms 41:9 Even my close friend in whom I trusted, Who ate my bread, Has lifted up his heel against me.

Psalms 41:10 But You, O LORD, be gracious to me and raise me up, That I may repay them.

Psalms 41:11 By this I know that You are pleased with me, Because my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.

Psalms 41:12 As for me, You uphold me in my integrity, And You set me in Your presence forever.

Psalms 41:13 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, From everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

Psalms 42:1 For the choir director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah. As the deer pants for the water brooks, So my soul pants for You, O God.

Psalms 42:2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God; When shall I come and appear before God?

Psalms 42:3 My tears have been my food day and night, While [they] say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

Psalms 42:4 These things I remember and I pour out my soul within me. For I used to go along with the throng [and] lead them in procession to the house of God, With the voice of joy and thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival.

Psalms 42:5 Why are you in despair, O my soul? And [why] have you become disturbed within me? Hope in God, for I shall again praise Him [For] the help of His presence.

Psalms 42:6 O my God, my soul is in despair within me; Therefore I remember You from the land of the Jordan And the peaks of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

Psalms 42:7 Deep calls to deep at the sound of Your waterfalls; All Your breakers and Your waves have rolled over me.

Psalms 42:8 The LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime; And His song will be with me in the night, A prayer to the God of my life.

Psalms 42:9 I will say to God my rock, “Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”

Psalms 42:10 As a shattering of my bones, my adversaries revile me, While they say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

Psalms 42:11 Why are you in despair, O my soul? And why have you become disturbed within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him, The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalms 43:1 Vindicate me, O God, and plead my case against an ungodly nation; O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!

Psalms 43:2 For You are the God of my strength; why have You rejected me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

Psalms 43:3 O send out Your light and Your truth, let them lead me; Let them bring me to Your holy hill And to Your dwelling places.

Psalms 43:4 Then I will go to the altar of God, To God my exceeding joy; And upon the lyre I shall praise You, O God, my God.

Psalms 43:5 Why are you in despair, O my soul? And why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God, for I shall again praise Him, The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalms 44:1 For the choir director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah. O God, we have heard with our ears, Our fathers have told us The work that You did in their days, In the days of old.

Psalms 44:2 You with Your own hand drove out the nations; Then You planted them; You afflicted the peoples, Then You spread them abroad.

Psalms 44:3 For by their own sword they did not possess the land, And their own arm did not save them, But Your right hand and Your arm and the light of Your presence, For You favored them.

Psalms 44:4 You are my King, O God; Command victories for Jacob.

Psalms 44:5 Through You we will push back our adversaries; Through Your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.

Psalms 44:6 For I will not trust in my bow, Nor will my sword save me.

Psalms 44:7 But You have saved us from our adversaries, And You have put to shame those who hate us.

Psalms 44:8 In God we have boasted all day long, And we will give thanks to Your name forever. Selah.

Psalms 44:9 Yet You have rejected [us] and brought us to dishonor, And do not go out with our armies.

Psalms 44:10 You cause us to turn back from the adversary; And those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.

Psalms 44:11 You give us as sheep to be eaten And have scattered us among the nations.

Psalms 44:12 You sell Your people cheaply, And have not profited by their sale.

Psalms 44:13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors, A scoffing and a derision to those around us.

Psalms 44:14 You make us a byword among the nations, A laughingstock among the peoples.

Psalms 44:15 All day long my dishonor is before me And my humiliation has overwhelmed me,

Psalms 44:16 Because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles, Because of the presence of the enemy and the avenger.

Psalms 44:17 All this has come upon us, but we have not forgotten You, And we have not dealt falsely with Your covenant.

Psalms 44:18 Our heart has not turned back, And our steps have not deviated from Your way,

Psalms 44:19 Yet You have crushed us in a place of jackals And covered us with the shadow of death.

Psalms 44:20 If we had forgotten the name of our God Or extended our hands to a strange god,

Psalms 44:21 Would not God find this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart.

Psalms 44:22 But for Your sake we are killed all day long; We are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.

Psalms 44:23 Arouse Yourself, why do You sleep, O Lord? Awake, do not reject us forever.

Psalms 44:24 Why do You hide Your face [And] forget our affliction and our oppression?

Psalms 44:25 For our soul has sunk down into the dust; Our body cleaves to the earth.

Psalms 44:26 Rise up, be our help, And redeem us for the sake of Your lovingkindness.

Psalms 45:1 For the choir director; according to the Shoshannim. A Maskil of the sons of Korah. A Song of Love. My heart overflows with a good theme; I address my verses to the King; My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Psalms 45:2 You are fairer than the sons of men; Grace is poured upon Your lips; Therefore God has blessed You forever.

Psalms 45:3 Gird Your sword on [Your] thigh, O Mighty One, [In] Your splendor and Your majesty!

Psalms 45:4 And in Your majesty ride on victoriously, For the cause of truth and meekness [and] righteousness; Let Your right hand teach You awesome things.

Psalms 45:5 Your arrows are sharp; The peoples fall under You; [Your arrows are] in the heart of the King's enemies.

Psalms 45:6 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; A scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your kingdom.

Psalms 45:7 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You With the oil of joy above Your fellows.

Psalms 45:8 All Your garments are [fragrant with] myrrh and aloes [and] cassia; Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made You glad.

Psalms 45:9 Kings' daughters are among Your noble ladies; At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.

Psalms 45:10 Listen, O daughter, give attention and incline your ear: Forget your people and your father's house;

Psalms 45:11 Then the King will desire your beauty. Because He is your Lord, bow down to Him.

Psalms 48:10 As is Your name, O God, So is Your praise to the ends of the earth; Your right hand is full of righteousness.

Psalms 48:11 Let Mount Zion be glad, Let the daughters of Judah rejoice Because of Your judgments.

Psalms 48:12 Walk about Zion and go around her; Count her towers;

Psalms 48:13 Consider her ramparts; Go through her palaces, That you may tell [it] to the next generation.

Psalms 48:14 For such is God, Our God forever and ever; He will guide us until death.

Psalms 49:1 For the choir director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. Hear this, all peoples; Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,

Psalms 49:2 Both low and high, Rich and poor together.

Psalms 49:3 My mouth will speak wisdom, And the meditation of my heart [will be] understanding.

Psalms 49:4 I will incline my ear to a proverb; I will express my riddle on the harp.

Psalms 49:5 Why should I fear in days of adversity, When the iniquity of my foes surrounds me,

Psalms 49:6 Even those who trust in their wealth And boast in the abundance of their riches?

Psalms 49:7 No man can by any means redeem [his] brother Or give to God a ransom for him—

Psalms 49:8 For the redemption of his soul is costly, And he should cease [trying] forever—

Psalms 49:9 That he should live on eternally, That he should not undergo decay.

Psalms 49:10 For he sees [that even] wise men die; The stupid and the senseless alike perish And leave their wealth to others.

Psalms 49:11 Their inner thought is [that] their houses are forever [And] their dwelling places to all generations; They have called their lands after their own names.

Psalms 49:12 But man in [his] pomp will not endure; He is like the beasts that perish.

Psalms 49:13 This is the way of those who are foolish, And of those after them who approve their words. Selah.

Psalms 49:14 As sheep they are appointed for Sheol; Death shall be their shepherd; And the upright shall rule over them in the morning, And their form shall be for Sheol to consume So that they have no habitation.

Psalms 49:15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, For He will receive me. Selah.

Psalms 49:16 Do not be afraid when a man becomes rich, When the glory of his house is increased;

Psalms 49:17 For when he dies he will carry nothing away; His glory will not descend after him.

Psalms 49:18 Though while he lives he congratulates himself— And though [men] praise you when you do well for yourself—

Psalms 49:19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; They will never see the light.

Psalms 49:20 Man in [his] pomp, yet without understanding, Is like the beasts that perish.

Psalms 55:11 Destruction is in her midst; Oppression and deceit do not depart from her streets.

Psalms 55:12 For it is not an enemy who reproaches me, Then I could bear [it]; Nor is it one who hates me who has exalted himself against me, Then I could hide myself from him.

Psalms 55:13 But it is you, a man my equal, My companion and my familiar friend;

Psalms 55:14 We who had sweet fellowship together Walked in the house of God in the throng.

Psalms 55:15 Let death come deceitfully upon them; Let them go down alive to Sheol, For evil is in their dwelling, in their midst.

Psalms 55:16 As for me, I shall call upon God, And the LORD will save me.

Psalms 55:17 Evening and morning and at noon, I will complain and murmur, And He will hear my voice.

Psalms 55:18 He will redeem my soul in peace from the battle [which is] against me, For they are many [who strive] with me.

Psalms 55:19 God will hear and answer them— Even the one who sits enthroned from of old— Selah. With whom there is no change, And who do not fear God.

Psalms 55:20 He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him; He has violated his covenant.

Psalms 55:21 His speech was smoother than butter, But his heart was war; His words were softer than oil, Yet they were drawn swords.

Psalms 55:22 Cast your burden upon the LORD and He will sustain you; He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.

Psalms 55:23 But You, O God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction; Men of bloodshed and deceit will not live out half their days. But I will trust in You.

Psalms 56:1 For the choir director; according to Jonath elem rehokim. A Mikhtam of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath. Be gracious to me, O God, for man has trampled upon me; Fighting all day long he oppresses me.

Psalms 56:2 My foes have trampled upon me all day long, For they are many who fight proudly against me.

Psalms 56:3 When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You.

Psalms 56:4 In God, whose word I praise, In God I have put my trust; I shall not be afraid. What can [mere] man do to me?

Psalms 56:5 All day long they distort my words; All their thoughts are against me for evil.

Psalms 56:6 They attack, they lurk, They watch my steps, As they have waited [to take] my life.

Psalms 56:7 Because of wickedness, cast them forth, In anger put down the peoples, O God!

Psalms 56:8 You have taken account of my wanderings; Put my tears in Your bottle. Are [they] not in Your book?

Psalms 56:9 Then my enemies will turn back in the day when I call; This I know, that God is for me.

Psalms 56:10 In God, [whose] word I praise, In the LORD, [whose] word I praise,

Psalms 56:11 In God I have put my trust, I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me?

Psalms 56:12 Your vows are [binding] upon me, O God; I will render thank offerings to You.

Psalms 56:13 For You have delivered my soul from death, Indeed my feet from stumbling, So that I may walk before God In the light of the living.

Psalms 57:1 For the choir director; [set to] Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave. Be gracious to me, O God, be gracious to me, For my soul takes refuge in You; And in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge Until destruction passes by.

Psalms 59:15 They wander about for food And growl if they are not satisfied.

Psalms 59:16 But as for me, I shall sing of Your strength; Yes, I shall joyfully sing of Your lovingkindness in the morning, For You have been my stronghold And a refuge in the day of my distress.

Psalms 59:17 O my strength, I will sing praises to You; For God is my stronghold, the God who shows me lovingkindness.

Psalms 60:1 For the choir director; according to Shushan Eduth. A Mikhtam of David, to teach; when he struggled with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned, and smote twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt. O God, You have rejected us. You have broken us; You have been angry; O, restore us.

Psalms 60:2 You have made the land quake, You have split it open; Heal its breaches, for it totters.

Psalms 60:3 You have made Your people experience hardship; You have given us wine to drink that makes us stagger.

Psalms 60:4 You have given a banner to those who fear You, That it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

Psalms 60:5 That Your beloved may be delivered, Save with Your right hand, and answer us!

Psalms 60:6 God has spoken in His holiness: “I will exult, I will portion out Shechem and measure out the valley of Succoth.

Psalms 60:7 “Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the helmet of My head; Judah is My scepter.

Psalms 60:8 “Moab is My washbowl; Over Edom I shall throw My shoe; Shout loud, O Philistia, because of Me!”

Psalms 60:9 Who will bring me into the besieged city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psalms 60:10 Have not You Yourself, O God, rejected us? And will You not go forth with our armies, O God?

Psalms 60:11 O give us help against the adversary, For deliverance by man is in vain.

Psalms 60:12 Through God we shall do valiantly, And it is He who will tread down our adversaries.

Psalms 61:1 For the choir director; on a stringed instrument. [A Psalm] of David. Hear my cry, O God; Give heed to my prayer.

Psalms 61:2 From the end of the earth I call to You when my heart is faint; Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Psalms 61:3 For You have been a refuge for me, A tower of strength against the enemy.

Psalms 61:4 Let me dwell in Your tent forever; Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings. Selah.

Psalms 61:5 For You have heard my vows, O God; You have given [me] the inheritance of those who fear Your name.

Psalms 61:6 You will prolong the king’s life; His years will be as many generations.

Psalms 61:7 He will abide before God forever; Appoint lovingkindness and truth that they may preserve him.

Psalms 61:8 So I will sing praise to Your name forever, That I may pay my vows day by day.

Psalms 62:1 For the choir director; according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David. My soul [waits] in silence for God only; From Him is my salvation.

Psalms 62:2 He only is my rock and my salvation, My stronghold; I shall not be greatly shaken.

Psalms 62:3 How long will you assail a man, That you may murder [him], all of you, Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

Psalms 62:4 They have counseled only to thrust him down from his high position; They delight in falsehood; They bless with their mouth, But inwardly they curse. Selah.

Psalms 62:5 My soul, wait in silence for God only, For my hope is from Him.

Psalms 62:6 He only is my rock and my salvation, My stronghold; I shall not be shaken.

Psalms 69:10 When I wept in my soul with fasting, It became my reproach.

Psalms 69:11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.

Psalms 69:12 Those who sit in the gate talk about me, And I [am] the song of the drunkards.

Psalms 69:13 But as for me, my prayer is to You, O LORD, at an acceptable time; O God, in the greatness of Your lovingkindness, Answer me with Your saving truth.

Psalms 69:14 Deliver me from the mire and do not let me sink; May I be delivered from my foes and from the deep waters.

Psalms 69:15 May the flood of water not overflow me Nor the deep swallow me up, Nor the pit shut its mouth on me.

Psalms 69:16 Answer me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is good; According to the greatness of Your compassion, turn to me,

Psalms 69:17 And do not hide Your face from Your servant, For I am in distress; answer me quickly.

Psalms 69:18 Oh draw near to my soul [and] redeem it; Ransom me because of my enemies!

Psalms 69:19 You know my reproach and my shame and my dishonor; All my adversaries are before You.

Psalms 69:20 Reproach has broken my heart and I am so sick. And I looked for sympathy, but there was none, And for comforters, but I found none.

Psalms 69:21 They also gave me gall for my food And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Psalms 69:22 May their table before them become a snare; And when they are in peace, [may it become] a trap.

Psalms 69:23 May their eyes grow dim so that they cannot see, And make their loins shake continually.

Psalms 69:24 Pour out Your indignation on them, And may Your burning anger overtake them.

Psalms 69:25 May their camp be desolate; May none dwell in their tents.

Psalms 69:26 For they have persecuted him whom You Yourself have smitten, And they tell of the pain of those whom You have wounded.

Psalms 69:27 Add iniquity to their iniquity, And may they not come into Your righteousness.

Psalms 69:28 May they be blotted out of the book of life And may they not be recorded with the righteous.

Psalms 69:29 But I am afflicted and in pain; May Your salvation, O God, set me [securely] on high.

Psalms 69:30 I will praise the name of God with song And magnify Him with thanksgiving.

Psalms 69:31 And it will please the LORD better than an ox [Or] a young bull with horns and hoofs.

Psalms 69:32 The humble have seen [it and] are glad; You who seek God, let your heart revive.

Psalms 69:33 For the LORD hears the needy And does not despise His [who are] prisoners.

Psalms 69:34 Let heaven and earth praise Him, The seas and everything that moves in them.

Psalms 69:35 For God will save Zion and build the cities of Judah, That they may dwell there and possess it.

Psalms 69:36 The descendants of His servants will inherit it, And those who love His name will dwell in it.

Psalms 70:1 For the choir director. [A Psalm] of David; for a memorial. O God, [hasten] to deliver me; O LORD, hasten to my help!

Psalms 70:2 Let those be ashamed and humiliated Who seek my life; Let those be turned back and dishonored Who delight in my hurt.

Psalms 70:3 Let those be turned back because of their shame Who say, “Aha, aha!”

Psalms 70:4 Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; And let those who love Your salvation say continually, “Let God be magnified.”

Psalms 70:5 But I am afflicted and needy; Hasten to me, O God! You are my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not delay.

Psalms 71:1 In You, O LORD, I have taken refuge; Let me never be ashamed.

Psalms 71:2 In Your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; Incline Your ear to me and save me.

Psalms 71:3 Be to me a rock of habitation to which I may continually come; You have given commandment to save me, For You are my rock and my fortress.

Psalms 71:4 Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, Out of the grasp of the wrongdoer and ruthless man,

Psalms 71:5 For You are my hope; O Lord GOD, [You are] my confidence from my youth.

Psalms 71:6 By You I have been sustained from [my] birth; You are He who took me from my mother’s womb; My praise is continually of You.

Psalms 71:7 I have become a marvel to many, For You are my strong refuge.

Psalms 71:8 My mouth is filled with Your praise And with Your glory all day long.

Psalms 71:9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age; Do not forsake me when my strength fails.

Psalms 71:10 For my enemies have spoken against me; And those who watch for my life have consulted together,

Psalms 71:11 Saying, “God has forsaken him; Pursue and seize him, for there is no one to deliver.”

Psalms 71:12 O God, do not be far from me; O my God, hasten to my help!

Psalms 71:13 Let those who are adversaries of my soul be ashamed [and] consumed; Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor, who seek to injure me.

Psalms 71:14 But as for me, I will hope continually, And will praise You yet more and more.

Psalms 71:15 My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness [And] of Your salvation all day long; For I do not know the sum [of them].

Psalms 71:16 I will come with the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD; I will make mention of Your righteousness, Yours alone.

Psalms 71:17 O God, You have taught me from my youth, And I still declare Your wondrous deeds.

Psalms 71:18 And even when [I am] old and gray, O God, do not forsake me, Until I declare Your strength to [this] generation, Your power to all who are to come.

Psalms 71:19 For Your righteousness, O God, [reaches] to the heavens, You who have done great things; O God, who is like You?

Psalms 71:20 You who have shown me many troubles and distresses Will revive me again, And will bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

Psalms 71:21 May You increase my greatness And turn [to] comfort me.

Psalms 71:22 I will also praise You with a harp, [Even] Your truth, O my God; To You I will sing praises with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 71:23 My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to You; And my soul, which You have redeemed.

Psalms 71:24 My tongue also will utter Your righteousness all day long; For they are ashamed, for they are humiliated who seek my hurt.

Psalms 72:1 [A Psalm] of Solomon. Give the king Your judgments, O God, And Your righteousness to the king's son.

Psalms 72:2 May he judge Your people with righteousness And Your afflicted with justice.

Psalms 72:3 Let the mountains bring peace to the people, And the hills, in righteousness.

Psalms 72:4 May he vindicate the afflicted of the people, Save the children of the needy And crush the oppressor.

Psalms 72:5 Let them fear You while the sun [endures], And as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

Psalms 72:6 May he come down like rain upon the mown grass, Like showers that water the earth.

Psalms 72:7 In his days may the righteous flourish, And abundance of peace till the moon is no more.

Psalms 72:8 May he also rule from sea to sea And from the River to the ends of the earth.

Psalms 72:9 Let the nomads of the desert bow before him, And his enemies lick the dust.

Psalms 72:10 Let the kings of Tarshish and of the islands bring presents; The kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.

Psalms 72:11 And let all kings bow down before him, All nations serve him.

Psalms 72:12 For he will deliver the needy when he cries for help, The afflicted also, and him who has no helper.

Psalms 72:13 He will have compassion on the poor and needy, And the lives of the needy he will save.

Psalms 72:14 He will rescue their life from oppression and violence, And their blood will be precious in his sight;

Psalms 72:15 So may he live, and may the gold of Sheba be given to him; And let them pray for him continually; Let them bless him all day long.

Psalms 72:16 May there be abundance of grain in the earth on top of the mountains; Its fruit will wave like [the cedars of] Lebanon; And may those from the city flourish like vegetation of the earth.

Psalms 72:17 May his name endure forever; May his name increase as long as the sun [shines]; And let [men] bless themselves by him; Let all nations call him blessed.

Psalms 72:18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, Who alone works wonders.

Psalms 72:19 And blessed be His glorious name forever; And may the whole earth be filled with His glory. Amen, and Amen.

Psalms 72:20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

Psalms 73:1 A Psalm of Asaph. Surely God is good to Israel, To those who are pure in heart!

Psalms 73:2 But as for me, my feet came close to stumbling, My steps had almost slipped.

Psalms 73:3 For I was envious of the arrogant [As] I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

Psalms 73:4 For there are no pains in their death, And their body is fat.

Psalms 73:5 They are not in trouble [as other] men, Nor are they plagued like mankind.

Psalms 73:6 Therefore pride is their necklace; The garment of violence covers them.

Psalms 73:7 Their eye bulges from fatness; The imaginations of [their] heart run riot.

Psalms 73:8 They mock and wickedly speak of oppression; They speak from on high.

Psalms 73:9 They have set their mouth against the heavens, And their tongue parades through the earth.

Psalms 73:10 Therefore his people return to this place, And waters of abundance are drunk by them.

Psalms 73:11 They say, “How does God know? And is there knowledge with the Most High?”

Psalms 73:12 Behold, these are the wicked; And always at ease, they have increased [in] wealth.

Psalms 73:13 Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure And washed my hands in innocence;

Psalms 73:14 For I have been stricken all day long And chastened every morning.

Psalms 73:15 If I had said, “I will speak thus,” Behold, I would have betrayed the generation of Your children.

Psalms 73:16 When I pondered to understand this, It was troublesome in my sight

Psalms 73:17 Until I came into the sanctuary of God; [Then] I perceived their end.

Psalms 73:18 Surely You set them in slippery places; You cast them down to destruction.

Psalms 73:19 How they are destroyed in a moment! They are utterly swept away by sudden terrors!

Psalms 73:20 Like a dream when one awakes, O Lord, when aroused, You will despise their form.

Psalms 73:21 When my heart was embittered And I was pierced within,

Psalms 73:22 Then I was senseless and ignorant; I was [like] a beast before You.

Psalms 73:23 Nevertheless I am continually with You; You have taken hold of my right hand.

Psalms 73:24 With Your counsel You will guide me, And afterward receive me to glory.

Psalms 73:25 Whom have I in heaven [but You]? And besides You, I desire nothing on earth.

Psalms 73:26 My flesh and my heart may fail, But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

Psalms 73:27 For, behold, those who are far from You will perish; You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to You.

Psalms 73:28 But as for me, the nearness of God is my good; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, That I may tell of all Your works.

Psalms 74:1 A Maskil of Asaph. O God, why have You rejected [us] forever? Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

Psalms 74:2 Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old, Which You have redeemed to be the tribe of Your inheritance; [And] this Mount Zion, where You have dwelt.

Psalms 74:3 Turn Your footsteps toward the perpetual ruins; The enemy has damaged everything within the sanctuary.

Psalms 74:4 Your adversaries have roared in the midst of Your meeting place; They have set up their own standards for signs.

Psalms 74:5 It seems as if one had lifted up [His] axe in a forest of trees.

Psalms 74:6 And now all its carved work They smash with hatchet and hammers.

Psalms 74:7 They have burned Your sanctuary to the ground; They have defiled the dwelling place of Your name.

Psalms 74:8 They said in their heart, “Let us completely subdue them.” They have burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

Psalms 74:9 We do not see our signs; There is no longer any prophet, Nor is there any among us who knows how long.

Psalms 74:10 How long, O God, will the adversary revile, [And] the enemy spurn Your name forever?

Psalms 74:11 Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand? From within Your bosom, destroy [them]!

Psalms 74:12 Yet God is my king from of old, Who works deeds of deliverance in the midst of the earth.

Psalms 74:13 You divided the sea by Your strength; You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

Psalms 74:14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan; You gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

Psalms 74:15 You broke open springs and torrents; You dried up ever-flowing streams.

Psalms 74:16 Yours is the day, Yours also is the night; You have prepared the light and the sun.

Psalms 74:17 You have established all the boundaries of the earth; You have made summer and winter.

Psalms 74:18 Remember this, O LORD, that the enemy has reviled, And a foolish people has spurned Your name.

Psalms 74:19 Do not deliver the soul of Your turtledove to the wild beast; Do not forget the life of Your afflicted forever.

Psalms 74:20 Consider the covenant; For the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence.

Psalms 74:21 Let not the oppressed return dishonored; Let the afflicted and needy praise Your name.

Psalms 74:22 Arise, O God, [and] plead Your own cause; Remember how the foolish man reproaches You all day long.

Psalms 74:23 Do not forget the voice of Your adversaries, The uproar of those who rise against You which ascends continually.

Psalms 75:1 For the choir director; [set to] Al-tashheth. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song. We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks, For Your name is near; Men declare Your wondrous works.

Psalms 75:2 “When I select an appointed time, It is I who judge with equity.

Psalms 75:3 “The earth and all who dwell in it melt; It is I who have firmly set its pillars. Selah.

Psalms 75:4 “I said to the boastful, ‘Do not boast,’ And to the wicked, ‘Do not lift up the horn;

Psalms 75:5 Do not lift up your horn on high, Do not speak with insolent pride.’“

Psalms 75:6 For not from the east, nor from the west, Nor from the desert [comes] exaltation;

Psalms 75:7 But God is the Judge; He puts down one and exalts another.

Psalms 75:8 For a cup is in the hand of the LORD, and the wine foams; It is well mixed, and He pours out of this; Surely all the wicked of the earth must drain [and] drink down its dregs.

Psalms 75:9 But as for me, I will declare [it] forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

Psalms 75:10 And all the horns of the wicked He will cut off, [But] the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

Psalms 76:1 For the choir director; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song. God is known in Judah; His name is great in Israel.

Psalms 76:2 His tabernacle is in Salem; His dwelling place also is in Zion.

Psalms 76:3 There He broke the flaming arrows, The shield and the sword and the weapons of war. Selah.

Psalms 76:4 You are resplendent, More majestic than the mountains of prey.

Psalms 76:5 The stouthearted were plundered, They sank into sleep; And none of the warriors could use his hands.

Psalms 76:6 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, Both rider and horse were cast into a dead sleep.

Psalms 76:7 You, even You, are to be feared; And who may stand in Your presence when once You are angry?

Psalms 76:8 You caused judgment to be heard from heaven; The earth feared and was still Psalms 76:9 When God arose to judgment, To save all the humble of the earth. Selah.

Psalms 76:10 For the wrath of man shall praise You; With a remnant of wrath You will gird Yourself.

Psalms 76:11 Make vows to the LORD your God and fulfill [them]; Let all who are around Him bring gifts to Him who is to be feared.

Psalms 76:12 He will cut off the spirit of princes; He is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalms 77:1 For the choir director; according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph. My voice [rises] to God, and I will cry aloud; My voice [rises] to God, and He will hear me.

Psalms 77:2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord; In the night my hand was stretched out without weariness; My soul refused to be comforted.

Psalms 77:3 [When] I remember God, then I am disturbed; [When] I sigh, then my spirit grows faint. Selah.

Psalms 77:4 You have held my eyelids [open]; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

Psalms 77:5 I have considered the days of old, The years of long ago.

Psalms 77:6 I will remember my song in the night; I will meditate with my heart, And my spirit ponders:

Psalms 77:7 Will the Lord reject forever? And will He never be favorable again?

Psalms 77:8 Has His lovingkindness ceased forever? Has [His] promise come to an end forever?

Psalms 77:9 Has God forgotten to be gracious, Or has He in anger withdrawn His compassion? Selah.

Psalms 77:10 Then I said, “It is my grief, That the right hand of the Most High has changed.”

Psalms 77:11 I shall remember the deeds of the LORD; Surely I will remember Your wonders of old.

Psalms 77:12 I will meditate on all Your work And muse on Your deeds.

Psalms 77:13 Your way, O God, is holy; What god is great like our God?

Psalms 77:14 You are the God who works wonders; You have made known Your strength among the peoples.

Psalms 77:15 You have by Your power redeemed Your people, The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

Psalms 77:16 The waters saw You, O God; The waters saw You, they were in anguish; The deeps also trembled.

Psalms 77:17 The clouds poured out water; The skies gave forth a sound; Your arrows flashed here and there.

Psalms 77:18 The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind; The lightnings lit up the world; The earth trembled and shook.

Psalms 77:19 Your way was in the sea And Your paths in the mighty waters, And Your footprints may not be known.

Psalms 77:20 You led Your people like a flock By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalms 78:1 A Maskil of Asaph. Listen, O my people, to my instruction; Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

Psalms 78:2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old,

Psalms 78:3 Which we have heard and known, And our fathers have told us.

Psalms 78:4 We will not conceal them from their children, But tell to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, And His strength and His wondrous works that He has done.

Psalms 78:5 For He established a testimony in Jacob And appointed a law in Israel, Which He commanded our fathers That they should teach them to their children,

Psalms 78:6 That the generation to come might know, [even] the children [yet] to be born, [That] they may arise and tell [them] to their children,

Psalms 78:7 That they should put their confidence in God And not forget the works of God, But keep His commandments,

Psalms 78:8 And not be like their fathers, A stubborn and rebellious generation, A generation that did not prepare its heart And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

Psalms 78:9 The sons of Ephraim were archers equipped with bows, [Yet] they turned back in the day of battle.

Psalms 78:10 They did not keep the covenant of God And refused to walk in His law;

Psalms 78:11 They forgot His deeds And His miracles that He had shown them.

Psalms 78:12 He wrought wonders before their fathers In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

Psalms 78:13 He divided the sea and caused them to pass through, And He made the waters stand up like a heap.

Psalms 78:14 Then He led them with the cloud by day And all the night with a light of fire.

Psalms 78:15 He split the rocks in the wilderness And gave [them] abundant drink like the ocean depths.

Psalms 78:16 He brought forth streams also from the rock And caused waters to run down like rivers.

Psalms 78:17 Yet they still continued to sin against Him, To rebel against the Most High in the desert.

Psalms 78:18 And in their heart they put God to the test By asking food according to their desire.

Psalms 78:19 Then they spoke against God; They said, “Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?

Psalms 78:20 “Behold, He struck the rock so that waters gushed out, And streams were overflowing; Can He give bread also? Will He provide meat for His people?”

Psalms 78:21 Therefore the LORD heard and was full of wrath; And a fire was kindled against Jacob And anger also mounted against Israel,

Psalms 78:22 Because they did not believe in God And did not trust in His salvation.

Psalms 78:23 Yet He commanded the clouds above And opened the doors of heaven;

Psalms 78:24 He rained down manna upon them to eat And gave them food from heaven.

Psalms 78:25 Man did eat the bread of angels; He sent them food in abundance.

Psalms 78:26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens And by His power He directed the south wind.

Psalms 78:27 When He rained meat upon them like the dust, Even winged fowl like the sand of the seas,

Psalms 78:28 Then He let [them] fall in the midst of their camp, Round about their dwellings.

Psalms 78:29 So they ate and were well filled, And their desire He gave to them.

Psalms 78:30 Before they had satisfied their desire, While their food was in their mouths,

Psalms 78:31 The anger of God rose against them And killed some of their stoutest ones, And subdued the choice men of Israel.

Psalms 78:32 In spite of all this they still sinned And did not believe in His wonderful works.

Psalms 78:33 So He brought their days to an end in futility And their years in sudden terror.

Psalms 78:34 When He killed them, then they sought Him, And returned and searched diligently for God;

Psalms 78:35 And they remembered that God was their rock, And the Most High God their Redeemer.

Psalms 78:36 But they deceived Him with their mouth And lied to Him with their tongue.

Psalms 78:37 For their heart was not steadfast toward Him, Nor were they faithful in His covenant.

Psalms 78:38 But He, being compassionate, forgave [their] iniquity and did not destroy [them]; And often He restrained His anger And did not arouse all His wrath.

Psalms 78:39 Thus He remembered that they were but flesh, A wind that passes and does not return.

Psalms 78:40 How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness And grieved Him in the desert!

Psalms 78:41 Again and again they tempted God, And pained the Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 78:42 They did not remember His power, The day when He redeemed them from the adversary,

Psalms 78:43 When He performed His signs in Egypt And His marvels in the field of Zoan, Psalms 78:44 And turned their rivers to blood, And their streams, they could not drink.

Psalms 78:45 He sent among them swarms of flies which devoured them, And frogs which destroyed them.

Psalms 78:46 He gave also their crops to the grasshopper And the product of their labor to the locust.

Psalms 78:47 He destroyed their vines with hailstones And their sycamore trees with frost.

Psalms 78:48 He gave over their cattle also to the hailstones And their herds to bolts of lightning.

Psalms 78:49 He sent upon them His burning anger, Fury and indignation and trouble, A band of destroying angels.

Psalms 78:50 He leveled a path for His anger; He did not spare their soul from death, But gave over their life to the plague,

Psalms 78:51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt, The first [issue] of their virility in the tents of Ham.

Psalms 78:52 But He led forth His own people like sheep And guided them in the wilderness like a flock;

Psalms 78:53 He led them safely, so that they did not fear; But the sea engulfed their enemies.

Psalms 78:54 So He brought them to His holy land, To this hill country which His right hand had gained.

Psalms 78:55 He also drove out the nations before them And apportioned them for an inheritance by measurement, And made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.

Psalms 78:56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God And did not keep His testimonies,

Psalms 78:57 But turned back and acted treacherously like their fathers; They turned aside like a treacherous bow.

Psalms 78:58 For they provoked Him with their high places And aroused His jealousy with their graven images.

Psalms 78:59 When God heard, He was filled with wrath And greatly abhorred Israel;

Psalms 78:60 So that He abandoned the dwelling place at Shiloh, The tent which He had pitched among men,

Psalms 78:61 And gave up His strength to captivity And His glory into the hand of the adversary.

Psalms 78:62 He also delivered His people to the sword, And was filled with wrath at His inheritance.

Psalms 78:63 Fire devoured His young men, And His virgins had no wedding songs.

Psalms 78:64 His priests fell by the sword, And His widows could not weep.

Psalms 78:65 Then the Lord awoke as [if from] sleep, Like a warrior overcome by wine.

Psalms 78:66 He drove His adversaries backward; He put on them an everlasting reproach.

Psalms 78:67 He also rejected the tent of Joseph, And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, Psalms 78:68 But chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion which He loved.

Psalms 78:69 And He built His sanctuary like the heights, Like the earth which He has founded forever.

Psalms 78:70 He also chose David His servant And took him from the sheepfolds;

Psalms 78:71 From the care of the ewes with suckling lambs He brought him To shepherd Jacob His people, And Israel His inheritance.

Psalms 78:72 So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart, And guided them with his skillful hands.

Psalms 79:1 A Psalm of Asaph. O God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance; They have defiled Your holy temple; They have laid Jerusalem in ruins.

Psalms 79:2 They have given the dead bodies of Your servants for food to the birds of the heavens, The flesh of Your godly ones to the beasts of the earth.

Psalms 79:3 They have poured out their blood like water round about Jerusalem; And there was no one to bury them.

Psalms 79:4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, A scoffing and derision to those around us.

Psalms 79:5 How long, O LORD? Will You be angry forever? Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

Psalms 79:6 Pour out Your wrath upon the nations which do not know You, And upon the kingdoms which do not call upon Your name.

Psalms 79:7 For they have devoured Jacob And laid waste his habitation.

Psalms 79:8 Do not remember the iniquities of [our] forefathers against us; Let Your compassion come quickly to meet us, For we are brought very low.

Psalms 79:9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name; And deliver us and forgive our sins for Your name's sake.

Psalms 79:10 Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let there be known among the nations in our sight, Vengeance for the blood of Your servants which has been shed.

Psalms 79:11 Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You; According to the greatness of Your power preserve those who are doomed to die.

Psalms 79:12 And return to our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom The reproach with which they have reproached You, O Lord.

Psalms 79:13 So we Your people and the sheep of Your pasture Will give thanks to You forever; To all generations we will tell of Your praise.

Psalms 80:1 For the choir director; [set to] El Shoshannim; Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph. Oh, give ear, Shepherd of Israel, You who lead Joseph like a flock; You who are enthroned [above] the cherubim, shine forth!

Psalms 80:2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up Your power And come to save us!

Psalms 80:3 O God, restore us And cause Your face to shine [upon us], and we will be saved.

Psalms 80:4 O LORD God [of] hosts, How long will You be angry with the prayer of Your people?

Psalms 80:5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, And You have made them to drink tears in large measure.

Psalms 80:6 You make us an object of contention to our neighbors, And our enemies laugh among themselves.

Psalms 80:7 O God [of] hosts, restore us And cause Your face to shine [upon us], and we will be saved.

Psalms 80:8 You removed a vine from Egypt; You drove out the nations and planted it.

Psalms 80:9 You cleared [the ground] before it, And it took deep root and filled the land.

Psalms 80:10 The mountains were covered with its shadow, And the cedars of God with its boughs.

Psalms 80:11 It was sending out its branches to the sea And its shoots to the River.

Psalms 80:12 Why have You broken down its hedges, So that all who pass [that] way pick its [fruit]?

Psalms 80:13 A boar from the forest eats it away And whatever moves in the field feeds on it.

Psalms 80:14 O God [of] hosts, turn again now, we beseech You; Look down from heaven and see, and take care of this vine,

Psalms 80:15 Even the shoot which Your right hand has planted, And on the son whom You have strengthened for Yourself.

Psalms 80:16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down; They perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.

Psalms 80:17 Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand, Upon the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself.

Psalms 80:18 Then we shall not turn back from You; Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.

Psalms 80:19 O LORD God of hosts, restore us; Cause Your face to shine [upon us], and we will be saved.

Psalms 81:1 For the choir director; on the Gittith. [A Psalm] of Asaph. Sing for joy to God our strength; Shout joyfully to the God of Jacob.

Psalms 81:2 Raise a song, strike the timbrel, The sweet sounding lyre with the harp.

Psalms 81:3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon, At the full moon, on our feast day.

Psalms 81:4 For it is a statute for Israel, An ordinance of the God of Jacob.

Psalms 81:5 He established it for a testimony in Joseph When he went throughout the land of Egypt. I heard a language that I did not know:

Psalms 81:6 “I relieved his shoulder of the burden, His hands were freed from the basket.

Psalms 81:7 “You called in trouble and I rescued you; I answered you in the hiding place of thunder; I proved you at the waters of Meribah. Selah.

Psalms 81:8 “Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you; O Israel, if you would listen to Me!

Psalms 81:9 “Let there be no strange god among you; Nor shall you worship any foreign god.

Psalms 81:10 “I, the LORD, am your God, Who brought you up from the land of Egypt; Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

Psalms 81:11 “But My people did not listen to My voice, And Israel did not obey Me.

Psalms 81:12 “So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their heart, To walk in their own devices.

Psalms 81:13 “Oh that My people would listen to Me, That Israel would walk in My ways!

Psalms 81:14 “I would quickly subdue their enemies And turn My hand against their adversaries.

Psalms 81:15 “Those who hate the LORD would pretend obedience to Him, And their time [of punishment] would be forever.

Psalms 81:16 “But I would feed you with the finest of the wheat, And with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Psalms 82:1 A Psalm of Asaph. God takes His stand in His own congregation; He judges in the midst of the rulers.

Psalms 82:2 How long will you judge unjustly And show partiality to the wicked? Selah.

Psalms 82:3 Vindicate the weak and fatherless; Do justice to the afflicted and destitute.

Psalms 82:4 Rescue the weak and needy; Deliver [them] out of the hand of the wicked.

Psalms 82:5 They do not know nor do they understand; They walk about in darkness; All the foundations of the earth are shaken.

Psalms 82:6 I said, “You are gods, And all of you are sons of the Most High.

Psalms 82:7 “Nevertheless you will die like men And fall like [any] one of the princes.”

Psalms 82:8 Arise, O God, judge the earth! For it is You who possesses all the nations.

Psalms 83:1 A Song, a Psalm of Asaph. O God, do not remain quiet; Do not be silent and, O God, do not be still.

Psalms 83:2 For behold, Your enemies make an uproar, And those who hate You have exalted themselves.

Psalms 83:3 They make shrewd plans against Your people, And conspire together against Your treasured ones.

Psalms 83:4 They have said, “Come, and let us wipe them out as a nation, That the name of Israel be remembered no more.”

Psalms 83:5 For they have conspired together with one mind; Against You they make a covenant:

Psalms 83:6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites;

Psalms 83:7 Gebal and Ammon and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

Psalms 83:8 Assyria also has joined with them; They have become a help to the children of Lot. Selah.

Psalms 83:9 Deal with them as with Midian, As with Sisera [and] Jabin at the torrent of Kishon, Psalms 83:10 Who were destroyed at En-dor, Who became as dung for the ground.

Psalms 83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb And all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,

Psalms 83:12 Who said, “Let us possess for ourselves The pastures of God.”

Psalms 83:13 O my God, make them like the whirling dust, Like chaff before the wind.

Psalms 83:14 Like fire that burns the forest And like a flame that sets the mountains on fire,

Psalms 83:15 So pursue them with Your tempest And terrify them with Your storm.

Psalms 83:16 Fill their faces with dishonor, That they may seek Your name, O LORD.

Psalms 83:17 Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever, And let them be humiliated and perish,

Psalms 83:18 That they may know that You alone, whose name is the LORD, Are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalms 84:1 For the choir director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. How lovely are Your dwelling places, O LORD of hosts!

Psalms 84:2 My soul longed and even yearned for the courts of the LORD; My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.

Psalms 84:3 The bird also has found a house, And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, Even Your altars, O LORD of hosts, My King and my God.

Psalms 84:4 How blessed are those who dwell in Your house! They are ever praising You. Selah.

Psalms 84:5 How blessed is the man whose strength is in You, In whose heart are the highways [to Zion]!

Psalms 85:2 You forgave the iniquity of Your people; You covered all their sin. Selah.

Psalms 85:3 You withdrew all Your fury; You turned away from Your burning anger.

Psalms 85:4 Restore us, O God of our salvation, And cause Your indignation toward us to cease.

Psalms 85:5 Will You be angry with us forever? Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?

Psalms 85:6 Will You not Yourself revive us again, That Your people may rejoice in You?

Psalms 85:7 Show us Your lovingkindness, O LORD, And grant us Your salvation.

Psalms 85:8 I will hear what God the LORD will say; For He will speak peace to His people, to His godly ones; But let them not turn back to folly.

Psalms 85:9 Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, That glory may dwell in our land.

Psalms 85:10 Lovingkindness and truth have met together; Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Psalms 85:11 Truth springs from the earth, And righteousness looks down from heaven.

Psalms 85:12 Indeed, the LORD will give what is good, And our land will yield its produce.

Psalms 85:13 Righteousness will go before Him And will make His footsteps into a way.

Psalms 86:1 A Prayer of David. Incline Your ear, O LORD, [and] answer me; For I am afflicted and needy.

Psalms 86:2 Preserve my soul, for I am a godly man; O You my God, save Your servant who trusts in You.

Psalms 86:3 Be gracious to me, O Lord, For to You I cry all day long.

Psalms 86:4 Make glad the soul of Your servant, For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Psalms 86:5 For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, And abundant in lovingkindness to all who call upon You.

Psalms 86:6 Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer; And give heed to the voice of my supplications!

Psalms 86:7 In the day of my trouble I shall call upon You, For You will answer me.

Psalms 86:8 There is no one like You among the gods, O Lord, Nor are there any works like Yours.

Psalms 86:9 All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before You, O Lord, And they shall glorify Your name.

Psalms 86:10 For You are great and do wondrous deeds; You alone are God.

Psalms 86:11 Teach me Your way, O LORD; I will walk in Your truth; Unite my heart to fear Your name.

Psalms 86:12 I will give thanks to You, O Lord my God, with all my heart, And will glorify Your name forever.

Psalms 86:13 For Your lovingkindness toward me is great, And You have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

Psalms 86:14 O God, arrogant men have risen up against me, And a band of violent men have sought my life, And they have not set You before them.

Psalms 86:15 But You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, Slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness and truth.

Psalms 86:16 Turn to me, and be gracious to me; Oh grant Your strength to Your servant, And save the son of Your handmaid.

Psalms 86:17 Show me a sign for good, That those who hate me may see [it] and be ashamed, Because You, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalms 87:1 A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song. His foundation is in the holy mountains.

Psalms 87:2 The LORD loves the gates of Zion More than all the [other] dwelling places of Jacob.

Psalms 87:3 Glorious things are spoken of you, O city of God. Selah.

Psalms 87:4 “I shall mention Rahab and Babylon among those who know Me; Behold, Philistia and Tyre with Ethiopia: ‘This one was born there.’“

Psalms 87:5 But of Zion it shall be said, “This one and that one were born in her”; And the Most High Himself will establish her.

Psalms 87:6 The LORD will count when He registers the peoples, “This one was born there.” Selah.

Psalms 87:7 Then those who sing as well as those who play the flutes [shall say], “All my springs [of joy] are in you.”

Psalms 88:1 A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. For the choir director; according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite. O LORD, the God of my salvation, I have cried out by day and in the night before You.

Psalms 88:2 Let my prayer come before You; Incline Your ear to my cry!

Psalms 88:3 For my soul has had enough troubles, And my life has drawn near to Sheol.

Psalms 88:4 I am reckoned among those who go down to the pit; I have become like a man without strength,

Psalms 88:5 Forsaken among the dead, Like the slain who lie in the grave, Whom You remember no more, And they are cut off from Your hand.

Psalms 88:6 You have put me in the lowest pit, In dark places, in the depths.

Psalms 88:7 Your wrath has rested upon me, And You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah.

Psalms 88:8 You have removed my acquaintances far from me; You have made me an object of loathing to them; I am shut up and cannot go out.

Psalms 88:9 My eye has wasted away because of affliction; I have called upon You every day, O LORD; I have spread out my hands to You.

Psalms 88:10 Will You perform wonders for the dead? Will the departed spirits rise [and] praise You? Selah.

Psalms 88:11 Will Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave, Your faithfulness in Abaddon?

Psalms 88:12 Will Your wonders be made known in the darkness? And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

Psalms 88:13 But I, O LORD, have cried out to You for help, And in the morning my prayer comes before You.

Psalms 88:14 O LORD, why do You reject my soul? [Why] do You hide Your face from me?

Psalms 88:15 I was afflicted and about to die from my youth on; I suffer Your terrors; I am overcome.

Psalms 88:16 Your burning anger has passed over me; Your terrors have destroyed me.

Psalms 88:17 They have surrounded me like water all day long; They have encompassed me altogether.

Psalms 88:18 You have removed lover and friend far from me; My acquaintances are [in] darkness.

Psalms 89:1 A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite. I will sing of the lovingkindness of the LORD forever; To all generations I will make known Your faithfulness with my mouth.

Psalms 89:2 For I have said, "Lovingkindness will be built up forever; In the heavens You will establish Your faithfulness."

Psalms 89:3 "I have made a covenant with My chosen; I have sworn to David My servant, Psalms 89:4 I will establish your seed forever And build up your throne to all generations." Selah.

Psalms 89:5 The heavens will praise Your wonders, O LORD; Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

Psalms 89:6 For who in the skies is comparable to the LORD? Who among the sons of the mighty is like the LORD, Psalms 89:7 A God greatly feared in the council of the holy ones, And awesome above all those who are around Him?

Psalms 89:8 O LORD God of hosts, who is like You, O mighty LORD? Your faithfulness also surrounds You.

Psalms 89:9 You rule the swelling of the sea; When its waves rise, You still them.

Psalms 89:10 You Yourself crushed Rahab like one who is slain; You scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.

Psalms 89:11 The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours; The world and all it contains, You have founded them.

Psalms 89:12 The north and the south, You have created them; Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at Your name.

Psalms 89:13 You have a strong arm; Your hand is mighty, Your right hand is exalted.

Psalms 89:14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; Lovingkindness and truth go before You.

Psalms 89:15 How blessed are the people who know the joyful sound! O LORD, they walk in the light of Your countenance.

Psalms 89:16 In Your name they rejoice all the day, And by Your righteousness they are exalted.

Psalms 89:17 For You are the glory of their strength, And by Your favor our horn is exalted.

Psalms 89:18 For our shield belongs to the LORD, And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 89:19 Once You spoke in vision to Your godly ones, And said, “I have given help to one who is mighty; I have exalted one chosen from the people.

Psalms 89:20 “I have found David My servant; With My holy oil I have anointed him,

Psalms 89:21 With whom My hand will be established; My arm also will strengthen him.

Psalms 89:22 “The enemy will not deceive him, Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

Psalms 89:23 “But I shall crush his adversaries before him, And strike those who hate him.

Psalms 89:24 “My faithfulness and My lovingkindness will be with him, And in My name his horn will be exalted.

Psalms 89:25 “I shall also set his hand on the sea And his right hand on the rivers.

Psalms 89:26 “He will cry to Me, ‘You are my Father, My God, and the rock of my salvation.’

Psalms 89:27 “I also shall make him [My] firstborn, The highest of the kings of the earth.

Psalms 89:28 “My lovingkindness I will keep for him forever, And My covenant shall be confirmed to him.

Psalms 89:29 “So I will establish his descendants forever And his throne as the days of heaven.

Psalms 89:30 “If his sons forsake My law And do not walk in My judgments,

Psalms 89:31 If they violate My statutes And do not keep My commandments,

Psalms 89:32 Then I will punish their transgression with the rod And their iniquity with stripes.

Psalms 89:33 “But I will not break off My lovingkindness from him, Nor deal falsely in My faithfulness.

Psalms 89:34 “My covenant I will not violate, Nor will I alter the utterance of My lips.

Psalms 89:35 “Once I have sworn by My holiness; I will not lie to David.

Psalms 89:36 “His descendants shall endure forever And his throne as the sun before Me.

Psalms 89:37 “It shall be established forever like the moon, And the witness in the sky is faithful.” Selah.

Psalms 89:38 But You have cast off and rejected, You have been full of wrath against Your anointed.

Psalms 89:39 You have spurned the covenant of Your servant; You have profaned his crown in the dust.

Psalms 89:40 You have broken down all his walls; You have brought his strongholds to ruin.

Psalms 89:41 All who pass along the way plunder him; He has become a reproach to his neighbors.

Psalms 89:42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries; You have made all his enemies rejoice.

Psalms 89:43 You also turn back the edge of his sword And have not made him stand in battle.

Psalms 89:44 You have made his splendor to cease And cast his throne to the ground.

Psalms 89:45 You have shortened the days of his youth; You have covered him with shame. Selah.

Psalms 89:46 How long, O LORD? Will You hide Yourself forever? Will Your wrath burn like fire?

Psalms 89:47 Remember what my span of life is; For what vanity You have created all the sons of men!

Psalms 89:48 What man can live and not see death? Can he deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah.

Psalms 89:49 Where are Your former lovingkindnesses, O Lord, Which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?

Psalms 89:50 Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants; How I bear in my bosom [the reproach of] all the many peoples, Psalms 89:51 With which Your enemies have reproached, O LORD, With which they have reproached the footsteps of Your anointed.

Psalms 89:52 Blessed be the LORD forever! Amen and Amen.

Psalms 90:1 A Prayer of Moses, the man of God. Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Psalms 90:2 Before the mountains were born Or You gave birth to the earth and the world, Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

Psalms 90:3 You turn man back into dust And say, “Return, O children of men.”

Psalms 90:4 For a thousand years in Your sight Are like yesterday when it passes by, Or [as] a watch in the night.

Psalms 90:5 You have swept them away like a flood, they fall asleep; In the morning they are like grass which sprouts anew.

Psalms 90:6 In the morning it flourishes and sprouts anew; Toward evening it fades and withers away.

Psalms 90:7 For we have been consumed by Your anger And by Your wrath we have been dismayed.

Psalms 90:8 You have placed our iniquities before You, Our secret [sins] in the light of Your presence.

Psalms 90:9 For all our days have declined in Your fury; We have finished our years like a sigh.

Psalms 90:10 As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years, Or if due to strength, eighty years, Yet their pride is [but] labor and sorrow; For soon it is gone and we fly away.

Psalms 90:11 Who understands the power of Your anger And Your fury, according to the fear that is due You?

Psalms 90:12 So teach us to number our days, That we may present to You a heart of wisdom.

Psalms 90:13 Do return, O LORD; how long [will it be]? And be sorry for Your servants.

Psalms 90:14 O satisfy us in the morning with Your lovingkindness, That we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

Psalms 90:15 Make us glad according to the days You have afflicted us, [And] the years we have seen evil.

Psalms 90:16 Let Your work appear to Your servants And Your majesty to their children.

Psalms 90:17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; And confirm for us the work of our hands; Yes, confirm the work of our hands.

Psalms 91:1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High Will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

Psalms 105:6 O seed of Abraham, His servant, O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!

Psalms 105:7 He is the LORD our God; His judgments are in all the earth.

Psalms 105:8 He has remembered His covenant forever, The word which He commanded to a thousand generations,

Psalms 105:9 [The] [covenant] which He made with Abraham, And His oath to Isaac.

Psalms 105:10 Then He confirmed it to Jacob for a statute, To Israel as an everlasting covenant, Psalms 105:11 Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan As the portion of your inheritance,” Psalms 105:12 When they were only a few men in number, Very few, and strangers in it.

Psalms 105:13 And they wandered about from nation to nation, From [one] kingdom to another people.

Psalms 105:14 He permitted no man to oppress them, And He reproved kings for their sakes:

Psalms 105:15 “Do not touch My anointed ones, And do My prophets no harm.”

Psalms 105:16 And He called for a famine upon the land; He broke the whole staff of bread.

Psalms 105:17 He sent a man before them, Joseph, [who] was sold as a slave.

Psalms 105:18 They afflicted his feet with fetters, He himself was laid in irons;

Psalms 105:19 Until the time that his word came to pass, The word of the LORD tested him.

Psalms 105:20 The king sent and released him, The ruler of peoples, and set him free.

Psalms 105:21 He made him lord of his house And ruler over all his possessions,

Psalms 105:22 To imprison his princes at will, That he might teach his elders wisdom.

Psalms 105:23 Israel also came into Egypt; Thus Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:24 And He caused His people to be very fruitful, And made them stronger than their adversaries.

Psalms 105:25 He turned their heart to hate His people, To deal craftily with His servants.

Psalms 105:26 He sent Moses His servant, [And] Aaron, whom He had chosen.

Psalms 105:27 They performed His wondrous acts among them, And miracles in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:28 He sent darkness and made [it] dark; And they did not rebel against His words.

Psalms 105:29 He turned their waters into blood And caused their fish to die.

Psalms 105:30 Their land swarmed with frogs [Even] in the chambers of their kings.

Psalms 105:31 He spoke, and there came a swarm of flies [And] gnats in all their territory.

Psalms 105:32 He gave them hail for rain, [And] flaming fire in their land.

Psalms 105:33 He struck down their vines also and their fig trees, And shattered the trees of their territory.

Psalms 105:34 He spoke, and locusts came, And young locusts, even without number,

Psalms 105:35 And ate up all vegetation in their land, And ate up the fruit of their ground.

Psalms 105:36 He also struck down all the firstborn in their land, The first fruits of all their vigor.

Psalms 105:37 Then He brought them out with silver and gold, And among His tribes there was not one who stumbled.

Psalms 105:38 Egypt was glad when they departed, For the dread of them had fallen upon them.

Psalms 105:39 He spread a cloud for a covering, And fire to illumine by night.

Psalms 105:40 They asked, and He brought quail, And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

Psalms 105:41 He opened the rock and water flowed out; It ran in the dry places [like] a river.

Psalms 105:42 For He remembered His holy word [With] Abraham His servant;

Psalms 105:43 And He brought forth His people with joy, His chosen ones with a joyful shout.

Psalms 105:44 He gave them also the lands of the nations, That they might take possession of [the fruit of] the peoples' labor,

Psalms 105:45 So that they might keep His statutes And observe His laws, Praise the LORD!

Psalms 106:1 Praise the LORD! Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; For His lovingkindness is everlasting.

Psalms 106:2 Who can speak of the mighty deeds of the LORD, Or can show forth all His praise?

Psalms 106:3 How blessed are those who keep justice, Who practice righteousness at all times!

Psalms 106:4 Remember me, O LORD, in [Your] favor toward Your people; Visit me with Your salvation,

Psalms 106:5 That I may see the prosperity of Your chosen ones, That I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, That I may glory with Your inheritance.

Psalms 106:6 We have sinned like our fathers, We have committed iniquity, we have behaved wickedly.

Psalms 106:7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders; They did not remember Your abundant kindnesses, But rebelled by the sea, at the Red Sea.

Psalms 106:8 Nevertheless He saved them for the sake of His name, That He might make His power known.

Psalms 106:9 Thus He rebuked the Red Sea and it dried up, And He led them through the deeps, as through the wilderness.

Psalms 106:10 So He saved them from the hand of the one who hated [them], And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

Psalms 106:11 The waters covered their adversaries; Not one of them was left.

Psalms 106:12 Then they believed His words; They sang His praise.

Psalms 106:13 They quickly forgot His works; They did not wait for His counsel,

Psalms 106:14 But craved intensely in the wilderness, And tempted God in the desert.

Psalms 106:15 So He gave them their request, But sent a wasting disease among them.

Psalms 106:16 When they became envious of Moses in the camp, And of Aaron, the holy one of the LORD,

Psalms 106:17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, And engulfed the company of Abiram.

Psalms 106:18 And a fire blazed up in their company; The flame consumed the wicked.

Psalms 106:19 They made a calf in Horeb And worshiped a molten image.

Psalms 106:20 Thus they exchanged their glory For the image of an ox that eats grass.

Psalms 106:21 They forgot God their Savior, Who had done great things in Egypt, Psalms 106:22 Wonders in the land of Ham [And] awesome things by the Red Sea.

Psalms 106:23 Therefore He said that He would destroy them, Had not Moses His chosen one stood in the breach before Him, To turn away His wrath from destroying [them].

Psalms 106:24 Then they despised the pleasant land; They did not believe in His word, Psalms 106:25 But grumbled in their tents; They did not listen to the voice of the LORD.

Psalms 106:26 Therefore He swore to them That He would cast them down in the wilderness,

Psalms 106:27 And that He would cast their seed among the nations And scatter them in the lands.

Psalms 106:28 They joined themselves also to Baal-peor, And ate sacrifices offered to the dead.

Psalms 106:29 Thus they provoked [Him] to anger with their deeds, And the plague broke out among them.

Psalms 106:30 Then Phinehas stood up and interposed, And so the plague was stayed.

Psalms 106:31 And it was reckoned to him for righteousness, To all generations forever.

Psalms 106:32 They also provoked [Him] to wrath at the waters of Meribah, So that it went hard with Moses on their account;

Psalms 106:33 Because they were rebellious against His Spirit, He spoke rashly with his lips.

Psalms 106:34 They did not destroy the peoples, As the LORD commanded them,

Psalms 106:35 But they mingled with the nations And learned their practices,

Psalms 106:36 And served their idols, Which became a snare to them.

Psalms 106:37 They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons,

Psalms 106:38 And shed innocent blood, The blood of their sons and their daughters, Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; And the land was polluted with the blood.

Psalms 106:39 Thus they became unclean in their practices, And played the harlot in their deeds.

Psalms 106:40 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against His people And He abhorred His inheritance.

Psalms 106:41 Then He gave them into the hand of the nations, And those who hated them ruled over them.

Psalms 106:42 Their enemies also oppressed them, And they were subdued under their power.

Psalms 106:43 Many times He would deliver them; They, however, were rebellious in their counsel, And [so] sank down in their iniquity.

Psalms 106:44 Nevertheless He looked upon their distress When He heard their cry;

Psalms 106:45 And He remembered His covenant for their sake, And relented according to the greatness of His lovingkindness.

Psalms 106:46 He also made them [objects] of compassion In the presence of all their captors.

Psalms 106:47 Save us, O LORD our God, And gather us from among the nations, To give thanks to Your holy name And glory in Your praise.

Psalms 106:48 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, From everlasting even to everlasting. And let all the people say, “Amen.” Praise the LORD!

Psalms 107:1 Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, For His lovingkindness is everlasting.

Psalms 107:4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert region; They did not find a way to an inhabited city.

Psalms 107:5 [They were] hungry and thirsty; Their soul fainted within them.

Psalms 107:6 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble; He delivered them out of their distresses.

Psalms 107:7 He led them also by a straight way, To go to an inhabited city.

Psalms 107:8 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, And for His wonders to the sons of men!

Psalms 107:9 For He has satisfied the thirsty soul, And the hungry soul He has filled with what is good.

Psalms 107:10 There were those who dwelt in darkness and in the shadow of death, Prisoners in misery and chains,

Psalms 107:11 Because they had rebelled against the words of God And spurned the counsel of the Most High.

Psalms 107:12 Therefore He humbled their heart with labor; They stumbled and there was none to help.

Psalms 107:13 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble; He saved them out of their distresses.

Psalms 107:14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death And broke their bands apart.

Psalms 107:15 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, And for His wonders to the sons of men!

Psalms 107:16 For He has shattered gates of bronze And cut bars of iron asunder.

Psalms 107:17 Fools, because of their rebellious way, And because of their iniquities, were afflicted.

Psalms 107:18 Their soul abhorred all kinds of food, And they drew near to the gates of death.

Psalms 107:19 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble; He saved them out of their distresses.

Psalms 107:20 He sent His word and healed them, And delivered [them] from their destructions.

Psalms 107:21 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, And for His wonders to the sons of men!

Psalms 107:22 Let them also offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, And tell of His works with joyful singing.

Psalms 107:23 Those who go down to the sea in ships, Who do business on great waters;

Psalms 107:24 They have seen the works of the LORD, And His wonders in the deep.

Psalms 107:25 For He spoke and raised up a stormy wind, Which lifted up the waves of the sea.

Psalms 107:26 They rose up to the heavens, they went down to the depths; Their soul melted away in [their] misery.

Psalms 107:27 They reeled and staggered like a drunken man, And were at their wits' end.

Psalms 107:28 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, And He brought them out of their distresses.

Psalms 107:29 He caused the storm to be still, So that the waves of the sea were hushed.

Psalms 107:30 Then they were glad because they were quiet, So He guided them to their desired haven.

Psalms 107:31 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness, And for His wonders to the sons of men!

Psalms 107:32 Let them extol Him also in the congregation of the people, And praise Him at the seat of the elders.

Psalms 107:33 He changes rivers into a wilderness And springs of water into a thirsty ground;

Psalms 107:34 A fruitful land into a salt waste, Because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.

Psalms 107:35 He changes a wilderness into a pool of water And a dry land into springs of water;

Psalms 107:36 And there He makes the hungry to dwell, So that they may establish an inhabited city, Psalms 107:37 And sow fields and plant vineyards, And gather a fruitful harvest.

Psalms 107:38 Also He blesses them and they multiply greatly, And He does not let their cattle decrease.

Psalms 107:39 When they are diminished and bowed down Through oppression, misery and sorrow,

Psalms 107:40 He pours contempt upon princes And makes them wander in a pathless waste.

Psalms 107:41 But He sets the needy securely on high away from affliction, And makes [his] families like a flock.

Psalms 107:42 The upright see it and are glad; But all unrighteousness shuts its mouth.

Psalms 107:43 Who is wise? Let him give heed to these things, And consider the lovingkindnesses of the LORD.

Psalms 108:1 A Song, a Psalm of David. My heart is steadfast, O God; I will sing, I will sing praises, even with my soul.

Psalms 108:2 Awake, harp and lyre; I will awaken the dawn!

Psalms 108:3 I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the peoples, And I will sing praises to You among the nations.

Psalms 108:4 For Your lovingkindness is great above the heavens, And Your truth [reaches] to the skies.

Psalms 108:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, And Your glory above all the earth.

Psalms 108:6 That Your beloved may be delivered, Save with Your right hand, and answer me!

Psalms 108:7 God has spoken in His holiness: “I will exult, I will portion out Shechem And measure out the valley of Succoth.

Psalms 108:8 “Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the helmet of My head; Judah is My scepter.

Psalms 108:9 “Moab is My washbowl; Over Edom I shall throw My shoe; Over Philistia I will shout aloud.”

Psalms 108:10 Who will bring me into the besieged city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psalms 108:11 Have not You Yourself, O God, rejected us? And will You not go forth with our armies, O God?

Psalms 108:12 Oh give us help against the adversary, For deliverance by man is in vain.

Psalms 108:13 Through God we will do valiantly, And it is He who shall tread down our adversaries.

Psalms 109:1 For the choir director. A Psalm of David. O God of my praise, Do not be silent!

Psalms 109:2 For they have opened the wicked and deceitful mouth against me; They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

Psalms 109:3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, And fought against me without cause.

Psalms 109:4 In return for my love they act as my accusers; But I am [in] prayer.

Psalms 109:5 Thus they have repaid me evil for good And hatred for my love.

Psalms 109:6 Appoint a wicked man over him, And let an accuser stand at his right hand.

Psalms 109:7 When he is judged, let him come forth guilty, And let his prayer become sin.

Psalms 109:8 Let his days be few; Let another take his office.

Psalms 109:9 Let his children be fatherless And his wife a widow.

Psalms 109:10 Let his children wander about and beg; And let them seek [sustenance] far from their ruined homes.

Psalms 109:11 Let the creditor seize all that he has, And let strangers plunder the product of his labor.

Psalms 109:12 Let there be none to extend lovingkindness to him, Nor any to be gracious to his fatherless children.

Psalms 109:13 Let his posterity be cut off; In a following generation let their name be blotted out.

Psalms 109:14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD, And do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.

Psalms 109:15 Let them be before the LORD continually, That He may cut off their memory from the earth;

Psalms 109:16 Because he did not remember to show lovingkindness, But persecuted the afflicted and needy man, And the despondent in heart, to put [them] to death.

Psalms 109:17 He also loved cursing, so it came to him; And he did not delight in blessing, so it was far from him.

Psalms 109:18 But he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment, And it entered into his body like water And like oil into his bones.

Psalms 150:5 Praise Him with loud cymbals; Praise Him with resounding cymbals.

Psalms 150:6 Let everything that has breath praise the LORD. Praise the LORD!

Proverbs

1:1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

Proverbs 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction, To discern the sayings of understanding, Proverbs 1:3 To receive instruction in wise behavior, Righteousness, justice and equity;

Proverbs 1:4 To give prudence to the naive, To the youth knowledge and discretion,

Proverbs 1:5 A wise man will hear and increase in learning, And a man of understanding will acquire wise counsel,

Proverbs 1:6 To understand a proverb and a figure, The words of the wise and their riddles.

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; Fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Proverbs 1:8 Hear, my son, your father's instruction And do not forsake your mother's teaching;

Proverbs 1:9 Indeed, they are a graceful wreath to your head And ornaments about your neck.

Proverbs 1:10 My son, if sinners entice you, Do not consent.

Proverbs 1:11 If they say, "Come with us, Let us lie in wait for blood, Let us ambush the innocent without cause;

Proverbs 1:12 Let us swallow them alive like Sheol, Even whole, as those who go down to the pit;

Proverbs 1:13 We will find all [kinds] of precious wealth, We will fill our houses with spoil;

Proverbs 1:14 Throw in your lot with us, We shall all have one purse,"

Proverbs 1:15 My son, do not walk in the way with them. Keep your feet from their path,

Proverbs 1:16 For their feet run to evil And they hasten to shed blood.

Proverbs 1:17 Indeed, it is useless to spread the [baited] net In the sight of any bird;

Proverbs 1:18 But they lie in wait for their own blood; They ambush their own lives.

Proverbs 1:19 So are the ways of everyone who gains by violence; It takes away the life of its possessors.

Proverbs 1:20 Wisdom shouts in the street, She lifts her voice in the square;

Proverbs 1:21 At the head of the noisy [streets] she cries out; At the entrance of the gates in the city she utters her sayings:

Proverbs 1:22 "How long, O naive ones, will you love being simple-minded? And scoffers delight themselves in scoffing And fools hate knowledge?

Proverbs 1:23 “Turn to my reproof, Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you; I will make my words known to you.

Proverbs 1:24 “Because I called and you refused, I stretched out my hand and no one paid attention;

Proverbs 1:25 And you neglected all my counsel And did not want my reproof;

Proverbs 1:26 I will also laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your dread comes,

Proverbs 1:27 When your dread comes like a storm And your calamity comes like a whirlwind, When distress and anguish come upon you.

Proverbs 1:28 “Then they will call on me, but I will not answer; They will seek me diligently but they will not find me,

Proverbs 1:29 Because they hated knowledge And did not choose the fear of the LORD.

Proverbs 1:30 “They would not accept my counsel, They spurned all my reproof.

Proverbs 1:31 “So they shall eat of the fruit of their own way And be satiated with their own devices.

Proverbs 1:32 “For the waywardness of the naive will kill them, And the complacency of fools will destroy them.

Proverbs 1:33 “But he who listens to me shall live securely And will be at ease from the dread of evil.”

Proverbs 2:1 My son, if you will receive my words And treasure my commandments within you,

Proverbs 2:2 Make your ear attentive to wisdom, Incline your heart to understanding;

Proverbs 2:3 For if you cry for discernment, Lift your voice for understanding;

Proverbs 2:4 If you seek her as silver And search for her as for hidden treasures;

Proverbs 2:5 Then you will discern the fear of the LORD And discover the knowledge of God.

Proverbs 2:6 For the LORD gives wisdom; From His mouth [come] knowledge and understanding.

Proverbs 2:7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright; [He is] a shield to those who walk in integrity,

Proverbs 2:8 Guarding the paths of justice, And He preserves the way of His godly ones.

Proverbs 2:9 Then you will discern righteousness and justice And equity [and] every good course.

Proverbs 2:10 For wisdom will enter your heart And knowledge will be pleasant to your soul;

Proverbs 2:11 Discretion will guard you, Understanding will watch over you,

Proverbs 2:12 To deliver you from the way of evil, From the man who speaks perverse things;

Proverbs 2:13 From those who leave the paths of uprightness To walk in the ways of darkness;

Proverbs 2:14 Who delight in doing evil And rejoice in the perversity of evil;

Proverbs 2:15 Whose paths are crooked, And who are devious in their ways;

Proverbs 2:16 To deliver you from the strange woman, From the adulteress who flatters with her words;

Proverbs 2:17 That leaves the companion of her youth And forgets the covenant of her God;

Proverbs 2:18 For her house sinks down to death And her tracks [lead] to the dead;

Proverbs 2:19 None who go to her return again, Nor do they reach the paths of life.

Proverbs 2:20 So you will walk in the way of good men And keep to the paths of the righteous.

Proverbs 2:21 For the upright will live in the land And the blameless will remain in it;

Proverbs 2:22 But the wicked will be cut off from the land And the treacherous will be uprooted from it.

Proverbs 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, But let your heart keep my commandments;

Proverbs 3:2 For length of days and years of life And peace they will add to you.

Proverbs 3:3 Do not let kindness and truth leave you; Bind them around your neck, Write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 3:4 So you will find favor and good repute In the sight of God and man.

Proverbs 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart And do not lean on your own understanding.

Proverbs 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He will make your paths straight.

Proverbs 3:7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and turn away from evil.

Proverbs 3:8 It will be healing to your body And refreshment to your bones.

Proverbs 3:9 Honor the LORD from your wealth And from the first of all your produce;

Proverbs 3:10 So your barns will be filled with plenty And your vats will overflow with new wine.

Proverbs 3:11 My son, do not reject the discipline of the LORD Or loathe His reproof,

Proverbs 3:12 For whom the LORD loves He reproves, Even as a father [corrects] the son in whom he delights.

Proverbs 3:13 How blessed is the man who finds wisdom And the man who gains understanding.

Proverbs 3:14 For her profit is better than the profit of silver And her gain better than fine gold.

Proverbs 3:15 She is more precious than jewels; And nothing you desire compares with her.

Proverbs 3:16 Long life is in her right hand; In her left hand are riches and honor.

Proverbs 3:17 Her ways are pleasant ways And all her paths are peace.

Proverbs 3:18 She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her, And happy are all who hold her fast.

Proverbs 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth, By understanding He established the heavens.

Proverbs 3:20 By His knowledge the deeps were broken up And the skies drip with dew.

Proverbs 3:21 My son, let them not vanish from your sight; Keep sound wisdom and discretion,

Proverbs 3:22 So they will be life to your soul And adornment to your neck.

Proverbs 3:23 Then you will walk in your way securely And your foot will not stumble.

Proverbs 3:24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid; When you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

Proverbs 3:25 Do not be afraid of sudden fear Nor of the onslaught of the wicked when it comes;

Proverbs 3:26 For the LORD will be your confidence And will keep your foot from being caught.

Proverbs 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, When it is in your power to do [it].

Proverbs 3:28 Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come back, And tomorrow I will give [it],” When you have it with you.

Proverbs 3:29 Do not devise harm against your neighbor, While he lives securely beside you.

Proverbs 3:30 Do not contend with a man without cause, If he has done you no harm.

Proverbs 3:31 Do not envy a man of violence And do not choose any of his ways.

Proverbs 3:32 For the devious are an abomination to the LORD; But He is intimate with the upright.

Proverbs 3:33 The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked, But He blesses the dwelling of the righteous.

Proverbs 3:34 Though He scoffs at the scoffers, Yet He gives grace to the afflicted.

Proverbs 3:35 The wise will inherit honor, But fools display dishonor.

Proverbs 4:1 Hear, [O] sons, the instruction of a father, And give attention that you may gain understanding,

Proverbs 4:2 For I give you sound teaching; Do not abandon my instruction.

Proverbs 4:3 When I was a son to my father, Tender and the only son in the sight of my mother,

Proverbs 4:4 Then he taught me and said to me, “Let your heart hold fast my words; Keep my commandments and live;

Proverbs 4:5 Acquire wisdom! Acquire understanding! Do not forget nor turn away from the words of my mouth.

Proverbs 4:6 “Do not forsake her, and she will guard you; Love her, and she will watch over you.

Proverbs 4:7 “The beginning of wisdom [is]: Acquire wisdom; And with all your acquiring, get understanding.

Proverbs 4:8 “Prize her, and she will exalt you; She will honor you if you embrace her.

Proverbs 4:9 “She will place on your head a garland of grace; She will present you with a crown of beauty.”

Proverbs 4:10 Hear, my son, and accept my sayings And the years of your life will be many.

Proverbs 4:11 I have directed you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in upright paths.

Proverbs 4:12 When you walk, your steps will not be impeded; And if you run, you will not stumble.

Proverbs 4:13 Take hold of instruction; do not let go. Guard her, for she is your life.

Proverbs 4:14 Do not enter the path of the wicked And do not proceed in the way of evil men.

Proverbs 4:15 Avoid it, do not pass by it; Turn away from it and pass on.

Proverbs 4:16 For they cannot sleep unless they do evil; And they are robbed of sleep unless they make [someone] stumble.

Proverbs 4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness And drink the wine of violence.

Proverbs 4:18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, That shines brighter and brighter until the full day.

Proverbs 4:19 The way of the wicked is like darkness; They do not know over what they stumble.

Proverbs 4:20 My son, give attention to my words; Incline your ear to my sayings.

Proverbs 4:21 Do not let them depart from your sight; Keep them in the midst of your heart.

Proverbs 4:22 For they are life to those who find them And health to all their body.

Proverbs 4:23 Watch over your heart with all diligence, For from it [flow] the springs of life.

Proverbs 4:24 Put away from you a deceitful mouth And put devious speech far from you.

Proverbs 4:25 Let your eyes look directly ahead And let your gaze be fixed straight in front of you.

Proverbs 4:26 Watch the path of your feet And all your ways will be established.

Proverbs 4:27 Do not turn to the right nor to the left; Turn your foot from evil.

Proverbs 5:1 My son, give attention to my wisdom, Incline your ear to my understanding;

Proverbs 5:2 That you may observe discretion And your lips may reserve knowledge.

Proverbs 5:3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey And smoother than oil is her speech;

Proverbs 5:4 But in the end she is bitter as wormwood, Sharp as a two-edged sword.

Proverbs 5:5 Her feet go down to death, Her steps take hold of Sheol.

Proverbs 5:6 She does not ponder the path of life; Her ways are unstable, she does not know [it].

Proverbs 5:7 Now then, [my] sons, listen to me And do not depart from the words of my mouth.

Proverbs 5:8 Keep your way far from her And do not go near the door of her house,

Proverbs 5:9 Or you will give your vigor to others And your years to the cruel one;

Proverbs 5:10 And strangers will be filled with your strength And your hard-earned goods [will go] to the house of an alien;

Proverbs 5:11 And you groan at your final end, When your flesh and your body are consumed;

Proverbs 5:12 And you say, “How I have hated instruction! And my heart spurned reproof!

Proverbs 5:13 “I have not listened to the voice of my teachers, Nor inclined my ear to my instructors!

Proverbs 5:14 “I was almost in utter ruin In the midst of the assembly and congregation.”

Proverbs 5:15 Drink water from your own cistern And fresh water from your own well.

Proverbs 5:16 Should your springs be dispersed abroad, Streams of water in the streets?

Proverbs 5:17 Let them be yours alone And not for strangers with you.

Proverbs 5:18 Let your fountain be blessed, And rejoice in the wife of your youth.

Proverbs 5:19 [As] a loving hind and a graceful doe, Let her breasts satisfy you at all times; Be exhilarated always with her love.

Proverbs 5:20 For why should you, my son, be exhilarated with an adulteress And embrace the bosom of a foreigner?

Proverbs 5:21 For the ways of a man are before the eyes of the LORD, And He watches all his paths.

Proverbs 5:22 His own iniquities will capture the wicked, And he will be held with the cords of his sin.

Proverbs 5:23 He will die for lack of instruction, And in the greatness of his folly he will go astray.

Proverbs 6:1 My son, if you have become surety for your neighbor, Have given a pledge for a stranger,

Proverbs 6:2 [If] you have been snared with the words of your mouth, Have been caught with the words of your mouth,

Proverbs 6:3 Do this then, my son, and deliver yourself; Since you have come into the hand of your neighbor, Go, humble yourself, and importune your neighbor.

Proverbs 6:4 Give no sleep to your eyes, Nor slumber to your eyelids;

Proverbs 6:5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from [the hunter's] hand And like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

Proverbs 6:6 Go to the ant, O sluggard, Observe her ways and be wise,

Proverbs 6:7 Which, having no chief, Officer or ruler,

Proverbs 6:8 Prepares her food in the summer [And] gathers her provision in the harvest.

Proverbs 6:9 How long will you lie down, O sluggard? When will you arise from your sleep?

Proverbs 6:10 "A little sleep, a little slumber, A little folding of the hands to rest "—

Proverbs 6:11 Your poverty will come in like a vagabond And your need like an armed man.

Proverbs 6:12 A worthless person, a wicked man, Is the one who walks with a perverse mouth,

Proverbs 6:13 Who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet, Who points with his fingers;

Proverbs 6:14 Who [with] perversity in his heart continually devises evil, Who spreads strife.

Proverbs 6:15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly; Instantly he will be broken and there will be no healing.

Proverbs 6:16 There are six things which the LORD hates, Yes, seven which are an abomination to Him:

Proverbs 6:17 Haughty eyes, a lying tongue, And hands that shed innocent blood,

Proverbs 6:18 A heart that devises wicked plans, Feet that run rapidly to evil,

Proverbs 6:19 A false witness [who] utters lies, And one who spreads strife among brothers.

Proverbs 6:20 My son, observe the commandment of your father And do not forsake the teaching of your mother;

Proverbs 6:21 Bind them continually on your heart; Tie them around your neck.

Proverbs 6:22 When you walk about, they will guide you; When you sleep, they will watch over you; And when you awake, they will talk to you.

Proverbs 6:23 For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching is light; And reproofs for discipline are the way of life

Proverbs 6:24 To keep you from the evil woman, From the smooth tongue of the adulteress.

Proverbs 6:25 Do not desire her beauty in your heart, Nor let her capture you with her eyelids.

Proverbs 6:26 For on account of a harlot [one is reduced] to a loaf of bread, And an adulteress hunts for the precious life.

Proverbs 6:27 Can a man take fire in his bosom And his clothes not be burned?

Proverbs 6:28 Or can a man walk on hot coals And his feet not be scorched?

Proverbs 6:29 So is the one who goes in to his neighbor’s wife; Whoever touches her will not go unpunished.

Proverbs 6:30 Men do not despise a thief if he steals To satisfy himself when he is hungry;

Proverbs 6:31 But when he is found, he must repay sevenfold; He must give all the substance of his house.

Proverbs 6:32 The one who commits adultery with a woman is lacking sense; He who would destroy himself does it.

Proverbs 6:33 Wounds and disgrace he will find, And his reproach will not be blotted out.

Proverbs 6:34 For jealousy enrages a man, And he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

Proverbs 6:35 He will not accept any ransom, Nor will he be satisfied though you give many gifts.

Proverbs 7:1 My son, keep my words And treasure my commandments within you.

Proverbs 7:2 Keep my commandments and live, And my teaching as the apple of your eye.

Proverbs 7:3 Bind them on your fingers; Write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 7:4 Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,” And call understanding [your] intimate friend;

Proverbs 7:5 That they may keep you from an adulteress, From the foreigner who flatters with her words.

Proverbs 7:6 For at the window of my house I looked out through my lattice,

Proverbs 7:7 And I saw among the naive, [And] discerned among the youths A young man lacking sense,

Proverbs 7:8 Passing through the street near her corner; And he takes the way to her house,

Proverbs 7:9 In the twilight, in the evening, In the middle of the night and [in] the darkness.

Proverbs 7:10 And behold, a woman [comes] to meet him, Dressed as a harlot and cunning of heart.

Proverbs 7:11 She is boisterous and rebellious, Her feet do not remain at home;

Proverbs 7:12 [She is] now in the streets, now in the squares, And lurks by every corner.

Proverbs 7:13 So she seizes him and kisses him And with a brazen face she says to him:

Proverbs 7:14 “I was due to offer peace offerings; Today I have paid my vows.

Proverbs 7:15 “Therefore I have come out to meet you, To seek your presence earnestly, and I have found you.

Proverbs 7:16 “I have spread my couch with coverings, With colored linens of Egypt.

Proverbs 7:17 “I have sprinkled my bed With myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.

Proverbs 7:18 “Come, let us drink our fill of love until morning; Let us delight ourselves with caresses.

Proverbs 7:19 “For my husband is not at home, He has gone on a long journey;

Proverbs 7:20 He has taken a bag of money with him, At the full moon he will come home.”

Proverbs 7:21 With her many persuasions she entices him; With her flattering lips she seduces him.

Proverbs 7:22 Suddenly he follows her As an ox goes to the slaughter, Or as [one in] fetters to the discipline of a fool,

Proverbs 7:23 Until an arrow pierces through his liver; As a bird hastens to the snare, So he does not know that it [will cost him] his life.

Proverbs 7:24 Now therefore, [my] sons, listen to me, And pay attention to the words of my mouth.

Proverbs 7:25 Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways, Do not stray into her paths.

Proverbs 7:26 For many are the victims she has cast down, And numerous are all her slain.

Proverbs 7:27 Her house is the way to Sheol, Descending to the chambers of death.

Proverbs 8:1 Does not wisdom call, And understanding lift up her voice?

Proverbs 8:2 On top of the heights beside the way, Where the paths meet, she takes her stand;

Proverbs 8:3 Beside the gates, at the opening to the city, At the entrance of the doors, she cries out:

Proverbs 8:4 “To you, O men, I call, And my voice is to the sons of men.

Proverbs 8:5 “O naive ones, understand prudence; And, O fools, understand wisdom.

Proverbs 8:6 “Listen, for I will speak noble things; And the opening of my lips [will reveal] right things.

Proverbs 8:7 “For my mouth will utter truth; And wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

Proverbs 8:8 “All the utterances of my mouth are in righteousness; There is nothing crooked or perverted in them.

Proverbs 8:9 “They are all straightforward to him who understands, And right to those who find knowledge.

Proverbs 8:10 “Take my instruction and not silver, And knowledge rather than choicest gold.

Proverbs 8:11 “For wisdom is better than jewels; And all desirable things cannot compare with her.

Proverbs 8:12 “I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, And I find knowledge [and] discretion.

Proverbs 8:13 “The fear of the LORD is to hate evil; Pride and arrogance and the evil way And the perverted mouth, I hate.

Proverbs 8:14 “Counsel is mine and sound wisdom; I am understanding, power is mine.

Proverbs 8:15 “By me kings reign, And rulers decree justice.

Proverbs 8:16 “By me princes rule, and nobles, All who judge rightly.

Proverbs 8:17 “I love those who love me; And those who diligently seek me will find me.

Proverbs 8:18 “Riches and honor are with me, Enduring wealth and righteousness.

Proverbs 8:19 “My fruit is better than gold, even pure gold, And my yield [better] than choicest silver.

Proverbs 8:20 “I walk in the way of righteousness, In the midst of the paths of justice,

Proverbs 8:21 To endow those who love me with wealth, That I may fill their treasuries.

Proverbs 8:22 “The LORD possessed me at the beginning of His way, Before His works of old.

Proverbs 8:23 “From everlasting I was established, From the beginning, from the earliest times of the earth.

Proverbs 8:24 “When there were no depths I was brought forth, When there were no springs abounding with water.

Proverbs 8:25 “Before the mountains were settled, Before the hills I was brought forth;

Proverbs 8:26 While He had not yet made the earth and the fields, Nor the first dust of the world.

Proverbs 8:27 “When He established the heavens, I was there, When He inscribed a circle on the face of the deep,

Proverbs 8:28 When He made firm the skies above, When the springs of the deep became fixed,

Proverbs 8:29 When He set for the sea its boundary So that the water would not transgress His command, When He marked out the foundations of the earth;

Proverbs 8:30 Then I was beside Him, [as] a master workman; And I was daily [His] delight, Rejoicing always before Him,

Proverbs 8:31 Rejoicing in the world, His earth, And [having] my delight in the sons of men.

Proverbs 8:32 “Now therefore, [O] sons, listen to me, For blessed are they who keep my ways.

Proverbs 8:33 “Heed instruction and be wise, And do not neglect [it].

Proverbs 8:34 “Blessed is the man who listens to me, Watching daily at my gates, Waiting at my doorposts.

Proverbs 8:35 “For he who finds me finds life And obtains favor from the LORD.

Proverbs 8:36 “But he who sins against me injures himself; All those who hate me love death.”

Proverbs 9:1 Wisdom has built her house, She has hewn out her seven pillars;

Proverbs 9:2 She has prepared her food, she has mixed her wine; She has also set her table;

Proverbs 9:3 She has sent out her maidens, she calls From the tops of the heights of the city:

Proverbs 9:4 “Whoever is naive, let him turn in here!” To him who lacks understanding she says, Proverbs 9:5 “Come, eat of my food And drink of the wine I have mixed.

Proverbs 9:6 “Forsake [your] folly and live, And proceed in the way of understanding.”

Proverbs 28:14 How blessed is the man who fears always, But he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

Proverbs 28:15 [Like] a roaring lion and a rushing bear Is a wicked ruler over a poor people.

Proverbs 28:16 A leader who is a great oppressor lacks understanding, [But] he who hates unjust gain will prolong [his] days.

Proverbs 28:17 A man who is laden with the guilt of human blood Will be a fugitive until death; let no one support him.

Proverbs 28:18 He who walks blamelessly will be delivered, But he who is crooked will fall all at once.

Proverbs 28:19 He who tills his land will have plenty of food, But he who follows empty [pursuits] will have poverty in plenty.

Proverbs 28:20 A faithful man will abound with blessings, But he who makes haste to be rich will not go unpunished.

Proverbs 28:21 To show partiality is not good, Because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

Proverbs 28:22 A man with an evil eye hastens after wealth And does not know that want will come upon him.

Proverbs 28:23 He who rebukes a man will afterward find [more] favor Than he who flatters with the tongue.

Proverbs 28:24 He who robs his father or his mother And says, “It is not a transgression,” Is the companion of a man who destroys.

Proverbs 28:25 An arrogant man stirs up strife, But he who trusts in the LORD will prosper.

Proverbs 28:26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool, But he who walks wisely will be delivered.

Proverbs 28:27 He who gives to the poor will never want, But he who shuts his eyes will have many curses.

Proverbs 28:28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; But when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs 29:1 A man who hardens [his] neck after much reproof Will suddenly be broken beyond remedy.

Proverbs 29:2 When the righteous increase, the people rejoice, But when a wicked man rules, people groan.

Proverbs 29:3 A man who loves wisdom makes his father glad, But he who keeps company with harlots wastes [his] wealth.

Proverbs 29:4 The king gives stability to the land by justice, But a man who takes bribes overthrows it.

Proverbs 29:5 A man who flatters his neighbor Is spreading a net for his steps.

Proverbs 29:6 By transgression an evil man is ensnared, But the righteous sings and rejoices.

Proverbs 29:7 The righteous is concerned for the rights of the poor, The wicked does not understand [such] concern.

Proverbs 29:8 Scorners set a city aflame, But wise men turn away anger.

Proverbs 29:9 When a wise man has a controversy with a foolish man, The foolish man either rages or laughs, and there is no rest.

Proverbs 29:10 Men of bloodshed hate the blameless, But the upright are concerned for his life.

Proverbs 29:11 A fool always loses his temper, But a wise man holds it back.

Proverbs 29:12 If a ruler pays attention to falsehood, All his ministers [become] wicked.

Proverbs 29:13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

Proverbs 29:14 If a king judges the poor with truth, His throne will be established forever.

Proverbs 29:15 The rod and reproof give wisdom, But a child who gets his own way brings shame to his mother.

Proverbs 29:16 When the wicked increase, transgression increases; But the righteous will see their fall.

Proverbs 29:17 Correct your son, and he will give you comfort; He will also delight your soul.

Proverbs 29:18 Where there is no vision, the people are unrestrained, But happy is he who keeps the law.

Proverbs 29:19 A slave will not be instructed by words [alone]; For though he understands, there will be no response.

Proverbs 29:20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Proverbs 29:21 He who pampers his slave from childhood Will in the end find him to be a son.

Proverbs 29:22 An angry man stirs up strife, And a hot-tempered man abounds in transgression.

Proverbs 29:23 A man’s pride will bring him low, But a humble spirit will obtain honor.

Proverbs 29:24 He who is a partner with a thief hates his own life; He hears the oath but tells nothing.

Proverbs 29:25 The fear of man brings a snare, But he who trusts in the LORD will be exalted.

Proverbs 29:26 Many seek the ruler's favor, But justice for man [comes] from the LORD.

Proverbs 29:27 An unjust man is abominable to the righteous, And he who is upright in the way is abominable to the wicked.

Proverbs 30:1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle. The man declares to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:

Proverbs 30:2 Surely I am more stupid than any man, And I do not have the understanding of a man.

Proverbs 30:3 Neither have I learned wisdom, Nor do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.

Proverbs 30:4 Who has ascended into heaven and descended? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has wrapped the waters in His garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His name or His son's name? Surely you know!

Proverbs 30:5 Every word of God is tested; He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.

Proverbs 30:6 Do not add to His words Or He will reprove you, and you will be proved a liar.

Proverbs 30:7 Two things I asked of You, Do not refuse me before I die:

Proverbs 30:8 Keep deception and lies far from me, Give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me with the food that is my portion,

Proverbs 30:9 That I not be full and deny [You] and say, “Who is the LORD?” Or that I not be in want and steal, And profane the name of my God.

Proverbs 30:10 Do not slander a slave to his master, Or he will curse you and you will be found guilty.

Proverbs 30:11 There is a kind of [man] who curses his father And does not bless his mother.

Proverbs 30:12 There is a kind who is pure in his own eyes, Yet is not washed from his filthiness.

Proverbs 30:13 There is a kind— oh how lofty are his eyes! And his eyelids are raised [in arrogance].

Proverbs 30:14 There is a kind of [man] whose teeth are [like] swords And his jaw teeth [like] knives, To devour the afflicted from the earth And the needy from among men.

Proverbs 30:15 The leech has two daughters, “Give,” “Give.” There are three things that will not be satisfied, Four that will not say, “Enough”:

Proverbs 30:16 Sheol, and the barren womb, Earth that is never satisfied with water, And fire that never says, “Enough.”

Proverbs 30:17 The eye that mocks a father And scorns a mother, The ravens of the valley will pick it out, And the young eagles will eat it.

Proverbs 30:18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me, Four which I do not understand:

Proverbs 30:19 The way of an eagle in the sky, The way of a serpent on a rock, The way of a ship in the middle of the sea, And the way of a man with a maid.

Proverbs 30:20 This is the way of an adulterous woman: She eats and wipes her mouth, And says, “I have done no wrong.”

Proverbs 30:21 Under three things the earth quakes, And under four, it cannot bear up:

Proverbs 30:22 Under a slave when he becomes king, And a fool when he is satisfied with food,

Proverbs 30:23 Under an unloved woman when she gets a husband, And a maidservant when she supplants her mistress.

Proverbs 30:24 Four things are small on the earth, But they are exceedingly wise:

Proverbs 30:25 The ants are not a strong people, But they prepare their food in the summer;

Proverbs 30:26 The shephanim are not mighty people, Yet they make their houses in the rocks;

Proverbs 30:27 The locusts have no king, Yet all of them go out in ranks;

Proverbs 30:28 The lizard you may grasp with the hands, Yet it is in kings’ palaces.

Proverbs 30:29 There are three things which are stately in [their] march, Even four which are stately when they walk:

Proverbs 30:30 The lion [which] is mighty among beasts And does not retreat before any,

Proverbs 30:31 The strutting rooster, the male goat also, And a king [when his] army is with him.

Proverbs 30:32 If you have been foolish in exalting yourself Or if you have plotted [evil], [put your] hand on your mouth.

Proverbs 30:33 For the churning of milk produces butter, And pressing the nose brings forth blood; So the churning of anger produces strife.

Proverbs 31:1 The words of King Lemuel, the oracle which his mother taught him:

Proverbs 31:2 What, O my son? And what, O son of my womb? And what, O son of my vows?

Proverbs 31:3 Do not give your strength to women, Or your ways to that which destroys kings.

Proverbs 31:4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, It is not for kings to drink wine, Or for rulers to desire strong drink,

Proverbs 31:5 For they will drink and forget what is decreed, And pervert the rights of all the afflicted.

Proverbs 31:6 Give strong drink to him who is perishing, And wine to him whose life is bitter.

Proverbs 31:7 Let him drink and forget his poverty And remember his trouble no more.

Proverbs 31:8 Open your mouth for the mute, For the rights of all the unfortunate.

Proverbs 31:9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, And defend the rights of the afflicted and needy.

Proverbs 31:10 An excellent wife, who can find? For her worth is far above jewels.

Proverbs 31:11 The heart of her husband trusts in her, And he will have no lack of gain.

Proverbs 31:12 She does him good and not evil All the days of her life.

Proverbs 31:13 She looks for wool and flax And works with her hands in delight.

Proverbs 31:14 She is like merchant ships; She brings her food from afar.

Proverbs 31:15 She rises also while it is still night And gives food to her household And portions to her maidens.

Proverbs 31:16 She considers a field and buys it; From her earnings she plants a vineyard.

Proverbs 31:17 She girds herself with strength And makes her arms strong.

Proverbs 31:18 She senses that her gain is good; Her lamp does not go out at night.

Proverbs 31:19 She stretches out her hands to the distaff, And her hands grasp the spindle.

Proverbs 31:20 She extends her hand to the poor, And she stretches out her hands to the needy.

Proverbs 31:21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household, For all her household are clothed with scarlet.

Proverbs 31:22 She makes coverings for herself; Her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Proverbs 31:23 Her husband is known in the gates, When he sits among the elders of the land.

Proverbs 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells [them], And supplies belts to the tradesmen.

Proverbs 31:25 Strength and dignity are her clothing, And she smiles at the future.

Proverbs 31:26 She opens her mouth in wisdom, And the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

Proverbs 31:27 She looks well to the ways of her household, And does not eat the bread of idleness.

Proverbs 31:28 Her children rise up and bless her; Her husband [also], and he praises her, [saying]:

Proverbs 31:29 “Many daughters have done nobly, But you excel them all.”

Proverbs 31:30 Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, [But] a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised.

Proverbs 31:31 Give her the product of her hands, And let her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

1:1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:2 “Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher, “Vanity of vanities! All is vanity.”

Ecclesiastes 1:3 What advantage does man have in all his work Which he does under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 1:4 A generation goes and a generation comes, But the earth remains forever.

Ecclesiastes 1:5 Also, the sun rises and the sun sets; And hastening to its place it rises there [again].

Ecclesiastes 1:6 Blowing toward the south, Then turning toward the north, The wind continues swirling along; And on its circular courses the wind returns.

Ecclesiastes 1:7 All the rivers flow into the sea, Yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, There they flow again.

Ecclesiastes 1:8 All things are wearisome; Man is not able to tell [it]. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, Nor is the ear filled with hearing.

Ecclesiastes 1:9 That which has been is that which will be, And that which has been done is that which will be done. So there is nothing new under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 1:10 Is there anything of which one might say, “See this, it is new “? Already it has existed for ages Which were before us.

Ecclesiastes 1:11 There is no remembrance of earlier things; And also of the later things which will occur, There will be for them no remembrance Among those who will come later [still].

Ecclesiastes 1:12 I, the Preacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:13 And I set my mind to seek and explore by wisdom concerning all that has been done under heaven. [It] is a grievous task [which] God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with.

Ecclesiastes 1:14 I have seen all the works which have been done under the sun, and behold, all is vanity and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:15 What is crooked cannot be straightened and what is lacking cannot be counted.

Ecclesiastes 1:16 I said to myself, “Behold, I have magnified and increased wisdom more than all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my mind has observed a wealth of wisdom and knowledge.”

Ecclesiastes 1:17 And I set my mind to know wisdom and to know madness and folly; I realized that this also is striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:18 Because in much wisdom there is much grief, and increasing knowledge [results in] increasing pain.

Ecclesiastes 2:1 I said to myself, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure. So enjoy yourself.” And behold, it too was futility.

Ecclesiastes 2:2 I said of laughter, “It is madness,” and of pleasure, “What does it accomplish?”

Ecclesiastes 2:3 I explored with my mind [how] to stimulate my body with wine while my mind was guiding [me] wisely, and how to take hold of folly, until I could see what good there is for the sons of men to do under heaven the few years of their lives.

Ecclesiastes 2:4 I enlarged my works: I built houses for myself, I planted vineyards for myself;

Ecclesiastes 2:5 I made gardens and parks for myself and I planted in them all kinds of fruit trees;

Ecclesiastes 2:6 I made ponds of water for myself from which to irrigate a forest of growing trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:7 I bought male and female slaves and I had homeborn slaves. Also I possessed flocks and herds larger than all who preceded me in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 2:8 Also, I collected for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces. I provided for myself male and female singers and the pleasures of men— many concubines.

Ecclesiastes 2:9 Then I became great and increased more than all who preceded me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also stood by me.

Ecclesiastes 2:10 All that my eyes desired I did not refuse them. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, for my heart was pleased because of all my labor and this was my reward for all my labor.

Ecclesiastes 2:11 Thus I considered all my activities which my hands had done and the labor which I had exerted, and behold all was vanity and striving after wind and there was no profit under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:12 So I turned to consider wisdom, madness and folly; for what [will] the man [do] who will come after the king [except] what has already been done?

Ecclesiastes 2:13 And I saw that wisdom excels folly as light excels darkness.

Ecclesiastes 2:14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. And yet I know that one fate befalls them both.

Ecclesiastes 2:15 Then I said to myself, "As is the fate of the fool, it will also befall me. Why then have I been extremely wise?" So I said to myself, "This too is vanity."

Ecclesiastes 2:16 For there is no lasting remembrance of the wise man [as] with the fool, inasmuch as [in] the coming days all will be forgotten. And how the wise man and the fool alike die!

Ecclesiastes 2:17 So I hated life, for the work which had been done under the sun was grievous to me; because everything is futility and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 2:18 Thus I hated all the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun, for I must leave it to the man who will come after me.

Ecclesiastes 2:19 And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have control over all the fruit of my labor for which I have labored by acting wisely under the sun. This too is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:20 Therefore I completely despaired of all the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:21 When there is a man who has labored with wisdom, knowledge and skill, then he gives his legacy to one who has not labored with them. This too is vanity and a great evil.

Ecclesiastes 2:22 For what does a man get in all his labor and in his striving with which he labors under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 2:23 Because all his days his task is painful and grievous; even at night his mind does not rest. This too is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:24 There is nothing better for a man [than] to eat and drink and tell himself that his labor is good. This also I have seen that it is from the hand of God.

Ecclesiastes 2:25 For who can eat and who can have enjoyment without Him?

Ecclesiastes 2:26 For to a person who is good in His sight He has given wisdom and knowledge and joy, while to the sinner He has given the task of gathering and collecting so that he may give to one who is good in God’s sight. This too is vanity and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 There is an appointed time for everything. And there is a time for every event under heaven—

Ecclesiastes 3:2 A time to give birth and a time to die; A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted.

Ecclesiastes 3:3 A time to kill and a time to heal; A time to tear down and a time to build up.

Ecclesiastes 3:4 A time to weep and a time to laugh; A time to mourn and a time to dance.

Ecclesiastes 3:5 A time to throw stones and a time to gather stones; A time to embrace and a time to shun embracing.

Ecclesiastes 3:6 A time to search and a time to give up as lost; A time to keep and a time to throw away.

Ecclesiastes 3:7 A time to tear apart and a time to sew together; A time to be silent and a time to speak.

Ecclesiastes 3:8 A time to love and a time to hate; A time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:9 What profit is there to the worker from that in which he toils?

Ecclesiastes 3:10 I have seen the task which God has given the sons of men with which to occupy themselves.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 He has made everything appropriate in its time. He has also set eternity in their heart, yet so that man will not find out the work which God has done from the beginning even to the end.

Ecclesiastes 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good in one’s lifetime;

Ecclesiastes 3:13 moreover, that every man who eats and drinks sees good in all his labor— it is the gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 I know that everything God does will remain forever; there is nothing to add to it and there is nothing to take from it, for God has [so] worked that men should fear Him.

Ecclesiastes 3:15 That which is has been already and that which will be has already been, for God seeks what has passed by.

Ecclesiastes 3:16 Furthermore, I have seen under the sun [that] in the place of justice there is wickedness and in the place of righteousness there is wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 I said to myself, “God will judge both the righteous man and the wicked man,” for a time for every matter and for every deed is there.

Ecclesiastes 3:18 I said to myself concerning the sons of men, “God has surely tested them in order for them to see that they are but beasts.”

Ecclesiastes 3:19 For the fate of the sons of men and the fate of beasts is the same. As one dies so dies the other; indeed, they all have the same breath and there is no advantage for man over beast, for all is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 3:20 All go to the same place. All came from the dust and all return to the dust.

Ecclesiastes 3:21 Who knows that the breath of man ascends upward and the breath of the beast descends downward to the earth?

Ecclesiastes 3:22 I have seen that nothing is better than that man should be happy in his activities, for that is his lot. For who will bring him to see what will occur after him?

Ecclesiastes 4:1 Then I looked again at all the acts of oppression which were being done under the sun. And behold [I saw] the tears of the oppressed and [that] they had no one to comfort [them]; and on the side of their oppressors was power, but they had no one to comfort [them].

Ecclesiastes 4:2 So I congratulated the dead who are already dead more than the living who are still living.

Ecclesiastes 4:3 But better [off] than both of them is the one who has never existed, who has never seen the evil activity that is done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 4:4 I have seen that every labor and every skill which is done is [the result of] rivalry between a man and his neighbor. This too is vanity and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:5 The fool folds his hands and consumes his own flesh.

Ecclesiastes 4:6 One hand full of rest is better than two fists full of labor and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:7 Then I looked again at vanity under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 4:8 There was a certain man without a dependent, having neither a son nor a brother, yet there was no end to all his labor. Indeed, his eyes were not satisfied with riches [and he never asked], “And for whom am I laboring and depriving myself of pleasure?” This too is vanity and it is a grievous task.

Ecclesiastes 4:9 Two are better than one because they have a good return for their labor.

Ecclesiastes 4:10 For if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is not another to lift him up.

Ecclesiastes 4:11 Furthermore, if two lie down together they keep warm, but how can one be warm [alone]?

Ecclesiastes 4:12 And if one can overpower him who is alone, two can resist him. A cord of three [strands] is not quickly torn apart.

Ecclesiastes 4:13 A poor yet wise lad is better than an old and foolish king who no longer knows [how] to receive instruction.

Ecclesiastes 4:14 For he has come out of prison to become king, even though he was born poor in his kingdom.

Ecclesiastes 4:15 I have seen all the living under the sun throng to the side of the second lad who replaces him.

Ecclesiastes 4:16 There is no end to all the people, to all who were before them, and even the ones who will come later will not be happy with him, for this too is vanity and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Guard your steps as you go to the house of God and draw near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools; for they do not know they are doing evil.

Ecclesiastes 5:2 Do not be hasty in word or impulsive in thought to bring up a matter in the presence of God. For God is in heaven and you are on the earth; therefore let your words be few.

Ecclesiastes 5:3 For the dream comes through much effort and the voice of a fool through many words.

Ecclesiastes 5:4 When you make a vow to God, do not be late in paying it; for [He takes] no delight in fools. Pay what you vow!

Ecclesiastes 5:5 It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay.

Ecclesiastes 5:6 Do not let your speech cause you to sin and do not say in the presence of the messenger [of God] that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry on account of your voice and destroy the work of your hands?

Ecclesiastes 5:7 For in many dreams and in many words there is emptiness. Rather, fear God.

Ecclesiastes 5:8 If you see oppression of the poor and denial of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be shocked at the sight; for one official watches over another official, and there are higher officials over them.

Ecclesiastes 5:9 After all, a king who cultivates the field is an advantage to the land.

Ecclesiastes 5:10 He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance [with its] income. This too is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 5:11 When good things increase, those who consume them increase. So what is the advantage to their owners except to look on?

Ecclesiastes 5:12 The sleep of the working man is pleasant, whether he eats little or much; but the full stomach of the rich man does not allow him to sleep.

Ecclesiastes 5:13 There is a grievous evil [which] I have seen under the sun: riches being hoarded by their owner to his hurt.

Ecclesiastes 5:14 When those riches were lost through a bad investment and he had fathered a son, then there was nothing to support him.

Ecclesiastes 5:15 As he had come naked from his mother's womb, so will he return as he came. He will take nothing from the fruit of his labor that he can carry in his hand.

Ecclesiastes 5:16 This also is a grievous evil— exactly as a man is born, thus will he die. So what is the advantage to him who toils for the wind?

Ecclesiastes 5:17 Throughout his life [he] also eats in darkness with great vexation, sickness and anger.

Ecclesiastes 5:18 Here is what I have seen to be good and fitting: to eat, to drink and enjoy oneself in all one's labor in which he toils under the sun [during] the few years of his life which God has given him; for this is his reward.

Ecclesiastes 5:19 Furthermore, as for every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, He has also empowered him to eat from them and to receive his reward and rejoice in his labor; this is the gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 5:20 For he will not often consider the years of his life, because God keeps him occupied with the gladness of his heart.

Ecclesiastes 6:1 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun and it is prevalent among men—

Ecclesiastes 6:2 a man to whom God has given riches and wealth and honor so that his soul lacks nothing of all that he desires; yet God has not empowered him to eat from them, for a foreigner enjoys them. This is vanity and a severe affliction.

Ecclesiastes 6:3 If a man fathers a hundred [children] and lives many years, however many they be, but his soul is not satisfied with good things and he does not even have a [proper] burial, [then] I say, "Better the miscarriage than he,

Ecclesiastes 6:4 for it comes in futility and goes into obscurity; and its name is covered in obscurity.

Ecclesiastes 6:5 “It never sees the sun and it never knows [anything]; it is better off than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:6 “Even if the [other] man lives a thousand years twice and does not enjoy good things— do not all go to one place?”

Ecclesiastes 6:7 All a man’s labor is for his mouth and yet the appetite is not satisfied.

Ecclesiastes 6:8 For what advantage does the wise man have over the fool? What [advantage] does the poor man have, knowing [how] to walk before the living?

Ecclesiastes 6:9 What the eyes see is better than what the soul desires. This too is futility and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 6:10 Whatever exists has already been named, and it is known what man is; for he cannot dispute with him who is stronger than he is.

Ecclesiastes 6:11 For there are many words which increase futility. What [then] is the advantage to a man?

Ecclesiastes 6:12 For who knows what is good for a man during [his] lifetime, [during] the few years of his futile life? He will spend them like a shadow. For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 7:1 A good name is better than a good ointment, And the day of [one’s] death is better than the day of one’s birth.

Ecclesiastes 7:2 It is better to go to a house of mourning Than to go to a house of feasting, Because that is the end of every man, And the living takes [it] to heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter, For when a face is sad a heart may be happy.

Ecclesiastes 7:4 The mind of the wise is in the house of mourning, While the mind of fools is in the house of pleasure.

Ecclesiastes 7:5 It is better to listen to the rebuke of a wise man Than for one to listen to the song of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:6 For as the crackling of thorn bushes under a pot, So is the laughter of the fool; And this too is futility.

Ecclesiastes 7:7 For oppression makes a wise man mad, And a bribe corrupts the heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:8 The end of a matter is better than its beginning; Patience of spirit is better than haughtiness of spirit.

Ecclesiastes 7:9 Do not be eager in your heart to be angry, For anger resides in the bosom of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:10 Do not say, “Why is it that the former days were better than these?” For it is not from wisdom that you ask about this.

Ecclesiastes 7:11 Wisdom along with an inheritance is good And an advantage to those who see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 7:12 For wisdom is protection [just as] money is protection, But the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the lives of its possessors.

Ecclesiastes 7:13 Consider the work of God, For who is able to straighten what He has bent?

Ecclesiastes 7:14 In the day of prosperity be happy, But in the day of adversity consider— God has made the one as well as the other So that man will not discover anything [that will be] after him.

Ecclesiastes 7:15 I have seen everything during my lifetime of futility; there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness and there is a wicked man who prolongs [his life] in his wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 7:16 Do not be excessively righteous and do not be overly wise. Why should you ruin yourself?

Ecclesiastes 7:17 Do not be excessively wicked and do not be a fool. Why should you die before your time?

Ecclesiastes 7:18 It is good that you grasp one thing and also not let go of the other; for the one who fears God comes forth with both of them.

Ecclesiastes 7:19 Wisdom strengthens a wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city.

Ecclesiastes 7:20 Indeed, there is not a righteous man on earth who [continually] does good and who never sins.

Ecclesiastes 7:21 Also, do not take seriously all words which are spoken, so that you will not hear your servant cursing you.

Ecclesiastes 7:22 For you also have realized that you likewise have many times cursed others.

Ecclesiastes 7:23 I tested all this with wisdom, [and] I said, “I will be wise,” but it was far from me.

Ecclesiastes 7:24 What has been is remote and exceedingly mysterious. Who can discover it?

Ecclesiastes 7:25 I directed my mind to know, to investigate and to seek wisdom and an explanation, and to know the evil of folly and the foolishness of madness.

Ecclesiastes 7:26 And I discovered more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, whose hands are chains. One who is pleasing to God will escape from her, but the sinner will be captured by her.

Ecclesiastes 7:27 “Behold, I have discovered this,” says the Preacher, “[adding] one thing to another to find an explanation,

Ecclesiastes 7:28 which I am still seeking but have not found. I have found one man among a thousand, but I have not found a woman among all these.

Ecclesiastes 7:29 “Behold, I have found only this, that God made men upright, but they have sought out many devices.”

Ecclesiastes 8:1 Who is like the wise man and who knows the interpretation of a matter? A man’s wisdom illumines him and causes his stern face to beam.

Ecclesiastes 8:2 I say, “Keep the command of the king because of the oath before God.

Ecclesiastes 8:3 “Do not be in a hurry to leave him. Do not join in an evil matter, for he will do whatever he pleases.”

Ecclesiastes 8:4 Since the word of the king is authoritative, who will say to him, “What are you doing?”

Ecclesiastes 8:5 He who keeps a [royal] command experiences no trouble, for a wise heart knows the proper time and procedure.

Ecclesiastes 8:6 For there is a proper time and procedure for every delight, though a man’s trouble is heavy upon him.

Ecclesiastes 8:7 If no one knows what will happen, who can tell him when it will happen?

Ecclesiastes 8:8 No man has authority to restrain the wind with the wind, or authority over the day of death; and there is no discharge in the time of war, and evil will not deliver those who practice it.

Ecclesiastes 8:9 All this I have seen and applied my mind to every deed that has been done under the sun wherein a man has exercised authority over [another] man to his hurt.

Ecclesiastes 8:10 So then, I have seen the wicked buried, those who used to go in and out from the holy place, and they are [soon] forgotten in the city where they did thus. This too is futility.

Ecclesiastes 8:11 Because the sentence against an evil deed is not executed quickly, therefore the hearts of the sons of men among them are given fully to do evil.

Ecclesiastes 8:12 Although a sinner does evil a hundred [times] and may lengthen his [life], still I know that it will be well for those who fear God, who fear Him openly.

Ecclesiastes 8:13 But it will not be well for the evil man and he will not lengthen his days like a shadow, because he does not fear God.

Ecclesiastes 8:14 There is futility which is done on the earth, that is, there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked. On the other hand, there are evil men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous. I say that this too is futility.

Ecclesiastes 8:15 So I commended pleasure, for there is nothing good for a man under the sun except to eat and to drink and to be merry, and this will stand by him in his toils [throughout] the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 8:16 When I gave my heart to know wisdom and to see the task which has been done on the earth (even though one should never sleep day or night),

Ecclesiastes 8:17 and I saw every work of God, [I concluded] that man cannot discover the work which has been done under the sun. Even though man should seek laboriously, he will not discover; and though the wise man should say, “I know,” he cannot discover.

Ecclesiastes 9:1 For I have taken all this to my heart and explain it that righteous men, wise men, and their deeds are in the hand of God. Man does not know whether [it will be] love or hatred; anything awaits him.

Ecclesiastes 9:2 It is the same for all. There is one fate for the righteous and for the wicked; for the good, for the clean and for the unclean; for the man who offers a sacrifice and for the one who does not sacrifice. As the good man is, so is the sinner; as the swearer is, so is the one who is afraid to swear.

Ecclesiastes 9:3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one fate for all men. Furthermore, the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil and insanity is in their hearts throughout their lives. Afterwards they [go] to the dead.

Ecclesiastes 9:4 For whoever is joined with all the living, there is hope; surely a live dog is better than a dead lion.

Ecclesiastes 9:5 For the living know they will die; but the dead do not know anything, nor have they any longer a reward, for their memory is forgotten.

Ecclesiastes 9:6 Indeed their love, their hate and their zeal have already perished, and they will no longer have a share in all that is done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:7 Go [then], eat your bread in happiness and drink your wine with a cheerful heart; for God has already approved your works.

Ecclesiastes 9:8 Let your clothes be white all the time, and let not oil be lacking on your head.

Ecclesiastes 9:9 Enjoy life with the woman whom you love all the days of your fleeting life which He has given to you under the sun; for this is your reward in life and in your toil in which you have labored under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do [it] with [all] your might; for there is no activity or planning or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol where you are going.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 I again saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift and the battle is not to the warriors, and neither is bread to the wise nor wealth to the discerning nor favor to men of ability; for time and chance overtake them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:12 Moreover, man does not know his time: like fish caught in a treacherous net and birds trapped in a snare, so the sons of men are ensnared at an evil time when it suddenly falls on them.

Ecclesiastes 9:13 Also this I came to see as wisdom under the sun, and it impressed me.

Ecclesiastes 9:14 There was a small city with few men in it and a great king came to it, surrounded it and constructed large siegeworks against it.

Ecclesiastes 9:15 But there was found in it a poor wise man and he delivered the city by his wisdom. Yet no one remembered that poor man.

Ecclesiastes 9:16 So I said, “Wisdom is better than strength.” But the wisdom of the poor man is despised and his words are not heeded.

Ecclesiastes 9:17 The words of the wise heard in quietness are [better] than the shouting of a ruler among fools.

Ecclesiastes 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

Ecclesiastes 10:1 Dead flies make a perfumer’s oil stink, so a little foolishness is weightier than wisdom [and] honor.

Ecclesiastes 10:2 A wise man’s heart [directs him] toward the right, but the foolish man’s heart [directs him] toward the left.

Ecclesiastes 10:3 Even when the fool walks along the road, his sense is lacking and he demonstrates to everyone [that] he is a fool.

Ecclesiastes 10:4 If the ruler’s temper rises against you, do not abandon your position, because composure allays great offenses.

Ecclesiastes 10:5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, like an error which goes forth from the ruler—

Ecclesiastes 10:6 folly is set in many exalted places while rich men sit in humble places.

Ecclesiastes 10:7 I have seen slaves [riding] on horses and princes walking like slaves on the land.

Ecclesiastes 10:8 He who digs a pit may fall into it, and a serpent may bite him who breaks through a wall.

Ecclesiastes 10:9 He who quarries stones may be hurt by them, and he who splits logs may be endangered by them.

Ecclesiastes 10:10 If the axe is dull and he does not sharpen [its] edge, then he must exert more strength. Wisdom has the advantage of giving success.

Ecclesiastes 10:11 If the serpent bites before being charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.

Ecclesiastes 10:12 Words from the mouth of a wise man are gracious, while the lips of a fool consume him;

Ecclesiastes 10:13 the beginning of his talking is folly and the end of it is wicked madness.

Ecclesiastes 10:14 Yet the fool multiplies words. No man knows what will happen, and who can tell him what will come after him?

Ecclesiastes 10:15 The toil of a fool [so] wearies him that he does not [even] know how to go to a city.

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Woe to you, O land, whose king is a lad and whose princes feast in the morning.

Ecclesiastes 10:17 Blessed are you, O land, whose king is of nobility and whose princes eat at the appropriate time— for strength and not for drunkenness.

Ecclesiastes 10:18 Through indolence the rafters sag, and through slackness the house leaks.

Ecclesiastes 10:19 [Men] prepare a meal for enjoyment, and wine makes life merry, and money is the answer to everything.

Ecclesiastes 10:20 Furthermore, in your bedchamber do not curse a king, and in your sleeping rooms do not curse a rich man, for a bird of the heavens will carry the sound and the winged creature will make the matter known.

Ecclesiastes 11:1 Cast your bread on the surface of the waters, for you will find it after many days.

Ecclesiastes 11:2 Divide your portion to seven, or even to eight, for you do not know what misfortune may occur on the earth.

Ecclesiastes 11:3 If the clouds are full, they pour out rain upon the earth; and whether a tree falls toward the south or toward the north, wherever the tree falls, there it lies.

Ecclesiastes 11:4 He who watches the wind will not sow and he who looks at the clouds will not reap.

Ecclesiastes 11:5 Just as you do not know the path of the wind and how bones [are formed] in the womb of the pregnant woman, so you do not know the activity of God who makes all things.

Ecclesiastes 11:6 Sow your seed in the morning and do not be idle in the evening, for you do not know whether morning or evening sowing will succeed, or whether both of them alike will be good.

Ecclesiastes 11:7 The light is pleasant, and [it is] good for the eyes to see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 11:8 Indeed, if a man should live many years, let him rejoice in them all, and let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many. Everything that is to come [will be] futility.

Ecclesiastes 11:9 Rejoice, young man, during your childhood, and let your heart be pleasant during the days of young manhood. And follow the impulses of your heart and the desires of your eyes. Yet know that God will bring you to judgment for all these things.

Ecclesiastes 11:10 So, remove grief and anger from your heart and put away pain from your body, because childhood and the prime of life are fleeting.

Ecclesiastes 12:1 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near when you will say, “I have no delight in them”;

Ecclesiastes 12:2 before the sun and the light, the moon and the stars are darkened, and clouds return after the rain;

Ecclesiastes 12:3 in the day that the watchmen of the house tremble, and mighty men stoop, the grinding ones stand idle because they are few, and those who look through windows grow dim;

Ecclesiastes 12:4 and the doors on the street are shut as the sound of the grinding mill is low, and one will arise at the sound of the bird, and all the daughters of song will sing softly.

Ecclesiastes 12:5 Furthermore, men are afraid of a high place and of terrors on the road; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags himself along, and the caperberry is ineffective. For man goes to his eternal home while mourners go about in the street.

Ecclesiastes 12:6 [Remember Him] before the silver cord is broken and the golden bowl is crushed, the pitcher by the well is shattered and the wheel at the cistern is crushed;

Ecclesiastes 12:7 then the dust will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes 12:8 “Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher, “all is vanity!”

Ecclesiastes 12:9 In addition to being a wise man, the Preacher also taught the people knowledge; and he pondered, searched out and arranged many proverbs.

Ecclesiastes 12:10 The Preacher sought to find delightful words and to write words of truth correctly.

Ecclesiastes 12:11 The words of wise men are like goads, and masters of [these] collections are like well-driven nails; they are given by one Shepherd.

Ecclesiastes 12:12 But beyond this, my son, be warned: the writing of many books is endless, and excessive devotion [to books] is wearying to the body.

Ecclesiastes 12:13 The conclusion, when all has been heard, [is]: fear God and keep His commandments, because this [applies to] every person.

Ecclesiastes 12:14 For God will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil.

Song of Solomon

1:1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

Song of Solomon 1:2 "May he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth! For your love is better than wine.

Song of Solomon 1:3 "Your oils have a pleasing fragrance, Your name is [like] purified oil; Therefore the maidens love you.

Song of Solomon 1:4 "Draw me after you [and] let us run [together]! The king has brought me into his chambers." "We will rejoice in you and be glad; We will extol your love more than wine. Rightly do they love you."

Song of Solomon 1:5 "I am black but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, Like the tents of Kedar, Like the curtains of Solomon.

Song of Solomon 1:6 "Do not stare at me because I am swarthy, For the sun has burned me. My mother's sons were angry with me; They made me caretaker of the vineyards, [But] I have not taken care of my own vineyard.

Song of Solomon 1:7 "Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, Where do you pasture [your flock], Where do you make [it] lie down at noon? For why should I be like one who veils herself Beside the flocks of your companions?"

Song of Solomon 1:8 "If you yourself do not know, Most beautiful among women, Go forth on the trail of the flock And pasture your young goats By the tents of the shepherds.

Song of Solomon 1:9 "To me, my darling, you are like My mare among the chariots of Pharaoh.

Song of Solomon 1:10 "Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, Your neck with strings of beads."

Song of Solomon 1:11 "We will make for you ornaments of gold With beads of silver."

Song of Solomon 1:12 "While the king was at his table, My perfume gave forth its fragrance.

Song of Solomon 1:13 "My beloved is to me a pouch of myrrh Which lies all night between my breasts.

Song of Solomon 1:14 "My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms In the vineyards of Engedi."

Song of Solomon 1:15 "How beautiful you are, my darling, How beautiful you are! Your eyes are [like] doves."

Song of Solomon 1:16 "How handsome you are, my beloved, [And] so pleasant! Indeed, our couch is luxuriant!

Song of Solomon 1:17 “The beams of our houses are cedars, Our rafters, cypresses.

Song of Solomon 2:1 “I am the rose of Sharon, The lily of the valleys.”

Song of Solomon 2:2 “Like a lily among the thorns, So is my darling among the maidens.”

Song of Solomon 2:3 “Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, So is my beloved among the young men. In his shade I took great delight and sat down, And his fruit was sweet to my taste.

Song of Solomon 2:4 “He has brought me to [his] banquet hall, And his banner over me is love.

Song of Solomon 2:5 “Sustain me with raisin cakes, Refresh me with apples, Because I am lovesick.

Song of Solomon 2:6 “Let his left hand be under my head And his right hand embrace me.”

Song of Solomon 2:7 “I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the hinds of the field, That you do not arouse or awaken [my] love Until she pleases.”

Song of Solomon 2:8 “Listen! My beloved! Behold, he is coming, Climbing on the mountains, Leaping on the hills!

Song of Solomon 2:9 “My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Behold, he is standing behind our wall, He is looking through the windows, He is peering through the lattice.

Song of Solomon 2:10 “My beloved responded and said to me, ‘Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, And come along.

Song of Solomon 2:11 ‘For behold, the winter is past, The rain is over [and] gone.

Song of Solomon 2:12 ‘The flowers have [already] appeared in the land; The time has arrived for pruning [the vines], And the voice of the turtledove has been heard in our land.

Song of Solomon 2:13 ‘The fig tree has ripened its figs, And the vines in blossom have given forth [their] fragrance. Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, And come along!’“

Song of Solomon 2:14 “O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, In the secret place of the steep pathway, Let me see your form, Let me hear your voice; For your voice is sweet, And your form is lovely.”

Song of Solomon 2:15 “Catch the foxes for us, The little foxes that are ruining the vineyards, While our vineyards are in blossom.”

Song of Solomon 2:16 “My beloved is mine, and I am his; He pastures [his flock] among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 2:17 “Until the cool of the day when the shadows flee away, Turn, my beloved, and be like a gazelle Or a young stag on the mountains of Bether.”

Song of Solomon 3:1 “On my bed night after night I sought him Whom my soul loves; I sought him but did not find him.

Song of Solomon 3:2 ‘I must arise now and go about the city; In the streets and in the squares I must seek him whom my soul loves.’ I sought him but did not find him.

Song of Solomon 3:3 “The watchmen who make the rounds in the city found me, [And I said], ‘Have you seen him whom my soul loves?’

Song of Solomon 3:4 “Scarcely had I left them When I found him whom my soul loves; I held on to him and would not let him go Until I had brought him to my mother’s house, And into the room of her who conceived me.”

Song of Solomon 3:5 “I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the hinds of the field, That you will not arouse or awaken [my] love Until she pleases.”

Song of Solomon 3:6 “What is this coming up from the wilderness Like columns of smoke, Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, With all scented powders of the merchant?

Song of Solomon 3:7 “Behold, it is the [traveling] couch of Solomon; Sixty mighty men around it, Of the mighty men of Israel.

Song of Solomon 3:8 “All of them are wielders of the sword, Expert in war; Each man has his sword at his side, [Guarding] against the terrors of the night.

Song of Solomon 3:9 “King Solomon has made for himself a sedan chair From the timber of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 3:10 “He made its posts of silver, Its back of gold [And] its seat of purple fabric, [With] its interior lovingly fitted out By the daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 3:11 “Go forth, O daughters of Zion, And gaze on King Solomon with the crown With which his mother has crowned him On the day of his wedding, And on the day of his gladness of heart.”

Song of Solomon 4:1 “How beautiful you are, my darling, How beautiful you are! Your eyes are [like] doves behind your veil; Your hair is like a flock of goats That have descended from Mount Gilead.

Song of Solomon 4:2 “Your teeth are like a flock of [newly] shorn ewes Which have come up from [their] washing, All of which bear twins, And not one among them has lost her young.

Song of Solomon 4:3 “Your lips are like a scarlet thread, And your mouth is lovely. Your temples are like a slice of a pomegranate Behind your veil.

Song of Solomon 4:4 “Your neck is like the tower of David, Built with rows of stones On which are hung a thousand shields, All the round shields of the mighty men.

Song of Solomon 4:5 “Your two breasts are like two fawns, Twins of a gazelle Which feed among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 4:6 “Until the cool of the day When the shadows flee away, I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh And to the hill of frankincense.

Song of Solomon 4:7 “You are altogether beautiful, my darling, And there is no blemish in you.

Song of Solomon 4:8 “[Come] with me from Lebanon, [my] bride, May you come with me from Lebanon. Journey down from the summit of Amana, From the summit of Senir and Hermon, From the dens of lions, From the mountains of leopards.

Song of Solomon 4:9 “You have made my heart beat faster, my sister, [my] bride; You have made my heart beat faster with a single [glance] of your eyes, With a single strand of your necklace.

Song of Solomon 4:10 “How beautiful is your love, my sister, [my] bride! How much better is your love than wine, And the fragrance of your oils Than all [kinds] of spices!

Song of Solomon 4:11 “Your lips, [my] bride, drip honey; Honey and milk are under your tongue, And the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12 “A garden locked is my sister, [my] bride, A rock garden locked, a spring sealed up.

Song of Solomon 4:13 “Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates With choice fruits, henna with nard plants,

Song of Solomon 4:14 Nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, With all the trees of frankincense, Myrrh and aloes, along with all the finest spices.

Song of Solomon 4:15 “[You are] a garden spring, A well of fresh water, And streams [flowing] from Lebanon.”

Song of Solomon 4:16 “Awake, O north [wind], And come, [wind of] the south; Make my garden breathe out [fragrance], Let its spices be wafted abroad. May my beloved come into his garden And eat its choice fruits!”

Song of Solomon 5:1 “I have come into my garden, my sister, [my] bride; I have gathered my myrrh along with my balsam. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk. Eat, friends; Drink and imbibe deeply, O lovers.”

Song of Solomon 5:2 “I was asleep but my heart was awake. A voice! My beloved was knocking: ‘Open to me, my sister, my darling, My dove, my perfect one! For my head is drenched with dew, My locks with the damp of the night.’

Song of Solomon 5:3 “I have taken off my dress, How can I put it on [again]? I have washed my feet, How can I dirty them [again]?

Song of Solomon 5:4 “My beloved extended his hand through the opening, And my feelings were aroused for him.

Song of Solomon 5:5 “I arose to open to my beloved; And my hands dripped with myrrh, And my fingers with liquid myrrh, On the handles of the bolt.

Song of Solomon 5:6 “I opened to my beloved, But my beloved had turned away [and] had gone! My heart went out [to him] as he spoke. I searched for him but I did not find him; I called him but he did not answer me.

Song of Solomon 5:7 “The watchmen who make the rounds in the city found me, They struck me [and] wounded me; The guardsmen of the walls took away my shawl from me.

Song of Solomon 5:8 “I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved, As to what you will tell him: For I am lovesick.”

Song of Solomon 5:9 “What kind of beloved is your beloved, O most beautiful among women? What kind of beloved is your beloved, That thus you adjure us?”

Song of Solomon 5:10 “My beloved is dazzling and ruddy, Outstanding among ten thousand.

Song of Solomon 5:11 “His head is [like] gold, pure gold; His locks are [like] clusters of dates [And] black as a raven.

Song of Solomon 5:12 “His eyes are like doves Beside streams of water, Bathed in milk, [And] reposed in [their] setting.

Song of Solomon 5:13 “His cheeks are like a bed of balsam, Banks of sweet-scented herbs; His lips are lilies Dripping with liquid myrrh.

Song of Solomon 5:14 “His hands are rods of gold Set with beryl; His abdomen is carved ivory Inlaid with sapphires.

Song of Solomon 5:15 “His legs are pillars of alabaster Set on pedestals of pure gold; His appearance is like Lebanon Choice as the cedars.

Song of Solomon 5:16 “His mouth is [full of] sweetness. And he is wholly desirable. This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.”

Song of Solomon 6:1 “Where has your beloved gone, O most beautiful among women? Where has your beloved turned, That we may seek him with you?”

Song of Solomon 6:2 “My beloved has gone down to his garden, To the beds of balsam, To pasture [his flock] in the gardens And gather lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:3 “I am my beloved’s and my beloved is mine, He who pastures [his flock] among the lilies.”

Song of Solomon 6:4 “You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my darling, As lovely as Jerusalem, As awesome as an army with banners.

Song of Solomon 6:5 “Turn your eyes away from me, For they have confused me; Your hair is like a flock of goats That have descended from Gilead.

Song of Solomon 6:6 “Your teeth are like a flock of ewes Which have come up from [their] washing, All of which bear twins, And not one among them has lost her young.

Song of Solomon 6:7 “Your temples are like a slice of a pomegranate Behind your veil.

Song of Solomon 6:8 “There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, And maidens without number;

Song of Solomon 6:9 [But] my dove, my perfect one, is unique: She is her mother’s only [daughter]; She is the pure [child] of the one who bore her. The maidens saw her and called her blessed, The queens and the concubines [also], and they praised her, [saying],

Song of Solomon 6:10 ‘Who is this that grows like the dawn, As beautiful as the full moon, As pure as the sun, As awesome as an army with banners?’

Song of Solomon 6:11 “I went down to the orchard of nut trees To see the blossoms of the valley, To see whether the vine had budded [Or] the pomegranates had bloomed.

Song of Solomon 6:12 “Before I was aware, my soul set me [Over] the chariots of my noble people.”

Song of Solomon 6:13 “Come back, come back, O Shulammite; Come back, come back, that we may gaze at you!” “Why should you gaze at the Shulammite, As at the dance of the two companies?

Song of Solomon 7:1 “How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince’s daughter! The curves of your hips are like jewels, The work of the hands of an artist.

Song of Solomon 7:2 “Your navel is [like] a round goblet Which never lacks mixed wine; Your belly is like a heap of wheat Fenced about with lilies.

Song of Solomon 7:3 “Your two breasts are like two fawns, Twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:4 “Your neck is like a tower of ivory, Your eyes [like] the pools in Heshbon By the gate of Bath-rabbim; Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon, Which faces toward Damascus.

Song of Solomon 7:5 “Your head crowns you like Carmel, And the flowing locks of your head are like purple threads; [The] king is captivated by [your] tresses.

Song of Solomon 7:6 “How beautiful and how delightful you are, [My] love, with [all] your charms!

Song of Solomon 7:7 “Your stature is like a palm tree, And your breasts are [like its] clusters.

Song of Solomon 7:8 “I said, ‘I will climb the palm tree, I will take hold of its fruit stalks.’ Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, And the fragrance of your breath like apples,

Song of Solomon 7:9 And your mouth like the best wine!” “It goes [down] smoothly for my beloved, Flowing gently [through] the lips of those who fall asleep.

Song of Solomon 7:10 “I am my beloved’s, And his desire is for me.

Song of Solomon 7:11 “Come, my beloved, let us go out into the country, Let us spend the night in the villages.

Song of Solomon 7:12 “Let us rise early [and go] to the vineyards; Let us see whether the vine has budded [And its] blossoms have opened, [And whether] the pomegranates have bloomed. There I will give you my love.

Song of Solomon 7:13 “The mandrakes have given forth fragrance; And over our doors are all choice [fruits], Both new and old, Which I have saved up for you, my beloved.

Song of Solomon 8:1 “Oh that you were like a brother to me Who nursed at my mother’s breasts. [If] I found you outdoors, I would kiss you; No one would despise me, either.

Song of Solomon 8:2 “I would lead you [and] bring you Into the house of my mother, who used to instruct me; I would give you spiced wine to drink from the juice of my pomegranates.

Song of Solomon 8:3 “Let his left hand be under my head And his right hand embrace me.”

Song of Solomon 8:4 “I want you to swear, O daughters of Jerusalem, Do not arouse or awaken [my] love Until she pleases.”

Song of Solomon 8:5 “Who is this coming up from the wilderness Leaning on her beloved?” “Beneath the apple tree I awakened you; There your mother was in labor with you, There she was in labor [and] gave you birth.

Song of Solomon 8:6 “Put me like a seal over your heart, Like a seal on your arm. For love is as strong as death, Jealousy is as severe as Sheol; Its flashes are flashes of fire, The [very] flame of the LORD.

Song of Solomon 8:7 “Many waters cannot quench love, Nor will rivers overflow it; If a man were to give all the riches of his house for love, It would be utterly despised.”

Song of Solomon 8:8 “We have a little sister, And she has no breasts; What shall we do for our sister On the day when she is spoken for?

Song of Solomon 8:9 “If she is a wall, We will build on her a battlement of silver; But if she is a door, We will barricade her with planks of cedar.”

Song of Solomon 8:10 “I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers; Then I became in his eyes as one who finds peace.

Song of Solomon 8:11 “Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; He entrusted the vineyard to caretakers. Each one was to bring a thousand [shekels] of silver for its fruit.

Song of Solomon 8:12 “My very own vineyard is at my disposal; The thousand [shekels] are for you, Solomon, And two hundred are for those who take care of its fruit.”

Song of Solomon 8:13 “O you who sit in the gardens, [My] companions are listening for your voice— Let me hear it!”

Song of Solomon 8:14 “Hurry, my beloved, And be like a gazelle or a young stag On the mountains of spices.”

Isaiah

1:1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz concerning Judah and Jerusalem, which he saw during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz [and] Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Isaiah 1:2 Listen, O heavens, and hear, O earth; For the LORD speaks, “Sons I have reared and brought up, But they have revolted against Me.

Isaiah 1:3 “An ox knows its owner, And a donkey its master’s manger, [But] Israel does not know, My people do not understand.”

Isaiah 1:4 Alas, sinful nation, People weighed down with iniquity, Offspring of evildoers, Sons who act corruptly! They have abandoned the LORD, They have despised the Holy One of Israel, They have turned away from Him.

Isaiah 1:5 Where will you be stricken again, [As] you continue in [your] rebellion? The whole head is sick And the whole heart is faint.

Isaiah 1:6 From the sole of the foot even to the head There is nothing sound in it, [Only] bruises, welts and raw wounds, Not pressed out or bandaged, Nor softened with oil.

Isaiah 1:7 Your land is desolate, Your cities are burned with fire, Your fields— strangers are devouring them in your presence; It is desolation, as overthrown by strangers.

Isaiah 1:8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, Like a watchman’s hut in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

Isaiah 1:9 Unless the LORD of hosts Had left us a few survivors, We would be like Sodom, We would be like Gomorrah.

Isaiah 1:10 Hear the word of the LORD, You rulers of Sodom; Give ear to the instruction of our God, You people of Gomorrah.

Isaiah 1:11 “What are your multiplied sacrifices to Me?” Says the LORD. “I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams And the fat of fed cattle; And I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs or goats.

Isaiah 1:12 “When you come to appear before Me, Who requires of you this trampling of My courts?

Isaiah 1:13 “Bring your worthless offerings no longer, Incense is an abomination to Me. New moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies— I cannot endure iniquity and the solemn assembly.

Isaiah 1:14 “I hate your new moon [festivals] and your appointed feasts, They have become a burden to Me; I am weary of bearing [them].

Isaiah 1:15 “So when you spread out your hands [in prayer], I will hide My eyes from you; Yes, even though you multiply prayers, I will not listen. Your hands are covered with blood.

Isaiah 1:16 “Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; Remove the evil of your deeds from My sight. Cease to do evil, Isaiah 1:17 Learn to do good; Seek justice, Reprove the ruthless, Defend the orphan, Plead for the widow.

Isaiah 1:18 “Come now, and let us reason together,” Says the LORD, “Though your sins are as scarlet, They will be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They will be like wool.

Isaiah 1:19 “If you consent and obey, You will eat the best of the land;

Isaiah 1:20 “But if you refuse and rebel, You will be devoured by the sword.” Truly, the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 1:21 How the faithful city has become a harlot, She [who] was full of justice! Righteousness once lodged in her, But now murderers.

Isaiah 1:22 Your silver has become dross, Your drink diluted with water.

Isaiah 1:23 Your rulers are rebels And companions of thieves; Everyone loves a bribe And chases after rewards. They do not defend the orphan, Nor does the widow’s plea come before them.

Isaiah 1:24 Therefore the Lord GOD of hosts, The Mighty One of Israel, declares, “Ah, I will be relieved of My adversaries And avenge Myself on My foes.

Isaiah 1:25 “I will also turn My hand against you, And will smelt away your dross as with lye And will remove all your alloy.

Isaiah 1:26 “Then I will restore your judges as at the first, And your counselors as at the beginning; After that you will be called the city of righteousness, A faithful city.”

Isaiah 1:27 Zion will be redeemed with justice And her repentant ones with righteousness.

Isaiah 1:28 But transgressors and sinners will be crushed together, And those who forsake the LORD will come to an end.

Isaiah 1:29 Surely you will be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, And you will be embarrassed at the gardens which you have chosen.

Isaiah 1:30 For you will be like an oak whose leaf fades away Or as a garden that has no water.

Isaiah 1:31 The strong man will become tinder, His work also a spark. Thus they shall both burn together And there will be none to quench [them].

Isaiah 2:1 The word which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:2 Now it will come about that In the last days The mountain of the house of the LORD Will be established as the chief of the mountains, And will be raised above the hills; And all the nations will stream to it.

Isaiah 2:3 And many peoples will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, To the house of the God of Jacob; That He may teach us concerning His ways And that we may walk in His paths.” For the law will go forth from Zion And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:4 And He will judge between the nations, And will render decisions for many peoples; And they will hammer their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, And never again will they learn war.

Isaiah 2:5 Come, house of Jacob, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

Isaiah 2:6 For You have abandoned Your people, the house of Jacob, Because they are filled [with influences] from the east, And [they are] soothsayers like the Philistines, And they strike [bargains] with the children of foreigners.

Isaiah 2:7 Their land has also been filled with silver and gold And there is no end to their treasures; Their land has also been filled with horses And there is no end to their chariots.

Isaiah 2:8 Their land has also been filled with idols; They worship the work of their hands, That which their fingers have made.

Isaiah 2:9 So the [common] man has been humbled And the man [of importance] has been abased, But do not forgive them.

Isaiah 2:10 Enter the rock and hide in the dust From the terror of the LORD and from the splendor of His majesty.

Isaiah 2:11 The proud look of man will be abased And the loftiness of man will be humbled, And the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

Isaiah 2:12 For the LORD of hosts will have a day [of reckoning] Against everyone who is proud and lofty And against everyone who is lifted up, That he may be abased.

Isaiah 2:13 And [it will be] against all the cedars of Lebanon that are lofty and lifted up, Against all the oaks of Bashan,

Isaiah 2:14 Against all the lofty mountains, Against all the hills that are lifted up,

Isaiah 2:15 Against every high tower, Against every fortified wall,

Isaiah 2:16 Against all the ships of Tarshish And against all the beautiful craft.

Isaiah 2:17 The pride of man will be humbled And the loftiness of men will be abased; And the LORD alone will be exalted in that day,

Isaiah 2:18 But the idols will completely vanish.

Isaiah 2:19 [Men] will go into caves of the rocks And into holes of the ground Before the terror of the LORD And the splendor of His majesty, When He arises to make the earth tremble.

Isaiah 2:20 In that day men will cast away to the moles and the bats Their idols of silver and their idols of gold, Which they made for themselves to worship,

Isaiah 2:21 In order to go into the caverns of the rocks and the clefts of the cliffs Before the terror of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty, When He arises to make the earth tremble.

Isaiah 2:22 Stop regarding man, whose breath [of life] is in his nostrils; For why should he be esteemed?

Isaiah 3:1 For behold, the Lord GOD of hosts is going to remove from Jerusalem and Judah Both supply and support, the whole supply of bread And the whole supply of water;

Isaiah 3:2 The mighty man and the warrior, The judge and the prophet, The diviner and the elder,

Isaiah 3:3 The captain of fifty and the honorable man, The counselor and the expert artisan, And the skillful enchanter.

Isaiah 3:4 And I will make mere lads their princes, And capricious children will rule over them,

Isaiah 3:5 And the people will be oppressed, Each one by another, and each one by his neighbor; The youth will storm against the elder And the inferior against the honorable.

Isaiah 3:6 When a man lays hold of his brother in his father's house, [saying], "You have a cloak, you shall be our ruler, And these ruins will be under your charge," Isaiah 3:7 He will protest on that day, saying, “I will not be [your] healer, For in my house there is neither bread nor cloak; You should not appoint me ruler of the people.”

Isaiah 3:8 For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen, Because their speech and their actions are against the LORD, To rebel against His glorious presence.

Isaiah 3:9 The expression of their faces bears witness against them, And they display their sin like Sodom; They do not [even] conceal [it]. Woe to them! For they have brought evil on themselves.

Isaiah 3:10 Say to the righteous that [it will go] well [with them], For they will eat the fruit of their actions.

Isaiah 3:11 Woe to the wicked! [It will go] badly [with him], For what he deserves will be done to him.

Isaiah 3:12 O My people! Their oppressors are children, And women rule over them. O My people! Those who guide you lead [you] astray And confuse the direction of your paths.

Isaiah 3:13 The LORD arises to contend, And stands to judge the people.

Isaiah 3:14 The LORD enters into judgment with the elders and princes of His people, “It is you who have devoured the vineyard; The plunder of the poor is in your houses.

Isaiah 3:15 “What do you mean by crushing My people And grinding the face of the poor?” Declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isaiah 3:16 Moreover, the LORD said, “Because the daughters of Zion are proud And walk with heads held high and seductive eyes, And go along with mincing steps And tinkle the bangles on their feet, Isaiah 3:17 Therefore the Lord will afflict the scalp of the daughters of Zion with scabs, And the LORD will make their foreheads bare.”

Isaiah 3:18 In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of [their] anklets, headbands, crescent ornaments,

Isaiah 3:19 dangling earrings, bracelets, veils,

Isaiah 3:20 headdresses, ankle chains, sashes, perfume boxes, amulets,

Isaiah 3:21 finger rings, nose rings,

Isaiah 3:22 festal robes, outer tunics, cloaks, money purses,

Isaiah 3:23 hand mirrors, undergarments, turbans and veils.

Isaiah 3:24 Now it will come about that instead of sweet perfume there will be putrefaction; Instead of a belt, a rope; Instead of well-set hair, a plucked-out scalp; Instead of fine clothes, a donning of sackcloth; And branding instead of beauty.

Isaiah 3:25 Your men will fall by the sword And your mighty ones in battle.

Isaiah 3:26 And her gates will lament and mourn, And deserted she will sit on the ground.

Isaiah 4:1 For seven women will take hold of one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes, only let us be called by your name; take away our reproach!”

Isaiah 4:2 In that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth [will be] the pride and the adornment of the survivors of Israel.

Isaiah 4:3 It will come about that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy— everyone who is recorded for life in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 4:4 When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and purged the bloodshed of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and the spirit of burning,

Isaiah 4:5 then the LORD will create over the whole area of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud by day, even smoke, and the brightness of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy.

Isaiah 4:6 There will be a shelter to [give] shade from the heat by day, and refuge and protection from the storm and the rain.

Isaiah 5:1 Let me sing now for my well-beloved A song of my beloved concerning His vineyard. My well-beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hill.

Isaiah 5:2 He dug it all around, removed its stones, And planted it with the choicest vine. And He built a tower in the middle of it And also hewed out a wine vat in it; Then He expected [it] to produce [good] grapes, But it produced [only] worthless ones.

Isaiah 5:3 “And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, Judge between Me and My vineyard.

Isaiah 5:4 “What more was there to do for My vineyard that I have not done in it? Why, when I expected [it] to produce [good] grapes did it produce worthless ones?

Isaiah 5:5 “So now let Me tell you what I am going to do to My vineyard: I will remove its hedge and it will be consumed; I will break down its wall and it will become trampled ground.

Isaiah 5:6 “I will lay it waste; It will not be pruned or hoed, But briars and thorns will come up. I will also charge the clouds to rain no rain on it.”

Isaiah 5:7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel And the men of Judah His delightful plant. Thus He looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed; For righteousness, but behold, a cry of distress.

Isaiah 5:8 Woe to those who add house to house [and] join field to field, Until there is no more room, So that you have to live alone in the midst of the land!

Isaiah 5:9 In my ears the LORD of hosts [has sworn], “Surely, many houses shall become desolate, [Even] great and fine ones, without occupants.

Isaiah 5:10 “For ten acres of vineyard will yield [only] one bath [of wine], And a homer of seed will yield [but] an ephah of grain.”

Isaiah 5:11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning that they may pursue strong drink, Who stay up late in the evening that wine may inflame them!

Isaiah 5:12 Their banquets are [accompanied] by lyre and harp, by tambourine and flute, and by wine; But they do not pay attention to the deeds of the LORD, Nor do they consider the work of His hands.

Isaiah 5:13 Therefore My people go into exile for their lack of knowledge; And their honorable men are famished, And their multitude is parched with thirst.

Isaiah 5:14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its throat and opened its mouth without measure; And Jerusalem’s splendor, her multitude, her din [of revelry] and the jubilant within her, descend [into it].

Isaiah 5:15 So the [common] man will be humbled and the man of [importance] abased, The eyes of the proud also will be abased.

Isaiah 5:16 But the LORD of hosts will be exalted in judgment, And the holy God will show Himself holy in righteousness.

Isaiah 5:17 Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, And strangers will eat in the waste places of the wealthy.

Isaiah 5:18 Woe to those who drag iniquity with the cords of falsehood, And sin as if with cart ropes;

Isaiah 5:19 Who say, “Let Him make speed, let Him hasten His work, that we may see [it]; And let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near And come to pass, that we may know [it]!”

Isaiah 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness; Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

Isaiah 5:21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes And clever in their own sight!

Isaiah 5:22 Woe to those who are heroes in drinking wine And valiant men in mixing strong drink,

Isaiah 5:23 Who justify the wicked for a bribe, And take away the rights of the ones who are in the right!

Isaiah 5:24 Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes stubble And dry grass collapses into the flame, So their root will become like rot and their blossom blow away as dust; For they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts And despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 5:25 On this account the anger of the LORD has burned against His people, And He has stretched out His hand against them and struck them down. And the mountains quaked, and their corpses lay like refuse in the middle of the streets. For all this His anger is not spent, But His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 5:26 He will also lift up a standard to the distant nation, And will whistle for it from the ends of the earth; And behold, it will come with speed swiftly.

Isaiah 5:27 No one in it is weary or stumbles, None slumbers or sleeps; Nor is the belt at its waist undone, Nor its sandal strap broken.

Isaiah 5:28 Its arrows are sharp and all its bows are bent; The hoofs of its horses seem like flint and its [chariot] wheels like a whirlwind.

Isaiah 5:29 Its roaring is like a lioness, and it roars like young lions; It growls as it seizes the prey And carries [it] off with no one to deliver [it].

Isaiah 5:30 And it will growl over it in that day like the roaring of the sea. If one looks to the land, behold, there is darkness [and] distress; Even the light is darkened by its clouds.

Isaiah 6:1 In the year of King Uzziah’s death I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, lofty and exalted, with the train of His robe filling the temple.

Isaiah 6:2 Seraphim stood above Him, each having six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.

Isaiah 6:3 And one called out to another and said, “Holy, Holy, Holy, is the LORD of hosts, The whole earth is full of His glory.”

Isaiah 6:4 And the foundations of the thresholds trembled at the voice of him who called out, while the temple was filling with smoke.

Isaiah 6:5 Then I said, “Woe is me, for I am ruined! Because I am a man of unclean lips, And I live among a people of unclean lips; For my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.”

Isaiah 6:6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal in his hand, which he had taken from the altar with tongs.

Isaiah 6:7 He touched my mouth [with it] and said, “Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away and your sin is forgiven.”

Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?” Then I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

Isaiah 6:9 He said, “Go, and tell this people: ‘Keep on listening, but do not perceive; Keep on looking, but do not understand.’

Isaiah 6:10 “Render the hearts of this people insensitive, Their ears dull, And their eyes dim, Otherwise they might see with their eyes, Hear with their ears, Understand with their hearts, And return and be healed.”

Isaiah 6:11 Then I said, “Lord, how long?” And He answered, “Until cities are devastated [and] without inhabitant, Houses are without people And the land is utterly desolate, Isaiah 6:12 “The LORD has removed men far away, And the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.

Isaiah 6:13 “Yet there will be a tenth portion in it, And it will again be [subject] to burning, Like a terebinth or an oak Whose stump remains when it is felled. The holy seed is its stump.”

Isaiah 7:1 Now it came about in the days of Ahaz, the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Aram and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to [wage] war against it, but could not conquer it.

Isaiah 7:2 When it was reported to the house of David, saying, “The Arameans have camped in Ephraim,” his heart and the hearts of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake with the wind.

Isaiah 7:3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway to the fuller’s field,

Isaiah 7:4 and say to him, ‘Take care and be calm, have no fear and do not be fainthearted because of these two stubs of smoldering firebrands, on account of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah.

Isaiah 7:5 ‘Because Aram, [with] Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has planned evil against you, saying,

Isaiah 7:6 “Let us go up against Judah and terrorize it, and make for ourselves a breach in its walls and set up the son of Tabeel as king in the midst of it,”

Isaiah 7:7 thus says the Lord GOD: “It shall not stand nor shall it come to pass.

Isaiah 7:8 “For the head of Aram is Damascus and the head of Damascus is Rezin (now within another 65 years Ephraim will be shattered, [so that it is] no longer a people),

Isaiah 7:9 and the head of Ephraim is Samaria and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you will not believe, you surely shall not last.”“

Isaiah 7:10 Then the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying,

Isaiah 7:11 “Ask a sign for yourself from the LORD your God; make [it] deep as Sheol or high as heaven.”

Isaiah 7:12 But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, nor will I test the LORD!”

Isaiah 7:13 Then he said, “Listen now, O house of David! Is it too slight a thing for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God as well?

Isaiah 7:14 “Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, a virgin will be with child and bear a son, and she will call His name Immanuel.

Isaiah 7:15 “He will eat curds and honey at the time He knows [enough] to refuse evil and choose good.

Isaiah 7:16 “For before the boy will know [enough] to refuse evil and choose good, the land whose two kings you dread will be forsaken.

Isaiah 7:17 “The LORD will bring on you, on your people, and on your father’s house such days as have never come since the day that Ephraim separated from Judah, the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 7:18 In that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is in the remotest part of the rivers of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

Isaiah 7:19 They will all come and settle on the steep ravines, on the ledges of the cliffs, on all the thorn bushes and on all the watering places.

Isaiah 7:20 In that day the Lord will shave with a razor, hired from regions beyond the Euphrates ([that is], with the king of Assyria), the head and the hair of the legs; and it will also remove the beard.

Isaiah 7:21 Now in that day a man may keep alive a heifer and a pair of sheep;

Isaiah 7:22 and because of the abundance of the milk produced he will eat curds, for everyone that is left within the land will eat curds and honey.

Isaiah 7:23 And it will come about in that day, that every place where there used to be a thousand vines, [valued] at a thousand [shekels] of silver, will become briars and thorns.

Isaiah 7:24 [People] will come there with bows and arrows because all the land will be briars and thorns.

Isaiah 7:25 As for all the hills which used to be cultivated with the hoe, you will not go there for fear of briars and thorns; but they will become a place for pasturing oxen and for sheep to trample.

Isaiah 8:1 Then the LORD said to me, “Take for yourself a large tablet and write on it in ordinary letters: Swift is the booty, speedy is the prey.

Isaiah 8:2 “And I will take to Myself faithful witnesses for testimony, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.”

Isaiah 8:3 So I approached the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. Then the LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz;

Isaiah 8:4 for before the boy knows how to cry out ‘My father ‘ or ‘My mother,’ the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away before the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 8:5 Again the LORD spoke to me further, saying,

Isaiah 8:6 “Inasmuch as these people have rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah And rejoice in Rezin and the son of Remaliah;

Isaiah 8:7 “Now therefore, behold, the Lord is about to bring on them the strong and abundant waters of the Euphrates, [Even] the king of Assyria and all his glory; And it will rise up over all its channels and go over all its banks.

Isaiah 8:8 “Then it will sweep on into Judah, it will overflow and pass through, It will reach even to the neck; And the spread of its wings will fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.

Isaiah 8:9 “Be broken, O peoples, and be shattered; And give ear, all remote places of the earth. Gird yourselves, yet be shattered; Gird yourselves, yet be shattered.

Isaiah 8:10 “Devise a plan, but it will be thwarted; State a proposal, but it will not stand, For God is with us.”

Isaiah 8:11 For thus the LORD spoke to me with mighty power and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,

Isaiah 8:12 “You are not to say, ‘[It is] a conspiracy!’ In regard to all that this people call a conspiracy, And you are not to fear what they fear or be in dread of [it].

Isaiah 8:13 “It is the LORD of hosts whom you should regard as holy. And He shall be your fear, And He shall be your dread.

Isaiah 8:14 “Then He shall become a sanctuary; But to both the houses of Israel, a stone to strike and a rock to stumble over, [And] a snare and a trap for the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 8:15 “Many will stumble over them, Then they will fall and be broken; They will even be snared and caught.”

Isaiah 8:16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

Isaiah 8:17 And I will wait for the LORD who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob; I will even look eagerly for Him.

Isaiah 8:18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 8:19 When they say to you, “Consult the mediums and the spiritists who whisper and mutter,” should not a people consult their God? [Should they] [consult] the dead on behalf of the living?

Isaiah 8:20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because they have no dawn.

Isaiah 8:21 They will pass through the land hard-pressed and famished, and it will turn out that when they are hungry, they will be enraged and curse their king and their God as they face upward.

Isaiah 8:22 Then they will look to the earth, and behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and [they will be] driven away into darkness.

Isaiah 9:1 But there will be no [more] gloom for her who was in anguish; in earlier times He treated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali with contempt, but later on He shall make [it] glorious, by the way of the sea, on the other side of Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

Isaiah 9:2 The people who walk in darkness Will see a great light; Those who live in a dark land, The light will shine on them.

Isaiah 9:3 You shall multiply the nation, You shall increase their gladness; They will be glad in Your presence As with the gladness of harvest, As men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

Isaiah 9:4 For You shall break the yoke of their burden and the staff on their shoulders, The rod of their oppressor, as at the battle of Midian.

Isaiah 9:5 For every boot of the booted warrior in the [battle] tumult, And cloak rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire.

Isaiah 9:6 For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; And the government will rest on His shoulders; And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:7 There will be no end to the increase of [His] government or of peace, On the throne of David and over his kingdom, To establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness From then on and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

Isaiah 9:8 The Lord sends a message against Jacob, And it falls on Israel.

Isaiah 9:9 And all the people know [it], [That is], Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, Asserting in pride and in arrogance of heart:

Isaiah 9:10 “The bricks have fallen down, But we will rebuild with smooth stones; The sycamores have been cut down, But we will replace [them] with cedars.”

Isaiah 9:11 Therefore the LORD raises against them adversaries from Rezin And spurs their enemies on,

Isaiah 9:12 The Arameans on the east and the Philistines on the west; And they devour Israel with gaping jaws. In [spite of] all this, His anger does not turn away And His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 9:13 Yet the people do not turn back to Him who struck them, Nor do they seek the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 9:14 So the LORD cuts off head and tail from Israel, [Both] palm branch and bulrush in a single day.

Isaiah 9:15 The head is the elder and honorable man, And the prophet who teaches falsehood is the tail.

Isaiah 9:16 For those who guide this people are leading [them] astray; And those who are guided by them are brought to confusion.

Isaiah 9:17 Therefore the Lord does not take pleasure in their young men, Nor does He have pity on their orphans or their widows; For every one of them is godless and an evildoer, And every mouth is speaking foolishness. In [spite of] all this, His anger does not turn away And His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 9:18 For wickedness burns like a fire; It consumes briars and thorns; It even sets the thickets of the forest aflame And they roll upward in a column of smoke.

Isaiah 9:19 By the fury of the LORD of hosts the land is burned up, And the people are like fuel for the fire; No man spares his brother.

Isaiah 9:20 They slice off [what is] on the right hand but [still] are hungry, And they eat [what is] on the left hand but they are not satisfied; Each of them eats the flesh of his own arm.

Isaiah 9:21 Manasseh [devours] Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, [And] together they are against Judah. In [spite of] all this, His anger does not turn away And His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 10:1 Woe to those who enact evil statutes And to those who constantly record unjust decisions,

Isaiah 10:2 So as to deprive the needy of justice And rob the poor of My people of [their] rights, So that widows may be their spoil And that they may plunder the orphans.

Isaiah 10:3 Now what will you do in the day of punishment, And in the devastation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your wealth?

Isaiah 10:4 Nothing [remains] but to crouch among the captives Or fall among the slain. In [spite of] all this, His anger does not turn away And His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 10:5 Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger And the staff in whose hands is My indignation,

Isaiah 10:6 I send it against a godless nation And commission it against the people of My fury To capture booty and to seize plunder, And to trample them down like mud in the streets.

Isaiah 10:7 Yet it does not so intend, Nor does it plan so in its heart, But rather it is its purpose to destroy And to cut off many nations.

Isaiah 10:8 For it says, “Are not my princes all kings?

Isaiah 10:9 “Is not Calno like Carchemish, Or Hamath like Arpad, Or Samaria like Damascus?

Isaiah 10:10 “As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols, Whose graven images [were] greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria, Isaiah 10:11 Shall I not do to Jerusalem and her images Just as I have done to Samaria and her idols?”

Isaiah 10:12 So it will be that when the Lord has completed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, [He will say], “I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and the pomp of his haughtiness.”

Isaiah 10:13 For he has said, “By the power of my hand and by my wisdom I did [this], For I have understanding; And I removed the boundaries of the peoples And plundered their treasures, And like a mighty man I brought down [their] inhabitants,

Isaiah 10:14 And my hand reached to the riches of the peoples like a nest, And as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth; And there was not one that flapped its wing or opened [its] beak or chirped.”

Isaiah 10:15 Is the axe to boast itself over the one who chops with it? Is the saw to exalt itself over the one who wields it? [That would be] like a club wielding those who lift it, [Or] like a rod lifting [him who] is not wood.

Isaiah 10:16 Therefore the Lord, the GOD of hosts, will send a wasting disease among his stout warriors; And under his glory a fire will be kindled like a burning flame.

Isaiah 10:17 And the light of Israel will become a fire and his Holy One a flame, And it will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in a single day.

Isaiah 10:18 And He will destroy the glory of his forest and of his fruitful garden, both soul and body, And it will be as when a sick man wastes away.

Isaiah 10:19 And the rest of the trees of his forest will be so small in number That a child could write them down.

Isaiah 10:20 Now in that day the remnant of Israel, and those of the house of Jacob who have escaped, will never again rely on the one who struck them, but will truly rely on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 10:21 A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

Isaiah 10:22 For though your people, O Israel, may be like the sand of the sea, [Only] a remnant within them will return; A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness.

Isaiah 10:23 For a complete destruction, one that is decreed, the Lord GOD of hosts will execute in the midst of the whole land.

Isaiah 10:24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, “O My people who dwell in Zion, do not fear the Assyrian who strikes you with the rod and lifts up his staff against you, the way Egypt [did].

Isaiah 10:25 “For in a very little while My indignation [against you] will be spent and My anger [will be directed] to their destruction.”

Isaiah 10:26 The LORD of hosts will arouse a scourge against him like the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and His staff will be over the sea and He will lift it up the way [He did] in Egypt.

Isaiah 10:27 So it will be in that day, that his burden will be removed from your shoulders and his yoke from your neck, and the yoke will be broken because of fatness.

Isaiah 10:28 He has come against Aiath, He has passed through Migron; At Michmash he deposited his baggage.

Isaiah 10:29 They have gone through the pass, [saying], “Geba will be our lodging place.” Ramah is terrified, and Gibeah of Saul has fled away.

Isaiah 10:30 Cry aloud with your voice, O daughter of Gallim! Pay attention, Laishah [and] wretched Anathoth!

Isaiah 10:31 Madmenah has fled. The inhabitants of Gebim have sought refuge.

Isaiah 10:32 Yet today he will halt at Nob; He shakes his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 10:33 Behold, the Lord, the GOD of hosts, will lop off the boughs with a terrible crash; Those also who are tall in stature will be cut down And those who are lofty will be abased.

Isaiah 10:34 He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an iron [axe], And Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

Isaiah 11:1 Then a shoot will spring from the stem of Jesse, And a branch from his roots will bear fruit.

Isaiah 11:2 The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him, The spirit of wisdom and understanding, The spirit of counsel and strength, The spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

Isaiah 11:3 And He will delight in the fear of the LORD, And He will not judge by what His eyes see, Nor make a decision by what His ears hear;

Isaiah 11:4 But with righteousness He will judge the poor, And decide with fairness for the afflicted of the earth; And He will strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, And with the breath of His lips He will slay the wicked.

Isaiah 11:5 Also righteousness will be the belt about His loins, And faithfulness the belt about His waist.

Isaiah 11:6 And the wolf will dwell with the lamb, And the leopard will lie down with the young goat, And the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; And a little boy will lead them.

Isaiah 11:7 Also the cow and the bear will graze, Their young will lie down together, And the lion will eat straw like the ox.

Isaiah 11:8 The nursing child will play by the hole of the cobra, And the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den.

Isaiah 11:9 They will not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain, For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD As the waters cover the sea.

Isaiah 11:10 Then in that day The nations will resort to the root of Jesse, Who will stand as a signal for the peoples; And His resting place will be glorious.

Isaiah 11:11 Then it will happen on that day that the Lord Will again recover the second time with His hand The remnant of His people, who will remain, From Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, And from the islands of the sea.

Isaiah 11:12 And He will lift up a standard for the nations And assemble the banished ones of Israel, And will gather the dispersed of Judah From the four corners of the earth.

Isaiah 11:13 Then the jealousy of Ephraim will depart, And those who harass Judah will be cut off; Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, And Judah will not harass Ephraim.

Isaiah 11:14 They will swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines on the west; Together they will plunder the sons of the east; They will possess Edom and Moab, And the sons of Ammon will be subject to them.

Isaiah 11:15 And the LORD will utterly destroy The tongue of the Sea of Egypt; And He will wave His hand over the River With His scorching wind; And He will strike it into seven streams And make [men] walk over dry-shod.

Isaiah 11:16 And there will be a highway from Assyria For the remnant of His people who will be left, Just as there was for Israel In the day that they came up out of the land of Egypt.

Isaiah 12:1 Then you will say on that day, "I will give thanks to You, O LORD; For although You were angry with me, Your anger is turned away, And You comfort me.

Isaiah 12:2 "Behold, God is my salvation, I will trust and not be afraid; For the LORD GOD is my strength and song, And He has become my salvation."

Isaiah 12:3 Therefore you will joyously draw water From the springs of salvation.

Isaiah 12:4 And in that day you will say, "Give thanks to the LORD, call on His name. Make known His deeds among the peoples; Make [them] remember that His name is exalted."

Isaiah 12:5 Praise the LORD in song, for He has done excellent things; Let this be known throughout the earth.

Isaiah 12:6 Cry aloud and shout for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, For great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 13:1 The oracle concerning Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

Isaiah 13:2 Lift up a standard on the bare hill, Raise your voice to them, Wave the hand that they may enter the doors of the nobles.

Isaiah 13:3 I have commanded My consecrated ones, I have even called My mighty warriors, My proudly exulting ones, To [execute] My anger.

Isaiah 13:4 A sound of tumult on the mountains, Like that of many people! A sound of the uproar of kingdoms, Of nations gathered together! The LORD of hosts is mustering the army for battle.

Isaiah 13:5 They are coming from a far country, From the farthest horizons, The LORD and His instruments of indignation, To destroy the whole land.

Isaiah 13:6 Wail, for the day of the LORD is near! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

Isaiah 13:7 Therefore all hands will fall limp, And every man's heart will melt.

Isaiah 13:8 They will be terrified, Pains and anguish will take hold of [them]; They will writhe like a woman in labor, They will look at one another in astonishment, Their faces aflame.

Isaiah 13:9 Behold, the day of the LORD is coming, Cruel, with fury and burning anger, To make the land a desolation; And He will exterminate its sinners from it.

Isaiah 13:10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not flash forth their light; The sun will be dark when it rises And the moon will not shed its light.

Isaiah 13:11 Thus I will punish the world for its evil And the wicked for their iniquity; I will also put an end to the arrogance of the proud And abase the haughtiness of the ruthless.

Isaiah 13:12 I will make mortal man scarcer than pure gold And mankind than the gold of Ophir.

Isaiah 13:13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, And the earth will be shaken from its place At the fury of the LORD of hosts In the day of His burning anger.

Isaiah 13:14 And it will be that like a hunted gazelle, Or like sheep with none to gather [them], They will each turn to his own people, And each one flee to his own land.

Isaiah 13:15 Anyone who is found will be thrust through, And anyone who is captured will fall by the sword.

Isaiah 13:16 Their little ones also will be dashed to pieces Before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives ravished.

Isaiah 13:17 Behold, I am going to stir up the Medes against them, Who will not value silver or take pleasure in gold.

Isaiah 13:18 And [their] bows will mow down the young men, They will not even have compassion on the fruit of the womb, [Nor] will their eye pity children.

Isaiah 13:19 And Babylon, the beauty of kingdoms, the glory of the Chaldeans' pride, Will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

Isaiah 13:20 It will never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation; Nor will the Arab pitch [his] tent there, Nor will shepherds make [their flocks] lie down there.

Isaiah 13:21 But desert creatures will lie down there, And their houses will be full of owls; Ostriches also will live there, and shaggy goats will frolic there.

Isaiah 13:22 Hyenas will howl in their fortified towers And jackals in their luxurious palaces. Her [fateful] time also will soon come And her days will not be prolonged.

Isaiah 14:1 When the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and again choose Israel, and settle them in their own land, then strangers will join them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob.

Isaiah 14:2 The peoples will take them along and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them as an inheritance in the land of the LORD as male servants and female servants; and they will take their captors captive and will rule over their oppressors.

Isaiah 14:3 And it will be in the day when the LORD gives you rest from your pain and turmoil and harsh service in which you have been enslaved, Isaiah 14:4 that you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased, [And how] fury has ceased!

Isaiah 14:5 "The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, The scepter of rulers

Isaiah 14:6 Which used to strike the peoples in fury with unceasing strokes, Which subdued the nations in anger with unrestrained persecution.

Isaiah 14:7 “The whole earth is at rest [and] is quiet; They break forth into shouts of joy.

Isaiah 14:8 “Even the cypress trees rejoice over you, [and] the cedars of Lebanon, [saying], ‘Since you were laid low, no [tree] cutter comes up against us.’

Isaiah 14:9 “Sheol from beneath is excited over you to meet you when you come; It arouses for you the spirits of the dead, all the leaders of the earth; It raises all the kings of the nations from their thrones.

Isaiah 14:10 “They will all respond and say to you, ‘Even you have been made weak as we, You have become like us.

Isaiah 14:11 ‘Your pomp [and] the music of your harps Have been brought down to Sheol; Maggots are spread out [as your bed] beneath you And worms are your covering.’

Isaiah 14:12 “How you have fallen from heaven, O star of the morning, son of the dawn! You have been cut down to the earth, You who have weakened the nations!

Isaiah 14:13 “But you said in your heart, ‘I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God, And I will sit on the mount of assembly In the recesses of the north.

Isaiah 14:14 ‘I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.’

Isaiah 14:15 “Nevertheless you will be thrust down to Sheol, To the recesses of the pit.

Isaiah 14:16 “Those who see you will gaze at you, They will ponder over you, [saying], ‘Is this the man who made the earth tremble, Who shook kingdoms,

Isaiah 14:17 Who made the world like a wilderness And overthrew its cities, Who did not allow his prisoners to [go] home?’

Isaiah 14:18 “All the kings of the nations lie in glory, Each in his own tomb.

Isaiah 14:19 “But you have been cast out of your tomb Like a rejected branch, Clothed with the slain who are pierced with a sword, Who go down to the stones of the pit Like a trampled corpse.

Isaiah 14:20 “You will not be united with them in burial, Because you have ruined your country, You have slain your people. May the offspring of evildoers not be mentioned forever.

Isaiah 14:21 “Prepare for his sons a place of slaughter Because of the iniquity of their fathers. They must not arise and take possession of the earth And fill the face of the world with cities.”

Isaiah 14:22 “I will rise up against them,” declares the LORD of hosts, “and will cut off from Babylon name and survivors, offspring and posterity,” declares the LORD.

Isaiah 14:23 “I will also make it a possession for the hedgehog and swamps of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction,” declares the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 14:24 The LORD of hosts has sworn saying, “Surely, just as I have intended so it has happened, and just as I have planned so it will stand,

Isaiah 14:25 to break Assyria in My land, and I will trample him on My mountains. Then his yoke will be removed from them and his burden removed from their shoulder.

Isaiah 14:26 “This is the plan devised against the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out against all the nations.

Isaiah 14:27 “For the LORD of hosts has planned, and who can frustrate [it]? And as for His stretched-out hand, who can turn it back?”

Isaiah 14:28 In the year that King Ahaz died this oracle came:

Isaiah 14:29 “Do not rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, Because the rod that struck you is broken; For from the serpent’s root a viper will come out, And its fruit will be a flying serpent.

Isaiah 14:30 “Those who are most helpless will eat, And the needy will lie down in security; I will destroy your root with famine, And it will kill off your survivors.

Isaiah 14:31 “Wail, O gate; cry, O city; Melt away, O Philistia, all of you; For smoke comes from the north, And there is no straggler in his ranks.

Isaiah 14:32 “How then will one answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD has founded Zion, And the afflicted of His people will seek refuge in it.”

Isaiah 15:1 The oracle concerning Moab. Surely in a night Ar of Moab is devastated [and] ruined; Surely in a night Kir of Moab is devastated [and] ruined.

Isaiah 15:2 They have gone up to the temple and [to] Dibon, [even] to the high places to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba; Everyone’s head is bald [and] every beard is cut off.

Isaiah 15:3 In their streets they have girded themselves with sackcloth; On their housetops and in their squares Everyone is wailing, dissolved in tears.

Isaiah 15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh also cry out, Their voice is heard all the way to Jahaz; Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; His soul trembles within him.

Isaiah 15:5 My heart cries out for Moab; His fugitives are as far as Zoar [and] Eglath-shelishiyah, For they go up the ascent of Luhith weeping; Surely on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of distress over [their] ruin.

Isaiah 15:6 For the waters of Nimrim are desolate. Surely the grass is withered, the tender grass died out, There is no green thing.

Isaiah 15:7 Therefore the abundance [which] they have acquired and stored up They carry off over the brook of Arabim.

Isaiah 15:8 For the cry of distress has gone around the territory of Moab, Its wail [goes] as far as Eglaim and its wailing even to Beer-elim.

Isaiah 15:9 For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; Surely I will bring added [woes] upon Dimon, A lion upon the fugitives of Moab and upon the remnant of the land.

Isaiah 16:1 Send the [tribute] lamb to the ruler of the land, From Sela by way of the wilderness to the mountain of the daughter of Zion.

Isaiah 16:2 Then, like fleeing birds [or] scattered nestlings, The daughters of Moab will be at the fords of the Arnon.

Isaiah 16:3 “Give [us] advice, make a decision; Cast your shadow like night at high noon; Hide the outcasts, do not betray the fugitive.

Isaiah 16:4 “Let the outcasts of Moab stay with you; Be a hiding place to them from the destroyer.” For the extortioner has come to an end, destruction has ceased, Oppressors have completely [disappeared] from the land.

Isaiah 16:5 A throne will even be established in lovingkindness, And a judge will sit on it in faithfulness in the tent of David; Moreover, he will seek justice And be prompt in righteousness.

Isaiah 16:6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, an excessive pride; [Even] of his arrogance, pride, and fury; His idle boasts are false.

Isaiah 16:7 Therefore Moab will wail; everyone of Moab will wail. You will moan for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth As those who are utterly stricken.

Isaiah 16:8 For the fields of Heshbon have withered, the vines of Sibmah [as well]; The lords of the nations have trampled down its choice clusters Which reached as far as Jazer [and] wandered to the deserts; Its tendrils spread themselves out [and] passed over the sea.

Isaiah 16:9 Therefore I will weep bitterly for Jazer, for the vine of Sibmah; I will drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; For the shouting over your summer fruits and your harvest has fallen away.

Isaiah 16:10 Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruitful field; In the vineyards also there will be no cries of joy or jubilant shouting, No treader treads out wine in the presses, [For] I have made the shouting to cease.

Isaiah 16:11 Therefore my heart intones like a harp for Moab And my inward feelings for Kir-hareseth.

Isaiah 16:12 So it will come about when Moab presents himself, When he wearies himself upon [his] high place And comes to his sanctuary to pray, That he will not prevail.

Isaiah 16:13 This is the word which the LORD spoke earlier concerning Moab.

Isaiah 16:14 But now the LORD speaks, saying, “Within three years, as a hired man would count them, the glory of Moab will be degraded along with all [his] great population, and [his] remnant will be very small [and] impotent.”

Isaiah 17:1 The oracle concerning Damascus. “Behold, Damascus is about to be removed from being a city And will become a fallen ruin.

Isaiah 17:2 “The cities of Aroer are forsaken; They will be for flocks to lie down in, And there will be no one to frighten [them].

Isaiah 17:3 “The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim, And sovereignty from Damascus And the remnant of Aram; They will be like the glory of the sons of Israel,” Declares the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 17:4 Now in that day the glory of Jacob will fade, And the fatness of his flesh will become lean.

Isaiah 17:5 It will be even like the reaper gathering the standing grain, As his arm harvests the ears, Or it will be like one gleaning ears of grain In the valley of Rephaim.

Isaiah 17:6 Yet gleanings will be left in it like the shaking of an olive tree, Two [or] three olives on the topmost bough, Four [or] five on the branches of a fruitful tree, Declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

Isaiah 17:7 In that day man will have regard for his Maker And his eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 17:8 He will not have regard for the altars, the work of his hands, Nor will he look to that which his fingers have made, Even the Asherim and incense stands.

Isaiah 17:9 In that day their strong cities will be like forsaken places in the forest, Or like branches which they abandoned before the sons of Israel; And the land will be a desolation.

Isaiah 17:10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation And have not remembered the rock of your refuge. Therefore you plant delightful plants And set them with vine slips of a strange [god].

Isaiah 17:11 In the day that you plant [it] you carefully fence [it] in, And in the morning you bring your seed to blossom; [But] the harvest will [be] a heap In a day of sickliness and incurable pain.

Isaiah 17:12 Alas, the uproar of many peoples Who roar like the roaring of the seas, And the rumbling of nations Who rush on like the rumbling of mighty waters!

Isaiah 17:13 The nations rumble on like the rumbling of many waters, But He will rebuke them and they will flee far away, And be chased like chaff in the mountains before the wind, Or like whirling dust before a gale.

Isaiah 17:14 At evening time, behold, [there is] terror! Before morning they are no more. Such [will be] the portion of those who plunder us And the lot of those who pillage us.

Isaiah 18:1 Alas, oh land of whirring wings Which lies beyond the rivers of Cush,

Isaiah 18:2 Which sends envoys by the sea, Even in papyrus vessels on the surface of the waters. Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, To a people feared far and wide, A powerful and oppressive nation Whose land the rivers divide.

Isaiah 18:3 All you inhabitants of the world and dwellers on earth, As soon as a standard is raised on the mountains, you will see [it], And as soon as the trumpet is blown, you will hear [it].

Isaiah 18:4 For thus the LORD has told me, “I will look from My dwelling place quietly Like dazzling heat in the sunshine, Like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

Isaiah 18:5 For before the harvest, as soon as the bud blossoms And the flower becomes a ripening grape, Then He will cut off the sprigs with pruning knives And remove [and] cut away the spreading branches.

Isaiah 18:6 They will be left together for mountain birds of prey, And for the beasts of the earth; And the birds of prey will spend the summer [feeding] on them, And all the beasts of the earth will spend harvest time on them.

Isaiah 18:7 At that time a gift of homage will be brought to the LORD of hosts From a people tall and smooth, Even from a people feared far and wide, A powerful and oppressive nation, Whose land the rivers divide— To the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, [even] Mount Zion.

Isaiah 19:1 The oracle concerning Egypt. Behold, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud and is about to come to Egypt; The idols of Egypt will tremble at His presence, And the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.

Isaiah 19:2 “So I will incite Egyptians against Egyptians; And they will each fight against his brother and each against his neighbor, City against city [and] kingdom against kingdom.

Isaiah 19:3 “Then the spirit of the Egyptians will be demoralized within them; And I will confound their strategy, So that they will resort to idols and ghosts of the dead And to mediums and spiritists.

Isaiah 19:4 “Moreover, I will deliver the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel master, And a mighty king will rule over them,” declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isaiah 19:5 The waters from the sea will dry up, And the river will be parched and dry.

Isaiah 19:6 The canals will emit a stench, The streams of Egypt will thin out and dry up; The reeds and rushes will rot away.

Isaiah 19:7 The bulrushes by the Nile, by the edge of the Nile And all the sown fields by the Nile Will become dry, be driven away, and be no more.

Isaiah 19:8 And the fishermen will lament, And all those who cast a line into the Nile will mourn, And those who spread nets on the waters will pine away.

Isaiah 19:9 Moreover, the manufacturers of linen made from combed flax And the weavers of white cloth will be utterly dejected.

Isaiah 19:10 And the pillars [of Egypt] will be crushed; All the hired laborers will be grieved in soul.

Isaiah 19:11 The princes of Zoan are mere fools; The advice of Pharaoh’s wisest advisers has become stupid. How can you [men] say to Pharaoh, “I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings “?

Isaiah 19:12 Well then, where are your wise men? Please let them tell you, And let them understand what the LORD of hosts Has purposed against Egypt.

Isaiah 19:13 The princes of Zoan have acted foolishly, The princes of Memphis are deluded; [Those who are] the cornerstone of her tribes Have led Egypt astray.

Isaiah 19:14 The LORD has mixed within her a spirit of distortion; They have led Egypt astray in all that it does, As a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

Isaiah 19:15 There will be no work for Egypt Which [its] head or tail, [its] palm branch or bulrush, may do.

Isaiah 19:16 In that day the Egyptians will become like women, and they will tremble and be in dread because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which He is going to wave over them.

Isaiah 19:17 The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt; everyone to whom it is mentioned will be in dread of it, because of the purpose of the LORD of hosts which He is purposing against them.

Isaiah 19:18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will be speaking the language of Canaan and swearing [allegiance] to the LORD of hosts; one will be called the City of Destruction.

Isaiah 19:19 In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD near its border.

Isaiah 19:20 It will become a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of oppressors, and He will send them a Savior and a Champion, and He will deliver them.

Isaiah 19:21 Thus the LORD will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day. They will even worship with sacrifice and offering, and will make a vow to the LORD and perform it.

Isaiah 19:22 The LORD will strike Egypt, striking but healing; so they will return to the LORD, and He will respond to them and will heal them.

Isaiah 19:23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians will come into Egypt and the Egyptians into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

Isaiah 19:24 In that day Israel will be the third [party] with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth,

Isaiah 19:25 whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, “Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.”

Isaiah 20:1 In the year that the commander came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him and he fought against Ashdod and captured it,

Isaiah 20:2 at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, “Go and loosen the sackcloth from your hips and take your shoes off your feet.” And he did so, going naked and barefoot.

Isaiah 20:3 And the LORD said, “Even as My servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot three years as a sign and token against Egypt and Cush,

Isaiah 20:4 so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

Isaiah 20:5 “Then they will be dismayed and ashamed because of Cush their hope and Egypt their boast.

Isaiah 20:6 “So the inhabitants of this coastland will say in that day, ‘Behold, such is our hope, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria; and we, how shall we escape?’“

Isaiah 21:1 The oracle concerning the wilderness of the sea. As windstorms in the Negev sweep on, It comes from the wilderness, from a terrifying land.

Isaiah 21:2 A harsh vision has been shown to me; The treacherous one [still] deals treacherously, and the destroyer [still] destroys. Go up, Elam, lay siege, Media; I have made an end of all the groaning she has caused.

Isaiah 21:3 For this reason my loins are full of anguish; Pains have seized me like the pains of a woman in labor. I am so bewildered I cannot hear, so terrified I cannot see.

Isaiah 21:4 My mind reels, horror overwhelms me; The twilight I longed for has been turned for me into trembling.

Isaiah 21:5 They set the table, they spread out the cloth, they eat, they drink; “Rise up, captains, oil the shields,” Isaiah 21:6 For thus the Lord says to me, “Go, station the lookout, let him report what he sees.

Isaiah 21:7 “When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs, A train of donkeys, a train of camels, Let him pay close attention, very close attention.”

Isaiah 21:8 Then the lookout called, “O Lord, I stand continually by day on the watchtower, And I am stationed every night at my guard post.

Isaiah 21:9 “Now behold, here comes a troop of riders, horsemen in pairs.” And one said, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon; And all the images of her gods are shattered on the ground.”

Isaiah 21:10 O my threshed [people], and my afflicted of the threshing floor! What I have heard from the LORD of hosts, The God of Israel, I make known to you.

Isaiah 21:11 The oracle concerning Edom. One keeps calling to me from Seir, “Watchman, how far gone is the night? Watchman, how far gone is the night?”

Isaiah 21:12 The watchman says, “Morning comes but also night. If you would inquire, inquire; Come back again.”

Isaiah 21:13 The oracle about Arabia. In the thickets of Arabia you must spend the night, O caravans of Dedanites.

Isaiah 21:14 Bring water for the thirsty, O inhabitants of the land of Tema, Meet the fugitive with bread.

Isaiah 21:15 For they have fled from the swords, From the drawn sword, and from the bent bow And from the press of battle.

Isaiah 21:16 For thus the Lord said to me, “In a year, as a hired man would count it, all the splendor of Kedar will terminate;

Isaiah 21:17 and the remainder of the number of bowmen, the mighty men of the sons of Kedar, will be few; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken.”

Isaiah 22:1 The oracle concerning the valley of vision. What is the matter with you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops?

Isaiah 22:2 You who were full of noise, You boisterous town, you exultant city; Your slain were not slain with the sword, Nor did they die in battle.

Isaiah 22:3 All your rulers have fled together, [And] have been captured without the bow; All of you who were found were taken captive together, Though they had fled far away.

Isaiah 22:4 Therefore I say, “Turn your eyes away from me, Let me weep bitterly, Do not try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people.”

Isaiah 22:5 For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of panic, subjugation and confusion In the valley of vision, A breaking down of walls And a crying to the mountain.

Isaiah 22:6 Elam took up the quiver With the chariots, infantry [and] horsemen; And Kir uncovered the shield.

Isaiah 22:7 Then your choicest valleys were full of chariots, And the horsemen took up fixed positions at the gate.

Isaiah 22:8 And He removed the defense of Judah. In that day you depended on the weapons of the house of the forest, Isaiah 22:9 And you saw that the breaches In the [wall] of the city of David were many; And you collected the waters of the lower pool.

Isaiah 22:10 Then you counted the houses of Jerusalem And tore down houses to fortify the wall.

Isaiah 22:11 And you made a reservoir between the two walls For the waters of the old pool. But you did not depend on Him who made it, Nor did you take into consideration Him who planned it long ago.

Isaiah 22:12 Therefore in that day the Lord GOD of hosts called [you] to weeping, to wailing, To shaving the head and to wearing sackcloth.

Isaiah 22:13 Instead, there is gaiety and gladness, Killing of cattle and slaughtering of sheep, Eating of meat and drinking of wine: “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we may die.”

Isaiah 22:14 But the LORD of hosts revealed Himself to me, “Surely this iniquity shall not be forgiven you Until you die,” says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isaiah 22:15 Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, “Come, go to this steward, To Shebna, who is in charge of the [royal] household, Isaiah 22:16 ‘What right do you have here, And whom do you have here, That you have hewn a tomb for yourself here, You who hew a tomb on the height, You who carve a resting place for yourself in the rock?

Isaiah 22:17 ‘Behold, the LORD is about to hurl you headlong, O man. And He is about to grasp you firmly

Isaiah 22:18 [And] roll you tightly like a ball, [To be] [cast] into a vast country; There you will die And there your splendid chariots will be, You shame of your master’s house.’

Isaiah 22:19 “I will depose you from your office, And I will pull you down from your station.

Isaiah 22:20 “Then it will come about in that day, That I will summon My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah,

Isaiah 22:21 And I will clothe him with your tunic And tie your sash securely about him. I will entrust him with your authority, And he will become a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

Isaiah 22:22 “Then I will set the key of the house of David on his shoulder, When he opens no one will shut, When he shuts no one will open.

Isaiah 22:23 “I will drive him [like] a peg in a firm place, And he will become a throne of glory to his father’s house.

Isaiah 22:24 “So they will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, offspring and issue, all the least of vessels, from bowls to all the jars.

Isaiah 22:25 “In that day,” declares the LORD of hosts, “the peg driven in a firm place will give way; it will even break off and fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 23:1 The oracle concerning Tyre. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, For [Tyre] is destroyed, without house [or] harbor; It is reported to them from the land of Cyprus.

Isaiah 23:2 Be silent, you inhabitants of the coastland, You merchants of Sidon; Your messengers crossed the sea

Isaiah 23:3 And [were] on many waters. The grain of the Nile, the harvest of the River was her revenue; And she was the market of nations.

Isaiah 23:4 Be ashamed, O Sidon; For the sea speaks, the stronghold of the sea, saying, “I have neither travailed nor given birth, I have neither brought up young men [nor] reared virgins.”

Isaiah 23:5 When the report [reaches] Egypt, They will be in anguish at the report of Tyre.

Isaiah 23:6 Pass over to Tarshish; Wail, O inhabitants of the coastland.

Isaiah 23:7 Is this your jubilant [city], Whose origin is from antiquity, Whose feet used to carry her to colonize distant places?

Isaiah 23:8 Who has planned this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, Whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?

Isaiah 23:9 The LORD of hosts has planned it, to defile the pride of all beauty, To despise all the honored of the earth.

Isaiah 23:10 Overflow your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish, There is no more restraint.

Isaiah 23:11 He has stretched His hand out over the sea, He has made the kingdoms tremble; The LORD has given a command concerning Canaan to demolish its strongholds.

Isaiah 23:12 He has said, “You shall exult no more, O crushed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Cyprus; even there you will find no rest.”

Isaiah 23:13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans— this is the people [which] was not; Assyria appointed it for desert creatures— they erected their siege towers, they stripped its palaces, they made it a ruin.

Isaiah 23:14 Wail, O ships of Tarshish, For your stronghold is destroyed.

Isaiah 23:15 Now in that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years like the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as [in] the song of the harlot:

Isaiah 23:16 Take [your] harp, walk about the city, O forgotten harlot; Pluck the strings skillfully, sing many songs, That you may be remembered.

Isaiah 23:17 It will come about at the end of seventy years that the LORD will visit Tyre. Then she will go back to her harlot’s wages and will play the harlot with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth.

Isaiah 23:18 Her gain and her harlot’s wages will be set apart to the LORD; it will not be stored up or hoarded, but her gain will become sufficient food and choice attire for those who dwell in the presence of the LORD.

Isaiah 24:1 Behold, the LORD lays the earth waste, devastates it, distorts its surface and scatters its inhabitants.

Isaiah 24:2 And the people will be like the priest, the servant like his master, the maid like her mistress, the buyer like the seller, the lender like the borrower, the creditor like the debtor.

Isaiah 24:3 The earth will be completely laid waste and completely despoiled, for the LORD has spoken this word.

Isaiah 24:4 The earth mourns [and] withers, the world fades [and] withers, the exalted of the people of the earth fade away.

Isaiah 24:5 The earth is also polluted by its inhabitants, for they transgressed laws, violated statutes, broke the everlasting covenant.

Isaiah 24:6 Therefore, a curse devours the earth, and those who live in it are held guilty. Therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men are left.

Isaiah 24:7 The new wine mourns, The vine decays, All the merry-hearted sigh.

Isaiah 24:8 The gaiety of tambourines ceases, The noise of revelers stops, The gaiety of the harp ceases.

Isaiah 24:9 They do not drink wine with song; Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

Isaiah 24:10 The city of chaos is broken down; Every house is shut up so that none may enter.

Isaiah 24:11 There is an outcry in the streets concerning the wine; All joy turns to gloom. The gaiety of the earth is banished.

Isaiah 24:12 Desolation is left in the city And the gate is battered to ruins.

Isaiah 24:13 For thus it will be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, As the shaking of an olive tree, As the gleanings when the grape harvest is over.

Isaiah 24:14 They raise their voices, they shout for joy; They cry out from the west concerning the majesty of the LORD.

Isaiah 24:15 Therefore glorify the LORD in the east, The name of the LORD, the God of Israel, In the coastlands of the sea.

Isaiah 24:16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs, “Glory to the Righteous One,” But I say, “Woe to me! Woe to me! Alas for me! The treacherous deal treacherously, And the treacherous deal very treacherously.”

Isaiah 24:17 Terror and pit and snare Confront you, O inhabitant of the earth.

Isaiah 24:18 Then it will be that he who flees the report of disaster will fall into the pit, And he who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the snare; For the windows above are opened, and the foundations of the earth shake.

Isaiah 24:19 The earth is broken asunder, The earth is split through, The earth is shaken violently.

Isaiah 24:20 The earth reels to and fro like a drunkard And it totters like a shack, For its transgression is heavy upon it, And it will fall, never to rise again.

Isaiah 24:21 So it will happen in that day, That the LORD will punish the host of heaven on high, And the kings of the earth on earth.

Isaiah 24:22 They will be gathered together [Like] prisoners in the dungeon, And will be confined in prison; And after many days they [will] [be] punished.

Isaiah 24:23 Then the moon will be abashed and the sun ashamed, For the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, And [His] glory will be before His elders.

Isaiah 25:1 O LORD, You are my God; I will exalt You, I will give thanks to Your name; For You have worked wonders, Plans [formed] long ago, with perfect faithfulness.

Isaiah 25:2 For You have made a city into a heap, A fortified city into a ruin; A palace of strangers is a city no more, It will never be rebuilt.

Isaiah 25:3 Therefore a strong people will glorify You; Cities of ruthless nations will revere You.

Isaiah 25:4 For You have been a defense for the helpless, A defense for the needy in his distress, A refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat; For the breath of the ruthless Is like a [rain] storm [against] a wall.

Isaiah 25:5 Like heat in drought, You subdue the uproar of aliens; [Like] heat by the shadow of a cloud, the song of the ruthless is silenced.

Isaiah 25:6 The LORD of hosts will prepare a lavish banquet for all peoples on this mountain; A banquet of aged wine, choice pieces with marrow, [And] refined, aged wine.

Isaiah 25:7 And on this mountain He will swallow up the covering which is over all peoples, Even the veil which is stretched over all nations.

Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death for all time, And the Lord GOD will wipe tears away from all faces, And He will remove the reproach of His people from all the earth; For the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 25:9 And it will be said in that day, “Behold, this is our God for whom we have waited that He might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; Let us rejoice and be glad in His salvation.”

Isaiah 25:10 For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain, And Moab will be trodden down in his place As straw is trodden down in the water of a manure pile.

Isaiah 25:11 And he will spread out his hands in the middle of it As a swimmer spreads out [his hands] to swim, But [the Lord] will lay low his pride together with the trickery of his hands.

Isaiah 25:12 The unassailable fortifications of your walls He will bring down, Lay low [and] cast to the ground, even to the dust.

Isaiah 26:1 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: “We have a strong city; He sets up walls and ramparts for security.

Isaiah 26:2 “Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter, The one that remains faithful.

Isaiah 26:3 “The steadfast of mind You will keep in perfect peace, Because he trusts in You.

Isaiah 26:4 “Trust in the LORD forever, For in GOD the LORD, [we have] an everlasting Rock.

Isaiah 26:5 “For He has brought low those who dwell on high, the unassailable city; He lays it low, He lays it low to the ground, He casts it to the dust.

Isaiah 26:6 “The foot will trample it, The feet of the afflicted, the steps of the helpless.”

Isaiah 26:7 The way of the righteous is smooth; O Upright One, make the path of the righteous level.

Isaiah 26:8 Indeed, [while following] the way of Your judgments, O LORD, We have waited for You eagerly; Your name, even Your memory, is the desire of [our] souls.

Isaiah 26:9 At night my soul longs for You, Indeed, my spirit within me seeks You diligently; For when the earth experiences Your judgments The inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

Isaiah 26:10 [Though] the wicked is shown favor, He does not learn righteousness; He deals unjustly in the land of uprightness, And does not perceive the majesty of the LORD.

Isaiah 26:11 O LORD, Your hand is lifted up [yet] they do not see it. They see [Your] zeal for the people and are put to shame; Indeed, fire will devour Your enemies.

Isaiah 26:12 LORD, You will establish peace for us, Since You have also performed for us all our works.

Isaiah 26:13 O LORD our God, other masters besides You have ruled us; [But] through You alone we confess Your name.

Isaiah 26:14 The dead will not live, the departed spirits will not rise; Therefore You have punished and destroyed them, And You have wiped out all remembrance of them.

Isaiah 26:15 You have increased the nation, O LORD, You have increased the nation, You are glorified; You have extended all the borders of the land.

Isaiah 26:16 O LORD, they sought You in distress; They could only whisper a prayer, Your chastening was upon them.

Isaiah 26:17 As the pregnant woman approaches [the time] to give birth, She writhes [and] cries out in her labor pains, Thus were we before You, O LORD.

Isaiah 26:18 We were pregnant, we writhed [in labor], We gave birth, as it seems, [only] to wind. We could not accomplish deliverance for the earth, Nor were inhabitants of the world born.

Isaiah 26:19 Your dead will live; Their corpses will rise. You who lie in the dust, awake and shout for joy, For your dew [is as] the dew of the dawn, And the earth will give birth to the departed spirits.
